Good afternoon,

I'm a producer for "America's News HQ" on Fox News. We've been talking with Governors across the country on how their state has been tackling the pandemic and economic recovery. Would Governor Doug Ducey be available for an interview this weekend to talk about Arizona's response and vaccine rollout plans? Our show airs Saturdays 12-2 PM Eastern with Griff Jenkins and Gillian Turner. On Sundays we go live from 1-2 PM Eastern with Mike Emanuel.

Might either of these dates work for the Governor? Please let me know if you have some time to chat.

Here is an interview with Arkansas Governor last weekend, if you'd like to see how the segment is hosted.

Good Morning CJ

I'm doing a story today on how Arizonans are starting to time out of the UI system because they've hit their 50th week.

I know the Governor has been clear that it's up to the legislature to increase benefits, but would the Governor consider adding time onto how long Arizonans can receive benefits? Most on UI will lose benefits in the next 3 weeks because they've hit the 50 week mark.

Thank you,

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
DOUG DUCEY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
January 26, 2021

Governor Ducey Announces Funding To Help Restaurants Expand Outdoor Seating, Protect Patrons And Staff

PHOENIX — Governor Doug Ducey announced an additional $1 million for a statewide program aimed at helping Arizona restaurants and other dining establishments expand outdoor seating and limit the spread of COVID-19.

"Restaurants throughout the state have expanded outdoor dining to welcome more customers while limiting the spread of COVID-19," said Governor Ducey. "We want to make sure more of our hard-working local restaurants have the opportunity to do the same. Today's funding will help restaurants purchase items like outdoor furniture and barriers so they can safely serve patrons. I'm grateful to the businesses across Arizona working to protect our communities and keep our economy moving forward."

The funding announced today will be directed to pending applications submitted to the Safest Outside Restaurant Assistance Program, launched in December 2020 to support local restaurants.

Governor Ducey announced an initial investment of $1 million for the program on December 2 and an additional $2 million on January 5. The Governor also issued an Executive Order on December 2 easing red tape on outdoor dining, helping restaurants expand seating outdoors on a temporary basis.

Gone West Family Restaurant, located in Page, will receive $10,000 from the additional funding announced today.

"We are thrilled to receive $10,000 from the Governor's Office to expand outdoor dining at our restaurant," said Gone West Family Restaurant owner Lisa Byrd. "Our 11 employees work hard every day to serve customers and ensure all precautions to limit the spread of COVID-19 are being followed — and this funding will support these efforts and help protect our community. Thank you to Governor Ducey and everyone working to support local businesses during the pandemic!"

Funding has been provided to nearly all eligible businesses that have been approved for an extension of premises. To be eligible, applicants must: comply with all COVID-19 related Executive Orders; demonstrate a new extension of premises that has been approved by the local governing body and the Arizona Department of Liquor, if applicable; plan to extend the premises for a minimum of three months; have fewer than 50 employees; be Arizona-owned and-operated, and more.

The $1 million comes from the state's Crisis Contingency and Safety Net Fund, a bipartisan budget agreement signed by the Governor that added $50 million for Arizona's COVID-19 response.

Governor Ducey Announces Funding To Help Restaurants Expand Outdoor Seating, Protect Patrons And Staff

PHOENIX — Governor Doug Ducey announced an additional $1 million for a statewide program aimed at helping Arizona restaurants and other dining establishments expand outdoor seating and limit the spread of COVID-19.

"Restaurants throughout the state have expanded outdoor dining to welcome more customers while limiting the spread of COVID-19," said Governor Ducey. "We want to make sure more of our hard-working local restaurants have the opportunity to do the same. Today's funding will help restaurants purchase items like outdoor furniture and barriers so they can safely serve patrons. I'm grateful to the businesses across Arizona working to protect our communities and keep our economy moving forward."

The funding announced today will be directed to pending applications submitted to the Safest Outside Restaurant Assistance Program, launched in December 2020 to support local restaurants.

Governor Ducey announced an initial investment of $1 million for the program on December 2 and an additional $2 million on January 5. The Governor also issued an Executive Order on December 2 easing red tape on outdoor dining, helping restaurants expand seating outdoors on a temporary basis.

Gone West Family Restaurant, located in Page, will receive $10,000 from the additional funding announced today.

"We are thrilled to receive $10,000 from the Governor's Office to expand outdoor dining at our restaurant," said Gone West Family Restaurant owner Lisa Byrd. "Our 11 employees work hard every day to serve customers and ensure all precautions to limit the spread of COVID-19 are being followed — and this funding will support these efforts and help protect our community. Thank you to Governor Ducey and everyone working to support local businesses during the pandemic!"

Funding has been provided to nearly all eligible businesses that have been approved for an extension of premises. To be eligible, applicants must: comply with all COVID-19 related Executive Orders; demonstrate a new extension of premises that has been approved by the local governing body and the Arizona Department of Liquor, if applicable; plan to extend the premises for a minimum of three months; have fewer than 50 employees; be Arizona-owned and-operated, and more.

The $1 million comes from the state's Crisis Contingency and Safety Net Fund, a bipartisan budget agreement signed by the Governor that added $50 million for Arizona's COVID-19 response.

Hi CJ,

I texted you as well but wanted to make sure you saw this.

Looking to see if the governor has a comment on an unemployment bill getting bipartisan support in the house. Would increase benefits from 240/week max to 300/week max. Would also increase the income cap so someone could now make up to 160/week and still collect. Current cap is 30.

It's being spearheaded by Rep David Cook and Rep Mitzi Epstein.

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
DOUG DUCEY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 10, 2021

MILESTONE: Arizona Hits One Million Doses

PHOENIX — Governor Doug Ducey is applauding the hard work of Arizona's medical professionals, volunteers and frontline workers as the state reaches one million vaccine doses administered today.

"We've reached a major milestone with our one millionth dose," said Governor Ducey. "The dedication and hard work of many made this accomplishment possible. Nurses, doctors, health technicians, support staff, volunteers to each and every one of you, thank you."

"But there's more work to be done," Governor Ducey added. "Arizonans are eager to get the vaccine, and we're committed to distributing it safely and efficiently. We will continue to work with our private and public partners to quickly distribute the vaccine, and with the federal government to secure the doses we need to protect Arizona."

Due to the large number of vaccines administered every day by the state, Arizona's 15 counties and private health care providers, the one millionth person to receive the vaccine cannot be determined. Latest numbers from the Arizona Department of Health Services (ADHS) show Arizona has administered 996,699 doses, and the one millionth dose will be administered today based on the reported number of Arizonans vaccinated each day.

ADHS Director Dr. Cara Christ said that administering a million doses of the vaccine in less than two months is a testament to the private public partnerships that have come together in our fight against COVID-19.

"At the Arizona Department of Health Services, we're working to administer the vaccine quickly," said Dr. Christ. "We are thrilled to reach one million doses administered, and we will continue to get Arizonans vaccinated so we can protect our vulnerable populations. Thank you to all of our partners who are working tirelessly to get the vaccine into Arizonans' arms."

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

On December 14, Arizona received its first shipment of COVID-19 vaccine doses. That same week, distribution of the vaccine began in the state's largest population centers, Maricopa and Pima Counties.

On December 30, Governor Ducey issued an Executive Order to rapidly expand access to the COVID-19 vaccine by streamlining distribution throughout Arizona and establishing additional vaccination sites.

On January 11, Arizona opened a state-run vaccination site at the State Farm Stadium that operates 24/7. The site has administered 186,489 since opening. Additionally, President Biden and Vice President Harris praised the work being done at the site during a virtual tour earlier this week. On February 1, the state opened another site at Phoenix Municipal Stadium. The site has administered 17,572 to date.

On January 26, the Governor issued an Executive Order to accelerate the statewide distribution of the COVID-19 vaccine and move doses of vaccine to where they can be rapidly administered to Arizonans.

Earlier this month, the Governor sent a letter to members of Arizona's congressional delegation to request help in meeting the urgent need for additional supplies of the COVID-19 vaccine and secure funding for its distribution. The State of Arizona recently requested an additional 300,000 doses of the life-saving vaccine, and an additional 300,000 doses a week. The request was denied.

Today, Governor Ducey and ADHS announced a partnership with the University of Arizona and the Pima County Health Department to operate a state vaccination site on the university's mall area on central Tucson campus.

Hi CJ

Looking to get a comment on this.

Last week, the Harvard Kennedy School released a state report card on Covid/Vaccine response for Massachusetts. It's graded on a curve comparing all 50 states.

They only released a few states grades though so I asked them to calculate Arizona's grades.

Here's what the researchers sent:

- Overall Grade: C
- Deaths Per Capita: F (42nd)
- Vaccinations as % Doses Available: D (35th)
- Vaccinations Per Capita: C (21st)
  - Note: this is for population aged 18+
- Time to Vaccinate All Eligible: C (22nd)

https://www.belfercenter.org/publication/massachusetts-vaccine-report-card

I reached out to DES as well but wanted to get the Governors response to the report card.

Thank you

Hi Ben,

Hope your week is going well. We are very keen to speak with Governor Doug Ducey on the Biden Administration's immigration and economic recovery policies— and its impact on Arizona. Checking back to see if this Saturday between 12-2 PM Eastern or Sunday in the 1 PM Eastern hour might work for an interview with the Governor.

Our host Griff Jenkins has reported from the border many times and spoken with officials, including Yuma Mayor Douglas Nicholls, about the situation on the ground. I think it would be a good and very informative discussion with Griff on Saturday. We have our Chief Congressional Correspondent Mike Emanuel hosting the show on Sunday, if that times works better. He could dive a little bit more on what policies out of Washington means for border communities. This would be about a 5-6 minute conversation, which we could take from a remote studio or via Skype. Happy to chat more any time today or tomorrow.

Thanks and hope to have the Governor with us soon!

Best,
Vandana

Good Morning CJ,

A couple of quick questions of inmate clemency for a story I'm working on.

How many clemencies has the Governor signed off on since he first took office?

How many inmates have been approved by the executive board of clemency but still await a potential signature from the Governor?

As the prison system continues to skew older and older and more expensive because of prisoner medical needs, does the governor believe more medical clemencies should be granted?

What are some of the concerns the Governor has in granting medical clemency?

Thanks as always for your time CJ,

Hi Ben,

We'd like to talk about how the state is opening up its economy. Plus, immigration reform. Griff Jenkins would be hosting the discussion on Saturday between 12-2p Eastern. Would it be possible to slate a time for a discussion? Thanks and happy to chat more.
Also- we have a new show look and name! We are now Fox News Live.

Good Morning CJ,

A couple of quick questions of inmate clemency for a story I'm working on.

How many clemencies has the Governor signed off on since he first took office?

How many inmates have been approved by the executive board of clemency but still await a potential signature from the Governor?

As the prison system continues to skew older and older and more expensive because of prisoner medical needs, does the governor believe more medical clemencies should be granted?

What are some of the concerns the Governor has in granting medical clemency?

Thanks as always for your time CJ,

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 10, 2021

MILESTONE: Arizona Hits One Million Doses

PHOENIX — Governor Doug Ducey is applauding the hard work of Arizona's medical professionals, volunteers and frontline workers as the state reaches one million vaccine doses administered today.

"We've reached a major milestone with our one millionth dose," said Governor Ducey. "The dedication and hard work of many made this accomplishment possible. Nurses, doctors, health technicians, support staff, volunteers to each and every one of you, thank you."

"But there's more work to be done," Governor Ducey added. "Arizonans are eager to get the vaccine, and we're committed to distributing it safely and efficiently. We will continue to work with our private and public partners to quickly distribute the vaccine, and with the federal government to secure the doses we need to protect Arizona."

Due to the large number of vaccines administered every day by the state, Arizona's 15 counties and private health care providers, the one millionth person to receive the vaccine cannot be determined. Latest numbers from the Arizona Department of Health Services (ADHS) show Arizona has administered 996,699 doses, and the one millionth dose will be administered today based on the reported number of Arizonans vaccinated each day.

ADHS Director Dr. Cara Christ said that administering a million doses of the vaccine in less than two months is a testament to the private public partnerships that have come together in our fight against COVID-19.

"At the Arizona Department of Health Services, we're working to administer the vaccine quickly," said Dr. Christ. "We are thrilled to reach one million doses administered, and we will continue to get Arizonans vaccinated so we can protect our vulnerable populations. Thank you to all of our partners who are working tirelessly to get the vaccine into Arizonans' arms."

On December 14, Arizona received its first shipment of COVID-19 vaccine doses. That same week, distribution of the vaccine began in the state's largest population centers, Maricopa and Pima Counties.

On December 30, Governor Ducey issued an Executive Order to rapidly expand access to the COVID-19 vaccine by streamlining distribution throughout Arizona and establishing additional vaccination sites.

On January 11, Arizona opened a state-run vaccination site at the State Farm Stadium that operates 24/7. The site has administered 186,489 since opening. Additionally, President Biden and Vice President Harris praised the work being done at the site during a virtual tour earlier this week. On February 1, the state opened another site at Phoenix Municipal Stadium. The site has administered 17,572 to date.

On January 26, the Governor issued an Executive Order to accelerate the statewide distribution of the COVID-19 vaccine and move doses of vaccine to where they can be rapidly administered to Arizonans.

Earlier this month, the Governor sent a letter to members of Arizona's congressional delegation to request help in meeting the urgent need for additional supplies of the COVID-19 vaccine and secure funding for its distribution. The State of Arizona recently requested an additional 300,000 doses of the life-saving vaccine, and an additional 300,000 doses a week. The request was denied.

Today, Governor Ducey and ADHS announced a partnership with the University of Arizona and the Pima County Health Department to operate a state vaccination site on the university's mall area on central Tucson campus.

Good afternoon CJ,

Ryan Tillman with Fox News Channel here. I wanted to see if Governor Ducey could join Bill and Dana tomorrow on America's Newsroom to discuss the joint lawsuit led by Missouri's attorney general.

We know Biden's recent executive order focused on climate and energy will have an impact on Arizona's manufacturing and agriculture industries, and we'd like to have the Governor share his thoughts and why the state is joining in action against Biden's order.

Might he be available in the 9am EST hour tomorrow?

I hope all is well and you're having a great week so far!

I was wondering if Governor Ducey would be able to either talk with us in person, or give a statement on how he feels about the Arizona GOP trying to change the way voting is done in Arizona?

Good Morning CJ,

A couple of quick questions of inmate clemency for a story I'm working on.

How many clemencies has the Governor signed off on since he first took office?

How many inmates have been approved by the executive board of clemency but still await a potential signature from the Governor?

As the prison system continues to skew older and older and more expensive because of prisoner medical needs, does the governor believe more medical clemencies should be granted?

What are some of the concerns the Governor has in granting medical clemency?

Thanks as always for your time CJ,

Hello,

We'll be continuing our discussion about the situation on the ground at the southern border this Saturday between 12-2p Eastern. Our Griff Jenkins will be at the border to talk with officials and take interviews. We'd appreciate the opportunity to speak with Governor Ducey about the crisis and how it might impact Arizona. Would the Governor have some time during our show hours to chat with us? We could take the interview via Skype or from a studio that works best for him.

Hi Ben,

Circling back to see if we could pencil in a time to speak with Governor Ducey this weekend? We'll be speaking with Senators traveling to the region this weekend as well. We'd like to look at the situation on the ground, Biden immigration policies and its impact to border states.

Might we be able to slate a time for a discussion either Saturday between 12-2p Eastern or Sunday in the 1p Eastern hour?

Thanks,
Vandana

Thank you for the request! Apologies, the governor does not have availability for an interview this weekend - however, please feel free to reach out again in the future.

Thank you,

Our Griff Jenkins will be at the border to talk with officials and take interviews. We'd appreciate the opportunity to speak with Governor Ducey about the crisis and how it might impact Arizona. Would the Governor have some time during our show hours to chat with us? We could take the interview via Skype or from a studio that works best for him.

We'd like to talk about how the state is opening up its economy. Plus, immigration reform. Griff Jenkins would be hosting the discussion on Saturday between 12-2p Eastern. Would it be possible to slate a time for a discussion? Thanks and happy to chat more.
Also- we have a new show look and name! We are now Fox News Live.

Because of the governor's obligations to the state, he could, of necessity, be called away at any time. In the event the governor must miss your event, you will be notified as quickly as possible.

Dear Mr. Karamargin and Mr. Scarpinato,

My name is Julia Musto. I am a reporter for Fox News and Fox Business Digital.

I had the pleasure of covering your great state during the 2020 election.

I'm writing to you today to request a comment regarding Gov. Ducey's latest COVID-19 restriction rollbacks.

I've seen the release, the EO and the governor's tweets, but I was hoping you could provide a statement for our readership further explaining this move and respond to others like Secretary of State Katie Hobbs and Rep. Cesar Chavez who argue relaxing guidelines now could counteract any progress in decreasing transmission of the virus as mutations spread around the country. Or, that Gov. Ducey is "caving" to political pressure.

How is the governor working with health officials to make sure this doesn't backfire and – additionally -- what will it mean for struggling businesses and workers? How will vaccination play a role here?

I am on a bit of a deadline. We're hoping to get something up on the site in the next hour or two.

I really appreciate your time and assistance in this matter. I look forward to hearing from you.

Best,
Julia

Hey, guys. Following our visit to Douglas last week, Gov. Ducey had a productive conversation this morning with DHS Secretary Mayorkas. The governor tweeted about their discussion afterwards. The thread is below. We'll let you when we get a response. By way of background, the governor sent a letter to Mayorkas on Feb. 17.

CJ

https://twitter.com/dougducey/status/1375476634228060160

We need to resolve the issues at the border before they get even worse, and Arizona is ready to partner with the federal government to strengthen our borders and improve our immigration system. I spoke to @SecMayorkas this morning about our concerns and solutions. 1/

Our sheriffs need help. Our mayors need help. Border patrol needs help. And we have a real opportunity to partner to ensure additional boots on the ground are available to manage this crisis. 2/

In Arizona, we've previously deployed the National Guard to the border to support law enforcement. I've requested federal reimbursement for deployment, so we can do it again and get this crisis under control. 3/3

Good morning,
I'm checking in confirm your team is able to reschedule this interview with Governor Ducey for tomorrow – Wednesday, March 31st.
Daniel and I spoke about this yesterday, after the show unfortunately didn't make air because of breaking news.
We'd love to have the Governor on tomorrow, and all of the details would be the same – 11:00am EST hit via Skype.
Please let me know as soon as you can if this works!

Colin,

I'm removing staff while we confirm schedules. Are we looking at the same time (8:45am PT) for April 2nd?

Thank you,
Laura C. Raymond
Director of Scheduling for Governor Ducey & Sr. Personal Assistant to Daniel Scarpinato
Office of the Arizona Governor Doug Ducey

As you may be aware, Governor Ducey's schedule changes frequently and, at times, virtually at the last minute. Because of the governor's obligations to the state, he could, of necessity, be called away at any time. In the event the governor must miss your event, you will be notified as quickly as possible.

Hi Colin,

Great, looking forward to it on Friday. Would it be possible to set up a studio now for the governor to pre-tape at that time? There's one nearby we used most recently:

Broadway Digital Phoenix
Lazarus Building
420 W Roosevelt Street, Suite 107
Phoenix, AZ 85003

Also, do you know how long the segment is?

Thanks,
Ben

And sorry, adding on:

We actually tape from 11:45am to 1pm ET, which I believe is 8:45am to 10am MT, so we could do 8:45am your time, or any time in that window.

But of course if 7:30am MT is the only time that works for you, let me know and we'll figure something out.

Colin,

Daniel Scarpinato asked me to reach out to you regarding your request for an interview w/ Governor Ducey and Paul Gigot for tomorrow, March 26th at 7:30am AZ Time. I wanted to let you know that we're checking to see if we can make this time work for the Governor's schedule and will get back to you as soon as possible.

Thank you,

As you may be aware, Governor Ducey's schedule changes frequently and, at times, virtually at the last minute. Because of the governor's obligations to the state, he could, of necessity, be called away at any time. In the event the governor must miss your event, you will be notified as quickly as possible.

Hey good afternoon,

I am reaching out to see if there's any statement from the Governor on the letter from CPL -

https://www.cpline.org/news/disenfranchising-voters-is-not-election-reform-2/

A number of CEO's signed on to it opposing senate bills 1486, 1593, 1713 - including Cardinals owner Michael Bidwill, who the Governor is tight with.

Anything from the Governor on this and/or the MLB's decision to relocate events from Georgia and Texas' decision to not do business with the MLB?

Thanks,
Matt

Hi Kyra,

Thank you for the request!

Apologies, the governor is not available for an interview at that time tomorrow. However, we're expecting him to be on the East Coast next week and we may have some time. A member of our team may follow up closer to then.

Also - please feel free to reach out to us any time in the future. The best place to email us is communications@az.gov.

Thanks,
Ben

Subject: Time sensitive: Newsmax interview on gun rights

Hi CJ,

My name is Alicia Hesse and I'm a TV Booker at Newsmax. We would love to offer Gov. Ducey extended time TONIGHT to delve into what is happening to gun rights under President Biden, help make sense of the Executive Orders on gun control, and to discuss his bill to defy any new federal gun control laws. The show is live from 10-11pm ET, but we can also pre-tape at 5p, 7:30p, or 9pm ET. We can do this via Skype, Zoom, or satellite studio. Please let me know if you would like to explore this opportunity further. Please text/call me ASAP if interested: (201) 572-1273

- Gov. Brian Kemp: https://www.dropbox.com/s/carfzc1254mh15n/Gov%20Kemp.mp4?dl=0
- Sen. Tom Cotton https://www.newsmax.com/newsmax-tv/tom-cotton-open-borders-amnesty-crisis/2021/03/04/id/1012575/

Not only is Newsmax the 2nd largest conservative cable network reaching more than 150K homes nationwide when you factor in all of the OTT platforms (e.g. Roku, AppleTV, Pluto). We are pulling in 4 million unique viewers who aren't watching Fox News, and 2 million viewers who aren't watching any of the other mainstream media outlets. What's more, Newsmax really is the people's network as we are the only cable TV outlet that is not behind a paywall.

Warmly,

Alicia Hesse

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
DOUG DUCEY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 10, 2021

MILESTONE: Arizona Hits One Million Doses

PHOENIX — Governor Doug Ducey is applauding the hard work of Arizona's medical professionals, volunteers and frontline workers as the state reaches one million vaccine doses administered today.

"We've reached a major milestone with our one millionth dose," said Governor Ducey. "The dedication and hard work of many made this accomplishment possible. Nurses, doctors, health technicians, support staff, volunteers to each and every one of you, thank you."

"But there's more work to be done," Governor Ducey added. "Arizonans are eager to get the vaccine, and we're committed to distributing it safely and efficiently. We will continue to work with our private and public partners to quickly distribute the vaccine, and with the federal government to secure the doses we need to protect Arizona."

Due to the large number of vaccines administered every day by the state, Arizona's 15 counties and private health care providers, the one millionth person to receive the vaccine cannot be determined. Latest numbers from the Arizona Department of Health Services (ADHS) show Arizona has administered 996,699 doses, and the one millionth dose will be administered today based on the reported number of Arizonans vaccinated each day.

ADHS Director Dr. Cara Christ said that administering a million doses of the vaccine in less than two months is a testament to the private public partnerships that have come together in our fight against COVID-19.

"At the Arizona Department of Health Services, we're working to administer the vaccine quickly," said Dr. Christ. "We are thrilled to reach one million doses administered, and we will continue to get Arizonans vaccinated so we can protect our vulnerable populations. Thank you to all of our partners who are working tirelessly to get the vaccine into Arizonans' arms."

On December 14, Arizona received its first shipment of COVID-19 vaccine doses. That same week, distribution of the vaccine began in the state's largest population centers, Maricopa and Pima Counties.

On December 30, Governor Ducey issued an Executive Order to rapidly expand Arizona's the COVID-19 vaccine by streamlining distribution throughout Arizona and establishing additional vaccination sites.

On January 11, Arizona opened a state-run vaccination site at the State Farm Stadium that operates 24/7. The site has administered 186,489 since opening. Additionally, President Biden and Vice President Harris praised the work being done at the site during a virtual tour earlier this week. On February 1, the state opened another site at Phoenix Municipal Stadium. The site has administered 17,572 to date.

On January 26, the Governor issued an Executive Order to accelerate the statewide distribution of the COVID-19 vaccine and move doses of vaccine to where they can be rapidly administered to Arizonans.

Earlier this month, the Governor sent a letter to members of Arizona's congressional delegation to request help in meeting the urgent need for additional supplies of the COVID-19 vaccine and secure funding for its distribution. The State of Arizona recently requested an additional 300,000 doses of the life-saving vaccine, and an additional 300,000 doses a week. The request was denied.

Today, Governor Ducey and ADHS announced a partnership with the University of Arizona and the Pima County Health Department to operate a state vaccination site on the university's mall area on central Tucson campus.

continue to get Arizonans vaccinated so we can protect our vulnerable populations. Thank you to all of our partners who are working tirelessly to get the vaccine into Arizonans' arms."

On December 14, Arizona received its first shipment of COVID-19 vaccine doses. That same week, distribution of the vaccine began in the state's largest population centers, Maricopa and Pima Counties.

On December 30, Governor Ducey issued an Executive Order to rapidly expand access to the COVID-19 vaccine by streamlining distribution throughout Arizona and establishing additional vaccination sites.

On January 11, Arizona opened a state-run vaccination site at the State Farm Stadium that operates 24/7. The site has administered 186,489 since opening. Additionally, President Biden and Vice President Harris praised the work being done at the site during a virtual tour earlier this week. On February 1, the state opened another site at Phoenix Municipal Stadium. The site has administered 17,572 to date.

On January 26, the Governor issued an Executive Order to accelerate the statewide distribution of the COVID-19 vaccine and move doses of vaccine to where they can be rapidly administered to Arizonans.

Earlier this month, the Governor sent a letter to members of Arizona's congressional delegation to request help in meeting the urgent need for additional supplies of the COVID-19 vaccine and secure funding for its distribution. The State of Arizona recently requested an additional 300,000 doses of the life-saving vaccine, and an additional 300,000 doses a week. The request was denied.

Today, Governor Ducey and ADHS announced a partnership with the University of Arizona and the Pima County Health Department to operate a state vaccination site on the university's mall area on central Tucson campus.

GAMING COMPACT AND BILL SIGNING
HEARD MUSUEM PHOENIX
Remarks As Prepared For Delivery
4/15/21

Welcome everyone to this special occasion in Arizona's history. Thank you all for being here today. To begin, I would like to introduce Councilman Francisco Valencia of the Pascua Yaqui Tribe, who will give an invocation.

Thank you, Councilman. We're here at the Heard Museum — a location of great significance which honors and celebrates the stories of tribal nations and community members. The tribal nations and the state have a deep history here in Arizona.

We've accomplished a lot together. And today, one achievement in particular stands out to me. It was nearly 30 years ago, in 1992, when Arizona's FIRST tribal-state gaming compacts were entered. And then, ten years later, Arizona voters approved authorizing the continuation of tribal gaming with the passage of Prop 202.

Since then, all 22 federally recognized tribal nations in Arizona have entered into compacts with the state, establishing a relationship that has been mutually beneficial to the tribes and the State as a whole. And today, we mark a new continuation of this storied partnership.

Earlier this week, Arizona passed legislation that modernizes gaming in Arizona and provides additional revenues for Arizona and tribal nations. Arizona's gaming compact has been updated multiple times, but this represents the most significant changes in almost two decades — a truly historic event.

It's significant because it wasn't a result of court challenges and orders, but of the hard work of those represented at this table, their councils, gaming committees, staff, and lawmakers on BOTH SIDES of the aisle. Don't let ANYONE tell you getting here was easy. And certainly, many said today would NEVER happen. The compact amendments and the associated legislation took over five years to negotiate and get to the point where we are right now. During those five years, and a looming expiration of the 2003 compacts, the tribal nations sought certainty in order to plan for the future.

The agreement reached results in a modern compact that is forward-looking and provides certainty while preserving the culture of our state and generating more revenue for the tribes and our state budget. It's no question that Arizona has grown and changed significantly since the last major compact update in 2003. It's important that we account for these changes in our policies and our compacts. This signing today is a reflection of that.

I can't overstate the impact that the amended compact and its associated legislation will have on our state. Across Arizona, gaming employs thousands of Arizonans – many of whom contribute to enhancing opportunities in food service, hospitality, and tourism.

And it generates millions in tax revenue for state and local governments, which: Provides K-12 funding, to give our kids an exceptional education; Helps protect Arizona's land by funding wildlife and habitat conservation; AND helps fund mental health and substance abuse treatment centers, to ensure all Arizonans get the care they need. As of last December, there has been nearly $1.5 billion in total tribal contributions to the state, counties, cities, and towns since the original compacts were signed.

On top of that, gaming facilities provide tribes with funding sources that ensure self-sufficiency by supporting tribal education, health care, housing, and other basic services such as clean water. Most importantly, it provides resources for education, prevention, and treatment of problem gambling, to ensure that the risks don't outweigh the benefits. In other words, this compact amendment and its associated legislation continues and builds on the successes that the tribal-state partnership on gaming has provided for decades. And it does so by maintaining a limited, well-regulated gaming culture in Arizona. It's a win-win-win: For the tribes. For the state. And for the taxpayers.

Getting here took a lot of work and was not guaranteed. Today's signing is the culmination of years of discussions and engagement among many diverse stakeholders: tribal communities both rural and urban, gaming industry partners, and more.

We did it by bringing everyone to the table, pushing individual agendas aside, and putting Arizona first. The legislation associated with the compact amendment is a historic, bipartisan achievement. I want to thank all stakeholders involved for their work.
Let's give a hand to the tribal leaders here today.

I also want to recognize: President Karen Fann; Speaker Rusty Bowers; Leader Rebecca Rios; Leader Reginald Bolding; Assistant Leader Lupe Contreras; Senator TJ Shope; AND Representative Jeff Weninger. This would not have gotten done without your leadership and participation.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

With this significant bipartisan achievement, all these individuals have earned their place in the history books among those great Arizona leaders of the past who put Arizona ahead of partisanship. Thank you all for your efforts to move this legislation across the finish line. Let's give all our legislators a hand.

And lastly, I want to recognize all my staff – past and present – who have worked long hours, day after day, to see this through to the end.

There's one man in particular who I know has logged considerable hours, and that's Kirk Adams. Kirk started working on this while he was my Chief of Staff, and he continued working on it even after he left our office. It's fair to say this day and this ceremony would not be occurring without the efforts of Kirk and every single member of my staff.
Let's give a round of applause to all our dedicated public servants.

Now, I'd like to introduce Governor Stephen Lewis of the Gila River Indian Community, to share his thoughts on the importance of this compact amendment. Thank you for all your hard work, Governor. You have been an invaluable partner throughout this process, and I'm grateful for all your efforts. I'll hand it over to you.

Thank you, Governor. I'm grateful for your leadership. I'd now like to introduce Chairman Damon Clarke of the Hualapai Tribe. Thank you, Chairman, for all your work on this amendment and the accompanying legislation. You've worked tirelessly to get us to where we are. I'll hand it over to you.

Thank you, Chairman, and thank you for all your hard work. Today, as tribal-state partners, we cement this new chapter of tribal-state gaming into Arizona state history. Thank you. Now let's sign this bill and seal the deal by signing the compact amendments.

This is a historic day for tribal nations, their communities, and the entire state of Arizona. I'm excited to see what we accomplish together next. At this time, I would like to turn it over to Councilman Francisco Valencia to provide our closing prayer.

Hello CJ,
John Hook would like to invite Gov. Ducey to be a guest on his Newsmaker program next week. The topic has now shifted to the sports betting compact that the governor signed into law today. We could tape any weekday next week between 2pm and about 3:15 (start time). It will be a recorded zoom, not live, and it would air on Saturday April 24.
Thank you ,

Hello Ben,
With all the progress in the vaccine distribution and other accomplishments would Governor Ducey like to be a guest on Hook's Newsmaker program next week? We could tape it any weekday at 2pm or 2:30. Also, we could send a photog to the governor to do the talkback.
Thanks again,

We will continue to work with our private and public partners to quickly distribute the vaccine, and with the federal government to secure the doses we need to protect Arizona."

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Due to the large number of vaccines administered every day by the state, Arizona's 15 counties and private health care providers, the one millionth person to receive the vaccine cannot be determined. Latest numbers from the Arizona Department of Health Services (ADHS) show Arizona has administered 996,699 doses, and the one millionth dose will be administered today based on the reported number of Arizonans vaccinated each day.

ADHS Director Dr. Cara Christ said that administering a million doses of the vaccine in less than two months is a testament to the private public partnerships that have come together in our fight against COVID-19.

"At the Arizona Department of Health Services, we're working to administer the vaccine quickly," said Dr. Christ. "We are thrilled to reach one million doses administered, and we will continue to get Arizonans vaccinated so we can protect our vulnerable populations. Thank you to all of our partners who are working tirelessly to get the vaccine into Arizonans' arms."

On December 14, Arizona received its first shipment of COVID-19 vaccine doses. That same week, distribution of the vaccine began in the state's largest population centers, Maricopa and Pima Counties.

On December 30, Governor Ducey issued an Executive Order to rapidly expand access to the COVID-19 vaccine by streamlining distribution throughout Arizona and establishing additional vaccination sites.

On January 11, Arizona opened a state-run vaccination site at the State Farm Stadium that operates 24/7. The site has administered 186,489 since opening. Additionally, President Biden and Vice President Harris praised the work being done at the site during a virtual tour earlier this week. On February 1, the state opened another site at Phoenix Municipal Stadium. The site has administered 17,572 to date.

On January 26, the Governor issued an Executive Order to accelerate the statewide distribution of the COVID-19 vaccine and move doses of vaccine to where they can be rapidly administered to Arizonans.

Earlier this month, the Governor sent a letter to members of Arizona's congressional delegation to request help in meeting the urgent need for additional supplies of the COVID-19 vaccine and secure funding for its distribution. The State of Arizona recently requested an additional 300,000 doses of the life-saving vaccine, and an additional 300,000 doses a week. The request was denied.

Today, Governor Ducey and ADHS announced a partnership with the University of Arizona and the Pima County Health Department to operate a state vaccination site on the university's mall area on central Tucson campus.

Hello Office of Communications for Gov. Doug Ducey,
We noted that in the governor's press release it says that "In alignment with Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) guidance, Governor Doug Ducey and the Arizona Department of Health Services today rescinded orders that direct K-12 schools to require masks.

.. however the CDC still lists mask recommendations as a way to mitigate the spread.

It looks like they last updated on March 19, Operational Strategy for K-12 Schools through Phased Prevention | CDC,

The health and safety of Arizona kids and teachers remains a priority. We know that transmission is low among youth, and Arizona was among the first states to prioritize vaccinating teachers. This executive order and emergency measure ensures schools are able to make their own decisions around mask requirements, depending on the needs of their community, in alignment with CDC guidance.

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
DOUG DUCEY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
April 20, 2021

Governor Ducey Deploys Arizona National Guard To Border

Governor Issues Declaration Of Emergency

PHOENIX — Governor Doug Ducey issues a Declaration of Emergency and announced he is deploying the Arizona National Guard to the state's southern border to support local law enforcement efforts as the nation experiences a rapid increase in apprehensions and migrant children in federal custody.

The State will provide up to $25 million in initial funding for the mission.

"The situation in our border communities is just as bad—if not worse—than the coverage we've been seeing," the Governor stated. "It's become evidently clear that Arizona needs the National Guard, and the White House is aware of that. Yet, to this day, there has been no action from this administration, and it doesn't look like they are going to act any time soon. If this administration isn't going to do anything, then we will."

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Under the leadership of the newly appointed Adjutant General and Director of the Arizona Department of Emergency and Military Affairs Brigadier General Kerry L. Muehlenbeck, up to 250 Guardsmen will go to border communities and will be available to support other law enforcement agencies, like state troopers. The Arizona National Guard will:

- Assist with medical operations in detention centers;
- Install and maintaining border cameras;
- Monitor and collect data from public safety cameras; and
- Analyze satellite imagery for current trends in smuggling corridors.

"The dedicated members of the Arizona National Guard stand ready to support our local law enforcement partners as they address border security, just like we have done for many years when called upon," said Brigadier General Kerry L. Muehlenbeck. "Our guard members will tackle a wide range of tasks including medical operations, camera maintenance and monitoring, data analysis, and logistics and administrative support to local sheriffs. I am proud of the men and women of the Arizona National Guard for their commitment to serving and protecting our state, all while they balance federal requirements and full-time civilian commitments. I am grateful for all they do to keep Arizonans safe and for the many employers who continue to support them."

U.S. Customs & Border Protection in March had more than 170,000 apprehensions at the Southwest border. Nearly 19,000 of those apprehensions were unaccompanied children — more than four times the number of kids apprehended in March 2020.

"The crisis at the border is serious and cannot be taken lightly," said Yuma County Sheriff Leon Wilmot. "The Arizona National Guard will provide much-needed support to our officers and safety officials, and will help ensure Yuma and other border communities are further protected from dangerous and illegal activity. By deploying National Guard assets, the Governor will allow me to deploy more first responders to mission critical tasks where we will work side by side with our federal partners to target, apprehend and prosecute transnational criminal organizations. My thanks to the Governor for taking action to protect Arizonans, law enforcement and legal immigration."

Governor Ducey will visit Yuma County tomorrow, April 21, to get more details from community leaders and law enforcement officials about what they're seeing on the ground.

"The federal government's actions have made the border less secure. This threatens the safety of our communities and law enforcement," said Cochise County Sheriff Mark Dannels. "Border towns and officers need support as the crisis at the border escalates. I'm grateful to Governor Ducey for taking action and sending the National Guard to help. We welcome immigrants with open arms — but it needs to be done legally and orderly to ensure we are protecting our communities, state, and nation."

Last month, the Governor traveled to Douglas, Arizona to meet with Sheriff Dannels and other safety officials and get a first-hand view of the security and humanitarian situation at the U.S.-Mexico border. After taking an aerial border tour, the Governor received a briefing and held a press conference and a border security roundtable.

"The issues at the border affect the whole state, to include Maricopa County," said Maricopa County Sheriff Paul Penzone. "The availability of Arizona National Guard resources in support of law enforcement demands is an asset for our depleted resources. I appreciate Governor Ducey's commitment to law enforcement organizations."

"The security of Arizona and our residents is our first priority," said Senate President Karen Fann. "Illegal crossings put our border towns, safety personnel and all Arizonans at risk, but also the immigrants who are facing unsafe conditions as they cross into the state. My thanks to Governor Ducey for taking this initiative to safeguard our state and protect our communities."

"We need to uphold the law when it comes to immigration," said House Speaker Rusty Bowers. "The National Guard will help support law enforcement and security officials working hard at the border, and it helps combat the Democrats' misguided message that crossing the border illegally is acceptable. I strongly support this action by Governor Ducey, as it's the right decision, and I appreciate his quick response to this crisis."

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Governor Ducey Deploys Arizona National Guard To Border

Governor Issues Declaration Of Emergency

PHOENIX — Governor Doug Ducey issues a Declaration of Emergency and announced he is deploying the Arizona National Guard to the state's southern border to support local law enforcement efforts as the nation experiences a rapid increase in apprehensions and migrant children in federal custody.

The State will provide up to $25 million in initial funding for the mission.

"The situation in our border communities is just as bad—if not worse—than the coverage we've been seeing," the Governor stated. "It's become evidently clear that Arizona needs the National Guard, and the White House is aware of that. Yet, to this day, there has been no action from this administration, and it doesn't look like they are going to act any time soon. If this administration isn't going to do anything, then we will."

Under the leadership of the newly appointed Adjutant General and Director of the Arizona Department of Emergency and Military Affairs Brigadier General Kerry L. Muehlenbeck, up to 250 Guardsmen will go to border communities and will be available to support other law enforcement agencies, like state troopers. The Arizona National Guard will:

- Assist with medical operations in detention centers;
- Install and maintaining border cameras;
- Monitor and collect data from public safety cameras; and

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

- Analyze satellite imagery for current trends in smuggling corridors.

"The dedicated members of the Arizona National Guard stand ready to support our local law enforcement partners as they address border security, just like we have done for many years when called upon," said Brigadier General Kerry L. Muehlenbeck. "Our guard members will tackle a wide range of tasks including medical operations, camera maintenance and monitoring, data analysis, and logistics and administrative support to local sheriffs. I am proud of the men and women of the Arizona National Guard for their commitment to serving and protecting our state, all while they balance federal requirements and full-time civilian commitments. I am grateful for all they do to keep Arizonans safe and for the many employers who continue to support them."

U.S. Customs & Border Protection in March had more than 170,000 apprehensions at the Southwest border. Nearly 19,000 of those apprehensions were unaccompanied children — more than four times the number of kids apprehended in March 2020.

"The crisis at the border is serious and cannot be taken lightly," said Yuma County Sheriff Leon Wilmot. "The Arizona National Guard will provide much-needed support to our officers and safety officials, and will help ensure Yuma and other border communities are further protected from dangerous and illegal activity. By deploying National Guard assets, the Governor will allow me to deploy more first responders to mission critical tasks where we will work side by side with our federal partners to target, apprehend and prosecute transnational criminal organizations. My thanks to the Governor for taking action to protect Arizonans, law enforcement and legal immigration."

Governor Ducey will visit Yuma County tomorrow, April 21, to get more details from community leaders and law enforcement officials about what they're seeing on the ground.

"The federal government's actions have made the border less secure. This threatens the safety of our communities and law enforcement," said Cochise County Sheriff Mark Dannels. "Border towns and officers need support as the crisis at the border escalates. I'm grateful to Governor Ducey for taking action and sending the National Guard to help. We welcome immigrants with open arms — but it needs to be done legally and orderly to ensure we are protecting our communities, state, and nation."

Last month, the Governor traveled to Douglas, Arizona to meet with Sheriff Dannels and other safety officials and get a first-hand view of the security and humanitarian situation at the U.S.-Mexico border. After taking an aerial border tour, the Governor received a briefing and held a press conference and a border security roundtable.

"The issues at the border affect the whole state, to include Maricopa County," said Maricopa County Sheriff Paul Penzone. "The availability of Arizona National Guard resources in support of law enforcement demands is an asset for our depleted resources. I appreciate Governor Ducey's commitment to law enforcement organizations."

"The security of Arizona and our residents is our first priority," said Senate President Karen Fann. "Illegal crossings put our border towns, safety personnel and all Arizonans at risk, but also the immigrants who are facing unsafe conditions as they cross into the state. My thanks to Governor Ducey for taking this initiative to safeguard our state and protect our communities."

"We need to uphold the law when it comes to immigration," said House Speaker Rusty Bowers. "The National Guard will help support law enforcement and security officials working hard at the border, and it helps combat the Democrats' misguided message that crossing the border illegally is acceptable. I strongly support this action by Governor Ducey, as it's the right decision, and I appreciate his quick response to this crisis."

Hi CJ – hope this finds you well.

Would Gov. Ducey have any interest in joining Larry Kudlow on our show either tomorrow or Friday?

Two stories that Larry would really be interested in covering is AZ's lifting of school mask mandates and overall leadership in returning the state to normal, as well as the National Guard activation this week at the border.

We could make any time in the 4pm ET hour work – just let me know. Would love to have him on the show.

Best,
Joe

Subject: Time sensitive: Newsmax primetime interview on Thursday April 22

Hey CJ – I'm glad we could connect on the phone earlier. We would love to include Gov. Ducey's insight and smart analysis on the border crisis, its impact on folks in Arizona, and the fact that President Biden and VP Harris have yet to visit the border in person on Rob Schmitt's primetime show tomorrow (Thursday) night. We can offer him a pre-tape slot at 5:30pm MT or at 7:05pm MT if he is unable to make the live show at 8pm MT. We can do this via Skype, Zoom, or satellite studio. Immigration is one of the top issues we have been following closely on Rob's show every night for months now and we have a captivated audience with a strong appetite for this. Please let me know ASAP if you are interested in making this happen! (201) 572-1273

Not only is Newsmax the 2nd largest conservative cable network reaching more than 150K homes nationwide when you factor in all of the OTT platforms (e.g. Roku, AppleTV, Pluto), we are also pulling in 4 million unique viewers who aren't watching Fox News, and 2 million viewers who aren't watching any of the other mainstream media outlets. What's more, Newsmax really is the people's network as we are the only cable TV outlet that is not behind a paywall!

You might remember Rob from Fox and Friends First, CNBC, and NBC. We are proud to now have him now on Newsmax as an opinion host on a show that examines top news stories and policy initiatives of the day through a conservative lens. Here are some clips to get a feel for the show. You'll notice he doesn't interrupt his guests or cut down short – unlike many other cable news shows. 😉

- Sen. Tom Cotton discussed national security and the growing crisis the US-Southern border https://www.newsmax.com/newsmax-tv/tom-cotton-open-borders-amnesty-crisis/2021/03/04/id/1012575/
- Rep. Babin and Rep. Arrington discussed their findings from the border in Loredo, TX: https://www.newsmax.com/newsmax-tv/brian-babin-cover-up-border-crisis/2021/03/30/id/1015792/
- Gov. Brian Kemp discussed woke companies in GA and election reform https://www.dropbox.com/s/oarfzc1054mh1fn/Gov%20Kemp.mp4?dl=0

Good morning C.J.,

I hope this email finds you well. I'm reaching out on behalf of Fox News to request an interview with Governor Ducey for our program Fox News Live, hosted by Eric Shawn and Arthel Neville. We'd like to discuss the State of Emergency the Governor has declared in response to the border crisis.

The interview would be live in the 4pm eastern hour on Saturday. However, if that is not convenient, we can also accommodate him in our 4pm hour on Sunday instead.

We are happy to do this from a local studio or by Skype.

Please let me know at your earliest convenience as we would love to have him.

Many thanks,

Morning Patrick! Hope all is well!

I'm reaching out with Martha MacCallum's show to see if the Governor can join us at 3:15pm EST today?

She really wants to discuss the following with him: https://www.foxnews.com/politics/vp-kamala-harris-sets-virtual-meeting-with-guatemala-president-next-week-regarding-migrant-crisis

Let me know if this can be possible. Happy to send a camera directly to him! Hope this can work out 😊

Hi all,

We'd like to invite Governor Ducey to join Harris Faulkner again this Thursday for a bit in the 11am EST hour to discuss the Declaration of Emergency he issued for the state of Arizona. We would like to continue the conversation the Governor and Harris had last month regarding the border crisis.

Please let me know if your team is able to make this work via the Broadway Digital Studio in Phoenix that we used previously.

Thanks for your consideration!

Hi Kyra,

Thank you for the request! Apologies for the slow reply - we were down at the border yesterday. I'm not sure yet if the governor will have any availability in the next few days, but I will check with our team to see if we can make something work. We'll get back to you ASAP.

Thanks,

Ben

Thank you for the request!

Apologies, the governor is not available for an interview at that time tomorrow. However, we're expecting him to be on the East Coast next week and we may have some time. A member of our team may follow up closer to then.

Also - please feel free to reach out to us any time in the future. The best place to email us is communications@az.gov.

We'd like to invite Governor Ducey to join Harris Faulkner again this Thursday for a bit in the 11am EST hour to discuss the Declaration of Emergency he issued for the state of Arizona. We would like to continue the conversation the Governor and Harris had last month regarding the border crisis.

Please let me know if your team is able to make this work via the Broadway Digital Studio in Phoenix that we used previously.

Hey CJ! I hate to keep hounding you, just a friendly follow up that we would love to include the Governor in our primetime programming with Rob Schmitt next week. We have some great high profile guests on our lineup next week, and would love to offer the Governor time to join us as well. We can extend a pre-taped interview at 5:30pm MT or at 7:05pm MT or include him on the live show at 8pm MT. We can do this via Skype, Zoom, or satellite studio. Are there any days next week you think might be in the cards for us? I would ensure it is as efficient and smooth as possible.

Hi CJ – hope this finds you well.

Would Gov. Ducey have any interest in joining Larry Kudlow on our show either tomorrow or Friday?

Two stories that Larry would really be interested in covering is AZ's lifting of school mask mandates and overall leadership in returning the state to normal, as well as the National Guard activation this week at the border.

We could make any time in the 4pm ET hour work – just let me know. Would love to have him on the show.

The situation on Arizona's border is straining federal, state, local and non-profit resources. It is a crisis.

US Customs and Border Protection just built a "soft-sided facility" in Tucson that will house up to 250 migrants. This would not have happened if there wasn't a crisis.

DHS Secretary Alejandro Mayorkas acknowledged recently that his department is "working around the clock" to deal with a surge in migrants that has not been seen in two decades. This would not be happening if there wasn't crisis.

The leaders of border communities all across Arizona, as well as our state's two U.S. Senators, agree with Gov. Ducey: We have a crisis on our border and the federal government needs to deal with it.

Hi CJ hope this finds you well.

Would Gov. Ducey have any interest in joining Larry Kudlow on our show either tomorrow or Friday?

Two stories that Larry would really be interested in covering is AZ's lifting of school mask mandates and overall leadership in returning the state to normal, as well as the National Guard activation this week at the border.

We could make any time in the 4pm ET hour work just let me know. Would love to have him on the show.

Best,

Joe

ICE deportations have fallen to a record low under President Biden. Does Gov. Ducey want to discuss this and more on the border crisis tomorrow (Thursday) night live at 8pm MT or pre-taped at 5:30pm MT via Skype, Zoom, or satellite studio? We have a large national audience with a strong appetite to hear from GOP leaders about how we can combat the border crisis and put America First. Not to mention, we would be sure to promote the interview in his home state to drive even more viewers to the interview and I would send you a clip to the interview after the show wraps.

Hi Good morning!

We've been hoping to have Governor Doug Ducey on our show, "Fox News Live," and wanted to see if this Saturday between 12-2p Eastern might work for an interview to discuss the latest situation and efforts on the southern border. We've been speaking with congressional leaders and senior border officials on the show about the crisis and would appreciate the Governor's insight on how this crisis is impacting border communities. This would be a 5-6 minute discussion which we could take via Skype or from a remote studio.

Please let me know if you have some time today to chat more on the discussion.

ICE deportations have fallen to a record low under President Biden. Does Gov. Ducey want to discuss this and more on the border crisis tomorrow (Thursday) night live at 8pm MT or pre-taped at 5:30pm MT via Skype, Zoom, or satellite studio? We have a large national audience with a strong appetite to hear from GOP leaders about how we can combat the border crisis and put America First. Not to mention, we would be sure to promote the interview in his home state to drive even more viewers to the interview and I would send you a clip to the interview after the show wraps.

Let me know when I can reserve this slot for you!

Hey CJ! I hate to keep hounding you, just a friendly follow up that we would love to include the Governor in our primetime programming with Rob Schmitt next week. We have some great high profile guests on our lineup next week, and would love to offer the Governor time to join us as well. We can extend a pre-taped interview at 5:30pm MT or at 7:05pm MT or include him on the live show at 8pm MT. We can do this via Skype, Zoom, or satellite studio. Are there any days next week you think might be in the cards for us? I would ensure it is as efficient and smooth as possible.

We can offer him a pre-tape slot at 5:30pm MT or at 7:05pm MT if he is unable to make the live show at 8pm MT. We can do this via Skype, Zoom, or satellite studio. Hi Kyra,

Thank you for the request! Apologies for the slow reply - we were down at the border yesterday. I'm not sure yet if the governor will have any availability in the next few days, but I will check with our team to see if we can make something work. We'll get back to you ASAP.

Thanks,

Hi all.

We're working on a story for tonight about the large number of unfilled jobs at DPS. Their Association says lack of competitive pay is one of the reasons they can't fill open jobs and that it is up to the Governor to close that pay gap.

Does your office have any comment or statement in response? I understand that the proposed budget for this year does allocate money for recruitment and retention of Troopers. Are you all expecting that to make it through the budget process to the Governor's desk?

Thank you.

We are contacting a few Governors who are refusing President Biden's $300 unemployment benefit, as Governor Ducey is, to discuss the difficulties these benefits pose for business owners in your state who are looking to fill jobs. We are looking to have a panel of Governors join the show tomorrow.
Please let me know if this is something your team could make happen, either via a local studio or Skype. We'd love to have Governor Ducey join the show to share his insights on struggling business owners in Arizona.
If you'd like to chat further, please give me a call at (929) 271-5166 whenever you can!

Attachments: image001.png

Hello,
Fox 10 News' John Hook would like to circle back to see if Gov. Ducey could appear on his Newsmaker public affairs program? We could tape any weekday next week, (even Monday if that works for your team) at 2pm or 2:30 or 3pm.

It would be a recorded zoom or talkback, (we could send a photog to the governor for talkback format) and it would air on Saturday night.

We could ask about this: "Governor Doug Ducey and Sonora Governor Claudia Pavlovich capped their close, six year professional relationship today by signing an agreement to secure the neighboring states' water future and expand collaboration to monitor air quality.." and also budget etc..

Hi good morning Ben and CJ,

Would Governor Ducey's Chief of Staff Daniel Scarpinato like to talk to John Hook this week about the governor's tax plan?

It would be for his Newsmaker public affairs program and we could and we could tape it Wednesday, Thursday or Friday at 2:30 pm or 3pm?

The same topic as this release: "Governor Ducey's Chief of Staff Daniel Scarpinato joined AZ Family this weekend to discuss Arizona's tax plan, which will reduce income tax for every Arizonan no matter their income. The plan supports veterans and small businesses, and it invests in areas like education and infrastructure…"

Thank you!

Hi CJ! I wanted to circle back with you and see how things are going. Next week Eric Bolling is guest hosting Rob's show Wed-Friday and we would love to include Gov. ICE deportations have fallen to a record low under President Biden. Does Gov. Ducey want to discuss this and more on the border crisis tomorrow (Thursday) night live at 8pm MT or pre-taped at 5:30pm MT via Skype, Zoom, or satellite studio? We have a large national audience with a strong appetite to hear from GOP leaders about how we can combat the border crisis and put America First. Not to mention, we would be sure to promote the interview in his home state to drive even more viewers to the interview and I would send you a clip to the interview after the show wraps.

Let me know when I can reserve this slot for you!

Hey CJ! I hate to keep hounding you, just a friendly follow up that we would love to include the Governor in our primetime programming with Rob Schmitt next week. We have some great high profile guests on our lineup next week, and would love to offer the Governor time to join us as well. We can extend a pre-taped interview at 5:30pm MT or at 7:05pm MT or include him on the live show at 8pm MT. We can do this via Skype, Zoom, or satellite studio. Are there any days next week you think might be in the cards for us? I would ensure it is as efficient and smooth as possible.

OVERSIGHT

You might remember Rob from Fox and Friends First, CNBC, and NBC. We are proud to now have him now on Newsmax as an opinion host on a show that examines top news stories and policy initiatives of the day through a conservative lens. Here are some clips to get a feel for the show. You'll notice he doesn't interrupt his guests or cut down short unlike many other cable news shows. 😉

- Sen. Tom Cotton discussed national security and the growing crisis the US-Southern border https://www.newsmax.com/newsmax-tv/tom-cotton-open-borders-amnesty-crisis/2021/03/04/id/1012575/
- Rep. Babin and Rep. Arrington discussed their findings from the border in Laredo, TX: https://www.newsmax.com/newsmax-tv/brian-babin-cover-up-border-crisis/2021/03/30/id/1015792/
- Gov. Brian Kemp discussed woke companies in GA and election reform https://www.dropbox.com/s/oarfze1054nhl1n/Gov%20Kemp.mp4?dl=0

Good Morning,

Wanted to extend an invite for Gov Ducey to join Neil on "Cavuto Live" tomorrow, Sat June 5, between 10a-12p ET. We'd like to discuss the jobs report number – specifically to hear from a Governor who ended the extended federal unemployment benefits and whether or not that helped the jobs numbers tick up for May.

Let me know if we can accommodate this – would really like to have the Governor on with Neil tomorrow. Thanks!

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
DOUG DUCEY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
June 10, 2021

Governor Ducey Announces Legislative Special Session In Response To Wildfires

PHOENIX Governor Doug Ducey today announced an upcoming special session of the Arizona Legislature to ensure our state has the resources needed to combat this season's wildfires and address potentially deadly after effects like flooding.

Governor Ducey will be working with legislative leadership, local communities and state fire professionals on specifics with a goal of convening next week.

"We will spare no expense when it comes to protecting Arizona communities from wildfires," the Governor said. "It's absolutely imperative that we go into this fight prepared. We will continue to put all our efforts towards these fires so we can contain them and prevent any more hurt, loss and suffering in our communities."

The Governor announced the special session during a press conference at High Desert Middle School in Globe, where he, lawmakers and fire fighting officials provided the latest information about the Telegraph and Mescal Fires in Pinal and Gila Counties.

"The men and women fighting these fires are doing an amazing job but we have a lot more to do, and our response won't end when the fires are put out," the Governor added. "When this year's monsoon rains come, these burned areas are prone to floods, landslides and mudslides. We will work with our partners in cities, towns and counties to ensure resources are available to prevent that destruction."

The special session will allow the Governor and the Legislature to secure funding and support needed to keep Arizonans, their property and their pets safe. The resources will help contain current wildfires, wildfires that will potentially arise during the dry Summer months, and possible flooding and other natural disasters that may result from this emergency.

The press conference followed the Governor's aerial tour of the Telegraph Fire, a briefing from fire officials, and a visit to the Red Cross emergency shelter set up at the middle school for those who have been evacuated (including pets).

The Governor was joined by Speaker Rusty Bowers, whose property burned down due to the Telegraph Fire; Representative David Cook and Senator T.J. Shope, who represent central and eastern Pinal County and southern Gila County; Arizona's Adjutant General and Director of the Arizona National Guard Major General Kerry Muehlenbeck; San Carlos

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
June 10, 2021

Governor Ducey Announces Legislative Special Session In Response To Wildfires

PHOENIX Governor Doug Ducey today announced an upcoming special session of the Arizona Legislature to ensure our state has the resources needed to combat this season's wildfires and address potentially deadly after effects like flooding.

Governor Ducey will be working with legislative leadership, local communities and state fire professionals on specifics with a goal of convening next week.

"We will spare no expense when it comes to protecting Arizona communities from wildfires," the Governor said. "It's absolutely imperative that we go into this fight prepared. We will continue to put all our efforts towards these fires so we can contain them and prevent any more hurt, loss and suffering in our communities."

The Governor announced the special session during a press conference at High Desert Middle School in Globe, where he, lawmakers and fire fighting officials provided the latest information about the Telegraph and Mescal Fires in Pinal and Gila Counties.

"The men and women fighting these fires are doing an amazing job but we have a lot more to do, and our response won't end when the fires are put out," the Governor added. "When this year's monsoon rains come, these burned areas are prone to floods, landslides and mudslides."

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

We will work with our partners in cities, towns and counties to ensure resources are available to prevent that destruction."

The special session will allow the Governor and the Legislature to secure funding and support needed to keep Arizonans, their property and their pets safe. The resources will help contain current wildfires, wildfires that will potentially arise during the dry Summer months, and possible flooding and other natural disasters that may result from this emergency.

The press conference followed the Governor's aerial tour of the Telegraph Fire, a briefing from fire officials, and a visit to the Red Cross emergency shelter set up at the middle school for those who have been evacuated (including pets).

The Governor was joined by Speaker Rusty Bowers, whose property burned down due to the Telegraph Fire; Representative David Cook and Senator T.J. Shope, who represent central and eastern Pinal County and southern Gila County; Arizona's Adjutant General and Director of the Arizona National Guard Major General Kerry Muehlenbeck; San Carlos Apache Tribe Chairman Terry Rambler; local leaders; and safety and fire officials.

The Telegraph Fire has burned more than 85,300 acres and the Mescal Fire has burned more than 70,000 acres.

Hey CJ,

I read over the Governor's executive order and attached statement. I'm reaching out to see if there's an answer to the following questions:

1. What's the difference between a Covid 19 vaccine mandate for schools and the measles, mumps, rubella (MMR) mandate already in place?
2. How does the executive order make campuses safer?

Thanks,

Hi CJ hope this finds you well.

Would Gov. Ducey have any interest in joining Larry Kudlow on our show either tomorrow or Friday?

Two stories that Larry would really be interested in covering is AZ's lifting of school mask mandates and overall leadership in returning the state to normal, as well as the National Guard activation this week at the border.

We could make any time in the 4pm ET hour work just let me know. Would love to have him on the show.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Two stories that Larry would really be interested in covering is AZ's lifting of school mask mandates and overall leadership in returning the state to normal, as well as the National Guard activation this week at the border.

We could make any time in the 4pm ET hour work just let me know. Would love to have him on the show.

Best,

Joe

Hi CJ hope this finds you well.

Would Gov. Ducey have any interest in joining Larry Kudlow on our show either tomorrow or Friday?

Two stories that Larry would really be interested in covering is AZ's lifting of school mask mandates and overall leadership in returning the state to normal, as well as the National Guard activation this week at the border.

We could make any time in the 4pm ET hour work just let me know. Would love to have him on the show.

Best,

Joe

Good morning all,

Hope your week is going well so far. Wondering if you know how many law enforcement personnel from Florida are coming to help at the Arizona border? where will they go and what duties will they preform? Are they already here?

U.S. Customs and Border Protection and AZDPS both told me to get in touch with the Governors Office.

Thanks

Subject: Newsmax Intvw Request - Gov. Ducey -- Pretape Thurs. 7/8 at 12:30pm EST/9:30am PT

Hello,

I'm the Executive Producer of Newsmax's live Saturday morning/afternoon programming, writing to request a PRETAPED interview with Gov. Ducey for Thursday, July 8th at 12:30pm EST/9:30am PT, via Skype or Zoom, for Newsmax's America Right Now with Tom Basile. If that time does not work, we could possibly tape later in the day or even do this live on Saturday, 7/10. This would AIR on Saturday, 7/10 at approx. 11:04a EST/8:04am PT.

The interview would be 7-8 minutes, in length & we would discuss the flat tax he signed into law along with the SCOTUS ruling on AZ election reforms. We would possibly ask about 1-2 other news of week items that may occur in the coming 2 days but rest assured, we will NOT ask about the ongoing audit in Maricopa County of the 2020 election.

"America Right Now" just launched last year but quickly became one of the network's most popular shows, weekday or weekend. The program's mix of commentary, current events and topics has made it a regular stop for newsmakers.

Please let me know when you have a moment.

Best,

Ron Messer

Good evening Bill,

I am a reporter with Fox News and FOX Business and have been covering states' recent tax reform measures amid the recovery from the pandemic. The switch in Arizona to a flat rate structure is a pretty big deal and I'd love to schedule a phone interview with Gov. Ducey or another member of the administration to discuss the decision and what the expected economic benefits will be for an article on our website--

Please let me know if you think this might be possible to set up at some point this week.

All the best,

Brittany

Good morning,

I'm hoping for some clarity on the letters sent yesterday to these school districts. What are the school districts violating and at least Peoria is saying they're following AZDHS guidance - so I'm wondering where these snag is. Who sets this policy for the upcoming school year?

Thanks,

We expect Arizona's public school to comply with state law and we're not going to allow anyone to deny Arizona kids an education. Governor Ducey and the Arizona Legislature addressed this issue just a few weeks ago. Lawmakers passed HB 2898 on June 30, Governor Ducey signed it the same day and it went into effect on July 1. The language in this legislation is specific to schools and it's not the same as general public health guidelines. It takes into account that school is the safest place for kids, whether they are vaccinated or not, and that they have a right to receive in-person education.

Doesn't applying this policy to the quarantine guidance run the risk of getting more people sick? Especially if you have parents who have stated they will send their kids to school even if they have COVID?

Good afternoon C.J.,

I hope you are well! I had reached out to Bill Greeney about scheduling a phone interview for an article for the FBN and FNC websites regarding the commitment to switch to a flat tax rate structure in Arizona.

I am following the few states that have been able to cut taxes this year, in spite of the pandemic, and would love to speak with either the governor or someone in the administration about why they decided to switch to the flat rate and what economic benefits they believe it will bring the state.

Please let me know if you think we might be able to schedule a phone call!

Governor Ducey believes the decision by Phoenix Union requiring masks has no teeth. It's not allowed under Arizona law. It's unenforceable.

Arizona is not anti-mask, we're anti-mask mandate. As the governor has often said, mask usage is up to parents. If a parent wants their child to wear a mask at school, they are free to do so. This is not a state decision. Ultimately, this is about personal responsibility and parental choice — something Arizona has long-supported.

School administrators should be doing everything they can to encourage eligible students and staff to get vaccinated, not break state law.

Health professionals in Arizona and across the country have made it clear: our kids are safe in the classroom. We need to keep students in their classrooms, and the governor wants to ensure there are limited disruptions when it comes to their education. Arizona is not going to mandate masks in any learning environment.

Wondering if there's any more response from Governor's office RE masks/quarantine now that schools are back in session. Y'all probably know better than I do about parents getting letters about exposure, school boards choosing mask mandates, and the hearing this morning about when the law goes into effect. Lastly, I know we're not Arkansas, but you may have seen Arkansas' Governor saying he respects their mandate ban, wondering the Governor's thoughts on that.

Hi Cj and Ben,
Do you have a statement from the governor on ASU's stance on face masks to stop the spread of covid?

Here is there statement:
Implementation of ASU Face Cover Policy
August 11, 2021
As announced on July 30, 2021, consistent with CDC guidelines for colleges and universities, ASU strongly recommends that everyone wear a face cover when inside a university building.
In certain indoor settings face coverings will be required. Those settings include all classrooms and teaching or research labs.
In addition, face coverings will be required in close-quarter environments where physical distancing may not be possible. These include the following:

- All ASU clinical programs and centers that serve the general public, such as the ASU Health Centers, Child Development Laboratory, and Counselor Training Center (the "Programs"), whether on- or off-campus.
- Meeting rooms, workshop, design or production studios, and other indoor settings where social distancing is not possible.
- All other indoor areas designated by posted signage.

Additionally, consistent with CDC guidance, face covers may be required in some crowded outdoor settings or activities that involve sustained close contact with other people.
As previously stated, the university continues to recommend strongly that people get vaccinated and ASU continues to provide COVID-19 vaccines free of charge to students, faculty and staff. Greater rates of vaccination are the best tool available to reduce the rate of transmission in the community, which could change the applicable face covering guidance.

Governor Ducey is not supportive of mandates or virtue signalling. Rather than creating new mandates, the focus should be on promoting vaccinations the vaccine is widely available, and proven effective. We're not anti-mask; we're anti-mandate.

MEDIA ADVISORY: Governor Ducey To Ceremonially Sign Legislation Expanding Holocaust Education In Schools

PHOENIX — Holocaust survivors, educators, and lawmakers will join Governor Doug Ducey on Thursday for a ceremonial signing of legislation requiring students to be taught about the Holocaust and other genocides.

"Arizona will continue to stand with and support the Jewish community," Governor Ducey said. "This bill ensures our youth are educated on the atrocities of the Holocaust and other genocides. Under House Bill 2241, schools are required to teach students about the Holocaust and other genocides at least twice between the 7th and 12th grades. Governor Ducey officially signed the legislation on July 9.

Media is invited to attend the ceremonial signing at the Arizona Capitol Museum.

WHO: Governor Doug Ducey will be joined by:

Representative Alma Hernandez, sponsor of House Bill 2241; Senate President Karen Fann; House Speaker Rusty Bowers; Rabbi Pinchas Allouche, Congregation Beth Tefillah of Scottsdale; Jonathan Hoffer, Chairman of the Board of Valley of the Sun Jewish Community Center; Dr. Lawrence Bell, Executive Director of the Arizona Jewish Historical Society; and Holocaust survivors and their loved ones

Hi, Steve. You can attribute this to me:

The timing of this suit is noteworthy. The latest numbers from Arizona's Office of Economic Opportunity show our state has recovered 94 percent of the jobs it lost since the beginning of the pandemic and in Phoenix it's even better - 99 percent. Arizona is recovering faster than nearly all other states, our labor force is rebounding and every week there seems to be an announcement about companies relocating to Arizona or expanding.

Would Gov. Ducey have any interest in joining Larry Kudlow on our show either tomorrow or Friday?

Two stories that Larry would really be interested in covering is AZ's lifting of school mask mandates and overall leadership in returning the state to normal, as well as the National Guard activation this week at the border.

We could make any time in the 4pm ET hour work just let me know. Would love to have him on the show.

Hi –

Hope you are well. I'm reaching out from FOX News Sunday while Andrea Devito is away.

We are likely to lead Sunday's program with the situation at the border and we'd like to know if Gov. Ducey is available to discuss it. This would be one-on-one with Chris.

It's just an availability check at this point. Can you let me know what might be possible?

Thank you.

Here you go. You can attribute this to me.

We are still reviewing the ruling, but this decision is clearly an example of judicial overreach.

Arizona's state government operates with three branches, and it's the duty and authority of only the legislative branch to organize itself and to make laws. Unfortunately, today's decision is the result of a rogue judge interfering with the authority and processes of another branch of government.

Further action will be taken to challenge this ruling and ensure separation of powers is maintained.

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
DOUG DUCEY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
October 4, 2021

Governor Ducey Launches Arizona's New Cyber Command Center

PHOENIX — Governor Doug Ducey today launched Arizona's new Cyber Command Center at a ceremony at the Department of Public Safety's Arizona Counter Terrorism Information Center (ACTIC) in Phoenix.

"Cybersecurity is homeland security. Our society is becoming increasingly interconnected through technology, and cybersecurity has become one of the most important issues facing Arizona," said Governor Ducey. "This new command center will be critical in protecting Arizonans and ensuring our cyber infrastructure remains safe and secure. I'm hopeful that the U.S. Department of Homeland Security will recognize the success of these partnerships on cybersecurity and begin to treat border security just as seriously."

The Cyber Command Center will be Arizona's headquarters for coordinating statewide cybersecurity operations. The center will be a central location for cybersecurity professionals and local, state and federal agencies to prevent and respond to cyberattacks. It will provide an ideal location to enhance public-private partnerships to protect Arizonans against cyberthreats.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

The Governor was joined by: Tim Roemer, Director of the Arizona Department of Homeland Security and Chief Information Security Officer; Colonel Heston Silbert, Director of the Department of Public Safety; Andy Tobin, Director of the Department of Administration; and Adjutant General Kerry Muehlenbeck, Director of the Department of Emergency and Military Affairs.

State agencies will use this center to increase information sharing between one another. This expansion has led the state to rename the Arizona Cyber Information Program (ACIP) as the Arizona Information Sharing and Analysis Center (AZ-ISAC). AZ-ISAC is just one program that will be run out of the new Cyber Command Center.

Director Roemer championed the effort to launch this command center. Governor Ducey appointed Roemer as Director of the Department of Homeland Security in April after he served as Arizona's Chief Information Security Officer since 2019. Director Roemer shares the Governor's belief that cybersecurity is homeland security. He recommended combining the state's cybersecurity mission with the Department of Homeland Security to better protect Arizona from increasing cybersecurity risks.

In September alone, the Arizona Department of Homeland Security detected and alerted on approximately 68 million threats and protected state websites from over 800,000 attacks.

The Arizona Counter Terrorism Information Center is a joint effort by the Department of Public Safety, the Department of Homeland Security, the Federal Bureau of Investigation and other agencies to support Arizona's homeland security efforts. The center was established in 2004 and operates on a 24/7 basis providing intelligence, investigative and technical support to state, local, tribal and federal law enforcement agencies. The new command center will be critical in protecting Arizona from modern threats.

Background

In March 2018, Governor Ducey issued an executive order creating the Arizona Cybersecurity Team. The group was made up of experts from state, local, and federal government, the private sector, and higher education, working together to protect Arizonans from cyberattacks. Among their objectives were enhancing cybersecurity workforce development and education and increasing public awareness of cybersecurity best practices.

In July 2019, Governor Ducey appointed Tim Roemer as Arizona's Chief Information Security Officer. Prior to this appointment, Roemer served as Public Safety Adviser and was a member of the Arizona Cybersecurity Team.

In FY 2020, the Governor proposed and secured legislative approval to increase the budget for the Statewide Information Security and Privacy Office, adding $2.9 million for ADOA to enhance the operations of the office and purchase additional cybersecurity controls to combat cyberthreats on state IT assets.

Additionally, the Governor proposed enhancing the Department of Education's school finance system, a mission-critical component that distributes billions in state and federal funding to Arizona's public schools. By replacing the system, the department can reduce cybersecurity risks associated with the legacy system, among other challenges. The total project received $3 million in FY 2020 and will receive another $6 million in FY 2022.

In FY 2022, the Governor proposed and secured adoption of nearly $500,000 in ongoing funding for DEMA to establish a cyber task force to perform cybersecurity prevention and response activities on behalf of the state. In addition, the FY 2022 budget included a one-time $300,000 deposit into the National Guard Cyber Response Revolving Fund to allow the National Guard to engage in cyberattack prevention, response, and support activities for the state and other public entities.

Governor Ducey Launches Arizona's New Cyber Command Center

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

"Cybersecurity is homeland security. Our society is becoming increasingly interconnected through technology, and cybersecurity has become one of the most important issues facing Arizona," said Governor Ducey. "This new command center will be critical in protecting Arizonans and ensuring our cyber infrastructure remains safe and secure. I'm hopeful that the U.S. Department of Homeland Security will recognize the success of these partnerships on cybersecurity and begin to treat border security just as seriously."

The Cyber Command Center will be Arizona's headquarters for coordinating statewide cybersecurity operations. The center will be a central location for cybersecurity professionals and local, state and federal agencies to prevent and respond to cyberattacks. It will provide an ideal location to enhance public-private partnerships to protect Arizonans against cyberthreats.

The Governor was joined by: Tim Roemer, Director of the Arizona Department of Homeland Security and Chief Information Security Officer; Colonel Heston Silbert, Director of the Department of Public Safety; Andy Tobin, Director of the Department of Administration; and Adjutant General Kerry Muehlenbeck, Director of the Department of Emergency and Military Affairs.

State agencies will use this center to increase information sharing between one another. This expansion has led the state to rename the Arizona Cyber Information Program (ACIP) as the Arizona Information Sharing and Analysis Center (AZ-ISAC). We are reviewing the letter and will respond. While the Biden administration continues to focus on mandates, here in Arizona we trust families to make decisions around what's best for their children. Following the challenges during the 2020 school year, everyone's primary focus should be equipping families with the resources to get their kids caught up. That's exactly what this program does -- giving families in need the opportunity to access educational resources like tutoring, child care, transportation and more. It's baffling anyone would disagree with this approach.

The Biden administration on Tuesday ordered Arizona Gov. Doug Ducey to stop using the state's federal pandemic funding on a pair of new education grants that can only be directed to schools without mask mandates.

In a letter to Ducey, the Treasury Department said the grant programs are "not a permissible use" of the federal funding. It's the latest attempt by the Biden administration to push back against Republican governors who have opposed mask mandates and otherwise sought to use federal pandemic funding to advance their own agendas.

Ducey, a Republican, created the grant programs in August to put pressure on school districts that have defied the state's ban on mask mandates.

He launched a $163 million grant program using federal funding he controls, but he made it available only to schools without mask mandates. He also established a $10 million program that offers vouchers to families at public schools that require masks or that tell students to isolate or quarantine due to COVID-19 exposure.

In the letter, Deputy Treasury Secretary Wally Adeyemo said the conditions "undermine evidence-based efforts to stop the spread of COVID-19." He asked the state to explain how it will "remediate" the problem within 30 days.

Arizona is one of at least eight states that have laws or executive orders banning mask requirements in public schools.

The Education Department in August opened civil rights investigations into five Republican-led states that forbid mask mandates in schools, saying such actions may violate the rights of students with disabilities. The agency later added Florida to the list of states under investigation. It said it was watching several other states in case it needed to take action, including in Arizona.

The Education Department separately promised to repay school districts who have state funding withheld for defying bans on mask requirements. Last month, the agency sent nearly $150,000 to the School Board of Alachua County in Florida after the state withheld pay for school board members because the district requires masks.

Education advocates have filed a lawsuit over Arizona's ban and several other state laws that restrict the power of local governments and school districts to impose COVID-19 requirements.

Those policies conflict with guidance from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, which recommends universal mask wearing for students and teachers in the classroom. The CDC issued the guidance in light of the rapid spread of the highly contagious delta variant of COVID-19.

That's exactly what this program does -- giving families in need the opportunity to access educational resources like tutoring, child care, transportation and more. It's baffling anyone would disagree with this approach.

We are reviewing the letter and will respond. While the Biden administration continues to focus on mandates, here in Arizona we trust families to make decisions around what's best for their children. Following the challenges during the 2020 school year, everyone's primary focus should be equipping families with the resources to get their kids caught up. That's exactly what this program does -- giving families in need the opportunity to access educational resources like tutoring, child care, transportation and more. It's baffling anyone would disagree with this approach.

JOINT POLICY FRAMEWORK ON THE BORDER CRISIS
10 Policies to Protect America, Restore Security, and End the Crisis

1. Continue Title 42 public health restrictions: The Biden Administration should continue to invoke Title 42 to refuse entry to individuals coming into the country due to the COVID-19 public health risk, which was initially issued by the previous administration. Title 42 currently expels approximately 44% of apprehensions. In July, more than 18% of migrant families and 20% of unaccompanied minors tested positive for COVID-19 upon being released from Border Patrol custody. Reports estimate that the Biden Administration has placed approximately 40,000 COVID-19 positive migrants into American cities.
2. Dedicate federal resources to eradicate human trafficking and drug trafficking: Due to the rapid increase of cartel activity, the Biden Administration should dedicate additional resources to eradicate the surge in human trafficking and drug trafficking, arrest offenders, support victims, and get dangerous drugs—like fentanyl and methamphetamine—off our streets.
3. Resume the deportation of all criminals: The Biden Administration should enforce all deportation laws of criminally convicted illegal aliens. Upon taking office, President Biden issued an Executive Order ordering the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement to prioritize only the deportation of aggravated felons, gang members, or terrorists, leaving other criminals to remain in the United States.
4. Re-enter all agreements with our Northern Triangle partners and Mexico: President Biden should re-enter the prior administration's agreement with the Northern Triangle countries (El Salvador, Guatemala, and Honduras) and Mexico. The countries agreed to enforce their respective borders, fix their asylum systems, and receive migrants seeking asylum before they journey north to the United States. Upon taking office, President Biden issued an Executive Order terminating the agreements.
5. Provide notice and transparency to states on unaccompanied minors and migrants: The Biden Administration should instruct the Office of Refugee Resettlement to notify states when the federal government is transporting migrants who will be reliant upon their state's social safety net. Currently, an unknown number of migrants, including unaccompanied minor children, are being secretly transported into states without notice to those who will ultimately have to provide resources to them, such as healthcare, education, benefits, and more.
6. Send a clear message to potential migrants: President Biden, Vice President Harris, and Biden Administration officials at every level should state clearly and unequivocally that our country's borders are not open and that migrants seeking economic opportunity should not attempt to abuse or misuse the asylum process. Prior to and after taking office, President Biden blatantly encouraged illegal immigrants to come to the United States.
7. Deploy more federal law enforcement officers and National Guard troops: Due to overwhelming needs at the border, the Biden Administration should deploy more and provide greater resources to U.S. Customs and Border Protection officers and U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement agents. In line with the prior four presidents who deployed National Guard troops to the border, the Biden Administration should request additional military assistance and invoke Title X to reimburse states for their troops serving at the border. Due to a lack of federal resources, Arizona and Texas have had to initiate an Emergency Management Assistance Compact to request law enforcement resources directly from states, receiving offers from eight states, to arrest and detain illegal trespassers.
8. End catch and release and clear the judicial backlog: The Biden Administration should end the Obama-era policy of catching and releasing apprehended migrants into U.S. cities along the South Texas border, leaving illegal immigrants paroled and able to travel anywhere in the country. In addition, the Biden Administration should dedicate additional judges and resources to our U.S. immigration courts to end the growing backlog and expedite court appearances for illegal migrants. Reports indicate backlogged cases total more than 1 million, the most ever. Upon taking office, President Biden issued an Executive Order reinstating catch and release policies that incentivize illegal immigration and make deportation laws difficult to enforce.
9. Fully reinstate the Migrant Protection Protocols: The Biden Administration should comply with recent federal court rulings and fully reinstate the Migrant Protection Protocols (MPP) established by the prior administration, which require asylum seekers to return to Mexico to await their court hearing outside of the United States, serving as a deterrent to cross. Upon taking office, President Biden issued a directive to terminate the MPP, and although litigation may continue, the Biden Administration should halt any attempts to appeal and fully reinstate the policy
10. Finish securing the border: The Biden Administration should reopen construction contracts to continue building the border wall and invest in infrastructure and technology, such as lights, sensors, or access roads, to complete the border security system. Upon taking office, President Biden terminated the national emergency at the border, stopped all border construction, and redirected funds to build the wall.

Please don't hesitate to reach out again in case there are future opportunities. The best way to reach us at the press office is by emailing communications@az.gov.

Thanks,
Ben

Friends,

Attached is a letter the Governor's counsel sent this afternoon to the City of Tucson regarding a recent City Council decision. As you'll see, we believe critical information was not made available to the council prior to making a decision. As a result, the decision may run counter to Arizona law.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

STATE OF ARIZONA

DOUGLAS A. DUCEY
GOVERNOR

EXECUTIVE OFFICE

October 20, 2021

Mike G. Rankin
City Attorney
City of Tucson
P.O. Box 27210
Tucson, AZ 85726

Via email mailto:mike.rankin@tucsonaz.gov and U.S. Mail

Dear Mr. Rankin,

I write to bring information to your attention regarding the recent Tucson City Council study session held on October 19, 2021 and more specifically agenda item 8, Proposed Revisions to Administrative Directive 2.03-7 Relating to Vaccination Requirements for City Employees; Discipline for Failure to Comply; and Other Mitigation Measures and Administrative Requirements..

As part of agenda item 8 a memo from City Manager Michael Ortega to the Mayor and City Council outlines that a majority of employees who are being considered for termination under the City's mandatory vaccine policy requested exemptions or accomodations and were denied. Additionally, the Legal Considerations section on page 4 states:

> At this time, the City can in fact enforce the requirements described in this Memorandum and can establish additional consequences and penalties for City employees who fail to come into compliance with the vaccination policy. The state law (A.R.S. Sec. 36-681) that was adopted by the Legislature under Senate Bill 1824 and that would otherwise prohibit the City from requiring any person to be vaccinated against COVID-19 has been declared void and unenforceable by order of the Maricopa County Superior Court. The appeal from this order is now pending in front of the Arizona Supreme Court, with oral arguments scheduled for November 2, 2021.

Although the information concerning A.R.S. § 36-681 and the pending litigation at the Arizona Supreme Court is correct, there is relevant information that is missing from these legal considerations that affects the city's ability to take action under such a policy.

First, only sections 12 and 13 of Senate Bill 1824 were deemed unconstitutional. Section 3 is still in effect and establishes A.R.S. § 23-206, which states:

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

> If an employer receives notice from an employee that the employee's sincerely held religious beliefs, practices or observances prevent the employee from taking the COVID-19 vaccination, the employer shall provide a reasonable accommodation unless the accommodation would pose an undue hardship and more than a de minimus cost to the operation of the employer's business.

This statute does not say when the employee must provide a notice of a sincerely held religious belief, practice or observance, only that if provided, an employer is required to provide a reasonable accommodation. Based on the documentation from the City Council meeting, it is unclear if the Mayor and Council were made aware of this new legal requirement that became effective on the general effective date, whether any denials of exemptions or accomodations violated this provision or whether City of Tucson employees were made aware of this new legal provision. Additionally, Tucson Administrative Directive 2.03-7, Mandatory COVID-19 Vaccination, violates this new law by stating that an employee may "request" a religious accommodation rather than the notice provision that A.R.S. 23-206 provides. Further, Directive 2.03-7, states that an "interactive process" will be engaged in to "determine precise limitations." However, no such process exists under A.R.S. § 23-206 as it only requires an employee to provide notice. Unlike other laws in the employment context, this statute does not provide for an employer to question the employee's "sincerely held religious beliefs, practices or observances" prior to providing the accommodation from a COVID-19 vaccine. It merely requires notice to the employer. Finally, as it seems that the City has clearly provided some accommodations for religious and disability reasons, it is unclear how there would be any "undue hardship" for others that provided notice under A.R.S. § 23-206.

In addition to A.R.S. § 23-206, it also seems that the Council was not notified of section 3 of Executive Order 2021-19, which was issued on October 7, 2021. This section states, "No person shall be required by this state, or any city, town or county to obtain a COVID-19 vaccine but a health care institution licensed pursuant to A.R.S. Title 36, Chapter 4 may require the institution's employees to be vaccinated."

This provision would apply to all employees, not just those that requested an accommodation. Thus, it seems based on the documentation publicly available, this information was not presented to the Mayor and Council and would have been relevant to their discussion prior to action being considered or taken. As you, the Mayor and Council are well aware, violation of state law implicates A.R.S. § 41-194.01 and violation of an executive order issued under the authority of an emergency declaration carries a criminal penalty.

Sincerely,

Anni L. Foster
General Counsel

Hi CJ!

Reaching out to see if Governor Ducey had a statement/response in regards to the Arizona Supreme Court upholding their ruling that finds the Legislature unconstitutionally put a ban on school mask mandates in the budget?

Thank you,

This was hearing about the legislative process. We are extremely disappointed in the ruling. There are three separate co-equal branches of government, and we respect the role of the judiciary but the court should give the same respect to the separate authority of the legislature.

As it relates to the provisions protecting Arizonans from burdensome mandates, we believe every Arizonan should have the ability to make their own health decisions with the guidance of their doctor, not because of some government mandate.

Rep. Gosar under fire for anime attacking Rep. Ocasio-Cortez

PHOENIX (AP) – Arizona Rep. Paul Gosar was facing criticism after he tweeted a video that included altered animation showing him striking Rep. Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez with a sword.

In a tweet Monday night, Ocasio-Cortez, D-N.Y., referred to Gosar as "a creepy member I work with" and said he "shared a fantasy video of him killing me." She added that Gosar would face no consequences because Minority Leader Kevin McCarthy "cheers him on with excuses." She also said that institutions "don't protect" women of color.

House Speaker Nancy Pelosi tweeted Tuesday from the climate conference in Scotland, where she's leading a congressional delegation that includes Ocasio-Cortez, that: "Threats of violence against Members of Congress and the President of the United States must not be tolerated." She called on McCarthy to condemn "this horrific video and call on the Ethics Committee and law enforcement to investigate."

Spokespersons for McCarthy did not immediately respond to requests for comment on Pelosi's tweet.

A fellow House Democrat, Ted Lieu of California, referred to Gosar's tweet as "sick behavior" and said in a tweet of his own: "In any workplace in America, if a coworker made an anime video killing another coworker, that person would be fired."

Gosar, a Republican, posted the video Sunday afternoon with a note saying: "Any anime fans out there?"

The roughly 90-second video is an altered version of a Japanese anime series, interspersed with shots of Border Patrol officers and migrants at the southern U.S. border. During one roughly 10-second section of the video, animated characters whose faces have been replaced with Gosar and fellow Republican Reps. Marjorie Taylor Greene of Georgia and Lauren Boebert of Colorado are seen fighting other animated characters.

In one scene, Gosar's character is seen striking the one made to look like Ocasio-Cortez in the neck with a sword.

Twitter later attached a warning to the tweet saying "it violated the Twitter Rules about hateful conduct. However, Twitter has determined that it may be in the public's interest for the Tweet to remain accessible."

Gosar is known as an ardent ally of former President Donald Trump. He was among the lawmakers whose phone or computer records a House panel investigating the Jan. 6 Capitol insurrection asked social media and telecommunications companies to preserve as they were potentially involved with efforts to "challenge, delay or interfere" with the certification or otherwise try to overturn the results of the 2020 election.

The Daily Agenda: Corruption, but the legal kind

Everyone's on the payroll ... Calling in sick to go see some racecars ... And a brief interlude for some anime.

Nov 9

In case you needed another striking example of our state's woefully inadequate corruption and transparency laws, the Republic's Ray Stern has you covered.

Four Democratic lawmakers were on the payroll of Chicanos Por La Causa, one of the most politically savvy organizations in the state and a staple at the Capitol, while pushing CPLC's bills through the legislature that doled out $5 million in discretionary COVID-19 funds to the organization.

The lawmakers — Reps. Cesar Chavez, Alma Hernandez, Robert Meza and Lorenzo Sierra — all refused to say how much money they've pocketed from what we can only imagine are cushy gigs, and CPLC refused to say the kind of work that legislative Democrats did on its behalf.

But here's the really infuriating part: They don't have to. That's because Arizona has toothless corruption, accountability and transparency laws that desperately need reform.

> Joe Trujillo

Lawmakers are required to disclose their sources of income on financial disclosure forms, but not the amount of income. And there's even an easy way around that minimal disclosure — create an LLC and declare that as your source of income, not the political clients who are paying you through the LLC. That's how Sierra did it, and there's nothing illegal about i

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

But let's forget about disclosure and look at the larger picture: Arizonans don't want their lawmakers on the payroll of some organization lobbying at the Capitol, sponsoring bills for their employers, even if they're up front about it.

So why is that allowed? Because, as we noted in yesterday's footnote, the "rule of 10" states that lawmakers don't have a "substantial" financial interest in a bill if it would also affect at least 10 other people. That's almost literally anything, as Stern notes.

> "So when former Rep. Eddie Farnsworth voted on charter school bills despite owning a charter school operation, Sen. David Gowan sponsored a fireworks bill that benefited (his) own fireworks business, or lawmakers got paid by CPLC while voting on bills that could help CPLC, there is no issue under present law," Stern wrote.

As it stands, it's up to lawmakers to disclose if they have a conflict of interest in voting for a bill, and whether that conflict is enough to abstain from the vote. Few think their conflicts are worthy of disclosure.

And for those who break the rule, the only real accountability comes from voters or their colleagues voting to expel them (or felony bribery charges, which are almost impossible to prosecute without a smoking gun AZScam-style video of politicians explicitly stating they're taking money for a bribe).

Considering we only pay them $24,000 per year[2] and almost all lawmakers have day jobs, it's no surprise that lawmakers tend to look the other way when their colleagues have seemingly obvious conflicts.

House Democratic Leader Reginald Bolding, for example, barred his caucus from doling out COVID-19 funds to CPLC, but still couldn't bring himself to condemn his colleagues for taking the gigs and attempted to minimize how improper the arrangement is, saying "it looks like the appearance of some things."

Let's start by calling it what it is. When lawmakers push bills on behalf of their employers and use their elected offices to benefit their bosses and not the people, it's corruption. If not by a legal definition, certainly by a common one.

Help us pay ourselves more than $24,000 per year so we don't have to take side hustles with CPLC. Subscribe as a paying member now for just $70 per year before we put up the paywall and increase the price.

Good luck getting a nursing job: A judge sided wit nursing students at the Maricopa Community Colleges who said the required clinical rotations for their degrees, which would have required vaccinations because of hospitals' policies, violated their freedom of religion. The judge didn't address the whole case yet, but granted a preliminary injunction, which will require the colleges to provide alternative accommodations for the students, the Republic's Alison Steinbach reports.

Our invite must've gotten lost in the mail: U.S. Rep. Kyrsten Sinema actually talked to local reporters yesterday, now that the infrastructure bill she championed passed the House of Representatives. She said she's still working to get things done on the social infrastructure plan and isn't concerned about critics in her own party, the Republic's Yvonne Wingett Sanchez reports.

> "The lesson that I take from (the) elections, whether they be my own or others, is that folks — they expect results. They're less interested in the talking heads on television and the partisan talking points on cable TV. They're less interested in the tweets. What they are interested in is who is delivering results that make a difference in their lives. And so what I pledge to you and to folks throughout Arizona is to continue to do what I've always done, which is just put my head down, stay focused on the work, and deliver results for Arizonans," Sinema said.

No such thing as a conflict of interest in Arizona: The Constable Ethics, Standards and Training Board, which oversees the constables who evict people, is administered by an outside contractor, a rare, perhaps singular, arrangement in state government. That contracted group, Capitol Consulting, shares a CEO with the Arizona Multihousing Association, a landlord group, the Republic's Jessica Boehm, Catherine Reagor and Ralph Chapoco report.

Once again, why do we elect these positions?: The same group of Republic reporters wrote another piece looking at the constables (we love it — we were on that beat a minute ago). Their story mentions some of the same constable behavioral issues that we wrote about, like public urination and super fast driving. They also discuss the difficulty of disciplining constables when complaints arise.

At least it's not the University of Austin?: When the University of Arizona bought Ashford, a for-profit college with a string of problems, and turned it into UA Global Campus, faculty worried it would harm the UA brand. And now, the accreditor of the UA Global Campus still has concerns about the college's academics and plans to come visit to look into it, the Arizona Daily Star's Kathryn Palmer writes.

More map content: This year's Arizona political mapmaking is operating without a higher level of oversight by the U.S. Department of Justice for the first time. Instead, there's a lower standard in place where the onus is on people to sue if they believe a map is racially discriminatory toward any group, the Arizona Mirror's Jeremy Duda reports. TODAY'S TIDBIT

U.S. Rep. Paul Gosar has once again successfully trolled the libs with his horrendous mashup of anime breakout hit "Attack on Titan" with poorly photoshopped congressional faces on the characters of the violent and gory TV adaption of the comic.

The hot takes are flying about whether he should be banned from Twitter (which put a warning on the tweet), as is condemnation for depicting himself as killing Rep. Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez and attacking Joe Biden. (AOC responded by declaring him a "collection of wet toothpicks.")

We're not surprised that Gosar latched on to the themes of racism, nationalism and isolationism, not to mention the simple imagery of a wall being attacked by non-humans. But as we wasted an hour talking to other fans of the show yesterday, we couldn't escape the fact that he seemed to be taking the exact wrong message from the show, at least for anybody who has seen past Season 1.

Which brings us to today's tidbit: this fascinating article in The New Republic called "Why Attack on Titan Is the Alt-Right's Favorite Manga."

You don't need to watch the show to understand the article, which takes on the issue of how our political leanings allow two people to watch the same show and come away with very different takes on what it's about.

WHAT WE'RE LAUGHING AT

The City of Tucson is recruiting applicants for the jobs of people who refuse to get the COVID-19 vaccine, in defiance of the city's mandate, and so far, they're getting a lot of takers, Tucson City Councilman Steve Kozachik writes in his weekly newsletter. The newsletter gives some insight into managing a vaccine mandate, including how to limit disruption to city services and the challenges with accommodations.

And there are some ridiculous elements to managing the policy, too: He said there's a doctor giving out a bevy of medical exemptions without much inquiry, and some employees seem to be proud of getting accommodations instead of the vaccination. There's been an increase of employees calling in sick in some departments, he said.

One employee called in sick, then posted photos at a NASCAR event, writing, "The boys had a good time."

Alma Hernandez, one of the four on CPLC's payroll, did abstain from one vote on an ambulance-related bill — because she and her brother, Rep. Daniel Hernandez, had a "landlord" who had a conflict of interest.

Regrettably, we don't have time for a rant about landlords specifically, but suffice to say that rural politicians rent rooms or houses in Phoenix from all manner of lobbyists. (Last we checked, Republican Sen. David Gowan, for example, was still crashing during the legislative session with former House staffer turned pot lobbyist Brett Mecum.)

We're firmly in favor of paying politicians a living wage. It makes them slightly less corruptible. Voters in Tucson almost approved a wage increase for their mayor and council members, but the measure was narrowly defeated. Typically, any requests for salary increases for politicians fail at the ballot because people don't really like politicians. But a higher wage makes for fewer comprising side jobs.

Small favor. Just found out we are covering the Republican Governor's Association. We have to do a preview early /early Wednesday morning. Any chance you can get us 5 minutes with Gov. Ducey tomorrow afternoon. We would like to have his sound available for those early shots on Wednesday.

Is that doable? Lmk and we will fly accordingly.

Both of us – turns out – reached out to you. let us know if you are making any headway – our shooter is already enroute to az – we are on a flight in a few hours.
Obviously the governor's schedule dictates when and where he has the five minute pull aside.
As host of the convention – 1. just tell us why it's important...2. what do you expect to hear and 3. while it may seem republicans have wind at their back – 1 year can make a big difference in the 36 gov races in 2022. What is your message and experience tell you about the path forward?

Let us know what you find out.

CJ, we are on our way to the airport and sked to land at sky harbor a little before 3:00.

I just spoke to my boss who says if we can do an interview with the Governor today she'll make us available from the biltmore all day tomorrow.

As it turns out….we already have another interview set for outside the statehouse late this afternoon. Obviously, we'd like to grab the Governor too while we're there. But will adjust as need be. Lee/Laj

Hey CJ,

My name is Matt Leach, I'm a reporter at Foxnews.com. My colleague Andrew Murray passed along your contact info. I will be in Arizona this Wednesday through Friday doing a story about semiconductor chip production in the Phoenix area. I was wondering if the governor would be available for a brief 5-10 minute interview regarding the business climate in AZ and why companies are choosing to build plants in Arizona.

Happy to do the interview in the Gov's office in Phoenix or anywhere that works with your schedule.

The interview would be published on Foxnews.com with sound bites made available for use by FNC.

Thanks,
Matt Leach

Hey CJ…good chatting. Below is a preliminary outline of the Q's. As I said on the phone…likely Only need 5-10 minutes. Happy to meet anywhere.

1) Why did Intel and TSMC decide to build and invest in Arizona?

2) What is the story behind the deal? How did it come to pass?

3) Did Arizona have more foresight than the federal government when it came to the chip shortage and America's need to reduce dependence on Asia for semiconductors?

4) What does this mean for the future? Is the long term goal for Arizona to become the go-to place for tech over California and Texas?

Thanks!

Hello CJ:

This is a formal request for an interview with Governor Ducey. This request is for a one-on-one talkback interview with our main anchor John Hook. It is for his weekly show called: Newsmaker Saturday. The goal of the show is to have a conversation with guests about interesting and important topics of the day. We are not interested in 20second soundbites. We are interested in long form interviews where the guest has time to answer questions in depth and like I said before, have a conversation with john.

We can tape the interview any time between 2pm – 3:30pm Tomorrow (Wednesday), Thursday, or Friday.

We can send a camera and streaming device to the Governor or if Zoom is preferred, we can do it that way.

Please let me know if this is something that interests you.

Thank-you.

Subject: Your Arizona border story

Hello from Phoenix, Dom. I'm Governor Ducey's communications director. Just caught your story on our trip to Yuma yesterday. Thanks for picking it up.

Video captured by KYMA, the Yuma station, is absolutely riveting. A link is below. You can see a group of migrants entering the country on the left side at about the 10:20 mark. They just strolled in, unimpeded, through an opening in the barrier. Shortly thereafter a child comes up, randomly, to hug Col. Heston Silbert, the head of AZ DPS.

It was the most surreal thing I've ever witnessed at a press conference. In one 45 second clip you can see both the promise and the failure of America.

While in Yuma we encountered migrants waiting to surrender to the Border Patrol from Nicaragua, Guatemala, Venezuela and India. The problem - one of the problems - is that there's simply not enough agents to process them. So they wait. The people of Yuma are overwhelmed, bringing them food and blankets but unable to address the real issue. It's heartbreaking and infuriating.

Fox might want to do more on this. A good person to speak with is, of course, the governor, as well as Jonathan Lines, a Yuma County supervisor, and Leon Wilmot, the sheriff. Let me know if we can assist in any way.

Good morning - hope all is well!

I'm reaching out to see if Governor Ducey is available tomorrow to join "Your World with Neil Cavuto" to discuss the deployment of National Guard troops following the rush of migrants in Yuma?

Our show is from 4-5PM ET / 2-3PM MT. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks so much,
Joseph Casale

Hello,

My name is Adam Sabes and I'm a writer for Fox News. We're doing a story on the governor's recent decision to ban cities, towns, and counties from enforcing a vaccine mandate, except for healthcare workers. I wanted to ask you in part, is this because of what is going on in Pima County? As I'm sure you know, the county was probably going to have to release hundreds of jail inmates because of a vaccine mandate for county employees who work with vulnerable populations.

Statement regarding the executive order:

Governor Ducey has been clear and consistent. He's pro-vaccine and anti-vaccine mandate.

The executive order issued Wednesday is an extension of an order that has been in place throughout the pandemic. It is not new and it's primary purpose is to allow the Arizona Department of Health Services to gather data essential to combating the public health challenges confronting our state. Critical information about hospital capacity, for example, would not be available without the collection of reliable real-time data.

The section of the order concerning the banning of vaccine mandates has been in place since the vaccine became widely available in January. Again, this is not new.

COVID mandates of any kind - whether they concern masks or vaccines - have proven to be divisive and counterproductive. Governor Ducey believes Arizonans can and should make their own decisions about their healthcare, not an overreaching federal or city government.

Thank you. We're looking forward to it! The 15 minutes will fly by so in addition to discussing what's on John's mind, I'm hoping we can touch on three topics: the border situation, specifically in Yuma; COVID and the support we're providing to hospitals; and the economy in light of today's announcement about the drop in Arizona's unemployment rate. Please don't hesitate to call at any time if you have any questions.
Also, be sure Corey brings an ear piece.

Hi all.

Checking to see if Governor Ducey would be available for the show tonight.

We have Sean Duffy guest-hosting and is asking for the governor.

Would be right at the top of the show at 10pm.

Topic:
The candidate who promised he would "shut down the virus" is now shirking his responsibilities to the states.

- Joe Biden on July 7, 2020: To beat Covid-19, we need a coordinated response from the federal government – but Donald Trump refuses to do his job. I've laid out exactly what I would do, and I encourage this president to adopt the plan in its entirety.
- Joe Biden on December 27, 2021: There is no federal solution. This gets solved at a state level.

An Open Letter from Arizona Healthcare Workers & Public Health Professionals to AZ Health Systems & Elected Officials/Policy Makers

Additional background information on why the above requested actions are so urgently needed:. Arizona's current healthcare crisis: The impact of COVID 19 on our state has been immense. As of December 18th, Arizona has the 4th highest COVID 19 death rate in the United States (323/100,000) and, tragically, is on course to join the top three.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

STATE OF THE STATE ADDRESS

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

EMBARGOED UNTIL GOVERNOR DUCEY DELIVERS REMARKS PREPARED FOR DELIVERY

Arizona: There's No Stopping Us

Governor Doug Ducey

Speaker Bowers, President Fann, Leaders Rios and Bolding, Chief Justice Brutinel, Members of the Legislature and Judiciary, everyone assembled here – the families, the friends, the special guests and dignitaries – all my fellow Arizonans: There is nowhere else I'd rather be right now than here, in this chamber, on this floor, together, in person, smiling, shaking hands, and celebrating the strength and the future of the State of Arizona.

Typically in an even numbered year, we've logged a lot of hours working together. But today we have an unusually large number of fresh faces. And that makes it all the more exciting. Would all the new members of the House and Senate – those sworn in since our last sine die – please rise? Welcome.

Without citizens like yourselves and your colleagues willing to participate and make the sacrifices that inevitably come along the way – the cornerstone of our great democracy, "We the People" – is merely words. You make it a reality. Thank you ALL for your service and civic participation.

We've also got some not so fresh faces among us. Near the top of the list – me.

I have the unique privilege of doing something today no Arizona governor has done in more than three decades, reporting on the State of our State for my 8th time. And so I begin by expressing my sincere and eternal gratitude to the people of Arizona for entrusting me with two terms in this incredible job – and to all of you for your partnership along the way. Thank you.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

And to my family for supporting me, and for all that you didn't sign up for – most of all, tolerating State of the State rehearsals around the kitchen table year after year – and especially to Angela for her continued advocacy for the most vulnerable children and citizens of our state: I love you, and thank you.

But for those who think it's going to be a quiet year on the 9th Floor, you haven't been paying attention. As I enter the fourth and final quarter, I'm reminded of something my high school coach told me – "Get in and get the job done." And as I stand here today, the job isn't done. The goodbyes will come later – much later. I intend to make the most of every moment and work hard all along the way for my employers – the citizens of this state.

Ladies and gentleman, at the risk of sounding repetitive, the State of our State is strong. And we are poised to do what everyone in public service strives for: to leave it stronger than we found it.

Last session was one for the record books. Together, we made it the most successful since I've been down here – and I'm not just talking about cocktails to-go.

Liability reform for our small businesses. Bipartisan wildfire solutions and funding to match. New revenue streams through a modernization of our tribal gaming compacts. New school choice options for kids and families. A record investment in roads, infrastructure, broadband and affordable housing. Nearly 100 percent of citizens 65 and older with at least one shot of the vaccine thanks to a national model for distribution brought to you by Dr. Cara Christ, Michael Bidwill and the Arizona Cardinals. We led the way with universal licensing reform. And with the leadership of Dr. Regina Cobb, we passed another first in the nation Arizona policy that everyone is rushing to copy: telemedicine. And a list we are very proud to be at the top of: the largest tax cut in Arizona history, with the passage of the lowest flat tax in the nation.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

And yet anyone who has ever worked with me will attest: I have a hard time stopping to celebrate victory. It was true at Cold Stone, and it's been true in the public square. So naturally, after we signed the budget, I told my staff: "In 2022, we're going to top all of this." And so we've been hard at work to make this a banner year.

One thing that was clear when we went back to review the tape on the last seven years: As co-equal branches of government, working in good faith with the Legislature, we have set the bar very high.

Arizona is better positioned than at any time in our 110 year history. And that makes our work and our priorities much different than when I stood before you the first time.

You know the facts: Back then, the state budget was broken – in the red by $1 billion.

I remember meeting just days after the 2014 election, and reviewing options. In the easy column, budget gimmicks and tax increases. On the other side, budget cuts and tough decisions.

In that election, I ran on having built a business, and I committed to shrink a government and grow an economy. And together, we have done just that.

Today, a lot is different in Arizona. We have lived within our means: We have more citizens, our budget is balanced, our economy is roaring and our government is smaller and more efficient than it's ever been. In fact, we believe so strongly in shrinking government that for the first time ever we are demolishing unneeded state buildings, on track to reduce our footprint by nearly 750,000 square feet since we got here.

We are sitting atop a surplus of several billion dollars, fueled not by tax increases – but by the opposite: historic economic growth. It turns out free-market capitalism works. Supply-side economics might not be the sexiest thing for candidates to run on these days, but it sure looks good on a spreadsheet.

Today, our state revenue is growing at an even faster rate than the so-called experts predicted. So this year, just like in the past, we are going to double-down on what works. Rather than endless, needless programs that waste the people's money, we are going to be targeted and responsible.

We will resist the cries from the spending lobby, and once again, we will allow the people to keep their hard-earned money. We will cut taxes.

It's really not that complicated; it's just basic common sense. Government takes in more than it needs to pay the bills, and the taxpayer should get to keep his or her hard-earned dollars.

Today, jobs are plentiful. Back in 2014, I remember getting grilled on the campaign trail about how all the jobs Arizona was getting were call centers and construction. My response? There's dignity in all work, and it was true. But for far too many employers and businesses, Arizona was, in fact, a flyover state on their way to Texas. We knew we could do better if we could get those decision-makers to stop here, so we could make the pitch to show what a beautiful state we live in. Now, because of our combined work, we have an all-of-the-above approach on jobs. Not just call centers but also car manufacturers, autonomous vehicles, tech start-ups and world-class semiconductors. We said we wanted to be a jobs juggernaut, and in the process, we became a paycheck paradise. Plus, unlike California, Illinois and New York, here you actually get to keep your paycheck.

But still, there's no denying what's happening on a national level is straining families and seniors' checkbooks. Washington's spending spree, combined with mismanagement of COVID, has broken our supply chain and inflated the cost of everything. A staggering surge of 6.8 percent – food, clothing, gas, prescription drugs. The largest increase in the cost of daily life in nearly four decades. A White House in denial it's even occurring. And a

President hell bent on printing and borrowing money while raising taxes. This is not a strategy that will help working people.

It all makes our commitment of returning money to the people more important than ever. Washington D.C. might have their eye on your paycheck – but at this Capitol, the only special interest on our mind is the taxpayer.

We have made Arizona a top destination for jobs and companies. Low taxes. A strong, reliable energy grid, with the largest nuclear power plant in the United States. And a great quality of life — they all go a long way.

But as any business person knows: The hidden taxes of the regulatory state can be the real killer. And for small businesses, start-ups and independent contractors, these regulations are a death sentence.

We've taken a baseball bat to that bureaucracy, with a moratorium on new regulations ever since 2015. I don't know about you, but I haven't heard any complaints. Maybe because we've already saved taxpayers $169 million. Let's make these reforms permanent, in law, and ensure Arizona is always the land of economic freedom and opportunity for all.

Arizona workers are the ones truly fueling our healthy and transformed economy. Our manufacturing sector is on fire – it's even outpaced construction, which is a tough hill to climb. If we weren't turning out so many electric cars, I'd say: 'Let's pour on the gas.' Instead – I'll put it this way: Let's invest in the worker, arming them with the skills they need for our growing semiconductor and advanced manufacturing industries. Whether your top issue is workforce or rural jobs, this is the way to do it: Our budget makes historic investments into community colleges to empower our people with a quality education and the skills of the future.

Nevertheless, leave it to Washington D.C. – politicians there are doing everything they can to stand in the way of freedom. Big government socialism is a failed and dangerous experiment. But it doesn't stop some from trying it time and time again – paying people not to work and disincentivizing initiative and self-determination.

That's not the Arizona way. So we called D.C.'s bluff and instead said: "Thanks, but no thanks" to unnecessary unemployment benefits. There's no such thing as a free lunch or free money. Instead we will focus on rewarding hard work.

This approach has meant that people keep moving here. Less taxes means more taxpayers. During the pandemic, as other states grandstanded, Arizona protected lives, livelihoods and individual liberty. People flocked here, and they've stayed. And who wouldn't love it?

President Ronald Reagan once said that if the pilgrims had landed on the west coast, they wouldn't have bothered to discover the rest of the country. But today, there is an exodus from California. And the same is true of other states with similar flawed policies. The lack of opportunity, fueled by bad governing philosophies, are hurting real Americans and pushing them out to states like Arizona, where opportunity is abundant.

Sure, some have groaned, but growth is a good problem to have. The alternative is to be a state in decline, misery and decay. No state's path to success has ever been paved with "Closed for Business" signs. Our only request to our new citizens is: Don't forget why you came here in the first place. Freedom, opportunity and good government matter.

Make no mistake: We will keep Arizona – Arizona.

Our way is tried and true. In the past, when Arizona has veered off course, it hasn't turned out well. And that brings us to another thing we found seven years ago when we got here. The state had amassed billions of dollars in debt through the recession, fueled by out-of-control spending in the early 2000s and budget shellgames. They even had to sell off this building. A couple of years ago, thanks to the leadership here, we got the deed back. And last year, we paid off billions more in debt – ratcheting it down to historically low levels. We took our Rainy Day fund to a record-breaking $1 billion. As a result, we have higher credit ratings than when we got here and that means even more savings to the taxpayer. So why stop now?

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

I'll present a budget on Friday that keeps this stewardship going – paying off more debt, and topping off our Rainy Day Fund, so that we don't just own this house, but we leave the people's house truly in order.

We are blessed to be a magnet for America's veterans. They represent the best of our country, and as any hiring manager will tell you: Veterans are among their most prized and productive employees.

We celebrate our veterans and want more of them in the State of Arizona. Would all the veterans here today please rise so we can recognize your service to our nation?

We continue to find ways to honor our veterans. In the State of Arizona today, thanks to the efforts of Representative Gail Griffin and Senator David Gowan, veterans pay no taxes on their military pension.

Under the G.I. Bill, they also get to attend our in-state universities and community colleges free of charge. After all, they've already given so much. But how about their spouses? These dedicated husbands and wives have served and sacrificed as well. So this session, let's launch a program to waive their tuition too.

K-12 education is one of the reasons so many of us ran for office in the first place. But as an outsider, it was striking to me when I got to this Capitol that our school discussions weren't about what kids actually learned. Bureaucrats were competing for who could spend more money. Fewer dollars were going to the classroom, and instead lining the pockets of trial attorneys.

But we pressed forward: positioning Arizona as the number one school choice state in the nation.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

When COVID hit, that designation was a lifeline for families. Some school leaders did everything possible to keep kids in the classroom. But too often, politics and virtue signaling took center stage. In the process, more parents got involved. And thank God they did. Some voted with their feet – moving schools or school districts or to totally different learning models – whether that's homeschooling or microschools.

But other families have seen their kids fall behind. There's been too much attention put on masks and not nearly enough placed on math; a focus on restrictions rather than reading and writing. And it's students of color and those in poverty who have been most impacted by the COVID-era posturing and politics of some school board bureaucrats.

So come June, we're launching a summer camp with an emphasis on catching kids up in key areas: math, reading and American civics. We will lead the way to eliminate learning loss. And in case you haven't checked Twitter lately: Arizona schools are open and they will remain open.

In Arizona schools, we will not divide people by race. Arizona schools should be instructing our kids in the Golden Rule – to treat one another with respect, and judge people as Martin Luther King Junior taught, on the content of their character and not the color of their skin. This session we'll make it clear. Students should be taught to think critically – not taught critical race theory.

But let's not stop there. Parents deserve respect – and the occasional parent-teacher conference isn't enough. It's 2022. We've got the technology. Let's require all that a child is taught, all curriculum and academic materials be put online and available to search and review by every parent, grandparent and interested citizen.

Arizona has set the standard for school choice and innovative education solutions – and it's because of the vision of Arizona leaders that paved the way. Leaders like Governor Fife Symington, Superintendent of Public

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Instruction Lisa Graham Keegan and Democratic Representative Armando Ruiz, who worked in a bipartisan way to create new opportunities for students – open enrollment, charter schools. They knew that parents were best equipped to make decisions around their child's education.

And new people are stepping up every day. Leaders like Janelle Wood, a mom and founder of the Black Mothers Forum. Janelle has led the way in creating new learning models where students receive personalized support. Many of Janelle's students were several grades behind, but with her unique focus on ensuring students feel safe, secure and ready to learn and grow, they quickly made gains towards academic excellence.

Janelle is here today. Janelle – thank you for your service and work to benefit Arizona kids.

Fifty-plus years ago politicians stood in the schoolhouse door and wouldn't let minorities in, today union-backed politicians stand in the schoolhouse door and won't let minorities out. Many of our poor kids and children of color are trapped in a failing school. It's time to set these families free.

This session, let's expand school choice any way we can — greater open enrollment, new transportation models, more charter schools and more educational freedom for families, especially those in failing schools or who can't afford to pick up and move to a new neighborhood. Let's think big and find more ways to get kids into the school of their parents' choice. Send me the bills, and I'll sign them.

For Angela and I, the children in the care of the state - our foster kids - have had a special place in our hearts. I know you all feel the same. We've made notable strides in this area, thanks to our dedicated Child Safety caseworkers. With investments, we've seen lower caseloads and rapid placement of kids into safe, loving homes. And when other states switched to virtual home-inspections, in Arizona, these dedicated women and men showed up in person every day to keep these kids safe.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

But unfortunately, we will never work ourselves out of a job in this area – and the pandemic hasn't been good for these vulnerable children.

Often, it's grandma or grandpa, an aunt or uncle, who steps up to care for these kids. It can be better for the child, and often cheaper for the state because historically, they haven't been treated as foster families. More than 6,000 children in Arizona live in these homes — all the evidence you need that you can't put a price tag on love. So moving forward, these loving extended family members should have the same resources as any other foster family. We'll make sure of that this year.

We've had success getting good ideas done together. But there's also something to be said for just saying "no" to really bad ideas. When the Left demanded "defund the police", Arizona said, "no chance." Instead we invested more in our men and women in blue. And we plan to do it again.

Arizona, Texas, Florida, Tennessee: All are among the fastest growing states in the nation. And the policies that made us so attractive can be applied to cities as well.

If you are an elected official charged with overseeing a police department and you don't believe there's a correlation between the attacks on law enforcement and rising crime rates nationally, you need a reality check because you're putting public safety and human life at risk. We intend to keep Arizona a place where we honor and value our cops and all of law enforcement, including correctional officers and first responders. A place where public safety matters. No riots. No smash and grab. And a news flash for the DOJ and Merrick Garland: Mr. Attorney General, instead of attacking Police Chief Jeri Williams and her officers for risking their lives and keeping Arizona streets safe during civil unrest, your time would be better spent protecting the federal courthouses in Portland, Seattle and San Francisco. Do your job.

When we need them, Arizona law enforcement is there. No matter the circumstance. No complaints. No virtual work. Some of our State Troopers are here with us today. Join me in showing our appreciation for their selfless service.

When it comes to building a budget, public safety will always be at the top of our list. And this year, we have a record surplus. So our budget proposes making our State Troopers in Arizona the highest paid law enforcement professionals in the state. I know you agree – they've earned it.

And we're going to be leaning on their dedication more than ever. Our southern border has never been more deadly or more dangerous. Meanwhile, the White House and Congress have decided to turn a blind eye. This is a national crisis – and it calls for leadership.

A few years ago, we came together – every Republican and Democrat in this entire chamber – and passed the Arizona Opioid Epidemic Act. It was historic. But now President Biden and his cabinet members are working against us. Fentanyl is streaming across the border. It's causing death and devastation, and there's no plan and zero action from the administration. Secretary Mayorkas is AWOL. The White House has canceled the word "crisis." And for self-proclaimed border czar, Kamala Harris, this is just another laughing matter. This is a dereliction of duty by the highest officeholders in our nation. And in Arizona, we will do what they refuse to do.

We've got a strong track record:

In 2015, we created the Arizona Border Strike Force to take on the cartels and protect our state against the flow of criminals, narcotics, weapons and ammunition. President Biden refuses to deploy the National Guard despite the fact it's been done by every other President in recent history, including Barack Obama. So in April, we deployed them ourselves, providing much needed assistance to local law enforcement. And with the leadership here, we invested $55 million in last year's budget to amplify all these efforts.

But more action and manpower are needed. Here's the plan:

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Number one: Resources.

Our budget will make significant new investments to strengthen the border strike force, provide advanced equipment to aid in the pursuit of dangerous criminals, and deploy the latest drone technology to bolster surveillance and stop the cartels in their tracks.

Next: The rule of law.

This is not just a public safety crisis; it's a humanitarian crisis. And the human traffickers that prey on the desperation of people looking for a better life need to pay the consequences. It's time for us to increase the criminal penalties against human smuggling and provide more funding to border counties to ensure prosecution and incarceration.

Third: Boots on the ground and multistate intelligence sharing.

Border security is national security, and the lack of action from D.C. puts every American at risk. In November, I dispatched Arizona's top-ranking enforcement officers to partner with their peers in Texas: Major General Kerry Muehlenbeck, Department of Public Safety Colonel Heston Silbert, and Department of Homeland Security Director Tim Roemer. In December, we finalized the plan. Texas Governor Greg Abbott and I are teaming up to form the American Governor's Border Strike Force – a commitment between states to do what the Biden administration is unwilling to do: Patrol and secure our border.

Fourth: The Wall and physical barriers. They work.

Representatives Joanne Osborne and Tim Dunn and Senator Sine Kerr were with me in Yuma a few weeks ago and we saw it first hand – people walking across a wide-open and unprotected border. Our border is a patchwork of federal, state, tribal and private lands. Where Arizona can add physical barriers to the border, we will.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

But if the entire southern border isn't secure, neither is our nation. So fifth: I'm calling on our United States senators to join this fight to secure our border. No member of the Arizona congressional delegation that actually cares about the safety of our communities should vote "yes" on any legislation until the President agrees to language that does the following: Secures our border with a wall, a physical barrier and virtual surveillance; increases resources to the local communities that have been devastated by these dangerous open border policies; and makes it clear that our border is not open to illegal immigration.

Senator Kelly, Senator Sinema - check my website. We've even drafted the language for you.

The takeaway: In Arizona, we will secure our border. We will protect public safety. We will not back down. We will fight this fight until Washington D.C. finally acts.

Rule of law and equal justice under the law have been bedrocks of our Republic and guiding principles of our work together. A few years ago, when we learned of the massive backlog of untested rape kits, we worked in a bipartisan manner to clear that backlog and to make sure victims were prioritized. But as we've learned, government bureaucrats often find a way around the law. In this case, some counties are charging these women – these victims – up to $800 in processing charges, and sending the bill to collections. It's shameful, so we will be cracking down on this government abuse and with your help, tightening the law.

One area where our work clearly isn't done is on water. We passed a monumental policy that we were told would never happen – the Drought Contingency Plan. After that one, I determined – in Arizona, if we can do this, we can do just about anything. Then last year, with Speaker Bowers' leadership, we put our money where our mouth is: $200 million to invest in the water technology of the future. Now, with resources available in our budget, a relationship with Mexico that we've built and strengthened over the last seven years, and the need clear – what better place to invest more? Instead of just talking about desalination – the technology that made Israel the world's water superpower – how about we pave the way to make it actually happen? So Speaker Bowers, President Fann and I have been working, and we propose that we make a historic investment: $1 billion.

Our goal: Secure Arizona's water future for the next 100 years.

Our state has grown and thrived because of the foresight of past leaders on this issue – Carl Hayden, Barry Goldwater, Bruce Babbitt and Jon Kyl. The result: the Central Arizona Project, the Salt River Project, the Hoover Dam, the Roosevelt Dam. Now it's our turn, our moment, to leave this state better than we found it. Let's rise to the occasion.

More people means more infrastructure needs. Not just on water, but roads and bridges. We've made record investments in road repairs and improvements. A few years ago, we got together and prioritized expansion of the I-17. Then, thanks to the leadership of Senator T.J. Shope and Governor Lewis of the Gila River Indian Community, we paved the way for a wider I-10 to improve movement and commerce between Tucson and Phoenix. But that project is still scheduled several years out from now, and 94 visits as Governor to southern Arizona will remind you how important this issue is. So, let's finish the job. Our budget will invest more dollars to get the I-10 completion leap-frogged to the front of the priority list, ahead of schedule, connecting our entire state, North to South.

As you see, as much progress as we've made – there's plenty left to do on so many fronts. And we'll have all year to grind it out together: a continued focus on the health of our citizens, and support for our hospitals, and dedicated healthcare workers; investments in cyber security to protect the identity and data of our citizens; improvements to our elections, to bring confidence and security; better broadband connectivity all across rural Arizona; more efforts to prevent wildfires; maintaining Arizona's position as the number one pro-second amendment state in the nation; protecting life in every way possible; and all along the way, preparing for another Super Bowl, where our beautiful state will be center stage just a year from now.

An ambitious agenda, to be sure. One that can cement our successes and the good reforms we've made, and further expand opportunity and optimism here in our state.

No doubt, there will be challenges. In fact, some have said we can't get much done this year. Divided chambers. An election. Why bother? I disagree. Let's aim high and think big.

We're smarter today, and as I look around this chamber – I see the wisdom of our veteran lawmakers, side by side with the energy and fresh perspective of the newcomers – and that's a combo that is sure to produce results.

So whether you're like me, in the camp with my friends Rusty and Karen – we've only got a year left in these jobs – or you're just getting started, let's recommit today to giving our all to getting the job done for the people who have hired us.

Thank you, and God bless the great State of Arizona.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

STATE OF THE STATE ADDRESS

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

EMBARGOED UNTIL GOVERNOR DUCEY DELIVERS REMARKS PREPARED FOR DELIVERY

Arizona: There's No Stopping Us

Governor Doug Ducey

Speaker Bowers, President Fann, Leaders Rios and Bolding, Chief Justice Brutinel, Members of the Legislature and Judiciary, everyone assembled here – the families, the friends, the special guests and dignitaries – all my fellow Arizonans: There is nowhere else I'd rather be right now than here, in this chamber, on this floor, together, in person, smiling, shaking hands, and celebrating the strength and the future of the State of Arizona.

Typically in an even numbered year, we've logged a lot of hours working together. But today we have an unusually large number of fresh faces. And that makes it all the more exciting. Would all the new members of the House and Senate – those sworn in since our last sine die – please rise? Welcome.

Without citizens like yourselves and your colleagues willing to participate and make the sacrifices that inevitably come along the way – the cornerstone of our great democracy, "We the People" – is merely words. You make it a reality. Thank you ALL for your service and civic participation.

We've also got some not so fresh faces among us. Near the top of the list – me.

I have the unique privilege of doing something today no Arizona governor has done in more than three decades, reporting on the State of our State for my 8th time. And so I begin by expressing my sincere and eternal gratitude to the people of Arizona for entrusting me with two terms in this incredible job – and to all of you for your partnership along the way. Thank you.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

And to my family for supporting me, and for all that you didn't sign up for – most of all, tolerating State of the State rehearsals around the kitchen table year after year – and especially to Angela for her continued advocacy for the most vulnerable children and citizens of our state: I love you, and thank you.

But for those who think it's going to be a quiet year on the 9th Floor, you haven't been paying attention. As I enter the fourth and final quarter, I'm reminded of something my high school coach told me – "Get in and get the job done." And as I stand here today, the job isn't done. The goodbyes will come later – much later. I intend to make the most of every moment and work hard all along the way for my employers – the citizens of this state.

Ladies and gentleman, at the risk of sounding repetitive, the State of our State is strong. And we are poised to do what everyone in public service strives for: to leave it stronger than we found it.

Last session was one for the record books. Together, we made it the most successful since I've been down here – and I'm not just talking about cocktails to-go.

Liability reform for our small businesses. Bipartisan wildfire solutions and funding to match. New revenue streams through a modernization of our tribal gaming compacts. New school choice options for kids and families. A record investment in roads, infrastructure, broadband and affordable housing. Nearly 100 percent of citizens 65 and older with at least one shot of the vaccine thanks to a national model for distribution brought to you by Dr. Cara Christ, Michael Bidwill and the Arizona Cardinals. We led the way with universal licensing reform. And with the leadership of Dr. Regina Cobb, we passed another first in the nation Arizona policy that everyone is rushing to copy: telemedicine. And a list we are very proud to be at the top of: the largest tax cut in Arizona history, with the passage of the lowest flat tax in the nation.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

And yet anyone who has ever worked with me will attest: I have a hard time stopping to celebrate victory. It was true at Cold Stone, and it's been true in the public square. So naturally, after we signed the budget, I told my staff: "In 2022, we're going to top all of this." And so we've been hard at work to make this a banner year.

One thing that was clear when we went back to review the tape on the last seven years: As co-equal branches of government, working in good faith with the Legislature, we have set the bar very high.

Arizona is better positioned than at any time in our 110 year history. And that makes our work and our priorities much different than when I stood before you the first time.

You know the facts: Back then, the state budget was broken – in the red by $1 billion.

I remember meeting just days after the 2014 election, and reviewing options. In the easy column, budget gimmicks and tax increases. On the other side, budget cuts and tough decisions.

In that election, I ran on having built a business, and I committed to shrink a government and grow an economy. And together, we have done just that.

Today, a lot is different in Arizona. We have lived within our means: We have more citizens, our budget is balanced, our economy is roaring and our government is smaller and more efficient than it's ever been. In fact, we believe so strongly in shrinking government that for the first time ever we are demolishing unneeded state buildings, on track to reduce our footprint by nearly 750,000 square feet since we got here.

We are sitting atop a surplus of several billion dollars, fueled not by tax increases – but by the opposite: historic economic growth. It turns out free-market capitalism works. Supply-side economics might not be the sexiest thing for candidates to run on these days, but it sure looks good on a spreadsheet.

Today, our state revenue is growing at an even faster rate than the so-called experts predicted. So this year, just like in the past, we are going to double-down on what works. Rather than endless, needless programs that waste the people's money, we are going to be targeted and responsible.

We will resist the cries from the spending lobby, and once again, we will allow the people to keep their hard-earned money. We will cut taxes.

It's really not that complicated; it's just basic common sense. Government takes in more than it needs to pay the bills, and the taxpayer should get to keep his or her hard-earned dollars.

Today, jobs are plentiful. Back in 2014, I remember getting grilled on the campaign trail about how all the jobs Arizona was getting were call centers and construction. My response? There's dignity in all work, and it was true. But for far too many employers and businesses, Arizona was, in fact, a flyover state on their way to Texas. We knew we could do better if we could get those decision-makers to stop here, so we could make the pitch to show what a beautiful state we live in. Now, because of our combined work, we have an all-of-the-above approach on jobs. Not just call centers but also car manufacturers, autonomous vehicles, tech start-ups and world-class semiconductors. We said we wanted to be a jobs juggernaut, and in the process, we became a paycheck paradise. Plus, unlike California, Illinois and New York, here you actually get to keep your paycheck.

But still, there's no denying what's happening on a national level is straining families and seniors' checkbooks. Washington's spending spree, combined with mismanagement of COVID, has broken our supply chain and inflated the cost of everything. A staggering surge of 6.8 percent – food, clothing, gas, prescription drugs. The largest increase in the cost of daily life in nearly four decades. A White House in denial it's even occurring. And a

President hell bent on printing and borrowing money while raising taxes. This is not a strategy that will help working people.

It all makes our commitment of returning money to the people more important than ever. Washington D.C. might have their eye on your paycheck – but at this Capitol, the only special interest on our mind is the taxpayer.

We have made Arizona a top destination for jobs and companies. Low taxes. A strong, reliable energy grid, with the largest nuclear power plant in the United States. And a great quality of life — they all go a long way.

But as any business person knows: The hidden taxes of the regulatory state can be the real killer. And for small businesses, start-ups and independent contractors, these regulations are a death sentence.

We've taken a baseball bat to that bureaucracy, with a moratorium on new regulations ever since 2015. I don't know about you, but I haven't heard any complaints. Maybe because we've already saved taxpayers $169 million. Let's make these reforms permanent, in law, and ensure Arizona is always the land of economic freedom and opportunity for all.

Arizona workers are the ones truly fueling our healthy and transformed economy. Our manufacturing sector is on fire – it's even outpaced construction, which is a tough hill to climb. If we weren't turning out so many electric cars, I'd say: 'Let's pour on the gas.' Instead – I'll put it this way: Let's invest in the worker, arming them with the skills they need for our growing semiconductor and advanced manufacturing industries. Whether your top issue is workforce or rural jobs, this is the way to do it: Our budget makes historic investments into community colleges to empower our people with a quality education and the skills of the future.

Nevertheless, leave it to Washington D.C. – politicians there are doing everything they can to stand in the way of freedom. Big government socialism is a failed and dangerous experiment. But it doesn't stop some from trying it time and time again – paying people not to work and disincentivizing initiative and self-determination.

That's not the Arizona way. So we called D.C.'s bluff and instead said: "Thanks, but no thanks" to unnecessary unemployment benefits. There's no such thing as a free lunch or free money. Instead we will focus on rewarding hard work.

This approach has meant that people keep moving here. Less taxes means more taxpayers. During the pandemic, as other states grandstanded, Arizona protected lives, livelihoods and individual liberty. People flocked here, and they've stayed. And who wouldn't love it?

President Ronald Reagan once said that if the pilgrims had landed on the west coast, they wouldn't have bothered to discover the rest of the country. But today, there is an exodus from California. And the same is true of other states with similar flawed policies. The lack of opportunity, fueled by bad governing philosophies, are hurting real Americans and pushing them out to states like Arizona, where opportunity is abundant.

Sure, some have groaned, but growth is a good problem to have. The alternative is to be a state in decline, misery and decay. No state's path to success has ever been paved with "Closed for Business" signs. Our only request to our new citizens is: Don't forget why you came here in the first place. Freedom, opportunity and good government matter.

Make no mistake: We will keep Arizona – Arizona.

Our way is tried and true. In the past, when Arizona has veered off course, it hasn't turned out well. And that brings us to another thing we found seven years ago when we got here. The state had amassed billions of dollars in debt through the recession, fueled by out-of-control spending in the early 2000s and budget shellgames. They even had to sell off this building. A couple of years ago, thanks to the leadership here, we got the deed back. And last year, we paid off billions more in debt – ratcheting it down to historically low levels. We took our Rainy Day fund to a record-breaking $1 billion. As a result, we have higher credit ratings than when we got here and that means even more savings to the taxpayer. So why stop now?

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

I'll present a budget on Friday that keeps this stewardship going – paying off more debt, and topping off our Rainy Day Fund, so that we don't just own this house, but we leave the people's house truly in order.

We are blessed to be a magnet for America's veterans. They represent the best of our country, and as any hiring manager will tell you: Veterans are among their most prized and productive employees.

We celebrate our veterans and want more of them in the State of Arizona. Would all the veterans here today please rise so we can recognize your service to our nation?

We continue to find ways to honor our veterans. In the State of Arizona today, thanks to the efforts of Representative Gail Griffin and Senator David Gowan, veterans pay no taxes on their military pension.

Under the G.I. Bill, they also get to attend our in-state universities and community colleges free of charge. After all, they've already given so much. But how about their spouses? These dedicated husbands and wives have served and sacrificed as well. So this session, let's launch a program to waive their tuition too.

K-12 education is one of the reasons so many of us ran for office in the first place. But as an outsider, it was striking to me when I got to this Capitol that our school discussions weren't about what kids actually learned. Bureaucrats were competing for who could spend more money. Fewer dollars were going to the classroom, and instead lining the pockets of trial attorneys.

But we pressed forward: positioning Arizona as the number one school choice state in the nation.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

When COVID hit, that designation was a lifeline for families. Some school leaders did everything possible to keep kids in the classroom. But too often, politics and virtue signaling took center stage. In the process, more parents got involved. And thank God they did. Some voted with their feet – moving schools or school districts or to totally different learning models – whether that's homeschooling or microschools.

But other families have seen their kids fall behind. There's been too much attention put on masks and not nearly enough placed on math; a focus on restrictions rather than reading and writing. And it's students of color and those in poverty who have been most impacted by the COVID-era posturing and politics of some school board bureaucrats.

So come June, we're launching a summer camp with an emphasis on catching kids up in key areas: math, reading and American civics. We will lead the way to eliminate learning loss. And in case you haven't checked Twitter lately: Arizona schools are open and they will remain open.

In Arizona schools, we will not divide people by race. Arizona schools should be instructing our kids in the Golden Rule – to treat one another with respect, and judge people as Martin Luther King Junior taught, on the content of their character and not the color of their skin. This session we'll make it clear. Students should be taught to think critically – not taught critical race theory.

But let's not stop there. Parents deserve respect – and the occasional parent-teacher conference isn't enough. It's 2022. We've got the technology. Let's require all that a child is taught, all curriculum and academic materials be put online and available to search and review by every parent, grandparent and interested citizen.

Arizona has set the standard for school choice and innovative education solutions – and it's because of the vision of Arizona leaders that paved the way. Leaders like Governor Fife Symington, Superintendent of Public

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Instruction Lisa Graham Keegan and Democratic Representative Armando Ruiz, who worked in a bipartisan way to create new opportunities for students – open enrollment, charter schools. They knew that parents were best equipped to make decisions around their child's education.

And new people are stepping up every day. Leaders like Janelle Wood, a mom and founder of the Black Mothers Forum. Janelle has led the way in creating new learning models where students receive personalized support. Many of Janelle's students were several grades behind, but with her unique focus on ensuring students feel safe, secure and ready to learn and grow, they quickly made gains towards academic excellence.

Janelle is here today. Janelle – thank you for your service and work to benefit Arizona kids.

Fifty-plus years ago politicians stood in the schoolhouse door and wouldn't let minorities in, today union-backed politicians stand in the schoolhouse door and won't let minorities out. Many of our poor kids and children of color are trapped in a failing school. It's time to set these families free.

This session, let's expand school choice any way we can — greater open enrollment, new transportation models, more charter schools and more educational freedom for families, especially those in failing schools or who can't afford to pick up and move to a new neighborhood. Let's think big and find more ways to get kids into the school of their parents' choice. Send me the bills, and I'll sign them.

For Angela and I, the children in the care of the state - our foster kids - have had a special place in our hearts. I know you all feel the same. We've made notable strides in this area, thanks to our dedicated Child Safety caseworkers. With investments, we've seen lower caseloads and rapid placement of kids into safe, loving homes. And when other states switched to virtual home-inspections, in Arizona, these dedicated women and men showed up in person every day to keep these kids safe.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

But unfortunately, we will never work ourselves out of a job in this area – and the pandemic hasn't been good for these vulnerable children.

Often, it's grandma or grandpa, an aunt or uncle, who steps up to care for these kids. It can be better for the child, and often cheaper for the state because historically, they haven't been treated as foster families. More than 6,000 children in Arizona live in these homes — all the evidence you need that you can't put a price tag on love. So moving forward, these loving extended family members should have the same resources as any other foster family. We'll make sure of that this year.

We've had success getting good ideas done together. But there's also something to be said for just saying "no" to really bad ideas. When the Left demanded "defund the police", Arizona said, "no chance." Instead we invested more in our men and women in blue. And we plan to do it again.

Arizona, Texas, Florida, Tennessee: All are among the fastest growing states in the nation. And the policies that made us so attractive can be applied to cities as well.

If you are an elected official charged with overseeing a police department and you don't believe there's a correlation between the attacks on law enforcement and rising crime rates nationally, you need a reality check because you're putting public safety and human life at risk. We intend to keep Arizona a place where we honor and value our cops and all of law enforcement, including correctional officers and first responders. A place where public safety matters. No riots. No smash and grab. And a news flash for the DOJ and Merrick Garland: Mr. Attorney General, instead of attacking Police Chief Jeri Williams and her officers for risking their lives and keeping Arizona streets safe during civil unrest, your time would be better spent protecting the federal courthouses in Portland, Seattle and San Francisco. Do your job.

When we need them, Arizona law enforcement is there. No matter the circumstance. No complaints. No virtual work. Some of our State Troopers are here with us today. Join me in showing our appreciation for their selfless service.

When it comes to building a budget, public safety will always be at the top of our list. And this year, we have a record surplus. So our budget proposes making our State Troopers in Arizona the highest paid law enforcement professionals in the state. I know you agree – they've earned it.

And we're going to be leaning on their dedication more than ever. Our southern border has never been more deadly or more dangerous. Meanwhile, the White House and Congress have decided to turn a blind eye. This is a national crisis – and it calls for leadership.

A few years ago, we came together – every Republican and Democrat in this entire chamber – and passed the Arizona Opioid Epidemic Act. It was historic. But now President Biden and his cabinet members are working against us. Fentanyl is streaming across the border. It's causing death and devastation, and there's no plan and zero action from the administration. Secretary Mayorkas is AWOL. The White House has canceled the word "crisis." And for self-proclaimed border czar, Kamala Harris, this is just another laughing matter. This is a dereliction of duty by the highest officeholders in our nation. And in Arizona, we will do what they refuse to do.

We've got a strong track record:

In 2015, we created the Arizona Border Strike Force to take on the cartels and protect our state against the flow of criminals, narcotics, weapons and ammunition. President Biden refuses to deploy the National Guard despite the fact it's been done by every other President in recent history, including Barack Obama. So in April, we deployed them ourselves, providing much needed assistance to local law enforcement. And with the leadership here, we invested $55 million in last year's budget to amplify all these efforts.

But more action and manpower are needed. Here's the plan:

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Number one: Resources.

Our budget will make significant new investments to strengthen the border strike force, provide advanced equipment to aid in the pursuit of dangerous criminals, and deploy the latest drone technology to bolster surveillance and stop the cartels in their tracks.

Next: The rule of law.

This is not just a public safety crisis; it's a humanitarian crisis. And the human traffickers that prey on the desperation of people looking for a better life need to pay the consequences. It's time for us to increase the criminal penalties against human smuggling and provide more funding to border counties to ensure prosecution and incarceration.

Third: Boots on the ground and multistate intelligence sharing.

Border security is national security, and the lack of action from D.C. puts every American at risk. In November, I dispatched Arizona's top-ranking enforcement officers to partner with their peers in Texas: Major General Kerry Muehlenbeck, Department of Public Safety Colonel Heston Silbert, and Department of Homeland Security Director Tim Roemer. In December, we finalized the plan. Texas Governor Greg Abbott and I are teaming up to form the American Governor's Border Strike Force – a commitment between states to do what the Biden administration is unwilling to do: Patrol and secure our border.

Fourth: The Wall and physical barriers. They work.

Representatives Joanne Osborne and Tim Dunn and Senator Sine Kerr were with me in Yuma a few weeks ago and we saw it first hand – people walking across a wide-open and unprotected border. Our border is a patchwork of federal, state, tribal and private lands. Where Arizona can add physical barriers to the border, we will.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

But if the entire southern border isn't secure, neither is our nation. So fifth: I'm calling on our United States senators to join this fight to secure our border. No member of the Arizona congressional delegation that actually cares about the safety of our communities should vote "yes" on any legislation until the President agrees to language that does the following: Secures our border with a wall, a physical barrier and virtual surveillance; increases resources to the local communities that have been devastated by these dangerous open border policies; and makes it clear that our border is not open to illegal immigration.

Senator Kelly, Senator Sinema - check my website. We've even drafted the language for you.

The takeaway: In Arizona, we will secure our border. We will protect public safety. We will not back down. We will fight this fight until Washington D.C. finally acts.

Rule of law and equal justice under the law have been bedrocks of our Republic and guiding principles of our work together. A few years ago, when we learned of the massive backlog of untested rape kits, we worked in a bipartisan manner to clear that backlog and to make sure victims were prioritized. But as we've learned, government bureaucrats often find a way around the law. In this case, some counties are charging these women – these victims – up to $800 in processing charges, and sending the bill to collections. It's shameful, so we will be cracking down on this government abuse and with your help, tightening the law.

One area where our work clearly isn't done is on water. We passed a monumental policy that we were told would never happen – the Drought Contingency Plan. After that one, I determined – in Arizona, if we can do this, we can do just about anything. Then last year, with Speaker Bowers' leadership, we put our money where our mouth is: $200 million to invest in the water technology of the future. Now, with resources available in our budget, a relationship with Mexico that we've built and strengthened over the last seven years, and the need clear – what better place to invest more? Instead of just talking about desalination – the technology that made Israel the world's water superpower – how about we pave the way to make it actually happen? So Speaker Bowers, President Fann and I have been working, and we propose that we make a historic investment: $1 billion.

Our goal: Secure Arizona's water future for the next 100 years.

Our state has grown and thrived because of the foresight of past leaders on this issue – Carl Hayden, Barry Goldwater, Bruce Babbitt and Jon Kyl. The result: the Central Arizona Project, the Salt River Project, the Hoover Dam, the Roosevelt Dam. Now it's our turn, our moment, to leave this state better than we found it. Let's rise to the occasion.

More people means more infrastructure needs. Not just on water, but roads and bridges. We've made record investments in road repairs and improvements. A few years ago, we got together and prioritized expansion of the I-17. Then, thanks to the leadership of Senator T.J. Shope and Governor Lewis of the Gila River Indian Community, we paved the way for a wider I-10 to improve movement and commerce between Tucson and Phoenix. But that project is still scheduled several years out from now, and 94 visits as Governor to southern Arizona will remind you how important this issue is. So, let's finish the job. Our budget will invest more dollars to get the I-10 completion leap-frogged to the front of the priority list, ahead of schedule, connecting our entire state, North to South.

As you see, as much progress as we've made – there's plenty left to do on so many fronts. And we'll have all year to grind it out together: a continued focus on the health of our citizens, and support for our hospitals, and dedicated healthcare workers; investments in cyber security to protect the identity and data of our citizens; improvements to our elections, to bring confidence and security; better broadband connectivity all across rural Arizona; more efforts to prevent wildfires; maintaining Arizona's position as the number one pro-second amendment state in the nation; protecting life in every way possible; and all along the way, preparing for another Super Bowl, where our beautiful state will be center stage just a year from now.

An ambitious agenda, to be sure. One that can cement our successes and the good reforms we've made, and further expand opportunity and optimism here in our state.

No doubt, there will be challenges. In fact, some have said we can't get much done this year. Divided chambers. An election. Why bother? I disagree. Let's aim high and think big.

We're smarter today, and as I look around this chamber – I see the wisdom of our veteran lawmakers, side by side with the energy and fresh perspective of the newcomers – and that's a combo that is sure to produce results.

So whether you're like me, in the camp with my friends Rusty and Karen – we've only got a year left in these jobs – or you're just getting started, let's recommit today to giving our all to getting the job done for the people who have hired us.

Thank you, and God bless the great State of Arizona.

U.S. Treasury threatens to claw back Arizona funds over anti-masking school grants

The U.S. Treasury on Friday said it told Arizona officials the state's proposed COVID 19 education assistance programs targeted at schools without mask mandates violate usage rules for federal aid money to state and local governments, and the department may claw back funding.

Major Executive Budget Initiatives and Funding

HRIS Modernization-NEW

The Executive Budget includes a one-time deposit from the Personnel Division Fund to the Automation Projects Fund to modernize and replace the Department's Human Resource Information System.

The Department manages existing State human resource operations on an online platform that was developed in 2003. The current platform is expected to reach end of life in 2027, and continued use will create security, compliance, and technical challenges.

Replacement of the outdated platform will provide greater efficiency and effectiveness in supporting human resources, payroll, benefits, and time and attendance systems for State employees.

The project is expected to be completed in FY 2026 for a total cost in the range of $58.0 million to $68.0 million.

The Personnel Division Fund collects a pro rata charge of 0.86% of payroll from all State agencies, which generates revenues that are $1.7 million in excess of the Department's current expenditure needs. The Executive Budget therefore applies $1.7 million toward the project. Additionally, the Executive Budget increases the pro rata to collect an additional $20.6 million in FY 2023 to be used for the project. Of this amount, $7.9 million will come from the General Fund.

Transfers and appropriations for this project appear in the Automation Projects section of the Executive Budget. Associated statewide adjustments for the pro rata increase appear in the Statewide Adjustments section.

Business One Stop Phase II

The Executive Budget includes a one-time deposit from the General Fund into the Automation Projects Fund for development of Phase II of the Business One Stop project.

The Arizona Strategic Enterprise Technology Office (ASET) is engaged in the first phase of the project to develop a portal that will provide a single online location to facilitate the completion of tasks and requirements of multiple agencies in planning, starting, growing, and relocating businesses in Arizona.

Phase I, in collaboration with five State agencies, includes development of over 30 functionalities needed to plan and start a business in Arizona.

Phase II will engage several additional agencies to expand the platform to add 35 functions that will allow businesses to register a user, connect to an existing business account, update user information, and register or cancel a license.

The Department expects this project to be completed in FY 2026 for a total cost of $32.2 million.

Health Insurance Trust Fund Stabilization

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for agency premium increases to the Health Insurance Trust Fund (HITF). This includes a FY 2023 General Fund impact of $12.1 million (excluding the tuition backfill addressed below).

The HITF supports the State's self-insured medical, pharmacy, and dental insurance for State employees. Expenditures for medical and pharmacy costs continue to outpace revenues, leading to a declining fund balance. The FY 2022 budget included a $36.8 million increase in ongoing agency premiums to improve the HITF's cash position. The FY 2023 Executive Budget will allow the Department to continue improving benefits and make the HITF financially sustainable.

Additionally, the Executive Budget includes $20.0 million from the General Fund to backfill tuition costs associated with FY 2023 employer health insurance premium increases. Funding for this item can be found in the Universities detail section.

A detailed breakdown of the agency and fund impact from this premium increase is included in the Statewide Adjustments section of the Executive Budget.

Enterprise Cyber Risk Insurance-NEW

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time funding to develop a statewide cybersecurity risk management program.

To establish the program, the Executive Budget makes a one-time deposit of $24.6 million from the Risk Management Fund into a new Cybersecurity Risk Management Fund. Further details on this new fund can be found in the Legislative Changes section of the Executive Budget. Of this deposit, $21.6 million will be used to establish the program in FY 2023. The remaining $3.0 million will be set aside to cover annual operating costs in FY 2024, which allows the program to reach full operational maturity before any costs are allocated to agencies beginning in FY 2025.

The Executive Budget includes two new special line items to establish the program: the Cybersecurity Risk Management Administrative Expenses SLI and the Cybersecurity Risk Management Deductibles and Premiums SLI.

The Cybersecurity Risk Management Administrative Expenses SLI will include $274,400 to fully fund administrative costs for the program in FY 2023 and FY 2024, including a new Risk Manager position. The Risk Manager, housed in the Department's Risk Management Division, will administer the insurance portion of the program.

The Cybersecurity Risk Management Deductibles and Premiums SLI will include:

• $20.0 million in reserve to cover the insurance deductible for two catastrophic breaches. Some portion of this funding may be used to cover losses incurred due to smaller breaches that would not exceed the deductible amount.

• $1.5 million for insurance premiums in the second half of FY 2023. Only partial-year funding is necessary, due to the delay in purchasing insurance coverage while the program is being developed and underwritten.

• $2.9 million for insurance premiums for FY 2024.

When the program is fully implemented in FY 2024, the Executive Budget contemplates baseline operational funding for this program to be $3.0 million, including $2.9 million for insurance premiums and $137,200 for administrative costs.

Medical and Pharmacy Cost Containment-NEW

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding from the Health Insurance Trust Fund (HITF) to hire a pharmacy specialist at the Department's Benefit Services Division. This funding will also be used to cover costs for the Department to hire outside medical and pharmaceutical consulting services to combat rising medical and pharmacy benefit costs for the State employee health plan.

Currently, Benefit Services does not have a pharmacy specialist to help navigate complexities with pharmaceutical benefits for the State employee health plan, including overseeing claims data analysis and contractual relationships with the State's vendors and suppliers. This position, along with the contracted third-party medical and pharmacy consulting services, would give the Department the expertise to address rising medical and pharmaceutical costs in the HITF.

Compression Plan Revenue Effects

The Executive Budget includes two Legislative changes to give the Department authority to collect rent and oversee maintenance and building renewal for several buildings outside of the Capital Outlay Stabilization Fund (COSF) system. The change is recommended as a part of the Statewide Compression Plan adopted by the Arizona Connected Workforce.

The Executive Budget moves 701 and 801 East Jefferson into the COSF system to allow ADOA to collect rent and oversee maintenance. The 701 East Jefferson Street building will be occupied by the Department of Corrections, Rehabilitation & Reentry by July 2022. The Arizona Health Care Cost Containment System currently occupies the 801 East Jefferson Street building. The ongoing adjustments for this issue appear in the Statewide Adjustments section of the Executive Budget.

Additionally, the Executive Budget includes standardizing the practice of bringing buildings under ADOA management to collect rent from tenants after Certificates of Participation are retired and buildings are released as collateral. This issue appears in the Legislative Changes section of the Executive Budget.

AFIS Upgrade Phase II

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time funding to complete the second phase of the Arizona Financial Information System (AFIS) renewal and upgrade.

In FY 2022, the Department began the first phase of the renewal and upgrade project. The Department expects this project to be completed in FY 2024 for a total cost of $9.5 million.

The Arizona Financial Information Systems Collection Fund collects revenue through charges to State agencies based on the number of their respective transactions conducted in AFIS. The Department plans to increase the transaction fee to collect an additional $1.5 million in FY 2023 and $500,000 in FY 2024. This will have a FY 2023 General Fund impact of approximately $760,000.

Associated statewide adjustments for the transaction fee appear in the Statewide Adjustments section.

In order to effectuate the intent of both the FY 2022 General Appropriation Act and Laws 2021, Chapter 404, the General Accounting Office (GAO) intends to delay the financial consolidation until the end of the current fiscal year. Federal Repayments

The Executive Budget includes an increase in non-lapsing supplemental funding above the enacted FY 2022 appropriation for federal reimbursements that may be due on or before June 30, 2022.

Monies collected from a variety of funding sources at State agencies and used for statewide functions, such as employee health care or general liability insurance, are a key funding mechanism for the State. One funding source for those services is money from the federal government. State agencies receive federal money for use in specific ways and with detailed restrictions.

Federal auditors have notified the State that some uses of federal funds in FY 2021 have been disallowed, and the State will likely be required to reimburse the disallowed costs prior to FY 2023. This reimbursement has occurred for several years.

Funding	FY 2022
Risk Management Fund	1,110.6
Issue Total	1,110.6

Building Renewal Grant Supplemental

The Executive Budget includes supplemental funding for building renewal grants to school districts in FY 2022. This supplemental will make available a total of $200.6 million for building renewal in FY 2022.

This funding is necessary given the number of school district requests already received and approved by the School Facilities Oversight Board. To date, $91.4 million, or 85% of the $107.5 million FY 2022 appropriation, has been awarded to districts for building renewal projects.

Funding	FY 2022
General Fund	93,117.0
Issue Total	93,117.0

In addition to the funding amounts for this agency shown in this section, the Executive Budget also includes funding changes for this agency in the Statewide Adjustments section, which is immediately after the Capital section. Statewide Adjustments for FY 2023 include changes for health insurance premiums, retirement contributions, rent charges, accounting system costs, human resources system modernization, state motor vehicle fleet charges, human resources charges, and information technology charges.

There could also be funding for this agency in the capital or the statewide and large automation projects sections, which follow the Department of Water Resources.

As part of the Executive Budget, for some agencies, there are changes to Arizona Revised Statutes and General Appropriations Act footnotes.

Arizona Health Care Cost Containment System

The Arizona Health Care Cost Containment System (AHCCCS), the State's Medicaid Agency, uses federal, State, and county funds to provide health care coverage to eligible enrollees. Since 1982, when it became the first statewide Medicaid managed care system in the nation, AHCCCS has operated under a federal Research and Demonstration 1115 Waiver authority that allows for the operation of a statewide managed care model.

Major Executive Budget Initiatives and Funding

Enterprise Compensation Strategy

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding of $3.5 million to provide salary increases to key positions for which the agency is experiencing difficulty in recruiting and retaining highly qualified staff. Of this amount, $2.4 million is from non-appropriated funds that will not appear in the fund sourcing below this issue.

The multi-agency Enterprise Compensation Strategy is projected to result in pay increases for over 25,000 State employees.

American Indian Health Program - Serious Mental Illness Integration

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for an additional 7.0 FTE positions to support the transition of behavioral health services for American Indians designated to have a serious mental illness (SMI). The services will transition from contracted regional behavioral health authorities (RBHAs) to AHCCCS's Division of Fee-for-Service Management (DFSM).

Currently, American Indian SMI members receive behavioral health services from RBHAs and physical health services from the AHCCCS American Indian Health Program (AIHP) or AHCCCS Complete Care (ACC). To resolve the fragmentation of service delivery, in October 2022 AHCCCS will transition the behavioral health function from RBHAs to AIHP.

To provide a more intensive medical management that meets the needs of American Indian SMI members, AHCCCS plans to assign 2.0 FTE Nurse Case Manager positions to manage the medical needs of members; 2.0 FTE Prior Authorization Nurse positions to monitor and evaluate medical services for members; 1.0 FTE Supervisor position to provide direct supervision of the nurses; 1.0 FTE Administrative Assistant position to provide administrative support; and 1.0 FTE Clinical Care Specialist position to review receipt and response of cases to ensure timely tracking and processing.

Compliance With Patient Access Final Rule

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time and ongoing funding to contract with a vendor to enhance AHCCCS compliance with federal information technology regulations. The regulations require acceleration of health information interoperability and improved patient access to their health data.

One-time funding of $1.95 million ($195,000 General Fund and $1.76 million AHCCCS Fund) is for software development, and ongoing funding of $300,000 ($75,000 General Fund and $225,000 AHCCCS Fund) will support the licensing fees.

On March 9, 2020, the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) and the Office of the National Coordinator for Health Information Technology (ONC) released complementary final rules for standardized application programming interfaces (API) that the health care industry must adopt, and for implementing information-blocking provisions required by the 21st Century Cures Act.

Purchasing the application and support services from a vendor has been determined to be the most cost-effective option for quickly meeting the rules' requirements. The development costs are eligible for a 90% federal match, and the ongoing operational costs are eligible for a 75% federal match.

PMMIS Replacement - System Integration Provider

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time funding for a contract with a system integration (SI) provider to integrate modules and provide technical oversight for the Prepaid Medicaid Management Information System (PMMIS) project.

The Executive Budget adds a footnote requiring the Department of Administration to submit, on behalf of AHCCCS, an expenditure plan to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee (JLBC) for review prior to the expenditure of any monies for the replacement of PMMIS. The expenditure plan shall include the project cost, deliverables, timeline for completion, and method of procurement consistent with the Department's prior reports for its appropriations from the Automation Projects Fund.

AHCCCS has begun upgrading the current PMMIS to a new platform that follows the modernization modularity rules and cybersecurity requirements established by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS). The FY 2022 budget included $780,000 for a vendor to develop a roadmap for the upgrade.

In FY 2023, an SI provider will be needed to ensure that all modules are integrated and tested end-to-end to ensure successful, timely, and cost-effective completion. The SI provider would also (a) ensure that the modules that have been upgraded and moved to the new system properly communicate with the modules in the current PMMIS; (b) determine the current operating rules that a module must follows; and © prepare the infrastructure and standards for purchasing new modules from vendors.

Suicide Prevention Coordinator Position to DHS

The Executive Budget includes a decrease in ongoing funding to move the funding for one Suicide Prevention Coordinator position from AHCCCS to the Department of Health Services (DHS). The Executive Budget moves the footnote in Laws 2021, Chapter 408, Section 8, which appropriates $100,000 from the operating lump sum budget for a Suicide Prevention Coordinator, from AHCCCS to DHS.

The decision has been made to move the Suicide Prevention Coordinator position from AHCCCS to DHS because suicide prevention is primarily a public health issue for all Arizonans. Shifting the appropriation to DHS would consolidate public resources to support the work efforts within one agency.

AHCCCS has transferred the funds for this position to DHS through an intergovernmental agreement in FY 2022. To avoid the administrative burden, the Executive Budget moves the appropriation and the reporting requirement from AHCCCS to DHS.

Department of Economic Security Eligibility Determination

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for increased costs of the integrated eligibility system for Medicaid.

The Department of Economic Security (DES) performs eligibility services for critical social safety net programs, including Medicaid, Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), and Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) Cash Assistance for the State. DES implemented a new system integrating with the existing system to upgrade the outdated functions for all three programs. However, the new system has not been funded. Additionally, costs are allocated among the three eligibility programs based on random moment sampling (RMS). This methodology has resulted in more employees being found working on SNAP or TANF cases, which require a higher state match than Medicaid cases.

The funding would address the current shortfalls and better support DES in integrating the two systems. It would also avoid the risks of applicants experiencing longer queues and the potential deferral of needed relief services.

Executive Budget Baseline Changes

Traditional Formula Adjustments

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for traditional caseload and capitation increases.

The Executive Budget anticipates a traditional population decrease of (2.00)% in FY 2022 and (6.17)% in FY 2023. Due to the Maintenance of Effort (MOE) requirements included in the federal Families First Coronavirus Response Act, AHCCCS is required to maintain coverage for all members during the current public health emergency, regardless of any loss of regular eligibility status. Therefore, during FY 2021 and FY 2022, member growth in this population was significantly higher than usual.

The Executive Budget anticipates that (a) this MOE requirement will expire on January 31, 2022, and (b) the populations ineligible by law for continued coverage will be removed from the program over the following nine months.

The Executive Budget also anticipates growth in the per-member per-month (PMPM) costs of 3.7% in FY 2022 and 4.6% in FY 2023. The PMPM growth in FY 2023 incorporates the newborn screening fee increase required by Laws 2021, Chapter 409.

The Executive Budget includes the Federal Medical Assistance Percentages (FMAP) of 76.21% in the first three quarters of the SFY 2022, 70.01% in the fourth quarter of the SFY 2022, and 69.56% in FFY 2023.

The traditional program receives its state match from the General Fund, Prescription Drug Rebate funds, Tobacco Tax, and county funds. The Executive Budget anticipates that Tobacco Tax revenues for the Medically Needy account will remain unchanged from the FY 2022 appropriation. The Executive Budget also expects county funds and Prescription Drug Rebate funds to remain unchanged from the FY 2022 appropriation.

Proposition 204 Formula Adjustments

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for Proposition 204 caseload and capitation increases.

The Executive Budget anticipates a Proposition 204 population increase of 0.81% in FY 2022 and decrease of (8.68)% in FY 2023. Due to the Maintenance of Effort (MOE) requirements included in the federal Families First Coronavirus Response Act, AHCCCS is required to maintain coverage for all members during the current public health emergency, regardless of any loss of regular eligibility status. Therefore, during FY 2021 and FY 2022, member growth in this population was significantly higher than usual.

The Executive Budget anticipates that (a) this MOE requirement will expire on January 31, 2022, and (b) the populations ineligible by law for continued coverage will be removed from the program over the following nine months.

The Executive Budget also anticipates growth in the per-member per-month costs of 3.7% in FY 2022 and 4.6% in FY 2023.

Finally, the Executive Budget includes the Federal Medical Assistance Percentages (FMAP) of 76.21% in the first three quarters of the SFY 2022, 70.01% in the fourth quarter of the SFY 2022, and 69.56% in FFY 2023.

Finally, the Executive Budget includes the Federal Medical Assistance Percentages (FMAP) of 76.21% in the first three quarters of the SFY 2022, 70.01% in the fourth quarter of the SFY 2022, and 69.56% in FFY 2023.

Affordable Care Act Newly Eligible Adults Formula Adjustments

The Executive Budget includes a decrease in ongoing funding for Affordable Care Act (ACA) Expansion Newly Eligible Adults caseload and capitation adjustments.

The Executive Budget anticipates ACA Expansion Newly Eligible Adults population decreases of (21.44)% in FY 2022 and (40.82)% in FY 2023. Due to the Maintenance of Effort (MOE) requirements included in the federal Families First Coronavirus Response Act, AHCCCS is required to maintain coverage for all members during the current public health emergency, regardless of any loss of regular eligibility status. Therefore, during FY 2021 and FY 2022, member growth in this population was significantly higher than usual.

The Executive Budget anticipates that (a) this MOE requirement will expire on January 31, 2022, and (b) the populations ineligible by law for continued coverage will be removed from the program over the following nine months.

The Executive Budget also anticipates growth in the per-member per-month costs of 3.7% in FY 2022 and 4.6% in FY 2023.

The Executive Budget anticipates a KidsCare population increase of 4.56% in FY 2022 and a decrease of (11.88)% in FY 2023. Due to the Maintenance of Effort (MOE) requirements included in the federal Families First Coronavirus Response Act, AHCCCS is required to maintain coverage for all members during the current public health emergency, regardless of any loss of regular eligibility status. AHCCCS will transfer to DCS the total capitation amount needed to provide medical services for eligible children. The Executive Budget anticipates CHP population increases of 0.09% in FY 2022 and 0.44% in FY 2023. The Executive Budget also expects growth in the per-member per-month costs of 3.7% in FY 2021 and 4.2% in FY 2022.

Finally, the Executive Budget includes the Federal Medical Assistance Percentages (FMAP) of 76.21% in the first three quarters of the SFY 2022, 70.01% in the fourth quarter of the SFY 2022, and 69.56% in FFY 2023.

Graduate Medical Education

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding of $3.0 million for Graduate Medical Education (GME) programs.

The three-year spending plan associated with the enacted FY 2020 budget assumed that the General Fund appropriation for Graduate Medical Education program would increase from $3.0 million in FY 2020 to $6.0 million in FY 2021, and to $9.0 million in FY 2022. The FY 2022 budget's three-year spending plan now delays full implementation of the program until FY 2023, as a result of payment lags and delays in implementation.

The $9.0 million in FY 2023 includes a $5.0 million allocation for rural GME programs and $4.0 million for urban GME programs. This funding phase-in assumes that recipient hospitals will increase the number of slots for incoming residents in FY 2021 and each successive class thereafter, but that the number of slots for the cohorts already enrolled in the program (i.e., who started in FY 2020 or before) will remain unchanged. As a result, the full phase-in of the larger number of slots is scheduled to occur in FY 2023.

Remove One-Time FY 2022 Appropriations

The Executive Budget removes in FY 2023 the one-time FY 2022 appropriation for the PMMIS Roadmap development consultant, Health Care Investment Fund (HCIF) increases, and the continuing access to opioid treatment.

Laws 2021, Chapter 408 appropriated a one-time $78,000 from the Prescription Drug Rebate Fund to develop a roadmap for updating the Pre-Paid Medicaid Management Information System (PMMIS); $4.0 million for HCIF increases as a result of caseload growth associated with Maintenance of Effort (MOE); and $6.0 million for substance use disorder treatment services.

The Executive Budget aligns with current law by backing out the appropriation.

In addition to the funding amounts for this agency shown in this section, the Executive Budget also includes funding changes for this agency in the Statewide Adjustment section, which is immediately after the Department of Water Resources. Attorney General - Department of Law

The Attorney General (AG) is a constitutionally established, elected position and holds office for a four-year term. The Attorney General is the legal advisor to all State agencies, boards, and commissions, except those few exempted by law. Other primary responsibilities include prosecuting and defending proceedings in which the State has an interest and rendering written opinions upon questions of law.

To fulfill these responsibilities, the Department of Law is divided into legal services and administrative operations. The legal divisions are the Child and Family Protection Division, Civil Litigation Division, Criminal Division, Solicitor General's Office Division, and the State Government Division. Each division is further organized into sections that specialize in a particular area of practice.

The Operations Division is responsible for administrative operations.

Legal, policy, administrative, and support functions are coordinated and promoted by the Department of Law Executive Office.

Major Executive Budget Initiatives and Funding

Consumer Protection Settlement Backfill

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to support three FTE positions that were previously supported through one-time legal settlements.

One FTE Attorney position was supported through an opioid settlement. The opioid epidemic continues to be a major area of focus for the Attorney General's Office (AGO). Funding this position will allow the AGO to continue investigating and prosecuting opioid companies that harm Arizona consumers.

One FTE Attorney position and one FTE support position were supported through an automobile fraud settlement. Automobile fraud is the number one category of consumer fraud complaints received by the AGO. Funding these positions will allow the AGO to continue dedicating enough resources to investigate all complaints.

Funding	FY 2023
Consumer Protection - Consumer Fraud Revolving Fund	331.0
Issue Total	331.0

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Medicaid Fraud Control Unit Expansion

The Executive Budget includes funding to increase the size of the State's Medicaid Fraud Control Unit (MCFU). Ongoing funding of $1.3 million ($321,400 from the Consumer Protection Consumer Fraud Revolving Fund and $964,100 from federal funds) will support 8.0 FTE Investigator positions. One-time funding of $52,000 ($13,000 from the Consumer Protection Consumer Fraud Revolving Fund and $39,000 from federal funds) will support the purchase of office equipment.

The federal government pays for 75% of MCFU costs. The MCFU helps control Medicaid costs by investigating and prosecuting Medicaid billing fraud cases.

Arizona's MCFU has a rising caseload. Funding the eight positions will help the MCFU keep up with rising caseloads and prevent fraudulent activities from contributing to rising Medicaid costs.

Funding	FY 2023
Consumer Protection - Consumer Fraud Revolving Fund	333.7
Issue Total	333.7

State Fleet: New Additions

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time funding from the Consumer Protection - Consumer Fraud Revolving Fund to purchase six vehicles to support new Fraud Investigator positions for the expansion of the Medicaid Fraud Control Unit.

The State funds represent 25% of the cost to purchase the vehicles. The rest is covered by a 75% federal match.

Typically, transfers and appropriations for vehicle procurement appear in the Arizona Department of Transportation (ADOT) section of the Executive Budget as ADOT is the State Fleet manager and has sole authority to procure the vehicles on behalf of the agency. However, due to fund restrictions, this funding has been appropriated to the agency. The agency will transfer the monies to ADOT to perform the purchase.

Funding	FY 2023
Consumer Protection - Consumer Fraud Revolving Fund	63.0
Issue Total	63.0

State Fleet: New Additions - Ongoing Costs

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding from the Consumer Protection - Consumer Fraud Revolving Fund for the ongoing costs associated with the vehicle purchases stated above.

Funding	FY 2023
Consumer Protection - Consumer Fraud Revolving Fund	21.7
Issue Total	21.7

Liability Management Section Outside Counsel Reduction and Cost Savings

The Executive Budget includes an increase in funding for FTE positions for the Liability Management Section (LMS), which provides legal representation for risk management cases for the Arizona Department of Administration (ADOA).

ADOA already pays LMS for outside counsel services related to risk management cases. LMS can provide these legal services in-house at a much lower cost. Increasing the FTE position count for the Attorney General will allow them to hire additional Attorneys and legal support staff, reducing outside counsel expenditures and saving ADOA money overall.

Ongoing funding of $2.5 million will support 17.0 new FTE positions (9.0 Attorneys, 4.0 Paralegals, and 4.0 Legal Secretaries). One-time funding of $110,500 will purchase equipment to support the FTE positions.

Funding	FY 2023
Risk Management Fund	2,604.2
Issue Total	2,604.2

Victim Services Increased Workload

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to address increased caseload for the Office of Victims Services. The funding will provide 2.0 new FTE Victim Advocate positions, reducing the caseload covered by each position. This will help reduce high employee turnover in the Office of Victims Services.

Funding	FY 2023
General Fund	198.4
Issue Total	198.4

Human Trafficking Prevention Program

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to expand the Human Trafficking Prevention program at the Attorney General's Office. The program seeks to educate the public about human trafficking awareness and prevention.

The funding will support 1.0 new FTE position, to increase the number of attendees at human trafficking prevention education events.

Funding	FY 2023
Consumer Protection - Consumer Fraud Revolving Fund	116.4
Issue Total	116.4

Executive Budget Baseline Changes

Remove One-Time FY 2022 Appropriations

The Executive Budget removes in FY 2023 the one-time FY 2022 appropriations:

- $2.0 million for Attorney Stipend and Retention (Consumer Protection Consumer Fraud Revolving Fund)
- $1.2 million for Expert Witness and Outside Counsel (Consumer Protection Consumer Fraud Revolving Fund)
- $1.0 million for Technology Company Antitrust Enforcement (Antitrust Enforcement Revolving Fund)
- $500,000 for Child and Family Advocacy Centers (Consumer Protection Consumer Fraud Revolving Fund)
- $500,000 for Election Litigation Expenses (Risk Management Revolving Fund)
- $156,300 for New State Fleet Vehicles (Consumer Protection Consumer Fraud Revolving Fund)
- $40,000 for Study Commission on Missing/Murdered Indigenous Peoples (Consumer Protection Consumer Fraud Revolving Fund)

The Executive Budget aligns with current law by backing out the appropriations.

Risk Management Fund	(500.0)
Consumer Protection - Consumer Fraud Revolving Fund	(3,896.3)
Antitrust Enforcement Revolving Fund	(1,000.0)

Executive Budget Baseline Changes

Board of Barbers Fund Transfer

The Executive Budget includes a decrease in ongoing funding for the Board of Barbers Fund to transfer Board appropriations to the new Barbering and Cosmetology Fund.

Laws 2021, Chapter 334 consolidates the Board of Cosmetology and Board of Barbers, effective January 1, 2022. The law repeals the Board of Barbers and renames the Board of Cosmetology as the Barbering and Cosmetology Board. The law also repeals the Board of Barbers Fund and transfers unexpended and unencumbered monies to the Barbering and Cosmetology Fund.

In order to effectuate the intent of both the FY 2022 General Appropriation Act and Laws 2021, Chapter 334, the General Accounting Office (GAO) intends to delay the financial consolidation until the end of the current fiscal year. The Executive intends for operational consolidation to occur on January 1, 2022, as required by law.

In addition to the funding amounts for this agency shown in this section, the Executive Budget also includes funding changes for this agency in the Statewide Adjustments section, which is immediately after the Capital section. Statewide Adjustments for FY 2023 include changes for health insurance premiums, retirement contributions, rent charges, accounting system costs, human resources system modernization, state motor vehicle fleet charges, human resources charges, and information technology charges.

There could also be funding for this agency in the capital or the statewide and large automation projects sections, which follow the Department of Water Resources.

Since FY 2018, the Board has experienced significant increases in applications, renewals, investigations, and telehealth registrations. Major Executive Budget Initiatives and Funding

Assistant Attorney General Legal Services

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for additional Attorney General legal services related to Board operations and responsibilities.

The number of complaints per year received by the Board has increased by 237% since 2016. To ensure proper review of those complaints, the Executive Budget provides funding to allow the Board to elevate the share of a contracted Assistant Attorney General FTE position from 0.19 FTE to 1.0 FTE.

With the increased funding, the Board can continue to ensure that all charter holders and operators maintain current statutory compliance as the share of public school students attending charter schools continues to increase.

Funding	FY 2023
General Fund	106.1
Issue Total	106.1

Increase Staff Capacity

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to increase base salaries for financial oversight staff and other existing appropriated FTE positions, while also adjusting filled staff salaries to comparable salary levels.

The Board is statutorily charged with conducting financial reviews of charter holders and creating a Financial Performance Framework (FPF). The current FPF was drafted by the Board in 2019 and last updated in 2021, with significant changes including standards and documentation requirements for charters placed in intervention status.

Below-market salary levels for Financial Program Managers have made it difficult to hire and retain staff. The Executive Budget increases the salary level for those positions and the salary of the Assistant Director of Operations and Finance, who oversees the unit.

The Board has four unfilled positions on its accountability and educational team, which conducts school site reviews, assists charter holders with charter revision, and ensures statutory compliance. Previous appropriations for those positions were allocated to other areas that the Board determined to be of higher priority. The vacant staff positions are now necessary to provide adequate services and oversight due to an increase in the number and complexity of staff interactions with charter holders.

The funding will also provide salary adjustments to current staff to increase competitiveness in hiring and retention.

Department of Child Safety

The Department of Child Safety (DCS) is Arizona's State-administered child welfare services agency. DCS provides child abuse and neglect investigations; child safety and risk assessments; family support, preservation, and reunification services; family foster care and kinship care services; services to promote the safety, permanence, and well-being of children in foster and adoptive families; adoption promotion and support services; and health care services for children in out-of-home care.

The primary purpose of DCS is to protect children. To achieve this purpose, the Department seeks to accomplish the following in equal priority: (a) investigate reports of child abuse and neglect; (b) assess, promote and support the safety of a child in a safe and stable family or other appropriate placement; (c) work cooperatively with law enforcement regarding reports that include criminal conduct allegations; and (d) without compromising child safety, coordinate services to achieve permanency on behalf of the child, strengthen the family, and provide prevention, intervention, and treatment for abuse and neglected children.

Major Executive Budget Initiatives and Funding

Foster Care and Kinship Support

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to raise the daily stipend for unlicensed kinship care from $2.47 to $10.00.

Arizona utilizes kinship care as placement for 52% of all foster children (a rate 20 points higher than the national average), which results in better outcomes for children removed from their home, at a lower overall cost to the State than any other placement type.

The stipend increase will allow greater utilization of kinship placements and help the Department, within 24 months, reach the target of 10.5% of children in congregate care as required by the settlement agreement in B.K. Tinsley v. Faust.

The baseline average number of foster children residing in unlicensed kinship care is expected to reach 6,782 in FY 2023. At this time, roughly 14% of foster children reside in congregate care settings. For the Department to be compliant with the B.K. Tinsley v. Faust settlement agreement within 24 months, the total number of children in congregate care must be reduced by 480 to reach the mandated 10.5% goal. The Executive Budget projects a steady decrease in the congregate care population, or a rate of about 20 per month. As a result of the expanded daily stipend, the Executive expects the kinship population to increase by the same amount when considering no increase in the overall projected average foster care population.

In FY 2022, the enacted budget appropriated $5.0 million for kinship stipend costs. Increasing the stipend would add $19.4 million in baseline costs and $396,000 in forecast population growth costs, for an increase of $19.8 million and total funding of $24.8 million.

Daily Stipend Increase

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to raise the average daily allowance for foster children from $1.41 to $2.82.

The daily allowance stipend is an amount paid to all caregivers of out-of-home children and is designed to offset daily costs associated with raising a child, such as clothing, school supplies, haircuts, diapers, and extracurricular activities.

This increased allowance stipend is the first since 2008. Since then, the prices for applicable goods and services in Arizona has risen by approximately 26%, which has eroded the purchasing power of the daily allowance and forced foster parents to pay out of pocket to meet the basic needs of the children in their care. This increase in funding would provide needed relief for foster families and allow for children in foster care to achieve a greater sense of normalcy while in State custody.

The Department anticipates that, in FY 2023, the monthly out-of-home child population will average 12,900 and require total increased funding of $6.6 million.

Healthy Families Arizona Expansion

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to expand the Healthy Families Arizona Program.

This is an evidence-based home visiting program designed to help prevent child abuse and neglect before it happens and has shown to be very successful in Arizona. This program currently serves around 4,000 families annually and has capacity to expand by 1,500 families with the additional funding. Of the funding, $7.5 million is for program expansion and the remaining $2.5 million is to replace expiring federal grant money that is unable to be renewed. The Executive Budget includes an additional $2.5 million in FY 2024 and FY 2025 for a total increase of $15.0 million. This additional funding in future years is expected to double the number of families served per year from 4,000 to 8,000 by FY 2025.

Visitation Aide Expansion

The Executive Budget includes an increase to the total of number of FTE positions in order to enable the Department to hire an additional 160.0 FTE Visitation Aides and 16.0 FTE new Visitation Leads.

In FY 2020, the Department insourced a number of Visitation Aides to supplement contracted visitation aide services. The insourced team was able to serve families that had been waiting the longest for supervised visitation, many over two months. It also gave the Department greater control over some of the most complex cases and helped ensure that safety concerns were adequately addressed.

The Department expects that expanding the team to 160 Case Aide positions and 16 Visitation Lead positions will allow it to reduce the waitlist by 1,000 families at full capacity without adding any additional cost to the State.

Administration- Aligning Expenditure Authority with Federal Revenue

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to enable the Department to utilize the entirety of its federal funds.

In FY 2017, the Department received $6.6 million (General Fund) for field staff, field supervisors, program managers, and other critical support staff related to general operations. Due to a structural shortfall in the Investigations and Operations special line item, that funding did not fully cover expenses incurred in FY 2017, and the Department has used the Title IV-E waiver to fund operations since then. The Title IV-E waiver expired in FY 2021.

To address the structural shortfall, the Department has identified three avenues that require additional expenditure authority:

Pass-through CARES/ARP monies: $4.9 million in FY 2022, $3.8 million in FY 2023
Random Moment Time Sampling General Fund offset: $5.2 million in FY 2022, $6.1 million in FY 2023
Family First Transition Act monies: $5.0 million in FY 2022, $5.0 million in FY 2023

The Executive Budget includes a $15.1 million supplemental appropriation in FY 2022 and a $14.9 million additional expenditure authority in FY 2023 to cover these federal revenues.

Without the additional expenditure authority, the Department would be forced to reduce functionality and oversight for key functions, including contract, contract compliance, audit, quality improvement, and field support. Further, unclaimed federal funding will expire and revert back to the federal government.

Enterprise Compensation Strategy

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding of $16.9 million to provide salary increases to key positions for which the agency is experiencing difficulty in recruiting and retaining highly qualified staff.

The multi-agency Enterprise Compensation Strategy is projected to result in pay increases for over 25,000 State employees.

Executive Budget Baseline Changes

Continuing to Support Adoption Families

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to cover costs associated with caseload growth in adoption services.

Finalized adoptions are expected to exceed adoption exits, causing the adoptions caseload yearly average to grow by a projected 2.8% in FY 2023, to 34,473.

To sustain the current adoption subsidy level while the adoption caseload grows, the Executive Budget includes additional expenditure authority to utilize $11.6 million of available federal funding. The current appropriated amount for FY 2022 is $278.3 million, which is unchanged from the FY 2021 appropriation and does not account for caseload growth despite historical annual growth.

In FY 2022, the Executive Budget called for a $12.9 million baseline increase in expenditure authority to ensure future years of adequate funding, but the recommendation was not enacted. In FY 2023, the additional expenditure authority will help bolster the second-most secure permanency option (after reunification) for children in the foster care system.

Laws 2020, Chapter 56, Section 8 appropriated $5.9 million from the State General Fund for Congregate Care Federal Funding Backfill and $19.2 million from the State General Fund for Higher Congregate Care Provider Rates.

The Executive Budget aligns with current law by backing out these appropriations.

Department of Corrections, Rehabilitation and Reentry

The Department of Corrections, Rehabilitation and Reentry (ADCRR) carries out its mission by incarcerating inmates safely in correctional facilities and providing rehabilitation opportunities and programs designed for successful community re-entry. During incarceration, community standard healthcare services are provided to inmates. Opportunities for vocational skill development, educational attainment from literacy to undergraduate degrees, and substance abuse treatment increase the likelihood of successful and sustained re-entry upon release. ADCRR supervises offenders released to community supervision using a continuum of services and evidence-based programs. ADCRR returns to custody offenders who choose not to engage in their own rehabilitation and continue to present a threat to public safety. ADCRR embraces challenges and successes as opportunities to continuously improve their operations resulting in an exceptional return on investment for the citizens of Arizona, which serves as a national model for corrections.

AZ Correctional Industries Transformative Growth

The Executive Budget includes a one-time increase in funding of $3.7 million for Arizona Correctional Industries (ACI) to develop an automotive upfitting and repair and maintenance center. The initiative will be funded using non-appropriated funds from the Arizona Correctional Industries Revolving Fund.

The funding will allow the Department to renovate and convert existing space at the Red Rock facility into an automotive center. Part of the space will be turned into a classroom with a training bay and the working part of the facility will include 3 bays to provide a complete range of preventative maintenance and upfitting services. The facility will be equipped to service cars, vans, and buses. The Department will service their own vehicles and create partnerships with other state agencies and local and private entities to service additional vehicles.

ACI, established in 1969, provides valuable work opportunities for inmates which yields income, improves inmate morale, and teaches employable skills. The automotive center will allow the inmates to learn a new trade to assist them in finding employment upon release which is instrumental in reducing recidivism.

ADCRR Fleet Modernization

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time and ongoing funding for the Department to modernize the model of fleet operations for the ADCRR Fleet, the size and composition of which is unique in comparison to the State Fleet.

There are 256 Community Corrections FTE positions responsible for the support and direct supervision of over 5,000 offenders, including 119 FTE positions that are assigned to field offices across the state. The one-time funding of $1.6 million will support the purchase of 50 additional vehicles to allow each field officer to have a designated vehicle to carry out their duties and meet with offenders in the community.

With the purchase of the new vehicles, the ADCRR Fleet will contain 1,743 vehicles and 174 pieces of equipment, 153% of the size of the State Fleet, which consists of approximately 1,000 vehicles across 37 agencies. Due to the significant differences, the Executive Budget refines the structure around the ADCRR Fleet to provide consistency and transparency in how the State manages these assets in the likeness of the State Fleet.

The Executive Budget establishes the ADCRR Fleet Replacement SLI and appropriates ongoing funding of $7.5 million. The average mileage of the ADCRR Fleet is 115,800, and 239 vehicles exceed 200,000 miles. This ongoing funding will allow the Department to replace approximately 10% of the oldest fleet vehicles annually. A proper replacement schedule will reduce operational costs and create efficiencies in ensuring that the Department has reliable transportation, which is essential for the transport of inmates that occurs statewide on a daily basis. Dependable vehicles mitigate security threats and improve Department operations.

A similar initiative is being contemplated for the Arizona Department of Public Safety and the Arizona Department of Transportation. Including ADCRR, all three agencies have been historically exempted from the State Fleet. The Executive does intend for all exempt agencies except for the Legislative and Judicial branches to be incorporated into the State Fleet. At this time, the Executive and ADOT, State Fleet manager, are not prepared to start onboarding the historic large exempt agency fleets into the State Fleet.

Recidivism Reduction: Substance Abuse

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time funding of $655,300 to launch a second Therapeutic Community Unit and ongoing funding of $5.4 million to continue contracted substance-abuse treatment, support the operational costs of the Therapeutic Community Unit, and hire a Substance-Abuse Treatment Coordinator.

Of the 17,641 inmates that the Department released during FY 2020, 15,239 (86%) were assessed as needing substance-abuse treatment. Similarly, in FY 2021, 13,604 (86%) of the released inmates were assessed as needing substance-abuse treatment. Current program resources can accommodate only up to 19.5% of the inmates for whom treatment is needed.

In response to the substance-abuse treatment need, the Department is taking a three-pronged approach to increasing substance-abuse treatment capacity and efficacy.

1. Contracted Substance-Abuse Treatment: $5.0 million

In FY 2022, the Department was appropriated one-time funding to contract with substance-abuse treatment organizations to ensure that each dollar invested resulted in more inmates receiving treatment. The Executive supports the continuation of the contracted treatment as a means to permanently increase treatment capacity. If the Department is able to contract at the projected level, treatment capacity will increase by 85%, to a total treatment capacity of 36.1%. This would allow an additional 2,527 inmates to receive treatment prior to release. Increased treatment capacity will lead to more successful reentry and lower recidivism rates.

2. Therapeutic Community Unit: $989,100

In FY 2022, the Department was awarded a federal grant to create a Therapeutic Community Program. The program is a national best practice for providing substance-abuse treatment to incarcerated persons. This unique housing unit is specifically designed to be a six-month intensive live-in substance-abuse treatment program that incorporates other impactful programs such as Criminal and Addictive Thinking, healthy family reunification, Triple P-Positive Parenting Program, preparation for reentry, life skills, emotional regulation, trauma informed care, and Medication-Assisted Treatment.

Because the pilot of the first therapeutic community is satisfactory, the Executive Budget includes funding for an expansion of the program to create a second Therapeutic Community Unit. The funding includes start-up expenses, annual operating expenses, and annual personnel expenses. The program requires a Program Manager and a Community Recovery Support Specialist. Two additional FTE positions are required for this package.

While this program does not increase treatment capacity, it is recognized for increasing the efficacy of substance-abuse treatment. The funding will allow more of the inmates who have been assessed with a high treatment need and a high risk to recidivate to participate in this unique and effective program.

3. Substance-Abuse Treatment Coordinator: $111,600

Substance-abuse treatment is provided across the State-operated complexes and the privately-operated complex by both State and contracted employees. This funding will allow the Department to hire 1.0 FTE Substance-Abuse Treatment Coordinator to monitor and oversee the various substance-abuse treatment programs provided for inmates. Additionally, staff will assist in developing a plan to further increase the Department's substance-abuse treatment capacity.

Substance-abuse issues are prominent among the technical violations that trigger offenders' return to prison. In FY 2020, 34% of warrants issued by Community Corrections Officers for technical violations were due to drug- and alcohol-related violations. A recent study indicated that the recidivism rate among inmates who completed a treatment program was 31.1% lower than for inmates who did not receive treatment. Recidivism reduction impacts the lives of offenders and their families and represents a significant cost savings for the State.

The Department is seeking to further expand substance-abuse programming through offering virtual and accelerated treatment programs to ensure that every inmate needing treatment is given the opportunity.

Security Equipment - Body Scanners

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time funding to purchase 58 body scanners to improve contraband detection and the safety of staff and inmates.

When inmates return from work crew, return from offsite appointments, and leave visitation, the Department relies on procedural pat-downs and strip searches to detect contraband. The single- and dual-view scanners allow staff to determine quickly whether an inmate is concealing contraband.

The scanners will expedite the screening process and promote a safer environment.

Florence Deactivation Continuation

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for the continuation of the Florence deactivation plan.

The Florence deactivation project began in FY 2022 and is estimated to be completed by January 2024. As inmates are gradually transferred to private beds, the cost is estimated to increase.

The additional appropriation in the Executive Budget will ensure that the Department has sufficient funding available to contract for the required beds. By the beginning of FY 2023, the majority of the inmates at Florence complex will have been relocated.

Remove One-Time FY 2022 Appropriations

The Executive Budget removes in FY 2023 the one-time FY 2022 appropriations for:

•Radio Replacements: $17.3 million
•Medical Staffing Augmentation: $15.0 million
•Substance Abuse Treatment: $5.0 million
•Ballistic and Stab Vest Replacement: $3.9 million
•Braille Program Expansion: $50,000

The Executive Budget aligns with current law by backing out these appropriations.

In addition to the funding amounts for this agency shown in this section, the Executive Budget also includes funding changes for this agency in the Statewide Adjustments section, which is immediately after the Capital section. Statewide Adjustments for FY 2023 include changes for health insurance premiums, retirement contributions, rent charges, accounting system costs, human resources system modernization, state motor vehicle fleet charges, human resources charges, and information technology charges.

There could also be funding for this agency in the capital or the statewide and large automation projects sections, which follow the Department of Water Resources.

Executive Budget Baseline Changes

Board of Cosmetology Fund Transfer

The Executive Budget includes a decrease in ongoing funding for the Board of Cosmetology Fund to transfer the Board's appropriations to the new Barbering and Cosmetology Fund.

Laws 2021, Chapter 334 consolidates the Board of Cosmetology and Board of Barbers effective January 1, 2022. The law repeals the Board of Barbers and renames the Board of Cosmetology as the Barbering and Cosmetology Board. The law also repeals the Board of Barbers Fund and transfers unexpended and unencumbered monies to the Barbering and Cosmetology Fund.

In order to effectuate the intent of both the FY 2022 General Appropriation Act and Laws 2021, Chapter 334, the General Accounting Office (GAO) intends to delay the financial consolidation until the end of the current fiscal year. The Executive intends operational consolidation to occur on January 1, 2022, as required by law.

Major Executive Budget Initiatives and Funding

Victim Compensation & Assistance Programs

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to increase support for Arizona's crime victims. The Executive Budget also includes a supplemental appropriation for this purpose in FY 2022.

Due to declining revenue in the Victim Compensation and Assistance Fund, the Victim Compensation and Victim Assistance program allocations have been reduced. The reduced expenditures further reduces the program budget since the Victim Compensation program is funded through a 75% federal match of State expenditures. The FY 2022 program allocation is $3.5 million, which is $1.8 million less than the FY 2021 program allocation, which happens to be the largest the program has been in the past five years.

A $1.8 million investment will draw down $1.3 million in federal funding, starting in FY 2025. The federal government reimburses expenditures from the fiscal year two years prior. This will permit the Commission to increase the size of the programs to ensure that the counties have the funding available to reimburse all victims and award grants to agencies who provide services to victims.

Schools for the Deaf and the Blind

Arizona State Schools for the Deaf and the Blind (ASDB) was founded in 1912. ASDB provides education and support services to over 2,000 children who are blind, visually impaired, deaf, hard of hearing, or deafblind, from birth to grade 12. ASDB operates two site-based campuses, three regional cooperatives, and a statewide distance itinerant program. ASDB also has a birth to age 5 Early Learning Program made of two components: The first component is the birth to age 3 program in which early childhood teachers go into the homes of infants and their caretakers. The second component includes the three preschools located at the Phoenix Day School for the Deaf, the Arizona School for the Deaf, and the Foundation for Blind Children.

ASDB is committed to excellence and innovation in (a) education for all Arizona children who are hard of hearing or deaf or have vision loss; (b) leadership and service; (c) collaboration with families, school districts, communities, and others; and (d) partnership with other agencies that will enable children who are hard of hearing or deaf or have vision loss to succeed now and in the future.

Major Executive Budget Initiatives and Funding

Transportation Support

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time funding to expand the Schools' transportation and bus route capacities.

The funding will allow the Schools to increase the route capacity of current bus drivers, at both the Phoenix and Tucson campuses, to reach 95 additional students and provide door-to-door transportation solutions for all students.

General Fund	1,106.2

Executive Budget Baseline Changes

Special Education Voucher Adjustments

The Executive Budget includes a decrease in ongoing funding for the Schools to address adjustments for special education vouchers.

The agency receives formula funding from a series of vouchers paid out to the Schools to assist in educating students with special needs. The vouchers are expected to change year over year, due to inflation adjustments (as prescribed by the Basic State Aid Formula) and enrollment. For FY 2023, this is expected to decrease from $14,316,700 to $14,284,245, resulting in a ($32,455) reduction in other appropriated funds.

Commission for the Deaf and the Hard of Hearing

The Arizona Commission for the Deaf and the Hard of Hearing (ACDHH) acts as an information bureau for the deaf, hard of hearing, deafblind, and individuals with speech difficulties. The Commission works with State and local government agencies and other public and private community agencies to educate staff to better provide services to their deaf, hard of hearing, and deafblind consumers. ACDHH administers a telecommunications equipment distribution voucher program that loans equipment to qualified Arizona residents. The Arizona Relay Service (7-1-1), which allows equal accessibility of public telephone service, is also administered by the Commission. The Relay Service is required by the Federal Communications Commission. ACDHH is also mandated to license American Sign Language interpreters and certify American Sign Language Teachers.

Major Executive Budget Initiatives and Funding

Increased Staffing Support

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing FTE positions to allow the Commission to hire 4.0 new FTE positions. These positions include Accounts Payable, Family and Youth Engagement Coordinator, Media Communications Specialist, and Staff Interpreter.

The Accounts Payable position will manage and maintain the Commission's payment process, instead of contracting out those services. Related costs will be offset by a reduction in contracted services.

The Family and Youth Engagement Coordinator position will help develop the Commission's next five-year strategic plan by aligning community stakeholders with Commission resources and objectives.

The Media Communications Specialist position will reduce the Commission's total cost on communications. Additionally, an in-house Media Specialist would become well versed in the communications needs of the deaf or hard of hearing community.

The Staff Interpreter position would facilitate communication between non-American Sign Language (ASL) users and deaf staff for meetings, training, and community engagement. The Commission does not have a full-time ASL Interpreter. The new staff Interpreter would be offset by a reduction in contracted activities.

Early Childhood Development and Health Board

The Arizona Early Childhood Development and Health Board seeks to ensure the quality and accessibility of early childhood development and health programs at the community level. A voter-approved initiative, Proposition 203, created the Board, which is commonly known as "First Things First."

First Things First establishes regional partnership councils throughout the state. Each regional council is funded based on the number of children, from birth to age five, living in the area, as well as the number of young children whose family income does not exceed 100% of the federal poverty level. Programs funded through First Things First may be conducted by grantees in the region or by the regional partnership council. First Things First receives revenues from an additional tax levied on tobacco products.

Major Executive Budget Initiatives and Funding

Reducing Recidivism: Second Chance Centers

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to continue the crucial Reentry Program and to continue the CDL Inmate Training Program at Lewis Second Chance Center.

This program is implemented through two distinct avenues: Second Chance Centers (SCCs) and Community Based Reentry Centers (CBRCs). SCCs provide employment assistance services pre-release, while CBRCs provide similar services post-release. Services offered include case management, job search, and interview skills training.

The additional funding will be used to expand operations by assisting in Therapeutic Community (TC) and "Prison in Reach" programs. TC is a Department of Corrections, Rehabilitation and Re-Entry in-prison residential treatment program for justice-involved Arizonans battling addiction. Prison in Reach provides education opportunities on successfully navigating parole.

Of the amount displayed below, $302,270 will be transferred to the Arizona Department of Transportation (ADOT) to continue the Commercial Drivers License (CDL) Inmate Training Program at the Lewis Second Chance Center, serving inmates at the Lewis Prison and Perryville Prison to have the opportunity to acquire a CDL. The acquisition of a CDL for an inmate provides them a well compensated and stable employment opportunity in a high demand field post incarceration, which reduces their chance of recidivism.

Friends of the Farm provides locally sourced fresh produce, dairy, eggs, and meat throughout the state. The program creates new markets for small Arizona farmers and growers, and it benefits families in need.

To support Friends of the Farm, the Executive Budget includes $500,000 that will be allocated by the Arizona Food Bank Network to regional food banks, which, since FY 2020, have purchased 589,622 pounds of food from 16 local farmers.

Building System Management Upgrade

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time and ongoing funding to provide an upgraded, integrated workplace management solution.

Proper management of the State's building system is crucial in ensuring responsible stewardship of State assets. This solution is a centralized platform capable of performing all of the operational, financial, and environmental performance aspects of managing a large-scale building system. The upgraded version will provide additional user capabilities, additional automated interfaces with existing State systems, and is a cloud-based solution, which will be updated automatically.

This initiative includes the Arizona Department of Transportation, the Department of Economic Security (DES), and the Department of Public Safety. Due to limitations of the existing out-of-date solution, DES will expand their utilization in the upgraded solution providing DES an effective and efficient tool to manage these State assets.

The amount displays the portion of funding for the respective agency. Of the total amount displayed below, the ongoing portion is $147,000.

Funding	FY 2023
General Fund	419.8
Issue Total	419.8

Improving Information Technology Infrastructure and Security

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time and ongoing funding for a four-part IT infrastructure and security upgrade at the Department of Economic Security (DES). Ongoing funding of $2.5 million will support expenses associated with staffing and contracts to support 24-hour monitoring and data loss coverage. One-time funding of $1.4 million will be used to purchase equipment needed for 24-hour monitoring and other network equipment.

Due to the increased complexity and variety of cyberattacks, especially to public institutions, 24-hour security monitoring is necessary to safeguard sensitive and confidential information. DES will contract with a third party to provide Disaster Recovery as a Service (DRaaS), which would provide DES with data-loss coverage and recovery orchestration.

DES does not have the staff, funding, or infrastructure for data hosting and recovery orchestration. The Department will hire a Senior Security Engineer, a Junior Security Engineer, a Senior Security Architect, and a Senior Information Security Analyst. This staffing increase will prevent missed attacks by cybercriminals.

This funding will allow DES to (a) implement a 24-hour security monitoring system through a contracted agency; (b) contract with a third-party vendor to provide critical data-loss coverage and recovery orchestration; © refresh and replace network and firewall equipment; and (d) bolster existing network security staff by 4.0 FTE positions.

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding of $47.9 million to provide salary increases to key positions for which the agency is experiencing difficulty in recruiting and retaining highly qualified staff. Of this amount, $31.7 million is from non-appropriated funds that will not appear in the fund sourcing below this issue.

The multi-agency Enterprise Compensation Strategy is projected to result in pay increases for over 25,000 State employees

Division of Developmental Disabilities Long Term Care System Fund Budget Load

The Executive Budget adds the following footnote to the General Appropriations Act:

"The Department of Economic Security shall enter its Long Term Care System budget in the State financial system in an amount equal to the appropriated General Fund and the appropriated Medicaid expenditure authority for each special line item containing Medicaid funding for the Division of Developmental Disabilities."

The Department of Economic Security lacks the appropriate expenditure authority to load funding for Medicaid-funded developmental disabilities programs in the State's financial system. The inability to load this funding impedes administrative efficiency and results in funding shortages throughout the year.

- One-time funding of $18.6 million in FY 2024 and $24.5 million in FY 2025 from the State General Fund to replace the Unemployment Insurance systems. This three-year project will utilize available federal funds in FY 2023.

- Ongoing funding of $4.4 million starting in FY 2024 for the permanent sustainment of provider rate increases in the Arizona Early Intervention Program. The agency will utilize federal funds in FY 2023 for temporary provider rate increases.

Executive Budget Baseline Changes

Department of Developmental Disabilities: Caseload and Capitation Growth

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT
AZ-GOV-22-0276-A-001139

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for projected program cost increases in the Division of Developmental Disabilities (DDD).

In FY 2023, the number of members qualifying for Targeted Case Management (TCM) is expected to grow by 3%; State-Funded Long Term Care (SFLTC) by 3%, State-Only Case Management (SOCM) by 7.8%, and Arizona Long Term Care System (ALTCS) by 3.7%.

The capitation rate for the ALTCS and TCM populations is expected to increase by 4.6% in FY 2023.

The Executive expects the enhanced FMAP rate to expire in March 2022. Also considered is the reduction in the normal rate from 70% to 69.56% beginning in October 2022.

Due to changes in population, capitation rate, and the FMAP rate, meeting the needs of the ALTCS population will require an ongoing General Fund increase of $130.2 million and an ongoing increase in Title XIX authority of $29.1 million. The needed increase in Title XIX authority is smaller than a typical year, due to the enhanced FMAP rates in prior years.

The State-Only HCBS appropriation will require an ongoing increase of $3.0 million due to rising costs and population growth.

Room and board costs, paid from the State-funded Long Term Care Services Fund, will need an ongoing appropriation increase of $800,000.

Funding	FY 2023
General Fund	133,209.8
Department Long-Term Care System Fund	29,862.6
Issue Total	163,072.4

Adult Protective Services Reporting Growth

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding and 67.0 FTE positions to reduce Adult Protective Services (APS) caseloads to a more sustainable level.

APS is mandated to investigate all reports of abuse and neglect of Arizona adults. The year-over-year reporting growth has consistently been at about 15% and is projected to remain the same for FY 2023. With the current funded level of Investigators, this growth would result in an FY 2023 average investigator-to-report caseload reaching 1:90 – nearly four times the recommended average of 1:25.

The breakdown of the new FTE positions provides for 51.0 FTE new Investigator positions, 6.0 FTE Case Aide positions, 6.0 FTE Supervisor positions, 2.0 FTE Customer Service Representative positions, 1.0 FTE Quality Assurance Analyst position, and 1.0 FTE Case Reviewer position. The funding also addresses a $2.9 million structural shortfall related to new employees hired in FY 2022. These positions are funded at the enhanced salary levels proposed in the Executive's Enterprise Compensation Strategy.

The hiring of 51 new Investigators and associated support staff will allow DES, by the end of FY 2023, to reach the recommended caseload average and achieve more timely and valuable investigations.

State Board of Education

The State Board of Education is constitutionally charged with regulating the conduct of the public school system. Arizona law requires the Board to regulate and exercise general supervision over the conduct of the public school system and adopt rules and policies it deems necessary to accomplish this purpose. Regulation and supervision includes the following:

(a) prescribe a minimum course of study and competency requirements for promotion of students from third and eighth grade as well as for graduation from high school;
(b) supervise and control the certification of persons engaged in instructional work in a school district;
(c) approve alternative teacher and administrator preparation programs;
(d) adopt proficiency exams and passing scores for those exams;
(e) adopt rules governing the methods for administering proficiency exams;
(f) impose disciplinary action on all certificate holders who are found to have engaged in immoral conduct;
(g) serve as the State Board for Vocational and Technological Education; and
(h) delegate to the Superintendent of Public Instruction the execution of board policies and rules.

Major Executive Budget Initiatives and Funding

Adjudication of Educator Misconduct

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for additional Attorney General legal services, in addition to ongoing funding for anticipated increased hearing costs, and 1.0 FTE position and ongoing funding for administrative support.

Since 2015, the number of complaints filed with the Board by the Investigation Unit has increased by over 70%. Future caseloads are anticipated to continue to increase due to the addition of four Investigators in the Investigative Unit in the FY 2022 Enacted Budget. Additionally, the Board's new authority on the conduct of non-certified school staff is anticipated to result in increased complaints.

To ensure more manageable caseloads, sufficient ongoing funding for contracting 3.0 FTE Assistant Attorney General positions is expected to decrease the average number of open cases per Assistant Attorney General and lead to a more expedient timeline for resolving cases. Funding for hearing costs will enable the Board to conduct additional Professional Practices Advisory Committee hearings to assist in decreasing the time between allegations and Board action being taken. The additional Administrative Assistant will assist with the growing administrative burden attributable to increased complaints and corollary hearings.

Restructuring of the Investigations Unit

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for compensation increases for the Investigations Unit, allowing for the promotion of two Investigators to Lead Investigators and elevating beginning salary levels of Investigators on their teams to be comparable with other State agencies.

With increasing caseload and an increase in staff included in the FY 2022 Budget, the Unit is currently not structured in a manner that ensures timely review and investigation of cases. Additional funding will be utilized to elevate two investigators to Lead Investigators, each overseeing a team of three Investigators and reporting to the Chief Investigator. The remainder of the funding will address salary levels for existing Investigators in an effort to retain existing expertise and address compression effects with the restructuring of the Unit.

This new structure for the Unit will allow the Chief Investigator to provide oversight to the increased number of investigators and work with Board staff to optimize initial review of cases and overall efficiency.

Funding	FY 2023
General Fund	98.1
Issue Total	98.1

ESA Appeals Process Implementation

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding and 1.0 FTE position for the Board to hire administrative staff to assist in the Empowerment Scholarship Account (ESA) appeals process.

Beginning in January 2021, the Board has been the receiving entity for all appeals to decisions made by the Department of Education regarding ESAs. Laws 2021, Chapter 404, Section 54 exempted the Board from uniform administrative hearing procedures for contested cases. Previously, the Board utilized the Office of Administrative Hearings, which covered all costs associated with appeals hearings.

This additional position will enable the Board to conduct its own hearings, avoiding delays and decreasing the average appeal wait time from the current 130 days to 100 days.

Funding	FY 2023
General Fund	74.2
Issue Total	74.2

Policy Development and Implementation

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding and 1.0 FTE position for additional staff support for Board policy development and implementation.

Board staff is charged with implementation of legislation, promulgation of new rules, review of past rules, conducting Board committee meetings, and developing Board policy, impacting the State's entire education system.

Current Board staff workload limits their ability to proactively review current rule and draft recommendations, while also ensuring that the Board fulfills new rulemaking mandates. Funding will allow for a Project Director of Policy to assist in this process and maintain the Board's constitutional authority.

Funding	FY 2023

Open Enrollment Promotion and Constituent Services

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding and 1.0 FTE position for the promotion of open enrollment and to support Arizona's students and their families' utilization of their rights under Arizona law.

Spurred by the impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic, there has been a demonstrated increase in Arizona's students and families being empowered through school choice with the utilization of the State's open enrollment policies. This funding will allow the Board to fulfill its statutory requirements to promote and educate families on the existence of open-enrollment options and how to pursue the best education for their student.

Additionally, this funding will help the Board ensure that the most important education advocates, Arizona's students and their families, have the support and information they need to make the best education decisions.

Department of Education

The Department of Education is administered by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, an elected position. The Superintendent leads the Department of Education in implementation of education laws and regulations. The Superintendent supports direct services to 235 locally governed school districts, including 14 career and technical education districts and eight accommodation districts. The Superintendent, in conjunction with the State Board for Charter Schools, oversees over 550 charter school sites. The Department executes education laws and regulations through evaluation, training, school improvement assistance, dissemination of information, and administration and allocation of funds. The Department also serves as the primary source for information on the status and needs of the public school system.

Major Executive Budget Initiatives and Funding

Statewide Assessments

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to support costs associated with administering statewide assessments.

The total cost to administer mandated statewide assessments in FY 2023 is expected to increase above existing appropriations, resulting in an anticipated funding shortfall.

The Executive Budget includes a funding increase equal to the anticipated FY 2023 shortfall to ensure that assessment requirements outlined in State and federal law continue to be met. The Executive proposes that these annual costs be reviewed annually by the Joint Legislative Budget Committee (JLBC).

Funding	FY 2023
General Fund	4,000.0
Issue Total	4,000.0

Certification Unit

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding and 1.0 FTE position for the Department's Certification Unit. Ongoing funding will support the salary for a customer support position that will assist certificate applicants.

As Arizona continues to modernize and limit unnecessary barriers for entry and retention in the teaching profession, the Department has seen an increase in incomplete or improperly filled applications, from 16% of applications in CY 2018 to an estimated 25% in CY 2021. Additionally, as the State has raised the recognition of past certification and teaching experience, the Department has experienced a large increase in correspondence with applicants.

With the funding provided, the Department will decrease both applicant wait time and application abandonment.

Literacy Initiative Tracking

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for Read On Arizona, a public/private partnership that assists with the rollout of early literacy initiatives.

During the 2021 Legislative Session, numerous policy measures were implemented to improve and enhance early literacy across the state, including the measures passed in Laws 2021, Chapter 434 that establish a pathway for expanding educator capacity in the science of reading and strengthening new teacher preparation programs.

Additionally, the Legislature approved appropriations in the FY 2022 budget to launch literacy coaches in high-need schools, adopt a State kindergarten entry evaluation tool, and support the implementation of dyslexia training and an educator reading instruction exam.

With the funding provided, the Department will improve its ability to maximize resources and properly roll out FY 2021 early literacy initiatives.

General Fund	150.0
Issue Total	150.0

Civics Excellence Incentive Bonus Program

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for the Civics Excellence Incentive Bonus Program, which is aimed at rewarding schools with high-achieving results on Arizona's required civics test.

The Program will provide incentive payments to high schools at which one or more students achieve a score of 95% or higher on the American Civics Act Assessment. Schools at which 50% or more of the student population qualifies for free or reduced-price lunch will receive $450 per qualifying student, and all other schools will receive $300 per student.

If the statewide sum of per-student bonuses awarded pursuant to this subsection exceeds the amount of available monies appropriated for incentive bonuses, the bonus monies shall be reduced proportionally to cover all eligible bonus awards.

At least half of funding received by a school as a part of this program must be distributed to the classroom Teacher who instructed the qualifying students on the subject. Other permitted uses of the remaining funding shall be allocated by the School Principal on behalf of students who receive a qualifying score and may be used for teacher professional development or student instructional support, reimbursement of fees, or instructional materials.

General Fund	5,000.0

Arizona Industry Credentials Incentive Program Continuation

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for continuation, with improvements, of the Arizona Industry Credentials Incentive Program.

Following two years of successful program growth, the Program has proven to be impactful to Arizona's students and economy. With 4,382 students from the class of 2020 qualifying to draw down funding and 5,057 credentials earned, the Program has equipped students for success immediately upon graduation.

In response to increased demand for multiple credentials from students and in recognition of industry requirements, the Executive Budget increases the level of funding from the Program's initial two years. The additional funding will be utilized to provide resources for students who qualify for multiple credentials, within an industry of critical need as determined annually by the Office of Economic Opportunity, on a per-student basis.

Results-Based Funding Modernization

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for the resumption of formula-driven Results-Based Funding (RBF), with enhancements focused on rewarding Arizona schools that achieve high success and on encouraging sharing of practices.

With schools working diligently to ensure student success that stagnated during the COVID-19 pandemic, RBF is a powerful incentive tool that should be implemented and enhanced to help Arizona's students get back on track.

The Executive proposes (a) returning to the use of letter grades and (b) placement of this funding in Arizona's funding formula via Group-B Weights, to ensure that the funding amounts continue to reward and spur success, despite inflationary pressures.

The resumption of letter grades will reward all schools that achieve an "A" letter grade as defined annually by the State Board of Education, with two funding levels based on a school's Free and Reduced Price Lunch (FRL) population share, to continue to recognize the barriers to success faced by schools with a high FRL student population. Further, the Executive proposes that schools with an FRL population of 60% or higher and that achieve a "B" letter grade also receive funding as a part of RBF.

Finally, with the incorporation of RBF into the funding formula, the Executive proposes that local education agencies (LEAs) use a portion of the RBF monies received to expand and replicate the practices utilized at school sites that qualify for funding across the LEA.

Operation Excellence

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for Operation Excellence, bringing a renewed focus to closing the achievement gap through an evidence-based approach to chronically failing and underperforming schools.

Modeled off of the highly successful Project Momentum, schools will receive $150 per pupil every year for three years to help implement high-yield, specific, research-based interventions, to dramatically improve student achievement. There will be real-time data tracking and State oversight, mentorship from Arizona school leaders who have successfully completed a school turnaround, and tangible consequences for those that still miss the mark.

All D-rated and F-rated schools will be designated as "Operation Excellence schools" and will be given multiple pathways and resources to improve. In addition, C-rated schools with 60% or more of students qualifying for free or reduced-price lunch (FRL) will be eligible and encouraged to participate.

After year three of the program, schools that do not make adequate progress and still receive a D or F rating will be subject to action by the State Board of Education. The Board will review and take into account the school's unique situation and select the best course of action. Options will include directing the Achievement District to work with the District to select a partnership school model, or if deemed appropriate, the State Board of Education will take steps to install new, temporary leadership at the school.

Inflation Adjustment

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for a 2% inflation adjustment in the FY 2022 base level amount, transportation route-mile factor, and charter school additional assistance.

The 2% inflation adjustment will add $87.81 to the FY 2022 per-pupil amount of $4,390.65, for a total of $4,478.46 in FY 2023.

Enrollment Growth

The Executive Budget includes a rebase in annual funding for anticipated enrollment changes.

The Executive Budget projects an overall increase of 1.64% in Average Daily Membership (ADM) in FY 2023, starting from an estimated FY 2022 population of 1,107,810 unweighted ADM. This growth consists of increases of 1.3% for district schools and 3.0% for charter schools. Enrollment-growth costs are based on the average cost per pupil in FY 2022 for both districts and charters, adjusted for inflation.

When COVID-19 responses sparked significant drops in student enrollment levels in Arizona public schools, initial assumptions held that the declines would be temporary and of short duration. As a consequence, the FY 2021 and FY 2022 enacted budgets did not reflect what ultimately proved to be enduring enrollment declines.

Due to delays in the full return of students to Arizona schools, and to demonstrated permanent shifts to private and homeschool instruction, a large disparity exists between enrollment reported by the Department of Education and the enrollment level that current appropriations can support. This disparity in enrollment is estimated to be approximately 16,000 unweighted ADM, resulting in approximately $156.9 million in excess appropriations for current-year driven formula-determined funding.

The Executive Budget responds to these factors by proposing a rebase in annual funding for anticipated enrollment changes, with enrollment levels expected to resume pre-pandemic trends beginning in FY 2024.

In an effort to rebase student population forecasts and, effectively, Basic State Aid appropriation levels, the Executive estimate for population growth in FY 2023 begins with 1,107,810 unweighted ADM for FY 2022. The display of ongoing savings for this anticipated growth in actuals is the result of the net of the $(156.9) million in savings and the anticipated increased annual costs of $136.9 million for 1.6% growth.

Empowerment Scholarship Account - Basic State Aid Increase

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for Basic State Aid costs related to Empowerment Scholarship Account (ESA) growth.

Due to existing growth and impact of Laws 2021, Chapter 404, the Executive Budget assumes an increase in FY 2023 of approximately 1,400 students: 400 previously enrolled in a charter school, and 1,000 in a district school.

A cost to the General Fund of $2.4 million in FY 2023 is anticipated, due to offsetting reductions in Basic State Aid payments for anticipated new program students, as these students would have otherwise attended their previous public school.

Increased Permanent Fund Distributions

The Executive Budget includes a decrease in ongoing funding from the General Fund, which is offset by an equivalent increase in ongoing funding from the Public Institution Permanent School Earnings Fund. The Permanent Land Trust is expected to increase distributions in FY 2023 and offset General Fund requirements for Basic State Aid.

In May 2016, Arizona voters approved Proposition 123, which increased from 2.5% to 6.9% the distributions from the Public Institution Permanent School Earnings Fund. The additional 4.4% authorized by Proposition 123 offsets General Fund requirements for Basic State Aid. Distributions from the Fund are made from the five-year average of the Fund's monthly market values.

Permanent State School Fund	18,963.9

Property Taxes From New Construction

The Executive Budget includes a decrease in ongoing funding to reflect increases in property taxes from new construction.

The Executive Budget forecasts a 6.0% increase in Primary Net Assessed Value (NAV): 3.6% growth in existing property values, and 2.4% growth from new construction.

The NAV increase for existing property does not affect the General Fund share of formula funding, as Truth in Taxation requires the Qualifying Tax Rate (QTR) to be adjusted each year to offset changes in existing property values. However, the increase in new construction will generate additional local property taxes that offset General Fund requirements for Basic State Aid.

The Executive projects the General Fund offset to decrease by $(55.4) million. Part of that reduction will be offset by an expected $14.2 million increase in State requirements for the Homeowner's Rebate on residential new construction. Additionally this reduction is offset by $27.4 million in new State requirements for existing property due to Laws 2021, Chapter 412 that adjusted the Homeowner's Rebate percentage from 47.9% to 50.0% beginning in Tax Year 2022 (FY 2023) to offset primary property tax adjustments relating to the assessment ratio for commercial property, which begins to phase-in in FY 2023 and is anticipated to have an additional cost of $5.7 million.

The Homeowner's Rebate for TY 2022 will pay 50% of each homeowner's QTR taxes, pursuant to A.R.S. § 15-972. Article IX, Section 18 of the State Constitution caps residential primary property taxes at no more than 1% of a home's full cash value. The State backfills any primary property tax costs for homeowners that exceed the 1% cap. The $14.8 million estimate assumes that Class 3 properties will account for 50% of statewide property tax growth from new construction in FY 2023.

1% Cap Cost Revisions – Desegregation Funding

The Executive Budget includes a decrease in ongoing funding for the Additional State Aid program, due to an anticipated decrease in 1% Cap costs to the General Fund.

The Additional State Aid program provides funding for the Homeowner's Rebate and the portion of a homeowner's Class III primary property taxes, for all taxing jurisdictions, that exceeds 1% of the home's full cash value, known as the "1% Cap."

Laws 2018, Chapter 283 requires that a school district's desegregation programs be funded with secondary rather than primary property taxes beginning in FY 2019. The FY 2019 enacted budget anticipated $18,952,700 in reduced ongoing 1% Cap costs beginning in FY 2019 as result of this requirement, as the 1% Cap does not apply to secondary property taxes. However, at least one school district has continued to fund desegregation programs from primary property taxes through at least Tax Year 2021 (FY 2022), with an estimated $7,688,800 in 1% Cap costs to the General Fund. These costs are still borne by the Additional State Aid program, demonstrating that the FY 2019 reduction did not fully remove all desegregation program-related 1% Costs.

Additional State Aid Prior Year Base Adjustment

The Executive Budget includes a decrease in ongoing funding to reflect lower-than-budgeted costs for Additional State Aid for FY 2022.

In the FY 2022 Enacted Budget, it was estimated that Additional State Aid would cost $460,630,300 for FY 2022, accounting for the Homeowner's Rebate and 1% Cap. The actual cost was $457,866,709, reported by the Department of Revenue in October 2021 pursuant to A.R.S. § 15-972(h), or $2.8 million below the FY 2022 Enacted Budget.

- Arizona Industry Credential Incentive Program: $5.0 million
- Extraordinary Special Education Needs Fund deposit: $5.0 million
- Statewide Assessment costs: $5.0 million
- Gifted Assessments: $850,000
- Teacher Professional Development Pilot Program: $400,000
- Student Level Data Access: $350,000

The Executive Budget aligns with current law by backing out these appropriations.

Executive Budget Supplemental Changes

Decreased Education Formula Costs

The Executive Budget includes a supplemental decrease in FY 2022 for the projected surplus resulting from formula expenditures below the enacted budget.

The student population for the 2021-2022 School Year is anticipated to be approximately 16,000 below the estimated level for the Enacted Budget, which will generate lower-than-budgeted State funding formula costs. Additionally, for items in the State funding formula that rely on past-year figures, such as District Additional Assistance and District Transportation Funding, the Executive projects a Basic State Aid surplus of $306.9 million, based on currently available data, and anticipates further changes as the school year progresses.

Funding	FY 2022

In addition to the funding amounts for this agency shown in this section, the Executive Budget also includes funding changes for this agency in the Statewide Adjustments section, which is immediately after the Capital section. Statewide Adjustments for FY 2023 include changes for health insurance premiums, retirement contributions, rent charges, accounting system costs, human resources system modernization, state motor vehicle fleet charges, human resources charges, and information technology charges.

There could also be funding for this agency in the capital or the statewide and large automation projects sections, which follow the Department of Water Resources.

As part of the Executive Budget, for some agencies, there are changes to Arizona Revised Statutes and General Appropriations Act footnotes.

Department of Emergency and Military Affairs

The Arizona Department of Emergency and Military Affairs (DEMA) is administered and controlled by the Governor and headed by the Adjutant General as Military Chief of Staff and agency Director.

The Department consists of the Army National Guard, Air National Guard, Joint Task Force-AZ, Division of Emergency Management, and Division of Administrative Services. Collectively these components provide military and emergency management capabilities and services to the citizens of Arizona in three distinct levels: community, State, and federal.

These components utilize state and federal resources to perform homeland defense and emergency management activities to protect the citizens of Arizona, provide trained military units in support of civil authorities for domestic emergencies, and support federal combatant commanders for national defense and homeland security missions

Border Security Fund Deposit

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time funding for a deposit into the Border Security Fund.

Created pursuant to Laws 2021, Chapter 403, the Border Security Fund is used to prevent human trafficking; prevent entry into the U.S. of aliens unlawfully present, terrorists and instruments of terrorism, and contraband; planning, designing, constructing, and maintaining transportation, technology, and commercial vehicle inspection infrastructure near the border; clearing non-indigenous plants; administering and managing the construction and maintenance of a physical border fence; awarding grants to counties to provide housing in secure facilities; and awarding grants to counties for prosecuting individuals who commit crimes related to unlawful entry of individuals or substances.

Funding	FY 2023
General Fund	50,000.0
Issue Total	50,000.0

Pandemic Cost Increases

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time funding to cover cost increases resulting from the pandemic.

The contractor for the Tucson Readiness Center has informed the Department that the Center's construction costs have increased since the contract was signed in April 2021. The cost has increased due to unprecedented pandemic-related construction industry cost increases.

Without the additional funding, the quality of the readiness center could be impacted. Stationing soldiers in a readiness center that lacks adequate space and quality can adversely impact morale, retention, and readiness.

Funding	FY 2023
General Fund	1,800.0
Issue Total	1,800.0

Readiness Center Maintenance Backlog

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time funding to resolve the deferred-maintenance backlog at the Department's Army National Guard readiness centers and readiness center support facilities.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Due to the gap in available funding and required costs for operations and maintenance, the Guard has deferred some required facility maintenance and consolidated units to maintained facilities. The accumulation of deferred maintenance ultimately leads to the closure of the facility. The Executive Budget seeks to eliminate the backlog to prevent facilities from closing.

Funding	FY 2023
General Fund	10,416.6

State Match for Readiness Center Maintenance

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to reach the state match requirements to support the operational and maintenance needs of the Arizona Army National Guard readiness centers and readiness center support facilities.

The Guard has a total of 60 facilities that are considered either readiness centers or readiness center support facilities, which require either a 25% or 50% state match for their operations and maintenance, with the balance matched by the federal government. The average age of the readiness centers is 38 years; due to the facilities' age, the maintenance and repairs required to maintain their functionality has steadily increased.

The Department receives $1.7 million in the National Guard Matching Funds special line item to fund the operations and maintenance of buildings for which the State has a requirement per the Master Cooperative Agreement with the National Guard Bureau.

The Department has been forced to defer maintenance each year, creating a backlog. The Executive Budget seeks to eliminate that backlog and fully fund the state match requirements of the centers and facilities.

Funding	FY 2023
General Fund	1,668.9

State Match to Meet Grantee Requirements

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to meet the grantee requirements of the State's Master Cooperative Agreement (MCA), Appendix One with the U.S. Department of Defense for employee support to the Arizona Army National Guard for facilities maintenance.

The federal government conducted an audit of Appendix One of the MCA between the National Guard Bureau (NGB) and the State. Per the audit findings, the federal government reimbursed the State for maintenance and engineering design work at a rate higher than was authorized on the Facilities Inventory and Support Plan. Personnel that worked on projects or performed maintenance at facilities listed at less than 100% federal reimbursement had their salaries improperly federally reimbursed at 100%. Per NGR 5-1 National Guard Grants and Cooperative Agreements, the State cannot opt out of paying the state match.

Finalization of the audit and failure to rectify the state match amount will lead to NGB reducing the amount of available federal dollars to fund employee salaries and facility maintenance by their calculated amount, which, either through a reduction in force or reduced maintenance funding, will result in additional maintenance not being performed and facility closures. This funding rectifies the state match amount, eliminating the need for action by the NGB.

Executive Budget Baseline Changes

Remove One-Time FY 2022 Appropriations

The Executive Budget removes in FY 2023 the one-time FY 2022 appropriations for aircraft communications equipment and the National Guard Cyber Response Revolving Fund Deposit.

The Executive Budget aligns with current law by backing out the appropriations.

Eliminate Underground Storage Tank Policy Commissions Appropriation

The Executive Budget includes a decrease in ongoing funding for the Underground Storage Tank (UST) Policy Commission and the UST Technical Appeals Panel.

Enhance Water Quality

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time funding for a General Fund appropriation transfer to, and an accompanying ongoing appropriation from, the Water Quality Fee Fund to support surface water protection, groundwater monitoring (including assuming primacy of the Underground Injection Control (UIC) program), and drinking water quality programs.

The Executive Budget also includes an increase in ongoing funding from the Solid Waste Fee Fund to support additional groundwater monitoring activities.

Funding will be used to hire critical staff and engage contractors to reinstate and improve groundwater monitoring and surface water protection programs, in order to address findings from a recent performance audit by the Auditor General. Funding will also be used to proactively enhance drinking water quality programs.

In conjunction with these efforts, the Department will consult with an economist that will assist with reviewing the fee schedule to ensure that ongoing support is available for all programs.

Office of Economic Opportunity

Laws 2016, Chapter 372 created three new governmental entities: The Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO), the Arizona Finance Authority (AFA), and the Arizona Industrial Development Authority (AZIDA). AFA is established in OEO and the AFA board serves as the board of AZIDA. The following agency budget includes all three entities' funding, though each is an operationally unique unit.

The Office of Economic Opportunity coordinates Arizona's workforce planning with economic development, supports the Workforce Arizona Council, and provides economic, demographic, regulatory, and tax research and analysis, at both the state and local levels.

Water Infrastructure Finance Authority finances the acquisition, construction, rehabilitation, and improvement of drinking water, wastewater, wastewater reclamation, and other water projects.

Greater Arizona Development Authority helps lower the costs of financing for local governments and tribal entities on debt incurred for infrastructure development and construction.

AZIDA is a non-profit corporation designated as a political subdivision of the State that issues both taxable and tax-exempt bonds for commercial activities.

Executive Budget Baseline Changes

Remove One-Time FY 2022 Appropriations

The Executive Budget removes in FY 2023 the one-time FY 2022 appropriations for various one-time initiatives.

Laws 2021, Chapter 408 provided the following one-time appropriations:

- Water Supply Development Revolving Fund Deposit: $6.0 million
- Water Projects Assistance Grants: $5.0 million
- Small Drinking Water Systems Fund Deposit: $1.0 million

The Executive Budget aligns with current law by backing out these appropriations.

Funding	FY 2023

Appeals Application Information Technology Costs

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time and ongoing funding for costs associated with upgrading the Board's appeals application system.

One-time funding of $50,000 will support necessary software upgrades for the project. The ongoing funding of $25,000 will support annual licensing and system server access requirements.

In FY 2021, the Board began working with the Arizona Strategic Enterprise Technology (ASET) Office at the Department of Administration to transition the Board's outdated appeals application system to Salesforce. The system upgrade was to be implemented in phases and funded through vacancy and other savings. During the initial phase of development, the Board and ASET identified additional costs that necessitate greater funding.

The Board anticipates that this project will be completed by FY 2024.

Department of Forestry and Fire Management

The Arizona Department of Forestry and Fire Management (DFFM), in partnership with local, county, State, and federal agencies, protects Arizona's people and lands by: providing coordination and resource response for the suppression and management of wildland fire; delivering education to aid in the prevention of wildland fire; providing information, education, technical assistance, and integrated management strategies through forestry programs; collaborating in forest restoration; and ensuring fire and life safety through regular building inspections, permitting, and plan reviews.

Agency Total	76,686.7	115,112.0	67,549.8	182,661.8

Major Executive Budget Initiatives and Funding

Fire Suppression Funding

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for fire suppression.

The rise in wildland firefighting costs is not isolated to Arizona, as the western U.S. is experiencing drier, warmer climates, with forests that have not been adequately maintained, resulting in an increase in State spending on multi-jurisdictional wildfires that did not correlate to a proportional increase in the Department's suppression fund budget.

The Fire Suppression special line item (SLI) has been appropriated $4.0 million: $3.0 million from A.R.S. § 37-1305; $200,000 from Laws 2021, Chapter 408; and $800,000 from an interagency service agreement (ISA) with the State Land Department. Those amounts are insufficient to cover average Arizona wildfire costs.

The Executive Budget increases the SLI's appropriation to a total of $20.0 million by increasing the statutory appropriation by $17.0 million, providing an ongoing decrease of $200,000 to the feed bill, and terminating the $800,000 ISA with the State Land Department.

The Executive Budget also provides the following Legislative change:

"As permanent law, require that the General Fund appropriation for Wildland fire suppression or other unplanned all-risk emergency liabilities be reduced each fiscal year by the amount of unexpended and unobligated monies in the Fire Suppression Revolving Fund from the prior fiscal year.

"On or before August 1 of each fiscal year, the State General Fund appropriation for Wildland fire suppression or other unplanned all-risk emergency liabilities for the current fiscal year shall be reduced by the amount of unexpended and unobligated monies remaining in the Fire Suppression Revolving Fund at the end of the prior fiscal year.

"On or before March 1, 2023, and each year thereafter, the Department of Forestry and Fire Management shall report to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the Governor's Office of Strategic Planning and Budgeting non-reimbursable wildfire suppression costs by providing audited invoices for the previous fiscal year."

This proposed language can be found in the Executive Budget Legislative Changes section.

Arizona Healthy Forest Initiative

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding and a $3.0 million increase in one-time funding for the second year of the Arizona Healthy Forest Initiative (AZHFI).

AZHFI is estimated to reduce the threat of wildfire in Arizona – particularly on the lands for which the Department is responsible (i.e., State Trust Land and unincorporated private lands) – by a five-fold increase in the amount of Hazardous Vegetation Removal treated land, to over 20,000 acres per year. This increase in the pace of wildfire fuel removal reflects a strategic shift in reducing statewide wildfire risks, decreasing reliance on the U.S. Forest Service, and sharply increasing the State's role.

After the first year saw partial completion, the second year of the initiative will bring AZHFI to full capacity. All 122.0 FTE positions will be hired; all vehicles will be purchased; grant funding will reach $4.5 million; contract mechanized crews will be at full capacity; and all inmate teams will be deployed.

Funding	FY 2023
General Fund	32,457.0
Issue Total	32,457.0

Additional Fire Marshals

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for 5.5 FTE Deputy Fire Marshal positions and an increase in one-time funding of $23,843 for equipment costs.

The Office of the State Fire Marshal (OSFM) is responsible for inspecting 15,000 State- and county-owned buildings, including schools. The State is taking additional steps to ensure adequate fire safety systems.

Inspections and plan reviews have not been conducted at an acceptable rate, which the Executive seeks to increase. In contrast to the FY 2022 budget, which targeted school inspections, the FY 2023 Executive Budget encompasses all inspections and plan reviews conducted by OSFM.

Funding	FY 2023
General Fund	491.4
Issue Total	491.4

Good Neighbor Authority

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for 17.0 new FTE positions.

The new FTE positions will expand the Department's capacity to administer more Good Neighbor Authority (GNA) projects with the U.S. Forest Service (USFS) and other stakeholders.

As part of the Arizona Healthy Forest Initiative, the Department is engaging with the USFS in thinning and other restoration projects, focused primarily in and around communities. The GNA initiative would expand that scope to target further into the forests, into high-risk areas that have the potential for devastating forest fires.

In September 2021, the U.S. Forest Service canceled the solicitation for a 20-year contract that would have treated over 450,000 acres of National Forest land. The Forest Service is willing to give Arizona more acres to treat under State control, if the State can provide additional funds.

The new FTE positions and funding can implement GNA projects around the state, expanding the acres treated each year to 28,000.

GNA funding can cover more acres at a smaller cost to the State compared to the Arizona Healthy Forest Initiative (AZHFI). With AZHFI, DFFM is responsible for the project from steps zero to ten (project inception to completion). With GNA, DFFM is involved with project implementation from around steps eight to ten. This is because the USFS has already completed a majority of the project planning. DFFM is essentially developing the GNA agreement, ensuring compliance with State and federal law, and overseeing all aspects of on the ground project implementation.

State Fleet: New Additions

The Executive Budget includes a one-time deposit from the General Fund into the State Fleet Replacement Fund to purchase vehicles.

•The Arizona Healthy Forest Initiative requires the Department to purchase 56 vehicles for supervisors to drive the 72 inmate crews to work sites.
•The Additional Fire Marshals initiative requires the Department to purchase six vehicles for the 5.5 new FTE positions. The new personnel will use the vehicles for transportation to inspections.
•The Good Neighbor Authority initiative requires the Department to purchase 14 vehicles for new FTE positions. The new FTE positions will use the vehicles for transportation as they perform their job duties.

Transfers and appropriations for this project appear in the Arizona Department of Transportation (ADOT) section of the Executive Budget. ADOT is the State Fleet manager and has sole statutory authority to procure vehicles on behalf of agencies within the State Fleet.

Executive Budget Baseline Changes

Remove One-Time FY 2022 Appropriations

The Executive Budget removes in FY 2023 the one-time FY 2022 appropriations for equipment costs associated with hiring three new State Fire Marshals and one-time rural fire district reimbursements.

Laws 2021, Chapter 408, Section 37 appropriated $116,650 from the General Fund in FY 2022 one-time for equipment costs associated with hiring three new State Fire Marshals and appropriated $2.5 million from the General Fund in FY 2022 one-time to the Department to reimburse rural fire districts.

The Executive Budget aligns with current law by backing out these appropriations.

Funding	FY 2023
General Fund	(2,616.7)
Issue Total	(2,616.7)

In addition to the funding amounts for this agency shown in this section, the Executive Budget also includes funding changes for this agency in the Statewide Adjustments section, which is immediately after the Capital section. Statewide Adjustments for FY 2023 include changes for health insurance premiums, retirement contributions, rent charges, accounting system costs, human resources system modernization, state motor vehicle fleet charges, human resources charges, and information technology charges.

eLicensing Upgrade

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time funding for the costs associated with migrating to and maintaining the eLicensing platform. The process of reviewing applications and issuing licenses at many State boards, including the Board of Funeral Directors & Embalmers, calls for further modernization.

Salary Enhancements

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for salary enhancements for 3.5 FTE positions.

In FY 2022, the Board has experienced 100% employee turnover. Feedback from exit interviews indicates that the primary reasons that employees left the Board were low compensation rates and workloads in excess of stated responsibilities.

The compensation increase, which will increase salaries at the Board to match statewide median compensation, applies to the following positions: Executive Director, Investigations Manager, Licensing Administrator, and Administrative Assistant III.

Interagency Service Agreement with Attorney General

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for the Board to establish an interagency service agreement (ISA) with the Attorney General's Office (AG).

The AG provides services to the Board in the form of board meeting attendance, advisory services on various legal matters, and feedback on proposed changes at the Board. However, because the Board does not have a standing ISA with the AG, the Board experiences high turnover among the AG representatives assigned to it.

In FY 2021, the AG spent 660 hours working with the Board, for an average of 12.7 hours per week. The funding increase will cover a quarter-time AG representative, which should be sufficient to cover the Board's needs.

Major Executive Budget Initiatives and Funding

State Fleet Modernization Phase 2: AGFD Fleet Funds - NEW

The Executive Budget establishes the AGFD Fleet Replacement Fund and the AGFD Fleet Operations Fund.

The Game and Fish Department (AGFD) is under the State Fleet umbrella, which is managed by the Arizona Department of Transportation (ADOT). Due to federal funding restrictions, Department monies cannot be transferred to ADOT's State Fleet Operations Fund or State Fleet Replacement Fund.

To resolve that situation, ADOT and the Department have entered into an intergovernmental agreement, under ADOT's statutory authority as the Fleet Manager, to allow the Department to manage its vehicle allocation within the State Fleet under ADOT's oversight.

The two new non-appropriated funds will provide to ADOT, the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, and the Governor's Office of Strategic Planning and Budgeting a high level of transparency and accountability in the Department's management of its vehicle allocation.

This issue appears in the Legislative Changes section of the Executive Budget.

Major Executive Budget Initiatives and Funding

Accelerated Nursing Program

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time funding to engage in a public-private partnership with Creighton University that will allow for the instruction of an additional accelerated nursing cohort as well as scholarship opportunities for nursing students.

Creighton University currently has two accelerated nursing programs at their Phoenix campus. These accelerated nursing academy cohorts consist of roughly 50-60 nursing students. Unlike traditional nursing programs that take roughly 48 months to complete, the accelerated program can complete instruction in 12-18 months with a 93% or greater graduation rate.

The program will also assist to provide scholarships to students on the condition that they commit to nursing in an Arizona hospital for at least four years after graduation. By 2030, it is estimated that this will result in 300 additional nurses working in Arizona.

Enterprise Compensation Strategy

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding of $5.0 million to provide salary increases to key positions for which the agency is experiencing difficulty in recruiting and retaining highly qualified staff. Of this amount, $129,800 is from non-appropriated funds that will not appear in the fund sourcing below this issue.

This multi-agency Enterprise Compensation Strategy is projected to result in pay increases for over 25,000 State employees.

Arizona State Hospital Operating Initiative

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to address a shortfall in the Arizona State Hospital (ASH) Operating speial line item and ongoing costs associated with various campus-wide projects that were started in FY 2022.

In FY 2023, the Executive projects a $6.6 million shortfall on the ASH Operating SLI. The shortfall is primarily related to higher staffing levels at the Hospital, as well as contracted pharmaceutical, dietary, Attorney General, and maintenance cost increases.

In addition, the Executive Budget includes an ongoing $262,100 increase in the ASH Fund for costs associated with IT projects on the ASH campus that were started in FY 2022. Costs include operating licenses for a new medication barcode scanning system; an ongoing replacement schedule for IT hardware; and Wi-Fi costs associated with the expansion of Wi-Fi in areas of the Hospital impacted by expansion.

Arizona State Hospital Surveillance System Upgrade

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time funding to complete replacement of the camera surveillance system at the Arizona State Hospital (ASH) and an increase in ongoing funding for audio and visual storage costs associated with the upgrade.

ASH utilizes two surveillance systems on campus. One covers the Forensics Unit, Civil, Dietary, Warehouse, General Services, Hunt Building, and Psychiatric Security Review Board (PSRB), and the other covers the Arizona Community Protection and Treatment Center (ACPTC).

The video surveillance equipment is outdated for both systems. The upgrade would incorporate all facilities on campus under one integrated surveillance system and update all video surveillance equipment, fiber optics, cabling, and network infrastructure to ensure that cameras work cohesively and consistently.

In addition, the Hospital requires funding to implement 24-month storage for both audio and visual footage, which is projected to cost $2.0 million per year.

Alzheimer's Disease Research Funding

The Executive Budget continues one-time funding for Alzheimer's disease research.

The Department provides grant funding to the Arizona Alzheimer's Consortium (AAC), which provides dollar-for-dollar matching grants to universities, hospitals, and research centers for research on the causes of Alzheimer's disease.

The FY 2023 appropriation continues a three-year commitment to supporting the AAC and Alzheimer's disease research.

Vital Records Appropriation Extension

The Executive Budget includes the extension of a one-time FY 2022 appropriation of $1.0 million to upgrade the Department's Vital Records Electronic System.

Laws 2021, Chapter 384 required that the Department update its adoption records system, which would allow the Department to release birth records that were previously sealed due to an adoption. The law also appropriated $1.0 million in FY 2022 for the one-time upgrade.

The Department has recognized the new law as an opportunity to update the larger Vital Records system to make it more cohesive. The Department has been working with an Arizona Strategic Enterprise Technology approved vendor, and estimates the project will be completed in August 2024. Only 5% of the project is expected to be completed in FY 2022.

In order to maximize agency resources and ensure completion of this project, the Executive Budget includes a one year extension for the $1.0 million appropriation.

Hiring Incentives for State Hospital Staff

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for hiring bonuses for new employees.

The Arizona State Hospital (ASH) operates a 260-bed facility in Phoenix and provides long-term inpatient psychiatric care to Arizonans who have a serious mental illness and are undergoing court-ordered treatment.

Safe and efficient operation at ASH requires skilled nursing staff. The Department has faced challenges in hiring and retaining Nurses, Behavioral Health Technicians, and Therapy Specialists.

The hiring bonus amounts to $5,000 disbursed over one year of continued employment after hire.

Nursing Care Institution Resident Protection Fund

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for projects, training, and equipment purchases that have been approved by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid (CMS) and are used to enhance care and services provided at nursing care facilities statewide.

The Nursing Care Institution Resident Protection Fund has an appropriation of $100,000 set aside for special projects in nursing facilities. The cost of projects since FY 2021 has exceeded the appropriation to the Fund by between $41,500 and $95,000. In order to provide flexibility for the Department to implement special projects in skilled nursing facilities statewide, the Executive Budget includes an ongoing increase of $100,000 to cover anticipated costs of projects in future years.

In FY 2023, projects will include senior caregiver and dementia awareness training for staff at skilled nursing facilities; staff training for best practices in physician services; and funds for skilled nursing facilities to purchase visitation safety equipment, including plexiglass barriers and outdoor shelters for in-person visitation.

Suicide Prevention Coordinator Position

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to move the funding for 1.0 FTE Suicide Prevention Coordinator position to the Department from the Arizona Health Care Cost Containment System (AHCCCS).

The Executive Budget moves the footnote in Laws 2021, Chapter 408, Section 8, which appropriates $100,000 from the operating lump sum budget for a Suicide Prevention Coordinator moving from AHCCCS to DHS.

AHCCCS transferred the funds for this position to the Department through an intergovernmental service agreement in FY 2022. To avoid this administrative burden, the Executive Budget moves the appropriation and the reporting requirement from AHCCCS to DHS.

Lease-Purchase Payment

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for lease-purchase payments for the Department's main office at 150 North 18th Avenue in Phoenix.

In FY 2023, rent costs are expected to increase by $134,700.

The building is not included under the Capital Outlay Stabilization Fund; therefore, rising rental costs are not covered by annual statewide adjustments as they would be for other buildings in the Department of Administration building system.

Executive Budget Baseline Changes

Prescott Historical Society of Arizona

The Prescott Historical Society operates the Sharlot Hall Museum, which was founded in 1928 and is located on the grounds of the first territorial Governor's residence and offices. The nearly four-acre landscaped campus features 11 exhibit buildings, including four restored historic structures: the territorial Governor's Mansion (1864), Fort Misery (1864), the Fremont House (1875), and the Victorian-era Bashford House (1877). The Lawler Exhibit Center (1977) hosts both permanent and changing exhibits, an historic theater, and storage of extensive historic and prehistoric objects. A large Archive Library (2008) houses a 10,000 book library and hundreds of thousands of images, documents, maps and oral histories.

In March 2013, a new support facility constructed with non-State funds was completed. In April 2014, a new admissions building, also privately financed, was added. A 10,000 square foot Education Center, financed entirely by the non-profit Sharlot Hall Historical Society, was completed in the summer of 2020. The Bob Stump VA Medical Center hosts a branch museum that interprets the history of Fort Whipple. Public programs include the annual Folk Arts Fair, Prescott Indian Art Market, Folk Music Festival, Frontier Christmas, Western History Symposium, musical and theatrical historical productions, living history interpretations in both indoor and outdoor settings, heritage gardens, lecture series, education tours, and outreach opportunities for children and adults.

Major Executive Budget Initiatives and Funding

Increase Cyber Security Funding

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to enhance cyber security.

Cyber Command has seen an unprecedented increase in State and local government ransomware attacks. At the same time, the State is struggling to address vulnerabilities in a timely manner.

To enhance the safety of the State's cyber infrastructure, the Executive Budget includes funding for software and an increase of 4.0 FTE positions. The FTE positions will support deployment of the software and tools needed to maximize cyber security.

In order to cover the costs of enhanced cyber security, the Executive Budget increases the Information Technology pro rata charge from 0.43% to 0.61%. Of this amount, $1.6 million will come from the General Fund. These adjustments are displayed in the Statewide Adjustments section of the Executive Budget.

Funding	FY 2023
Information Technology Fund	4,200.0
Issue Total	4,200.0

Special Line Item Transfer

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to correspond with the shift of the Statewide Information Security and Privacy Operations and Controls special line item to the Department of Homeland Security from the Arizona Department of Administration (ADOA).

In 2021, the Governor appointed a new Homeland Security Director. In addition to the change in leadership, cyber security operations were moved to the Department from ADOA. The funding reflects the pro rata cyber security funding.

Funding	FY 2023
Information Technology Fund	6,366.7
Issue Total	6,366.7

Statewide Cyber Readiness Grant Program

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for 2.0 new FTE positions and to provide statewide cyber grants.

With cyberattacks rising, local governments and school districts are at a major disadvantage and lack resources to defend themselves.

In partnership with the Arizona Department of Administration (ADOA), the Department will provide the following cybersecurity tools to local governments and school districts as part of the grant program:

1. Security Awareness and Anti-Phishing Training

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

2. Advanced Endpoint Protection
3. Multi-Factor Authentication
4. Web Application Firewall
5. Inventory Management/Remote Patching
6. Penetration Testing

By utilizing State contracts, the funding will arm local governments with the tools they need and improve election security in all 15 counties. Funding will include 1.0 FTE position at the Department to oversee the technical requirements, and 1.0 FTE position at ADOA to manage the grant.

Funding	FY 2023
General Fund	10,000.0
Issue Total	10,000.0

Strategic Cyber Security Investments

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time funding to enhance cyber security.

With increased teleworking due to COVID-19, the State faces increased cyber security threats. The funding will help mitigate those threats through risk assessment, penetration testing, training, and professional services.

The one-time funding does not require an adjustment in the Information Technology pro rata charge.

Funding	FY 2023
Information Technology Fund	1,190.5
Issue Total	1,190.5

In addition to the funding amounts for this agency shown in this section, the Executive Budget also includes funding changes for this agency in the Statewide Adjustments section, which is immediately after the Capital section. Remove One-Time FY 2022 Appropriations

The Executive Budget removes in FY 2023 the one-time FY 2022 appropriation for convening the Independent Redistricting Commission.

Laws 2021, Chapter 408, Section 48 provided a one-time non-lapsing appropriation of $7.9 million to establish the Commission. The appropriation was intended to address the Commission's operational needs for FY 2022 and FY 2023, based on 2011 Commission expenditures.

The Executive Budget contemplates a one-time non-lapsing appropriation of $4.5 million in FY 2024 to address the Commission's remaining operational needs, also based on 2011 Commission expenditures.

The Executive Budget aligns with current law by backing out the appropriation.

Major Executive Budget Initiatives and Funding

Agency Consolidation - Appropriation Restructure

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to restructure the Department's operating budget.

The restructuring will increase the Financial Services Fund appropriation in order to free up capacity from the General Fund appropriation to pay for additional staff, increase salaries, and support other operating expenses.

The Department was officially consolidated on July 1, 2020. Part of the process included restructuring the operating budget of the formerly separate agencies in order to more effectively allocate resources for the consolidated agency.

The increased appropriation will be used to shift financial institutions-related professional and outside services and other operating expenses from the General Fund to the Financial Services Fund. The freed-up General Fund appropriation will be used to pay for costs associated with a Mental Health Parity Administrator position and an Insurance Actuary position, raising salaries of targeted positions, and supporting additional operating expenses.

Major Executive Budget Initiatives and Funding

Central Arizona Project Water Rights Fees

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for projected Central Arizona Project (CAP) fees.

The Department holds rights to an allocation of 32,076 acre-feet of CAP water that benefits State Trust lands. The Department is required to pay annual fees for those rights. The Department may assign a portion of its water rights to specific parcels of Trust land, which can greatly increase the value of the land when sold or leased. When a portion of the CAP allocation is transferred to a lessee or purchaser, the General Fund is reimbursed for all previous costs, including interest and administrative fees.

Historically, the CAP releases by the preceding June a provisional rate for the upcoming year, but it does not set the firm rate until early June of the year in question, typically after the budget has already been passed. Consequently, the Department has regularly been forced to seek a supplemental appropriation, which results in a late payment to the CAP.

The provisional rate for FY 2023, set by CAP in June 2021, is 12% higher than the FY 2022 firm rate. The Executive Budget includes additional funding to meet the higher provisional rate. This additional funding will help avoid a future supplemental process and costly late fees.

Failure to pay the annual fee would result in the Department forfeiting all or part of its CAP allocation and all capital fees paid thus far, totaling over $24.0 million.

Remove Fire Suppression Special Line Item

The Executive Budget includes a decrease in ongoing funding to remove the Fire Suppression special line item (SLI).

The rise in wildland firefighting costs is not isolated to Arizona, as the western U.S. is experiencing drier, warmer climates, with forests that have not been adequately maintained, resulting in an increase in State spending on multi-jurisdictional wildfires.

The FY 2022 enacted budget includes a $3.2 million SLI appropriation to the Department of Forestry and Fire Management (DFFM) for fire suppression. DFFM also receives $800,000 from the Trust Land Management Fund (TLMF) from an interagency service agreement (ISA) with the Department. This is insufficient to cover average Arizona wildfire costs.

The Executive Budget increases DFFM's fire suppression SLI's appropriation to a total of $20.0 million and terminates the $800,000 ISA with the Department. This will provide DFFM with the rescources needed to address wildefire costs, while avoiding placing a strain on the TLMF (revenues into which are volatile during times of economic uncertainty).

Prior to digitization, the majority of workflows for submitting use applications, billing defaults, cancellations, and purchase orders were on a paper-based system.

The Department will use the funding to migrate the remaining workflows onto the digital platform in FY 2023.

Executive Budget Baseline Changes

Remove One-Time FY 2022 Appropriations

The Executive Budget removes in FY 2023 the following one-time FY 2022 appropriations:

- $250,000 to compile information on how district schools, charter schools, and the Arizona Department of Education plan to spend discretionary monies received from federal COVID-19 stimulus bills. The three-year approved budget plan also allocates $200,000 (one-time) in FY 2023 for this purpose. The FY 2023 appropriation is thus $50,000 less than the FY 2022 appropriation.
- $165,000 for a financial audit of private, non-governmental grant monies for Arizona's 2020 elections and Maricopa County's procurement of voting systems.

The Department of Liquor Licenses and Control licenses and regulates the production, distribution, and sale of alcoholic beverages throughout the State of Arizona. In instances involving allegations against licensees, the Department investigates complaints, develops police reports, and enforces civil and criminal laws. State liquor laws are in Arizona Revised Statutes, Title 4 with supporting rules in Arizona Administrative Code, Title 19. The Department maintains key partnerships in and outside government with emphasis on youth education and outreach addressing underage drinking.

Major Executive Budget Initiatives and Funding

Law Enforcement Equipment

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time funding for the purchase of radios for sworn personnel.

The Department uses borrowed radios that, in many cases, cannot be updated or repaired. The 14 new radios will provide personnel with reliable equipment in the field, which will help with qualifying applicants, providing support at large public events, and investigating compliance.

Funding	FY 2023
Liquor Licenses Fund	126.0
Issue Total	126.0

Agency Operational Enhancements

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to purchase ammunition, implement a training regimen, and support overtime expenses.

The Department's sworn personnel must complete an annual AZPOST firearm qualification. Prior to CY 2020, the Department used donated ammunition, which has since ceased. Of the funding, $2,500 will provide ammunition for regular firearm training and the annual firearm qualification.

Additionally, $15,000 will allow the Department to increase training opportunities for sworn employees and include undercover operations, instructor development, firearms training, defensive tactics training, investigative courses, and the required AZPOST training.

Investigators and licensing staff occasionally work overtime to complete investigations and manage the fluctuation in license applications. Without an overtime budget, the Department limits overtime, adjusts schedules, and books compensatory time. Funding in the amount of $93,500 will give the Department additional capacity to pay overtime, thus reducing compensatory time liabilities. This provides budget capacity for 0.6 hours of overtime, per week, for the licensing and investigation personnel.

Investigations Unit Operational Enhancements

The Executive Budget includes increases in ongoing and one-time funding for additional FTE Investigator positions, to decrease the Investigator-to-license ratio.

With 12.0 FTE Investigator positions responsible for the oversight of over 14,000 license holders, the Investigator-to-license ratio is approximately 1:1,175 – more than double the national average of 1:550 as reported in a 2019 National Liquor Law Enforcement Association survey.

Ongoing funding of $1.1 million will support staff salaries and related ongoing costs. One-time funding of $159,600 will pay for the uniforms, equipment, and onboarding costs to support the implementation of the initiative. The ongoing and one-time vehicle-related costs for the staff are listed separately.

This funding will allow the Department to expand the Investigations Unit by 6.0 FTE Investigator positions and 1.0 FTE Investigator Sergeant position. Increasing the total number of Investigators from 12 to 18 will reduce the ratio to approximately 1:784. No additional FTE authority is required.

The Department's Investigations Unit is composed of 12.0 FTE sworn Investigator positions, 2.0 FTE sworn Investigator Sergeant positions, and 1.0 FTE Administrative Assistant position. Investigations personnel conduct liquor law enforcement through education, prevention, and investigations and are responsible for performing background investigations on liquor license applicants, conducting site inspections for new restaurant applicants, completing routine liquor law compliance inspections, and ensuring that institutions with expired licenses have ceased operations. Additionally, Investigators focus on complaints of over-service, sales to minors, and acts of violence. They also engage in covert underage buyer investigations.

As part of their duties, Investigators develop written reports that summarize the outcomes of liquor establishment investigations and recommend civil and criminal penalties to prosecutors for perceived violations.

Reducing the Investigators' caseload will help ensure better service to Arizona's liquor license vendors. The four priorities of the unit will continue to be underage drinking, over-service, violent acts, and wrong-way driving.

Information Technology Improvements

The Executive Budget includes increases in ongoing and one-time funding for various information technology improvements.

The funding will be used to achieve compliance with the federal Criminal Justice Information System (CJIS) security requirements, increase the Department's RiskSense Score, and maintain operational efficacy.

Ongoing funding of $82,200 will support the annual cloud server costs, CJIS encryption, Justice Web Interface licenses for CJIS, two-factor authentication for CJIS, Adobe licenses, the e-licensing software tax, and a computer replacement lifecycle.

One-time funding of $20,300 will allow the Department to replace the AZNet phones and CJIS computer to comply with federal CJIS requirements.

Enterprise Compensation Strategy

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding of $649,500 to provide salary increases to key positions for which the agency is experiencing difficulty in recruiting and retaining highly qualified staff. Of this amount, $12,400 is from non-appropriated funds that will not appear in the fund sourcing below this issue.

The multi-agency Enterprise Compensation Strategy is projected to result in pay increases for over 25,000 State employees.

State Fleet: New Additions

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time funding for a deposit from the Liquor Licenses Fund into the State Fleet Replacement Fund to purchase vehicles.

The Investigations Unit Expansion initiative calls for the Department to purchase seven vehicles for the new staff to complete their investigations work, visiting liquor license establishments to qualify applicants and check for compliance.

Transfers and appropriations for this project appear in the Arizona Department of Transportation (ADOT) section of the Executive Budget. ADOT is the State Fleet manager and has sole authority to procure the vehicles on behalf of the agency.

Underfunded Administrative Costs

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to correct a rent-reduction budget error, correct a risk-reduction budget error, and support the liquor license lottery.

In FY 2019, the Department relocated its Tucson office and saved $10,000 in rent. The savings were realized by reducing the Department's budget. However, the budget reduction was erroneously made twice: once in the agency section and again in the statewide adjustments section. The $10,000 in funding corrects the error.

Every two years, the Budget includes a risk-charge adjustment. From FY 2016 to FY 2020, the Department did not receive budget adjustments. When the FY 2020 risk adjustment was made, it was assumed that the Department was receiving the correct amount. That was not the case, and the error put the Department's risk appropriation below the cost. The $17,600 funding adjusts the risk appropriation to align with the current risk charge.

There are valuation and random-selection vendor costs associated with the administration of the liquor license lottery. The funding will increase the Department's budget by $40,000 to account for these costs.

Executive Budget Baseline Changes

Remove One-Time FY 2022 Appropriations

The Executive Budget removes in FY 2023 the one-time FY 2022 appropriation for to-go cocktail licenses.

Laws 2021, Chapter 408, Section 55 included $1.0 million for the administration of the to-go cocktail licenses, of which $200,000 was for related one-time automation expenses.

The Executive Budget aligns with current law by backing out the appropriation.

In addition to the funding amounts for this agency shown in this section, the Executive Budget also includes funding changes for this agency in the Statewide Adjustments section, which is immediately after the Capital section. Statewide Adjustments for FY 2023 include changes for health insurance premiums, retirement contributions, rent charges, accounting system costs, human resources system modernization, state motor vehicle fleet charges, human resources charges, and information technology charges.

Keno Implementation - NEW

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to contract with a third-party to develop and implement an electronic Keno game at approximately 184 retailers.

Laws 2021, Chapter 234 authorized the Commission to establish and operate a single electronic Keno game within authorized locations. The increased funding will pay for three personnel and vehicle rentals to ensure retailer compliance with State Keno guidelines.

When implemented, the new Keno game is expected to generate $4.0 million per year in new revenue, which would be shared with the third-party partner, the State General Fund, and other Lottery beneficiaries. The Executive projects the General Fund's share of this revenue will be between $320,000 and $430,000.

Major Executive Budget Initiatives and Funding

Education Program Administrator

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to make one part-time (0.75 FTE) Education Program Administrator (EPA) position a full-time (1.0 FTE) position.

EPAs are responsible for overseeing nursing education programs statewide, including reviewing nursing school curriculums, accreditation, and investigating complaints against nursing programs and faculty as they arise. This includes lawsuits against nursing education programs, which require EPAs to perform interviews, inspect facilities, draft legal documents, and consult with the Board's Chief Counsel on open issues.

In FY 2018, the Board oversaw 184 programs; in FY 2021, the number had increased to 262. Because complaints have become more complex, fewer cases are being resolved each year.

The transition from a part-time to a full-time EPA will help address backlog and ensure more time is given to resolve complex cases.

Personnel Board

The State Personnel Board is responsible for hearing and reviewing, via an administrative hearing process, appeals filed by covered State employees who have been dismissed from State service, suspended for more than 80 working hours, or involuntarily demoted resulting from disciplinary action. The Board also hears and reviews complaints filed under the whistleblower statute. Under the direction of the presiding hearing officer, the proceedings are conducted on an informal basis through the taking of direct testimony, the cross examination of witnesses, and the admission of evidence. A record of the proceedings is taken and made available, upon request, to hearing officers, board members, and parties to the appeal. The hearing officer determines the facts based on the evidence presented and makes a recommendation regarding discipline to the Board. Board members are subsequently provided with case information so they may determine whether proper discipline has been imposed.

Power Authority

The Arizona Power Authority (APA) manages Arizona's allocation of hydroelectric power from the Hoover Dam for the overall benefit of the state. The APA cooperates with federal, state, and non-governmental agencies to address regulatory, environmental, and other matters that impact electric power and water uses of the Colorado River. In addition, the APA serves as an information resource for its customers on topics that impact their electric resources and the utilization of these resources. The Authority may also pursue generation and/or transmission projects that are within the APA's legislative mandate and are in the best interest of the state.

Major Executive Budget Initiatives and Funding

Helicopter Replacement – NEW

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time and ongoing funding for a helicopter replacement cycle for law enforcement and search-and-rescue missions. Of this amount, $2.6 million is one-time.

The Executive provided federal funding in 2021 to the Department to replace the oldest helicopter, which is 22 years old. Federal funding will not cover upfitting costs, which have been included as one-time costs.

The Department operates a fleet of five helicopters: four single-engine Bell 407s and one twin-engine Bell 429. Per industry standards, helicopters should be replaced every 10 years or 10,000 flight hours, whichever occurs first. As of September 2021, four of the five helicopters exceed the replacement age.

The Executive Budget further creates a "DPS Fleet Replacement" special line item to provide a constant lifetime replacement cycle budget for the Department's helicopter fleet. Under the replacement cycle, every two years the Department's oldest helicopter will be traded in and a new helicopter will be lease-purchased. As a result of the lifetime replacement cycle, the Department's entire helicopter fleet will operate within recommended replacement standards by FY 2029.

DPS Fleet Modernization – NEW

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to replace the Department's sworn and civilian vehicle fleet to better meet the recommended replacement cycle for Department vehicles by modernizing the model of fleet operations for the DPS Fleet, the size and composition of which is unique in comparison to the State Fleet.

The DPS Fleet contains around 2,000 vehicles, double the size of the State Fleet, which consists of approximately 1,000 light-duty vehicles across 37 agencies. Due to these significant differences, the Executive Budget refines the structures around the DPS Fleet to provide consistency and transparency in how the State manages these assets in the likeness of the State Fleet.

The Department's replacement needs include 276 vehicles each year for 2,046.0 FTE positions. The vehicle-replacement total consists of 187 for Highway Patrol functions and 89 for criminal investigations, Gang and Immigration Intelligence Team Enforcement Mission, and other agency support functions.

The Department's $5.5 million budget for vehicle replacement is not sufficient to meet the recommended replacement benchmark of 150,000 miles, or six years for Highway Patrol vehicles and eight years for other vehicle uses.

The Executive Budget further creates a "DPS Fleet Replacement" special line item to provide a constant lifetime replacement cycle budget for the Department's vehicle fleet. This cycle will allow the Department's entire vehicle fleet to be replaced every six to eight years, within recommended replacement benchmarks based on the specific program.

The dedicated funding will decrease the Department's reliance on vacancy savings and reductions in critical services in order to meet its vehicle needs.

A similar initiative is being contemplated for the Arizona Department of Transportation and Arizona Department of Correction, Rehabilitation, and Reentry. Including DPS, all three agencies have been historically exempted from the State Fleet. The Executive does intend for all exempt agencies except for the Legislative and Judicial branches to be incorporated into the State Fleet. At this time, the Executive and ADOT, State Fleet manager, are not prepared to start onboarding the historic large exempt agency fleets into the State Fleet.

Inflation and Equipment Funding

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time and ongoing funding for inflation and equipment costs. Of this amount, $450,000 is one-time for phones.

Several Department programs are affected by inflationary costs that have not been addressed for many years. Inflation has impacted software and equipment funding for multiple programs, and federal and grant funding has either decreased or been eliminated for several programs.

To compensate for the decreased funding and increased costs, the Department has used payroll costs by leaving positions vacant. With the requested funding, the Department will be able to fill approximately 57.0 FTE State Trooper positions and 12.0 FTE Forensic Scientist positions. Actual positions filled would vary with a host of factors and would likely include some support positions.

Communications Costs for Body Worn Camera Project

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for replacement equipment for in-car access points used for the body-worn camera (BWC) project.

The enacted FY 2022 budget included $6.9 million in ongoing funding for a new BWC program. The Department has completed the testing and evaluation phase of the BWC project. In the deployment phase, replacement equipment will be needed to provide adequate upload speeds of BWC footage. Without the equipment, the system will degrade and lose usefulness.

Cadet Housing Costs

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to pay for seven months of housing for 34 Cadets while training at Phoenix Regional Police Academy (PRPA).

For many years, the Arizona Peace Officer Standards and Training Board (AZPOST) paid for Cadet and Lateral Trooper housing costs while at the Academy and reimbursed PRPA (or its predecessors) for partial housing costs. However, AZPOST can no longer afford to pay housing costs.

Most Arizona law enforcement agencies send their Cadets to local academies and do not incur housing costs. Because the Department is a statewide agency, approximately 30% of its Cadets live outside of the Phoenix area and must maintain a separate residence for up to seven months while at the Academy.

The dedicated funding will enable Department Cadets to train at PRPA without incurring extensive housing costs.

Public Services Portal - Phase 2

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time and ongoing funding to extend Public Service Portal (PSP) services to appropriated funded units and implement the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI)'s Rap Back program for all Department fingerprint-based criminal history check-driven services. Of this amount, $368,500 is ongoing for annual maintenance costs.

The funding will extend the PSP to the Applicant Processing Team, 30-Day Impounds, Criminal History Records Unit, and Student Transportation. Extending the PSP will save time for customers, as there will be no manual application entry for the work units. The Portal will eliminate the need to enter paper applications, which will reduce clerical errors and backlog associated with application processing. Additionally, customers will create personal accounts that will store their information and more easily automates future licensure renewals. It will also provide for such additional functions as checking the status of a card, Rap Back, requesting a background check, messaging capabilities, administrative user dashboard, and the ability to pay for the transaction online.

Under the FBI's Rap Back program, the Department will provide an instant notification if any enrolled individual engages in any criminal activity where fingerprints are taken and submitted to the FBI's Next Generation Identification system. This will speed up the process to remove violators from entrusted roles.

Funding	FY 2023
General Fund	3,000.0
Issue Total	3,000.0

DNA Testing Enhancements

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for 2.0 FTE Familial DNA positions and Familial DNA supplies.

A Familial DNA analysis consists of a search of Arizona Convicted Offender and Arrestee DNA profiles to identify potential close biological relatives of an unknown perpetrator. Familial DNA is conducted for cold-case violent crimes for which all investigative leads have been exhausted and there is a full DNA profile of an unknown perpetrator. Since the start of the program in 2017, 33 cases have been analyzed, with an investigative lead provided in 52% of the cases.

To accommodate the increased caseload, an additional 2.0 FTE Familial DNA positions are needed. Each case takes four to six weeks to analyze. For each case where a lead is not initially provided, the familial program does a yearly search on that case and performs additional work for new leads. Each year, more cases are being subjected to an annual search, in addition to the new cases being worked. Supplies are needed to increase the amount of casework conducted.

Building System Management Upgrade – NEW

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time and ongoing funding to provide an upgraded, integrated workplace management solution.

Proper management of the State's building system is crucial in ensuring responsible stewardship of State assets. This solution is a centralized platform capable of performing all of the operational, financial, and environmental performance aspects of managing a large-scale building system. The upgraded version will provide additional user capabilities, additional automated interfaces with existing State systems, and is a cloud base solution, which will be updated automatically.

This initiative includes the Arizona Department of Transportation, the Department of Economic Security, and the Department of Public Safety (DPS). Due to limitations of the existing out-of-date solution, DPS will expand their utilization in the upgraded solution providing DPS an effective and efficient tool to manage these State assets. To ensure successful implementation, utilization, and to maximize the efficiencies gained from the upgraded solution, the Executive Budget includes ongoing funding for 1.0 FTE position at DPS.

The amount displays the portion of funding for DPS. Of the total amount displayed below, the ongoing portion is $214,600.

Funding	FY 2023
General Fund	419.2
Issue Total	419.2

Commercial Vehicle Enforcement Task Force

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to create a Commercial Vehicle Enforcement (CVE) task force between the Department of Public Safety (DPS) and the Arizona Department of Transportation (ADOT).

Until January 2022, DPS CVE and the ADOT Enforcement and Compliance Division Enforcement Security Bureau (ESB) were operated and managed separately by two State agencies. This funding will help consolidate DPS CVE and ADOT ESB under a single management structure. The two agencies have entered into an interagency service agreement (ISA) to facilitate the consolidation.

The Executive Budget creates a CVE Task Force special line item to oversee the consolidation.

The consolidation includes an additional 3.0 FTE management positions at DPS to oversee ESB and CVE.

The alignment of responsibilities under a single management structure will result in enhanced officer safety, more efficient use of personnel, and increased operational consistency. Increased cooperation between ADOT and DPS will more effectively serve the public and enable the State to better coordinate inter-agency efforts related to border enforcement.

Grapplers for Department Vehicles

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time funding for grapplers for Department vehicles.

Grapplers enable the Highway Patrol or other Department units to launch a fabric band at the rear wheel of a fleeing vehicle to safely bring a pursuit to an end. The grappler immobilizes the suspect vehicle in a position ahead of the trooper vehicle. The system causes minimal damage, and usually no damage, to the suspect vehicle.

The Executive included federal funding in 2021 for a portion of the grapplers, but the federal funding does not cover all the grapplers needed by the Department.

Border Strike Task Force Expansion

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding and 21.5 FTE positions for the Border Strike Task Force (BSTF).

The BSTF uses collaboration and technology to secure the Arizona-Mexico border and effectively address and combat transnational organized crime. BSTF results are primarily measured through illicit drug and currency seizures, stolen vehicle recoveries, arrests, and investigations conducted by collaboration of bureau personnel and other agency partnerships.

Governor Ducey created the BSTF in 2015, which has been conducting monthly border security operations since September 2015. In the first two months of its existence, the BSTF seized money, drugs (including 19 pounds of heroin), and stolen vehicles having a total estimated criminal value of $5.5 million. In comparison, in the entire previous year, DPS seized only 14 pounds of heroin. In FY 2020, the Force seized 1,300 pounds of marijuana, 13 pounds of heroin, 2,469 pounds of methamphetamine, 117 pounds of cocaine, 81 pounds of Fentanyl, 145 firearms, 45,126 rounds of ammunition, $504,095 in currency, and 93 vehicles. The force also recovered 25 stolen vehicles and made 515 custodial arrests.

Considering these impressive results, it is reasonable to expect that an expanded operation would significantly reduce the volume of human trafficking, drug smuggling, and other criminal activity that occurs near and across the Arizona-Mexico border, thus warranting doubling the size of the Border Strike Task Force and tripling the investment in local grants. This will provide funding for several initiatives:
1) Overtime for Troopers and partner agencies to investigate long-term, transnational criminal organizations and unlawful activity surrounding illegal crossings including trespassing, vehicle theft, smuggling, and trafficking.
2) Partnerships with other states for a Southern States Border Strike Force to share intelligence, strengthen cyber security efforts, and strengthen humanitarian efforts to protect children and families.
3) Recruitment and Retention bonuses for Troopers assigned to Southern Arizona.
4) Expansion of Trooper coverage and K-9s working close to the border.
5) Additional monitoring/surveillance equipment.

In addition to the funding, 21.5 FTE positions are needed to carry out the listed initiatives. The new FTE positions will include 6.0 Analyst FTE positions, 4.0 Trooper FTE positions, 3.0 Paramedic FTE positions, 3.0 IT Staff FTE positions, 2.0 Forensic Scientist FTE positions, 1.0 Pilot FTE position, 1.0 Mechanic FTE position, 1.0 Sergeant FTE Position, and 0.5 Administrative Support FTE position.

To expand the BSTF, the FY 2023 Executive Budget recommends $11.6 million from the General Fund. This includes $9.0 million for DPS operations and $2.5 million for local support.

Executive Budget Baseline Changes

Technical Corrections

The Executive Budget includes a funding shift and an increase of 3.0 FTE positions to address issues from the FY 2022 budget.

The Microwave Backbone Statewide Communication System special line item (SLI) did not include any FTE positions in the appropriation; however, 3.0 FTE positions are needed for project management. No additional funding is required for the positions.

Also, in the enacted FY 2022 budget, the Pharmaceutical Diversion and Drug Theft Task Force SLI received an appropriation of $455,700, which is insufficient to sustain the program.

The Executive Budget includes an FY 2023 shift of $238,100 from the operating budget to this SLI, for total funding of $693,800. This has no net cost, as the funding cut for the SLI went to the operating budget in FY 2022.

Public Safety Personnel Retirement System

The Public Safety Personnel Retirement System (PSPRS) manages the retirement systems for most Law Enforcement Officers, Correctional Officers, and Elected Officials in Arizona. The PSPRS system consists of three separate retirement plans for Public Safety Personnel, Elected Officials, and Correctional Officers. The system provides pension payments and retirement benefits to over 59,000 active and retired members, and surviving beneficiaries, from more than 300 employers groups (municipalities, agencies, and districts) statewide. The three systems are comprised of defined benefit and defined contribution plans. The system is governed by a nine-member Board of Trustees. Membership of the Board of Trustees is split between members of the system - law enforcement and fire department - and trustees representing employers and taxpayers.

Major Executive Budget Initiatives and Funding

95/110 Budget Model

The Executive Budget includes a $0 funding issue to address an ongoing concern with the Department of Real Estate's operating budget structure.

Currently, the Department operates using a 95/110 budget structure, which requires that fees be set to generate revenues that are between 95% and 110% of the Department's appropriation. Since 2014, the Department has collected revenues in excess of the 110% limit.

Current statute sets basement levels for fees collected by the Department. The Executive recommends a Legislative change to eliminate basement fees set in statute, which will provide more flexibility for the Department to collect fees within the allowable range.

In addition, the Executive supports new statutory language clarifying that development fees are not to be included in the Department's revenue calculation. These fees have not historically been included as part of revenues calculations, and the change will formalize a policy already in place at the Department.

Major Executive Budget Initiatives and Funding

Information Technology Department Enhancement

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to enhance the Department's IT capabilities. This funding will support salaries for 12 additional personnel and provide necessary equipment and software.

Changes to tax legislation at the state and federal level often require that the Department implement complex changes to its tax system. The recent pace of such changes has placed significant stress on the Department's IT staff.

The Executive Budget seeks to remedy this situation by enhancing the Department's IT capabilities to ensure timely and efficient implementation of current and future tax legislation.

Funding	FY 2023
General Fund	3,513.0
Issue Total	3,513.0

Integrated Tax System Modernization Project

The Executive Budget includes a one-time deposit from the General Fund and the Integrated Tax System Project Fund to the Automation Projects Fund to develop and implement the Department's outdated tax system.

The Department's Business Reengineering/Integrated Tax System (BRITS) was implemented in 2002 and lacks much of the functionality required for efficient operations.

Its replacement will address the current system's functionality issues and enhance the Department's customer-facing modules to help ensure that Arizona remains a business and tax-friendly state.

The project is expected to be completed by the end of FY 2028 for a total cost of $104.8 million. Of that amount, $61.3 million will be contributed by the State General Fund and $43.5 million will be contributed by other beneficiaries of the Department's improved tax collection capabilities, including cities, towns, counties, the Smart and Safe Arizona Fund, and the Student Support and Safety Fund.

Transfers and appropriations for this project appear in the Automation Projects Fund section of the Executive Budget.

Major Executive Budget Initiatives and Funding

Interstate 10 Expansion - New

The Executive Budget includes a one-time transfer of $400.0 million in transaction privilege tax (TPT) revenue to the State Highway Fund in FY 2022.

In the current fiscal year, transportation funding has been robust; with the combination of (a) FY 2022 State Budget appropriations and (b) federal Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act (CRRSA) funding directed by the Governor, the Department is performing pavement preservation and rehabilitation on nearly 1,000 lane-miles statewide.

In addition, the Governor allocated CRRSA monies to close the funding gap in replacing the Gila River Bridge on Interstate 10 between Phoenix and Tucson, accelerating the expansion of I-10 from two lanes to three in both directions between Phoenix and Casa Grande.

The FY 2022 Budget appropriated $50.0 million for the northbound portion of that expansion project. Due to the late passage of the Investment in Infrastructure Jobs Act by the federal government and slow-moving securement of right-of-way, the Executive Budget extends by one year the lapsing date of that funding.

In addition to the $50.0 million provided in FY 2022 and the $90.0 million for the Gila River Bridge, the Executive Budget includes a massive $400.0 million investment that will further position the State to receive federal monies to fully fund the aforementioned I-10 expansion between Phoenix and Casa Grande.

The total $540.0 million of State dedicated funds allocated to the project is anticipated to cover 20 miles of the 25-mile segment and the Gila River Bridge replacement. Upon securement of right-of-way and environmental clearance, the expansion project is anticipated to be completed in three to four years.

This historic investment in the vital transportation and commerce corridor that connects Phoenix and Tucson will ease congestion, improve public safety, and enhance economic development opportunities in central Arizona and the Gila River Indian Community.

If the Department secures additional federal monies that offset the State-funded portion, the Executive intends for the offset portion to be utilized toward other transportation projects that are critical to the State's continued economic growth, such as expanding the I-17 flex lane and expansion project to Cordes Junction. This expansion would address much of the traffic congestion on I-17, which would reduce commute time, improve public safety, and enhance economic development opportunities within this area.

The appropriation for this project appears in the Capital section of the Executive Budget.

State Match Advantage for Rural Transportation (SMART) Fund - NEW

The Executive Budget includes a one-time transfer of $50.0 million in transaction privilege tax (TPT) revenue to the newly created State Match Advantage for Rural Transportation (SMART) Fund in FY 2022.

Passage of the federal Investment in Infrastructure Jobs Act has produced numerous competitive transportation grant programs from the federal government.

The $50.0 million transfer into the SMART Fund will result in grants to rural communities and the Department for costs associated with applying for and securing federal transportation grants for transportation projects outside of Maricopa and Pima counties.

The Department will administer the fund and grant program, with the State Transportation Board approving the final awards.

Monies within the SMART Fund are available only to political subdivisions outside of Maricopa and Pima counties, as follows:

•40% to counties, with half going to counties with populations of more than 100,000 and half to smaller counties;

•40% to municipalities, with half going to municipalities with populations of more than 10,000 persons and half to smaller municipalities;

•20% to the Department for projects outside of Maricopa and Pima counties.

The Department may utilize 1% of its portion for administrative costs to manage the grant program.

Grants can be utilized for one of the following: (1) shovel-ready costs for a project that meets federal requirements; (2) application fees to apply for the competitive grant; and (3) the matching portion to draw down the competitive federal funding.

The Department is authorized to further prescribe the process to receive funding and how it will be distributed to ensure equity, which includes but is not limited to setting the maximum grant awards for each category. A locality's ability to provide matching funds will be a positive factor in evaluating their application.

The Executive Budget includes an ongoing increase in funding of $6.4 million to provide salary increases to key agency positions that are currently experiencing difficulty in recruiting and retaining highly qualified staff.

Of that amount, $206,500 is from non-appropriated funds that will not appear in the fund sourcing below this issue.

This initiative is projected to result in increases for over 25,000 State employees.

ADOT Fleet Modernization - NEW

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding and revisions to the fund and special line item (SLI) name.

The funding will continue the momentum established in FY 2022 by modernizing the model of fleet operations for the ADOT Fleet, the size and composition of which are unique in comparison to the State Fleet.

The ADOT Fleet contains approximately 4,650 units, ranging from light-duty vehicles to heavy-duty construction equipment, more than quadruple the size of the State Fleet, which consists of approximately 1,000 light-duty vehicles across 37 agencies.

Due to these significant differences, the Executive Budget refines the structures around the ADOT Fleet to provide consistency and transparency in how the State manages these assets in the likeness of the State Fleet.

First, the Executive Budget changes the name "Transportation and Equipment Fund" to "ADOT Fleet Operations Fund." This issue appears in the Legislative Changes section of the Executive Budget.

Second, the Executive Budget renames the "Vehicle Replacement" SLI as the "ADOT Fleet Replacement" SLI and increases the SLI to $22.4 million from the State Highway Fund. This increase will allow for a proper replacement schedule of 11 years, which will address the backlog of 1,400 vehicles and equipment that are in need of replacement. A proper replacement schedule will reduce operational cost and create efficiencies in ensuring that the State Highway System remains safe and open to travelers.

A similar initiative is being contemplated for the Department of Public Safety and Department of Correction, Rehabilitation & Reentry. Those two agencies and ADOT have historically been exempted from the State Fleet.

The Executive does intend for all exempt agencies except for the Legislative and Judicial branches to be incorporated into the State Fleet. At this time, the Executive and ADOT, as State Fleet manager, are not prepared to start onboarding the historic large exempt agency fleets into the State Fleet.

State Fleet Modernization Phase 2: Onboarding of the Non-Managed State Fleet

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to accommodate the onboarding of non-managed vehicles.

In FY 2022, management of the State Fleet was transferred from the Department of Administration to the Arizona Department of Transportation. During the transition, it was discovered that there was a group of 296 vehicles that belonged to agencies within the State Fleet but were not being managed by the Fleet Manager.

The funding amounts represent the increase in appropriation authority needed for ADOT to address the onboarding of the non-managed fleet in FY 2023. Associated statewide adjustments for the anticipated agency cost appear in the Statewide Adjustments section for the impacted agencies.

State Fleet: New Additions - NEW

The Executive Budget provides an increase in one-time funding to the State Fleet Vehicle Replacement Fund to purchase vehicles for the Department of Fire and Forestry Management and the Department of Liquor Licenses and Control.

As the Fleet Manager, ADOT has sole statutory authority to procure vehicles on behalf of agencies within the State Fleet. This centralized role helps ensure maximum utilization of the Fleet, fully leverage procurement, and streamline Fleet operations.

The Executive Budget also contemplates vehicle purchases for the Office of the Attorney General. Due to fund restrictions, this appropriation is displayed within the appropriate agency section and will be transferred to ADOT by the agency upon appropriation.

The ongoing costs for these new additions will be represented in the affected agencies' sections within the Executive Budget. The Executive Budget provides an increase in appropriation authority for the State Fleet Operations Fund for ADOT to address the operational needs of these new vehicles.

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time funding for deposits from various funds into the State Fleet Replacement Fund.

Funding will support vehicle purchases for the Department of Fire and Forestry Management and the Department of Liquor Licenses and Control.

The Executive Budget also contemplates vehicle purchases for the Office of the Attorney General. Due to fund restrictions, this appropriation is displayed within the appropriate agency section and will be transferred to ADOT by the agency upon appropriation.

Building System Management Upgrade - NEW

The Executive Budget includes increases in one-time and ongoing funding to provide an upgraded, integrated workplace management solution.

Proper management of the State's building system is crucial in ensuring responsible stewardship of State assets. The solution is a centralized platform capable of performing all of the operational, financial, and environmental performance aspects of managing a large-scale building system. The upgraded version is a cloud-based solution that will be updated automatically and provide additional user capabilities and additional automated interfaces with existing State systems.

This initiative includes the Arizona Department of Transportation (ADOT), Department of Economic Security, and Department of Public Safety. Due to ADOT's historic utilization of the existing out-of-date solution, the Department will experience a higher one-time cost to transition to the upgraded solution.

The amount displays the portion of funding for each agency. Of the total amount displayed below, the ongoing portion is $147,000.

Motor Vehicle Division Security Modernization Phase 1 - NEW

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time funding to modernize the security systems at 11 Motor Vehicle Division offices.

This is the first phase of a five-phase initiative to modernize security systems at all 42 Division offices.

This funding will allow for the replacement of security systems that have exceeded their expected useful life. It represents a necessary investment in security infrastructure to maintain a safe environment for Department employees and the public.

Construction Management System Replacement Phase 1 – NEW

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time funding to hire a consultant to develop the scope of work for a new construction management system.

The new system will replace the Department's 30-year-old, end-of-life system.

In the early 1990s, the Department developed in-house the Field Office Automated System (FAST), which performs three key construction management functions: contract initiation, construction administration, and material management.

The three-decade-old system handles approximately 125 construction projects and processes approximately $1.0 billion in payments per year, but it no longer meets the Department's construction management needs.

Replacement of FAST will allow the Department to more efficiently fulfill its mandate to provide safe and reliable transportation infrastructure.

Funding for Phase Two will pertain to the costs of system development.

Driver License Security Software Upgrade

The Executive Budget includes increases in one-time and ongoing funding to upgrade the Department's driver license security software.

Identity fraud and theft are often detected in the driver license credential process. The Department's Office of Inspector General (OIG) conducts case investigations and audits designed to prevent and deter fraud, abuse, and misconduct in Department programs. The OIG uses driver license security software to detect and prevent fraud against Arizona citizens.

The Department expects this project to be completed in FY 2023 and is gathering more information to secure an estimated cost. The Executive will inform the Legislature when the cost estimate is finalized.

Travel ID Implementation

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time funding to address Travel ID implementation.

Beginning May 3, 2023, every air traveler will need either a Real ID-compliant license or a passport for domestic air travel, per the REAL ID Act of 2005. The law prohibits federal agencies from accepting any forms of identification that do not meet the REAL ID Act standards.

The Department has issued about 1.7 million Arizona Travel IDs and anticipates issuing three million more. Given the close proximity of the deadline and the inability to acquire a Travel ID online, the Department is expecting a surge of applicants during FY 2023.

This funding is intended to cover costs associated with additional FTE positions, advertising, and credential volume increases. In addition, the funding will cover the deployment of a mobile unit to assist issuance in remote areas of the state.

Vehicle Inspection and Title Enforcement Fund Deposit - NEW

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time funding for a deposit from the Motor Vehicle Liability Insurance Enforcement Fund to the Vehicle Inspection and Certificate of Title Enforcement Fund.

Due to COVID-19, the latter fund has experienced a revenue decline and not yet returned to pre-pandemic levels. The transfer will ensure that the fund does not experience a shortfall in FY 2023 while revenues recover.

Executive Budget Baseline Changes

Highway Maintenance - New Lane Miles

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for maintenance of new highway lane-miles.

The cost to properly maintain the State highway system increases as the system expands. The system is anticipated to expand by 52 new urban lane-miles and 41 new rural lane-miles in FY 2022.

Major costs include roadside and shoulder maintenance, landscaping, surface treatments, and traffic signals.

Highway Maintenance - South Mountain Freeway

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for the maintenance of 176 lane-miles within the South Mountain Loop 202 Freeway.

The Department entered into a public-private partnership to design, build, and maintain that stretch of Arizona freeway. The developer is responsible for specific maintenance functions for 30 years, and ADOT will make annual inflation-adjusted payments for those services.

State Highway Fund	16.9

Driver License and License Plate Volume Increase

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for driver license, ID card, and license plate production.

Arizona drivers pay fees to receive license plates, ID cards, and driver licenses. Those revenues are deposited into the Highway User Revenue Fund. As the number of Arizona drivers and vehicles increases, so do the costs to produce the plates and identification credentials.

The Department has a base funding to issue 1.88 million driver licenses and ID cards and 1.84 million license plates. Due to normal population growth, the Department expects the volume of credentials to increase to 1.94 million driver licenses and ID cards and 2.11 million license plates.

The additional funding addresses that increase.

State Fleet: Statewide Adjustment - NEW

The Executive Budget includes adjustments for agencies within the State Fleet to address anticipated changes to the State Fleet during FY 2022 and the implementation of the annually updated State Fleet fee schedule in FY 2023.

The associated adjustments for the anticipated changes and fee schedule appear in the Statewide Adjustments section for the respective agencies.

ADOT has sufficient existing appropriation authority to address these anticipated changes.

The statewide Fleet adjustment considers only agencies within the State Fleet and their respective vehicles that were included as part of the FY 2022 State Fleet modernization and transition initiative. Additionally, the FY 2023 statewide adjustment includes the onboarding of the non-managed vehicles. The Executive intends for this addition to be exclusive to FY 2023.

State Fleet: Exempt Fleet Adjustment - NEW

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to address anticipated changes to fleet service charges for agencies that are exempted from the State Fleet.

Per A.R.S. § 28-472, certain agencies are exempt from the State Fleet. However, those agencies often receive specific Fleet services for all or a portion of their fleets.

Due to annual adjustments in its fee schedule, the Department must receive an increase in appropriation authority to address the anticipated changes for those impacted agencies.

Remove One-Time FY 2022 Appropriations

The Executive Budget removes in FY 2023 the one-time FY 2022 appropriation for the one-time Vehicle License Tax deposit.

Laws 2021, Chapter 408 provided $3.3 million from the General Fund to the Department to offset the loss of 2021 excess rental surcharge revenues. That loss was due to Laws 2021, Chapter 413 allowing for businesses engaged in renting vehicles to use monies collected from their 2021 rental vehicle surcharge to reimburse the amount of vehicle license tax imposed on rental vehicles in 2020 and 2021.

The Executive Budget aligns with current law by backing out the appropriation.

Funding	FY 2023
General Fund	(3,300.0)
Issue Total	(3,300.0)

In addition to the funding amounts for this agency shown in this section, the Executive Budget also includes funding changes for this agency in the Statewide Adjustments section, which is immediately after the Capital section. Statewide Adjustments for FY 2023 include changes for health insurance premiums, retirement contributions, rent charges, accounting system costs, human resources system modernization, state motor vehicle fleet charges, human resources charges, and information technology charges.

There could also be funding for this agency in the capital or the statewide and large automation projects sections, which follow the Department of Water Resources.

As part of the Executive Budget, for some agencies, there are changes to Arizona Revised Statutes and General Appropriations Act footnotes.

Northern Arizona University

Founded in 1899, Northern Arizona University (NAU) is a vibrant university committed to teaching as learning, research as innovation, and service as shared leadership. In 2021, Dr. José Luis Cruz Rivera became the 17th President of NAU, following the retirement of the previous President, Dr. Rita Cheng.

With an estimated enrollment in fall 2021 of approximately 28,800 students, NAU engages students on the Flagstaff campus and reaches students regionally with statewide campuses and opportunities for distance learning. From its inception, NAU has implemented innovative and accountable teaching practices, including the effective use of technology.

Accredited by the Higher Learning Commission, the University embraces diversity and promotes inclusion across the University community as a means to prepare graduates to contribute to the social, economic, and environmental needs of a culturally rich society. It inspires students to become active citizens, leaders, visionaries, and problem solvers with an understanding of global issues. Reaffirmation of the University's accreditation occurred in 2017-2018 and extends through 2027-2028.

The University's commitment to diversity continues, with the University's first 2020 Diversity Strategic Plan completed. The first group of Diversity Fellows was announced in March 2021 to play a key role in implementing the new plan. Further, reflecting the diversity of Arizona and the University's commitment to access and attainment for under-represented students, NAU was designated as meeting the criteria of a Hispanic Serving Institution (HSI) by the U. S. Department of Education in March 2021. The NAU Yuma campus has had HSI designation since 2007. Further, NAU ranks in the top one percent of all four-year public universities with the highest Native American enrollment and is highly ranked for awarding degrees to Indigenous students.

In addition to integrating sustainability themes across its curriculum, NAU's 829-acre campus models sustainable operations through multi-modal transportation, environmentally responsible waste disposal, energy-efficient green construction, and sustainability in food procurement. In September 2020, the University maintained a gold rating from the Sustainability, Tracking, Assessment, and Rating System (STARS) of the Association for the Advancement of Sustainability in Higher Education, a rating initially achieved in 2014.

Department of Veterans' Services

The Arizona Department of Veterans' Services (ADVS) assists Veterans, Service Members and their dependents with obtaining federal and State earned benefits. Veteran Benefit Counselors assist Veterans with a variety of Veterans Affiars (VA) disability claims, appeals, and referrals. The Department operates State Homes for Veterans (ASVH) and Veterans' Memorial Cemeteries (AVMC) throughout Arizona. The homes are self-funded, skilled-nursing facilities that provide short- and long term-care services to Veterans, their spouses, and Gold Star Family Members. The Department manages the State Approving Agency (SAA) that approves schools to offer curriculum to Veterans under the GI Bill. The Department also administers the Military Family Relief Fund (MFRF), the Veterans' Donation Fund (VDF), coordinates statewide services to eliminate homelessness among Veterans, decrease Veteran suicides, and increase employment opportunities for Arizona Veterans.

Hiring Incentives for Nursing

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for hiring and retention bonuses for new and current FTE positions.

The Department operates two skilled nursing homes – a 200-bed facility in Phoenix and a 120-bed facility in Tucson – and is completing two new 80-bed facilities in Flagstaff and Yuma.

Each facility requires skilled nursing staff to operate safely and efficiently, and the Department has faced challenges in hiring and retaining nurses.

The hiring bonus amounts to $5,000 disbursed over one year of continued employment after hire, and the retention bonus amounts to $6,000 paid in increments through the end of FY 2023 with continuous employment with the Department.

Veterans' homes provide nursing and rehabilitative care for geriatric and chronically ill veterans and dependent or surviving spouses.

Construction of the Flagstaff and Yuma homes began in June 2019 and, following delays, is scheduled to be completed by spring 2022.

Funding of operating costs will help the two homes complete the six-month process to certification. The Department cannot collect revenues from the federal government for services until the homes reach 25% occupancy.

Department of Water Resources

The Department of Water Resources (DWR) administers the State's water laws through the compilation and analysis of water supply and demand data, coordination of research to augment water supplies for future demand, and development of policies that promote conservation and water availability.

DWR defends the integrity of the State water supply by overseeing surface water, groundwater, and Colorado River water supplies. As the technical experts for the State, DWR represents and supports the General Stream Adjudication proceedings and negotiates with national and international partners.

DWR protects Arizona against the loss of life and property through the implementation of the dam safety, flood warning, and floodplain management programs.

Major Executive Budget Initiatives and Funding

Arizona Water Resilience Strategy

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time funding to make a deposit from the General Fund into the Drought Mitigation Revolving Fund.

The Executive intends to deposit $1.0 billion into the Fund over the next three fiscal years, and this deposit represents the first 33% of that amount.

This is an historic investment in the future of Arizona's water resources and will help the State continue to adapt and thrive despite the ongoing Colorado River drought. Funding will give the Drought Mitigation Board the resources to pursue large-scale solutions to increase long-term water supplies and water-use efficiency. These investments will enhance the water resilience of all Arizona communities, protect future economic growth, and directly address drought challenges.

Additionally, to effect these policy goals, the Executive Budget includes changes to the structure and authority of the Revolving Fund and the Drought Mitigation Board.

Application Modernization Integration Costs

The Executive Budget includes a one-time deposit from the Water Resources Fund to the Automation Projects Fund.

The deposit will allow the Department to modernize its customer application systems and will support integration of the Department's IT systems into one consolidated Salesforce-based system.

The Department conducts many programs that interact with businesses and the public and has 15 separate application systems that run on an outdated programming language. Modernization will consolidate all of the application systems into one platform, creating efficiencies within the Department and providing a simpler customer experience.

All IT initiatives are expected to be completed by the end of FY 2024 at a total cost of $1.7 million.

Water Resources Staffing Increase

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding for 4.0 FTE positions to address program needs.

3.0 FTE positions will support the Assured and Adequate Water Supply Program, which has seen an increase in workload.

1.0 FTE position will support important floodplain management activities, including evaluation and maintenance of the statewide flood warning system, post-wildfire floodplain management assistance to rural communities, and assistance for floodplain insurance studies.

Strengthen Arizona Water Bank

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding from the General Fund and a corresponding decrease in ongoing funding from the Arizona Water Banking Fund.

This funding shift will provide the Arizona Water Bank (AWB) with more resources to help address the long-term drought situation.

Under the Drought Contingency Plan and other agreements, AWB is obligated to replace lost water supplies from the Colorado River for Indian Tribes and other municipal and industrial water users. This replacement of water supplies is called "firming."

As the Colorado River flow decreases, Arizona is susceptible to reductions in its water allocation from the river. At a certain point, these reductions could affect Indian Tribe and municipal and industrial water supplies. To prepare to meet firming obligations for those water users, AWB uses its resources to purchase water credits.

A water credit means that a water user agrees to forgo the delivery of water from the Colorado River in exchange for payment from AWB. That amount of water is credited to the AWB. The forgone water is stored in Lake Mead or another lake or underground storage site. In the future, AWB can withdraw the banked water to meet its firming obligations.

Two factors are increasing the urgency for AWB to purchase water credits. First, hydrologic models show worse water flow in the Colorado River each year. Second, as the drought worsens, the market rate for water increases.

This funding will replace the Arizona Water Banking Fund appropriation with a General Fund appropriation to the Department, freeing up the associated Water Banking Fund dollars for use by the Arizona Water Bank.

Storage Area Network Replacement

The Executive Budget includes an increase in ongoing funding to replace the Department's storage area network (SAN) with a cloud-based system.

The SAN houses all of the Department's files on a shared computer network. Starting in 2023, the SAN will no longer be supported by the vendor.

The cloud-based system will be more secure and is in alignment with the Arizona Strategic Enterprise Technology Office's cloud policy.

Administration - Business One Stop Phase II

The Executive Budget includes a one-time deposit from the General Fund into the Automation Projects Fund for development of Phase II of the Business One Stop project.

The Arizona Strategic Enterprise Technology Office (ASET) is engaged in the first phase of the project to develop a portal to provide a single online location to help citizens complete all tasks and requirements of multiple agencies needed to plan, start, grow, and relocate businesses in Arizona.

Phase I, in collaboration with five State agencies, includes development of over 30 functionalities needed to plan and start a business in Arizona.

Phase II will engage several additional agencies to expand the platform to add 35 functionalities that will allow businesses to register a user, connect to an existing business, update user information, and register or cancel a license.

This project is expected to be completed in FY 2026 for a total cost of $32.2 million.

Funding	FY 2023
General Fund	15,614.3
Issue Total	15,614.3

Administration - Human Resource Information System Modernization-NEW

The Executive Budget includes a one-time deposit from the Personnel Division Fund to the Automation Projects Fund to modernize and replace the Human Resource Information System (HRIS) at the Department of Administration.

The Personnel Division Fund collects a pro rata charge of 0.86% of payroll from all State agencies. The Executive collects excess revenue, in the amount of $1.7 million, that will be applied toward the project. Additionally, the Executive recommends increasing the pro rata charge to collect an additional $20.6 million in FY 2023.

The Department manages existing State human resource operations on an online platform that was developed in 2003. The current platform is expected to reach end of life in 2027, and continued used will create security, compliance, and technical issues.

Replacement of the outdated platform will allow the Department to more efficiently and effectively support human resources, payroll, benefits, and time and attendance systems for State employees.

The project is expected to be completed in FY 2026 for a total cost in the range of $58.0 million to $68.0 million.

Associated statewide adjustments for the pro rata increase appear in the Statewide Adjustments section.

The Department's Business Reengineering/Integrated Tax System (BRITS) was implemented in 2002 and now lacks much of the functionality required for the Department to operate efficiently. The new Arizona Tax Liability System, or ATLAS, will address all of the functionality issues of the current system and enhance the Department's customer-facing modules to ensure that Arizona remains a business- and tax-friendly state.

The project is expected to be completed by the end of FY 2028 for a total cost of $104.8 million. Of that total, $61.3 million will be contributed by the State General Fund, and $43.5 million will be contributed by other beneficiaries of the Department's improved tax collection capabilities, including cities, towns, counties, the Smart and Safe Arizona Fund, and the Student Support and Safety Fund.

Transportation- Interstate 10 Expansion - NEW

The Executive Budget includes a one-time transfer of $400.0 million in transaction privilege tax (TPT) revenue to the State Highway Fund in FY 2022.

In the current fiscal year, transportation funding has been robust; with the combination of (a) FY 2022 State Budget appropriations and (b) federal Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act (CRRSA) funding directed by the Governor, the Department is performing pavement preservation and rehabilitation on nearly 1,000 lane-miles statewide.

In addition, the Governor allocated CRRSA monies to close the funding gap in replacing the Gila River Bridge on Interstate 10 between Phoenix and Tucson, accelerating the expansion of I-10 from two lanes to three in both directions between Phoenix and Casa Grande.

The FY 2022 Budget appropriated $50.0 million for the northbound portion of that expansion project. Due to the late passage of the Investment in Infrastructure Jobs Act by the federal government and slow-moving securement of right-of-way, the Executive Budget extends by one year the lapsing date of that funding.

In addition to the $50.0 million provided in FY 2022 and the $90.0 million for the Gila River Bridge, the Executive Budget includes a massive $400.0 million investment that will further position the State to receive federal monies to fully fund the aforementioned I-10 expansion between Phoenix and Casa Grande.

The total $540.0 million of State dedicated funds allocated to the project is anticipated to cover 20 miles of the 25-mile segment and the Gila River Bridge replacement. Upon securement of right-of-way and environmental clearance, the expansion project is anticipated to be completed in three to four years.

This historic investment in the vital transportation and commerce corridor that connects Phoenix and Tucson will ease congestion, improve public safety, and enhance economic development opportunities in central Arizona and the Gila River Indian Community.

If the Department secures additional federal monies that offset the State-funded portion, the Executive intends for the offset portion to be utilized toward other transportation projects that are critical to the State's continued economic growth, such as expanding the I-17 flex lane and expansion project to Cordes Junction. This expansion would address much of the traffic congestion on I-17, which would reduce commute time, improve public safety, and enhance economic development opportunities within this area.

Transportation - Renovate 206 Annex Building

The Executive Budget includes an increase in one-time funding for the Arizona Department of Transportation (ADOT) to complete the renovation of its 206 Annex building in Phoenix.

ADOT's three-story office building located at 206 South 17th Avenue was occupied by three ADOT divisions and formerly housed the Department's data center. In 2019, it was discovered during asbestos abatement that the floor slab contained extensive spider-web cracking and is structurally compromised. The second and third floors of the building cannot properly support the weight requirements of an office building. ADOT must complete structural remediation before renovation can be completed.

ADOT will utilize $7.5 million from its FY 2022 Building Renewal to initiate the project. Once completed, the building is anticipated to have an extended life of 50 years and is estimated to save $17.5 million in private lease costs.

The FY 2022 Enacted Budget addresses three of the 16 stations, and the Executive Budget continues the effort by replacing four additional stations, at Tucson, St. David, Wilcox, and Three Points.

Assumptions and Methodology for Developing the Executive Budget

Preparing the State budget is a 12-month process that influences the size and scope of government for the State of Arizona.

A.R.S. § 35-125 requires that the General Appropriations Act include revenue and expenditure estimates for the three subsequent years. The Executive Budget provides those estimates for FY 2021, FY 2022, and FY 2023.

Budget Process

The budget process begins on or before July 1, when the Governor's Office of Strategic Planning & Budgeting (OSPB) provides the instructions and software required for agencies to submit their budget information. By statute, agency information must be submitted to OSPB by September 1. Copies of the agencies' budget submissions are also provided to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee (JLBC) Staff and made available on State agency and OSPB websites.

Annually, from September 1 to no later than five days after the opening of the Legislative session, the Governor's Office reviews budget submissions and prepares the Executive Budget, which contains operating and capital outlay expenditure plans and estimated revenues for all State funding sources. It also contains any Legislative changes necessary for implementation.

Review of agency requests by the Legislative staff occurs during the fall. Legislative deliberation of the Executive Budget typically begins shortly after the regular session convenes and culminates in budget negotiations between the Legislature and the Governor. Public hearings for the appropriations of some State agencies are held by the Senate and House Appropriations committees. The committees may recommend adoption of the Executive Budget or elect to recommend a budget containing other elements. Committee recommendations may become part of floor discussions in both chambers. Legislative leadership must assemble an appropriation package acceptable to a majority of members in each chamber.

Before July 1, the Legislature enacts appropriations through the passage of General Appropriations and Capital Outlay acts and any Legislative changes necessary for the implementation of the adopted budget. Once adopted by the House of Representatives and the Senate, the bills are then presented to the Governor for consideration.

Upon presentation, the Governor has five days to sign the bills into law, veto them in their entirety, line-item veto individual items of appropriation, or allow the bills to become law without a signature.

The Legislature may, with a two-thirds majority vote of each house, override a veto or line-item veto.

The operating budget is prepared and enacted using a cash basis of accounting, which recognizes expenditures when paid and revenues when received by the Treasurer.

Budgetary control is maintained by appropriation, including expenditure limits for each item of appropriation and by funding source. The allocation of an appropriation over the course of the year is also controlled.

Unless specific exemptions are enacted, operating appropriations lapse at the end of the fiscal year, and the cash becomes available for appropriation in the future. Capital outlay appropriations do not lapse until the end of the fiscal year following the fiscal year for which the money was appropriated. Unspent cash reverts to its fund source.

Information Technology Request Guidelines

Funding requests for information technology projects in excess of $25,000 must have prior approval by the Strategic Enterprise Technology Office at the Department of Administration.

Incremental Budgeting

The starting point in building the budget – the base appropriation and expenditure levels – are the amounts appropriated for FY 2022. For non-appropriated funds, the starting point is the planned expenditure amounts for FY 2022. The incremental changes in the Executive Budget for FY 2023 are the changes from the FY 2022 appropriations and expenditure plans.

Types of Changes in the Executive Budget

The Executive Budget provides three basic types of changes to agency appropriations: baseline changes, standard adjustments, and Executive initiatives.

Baseline changes are comprised of caseload changes, changes due to legal mandates from a court, or actions needed for continued efficient operations. Caseload increases or decreases generally require funding changes, assuming the agency's mandates for services are unchanged.

Standard adjustments are a special type of baseline change that addresses technical changes to fundamental operating costs, such as annual changes for rent in State-operated buildings; retirement contributions; health, dental, and life insurance premiums; and risk management (liability insurance) premiums.

Standard adjustments are displayed and calculated separately from the rest of each agency's budget. The itemization of each standard adjustment for each agency and fund is located in the Statewide Adjustment section of the State Agency Budgets book, immediately following the section for the Department of Water Resources.

Finally, Governor's Initiatives include all funding items beyond standard or baseline adjustments and are designed to improve or change what the State does or how an activity is performed or funded.

Standard and Statewide Adjustments

The FY 2023 Executive Budget contains three technical adjustments.

- Retirement rates change for all retirement systems
- Health insurance premium changes
- Rent adjustments
- Fleet adjustments
- Information technology changes
- Accounting system changes
- Human resources system changes

The amounts of these adjustments, by agency and by fund, are listed in the State Agency Budgets book immediately following the Department of Water Resources.

Calculation of Employee-Related Expenditures

When changing the number of positions or personal services, the Executive Budget uses the following methodology.

ERE. Two separate rates are used in calculating Employee-Related Expenditures (ERE) funding requirements for changes to the number of employees or personal services:

- A health, dental, and life insurance premium rate calculates, by agency, the costs per full-time-equivalent (FTE) employee based on specific rates of participation in the State's insurance programs.
- Any changes to personal services are multiplied by the rates for FICA, workers' compensation, unemployment insurance, a DOA pro rata charge for personnel costs, an information technology pro rata charge, long-term disability insurance, retirement sick leave pro rata, and retirement contributions.

The following rates are used for the development of each of the ERE components:

FICA. The rate is comprised of a 6.2% Social Security tax on the first $142,800 of an employee's personal services and a 1.45% Medicare tax on the full amount of an employee's personal services.

Workers' Compensation. Every two years, the Department of Administration's Risk Management Division develops workers' compensation rates based on agency loss histories, program budget needs, and data provided by the National Council on Compensation Insurance (NCCI). There are no changes in the estimated rates from FY 2022 to FY 2023.

Unemployment Insurance. The rate is estimated at 0.1% for FY 2023.

DOA Personnel Division Pro Rata. The rate of 0.86% of personal services is assessed on the payroll of the majority of State agencies to fund the operations of the Personnel Division.

Information Technology Pro Rata. The rate of 0.61% of personal services is assessed on all agencies (except the universities and community colleges) to fund the operations of the Strategic Enterprise Technology Office at the Department of Administration.

Disability Insurance. Most State employees are covered by long-term disability insurance through the State Retirement System. A rate of 0.24% is charged against personal services paid to employees not in the State Retirement System and is used for disability coverage for those employees.

Funding for retirement rates changes for FY 2023 is included in the Statewide Adjustments section of the State Agency Budgets book.

Retirement Accumulated Sick Leave Fund. Funding continues at the 0.4% pro rata assessment against personal services that is used to compensate retiring employees for a portion of unused sick leave.

Budgeting by Government Function

Budget information is also available in a format that shows expenditures by agency programs and subprograms, which are based on each of the mandated functions for each agency as enacted by the Legislature.

For example, in the General Appropriations Act the Game and Fish Department is funded largely by a lump-sum appropriation for the entire agency. In the Master List of State Government Programs, funding is identified for each specific program, such as Sportfishing or Wildlife Conservation.

Other Items in the Executive Budget

Appropriation Format. The appropriation format is located at the end of each agency's section.

Legislative Changes. Implementation of some Executive Budget provisions requires Legislative changes. Those required changes are addressed in the Executive Budget State Agency Budgets book.

Expenditures for FY 2021

By law, the Executive Budget contains a reporting of the amounts expended from the immediately preceding fiscal year's appropriations, by accounting object category. The expenditures reported are provided by each agency, with subsequent reconciliation by OSPB to the State Annual Financial Report.

Budget Performance Measures

The Executive Budget contains agency descriptions and budget performance measures.

In accordance with A.R.S. § 35-115, the Executive Budget includes selected performance measures for the budget unit for the previous fiscal year, the current year, and the next year.

OSPB has selected a series of performance measures that will most accurately communicate how well an agency is performing its mandated functions. The intent is to offer decision makers and citizens a better understanding of agencies and their operations with a continuity of data, as the performance measures published will remain largely consistent from year to year.

In addition to the performance measures displayed in the Executive Budget, the full array of agency performance measures is published in the Master List of State Government Programs. This reference document also contains a comprehensive inventory of all State programs and subprograms, including descriptions, expenditure data, and performance measures for every function of State government.

Hi CJ! Is Governor Ducey going to be in DC this Friday for this RGA meeting?
Larry is hosting the show live from the DC studio that day since he's moderating a panel during the event, and we'd love to have the Governor on if he's in town and available in the 4pm ET hour.

Hi C.J.

I will be at NGA this weekend and was wondering if you are available to meet on Saturday or Sunday? I would love to fill you in on all the exciting things happening on the digital side of Foxnews.com, and if Gov. Ducey is available for a 10 minute interview with one of our digital reporters on either day please let us know.

As you may know FOX News Digital has a wider reach than The New York Times, Washington Post, USA Today, Wall Street Journal, Politico, The Hill, Axios, Roll Call, Daily Mail, and a host of other news outlets. And, as reported by Business Wire in September Fox News Digital closed out the third quarter of 2021 with its highest quarter in network history in multiplatform views (nearly 6.1 billion) and multiplatform minutes (nearly 14.2 billion) and secured double-digit increases versus the prior year across all key metrics.

Needless to say, an interview with Gov. Ducey will be seen by a wide audience. I also pasted some articles below about our reach versus our competition.

Fox News.com beat its competitors in total multiplatform minutes and multiplatform views during November 2021 reaching over 2.9 billion multiplatform minutes and nearly 1.6 billion multiplatform views, according to Comscore. November marked the ninth consecutive month at the top of multiplatform minutes and its fifth consecutive month at the top of multiplatform views. In comparison, CNN.com only reached 2.3 billion multiplatform minutes and 1.56 billion multiplatform views.

Hi CJ! Is Governor Ducey going to be in DC this Friday for this RGA meeting?
Larry is hosting the show live from the DC studio that day since he's moderating a panel during the event, and we'd love to have the Governor on if he's in town and available in the 4pm ET hour.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Would Gov. Ducey have any interest in joining Larry Kudlow on our show either tomorrow or Friday?

Two stories that Larry would really be interested in covering is AZ's lifting of school mask mandates and overall leadership in returning the state to normal, as well as the National Guard activation this week at the border.

We could make any time in the 4pm ET hour work – just let me know. Would love to have him on the show.

Best,

Subject: Fox.com Request for Interview with Gov. Ducey at NGA Today, Sunday 1/30

Good morning C.J.,

Foxnews.com would like to set up an interview with Gov. Ducey for a brief 5-10 minute interview at NGA today, Sunday, February 31st with Foxnews.com digital editor Cortney O'Brien who is on-site at the Marriott Marquis in Washington DC.

As you may know FOX News Digital has a wider reach than The New York Times, Washington Post, USA Today, Wall Street Journal, Politico, The Hill, Axios, Roll Call, Daily Mail, and a host of other news outlets. And, as reported by Business Wire in September Fox News Digital closed out the third quarter of 2021 with its highest quarter in network history in multiplatform views (nearly 6.1 billion) and multiplatform minutes (nearly 14.2 billion) and secured double-digit increases versus the prior year across all key metrics.

Needless to say, an interview with Gov. Ducey will be seen by a wide audience. I also pasted some articles below about our reach versus our competition.

Fox News.com beat its competitors in total multiplatform minutes and multiplatform views during November 2021 reaching over 2.9 billion multiplatform minutes and nearly 1.6 billion multiplatform views, according to Comscore. November marked the ninth consecutive month at the top of multiplatform minutes and its fifth consecutive month at the top of multiplatform views. In comparison, CNN.com only reached 2.3 billion multiplatform minutes and 1.56 billion multiplatform views.

Hey CJ

As we talked about, I'm working on a story with a mom named Brittani Baars. In September she applied and was approved for 7k in the Educational Recovery Benefit program.

She switched from a public school to Great Hearts Archway charter school because of school closures and was appreciative of the program.

The announcement said the funding could be used for 'education-related expenses'. She said so far though she hasn't been able to spend any of the money. She has 1,500 in uniforms and hundreds of dollars in lunches.

She's frustrated that either Great Hearts isn't part of the program or that she was approved for a program she isn't allowed to spend money on.

In this latest round of funding two weeks ago the funding specifically states it can be used on school supplies.

Great Hearts sent me this statement:

"We are aware of the issue and are working through the Arizona Charter School Association with senior staff in the Governor's Office on a solution for Great Hearts Academies students and other charter school students as well."

Thanks for looking into this CJ and let me know if there's a response.

We are working with Great Hearts Academies and ClassWallet, the software company distributing the funds, to ensure students and parents can take full advantage of the Educational Recovery Benefit program. In the meantime, ClassWallet will directly reimburse parents, including Brittani, for all eligible expenses.

Hey CJ

As we talked about, I'm working on a story with a mom named Brittani Baars. In September she applied and was approved for 7k in the Educational Recovery Benefit program.

She switched from a public school to Great Hearts Archway charter school because of school closures and was appreciative of the program.

The announcement said the funding could be used for 'education-related expenses'. She said so far though she hasn't been able to spend any of the money. She has 1,500 in uniforms and hundreds of dollars in lunches.

She's frustrated that either Great Hearts isn't part of the program or that she was approved for a program she isn't allowed to spend money on.

In this latest round of funding two weeks ago the funding specifically states it can be used on school supplies.

Great Hearts sent me this statement:

"We are aware of the issue and are working through the Arizona Charter School Association with senior staff in the Governor's Office on a solution for Great Hearts Academies students and other charter school students as well."

Thanks for looking into this CJ and let me know if there's a response.

Thank you,

I'm just reaching out to see if the Governor has any comment on this and if he agrees with the assessment?

I am writing for 4:40pm ET, but can add any comment after that time as well.

STATE OF ARIZONA

OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINION By MARK BRNOVICH ATTORNEY GENERAL February 7, 2022	No. I22-001 (R21-015) Re: The Federal Government's Duty To Protect the States And The States' Sovereign Power Of Self Defense When Invaded

To: Jake Hoffman, Representative
Arizona House of Representatives

Questions Presented

The request seeks a formal legal opinion on whether "the federal government has failed—intentionally or unintentionally—to uphold its obligations to protect our state from invasion under Article IV, Section 4 of the U.S. Constitution." To fully and properly answer this question from the perspective of the State of Arizona, this Opinion will address the below issues.

1. What constitutes "actually invaded" for purposes of Article I, Section 10 ("State Self-Defense Clause") and "invasion" for purposes of Article IV, Section 4 ("Invasion Clause") of the U.S. Constitution? Do States retain constitutional power to defend themselves when "actually invaded" by hostile non-state actors such as armed cartels and gangs, or only by foreign powers?
2. Can the current situation at Arizona's border with Mexico—where the federal government has lost or severely degraded its operational control of the border and in which cartels and gangs are smuggling unauthorized aliens and large quantities of drugs outside of authorized ports of entry and also engaging in acts of violence in pursuit of their objectives—satisfy the definitions of "actually invaded" and "invasion"?

Summary Answers

1. The issues addressed in this Opinion relate to border security. The State Self-Defense Clause in Article I, Section 10 provides that a State may defend itself when it has been "actually invaded, or in such imminent Danger as will not admit of delay," and the State does not need the consent of Congress to do so. The Invasion Clause in Article IV, Section 4 provides that "[t]he United States … shall protect each [state in this union] against invasion." These clauses provide dual protection against invasion broadly defined. This includes defending against actions by "foreign hostility [and] ambitious or vindictive enterprises of [a state's] more powerful neighbors." This encompasses defense against hostile non-state actors such as cartels and gangs operating at the border and entering into Arizona's territory. James Madison specifically cited Virginia using its militia to stop smugglers as an example of a valid exercise of the invasion power, and there is every basis to conclude this sovereign power was retained as reflected in the State Self-Defense Clause. The Import-Export Clause in Article I, Section 10 also recognizes that States retain sovereign authority to execute inspection laws, which requires operational control of the border to channel entry of goods to authorized ports of entry. This is an aspect of the historical police power that is expressly preserved for the States. In sum, both the power of self-defense against being "actually invaded" and the power to "execut[e] [their] inspection laws" are sovereign powers that were retained by the States under the U.S. Constitution to permit States to control on-the-ground conditions at their borders that are essential to public safety and security in a State.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

2. The on-the-ground violence and lawlessness at Arizona's border caused by cartels and gangs is extensive, well-documented, and persistent. It can satisfy the definition of "actually invaded" and "invasion" under the U.S. Constitution. Two conclusions flow from this. First, the federal government has a duty to protect Arizona under the Invasion Clause.[1] Second, Arizona retains the independent authority under the State Self-Defense Clause to defend itself when actually invaded. This power is exercised under the Governor's authority as Commander-in-Chief. See Ariz. Const. art. V, § 3. Further—while it is not necessary for the exercise of the State's retained sovereign powers—state sovereignty to defend the integrity of the State from on-the-ground lawlessness at or near its border is bolstered by the unprecedented actions of the current presidential administration to destroy operational control of the border, including the illegal rescission of the Migrant Protection Protocols ("MPP"),[2] illegal issuance of "interim guidance" (carried forward in "permanent guidance") that prevents the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement ("ICE") and United States Customs and Border Protection ("CBP") from executing federal laws,[3] halting construction of the border wall,[4] and closing highway inspection checkpoints.[5] There is nothing in federal constitutional or statutory law authorizing the federal executive to thwart States from ensuring on-the-ground safety and an orderly border within the

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

State's own territory. Nor is there any conflict with this and the orderly conduct of immigration policy by the federal executive. No State should be put in the position that Arizona and other border states have been put in through the federal government's recent actions. The federal government is failing to fulfill its duty under Article IV, Section 4 of the Constitution to defend the States from invasion. The State Self-Defense Clause exists precisely for situations such as the present, to ensure that States are not left helpless.

Analysis

I. The Terms "Invasion" And "Actually Invaded" In The Invasion and State Self-Defense Clauses Are Broad And Apply To Invasion By Hostile Non-State Actors Such As Cartels and Gangs

A. The "Invasion Clause" and the "State Self-Defense Clause" Must Be Understood As Providing Dual Protection In The Context of The States' Reserved Powers

"When the original States declared their independence, they claimed the powers inherent in sovereignty—in the words of the Declaration of Independence, the authority 'to do all ... Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do.'" Murphy v. Nat'l Collegiate Athletic Ass'n, 138 S. Ct. 1461, 1475 (2018) (quoting Declaration of Independence ¶ 32 (U.S. 1776)). "The Constitution limited but did not abolish the sovereign powers of the States, which retained 'a residuary and inviolable sovereignty.'" Id. (quoting The Federalist No. 39, at 245 (James Madison) (C. Rossiter ed. 1961)). "[B]oth the National and State Governments have elements of sovereignty the other is bound to respect." Arizona v. United States, 567 U.S. 387, 398 (2012). Finally, the U.S. "Constitution … shall be the supreme law of the land…." U.S. Const. art. VI, paragraph 2.

The "Invasion Clause" of the U.S Constitution requires that the United States "shall protect each [State] against Invasion." U.S. Const. art. IV, § 4. In the 1990s, states and counties, including Arizona, sued the federal government under the Invasion Clause. They argued that out-of-control levels of illegal immigration constituted an "invasion" by an influx of unauthorized immigrants that triggered the federal government's duty to protect the states. Courts rejected these claims, holding that addressing them would require making "non-judicial policy decision[s]." E.g., California v. United States, 104 F.3d 1086, 1090-91 (9th Cir. 1997); see also Padavan v. United States, 82 F.3d 23, 28 (2d Cir. 1996) ("[T]he plaintiffs' Invasion Clause claim is nonjusticiable. The protection of the states from 'invasion' involves matters of foreign policy and defense, which are issues that the courts have been reluctant to consider.").[6] However, these decisions did not address the current situation of escalating violence and smuggling by transnational cartels and gangs.

Nonetheless, the Constitution itself establishes that States do have the power to protect themselves from invasion: "No State shall, without the Consent of Congress, … engage in War, unless actually invaded, or in such imminent Danger as will not admit of delay." U.S. Const. art. I, § 10, cl. 3 (the "State Self-Defense Clause"). The State Self-Defense Clause of the Constitution establishes that States in our federal system retain the sovereign power to "engage in War" when "actually invaded," and States do not require the "Consent of Congress" to do so. The Second Circuit summarized the meaning of the State Self-Defense Clause in the following way: "although a state is prohibited from waging war, it may do even that if it is 'actually invaded' or facing 'imminent Danger' not admitting delay." Melendez v. City of New York, 16 F.4th 992, 1018 (2d Cir. 2021). As Justice Scalia explained, the State Self-Defense Clause "leaves intact [States'] inherent power to protect their territory." Arizona, 567 U.S. at 419 (Scalia, J., concurring). The Second Circuit in Melendez cited Justice Gorsuch's dissent in Sveen

[6] Because the courts held that the question itself is non-justiciable, their statements about what constitutes an invasion are dicta, and they also never reached the issue of organized cartel activities or the State Self-Defense Clause. In addition, the holdings regarding the Invasion Clause are distinguishable from the Take Care Clause in Article II, Section 3. Nothing in this Opinion suggests the President's abdication of his duty under the Take Care Clause is non-justiciable.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

as also recognizing the principle that the limitations in the State Self-Defense Clause are not absolute but rather permit action when "actually invaded." Melendez, 16 F.4th at 1018 n.42 (citing Sveen v. Melin, 138 S. Ct. 1815, 1826–27 (2018) (Gorsuch, J., dissenting)). Moreover, "[t]he powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people." U.S. Const. amd. X; see also New York v. United States, 505 U.S. 144, 157 (1992) ("[T]he Tenth Amendment confirms that the power of the Federal Government is subject to limits that may, in a given instance, reserve power to the States."); see also Nat'l Fed'n of Indep. Bus. v. Sebelius, 567 U.S. 519, 536 (2012) ("State sovereignty is not just an end in itself: Rather, federalism secures to citizens the liberties that derive from the diffusion of sovereign power....The independent power of the States also serves as a check on the power of the Federal Government: By denying any one government complete jurisdiction over all the concerns of public life, federalism protects the liberty of the individual from arbitrary power." (cleaned up)).

B. "Actually Invaded" Under The State Self-Defense Clause Includes Action By Hostile Non-State Actors, And The Cartels' Activities Satisfy This Requirement

As discussed above, the U.S. Constitution established a dual protection against invasion through both the Invasion Clause and the State Self-Defense Clause. There are no grounds to conclude that this protection applies only to hostilities by foreign states and not to those by non-state actors such as cartels and gangs. Potentially contrary statements in court decisions were dicta and focused on "invasion" by unauthorized aliens themselves.[7] They thus provide no analysis of the meaning of the word "invasion" in the context of non-state hostile actors, such as [7] Defensive measures against invasion by transnational cartels and gangs could well include action to prevent entry into the State's territory except through authorized ports of entry. This also implicates the State's powers under the Import-Export Clause. See note 18, infra. Additional analysis of that issue is beyond the scope of this opinion.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

organized cartels and gangs. They also failed to address more broadly the meaning of "invasion" in the context of security concerns at a State's border.

The text of the State Self-Defense Clause does not contain any limitation that restricts it to actions by foreign nations as opposed to hostile non-state actors. Beginning with the plain language, the critical phrase is "actually invaded, or in such imminent Danger as will not admit of delay." U.S. Const. art. I, § 10. "Ordinarily courts do not construe words used in the Constitution so as to give them a meaning more narrow than one which they had in the common parlance of the times in which the Constitution was written." United States v. S.-E. Underwriters Ass'n, 322 U.S. 533, 539 (1944), superseded by statute on other grounds. Moreover, as Chief Justice Marshall famously stated, "we must never forget that it is a constitution we are expounding." McCulloch v. Maryland, 17 U.S. 316, 407 (1819).

Webster's 1806 dictionary—the first American English dictionary—defines "invade" broadly, as meaning "to enter or seize in hostile manner."[8] Webster's 1828 dictionary also defines "invade" broadly, to include not just the entrance of a foreign army into a country, but also "1. ... to enter as an enemy, with a view to conquest or plunder; to attack"; "2. To attack; to assail; to assault"; "3. To attack; to infringe; to encroach on; to violate."[9] The cartel and gang violence described below falls within these broad definitions of "invade," since cartel and gang members are entering Arizona in a hostile manner that attacks, encroaches on, and violates Arizona. See Part II, infra.

The history of the adoption of the Constitution also powerfully shows that the Founders understood the States were giving up certain sovereign powers to the national government, but retaining core self-defense powers against both domestic and foreign threats to their actual security within their territories. The history of the ratification shows that the framers understood that self-defense power to be broad, and essentially congruent with the federal power to protect states from invasion, when it comes to actions within a State's own territory. It would be nonsensical to conclude that either power is artificially limited to invasion by foreign states as opposed to hostile non-state actors, as it would render the State defenseless in the absence of federal support. See Houston v. Moore, 18 U.S. 1, 16-17 (1820) (State governments' power over the militia and its use "existed prior to the formation of the constitution, and having not been prohibited by that instrument, it remains with the States…").

In Federalist No. 43, James Madison explained with respect to the Invasion Clause that "[a] protection against invasion is due from every society to the parts composing it. The latitude of the expression used here seems to secure each state, not only against foreign hostility, but against ambitious or vindictive enterprises of its more powerful neighbors."[10] There is no indication in this two-part definition of an intent by the framers to limit the protection to only state, as opposed to non-state, actors. As discussed above, the Invasion Clause by its plain language applies to "Invasion" and "domestic Violence." Those two categories must be understood to cover the full subject of areas where a State might need external protection, and since actions by foreign non-state actors are not "domestic Violence," they must qualify as "Invasion." Federalist 43 makes clear that the federal assistance to the state is in addition to the state's own ability to defend itself, and "[i]f the interposition of the general government should not be needed, the provision for such an event will be a harmless superfluity only in the Constitution." In Federalist No. 44, Madison quoted the State Self-Defense Clause, and stated, "[t]he remaining particulars of this clause fall within reasonings which are either so obvious, or have been so fully developed, that they may be passed over without remark."

[10] The Federalist 43 (James Madison) (emphasis added).

Moreover, every time it uses the phrase, the Constitution contrasts "invasion" with "insurrections," "rebellion," and "domestic violence," showing that the difference is not state versus non-state actors but rather foreign versus domestic hostilities. In Article I, Section 8, Clause 15, Congress is given the power "[t]o provide for calling forth the Militia to execute the Laws of the Union, suppress Insurrections and repel Invasions." Article I, Section 9 provides that "[t]he Privilege of the Writ of Habeas Corpus shall not be suspended, unless when in Cases of Rebellion or Invasion the public Safety may require it." In Article IV, Section 4, the clause immediately following the Invasion Clause provides "[t]he United States … shall protect each [State in this Union] … on Application of the Legislature, or of the Executive (when the Legislature cannot be convened) against domestic violence." In other words, the framers were concerned about the federal government using the pretext of domestic violence to send the militia of other states into a state and thus created additional protections for the states. They were not concerned about artificially limiting the type of foreign hostile actors for which protection against "invasion" would apply (or artificially limiting the States within each State's own territory on that basis).

At the Virginia Ratifying Convention, Madison stated that under the Constitution, States still retained the right to defend themselves in the face of invasion: "[States] are to be protected from invasion ... from foreign powers; and, on application by the legislature or executive, as the case may be, the militia of the other states are to be called to suppress domestic insurrections. Does this bar the states from calling forth their own militia? No; but it gives them a supplementary security to suppress insurrections and domestic violence."[11] He further explained that the State Self-Defense Clause means that States "are restrained from making war, unless invaded, or in imminent danger. When in such danger, they are not restrained."[12]

Madison also made clear at the Virginia Ratifying Convention that the protection against "invasion" applies to hostile non-state actors. Madison specifically brought up "suppress[ing] smugglers" as an example of a justified use of the state's militia, and he cited with approval an actual prior case of Virginia calling out its militia to do just that: "There were a number of smugglers, who were too formidable for the civil power to overcome. The military quelled the sailors, who otherwise would have perpetrated their intentions."[13]

It is clear from the above ratification sources that the purposes of the Invasion and State Self-Defense Clauses were both to protect against invasion and to provide additional security to the States in the form of assistance of the militias of other States—not to limit the power of a State to defend itself against invasion by hostile non-state, as opposed to state, actors. In fact, where a major concern in creating a national government was to speak with one voice in foreign affairs, State action against the agents of a foreign government would implicate that concern far more than State action against non-state actors such as criminal gangs and cartels operating illegally within a State's own territory. But it is undisputed that the Constitution was express in reserving the potentially more intrusive power (action against hostile state actors) to the States, and there is no basis to conclude it silently removed a less intrusive power (action against hostile non-state actors). Indeed, Madison addressed the lack of conflict between a state's power to defend itself and the national government's war power: States "are restrained from making war, unless invaded, or in imminent danger.–When in such danger, they are not restrained. I can perceive no competition in these clauses. They cannot be said to be repugnant to a concurrence of the power."[14]

In sum, the specific example of Virginia taking action against smugglers, and the lack of any indication that the purpose of the State Self-Defense Clause was to artificially limit a state's ability to defend itself against hostile non-state actors, is powerful evidence that States retained this sovereign power under the U.S. Constitution.

Applying that to the issue in this opinion, there can be little doubt that the activities of 21st century drug cartels and gangs are just as violent, militant, and invasive than those of 18th century Virginia smugglers, if not more so. And thus the State Self-Defense Clause reserves to States the sovereign right to use force to defend themselves against the activities of transnational cartels and gangs operating in the State's territory at its border.[15]

C. The Powers Herein Are Distinct From—And Support—The Commerce, Naturalization, And Immigration Powers Exercised By The Federal Government

The issue of "invasion" under Article IV, Section 4 of the U.S. Constitution has previously been analyzed and litigated related to immigration law and interior enforcement. See, e.g., Arizona, 567 U.S. 387; California, 104 F.3d 1086. But the issues expressed in this opinion relate to a different power—the power of defense against cross-border invasion under Article I, Section 10 of the U.S. Constitution. As repeatedly noted, the issue in this Opinion is about border security. This is a sovereign power that the States retained under the text of the Constitution. And this sovereign power can be exercised in a manner separate from immigration law by regaining operational control of the border and ensuring that persons and goods entering the United States go through authorized ports of entry—to ensure that persons and goods entering the State of Arizona are not being illegally smuggled.

[15] The dicta in the Ninth Circuit case discusses "armed hostility from another political entity." California, 104 F.3d at 1091 & n.6. The dicta from the Second Circuit similarly states the clause applies to "another political entity, such as another state or foreign country that is intending to overthrow the state's government." Padavan, 82 F.3d at 28. There is nothing in the phrase "political entity" to conclude that these courts were intending to exclude hostile non-state actors such as cartels and gangs from the definition of "political entity," as opposed to just unauthorized immigrants, which was the topic in both cases. The events of September 11, 2001, which came after these decisions, also reshaped our understanding of the threats posed by non-state actors.

As a former Acting ICE Director said in discussing "gotaways" in terms of security, "[t]his isn't just about illegal immigration. … this is about public safety, because the Border Patrol has arrested over 12,000 … convicted criminals. So how many of the … almost 500,000 'gotaways' based on camera traffic, based on sensor traffic, based on drone traffic that the Border Patrol couldn't respond to … were criminals or gang members? Also, Border Patrol has already arrested 16 people on the FBI screening database. How many of that 500,000 are known or suspected terrorists? We don't know. I'm afraid someday we're going to find out. So this isn't just an illegal immigration problem. It's a public health crisis because of COVID. It's a public safety crisis. And there's a national security crisis of huge proportions."[16]

State powers may be properly exercised to require persons and goods entering the state do so through authorized ports of entry or by surrendering themselves to federal officials without infringing on the separate federal powers over immigration, naturalization, and international commerce. In fact, channeling such entries to authorized ports of entry and interdicting criminal gangs and cartels only strengthens federal power by preventing "gotaways" that by their very nature are not an exercise of federal enforcement but a circumvention of it.[17] This conclusion is also supported by the fact that the States retain sovereign power to execute inspection laws under the Import-Export Clause in Article I, Section 10.[18] These actions by the State—to require entry

II. The Current Situation At Arizona's Border With Mexico And Smuggling Activities By Cartels And Gangs Satisfies The Constitutional Definition Of An Invasion

A. Facts Relating To Cartels And Gangs Engaging In Smuggling Activities And Violence At Arizona's Border With Mexico

Arizona is facing an unprecedented crisis at its 370-mile border with Mexico. Acting as if they are above the law, Mexican and Central American cartels are engaging in brazen attacks on Arizona, trafficking in drugs and human beings. President Biden himself has affirmed that "drug cartels and human traffickers" are "actual threats" to our country.[19] Unfortunately, the federal government has failed to protect Arizona from this threat. However, the State through its Governor as Commander-in-Chief can exercise its own power of self-defense.[20]

1. Cartels Are Smuggling Record Amounts of Illegal Drugs Into Arizona

According to the U.S. State Department, "the volume of dangerous drugs entering the United States from Mexico and violent crime within Mexico fueled by transnational criminal generally may not impose import or export duties, it may do so when "absolutely necessary for executing its inspection Laws."). And the Second Circuit cited the same observation by Justice Gorsuch. Id. at 1018 n.4 (citing Sveen, 138 S. Ct. at 1826–27 (2018) (Gorsuch, J., dissenting)).

That power is implicated here. To carry out any inspection laws, States must be able to take action to ensure operational control of the border and to ensure that persons and goods enter at authorized ports of entry. See, e.g., Dep't of Revenue v. James B. Beam Distilling Co., 377 U.S. 341, 345-46 (1964) ("It is clear that the gravamen of the offense in Gordon [v. Texas, 355 U.S. 369 (1958) (per curiam)] was the failure to obtain, or even apply for, a permit as required by state law. Such permits, in addition to other functions, serve to channelize the traffic in liquor and thus to prevent diversion of that traffic into unauthorized channels." (emphasis added)); see generally McCulloch v. Maryland, 17 U.S. 316, 417 (1819) (discussing that from the express power of establishing a post office, there is the implied power "to punish those who steal letters from the post-office, or rob the mail").

Arizona law prohibits possession of narcotic drugs such as fentanyl, so channeling entry of goods through authorized ports of entry is clearly implicated here. See, e.g., A.R.S. § 13-3408. A full discussion of this issue, however, is beyond the scope of this opinion.

organization (TCOs) remain alarmingly and unacceptably high."[21] Cartels bring deadly illegal drugs into the United States by trafficking them into Arizona and other southern border states. According to the State Department, "Mexican drug cartels are consolidating their involvement in fentanyl production and trafficking."[22] Today, "[m]ost fentanyl available in the United States" has been "trafficked from Mexico across the U.S. Southwest border," and each year's fentanyl seizure rates are higher than the previous.[23] Similarly, "[m]ost of the methamphetamine available in the United States ... is produced in Mexico, and trafficking across the U.S. southern border has increased dramatically in recent years."[24] Moreover, "Mexico is a significant source and transit country for heroin, marijuana, methamphetamine, and illicit synthetic opioids destined for the United States. Over 90 percent of the heroin seized and sampled in the United States comes from Mexico. Mexico is also a main transit country for cocaine from South America."[25]

On June 10, 2021, FBI Director Christopher Wray testified before the House Judiciary Committee that "the drug issues related to the border are extremely significant ... fentanyl coming into this country from ... the southwest border is something that I think can be fairly described as an epidemic."[26] The Congressional Research Service recently concluded that "Mexico's cartels remain the primary source of heroin and fentanyl trafficking into the United States."[27] Deaths from drug overdoses are going up at a frightening rate, and most of that increase is driven by fentanyl and other opioids.[28] Fentanyl and related drugs killed 64,178 Americans from May 2020 to April 2021, more than doubling the number of deaths from the prior 12 months.[29] For adults between the ages of 18 and 45, fentanyl overdose is the leading cause of death, killing more adults in this age group than car crashes, gun violence, or COVID-19.[30]

Arizona law prohibits possession of narcotic drugs such as fentanyl. See, e.g., A.R.S. § 13-3408. And illicit fentanyl is illegal throughout the United States. See DEA, Facts About Fentanyl ("Illicit fentanyl, primarily manufactured in foreign clandestine labs and smuggled into the United States through Mexico, is being distributed across the country and sold on the illegal drug market. Fentanyl is being mixed in with other illicit drugs to increase the potency of the drug, sold as powders and nasal sprays, and increasingly pressed into pills made to look like legitimate prescription opioids. Because there is no official oversight or quality control, these counterfeit pills often contain lethal doses of fentanyl, with none of the promised drug. There is significant risk that illegal drugs have been intentionally contaminated with fentanyl. Because of its potency and low cost, drug dealers have been mixing fentanyl with other drugs including heroin, methamphetamine, and cocaine, increasing the likelihood of a fatal interaction.").[31]

Sierra Club*, 140 S. Ct. 1 (2019), and denied a motion to dissolve the stay, Trump v. Sierra Club, 140 S. Ct. 2620 (2020). Judge Smith's observation that "drug trafficking along our southern border … threatens the safety and security of our nation and its citizens" remains true today. But the Biden administration halted construction of this critical tool that protects against cartel violence spilling across Arizona's border.

2. Cartel Involvement In Human Smuggling And Sex Trafficking

On June 10, 2021, FBI Director Wray testified that "[t]here's no question that the cartel activity on the other side of the border is spilling over in all sorts of ways" and that, in particular, cartel involvement in human smuggling and sex trafficking at the border is a "significant security concern." Wray also admitted that "violent crime," "drug trafficking," and "human trafficking" are border security issues "of great concern."[32]

Human trafficking is a lucrative racket, which brought in more than $14 million a day for cartels and gangs in February 2021.[33] Because illegal border crossings have increased substantially since February 2021, it is almost certain that cartel and gang revenue from human smuggling has increased substantially as well. Annually, the cartels and gangs get billions of dollars a year from human trafficking.[34] It is thus no wonder that criminal organizations would be willing to engage in violent cross-border attacks to protect their profits.

3. Violence At The Border

The cartels' smuggling and violence disproportionately affect Arizona. For example, unauthorized aliens have engaged in a number of violent attacks in Cochise County, which shares an 83-mile border with Mexico. In June 2019, a shootout just across the border from Douglas, Arizona between different factions of the Sinaloa drug cartel resulted in ten deaths.[35] The shootout happened close to the Douglas port of entry, and following the shootout four cartel members—apparently on the losing side of the fight—presented themselves at the port of entry to request asylum in the United States.[36] Local Arizona residents routinely cross into Mexico at that port of entry, and thus this shootout placed Arizonans' lives at risk. In a separate incident, a drug smuggler nearly killed a National Park employee in Chiricahua National Park.[37] The perpetrator was an unauthorized alien and a two-time deported felon. He was found guilty of attempted first degree murder, armed robbery, aggravated assault, kidnapping, and theft of means of transportation.[38] In 2021, the Cochise County Sheriff's Office encountered 43,229 unauthorized aliens and 51 drug smugglers. Over that same time, the Sheriff's Office seized 808 pounds of illegal marijuana.

DHS's own statistics reveal the unprecedented surge of unlawful migration and the collapse of DHS's control of the border. Monthly border encounters with unauthorized aliens are the highest they have been in decades. Id. at 7 ("[T]he highest monthly encounter number since Fiscal Year 2000.") For example, the number of encounters in July 2021 was more than five times the July 2020 and July 2018 numbers, and roughly 2.5 times July 2019. The cartels and gangs that smuggle unauthorized aliens across the border are primary players in this surge.

Similar events are also becoming common in other parts of the state and in other border states. On February 2, 2022, "Border Patrol agents patrolling the Rio Grande Valley Sector [in Texas] were fired upon from across the Mexican border" according to "multiple law enforcement sources."[39] Individuals believed to be cartel drug smugglers are regularly caught on camera crossing the border, dressed in camouflage and carrying weapons to protect their drug loads.[40] Border area ranchers have experienced this violence firsthand, including one who was killed the day after he reported a drug load to authorities and another on whose land a U.S. Border Patrol agent was shot in 2018.[41] Cartel scouts appear to even brazenly "occupy strategically-selected hilltops for dozens of miles inside Arizona," establishing a presence on American territory to help smugglers avoid authorities.[42] Even the drugs themselves are becoming more dangerous, as smugglers are trading large bags of marijuana for smaller packs of more potent "cocaine, fentanyl, heroin, [and] meth."[43] In December 2021, police in Scottsdale, Arizona seized 1.7 million fentanyl pills that were worth $9 million; they also seized ten kilograms of powdered fentanyl and one pound of methamphetamine.[44] The seized drugs were from the Sinaloa Cartel.[45] According to the DEA, "[t]he Sinaloa Cartel primarily uses trafficking routes that go through Arizona,"[46] and the Phoenix area is a major cartel drug trans-shipment hub.[47]

State Troopers in Yuma County now must conduct drug busts at the border on a daily basis.[48] In spite of their heroic efforts, law enforcement does not have the manpower to fully thwart the onslaught of cartel activity, as shown by the record increases in the amount of drugs now smuggled across the border. And the federal government's decisions resulting in loss of operational control of the border has been a major contributing factor.[49] Over the course of just one week in late December 2021, Arizona State Troopers seized over 664 pounds of methamphetamine and 37 pounds of fentanyl, with a street value of more than $5.1 million. The Arizona Department of Public Safety reports that "the cartels are in a constant state of war with each other" and persons involved in cartel activities are more commonly armed than before.[50] On December 1, 2021, after a car chase, Yuma Sector CBP agents stopped and detained an alien who was smuggling methamphetamine, cocaine, fentanyl, heroin, and more than $10,000 in cash.[51]

CBP encounters with unauthorized aliens in the Yuma sector have been 2,400% higher so far in Fiscal Year 2022 than in Fiscal Year 2021.[52] Most of these aliens pay smuggling fees to the cartels and gangs, thus increasing cartel profits and feeding further violence. Furthermore, cartels use human smuggling as a cover to distract authorities from their drug trafficking activities.[53]

In a growing trend nicknamed "cartel uber," drivers wait close to the border to pick up unauthorized aliens and smuggle them further into the United States. Alien smugglers, who are usually affiliated with the cartels, typically pay these drivers $1,000 for each alien that is smuggled. Tragically, in October 2021, a local Cochise County resident was killed when her car was hit by a car driven by a 16-year-old who ran a red light at a speed of 105 miles per hour. The 16-year-old was smuggling four unauthorized aliens in his car.[54]

CBP routinely apprehends unauthorized aliens trying to illegally reenter the United States who have known gang and cartel connections, or who have prior felony and drug convictions that strongly suggest cartel or gang connections. For example, the official Twitter account for the CBP Chief Patrol Agent for the Yuma Sector lists the following notable border apprehensions of criminal aliens just for the month of December 2021:

- Rosario Lugo-Parra, "multiple felony convictions for drug possession, assault and robbery"[55]
- Joel Campos-Velis, "a suspected MS-13 gang member with an assault conviction"[56]

Cartel violence affects Arizonans abroad as well. For example, On November 14, 2019, cartel gunmen in the state of Sonora, Mexico (just south of Arizona) attacked a group of American citizens traveling in their vehicles. The gunmen murdered three women and six children and injured six others. Several of the victims were flown to Arizona for emergency medical treatment, and the families of many of the victims are former or current Arizona residents.[64] On October 6, 2020, cartel gunmen armed with machine guns hijacked the vehicle of an Arizona family traveling in the area of the beach resort town of Rocky Point in the Mexican state of Sonora. The criminals stranded the family on the side of the road in an isolated area, without any of their belongings.[65] Although this did not occur in Arizona, it shows the threats of violence that the cartels pose.

The threat is not just limited to the onslaught from cartels. Potential terrorists also use the southern border to enter the United States. In April 2021, CBP released a press release after agents caught several men who were on terrorism watch lists.[66] After the press release started to circulate widely, CBP deleted it from its website.[67]

The head of CBP warned in August 2021 that the border "is a national security crisis" and that there are "massive amounts of smuggling going across the southwest border — to include [known or suspected terrorists] at a level we have never seen before."[68]

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

B. These Facts Satisfy The Definition Of "Invasion" Empowering The Governor To Exercise His Authority As Commander-In-Chief

As explained above, at the time of the Founding, the State Self-Defense Clause was understood to include a State's right to use force to defend itself against "foreign hostility [and] ambitious or vindictive enterprises of [a state's] more powerful neighbors." See Part I(B), supra. This phrase includes for-profit activities that involve violence, and the cartel and gang activities described above involve inflicting brutal violence in the pursuit of profit and would thus qualify. This interpretation is supported by James Madison's specific example of a state militia acting to suppress smugglers. The principal activity of transnational cartels and gangs at the border is to smuggle people and drugs for profit. Indeed, using the state militia to suppress smugglers was Madison's paradigmatic example of a justified and Constitutional use of the state militia.

Furthermore, the commonly understood meaning at the time of the word "invade" covers the activities of the transnational cartels and gangs at the border—they enter Arizona "in [a] hostile manner"[69]; they "enter as an enemy, with a view to ... plunder"; they "attack," "assail," and "assault"; and they "infringe," "encroach on," and "violate" Arizona.[70]

The militia of the State of Arizona is established by Article 16 of the Arizona Constitution and is officially designated "The National Guard of Arizona." Under A.R.S. § 26-174, the Governor also has authority to establish an Arizona State Guard. Under Article 5, Section 3 of the Arizona Constitution, the Governor is the "commander-in-chief of the military forces of the state, except when such forces shall be called into the service of the United States."

Thus, while this Opinion has concluded that transnational cartel and gang activity in Arizona would meet the legal standard to justify exercise of the State's power under the State Self-Defense Clause, only the Governor of the State of Arizona has the power to make a final determination that such exercise is justified. Similarly, only the Governor has the authority to establish the exact parameters for the exercise of the defensive use of force. While authorized by the U.S. and Arizona Constitutions, any such use of defensive force to protect the State against actual invasion must also be consistent with applicable federal law and treaties and particular attention must be paid to the State's relationship with Native American tribes with reservations at the Arizona-Mexico border. The applicability of such other sources of law and comity for the tribes' sovereignty is beyond the scope of this opinion. Finally, nothing in this opinion should be read as authorizing any use of force by anyone other than in the chain of command under the Governor; this opinion is strictly limited to the sovereign right of the State of Arizona under the State Self-Defense Clause of the U.S. Constitution and the Governor's constitutional powers as Commander-in-Chief for this purpose.

Conclusion

The issues in this Opinion relate to border security. The federal government's failure to secure the border and protect Arizona from invasion is dangerous and unprecedented. Thankfully, the Founders foresaw that States might need to protect themselves from invasion and made clear in the Constitution that States retain the sovereign power to defend themselves within their own territory. As discussed above, "actually invaded" and "invasion" in the State Self-Defense and Invasion Clauses is not limited to hostile foreign states but includes hostile non-state actors. The violence and lawlessness at the border caused by transnational cartels and gangs satisfies the definition of an "invasion" under the U.S. Constitution, and Arizona therefore has the power to defend itself from this invasion under the Governor's authority as Commander-in-

Hi Adam,

Apologies for not meeting your deadline. Please attribute the following statement to Communications Director CJ Karamargin:

Governor Ducey deployed the National Guard to the border last April, as we faced a rapid increase in apprehensions. He extended the border security mission for another year in August to give our law enforcement the support they need to fight this criminal activity.

The number of people and drugs we have seen come across our border this year is unprecedented. DHS Secretary Mayorkas admitted himself the border is the worst it's been in over 20 years. He needs to be held accountable. This administration needs to be held accountable. They have totally failed to address this very real public safety and humanitarian crisis.

Arizona has and will continue to protect our communities with our National Guard, our Border Strike Force and in partnership with local law enforcement. For Attorney General Brnovich to imply the Guard is not on our border does them a serious disservice and shows that he fails to appreciate the commitment these men and women have to protecting Arizona.

Hi all, sorry for the late email.

I saw a story published on 15 about a group who wants to move the Super Bowl out of Arizona due to voting restriction bills being considered at the legislature. Would you be able to send us the Governor's Office's comment on the move as well?

Hi, John. Thanks for reaching out. Here you go:

We couldn't be more excited for the Super Bowl coming to Arizona next year. The most-watched sporting event of all time is an opportunity to put our state on full display for the rest of the country.

The Super Bowl's economic benefits, both direct and indirect, for businesses large and small are tremendous. It is unfathomable why anyone would want to deny Arizonans these benefits. It doesn't make sense. To call on the NFL to move the Super Bowl from Arizona over legislation that may not even get out of committee seems both shortsighted and premature.

Hello from Fox 10. Does the Governor and/or the Governor's Office have any reaction or statement regarding Senator Wendy Rogers's antisemitic tweets over the weekend? Also looking for a response to the Maricopa BOS leadership's denouncement of her comments.

Thank you.

Joint Statement from Chairman Bill Gates and Vice Chairman Clint Hickman

"Arizona State Senator Wendy Rogers baselessly declares that everyone who doesn't support her conspiracy theories and beliefs is a Soros puppet, a traitor or a communist. She has made clear what her beliefs are:
She asserts that we should "hang" our political opponents and those we disagree with.
She embraces anti-Semitic, racist and homophobic rhetoric.
She apologizes for Putin and condemns our allies.
The United States of America has always been a beacon of hope for those who believe in self-determination and self-governance. At this critical time, we need the world to see that we don't just preach American values to others but we live them ourselves.
Wendy Rogers does not represent American values or interests. I trust other business, community, and political leaders will publicly condemn her hateful, dangerous, paranoid, un-American rhetoric."

MEDIA ADVISORY: Governor Ducey To Welcome Goodwill's First Excel Center In Arizona

PHOENIX – Governor Doug Ducey welcomes Goodwill's first Excel Center in Arizona at a groundbreaking ceremony tomorrow morning.

The Center, which has been successful in five other states, is designed for adult learners to continue their education and secure their high school diploma.

Approximately 700,000 adults in Arizona have less than a high school diploma or its equivalent.

Governor Ducey dedicated $12 million for the Center to launch. This is the latest example of the Governor bringing attention to the critical need for workforce training pathways that allow individuals to obtain credentials and help meet the demands of Arizona's evolving economy.

When: Tuesday, March 15, 8 a.m.

Where: 4837 E. McDowell Road, Phoenix, Arizona 85008

Please RSVP to communications@az.gov.

Hello!
Thank you so much for touching base. I am sorry that all communication dropped off. When Ukraine was invaded all of our focus shifted there. I am still so highly interested in setting up this story and will be sure to connect with you next week.

Thank you again for reaching out and for your patience.

Sincerely,
Madison
