5 AUTOMATED OR REMOTE SYSTEMS FOR TRAFFIC LAW ENFORCEMENT —
6 AUTOMATIC REGISTRATION PLATE READERS
7 Section 1. NEW SECTION. 321P.1 Definitions.
8 As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise
9 requires:
10 1. "Automated or remote system for traffic law enforcement"
11 or "system" means a camera or other optical device designed to 12 work in conjunction with a speed measuring device to detect
13 motor vehicles being operated in violation of the speed limit,
14 the use of which results in the issuance of citations sent 15 through the mail or by electronic means.
16 2. "Critical traffic safety issues" include traffic
17 violations resulting in a traffic collision or accident and 18 traffic collisions and accidents resulting in serious injury or 19 death occurring at a location.
20 3. "Department" means the state department of 21 transportation.
22 4. "Local authority" means a county or municipality
23 having authority to adopt local police regulations under the 24 Constitution of the State of Iowa and laws of this state.
25 Sec. 2. NEW SECTION. 321P.2 Permit required — local 26 ordinances.
27 1. A person shall not use an automated or remote system
28 for traffic law enforcement unless authorized under this 29 chapter. A local authority shall not adopt, enforce, or 30 otherwise administer an ordinance authorizing the use of a
31 system, and shall not use a system, unless the local authority
32 holds a valid permit to use a system at the system's location.
33 Notwithstanding section 331.302, subsection 6, and section
34 380.3, the governing body of a local authority that is 35 considering an ordinance to authorize or implement traffic law

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

IA-DHHS-24-0418-A-008206

1 enforcement by automated or remote systems shall not suspend
2 the requirements of section 331.302, subsection 6, or section
3 380.3, as applicable.
4 2. A local authority may apply for a permit by submitting
5 an application to the department in a manner determined by 6 the department. The department may approve or disapprove
7 the application for a permit based on the department's 8 determination that a system is appropriate and necessary and 9 the least restrictive means to address the critical traffic
10 safety issues at a location. The department shall only issue
11 one permit for a local authority, which shall set forth all
12 locations at which a local authority is authorized to use a 13 system. A local authority may submit an application to the 14 department to update the local authority's permit with a new 15 location in the same manner and with the same information as 16 required for the initial permit. An application for a permit
17 must contain all of the following for a location at which the 18 local authority intends to operate a system:
19 a. Records detailing the number and description of traffic
20 violations at the location, which shall be compiled and 21 maintained by the local authority for at least one year prior
22 to the installation of the system and for each year the system
23 is in operation. The records shall be considered public
24 records for purposes of chapter 22.
25 b. Records detailing the number and severity of traffic
26 collisions and accidents occurring at the location.
27 c. An analysis of existing traffic speed data, posted speed
28 limits, traffic volume data, and intersection and roadway
29 measurements of the location. The analysis must demonstrate to 30 the department that existing speed restrictions are appropriate
31 and must describe how the speed restrictions were established.
32 d. The proposed cause of critical traffic safety issues at 33 the location.
34 e. Alternative methods to improve traffic safety at the 35 location that the local authority has implemented or has

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

IA-DHHS-24-0418-A-008207

1 considered but declined to implement. Alternative methods
2 to improve traffic safety may include but are not limited to 3 changes relating to law enforcement practices, roadway or 4 intersection design, traffic control devices used, and public
5 education campaigns.
6 f. Details of discussions, if any, held with an entity
7 that has resources which may aid the reduction of traffic
8 collisions and accidents caused at the location by failure to 9 obey speed restrictions and subsequent actions taken by the 10 local authority.
11 g. An explanation detailing the reasons that the use of a 12 system at the location is appropriate and necessary and the 13 least restrictive means to address the critical traffic safety
14 issues.
15 Sec. 3. NEW SECTION. 321P.3 Use limited.
16 1. A local authority shall not use an automated or remote
17 system for traffic law enforcement to issue a citation for a 18 traffic violation unless the violation is for exceeding the 19 speed limit by more than ten miles per hour.
20 2. A local authority with a population of twenty thousand or 21 less based on the most recent federal decennial census shall 22 not use a mobile system to issue a citation for a traffic
23 violation. The department shall adopt rules pursuant to 24 chapter 17A otherwise authorizing and regulating the operation
25 of mobile systems, taking into consideration a mobile system's 26 mobility, flexible usage, and the needs of a local authority to 27 control traffic speed to address critical traffic safety issues
28 at a location. However, the rules shall not authorize the use
29 of a mobile system other than in neighborhoods, construction
30 zones, school zones, including collegiate zones, and locations
31 where traffic enforcement is difficult or dangerous to enforce
32 by alternative methods.
33 3. A local authority, regardless of its population, may 34 issue a warning memorandum to the owner of a vehicle that was 35 operated in violation of a traffic law if the violation was

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

IA-DHHS-24-0418-A-008208

1 detected by an automated or remote system for traffic law
2 enforcement, including a mobile system.
3 Sec. 4. NEW SECTION. 321P.4 Automatic registration plate
4 readers — data retention limited.
5 1. The operator of an automatic registration plate reader
6 or any associated data storage device shall permanently delete 7 from the plate reader and storage device, as applicable, every 8 image of a vehicle registration plate captured by the plate
9 reader, and any other accompanying data, no later than thirty
10 days after the image was captured.
11 2. Prior to deletion under subsection 1, an image of 12 a vehicle registration plate captured by an automatic
13 registration plate reader, and any other accompanying data, 14 may be copied and stored by a law enforcement agency if the 15 image and data are relevant to an ongoing criminal case or 16 investigation. The law enforcement agency shall maintain 17 the copied registration plate image and accompanying data in 18 accordance with the agency's evidence retention policies.
19 Copies maintained by the law enforcement agency are not subject
20 to subsection 1.
21 3. For purposes of this section, "automatic registration
22 plate reader" or "plate reader" means a camera or other optical
23 device designed or programmed to automatically detect a
24 vehicle's registration plate, or to automatically capture
25 or store an image of a vehicle's registration plate and any 26 accompanying data.
27 4. A person who violates subsection 1 commits a simple
28 misdemeanor.
29 Sec. 5. NEW SECTION. 321P.5 Notice — signage and reports.
30 1. a. A local authority shall not operate an automated or 31 remote system for traffic law enforcement at a fixed location
32 unless permanent signs meeting the requirements as specified in 33 the department manual on uniform traffic-control devices and 34 giving notice of the system are erected at least five hundred 35 feet but not more than one thousand feet along the approach of

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

IA-DHHS-24-0418-A-008209

1 the highway where the system is used.
2 b. A local authority shall not operate a mobile automated
3 or remote system for traffic law enforcement unless permanent
4 signs meeting the requirements as specified in the department
5 manual on uniform traffic-control devices and giving notice
6 of the local authority's use of a mobile system within the 7 boundaries of the local authority are posted at every location
8 where a highway enters the boundaries of the local authority.
9 c. Signs required under this subsection shall be erected
10 by the local authority at the local authority's expense at 11 least thirty days prior to a system enforcing any detected
12 violations.
13 2. A local authority using a system shall submit to the 14 department an annual report by March 1 of each year detailing
15 the number of traffic collisions and accidents that occurred at 16 each location where a system is in use, the number of citations 17 issued for each system during the previous calendar year, and 18 any other relevant information about the systems that the local 19 authority deems appropriate. The local authority shall post 20 the report on the local authority's internet site, if the local 21 authority has an internet site.
22 Sec. 6. NEW SECTION. 321P.6 Enforcement.
23 1. A local authority shall not issue a citation or warning
24 memorandum for a violation detected by a system until a peace
25 officer of the local authority, or an individual trained and 26 certified by the local authority, has reviewed and approved
27 the recorded photograph or video to affirm a traffic violation
28 occurred.
29 2. a. For an excessive speed violation detected by a system
30 other than as provided in paragraph "b", the fine shall not 31 exceed the following amounts:
32 (1) Seventy-five dollars for speed greater than ten miles
33 per hour in excess of the limit but not more than twenty miles
34 per hour in excess of the limit.
35 (2) One hundred dollars for speed greater than twenty miles

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

5 than thirty miles per hour in excess of the limit.
6 (4) Five hundred dollars for speed greater than thirty miles
7 per hour in excess of the limit.
8 b. For an excessive speed violation detected by a system in 9 a road work zone, as defined in section 321.1, the fine shall 10 not exceed the following amounts:
11 (1) One hundred fifty dollars for speed greater than ten 12 miles per hour in excess of the limit but not more than twenty
13 miles per hour in excess of the limit.
14 (2) Two hundred dollars for speed greater than twenty miles
15 per hour in excess of the limit but not more than twenty-five
16 miles per hour in excess of the limit.
17 (3) Five hundred dollars for speed greater than twenty-five 18 miles per hour in excess of the limit but not more than thirty
19 miles per hour in excess of the limit.
20 (4) One thousand dollars for speed greater than thirty miles
21 per hour in excess of the limit.
22 3. A system not in compliance with this chapter shall not 23 be used to detect violations. A citation issued while the 24 system is not in compliance with this chapter is void and 25 unenforceable.
26 4. A violation detected by an automated or remote system

32 a citation issued by a local authority as the result of the use
33 of a system must be a civil penalty.
34 Sec. 7. NEW SECTION. 321P.7 Liability for violations
35 detected.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

IA-DHHS-24-0418-A-008211

1 1. A citation for a violation detected by an automated or

3 the owner of the identified motor vehicle.
4 2. a. Notwithstanding subsection 1, a local authority shall
5 provide the owner of a motor vehicle who receives a citation
6 for a violation detected by a system with an opportunity
7 to submit evidence that the owner was not operating the 8 motor vehicle at the time of the violation. As part of the 9 proceeding, the owner shall provide the name and address of the 10 person who was operating the motor vehicle at the time of the 11 violation.
12 b. Notwithstanding subsection 1, a citation issued to the 13 owner of a motor vehicle may be amended and issued to the 14 person identified under paragraph "a" who was operating the 15 motor vehicle.
16 3. For purposes of this section, "owner" means a person 17 who holds the legal title to a motor vehicle. However, if the 18 motor vehicle is the subject of a security agreement with a

28 purposes:
29 1. To fund transportation infrastructure improvement

32 police department or fire department.
33 Sec. 9. NEW SECTION. 321P.9 Installation and maintenance.

2 2. An automated or remote system for traffic law enforcement
3 must only record a photograph or video of the rear of a vehicle
4 and the vehicle's registration plate while the vehicle is used
5 to commit an alleged traffic violation. A local authority

19 daily internal calibrations.
20 5. The log and documentation of the calibrations required
21 under this section are admissible in any court proceeding
22 relating to a violation detected by the system.
23 6. If a daily or monthly calibration is not successfully

27 EXISTING SYSTEMS
28 Sec. 10. EXISTING SYSTEMS.

Hello HHS Leadership,

I will be sending out a new invitation to the Leadership Retreat next week. This will be a onetime calendar invitation.

I would like to apologize for so many emails and invites you are receiving, however we are still having issues with the Google / Outlook migration, and participants not receiving the invitation.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

If you receive this email but do not (soon after) receive a new calendar invitation, please reach out to me so that we can create a comprehensive list of where the issues are.

(P.S. for those attending the Senior Leadership meeting, you will receive a new invitation for that as well.)

Thank you so much, Laura

New Resource to Connect Iowans with Cancer Clinical Trials

Dear Cancer Control Partners,

We are excited to officially launch a new resource for cancer patients, caregivers, and providers to find available clinical trials in Iowa. The new Cancer Clinical Trials in Iowa webpage has been a collaborative effort and we hope cancer centers, patient navigators, cancer survivors, and families will find it a helpful "one stop shop" to easily access treatment options.

Health care providers and cancer centers, please consider linking to https://canceriowa.org/clinicaltrials on your website.

All partners, please consider sharing this resource on social media using our prepared social media message set.

To learn more, read the press release below or on our blog.

Special thanks to the University of Iowa Holden Comprehensive Cancer Center Clinical Trials Advisory Board for their help in putting these resources together.

CORALVILLE, IA – April 8, 2024 – Partners across the state are working together to ensure that there is one resource for Iowans to locate and find information about cancer clinical trials in the state. Clinical trials are research studies that identify the best ways to prevent, detect, and treat cancer. While many trials exist for a variety of cancer types and stages, it can be challenging for a patient or their care team to find the right one.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

The Iowa Cancer Consortium's webpage at www.canceriowa.org/clinicaltrials includes a comprehensive list of where to find cancer clinical trials in the state and where to learn more about the importance of trials. Health partners who collaborated on the project included Genesis Cancer Center in the Quad Cities, Hall-Perrine Cancer Center in Cedar Rapids, Blank Children's Hospital in Des Moines, William R. Bliss Cancer Center in Ames, Mission Cancer + Blood statewide, and University of Iowa Holden Comprehensive Cancer Center in Iowa City.

Being faced with a cancer diagnosis and choosing treatment can be overwhelming. Cancer clinical trials often allow patients to access treatment that may not yet be part of the standard of care. When a person participates in a cancer clinical trial, they also contribute to knowledge about cancer that will benefit future generations. Other benefits may include closer monitoring by a healthcare team and potential cost savings. Iowans are encouraged to review the Consortium's new resource and talk to their doctors about options for cancer clinical trials.

One Iowan who benefited from a cancer clinical trial is Jordan Hauck from Huxley, Iowa. Jordan was in his 20s when he found a lump in his armpit. Young and with no family history of cancer, he didn't pay it much attention. But when the lump grew to about the size of a baseball in a matter of months, he went to the doctor. Unfortunately, the lump was cancerous and the cancer had spread to his liver and lungs. His doctor helped him look into clinical trials at the University of Iowa, and found one led by Mohammed Milhem, MBBS. Dr. Milhem diagnosed Jordan with stage 4 melanoma and began his treatment through the clinical trial, consisting of an oral medication and injections. After a year, Jordan was cancer-free. When his cancer came back in 2023, his treatment was a relatively new immunotherapy medication approved 2 years ago. This treatment, developed through clinical trials, was successful, and Jordan is cancer-free again. (Source: University of Iowa)

In addition to the website, the Iowa Cancer Consortium has created a social media message set so that anyone can share this resource and crucial information about cancer clinical trials. The message set can be downloaded at www.canceriowa.org/clinicaltrials.

The Iowa Cancer Consortium is Iowa's statewide comprehensive cancer control coalition. As a leader in cancer control, the Iowa Cancer Consortium offers the state's cancer partners and advocates access to resources, expertise, and non-competitive collaboration across traditional boundaries for a bigger impact in cancer prevention, early detection, treatment, quality of life, and health equity. Kelly, Robb and Sarah

Edith and I would like to thank you again, for taking time to come and visit with us at the College on April 4th . I continue to hear very positive feedback from the visit with folks especially being grateful for the opportunity to meet and get to know you, as well as appreciation to gain a better understanding of the broadened scope of Iowa HHS.

There are some things that I want to follow up with from our time together. Below are some links, documents and questions as follows:

* In our meeting with maternal and child health, we discussed the complex child welfare issue of addicted moms. This is a very complex issue with a lot to unpack – Dr Nicole Nidey is very passionate about this subject and I think it would be helpful to her, if she can be connected to one of your folks in child welfare for ongoing conversations. I think it is important for Nicole to understand the complexities of this issue as she builds her research portfolio. Can you provide the name and contact information of a person that you think could be helpful to Nicole? I can help to set up a meeting and facilitate conversation between them.
* Carrie Casteel provided information about SIDS/Safe Sleep work that our colleagues at

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Stead Family Hospital have collaborated on. Carrie is willing to introduce you (or your designee) to those partners when you are ready. I'm happy to facilitate that connection or you can email Carrie directly at carrie-casteel@uiowa.edu

* We can help to disseminate the latest Child Death Review Team report - Ann Saba, Outreach coordinator for the Injury Prevention Research Center can help with dissemination to injury/violence audiences. I am happy to connect you to Ann or her direct email is ann-saba@uiowa.edu
* We talked about the importance of continuing the connections between our organizations. We have lots to offer, like student interest, expertise in various topics, the ability to contribute to policy briefs and community coalition building etc.. There are lots of activities happening already between our entities, but I'm wondering if we can be a bit more organized as leaders to stay connected and expand the coordination and partnership for the things that are coming up on your radar in the future. Perhaps Sara and I can communicate regularly so we can be most planful in collaboration for the future?
* During the Cancer Faculty meeting we discussed the Iowa cancer report and you asked for information on the new visualizations that Jake mentioned. Here is a link to the developmental website for the Geographical Visualizations. These are not live yet so should not be broadly shared. Jake Oleson can meet with Dr Kruse or members of your team to walk through the page if interested. Jake's email is jacob-oleson@uiowa.edu or I am happy to connect you.
* We mentioned Dr Mishka Terplan, a visiting scholar who will be at the college September 17-18 and you expressed interest in knowing more information – I have attached Dr Terplan's CV. He is board certified in Obstetrics and gynecology and in addiction medicine. His primary clinical, research, public health and advocacy interests lie along the intersections of reproductive and behavioral health. I will send you information about his visit when the details are ironed out. He will provide a lecture that will be available via zoom if you are able to attend.
* Paul Gilbert bought forward the idea of minimum unit pricing Policies for alcoholic beverages as a way to reduce alcohol related disease, injury and death. More information can be found on the websites below and I'm attached a copy of a good study that he forwarded to me about the topic. Dr Gilbert is available to assist in any way that may be helpful. His email is paul-gilbert@uiowa.edu

* Here's a link to a webpage by the Scottish government that explains what they did: https://www.gov.scot/policies/alcohol-and-drugs/minimum-unit-pricing/#:~:text=Minimum%20unit%20pricing%20set%20a,higher%20the%20minimum%20unit%20price.
* Link to the CDC website about alcohol minimum unit pricing: https://www.cdc.gov/alcohol/fact-sheets/minimum-pricing-policies.html

* We are continuing to monitor the contract language progress and data sharing agreements. If we have issue's with either of these processes, I believe you said that Sarah Reisetter, Division of Compliance, was the person to contact. Can you please provide Sarah's new email address?

Please let us know your ideas for continued collaboration!

Evaluating the impact of alcohol minimum unit pricing on deaths and hospitalisations in Scotland: a controlled interrupted time series study

Summary

Background Since May 1, 2018, every alcoholic drink sold in Scotland has had minimum unit pricing (MUP) of £0·50 per unit. Previous studies have indicated that the introduction of this policy reduced alcohol sales by 3%. We aimed to assess whether this has led to reductions in alcohol-attributable deaths and hospitalisations.

Methods Study outcomes, wholly attributable to alcohol consumption, were defined using routinely collected data on deaths and hospitalisations. Controlled interrupted time series regression was used to assess the legislation's impact in Scotland, and any effect modification across demographic and socioeconomic deprivation groups. The pre-intervention time series ran from Jan 1, 2012, to April 30, 2018, and for 32 months after the policy was implemented (until Dec 31, 2020). Data from England, a part of the UK where the intervention was not implemented, were used to form a control group.

Findings MUP in Scotland was associated with a significant 13·4% reduction (95% CI –18·4 to –8·3; p=0·0004) in deaths wholly attributable to alcohol consumption. Hospitalisations wholly attributable to alcohol consumption decreased by 4·1% (–8·3 to 0·3; p=0·064). Effects were driven by significant improvements in chronic outcomes, particularly alcoholic liver disease. Furthermore, MUP legislation was associated with a reduction in deaths and hospitalisations wholly attributable to alcohol consumption in the four most socioeconomically deprived deciles in Scotland.

Interpretation The implementation of MUP legislation was associated with significant reductions in deaths, and reductions in hospitalisations, wholly attributable to alcohol consumption. The greatest improvements were in the four most socioeconomically deprived deciles, indicating that the policy is positively tackling deprivation-based inequalities in alcohol-attributable health harm.

Introduction

Harmful alcohol consumption is a leading risk factor of the global disease burden.[1] In 2021, the highest number of deaths from alcohol-specific causes on record were reported for the UK.[2] Within the UK, health harms from alcohol are disproportionately higher in Scotland, and are strongly patterned by level of socioeconomic deprivation to the extent that the death rate from alcohol-specific causes is over five times higher in the most, compared with least, deprived areas.[3] This socioeconomic deprivation gradient remains after adjusting for alcohol consumption levels.[4] In the wider public health context, over the last decade, there has been a slow-down in improvements in life expectancy, with evidence of increasing inequalities, potentially further worsened due to the COVID-19 pandemic and the ongoing cost-of-living crisis.[5–7]

As part of a comprehensive strategy to reduce levels of alcohol consumption and related harms, Scotland became one of very few countries in the world to implement minimum unit pricing (MUP), of £0·50 per unit, for alcoholic drinks sold directly to the public.[8] The legislation was introduced on May 1, 2018. MUP sets a legal minimum price below which alcohol cannot be sold, and differs from taxation policies, which are potentially circumvented by retailer-based changes in alcohol pricing.[9] Among the envisaged benefits of MUP are reduced deaths and decreased health-care use.[10] As the heaviest drinkers typically drink the cheapest alcohol, MUP has the potential to positively tackle inequalities in health harms, and reduce harms in subgroups at greatest risk.[11]

Previous international modelling and observational studies have estimated the effect of increasing alcohol pricing as a mechanism to reduce alcohol-attributable harms.[12–20] Some studies estimate that MUP can lead to reductions in consumption in the heaviest drinkers, a key pathway to reducing overall, and inequalities in, harm. In the Scottish context, following 3 years of MUP legislation, alcohol sales in Scotland were estimated to have reduced by 3%. This reduction was driven by reduced sales of

Research in context

Evidence before this study

Scotland has the highest levels of alcohol health harms in the UK, which are strongly patterned by level of socioeconomic deprivation to the extent that the death rate from alcohol-specific causes is over five times higher in the most, compared with least, deprived areas. As part of a comprehensive strategy to reduce levels of alcohol consumption and related harms, Scotland became one of very few countries in the world to implement minimum unit pricing (MUP), of £0·50 per unit, for alcoholic drinks sold directly to the public. Previous international modelling and observational studies have estimated the effect of increasing alcohol pricing as a mechanism to reduce alcohol-attributable harms. Some studies estimate that MUP can lead to reductions in consumption in the heaviest drinkers, a key pathway to reducing overall, and inequalities in, harm.

We identified literature from primary research studies that evaluated the impact of the implementation of alcohol MUP legislation on alcohol consumption, sales, or health outcomes, in Scotland. We searched PubMed for related papers published between May 2, 2018, and March 1, 2023, with the search terms ("alcohol" AND "minimum unit pricing" AND ("health" OR "consumption" OR "sales") AND "Scotland"), with no language restrictions. Theoretical modelling studies using historical data to forecast outcomes were excluded, as were studies reporting subnational results. Several studies report that alcohol sales reduced in Scotland following the implementation of alcohol MUP legislation. Evidence following 3 years of implementation of alcohol MUP legislation indicates that population-level alcohol sales reduced by 3%, with the greatest reductions in alcohol purchasing observed in households that purchased the most alcohol before the policy was implemented. There was no causal evidence of country-level impact of the implementation of alcohol MUP legislation on deaths and hospital admissions wholly attributable to alcohol consumption in Scotland, before this study.

Added value of this study

We used high-quality data sources, pertaining to individual deaths and hospitalisations with recorded person-specific demographic attributes. Both UK countries under study have a universal health-care system free at the point of use; therefore, there was minimal risk of sampling or recruitment bias. The use of a controlled interrupted time series study design allowed us to infer that the estimated impacts were plausible causal effects attributable to the implementation of alcohol MUP legislation.

Our findings indicate that the implementation of alcohol MUP legislation in May, 2018 in Scotland led to significant reductions in deaths, and reductions in hospitalisations, wholly attributable to alcohol consumption. We evaluated effect modification of the legislation and found that reductions were largest in the 40% most socioeconomically deprived areas, and for males. These are groups that experience disproportionately high levels of alcohol health harms. This evidence from our study is consistent with the theory of change underpinning the legislation, and shows that alcohol MUP has reduced alcohol health harms.

Implications of all the available evidence

Previous evidence had indicated that the implementation of alcohol MUP reduced population-level alcohol sales by 3%. Other studies have found that the greatest reductions in alcohol purchasing were observed in households that purchased the most alcohol before the policy was implemented, with very little or no impact on those purchasing at lower levels. Our study illustrates how alcohol health harms have changed due to the implementation of this legislation, both overall and by population subgroup. Previous studies have indicated that the subgroups experiencing the greatest alcohol health harms tend to purchase the cheapest alcohol, and that most dose–response curves between alcohol consumption and adverse health outcomes show that the largest impacts could occur through shifts in consumption in the heaviest drinkers. Our findings indicate that the largest reductions in harms were in subgroups known to be experiencing disproportionately higher levels of alcohol health harms. In combination with the previous evidence on alcohol sales, our study suggests that a 3% reduction in population-level alcohol sales led to a 13% significant reduction in deaths, and 4% reduction in hospitalisations, wholly attributable to alcohol consumption.

spirits, cider, and perry through the off-trade (ie, the sale of alcohol for consumption off the premises, such as from supermarkets).[21] Increases in average prices were higher in Scotland, compared with England and Wales, in the year following MUP being implemented.[22] Whether the legislation led to reductions in alcohol-attributable deaths and hospitalisations at a population level is not known. Previous evidence has illustrated that immediate impacts on outcomes wholly attributable to alcohol are plausible, following changes in consumption.[23]

The aim of this paper was to estimate the effect of alcohol MUP legislation on deaths and hospitalisations wholly attributable to alcohol consumption.

Methods

Study design

The study setting was Scotland, a country of the UK with a residential population of 5·5 million that implemented a policy legislating MUP for alcohol, where a single unit is equivalent to 10 mL or 8 g of pure alcohol. We used a controlled interrupted time series study design to estimate the impact of MUP on study outcomes, incorporating data from England, a part of the UK where the legislation was not implemented, to form a control group.[24] Study outcomes were included for people aged 16 years and older. A summary of the study flow is presented in diagrammatic form (appendix p 3). We published a pre-specified statistical analysis plan before undertaking the study, and report minor changes to our pre-specified approach (appendix p 14).[25] This study is reported in adherence with the STROBE statement (appendix p 15).[26]

Study data and outcomes

For Scotland and England, we obtained routinely collected data on deaths and hospitalisations for causes wholly attributable to alcohol consumption before the legislation was implemented (Jan 1, 2012, to April 30, 2018) and 32 months thereafter (May 1, 2018, to Dec 31, 2020, inclusive).[3,27–29] Wholly attributable causes were defined using International Statistical Classification of Diseases and Related Health Problems 10th revision (ICD-10) codes, for each calendar month (appendix p 4). Deaths were defined using the underlying cause of death and registered date of death. Hospitalisations were defined using the main diagnosis and date of admission. Where multiple study outcomes were identified in a single month, the details of the first hospitalisation were chosen. Each study outcome was further defined by sex and age group (16–34 years, 35–64 years, and ≥65 years), using routinely collected individual-level characteristic data. Furthermore, we stratified study outcomes by socioeconomic deprivation group. This was achieved by linking each individual's postcode of residence to deprivation deciles based on small-level administrative geographies, as a proxy for individual-level socioeconomic status.[30,31] The Scottish Index of Multiple Deprivation was used to assign Scottish outcomes, and the Index of Multiple Deprivation was used to map English outcomes. These indices are commonly used in routine reporting of statistics from public health institutes, and are used to rank the distribution of within-country deprivation. Further information on study outcome definitions and allocation to deprivation deciles is published elsewhere.[25]

We sourced estimates of mid-year residential populations for each country by sex, age group, deprivation decile, and year.[32,33] Monthly populations were estimated using linear interpolation between mid-year population estimates. Additionally, we also sourced data on the level of COVID-19 restrictions imposed during the part of the study period that overlapped with the COVID-19 pandemic, separately for the governments of the UK and Scotland.[34]

Statistical analysis

We estimated monthly rates per 100 000 residential population for each study outcome for each country, overall, and for each population subgroup. Monthly rates were adjusted to account for differences in month length. Monthly rates were decomposed into trend (the increasing or decreasing value) and seasonal (the monthly seasonal pattern) components using seasonal-trend decomposition LOESS methodology.[35] When evidence of residual seasonality was present, adjustments were made to the seasonal window parameter until no patterning in the residuals remained.

We used controlled interrupted time series methods with seasonal autoregressive integrated moving average (SARIMA) errors to assess the effect of MUP legislation on study outcomes.[36] Interrupted time series methods are appropriate to apply to outcomes consistently identified before, and after, an intervention of interest. Adjustments for underlying temporal and seasonal trends were incorporated.[37] Models were also adjusted for the level of government restrictions imposed over time, and by country, during the COVID-19 pandemic, using the Oxford COVID-19 Government Response Tracker (OxCGRT).[34] The OxCGRT is an index, ranging from 0 to 100, that incorporates systematic information on containment, economic, health system, and vaccine policy measures that governments implemented throughout the COVID-19 pandemic. Higher values indicate more stringent restrictions. Weighted averages were calculated using daily values so that the index value represented full monthly periods. The OxCGRT took a value of 0 for all months before the start of the pandemic.

We included a binary variable to reflect the implementation of MUP legislation in Scotland, taking a value of 0 from Jan 1, 2012, to April 30, 2018, and a value of 1 from May 1, 2018, to Dec 31, 2020 (inclusive). England was defined as the control group, where the legislation was not implemented.

We log-transformed rates and derived models for each study outcome for Scotland and England separately. We then used the control group data from England as a covariate in the Scottish SARIMA models to produce controlled models. Model effect estimates and 95% CIs were transformed to the absolute scale. A p-value cutoff of less than 0·05 was used to determine whether effect estimates were statistically significant for primary outcomes. Confidence intervals were not adjusted for multiplicity, so should not be used in place of hypothesis testing for subgroup analyses. To assess effect modification, we undertook exploratory analysis of study outcomes across a range of demographic and socioeconomic deprivation subgroups. The term significant is reserved to describe statistically significant results. When other effects have been observed that are not statistically significant, but might be of clinical or public health importance, we report the direction of the effect estimate. Further information on the methods used can be found in our pre-specified statistical analysis plan.[25]

EViews 13 software was used to undertake all time series decompositions, and all interrupted time series modelling was carried out using the econometrics toolbox from MATLAB 9.1 Update 2.

Sensitivity analyses

We pre-specified several sensitivity analyses to test the robustness of study findings on primary study outcomes. These included: modelling the difference between the Scottish and English time series, instead of incorporating English data as a covariate in Scottish SARIMA models; using an unobserved components model to estimate the effect; removing the COVID-19 pandemic post-intervention period; using subnational regions of England as a control group as they were potentially more similar to Scotland; and adopting the use of a non-geographical control group.[38] We selected genitourinary conditions as the non-geographical control group. This choice was made on the basis of ensuring that the choice of non-geographical control was not attributable to alcohol consumption; not expected to have been influenced by MUP; and was unlikely to have been displaced as a cause of death due to the emergence of COVID-19. We also did a falsification test by modelling the impact of MUP legislation as if MUP had been implemented 6 months before the actual intervention.

Role of the funding source

The funder of the study had no role in study design, data collection, data analysis, data interpretation, or writing of the report.

Results

The rate of deaths wholly attributable to alcohol consumption was relatively stable in both Scotland and England throughout the study period (figure 1). The underlying decomposed trend rate was approximately two deaths per month per 100 000 population in Scotland before the implementation of MUP legislation, approximately double the decomposed trend rate in England. Before the implementation of MUP legislation, there was a slight increase in the decomposed trend rate of deaths wholly attributable to alcohol consumption in Scotland, which decreased following the implementation of MUP legislation. From late 2019 to the end of the study period, the rate of deaths wholly attributable to alcohol consumption increased in both Scotland and England, and was the highest across the entire study period. Seasonality in the rate of deaths wholly attributable to alcohol consumption was evident in both Scotland and England, with rates peaking in January each year. The contribution of seasonality to the overall time series was stable throughout the full study period.

The rate of hospitalisations wholly attributable to alcohol consumption remained stable for both Scotland and England, for the entirety of the study period (figure 2). The decomposed trend rate was around 20 hospitalisations per month per 100 000 population in Scotland, almost double the decomposed trend rate for England. The rate dropped to the lowest point in April, 2020, the first month in which a national lockdown had been implemented in both countries as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. Seasonality in the rate of hospitalisations wholly attributable to alcohol consumption was clear in Scotland and England, with rates peaking in July of each year. The contribution of seasonality to the overall time series was stable throughout the full study period.

In the 32 months following the implementation of MUP legislation, the policy was associated with a significant 13·4% decrease (95% CI –18·4 to –8·3; p=0·0004) in deaths wholly attributable to alcohol consumption compared with what would have been observed in the absence of MUP legislation (table 1). On average, 156 (–243 to –69) deaths wholly attributable to alcohol consumption were estimated to have been averted each year due to the implementation of MUP. These effects were driven by a significant decrease in chronic deaths wholly attributable to alcohol consumption (–14·9%, –20·8 to –8·5; p<0·0001). MUP implementation was also associated with significant reductions in deaths due to alcoholic liver disease (–11·7%, –16·7 to –6·4; p<0·0001) and alcohol dependence syndrome (–23·0%, –36·9 to –6·0; p=0·0093).

On average, and after 32 months, the implementation of alcohol MUP legislation was associated with a 4·1% decrease (95% CI –8·3 to 0·3; p=0·064) in hospitalisations wholly attributable to alcohol consumption (table 1). Contributing to this estimate, significant reductions in hospitalisations due to chronic conditions (–7·3%, –9·5 to –4·9; p<0·0001) were slightly offset with potential increases in hospitalisations due to acute conditions (9·9%, –1·1 to 22·0; p=0·076). MUP implementation was also associated with significant reductions in hospitalisations for alcoholic liver disease (−9·8%, −17·5 to −1·3; p=0·023) and alcohol psychoses (−7·2%, −12·9 to −1·1; p=0·019), as well as significant increases in hospitalisations for alcohol dependence syndrome (7·2%, 0·3 to 14·7; p=0·039). Further results on uncontrolled country-specific models can be found in the appendix (pp 8–9).

Subgroup analyses showed that MUP legislation was associated with reductions in deaths wholly attributable to alcohol consumption in males; females; 35–64 year olds; those aged 65 years and older; and the four most socioeconomically deprived decile groups (table 2). For hospitalisations wholly attributable to alcohol consumption, subgroup analyses indicated that MUP legislation was associated with reductions in males; 35–64 year olds; and the four most socioeconomically deprived decile groups. Further subgroup results for controlled and country-specific uncontrolled models can be found in the appendix (pp 5–13).

The effect size of the primary deaths outcome varied from −13·8% to −11·6% across sensitivity analyses (table 3). The effect size reduced (−2·1%, 95% CI −11·7 to 8·5) when we modelled the introduction of alcohol MUP legislation 6 months before the actual implementation, increasing confidence that the significant reduction in the primary deaths outcome was attributable to the implementation of alcohol MUP legislation.

There was some variation in effect size of our primary hospitalisations outcome across sensitivity analyses (table 3). Using a different analytical method, and restricting the time series to pre-pandemic periods, yielded the most similar results. Furthermore, the effect size reduced (−0·2%, 95% CI −4·1 to 3·9) when we modelled the introduction of alcohol MUP legislation 6 months before the actual implementation, increasing confidence that the reduction in the primary hospitalisations outcome was attributable to the implementation of alcohol MUP legislation.

Discussion

Across 32 months of implementation, we found a significant 13% reduction in deaths wholly attributable to alcohol consumption compared with our best estimate of what would have been expected had the legislation not been implemented. This is equivalent to avoiding 156 deaths per year, on average. There was a corresponding estimated reduction of 4% in hospitalisations for conditions wholly attributable to alcohol consumption, equivalent to avoiding 411 hospitalisations per year, on average. The use of a controlled interrupted time series study design allowed us to infer that the estimated impacts were plausible causal effects attributable to MUP legislation.

Exploratory analyses indicated that the largest reductions were estimated in the 40% most socioeconomically deprived areas in Scotland, indicating that the implementation of MUP has had a positive impact in tackling deprivation-based health inequalities in alcohol health harms. The implementation of MUP legislation was associated with reductions in deaths wholly attributable to alcohol consumption for males and females. Furthermore, we found associated reductions in the age groups of 35–64 years and 65 years and older, but were unable to evaluate change in the 16–34 years age group due to the relatively small number of deaths for this group. The positive impact of MUP legislation by population subgroup was generally similar for hospitalisations, although to a lesser degree.

We found potential indications that MUP was associated with a worsening of acute outcomes for deaths and hospitalisations wholly attributable to alcohol consumption. These findings are in contrast to findings from previous observational studies.[12] Acute outcomes are a relatively small proportion of alcohol harms, around 5% of alcohol-specific deaths in Scotland, and these estimates therefore had a large degree of associated uncertainty.[3] However, the findings were consistent across almost all subgroups. One identified plausible mechanism was that some subgroups reduced their spending on food or lowered their food intake due to the financial pressures of the policy being implemented, which might have led to faster intoxication or poisoning.[39] Findings from another study offer another potential explanation, reporting evidence of switching of consumption from lower to higher alcohol-by-volume products (eg, cider to spirits), which could lead to quicker intoxication.[18] These findings underscore the importance of ensuring timely, accessible services for those dependent on alcohol to coincide with the implementation of population-level policies. We estimated that reductions in chronic outcomes, particularly alcoholic liver disease, drove changes in total outcomes, offsetting the potential adverse consequence on acute outcomes. Taking both of these findings together indicates that the implementation of MUP has had a net benefit in reducing deaths and hospitalisations wholly attributable to alcohol consumption.

Our study has several strengths. Our study outcome definitions are wholly attributable to harmful levels of consumption of alcohol, and have been coded using internationally agreed definitions. We used high-quality data sources, pertaining to individual deaths and hospitalisations with recorded person-specific demographic attributes. Both UK countries under study have a universal health-care system free at the point of use, so there was minimal risk of sampling or recruitment bias. Many other health outcomes are known to be partially attributable to alcohol consumption, such as liver cancer and liver cirrhosis. The attributable fraction for these outcomes is estimated under the hypothetical assumption that the attributable fraction is based on reducing alcohol consumption to a theoretical minimum risk exposure level. Lag periods between changes in consumption and the occurrence of the attributable harm would vary across outcomes; for example, changes in liver cancer outcomes would take longer to emerge, relative to liver cirrhosis outcomes. Furthermore, alcohol consumption is only one of a range of possible causative factors that could influence the occurrence of these outcomes. In the context of our study design with monthly outcomes, there would be increased uncertainty over associating changes in partially attributable outcomes with the implementation of MUP. In terms of other possible study outcomes, all-cause mortality is a frequently used outcome. However, it has been suggested that evaluating changes in all-cause mortality due to changes in alcohol consumption might not be suitable, given that the distribution of all-cause mortality in those at risk of alcohol health harms is different to the distribution in society as a whole.[40]

Table 3: Change in outcomes from controlled models associated with the implementation of alcohol minimum unit pricing legislation, by sensitivity analyses

Study outcomes were assessed using a controlled interrupted time series study design, allowing us to determine the difference between outcomes we observed and our best representation of what might have happened under the counterfactual situation that MUP legislation was not enacted in Scotland. We therefore have increased certainty that our findings were associated with the implementation of MUP legislation, rather than unexplained factors impacting the occurrence of alcohol health harms. There were no biases related to the timing of, or deviation from, the policy intervention or measurement of study outcomes.[41] Bias due to confounding was minimised through measuring outcomes over a long pre-intervention study period in monthly increments, to appropriately characterise pre-intervention trends and patterns, in both countries. As the MUP policy is highly publicised, the context and awareness regarding the policy was not experienced equally in Scotland and England. However, this is unlikely to have influenced the recording of study outcomes, as records for deaths and hospital diagnoses are coded using agreed standards. Our choice of control group was England, a neighbouring country with the same UK government, economy, and culture. We incorporated the level of country-specific COVID-19-related restrictions, which meant that the timing of restrictions was well aligned with England as a whole. Using regions of England as our primary control group would have potentially meant that differences in timing of regional COVID-19 waves, and subsequent pressures on services, might not have always aligned well with country-level restrictions. However, we also did sensitivity analyses by altering our control group to the North East and North West regions of England, areas that directly border Scotland. Although cross-border purchases from Scotland to England might have occurred, they are likely to be infrequent, and unlikely to have a major impact on our reported effect sizes due to the low population density around the Scottish–English border.[42,43]

Part of our time series data covered a period of the COVID-19 pandemic. During this period, restrictions on the purchasing of alcohol were imposed for on-trade premises (eg, pubs and restaurants).[44] Although on-trade premises were largely unaffected by MUP, these restrictions had the potential to affect the level of alcohol health harms. Furthermore, COVID-19 and associated protection measures had a substantial impact on hospital capacity, and individuals reported increased reluctance in interacting with health-care services for immediate medical concerns during this period.[45,46] We adjusted for temporal and country-specific differences in the extent of restrictions, and acknowledge that the COVID-19 pandemic increases the uncertainty of our findings related to hospitalisations. We included sensitivity analyses to assess the impact of MUP legislation before the COVID-19 pandemic, as a means of removing the pandemic-related uncertainty, which yielded similar effect sizes as our main analyses. We also did a range of pre-specified sensitivity analyses to test the robustness of the study findings and obtained largely similar results, validating the interpretation of the main study findings. However, we found some variations across sensitivity analyses for the primary hospitalisations outcome relating to different geographical choices of a control group. This might, in part, be explained by differences in the timing of regional waves of COVID-19 cases leading to temporal differences in pressures on hospital capacity.

A previous study has indicated that the implementation of MUP legislation reduced alcohol sales by 3%.[21] This finding relates to the change in overall population-level alcohol sales, and might mask important subgroup-specific changes in sales and consumption. Indeed, the greatest reductions in alcohol purchasing were observed in households that purchased the most alcohol before the policy was implemented, with very little or no impact on those purchasing at lower levels.[17,42,47] This is consistent with the theory of change that underpinned the legislation. Our study reports on the final intended outcome and finds that this reduction in sales led to a 13% reduction in deaths and a 4% reduction in hospitalisations. The methods used suggest plausibility that these effects can be causally attributed to MUP.[48] Our findings are most positive for socioeconomically deprived groups and males, which is consistent with the intended impact of MUP legislation in tackling subgroups experiencing disproportionately high levels of alcohol health harms. Previous evidence has illustrated that the subgroups experiencing the greatest alcohol health harms tend to purchase the cheapest alcohol.[11] Furthermore, most dose–response curves between consumption and alcohol health harms are exponential, meaning that risk reductions are greater for changes in heavier drinkers, compared with moderate drinkers, if both groups were to reduce their consumption by the same level.[49] Our findings show larger relative effect sizes for deaths than hospitalisations outcomes. This could partly be because increasing the lifespan of individuals by averting alcohol-attributable deaths might increase the need for health-care support. It is likely that the deaths that were averted were in subgroups that remain vulnerable to alcohol health harms and require additional preventive, planned, and unplanned support from health-care services.

Published estimates have indicated a recent worsening in alcohol-specific mortality in both Scotland and England.[2] Our study period did not include these recent data. However, the increase in the rate in Scotland from 2020 to 2021 (4%) was lower than in England (7%). It is therefore unlikely that the inclusion of more recent data would have altered our main findings.

In conclusion, the implementation of MUP legislation in Scotland has led to significant overall reductions in deaths, and reductions in hospitalisations, wholly attributable to alcohol consumption. Furthermore, the legislation has had a positive impact in tackling alcohol-related health inequalities.

AROUND THE CAPITOL

The Senate approved five bills on the floor today, sending four down to the Governor and one over to the House for the first time. The Senate also confirmed Kayla Lyon as the director of the DNR on a 40-9 vote. The Senate approved all five bills on unanimous votes, including SF 2414 UST FUNDS and HF 2308 DISASTER RELIEF FUNDING. SF 2414 moves $6 million from the Petroleum UST fund to the Groundwater Protection fund and brings the Petroleum UST fund and board to an end, transferring duties with the DNR.

The House approved seven bills, with five going to the Governor, one returning to the Senate with an amendment and one going over to the Senate for the first time.

The House approved SF 2252 MOMS PROGRAM, which expands the MOMS program, on a 61-34 party-line vote. Representative Bergan said that the changes in the bill update the program and make more products and services available to mothers. Representative Baeth said that such programs can lack safeguards to ensure that the personnel who are certified to perform procedures such as ultrasounds. The House approved SF 2251 GOVERNOR POST-PARTUM COVERAGE on a 70-25 vote. The bill expands the number of months that a mother covered under Medicaid is eligible for post-partum coverage to 12 months but decreases the income level for qualifying for Medicaid coverage. The LSA estimates that the bill will make about 1,300 women currently eligible for coverage have incomes that would prevent them ineligible under the lower income levels Some of those women will be shifted over to HAWK-I. Overall, with the cost increases and savings, the bill is expected to cost the state about $3.3 million in FY 2026 and Representative Wood said mothers currently receiving post-partum services under Medicaid will be grandfathered into the expansion. Representative Matson offered an amendment to strike the changes in eligibility, which was rejected on a largely party-line 60-35 vote. Representative Konfrst said that House Democrats support expanding Medicaid post-partum coverage but object to the Republicans insisting on reducing eligibility in the bill. She said that the cost savings measures in the bill will lead to far greater costs for Iowa mothers who wind up uninsured due to the bill. Democrats said that federal law prevents the state from disenrolling women who are currently on Medicaid. They said that the bill will lead to less insurance coverage for mothers.

The House approved SF 2391 MISBRANDING MEAT on a 60-34 party-line vote. Representative Hora said that the bill is a truth-in-labeling bill and will protect Iowa agriculture. Democrats said that they support the labeling requirements but objected to the provisions which would ban the purchase of some alternative products from the SNAP & WIC programs, and other state buyers.

COMMITTEE WORK

The Senate Ways & Means Committee moved nine bill forward including HF 2639 GADSDEN PLATES ON a 12-6 vote after amending the bill to strike the provisions that allow a county name on a license plate to be covered. Democrats said that the bill offers special treatment denied other groups to the NRA to help it with its financial problems. Senator Cournoyer said that the decision to pay extra for a Gadsen plate is voluntary and does not involve state funding. The committee approved SSB 3195 CONSUMABLE HEMP DRAM SHOP to require places that allow hemp products to be consumed on-premises to have insurance comparable to Dram Shop insurance. Several Democrats voted against the bill and asked whether such insurance is currently available.

REYNOLD'S LAWSUIT STATEMENT

Governor Reynolds issued the following statement in response to the lawsuit from AG Bird challenging the Greenhouse Gas Disclosure Rule from the SEC. Reynolds said:

> Joe Biden has become a radical climate alarmist, seeking to transform every agency, including the SEC, into his personal EPA. The SEC is not a climate regulator, and the Greenhouse Gas Disclosure Rule is not constitutional. I appreciate Attorney General Bird taking the lead on this lawsuit, taking Biden to court yet again. It has become increasingly clear that the Biden Administration wants to destroy America's energy independence, trounce on the sovereign rights of states, and cripple the livelihoods of American workers.

RFRA STATEMENTS

Governor Reynolds proclaimed April 3 as UI Women's Wrestling Day after the adoption of resolutions in the House and Senate (SR 107/HR 114 UI WOMEN'S WRESTLING) today.

Governor Reynolds released a statement on the signing of SF 2095, the state Religious Freedom Restoration Act. She said:

> Thirty years ago, the Religious Freedom Restoration Act passed almost unanimously at the federal level. Since then, religious rights have increasingly come under attack. Today, Iowa enacts a law to protect these unalienable rights - just as twenty-six other states have done - upholding the ideals that are the very foundation of our country.

Representative James, the House Minority Whip, released a statement for House Democrats:

> This bill is not about religious liberty - it's about weaponizing religion to justify discrimination. It's wrong. This bill opens the door for a business to deny services to an LGBTQ+ patron, a landlord to evict a single mom from because she's not married, for a pharmacist to deny a birth control prescription on religious grounds. It's no surprise the Governor signed the bill behind closed doors with the biggest special interest group in Iowa, an organization that wants to ban all abortions, ban gay marriage, and ban books. This has never been about people, it's all politics.

Senator Weiner released a statement for Senate Democrats:

> Tonight, Governor Kim Reynolds went behind closed doors to sign into law an unjust, discriminatory bill. It may help her politically, but it will hurt Iowans and undermine economic opportunity in our state. Iowans don't want legalized discrimination," Weiner said. They don't want someone to be able to refuse to rent to someone or serve someone based on religious or moral beliefs. What they want is justice and fairness and economic opportunity and personal freedom. The so-called RFRA law is an attack on all of those Iowa values - and we'll be paying the price for a long time to come.

Governor Reynolds released a statement on signing SF 2096 GENDER BALANCE today, which strikes the requirements for boards and commissions to be gender balanced:

> I believe that our focus should always be on appointing the most qualified people. That includes engaged citizens with a genuine interest in serving their state or local community, as well as individuals with valuable experience that directly relates to the position. This approach ensures that boards and commissions at all levels of government are effective and that each one serves Iowans well. That's exactly what this bill aims to accomplish.

Question: I am scheduling a weekly 30 minute meeting as a follow up to the March 27th meeting? And is the invite list below correct?

I found a meeting that Lori L scheduled on 3/27

Here is what she put in the body of the meeting: We have been conversing with Amy Hance re our IVE claiming and want to talk internally about how data elements flow through the systems, populate fiscal reports and whether we are within the policy guidelines on our claiming.

This is the group she included.

Hello everyone. Based on our discussion today, we need to have more discussion about what's happening with the caseload count data being reported for title IV-E Foster Care Candidates (not Prevention Plan candidates) and children in title IV-E FC placements for Iowa's CB-496 reports. As noted, there is a significant discrepancy between what's being reported for caseload counts in both populations across administration claiming (Case Planning and Management Administration vs. Independent Legal Representation) where it should be comparable (see attached spreadsheet). From what David shared, the Case Planning and Management Administration caseload data is pulled from DHHS sources and the Independent Legal Representation data is entered on the form as reported by the State Public Defender's office.

I am also sharing Children's Bureau policy guidance pertaining to Title IV-E candidates for foster care found in the CB Child Welfare Policy Manual online. During the call today, I was referencing Question 2 found in this section but I encourage you to review any/all questions as you see necessary.
https://acf.hhs.gov/cwpm/public_html/programs/cb/laws_policies/laws/cwpm/policy_dsp.jsp?citID=79

Wendy Sheetz and I had a conversation about these candidates last Spring and she shared a reference to Iowa's Employee Manual 18-Appendix. It's on page 119 (see attached).

If I missed sharing anything that you anticipated seeing, please let me know and I will share.

As you know, I will be in Des Moines (at the 525 SW 5th Street Building) next week on Monday and Tuesday but I can drive to another location as well. If you are available, I have time on Monday (3/11) between 11AM-1PM and then again at 3PM. I also have time on Tuesday morning before 10:30AM. If those dates/times won't work, we can revisit dates/times for a Teams call just let me know.

Thank you!

- Summary and Analysis of Safety/Risk Assessments.

  Provide a narrative description of the family safety concerns by addressing the following:

  - Given the child(ren)'s level of vulnerability, what are the concerns and/or threats of danger in everyday life of the family?   Provide a narrative description of individual parent/caretaker concerns by addressing the following:

  - Describe what individual issues parents/caretakers have that need to be better managed or replaced so that the family tasks can go better (i.e. new plans for managing anger/control issues, improving emotional stability, stopping or limiting use of substances, managing sexual behavior, etc.) and what kind of new plan needs to be in place to ensure child safety and well-being.

  Provide a narrative description of family consensus regarding safety concerns by addressing the following:

  - What is the level of consensus with the family regarding the safety concerns and/or threats of danger described above?

- Addendum to Safety Assessment Summary. Use this section to update or edit the Safety Assessment Summary, based off the last Safety Assessment completed. This field appears only in addendum status.

- Final Risk Level. The neglect, abuse, and scored risk levels are pulled in from the Family Risk Assessment completed through the Family Risk Assessment tab of the STAR Assessment module in JARVIS. If the Family Risk Assessment has not been completed, levels will not appear in these three sections.

  The final risk level is used to determine what the client's service eligibility is in based on findings, age, and risk.

  Review and consider information gathered from child and family interviews, collateral contacts, Department service records, and all prior assessments.

- Recommendation for Service. The finding of the child abuse assessment and the family risk score determine the family's eligibility for information or information and referral, non-agency voluntary services, or Department services.

When the family is being referred to non-agency voluntary services, document the actions developed jointly with the family to address identified needs. The plan of action should relate directly to the presenting problems and your analysis of family functioning:

- Consider if there are current resources, services, and supports available to the family that can meet the family's needs and increase protection for the child.
- Identify services and supports provided to the family that have failed to prevent the child's abuse or reabuse.
- Consider if caretakers refuse needed services or supports despite protective concerns, increasing children's risk.
- Document your recommendation for services.

When the family is eligible for non-agency voluntary services, but is not being referred, indicate the exception reason.

When the family is being referred for Department services, identify the prevention services to meet the foster care prevention strategy and describe what that prevention strategy is.

When the family is eligible for Department services, but is not being referred, indicate the exception reason.

Document any additional service information that is needed.

- Recommendations for Court Involvement. Enter your recommendations for juvenile or criminal court involvement.
  - If you recommend juvenile court involvement, include:
    - A summary of the status of any current juvenile court involvement if the child is already adjudicated or adjudication is pending.
    - Your specific recommendations to the county attorney on the initiation or continuation of juvenile court action.
    - Your rationale to support that recommendation (e.g., family with founded abuse has refused offer of Department services).
  - If you do not recommend juvenile court involvement, include under "Type of Action Requested" your rationale to support that recommendation (i.e., court is not recommended as abuse was not confirmed, or was confirmed or founded but low-risk).
  - If you recommend criminal court involvement, include:
    - Reference to any joint assessment with law enforcement.
    - The status of the criminal investigation when charges have already been filed in a matter.

- Within 24 hours of the first contact with the adult subject, and
- Before closing the adult protective evaluation or assessment.

The adult protective worker must complete the Dependency Assessment portion before the end of the dependent adult protective evaluation or assessment.

The adult protective worker must complete the Risk Assessment portions before the end of the dependent adult protective evaluation or assessment.

Distribution

The Dependent Adult Assessment Tool is not distributed as part of the Dependent Adult Protective Services Evaluation or Assessment Summary. Print the Dependent Adult Assessment Tool and keep it in the case file.

Data

Asterisked (*) items are generated by the DARES database if the information has been entered into DARES. The adult subject's name, date of birth, age, form of alleged maltreatment, and caretaker, if applicable, are pulled from household composition.

Safety Assessment (Initial and Final)

If any of 2 through 6 are No or 7 through 14 are Yes, assist the adult subject, caretaker, service providers, and support system to take steps to alleviate the safety issues. This may be done by:

- Obtaining medical care or placement,
- Engaging additional formal and informal supports,
- Safety planning,
- Use of law enforcement, or
- Seeking legal intervention.

DARES will narrow the results of the safety decision in compliance with the scoring instructions. Only the subsequent safety status score is pulled from DARES and populates into form 470-0688, Dependent Adult Protective Services Evaluation or Assessment Summary.

Initial Safety Decision

Check the box to indicate your determination as to whether the dependent adult is "safe," "conditionally safe," "unsafe," or "unable to remediate safety concerns." When selecting "unable to remediate safety concerns," the adult protective worker must select one of the following reasons why:

- Protective order requested but not granted.
- Dependent adult has the capacity to consent and is refusing services.
- Dependent adult has accepted some, but not all of the recommended services.
- Other. If selecting other, please provide a brief explanation.

Dependency Assessment

Health conditions and diagnoses: Enter medical information. Document the overall condition of the adult, any existing allergies, and behavioral indicators or observations of health.

Medications: Enter all the adult's medications.

Current services: Enter Yes or No for each question. Use "Other" for services not represented on the list. Explain all other services not on the list.

Cognitive impairments: Enter Yes or No for each question. Completing IQ is optional. Explain any temporary conditions.

Cognitive screening: Enter the type of mental status screening tool conducted. If the mental status screening tool used by the adult protective worker or other qualified professional is not represented in the list, select "other." List the score and what the score means pertaining to the adult subject's cognition. Screening will allow the adult protective worker to determine if the adult subject needs a more comprehensive assessment on capacity to consent.

Physical impairments: Enter Yes or No for each question. Explain if necessary.

Katz (Activities of Daily Living) (ADL): The Katz Index ranks adequacy of performance in the six functions of bathing, dressing, toileting, transferring, continence, and feeding. Clients are scored for independence in each of the six functions.

Each category has a check box. DARES calculates the score. Completion of all questions is required. A score of six indicates full function; four indicates moderate impairment; and two or less indicates severe functional impairment.

Lawton – Brody Instrumental Activities of Daily Living Scale (IADL): The IADL is an appropriate instrument to assess independent living skills. These skills are considered more complex than the basic activities of daily living as measured by the Katz Index.

The instrument is most useful for identifying how a person is functioning now and identifying improvement or deterioration over time. There are eight domains of function measured with the Lawton IADL scale.

To obtain a score for each category, check the box for the item description that most closely resembles the client's highest independence level. Each category requires one box to be checked. The total score ranges from zero which indicates low functioning to eight which indicates high functioning.

Summary of dependency status: Determine if the information collected through the dependency portion of your assessment indicates the adult subject (alleged victim) is dependent.

Use the narrative to summarize the evidence gathered through the dependency assessment to support or refute that the adult subject is a dependent adult. A diagnosis or level of care alone is not sufficient to determine a person is a dependent adult. A worker needs to describe the impairments in functioning using the objective measures mentioned above. An adult subject may be impaired in some domains of functioning and not others.

Only the "Summary of dependency status" narrative is pulled from DARES and populates form 470-0688, Dependent Adult Protective Services Evaluation or Assessment Summary.

Adult Subject Risk of Abuse or Neglect Assessment

The risk assessment must be completed by the conclusion of the assessment or evaluation.

The scored risk levels are pulled from the risk assessment of the adult subject and the alleged person responsible that are completed through DARES for the incident. If the risk assessments have not been completed, levels will not appear in the printed version.

The final risk level score is pulled from DARES and populates form 470-0688, Dependent Adult Protective Services Evaluation or Assessment Summary, under "Final Risk Level." The DARES system uses this score to determine what the client's periodic visit eligibility is based on, age, dependency status, mitigating interventions, and risk level.

Summary and Analysis of Safety Constructs Narrative

- Describe the threats of maltreatment that are present at this time (i.e., aggravating factors that combine to produce a potentially dangerous situation).

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

IA-DHHS-24-0418-A-009018

Employee Manual 18-Appendix.pdf <extracted> for Printed Item: 275 (Attachment 2 of 5)

- Describe the adult subject's vulnerability to maltreatment (i.e., the degree that the adult subject cannot on the adult's own avoid, negate, or minimize the impact of present or impending danger).
- Describe the adult subject and caretaker or alleged person responsible protective capacities (i.e., family, household, or support system strengths or resources that reduce, control, or prevent threats of maltreatment from arising and the factors and deficiencies that have a negative impact on the adult subject's safety).

Policy Overrides

After completing the risk scales, determine if any of the policy overrides should be applied. Policy overrides reflect incident seriousness and adult subject vulnerability concerns. They upgrade the risk level to "high" regardless of the scored risk level.

Discretionary override reason: After completing the risk scales, determine if a discretionary override should be applied to increase the risk level. Use a discretionary override when you are aware of unique case circumstances that warrant a higher risk level. You must receive supervisory approval for a discretionary override. The discretionary override may raise the risk level only one level higher. The risk level may not be lowered by a discretionary override.

Supervisor's Review/Approval of Discretionary Override: Enter a signature.

Date: Enter the date.

Dependent Adult Protective Services Evaluation or Assessment Summary, Form 470-0688

Purpose

Form 470-0688 provides identifying information about the adult subject and the household in which the adult subject resides. This summary addresses the abuse reported and the determination of whether abuse occurred.

The form assesses the adult subject's safety when an evaluation or assessment of the reported incident is conducted. The form also documents the assessment of risk, dependency, household strengths and needs, and recommendations for services or court intervention as indicated.

If abuse is confirmed, the summary identifies the person responsible for the abuse and indicates whether the incident requires placement on the Central Abuse Registry.

Source

This form may be completed online, including the narrative, using the DARES system.

Completion

The adult protective worker who completes the evaluation or assessment completes the form. The supervisor approves and signs off on the final report.

Distribution

Automatically provide the summary to the county attorney. Keep a copy in the case record.

For an inter-county referral, also send one copy to the referring or receiving county attorney.

- If you do not recommend district court involvement, include under "type of action requested" your rationale to support that recommendation (i.e., court is not recommended as abuse was unfounded, or was confirmed or founded but low risk).
- If you recommend criminal court involvement, include:
  - Reference to any joint assessment with law enforcement.
  - The status of the criminal investigation when charges have already been filed in a matter.
  - Your specific recommendation to the county attorney regarding the initiation of any criminal prosecution.

- Family Case Plan, Part B
- Child Placement Plan, Part C
- Family Functioning Domain Criteria, form 470-4138 (also located on SharePoint under Employee Manual/Forms), which explains what information, child/family issues, and assessment criteria should be considered in each of the five domain areas
- Family Risk Reassessment, form 470-4134

Completion

The DHS social work case manager assigned to the child and family is responsible for preparing the case plan to provide a comprehensive assessment view of the child and family that focuses on the major needs of the child, the parents, and, if applicable, the foster parents related to child safety, permanency, and well-being.

The case plan must be completed within 60 calendar days from the date the Department opens a DHS child welfare service case.

The case plan must be reviewed and updated:

- At a minimum, every six months thereafter while the case remains open, or
- More frequently if there are significant changes or if required by the court.

Information on the child and family entered in the FACS system automatically completes the case plan. Information not entered in FACS will not appear in the case plan. The worker must enter this information when the case plan is prepared.

Distribution

Obtain the necessary signatures on the plan and indicate which persons participated in developing or reviewing the plan:

- Distribute the Family Case Plan, including the Family Case Plan Face Sheet, when it is first developed to all of the persons listed on the "Signatures and Notifications" page.
- Distribute copies of any altered or revised case plan, including Part A, Part B, and Part C, if applicable, and the completed review section, to all of the persons listed on the "Signatures and Notifications" page.
- Print a copy of all initial and reviewed case plans, including Part A, Part B, and Part C, if applicable, and the completed review section and place the copy in the case file.

Data

A. Family Case Plan Face Sheet

The face sheet includes identification, statistical, historical, service summary, and placement information for the family.

- Identifying information: Enter information on the child's name, FACS ID, date of birth, address, and family members is automatically entered from the FACS system.
- Service History and Placement History: Enter information about services opened for the child and family in the FACS system is automatically entered from the FACS system.
- Additional Services Provided: The social work case manager completes this section. (This data is not contained in the FACS system.) Once entered, this information will be saved and become part of the case plan history over the life of the case.
- Court Involvement: The social work case manager enters information on any court involvement into FACS on the Court Detail screen. This information then fills the Court Involvement section of the Family Case Plan Face Sheet, Part A.

Information shown in green on Part A may be suppressed for safety reasons, such as when the safety of a foster child or foster parent could be jeopardized by printing the address or there are domestic violence issues or a restraining order between the child's parents.

To suppress all the information shown in green, click on the box "Suppress All Sensitive Date." Individual lines may also be highlighted and removed. Suppressed information reappears when the Case Flow form is reopened.

Family Functioning Domains

DHS uses the Family Functioning Domains to provide a consistent format for collecting, considering, and analyzing information about children and families. This consistency ensures that functioning areas most critically impacting safety, permanency, and well-being are addressed and targeted for service intervention.

Use of the domains creates a common, consistent language as information about children and families flows from child protective workers to ongoing workers and service providers.

The domains provide a "common lens" through which the strengths and needs of the child and family can be assessed, discussed, and used in planning and service provision.

The family functioning domains consist of the following broad areas of functioning (each domain area has related subcategories):

- Child Well-Being: Child's mental health behavior, relationship with peers, school performance, motivation and cooperation, relationship with caregivers, and relationship with siblings
- Parental Capabilities: Parental supervision of children, mental health, disciplinary practices, physical health, developmental and enrichment activities, and use of drugs or alcohol
- Family Safety: Physical abuse, neglect, sexual, or emotional abuse of child; and domestic violence
- Family interactions: Bonding with child, expectations of child, relationship between parents or caregivers, mutual support within the family
- Home environment: Housing stability, financial management, income and employment, safety in community, personal hygiene, habitability, transportation, food and nutrition, learning environment
- Other: Additional issues or concerns about the child or family

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Employee Manual 18-Appendix.pdf <extracted> for Printed Item: 275 (Attachment 2 of 5)

Become familiar with the family functioning domain categories and criteria. Consider the child and family's strengths, concerns, and needs in the various domain areas as you have discussions with the family and gather and analyze information about them.

- Information gathered in a family team may be helpful in evaluating the domain categories.
- Evaluate each individual's functioning through the common "lens" of the domain areas when:
  - There are multiple children in the family,
  - There is a noncustodial parent or stepparent, or
  - A relative is caring for the child.

Complete the family functioning domain section of the case plan by working through each domain category (the subcategories for each domain category automatically appear as you complete the domain sections) and:

- Fill in the Narrative section of each domain with a specific description of any strengths or needs identified within that domain.

  Needs in any domain should be related to and discussed within the context of how the needs affect child safety, permanency, or well-being.

  Remember that families may have strengths in some domain areas that can be used to address needs in other domains.
- Establish a Goal for each domain area where a need is identified in the narrative. It is critical that goals be developed in partnership with the family.

  Goal statements should be strength-based and focused on achieving the outcomes essential for safety, permanency, and well-being.
- If no needs are identified for a family within a domain category, but strengths are noted, you may establish a goal for that domain that focuses on using family strengths to help meet needs in other domain areas.
- After reviewing the strengths, needs, and goals for each domain area, identify the strategies, services, and informal supports that may be helpful to achieving the goals.
- In each domain area where goals are identified, list the steps necessary to bring about the changes needed to accomplish the goal for that domain. The steps should clearly identify:
  - Who is responsible for each step and
  - The dates for beginning and completing the necessary actions.

  Update revisions to or completion dates for the steps throughout the life of the case plan.
- Discuss and review the case plan information on domain areas, proposed goals, and action steps with the family before making final entries to the plan.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

IA-DHHS-24-0418-A-009050

Employee Manual 18-Appendix.pdf <extracted> for Printed Item: 275 (Attachment 2 of 5)

- Use the Comments section in each domain area to enter updated information on the family's progress and functioning level in that domain.

When the child is residing with the child's parents, the case plan shall state whether the child would be at "imminent risk of removal" from the home if in-home services were not provided.

"Imminent risk" means there is an immediate threat or likelihood that the child will suffer maltreatment.

When assessing "imminent risk," consider the three safety constructs of threats of maltreatment, child's vulnerability to maltreatment, and the caretaker's protective capacities to determine if the child would be unsafe without in-home services in place.

Cases that meet this standard are eligible for federal Title IV-E funding as candidates for foster care.

In the comments section of the most applicable family functioning domain area, document whether DHS would ask the court to consider the removal of the child if the family refused or terminated in-home services and why.

Review Section

Use the Family Case Plan review section when reviewing family progress and making further recommendations for actions and services on the case.

- Indicate the date of the plan review and whether this review was conducted through a family team meeting.
- When completing the review, consider the family's current functioning, level of goal achievement, and completion of necessary steps within each domain area.
- Identify family achievements, progress toward safe case closure, remaining concerns, and your current recommendations in the review section.
- At least once every six months, review the status of any child who has been previously determined to be at "imminent risk of removal" if in-home services are not provided. Document if services should continue and why in the Review Summary and Recommendations box.

  Reference Other Comments if an evaluation determines that the location of the foster home is suppressed and review this determination every six months or less.

Signatures and Notifications

- Document and obtain signatures from those persons that participated in development of the plan and thank all persons who contributed to the planning process for the child and family.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Employee Manual 18-Appendix.pdf <extracted> for Printed Item: 275 (Attachment 2 of 5)

- Set a date for future meeting with the family to review and revise the plan as needed. The Other Comments section of this page can be used for this purpose.

  Every six months or less, evaluate and review the decision to suppress the location of the foster home to determine if suppression continues or the need for suppression no longer is applicable.

- The Other Comments section may be used to include information concerning:
  - Case child abuse and criminal record histories;
  - Whether the Indian Child Welfare Act applies to the case;
  - Evidence of a direct or indirect threat to harm the foster child or foster family or credible third-party information of a threat of harm to the foster child or foster family as listed in 18-D(4). This information is needed if there has been a decision to suppress the address and contact information of the foster home.

- Distribute copies of the plan to those that should receive them.

C. Child Placement Plan

In combination with the face sheet and the family plan, the out-of-home placement section is a written document that includes all the federal required elements. The family plan and the out-of-home placement section include:

- A description of the placement and the appropriateness of the placement.
- The permanency goal for the child including any concurrent permanency goals.
- A plan for ensuring that the child and family receive services designed to facilitate the return of the child to a safe home or to another permanent placement.
- The health and educational status of the child.
- When applicable, a description of the programs and services that will facilitate the child's transition from foster care to adulthood.

This form is necessary to provide information mandated by state and federal laws and regulations regarding each child placed in an out-of-home setting in which the Department has custody, or when foster care is being provided under a voluntary placement agreement.

The DHS social work case manager responsible for the child should complete the Child Placement Plan when the child is placed in an out-of-home setting and DHS has custody or the child is placed under a voluntary placement agreement.

For these children, this section is in addition to Parts A and B of the case plan. The Child Placement Plan, Part C, should be updated every 90 days just like Parts A and B.

  Indicate the provider, dates of service, and date the information on these services was given to the child's current caregiver and current service provider.

  NOTE: Do not record HIV status or risk of HIV infection anywhere in the case plan. File any such information in the medical record section of the case file and mark it "Confidential."
- Mental Health/Psychological/Psychiatric Records: Describe any known mental health, psychological, or psychiatric evaluations or treatment the child has received.

  Indicate the provider, dates of services, and date the information on these services was given to the child's current caregiver and current service provider.
- Education Records: Complete this section to provide information on the child's current educational stats. Contact educational partners at the local school district or Area Education Agency (AEA) if needed to obtain this information.

  If the child was not able to remain in the school the child was attending upon entry or change in foster care placement, explain efforts to keep the child's educational placement stable and why the change was best for the child.

Transition Plan

"Transition planning" is the process of assisting the child in foster care to prepare to be a self-sufficient adult.

This process includes an assessment of life skills, strength and concerns, services and supports, and outcomes to be accomplished for successful transition.

Planning for transition to adulthood for children in foster care with special needs may need to begin before age 14 to ensure needed funding and services are available.

Service area transition planning specialists (TPS) can provide ongoing consultation and information regarding transition planning for adolescents.

For a child who may be eligible for services as an adult, the assessment and plan of services must be developed with someone who can reasonably be expected to fund those services or be a service provider when the child becomes an adult.

This section is required for a child in foster care of any type who is age 14 years of age or older. The plan shall be updated at required intervals with the Case Permanency Plan. In addition, the Transition Plan needs to be updated within 90 days of the child turning 18, and if the child remains in care past the age of 18, in the 90 days before discharge.

Organization of a youth-centered planning team is required for every child age 14 and older in foster care. Ask the child to select members of the team. Include specific names of formal and informal supports in the box that asks about membership.

A referral to transition planning specialist (TPS) may be needed for more challenging needs, such as transition planning for a child in long-term foster care or a child needing adult services. If a referral has been made to a TPS, select "yes."

Include the date the Case Life Skills Assessment was completed. It must be done at least once after the child in foster care's 14th birthday. Replace with the new date if it is done again throughout the child's time in foster care.

If the child is interested in pursuing higher education, the plan shall provide for the child's participation in the College Student Aid Commission's program or assistance in applying for federal and state aid.

Indicate whether the child has a driver's license or non-operator ID. If the child does not have at least one or the other, provide steps to obtain one or both.

Review and explain form 470-5337, Rights of Youth in Out-of-Home Placement, to a child age 14 and older. Have the child sign and date the form indicating you have reviewed the rights so the child understands and have answered any questions about their rights. After the form has been signed, give the child the original rights document and provide a copy to all legal parties on the child's case. Document the date the form was most recently given to the child in the Case Permanency Plan.

Before the child reaches age 17½, present the completed Transition Plan to the transition committee for the service area that applies to the child. The local transition committee must review and approve the Transition Plan. When a child enters foster care at age 17½ or older, the local transition committee shall be involved in reviewing and approving the child's transition plan within 30 days of completion.

There are six domain areas in the Transition Plan and a box for each. Follow the instructions for each section below:

- Education: Include information about the child's current education status and plans, including steps that still need to be taken, dates, and who will assist.
- Employment and Workforce Supports: Include information about the child's current work status and plans, including steps that still need to be taken, dates, and who will assist. This section needs to show the child has a clean credit report and banking experience, or it should provide plans or activities to achieve.
- Health and Health Insurance: Include information about the child and the child's health insurance status and plans.
- Housing: Describe the child's housing and housing plans.
- Supportive Relationships and Services: Describe relationships and opportunities for social and developmentally appropriate activities. Describe efforts to repair relationships or help child reconnect. Refer child age 17 to aftercare and include the date. If aftercare has not been contacted, leave the box blank.
- Youth with Special Needs: Relevant information about any special needs of the child should be included here, as well as referrals to SSI and adult services. The connections to SSI or adult services must be made before the Transition Planning Committee review, which typically occurs when the child is age 17. The date the plan was reviewed should be included in the last box of this section.

Child Signature

Obtain the child's and guardian's signatures as appropriate.

Family Functioning Domain Criteria, Form 470-4138

Purpose	Form 470-4138 is used to assist with assessment of the strengths and needs of the child, and of the child's parent(s)/caretaker(s), home, and family. It is an example of statements regarding areas of strengths and needs.
Source	This form is available on the STAR Assessment module in JARVIS. In the event of issues with accessing the form in JARVIS, it is available in this manual or in SharePoint, under Employee Manual/Forms.
Completion	The child protection worker uses this tool during the child protective assessment process to aid in the assessment of strengths and needs. Strengths and needs are identified using the family functioning domains: ▪ Child well-being ▪ Parental capabilities (includes use of drugs or alcohol) ▪ Family safety (includes domestic violence) ▪ Family interactions ▪ Home environment Identify domains as a strength or need. Address in the narrative section strengths and needs under each specific subsection that applies to the child, family, or home. It is not necessary to address every item listed. Address items that are relevant to the given situation. You are not limited to only the items listed. The child protection worker completes this form in JARVIS with approval and sign-off by the supervisor.
Data	Family functioning domains are applicable throughout the life of a case beginning with the safety assessment, strengths and needs identification during a child protective assessment or CINA assessment, and developing a family plan.

Family Interaction Plan General Roles and Responsibilities, Form 470-5148 or 470-5148(S)

Purpose

The Family Interaction Plan General Roles and Responsibilities, form 470-5148 and 470-5148(S), is the official family interaction plan developed for children placed out of the home. All children who are placed out of the home need to have a family interaction plan in place to ensure interactions occur in safe and healthy ways. The family interaction plan should be tailored to meet the safety needs of the family.

Source

Complete the English or Spanish version of this form using the template available in SharePoint under Employee Manual/Forms. This form may also be printed from the manual or SharePoint.

Completion

The most effective way of developing or reassessing a family interaction plan is during a warm hand-off or Solution Focused Meeting. The written family interaction plan may be incorporated as part of the Solution Focused Meeting notes or identified separately on the family interaction plan form. However, not all children placed out of the home will have a Solution Focused Meeting but family interaction planning should still occur.

Distribution

Give a copy of the completed family interaction plan to the identified team members. Keep the original form in the child's case file.

Data

Background Information. Enter the following information:

- Children's names: If multiple children have different needs or safety concerns, the family's team may want to consider a separate plan for each child.
- Date of plan: This is the date the plan was developed.
- Placed with: Document where the child is placed and with whom. If multiple children are in different places, indicate the type of placement (i.e., resource family, relative, residential placement, etc.).
- Placement date for children: This is the date the child was removed and placed out of the home.
- Permanency goal: Document the identified permanency goal.

Safety Concerns/Required level of supervision. Utilizing the Family Interaction Planning Tool (Comm. 649) provide explanations for questions A-F of the Interaction Supervision Decision Tree.

Family Interaction Plan. Family interaction should begin as soon as possible after removal from parental custody. At a minimum, interactions should occur within 24 hours of placement, be regular, and of increasing frequency and duration.

- Types of Interaction: Document the type of interaction approved. Creativity in defining interactions should be supported. Every opportunity needs to be considered such as doctor appointments, school activities, meetings, and other functions in which the family would have participated if the children were in the home. This should be documented in the Attendance at Child Centered Appointments/Events section of the plan.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Employee Manual 18-Appendix.pdf <extracted> for Printed Item: 275 (Attachment 2 of 5)

Interactions should be built around meaningful activities including:

- Mealtimes,
- Bathing,
- Grooming,
- Naptimes,
- Homework time,
- Grocery shopping,
- Doctors' appointments,
- School activities (i.e., conferences, plays, band and choir concerts, family nights, carnivals, graduation, etc.),
- Sports activities, and
- Should be geared towards the child's developmental abilities.

Creative planning should not only support face-to-face time but also other methods, such as calls, letters, texting, emails, and other electronic methods of communication. Families should be encouraged to explore other ways to connect and interact with one another.

- Frequency and Length of Interaction: Document the frequency and length of interaction. In determining how often and how long interactions should be, consider the following:
  - The age of the children.
  - The severity and chronicity of the abuse.
  - The potential for abduction or continued abuse of the children.
  - The progress of the parent in learning new skills or managing inappropriate behaviors, protective capacities displayed by the parent.
- Locations: Document the locations where the interactions will occur. Utilize the Planning Tool to aid in decision making around interaction locations.

  Family interaction should occur in the least restrictive, most homelike setting that allows for natural interaction and appropriate to meet the child's needs for safety. Generally, the parental, relative, or resource family home will provide the best environment. When safety is an issue, a more secure setting should be chosen and a safety plan developed for the interactions to continue.

  Consider the type of interaction as you document the location. For example, if an interaction is built around school activities, sport activities, or doctors' appointments, you would document the location of the event (i.e., school, gymnasium, ball field, doctor office, etc.).

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Employee Manual 18-Appendix.pdf <extracted> for Printed Item: 275 (Attachment 2 of 5)

- Types of Supervision: Document the type of supervision for the identified interaction. Types of supervision include fully supervised, relaxed supervision, semi or partially supervised, or no supervision necessary. Supervision can be provided by a professional or other person identified by the family's team.
- Supervised By: If supervision is required, document who is responsible to provide supervision during interaction. This will be determined by the family's team. Consideration should be given based on the safety concerns and the developmental needs of the child.

  Family interactions are most "natural" when interactions are supported by those with a relationship with the child, such as other family members versus professionals. Family supports can be relied on to assist with all aspects of services including attendance at meetings, role modeling, transportation, observing interactions, etc.

Family Routines to Practice During Family Interaction. Document the goals to be accomplished during family interaction. Family interaction should focus on allowing the most natural parent-child interactions, such as:

- Cooking and eating a meal,
- Reading stories,
- Cleaning a room,
- Playing a game,
- Bath time,
- Naptime, or
- Bedtime routines.

The focus is on maintaining ties between the parent and child and assessing the parent's capacity to care for the child. Primary routines should reflect the family's SBC outcomes.

Goals are the family routines to target during the family interaction. These behavioral changes are most likely related back to the safety concerns as identified by the team.

- Family Routines to Target: Document the routines to practice during family interaction.
- Family Members Involved: Document who is expected to be involved in the routines.
- Date Reviewed or Revised: Document the date when the goal was reviewed or revised.

Family interaction needs to be reviewed during a Solution Focused Meeting or by those the family's team identifies, at a minimum, when:

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

IA-DHHS-24-0418-A-009062

Employee Manual 18-Appendix.pdf <extracted> for Printed Item: 275 (Attachment 2 of 5)

- There are changes in behavioral patterns demonstrated by the parents or children.
- Protective provisions that may be a safety concern change or arise.
- There is a change in family supports.
- There is a change in legal issues or court requirements (change in custody or guardianship) that may impact family interaction planning.
- Agreed upon behavioral changes are accomplished or not.

Transportation. Describe how transportation will be provided once individuals who are available to assist in transportation are identified. Transportation is a key component for interactions to be successful.

Resource family and other relative caregivers should be encouraged to transport children at least one way. Parents and extended family members should be expected to arrange their own transportation, though they may be given temporary support when necessary to ensure there is not a gap in family interaction; however, this will likely be accomplished by public transportation. Children in placement may have to be transported by a provider or HHS staff, one or both ways to interactions.

Other Planning Notes. Considerations when setting expectations could include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Expectations of what parents should bring to the interaction.
- Activities that parents should plan or consider doing during the interaction.
- Behaviors that provide an unsafe situation may terminate the interaction. It is important that there is a follow up with the parents in order to reduce the risk for another unsafe situation.
- The use of physical discipline or threats towards others.
- Negative comments about others, which includes the children, family members, HHS worker, contractor or provider, and other professionals part of the family's team.
- Possession or bringing any drug paraphernalia, illicit substances, or alcohol to the interaction.
- All legal decisions or documents regarding contact, including No Contact Orders, etc. will be abided by all parties.
- Obtain approval before bringing any additional individuals to family interactions. Approvals are determined by the HHS case manager or the family's team.

Family Interaction Calendar. Utilize the calendar to document the initial plan for family interactions. Include any events, appointments or activities which the parent may also attend.

Family Risk Assessment, Form 470-4133

Purpose

Form 470-4133 is used to identify risk factors during an assessment. The Family Risk Assessment is composed of two scales that measure the level of risk regarding neglect and abuse.

Source

Complete this form on the Family Risk Assessment tab on the STAR Assessment module in JARVIS.

Completion

The child protection worker completes the Family Risk Assessment during the assessment process. This form must be completed before the assessment is approved.

Exception: When abuse occurred or is alleged in an out-of-home setting and child protective concerns do not exist in the child's household, the safety assessment and risk assessment is not required.

Only one household can be assessed on the Family Risk Assessment form. Assess the child's primary residence. When the alleged perpetrator resides in the household of the noncustodial parent, assess the household of the noncustodial parent. If the child moves to a different household because of the crisis, complete the risk assessment on the household in which the child will remain.

- If the child will remain in the new household, complete the risk assessment on the new household.
- If the plan is to reunify the family, complete the risk assessment on the household from which the child was removed.

Upon completion of the form, a Total Neglect Risk Score and Abuse Risk Score are automatically calculated to the highest of either risk score. Use this information in the analysis of the family's strengths, needs, and recommendation for services.

The final risk level is populated on the Child Protective Services Child Abuse Assessment Summary or the Child Protective Services Family Assessment Summary. Reassess the case whenever you determine that an adjustment in the risk score is warranted (either up or down).

Distribution

The form is maintained within JARVIS and is considered assessment data.

Data

Review information obtained from systems checks, Department records including service history, not confirmed assessments, and any previous or current court involvement. Review the risk assessment definitions and complete the Family Risk Assessment form by checking the most applicable response.

On items involving caregivers, select one or two parents or substitutes based on physical and emotional proximity to the children. Do not rate more than two caregivers in a home.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

IA-DHHS-24-0418-A-009066

Employee Manual 18-Appendix.pdf <extracted> for Printed Item: 275 (Attachment 2 of 5)

Only one primary caregiver can be identified. The "primary caregiver" is the adult living in the household who assumes the most responsibility for child care.

When two adults are present and you are in doubt over which one assumes the most childcare responsibility, select the adult with custody or guardianship or the caregiver responsible for the child involved in the incident as the primary caregiver.

> Ms. X and her partner Mr. Y live together and appear to share caregiver responsibilities for Ms. X's children equally. Because Ms. X has legal custody of the children, select her as the primary caretaker.

If this does not resolve the question, select the legally responsible adult who was a perpetrator or alleged perpetrator.

> Mr. and Mrs. Z live together and appear to share caregiver responsibilities for their children equally. Mrs. Z is the alleged perpetrator of abuse, so she is selected as the primary caretaker.

When both parents are in the household, equally sharing care giving responsibilities, and both have been identified as perpetrators or alleged perpetrators, select the parent demonstrating the more severe behavior.

The "secondary caregiver" is defined as an adult living in the household who has routine responsibility for childcare, but less responsibility than the primary caregiver. A partner may be a secondary caregiver even though the partner has minimal responsibility for care of the children.

If an item relates to all caregivers and the household has more than one caregiver, rate the caregiver with the more severe behavior.

The risk assessment form is composed of two scales: the neglect scale and the abuse scale. For detailed guidance, see Family Risk Assessment Guidance, RC-0123.

After scoring all items in each scale, total the score for each scale and determine the risk level by checking the appropriate boxes in the risk level section.

Overrides

Policy Overrides: After completing the risk scales, determine if any of the policy overrides should be applied. Policy overrides reflect incident seriousness and child vulnerability concerns. They upgrade the risk level to "high" regardless of the scored risk level.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

IA-DHHS-24-0418-A-009067

Employee Manual 18-Appendix.pdf <extracted> for Printed Item: 275 (Attachment 2 of 5)

Discretionary Override: After completing the risk scales, determine if a discretionary override should be applied to increase the risk level. Use a discretionary override when you are aware of unique case circumstances that warrant a higher risk level. You must receive supervisory approval for a discretionary override.

The discretionary override may raise the risk level only one level higher. The risk level may not be lowered by a discretionary override.

Family Functioning Domains. The family functioning domains provide a consistent format for collecting, considering, and analyzing information about children and families. This consistency ensures that functioning areas most critically impacting safety, permanency, and well-being are addressed and targeted for service intervention. Use of the domains creates a common, consistent language as information about children and families flows from child protective workers to ongoing workers and service providers.

The domains provide a "common lens" through which the strengths and needs of the child and family can be assessed, discussed, and used in planning and service provision.

The family functioning domains consist of the following broad areas of functioning (each domain area has related subcategories):

- Child Well-Being:
  - Child's physical and mental health,

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Employee Manual 18-Appendix.pdf <extracted> for Printed Item: 275 (Attachment 2 of 5)

- Behavior,
- Relationship with peers,
- School performance,
- Motivation and cooperation to stay with family,
- Relationship with siblings, and
- Supports.

▪ Parental Capabilities:

- Supervision of children,
- Mental health,
- Informal supports,
- Disciplinary practices,
- Physical health,
- Developmental and enrichment activities, and
- Use of drugs or alcohol.

▪ Family Safety:

- Physical abuse,
- Neglect of a child,
- Sexual abuse,
- Domestic violence, or
- Emotional abuse.

▪ Family Interactions:

- Bonding with child or children,
- Expectations of children,
- Family interaction planning,
- Relationship between parents or caregivers,
- Mutual support within the family, and
- Concurrent planning.

NOTE: A written Family Interaction Plan, tailored to meet the safety needs of the family is developed and/or reassessed during a family team meeting involving a child placed out of the home to assure family interaction begins as soon as possible after removal from parental custody.

▪ Home Environment

- Housing stability,
- Food and nutrition,
- Transportation,
- Safety in community,
- Financial management,
- Learning environment,
- Habitability of housing,
- Personal hygiene, and
- Income and employment.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Employee Manual 18-Appendix.pdf <extracted> for Printed Item: 275 (Attachment 2 of 5)

- Other. Additional issues or concerns about the child or family.

  NOTE: Discuss concurrent planning and permanency goals, any interstate compact issues, child and family cultural factors, language barriers, or if the Indian Child Welfare Act applies.

Complete the family functioning domain section of the FTDM family plan by working through each domain category. Consider the child and family's strengths and needs in the various domain areas as you have discussions during the family team meeting. Fill in the narrative "strengths" and "needs" section of each applicable domain. Needs in any domain should be related to and discussed within the context of how the needs affect child safety, permanency, or well-being.

Establish a goal for each applicable domain area where a need is identified. It is critical that goals be developed in partnership with the family. Goal statements should be strength-based and focused on achieving the outcomes essential for safety, permanency, and well-being.

After reviewing the strengths, needs, and goals for each domain area, identify the strategies, services, and informal supports that may be helpful to achieving the goals.

- In each domain area where goals are identified, list the steps necessary to bring about the changes needed to accomplish the goal for that domain. The steps should clearly identify:
  - Who is responsible,
  - What do they agree to do, and
  - By when.
- Document the date for when the goal was completed or modified.

Crisis Plan. Identify and discuss what will be done if some part of the plan breaks down and a crisis happens.

Identify the risks and necessary steps needed to address the risk. The steps should clearly identify when and dated when completed or if ongoing.

Signatures and Notifications. Enter the name of invited team members, including their role, contact information, and check whether or not they attended the family team meeting.

Foster Care and/or Subsidized Adoption Information Exchange, Report S472N111-01

Purpose

Report S472N111-01, Foster Care and/or Subsidized Adoption Information Exchange, provides IV-E workers information that is needed to determine IV-E and Medicaid eligibility for children in foster care and adoption assistance programs.

Source

The FACS system generates this report nightly.

Completion

The FACS system automatically generates this form on foster care and adoption subsidy cases when:

- There is a start date recorded on FACS (labeled as "new placement" on the report).
- There is an end date recorded on FACS (labeled as "exit placement" on the report). (A move from one placement to another generates two reports.)
- The FACS case is transferred to a new service worker.

The IV-E worker examines the report to determine whether the change affects IV-E or Medicaid eligibility (or if additional information is needed).

Distribution

If there is an open Medicaid case with an FBU of 19, the report is issued to the IV-E worker responsible for that case. If there is no open case with a 19 FBU, the report is issued to worker number CM00 in the office where the service worker is located.

Exception: For PMIC placements, the form is generated to the IM unit in the county where the facility is.

File the report in the IV-E case record.

Data

Data reported includes:

- Identification of the workers and the reason for the report.
- Information about the child.
- Information about the child's parents.
- Information about the child's placement.

NOTE: Do not use the PLACEMENT IV-E field or the SERVICE IV-E field to evaluate IV-E eligibility.

Foster Child Behavioral Assessment, Form 470-4401 or 470-4401(S)

Purpose

The Foster Child Behavioral Assessment checklist serves two purposes.

- It may be used in the development of the case plan as a tool to identify the needs of the child. Every behavioral need of a foster child identified in this tool should be outlined when completing the case plan, along with the corresponding actions and responsibilities of the resource family.
- Since this tool identifies need and responsibilities, it is also the tool used to determine level of care and corresponding foster care payment.

Source

Complete the English version of this form using the template available in SharePoint under Employee Manual/Forms.

Print the Spanish version of this form from the manual or SharePoint.

Completion

Complete the Foster Child Behavioral Assessment:

- Within the first 30 days of a child's initial entry into foster care.
- Whenever the child's behavior changes significantly.
- When the child's placement changes.
- After termination of parental rights, in preparation for negotiating an adoption subsidy or presubsidy.
- Before a court hearing on guardianship subsidy. Note: The highest guardianship subsidy is limited to Level 2, basic rate plus level 2.

If a child comes out of group care or PMIC, the child's payment in the foster family home is the basic foster care maintenance rate. It is anticipated that the family team meeting, with the new foster parents participating, will be part of the discharge planning. Complete the Foster Child Behavioral Assessment within the first 30 days of placement.

If a child leaves foster family care and goes to shelter care and then returns to the same foster family home, the payment rate remains the same as the rate received by the foster family before the child goes to shelter care. Complete an assessment within 30 days of placement with a new foster family.

To authorize payment to the resource family at a higher level than the basic rate, this form shall be signed by the worker and the worker's supervisor.

After supervisory approval, the difficulty of care payments shall begin the first day of the month following the month in which the form was completed. Do not enter the new assessment rate into FACS until the supervisor has signed off and approved the assessment and rate.

Employee Manual 18-Appendix.pdf <extracted> for Printed Item: 275 (Attachment 2 of 5)

Distribution

Keep the original form in the child's case file. Give a copy to the resource family upon the family's request.

Data

When completing the checklist, use all available information about the child for a thorough assessment of the child. This may include evaluations, school and provider reports, and home studies, as well as input from parents and the resource family.

Check only behavior that is severe enough to be outside the norm for a child of the same age. Do not check behavior that is typical for a child that age (e.g., "temper tantrums" for a 2-year-old).

In order to have a valid assessment, check each item that applies in every category ("minimal" and "moderate" and "intensive").

The template calculates the basic rate once the child's birth date is entered, and automatically calculates the level of care and the total daily rate. The form is designed so that checking all the applicable boxes will result in the proper calculation for the behaviors.

See 18-D(2), Maintenance Payment.

ICPC Report on Child's Placement Status (ICPC 100B), Form 470-0788

Purpose

Form 470-0788 (ICPC 100B) is used to communicate between the placer, the supervising agency, and the respective compact administrators regarding the status of a placement requested under the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children. It is a national form, known as the ICPC 100B.

Source

Form 470-0788 (ICPC 100B) is available as a template in SharePoint under Employee Manual/Forms. Supplies of the form may also be printed from the manual or SharePoint.

Completion

Complete one form per child or per sibling if the action applies to siblings at the same time.

The person supervising the placement or causing the child to be placed completes this form each time:

- A placement is made.
- A placement is changed.
- An approved placement is canceled.
- A placement is terminated.
- A case is closed.
- There is a change of address or status of the placement (e.g., from foster care to adoption).

The Department worker is responsible for preparing the form for all children in the Department's custody or guardianship who are placed out of state and for all children placed into Iowa for whom the Department has assumed supervision under the compact.

When courts, probation officers, or private agencies have placed a child in another state or accepted supervision of a child from another state, their staff are responsible for preparing the form.

When there is a change of purpose in an existing placement, e.g., from foster care to adoption, form 470-0781 (ICPC 100A) may be required at the request of the receiving state.

Distribution

Email form 470-0788 (ICPC 100B) to the ICPC service area liaison. The liaison sends to the ICPC office who forwards to the receiving state.

Data

Section I – Identifying Information

Enter the full legal name and birthdate of the child for whom this placement information is being reported.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

IA-DHHS-24-0418-A-009128

Employee Manual 18-Appendix.pdf <extracted> for Printed Item: 275 (Attachment 2 of 5)

Enter the names of the legal parents as on form 470-0781 (ICPC 100A). Enter the name of the resource, the address, and type of care. Enter the same type of care that was chosen on form 470-0781 (ICPC 100A) (e.g., adoptive home, foster family home, group home care). Enter the relationship for relative placements.

Section II – Placement Status

To confirm the initial placement, check the box that applies. Enter the exact date the child was placed in the receiving state.

If some aspect of the placement changes while the child remains in the receiving state, complete another ICPC 100B. Check the "Placement Change" box and indicate the exact effective date of the change.

If the child moves from one placement resource to another, enter the updated placement information. For example, if a child leaves the parents' home and is placed in a residential treatment center, complete the facility's name and address and indicate the new "Type of Care."

Subsequent ICPC 100B forms will list the new placement resource under "Identifying Information." Any additional moves to place the child within the receiving state will be reflected in this same manner.

If only the name (e.g., mother remarries) or address (original placement resource moves) changes, check and complete only those items that apply.

Section III – Compact Placement Termination

Check the boxes that apply:

- Adoption Finalized: If an ICPC adoptive placement has been finalized (consummated), check that box and the appropriate box for the state in which finalization occurred, "In Sending State" or "In Receiving State." Attach the final adoption decree.
- Child Reached Majority/Legally Emancipated: Check this box if the child has reached majority age and has simultaneously ceased to be the responsibility of the sending agency or if the child has become emancipated through legal action such as marriage or court decision.
- Legal Custody Returned to Parent(s): Check this box when the child's legal custody or guardianship is returned to the parent with the concurrence of the receiving state. Attach the court order transferring custody to the parents to form 470-0788 (ICPC 100B).
- Legal Custody Given to Relative: Check this box when the child's legal custody or guardianship is awarded to relatives (other than parents) with the concurrence of the receiving state. Attach the court order transferring custody to the relative to form 470-0788 (ICPC 100B).

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Employee Manual 18-Appendix.pdf <extracted> for Printed Item: 275 (Attachment 2 of 5)

- Legal Custody Given to Other: Check this box when the child's legal custody or guardianship is other (other than parents or relatives) with the concurrence of the receiving state. Enter the name and relationship to the child. Attach the court order transferring custody to the other to form 470-0788 (ICPC 100B).
- Treatment Completed: Check this item when the placement resource has been providing a specific treatment-oriented service; that service has been completed; and the child is, therefore, being discharged from the facility (e.g., residential treatment center). This box may also be checked if the child was placed through Article VI of the Compact.
- Sending State's Jurisdiction Terminated with the Concurrence of the Receiving State: Check this box when the jurisdiction of the sending state has ended for some reason other than the transfer of custody to parents or relatives with the concurrence of the receiving state's supervising agency or court.

  For example, if formal legal custody or guardianship is not going to be addressed but both states agree that supervision is no longer required or if both states agree to transfer jurisdiction to the receiving state.

  If the sending state's jurisdiction is terminated without the concurrence of the receiving state (including custody or guardianship transfer), the decision was made unilaterally and that box should be checked.
- Unilateral Termination: Check this box when the interstate agreement has been terminated unilaterally, whether by the sending or receiving state. A unilateral termination is one in which one state ends the interstate placement agreement without the concurrence of the receiving state.
- Child Returned to Sending State: Check this box when the child returns to the state the child was placed from. This may be due to a disruption in placement.
- Child Moved to Another State: Check this box when the child moves to a state other than the sending state.
- Proposed Placement Request Withdrawn: If you have submitted form ICPC 100A to request placement approval and have decided not to explore that resource further, check this box, list the "Name of the Proposed Placement Resource," and date of your decision to terminate the compact.

  Check this box only when no action has yet been taken on form 470-0781 (ICPC 100A). If you are withdrawing more than one request, submit a separate form on each and list each respective "Placement Resource."
- Approved Resource Will Not Be Used for Placement: Check this box when you have received an approved form 470-0781 (ICPC 100A) but have decided not to place the child with that resource. List the name of the "Approved Placement" and date of your decision to terminate the compact.

- Other: Check and specify if the reason for compact placement termination is not listed above. For example, the entire family moved to another state (new address should be entered under "Placement Change"), the death of a child, the child ran away and whereabouts are unknown.

Date of Termination: Enter the exact date of the activity that ended the Compact Placement Agreement.

Section IV – Signatures

If a private person or local agency is completing the form, have a designated person sign, under "Person/Agency/Supplying Information," identify the agency, and date the signature.

ICPC Request (ICPC 100A), Form 470-0781

Purpose

Form 470-0781 (ICPC 100A) is the sending agency's formal written notice to the receiving state of its intention to make an interstate placement. It requests a finding as to whether the placement would be contrary to the interests of the child. With most placements, it is also a formal request for a home study.

Following review by the receiving state, it is the official notice of the receiving state's decision. A favorable finding means that the placement can be made in conformity with the compact. An unfavorable finding means that the placement would be unlawful.

Form 470-0781 (ICPC 100A) must accompany all requests for placement to which the compact is applicable. It must be favorably acted upon by the receiving state before any compact placement is made.

Source

Form 470-0781 (ICPC 100A) is available as a template in SharePoint under Employee Manual/Forms.

Completion

Complete one form per child or per sibling if the action applies to siblings at the same time.

The service worker, private agency, court, or any person placing the child may complete this form. It is prepared when a request is being made to place a child in another state.

Distribution

Distribute as follows:

- The sending agency/Iowa ICPC service area liaison uploads the completed 100A into the National Electronic Interstate Compact Enterprise (NEICE) and electronically sends to the sending state deputy compact administrator.
- The deputy compact administrator reviews, signs, and sends to the receiving state's identified administrator.
- The receiving agency administrator completes Section IV of the form and returns to the sending state ICPC office.
- The sending state administrator sends via NEICE to the sending agency.

Data

In the first two blocks, enter the name and address of the ICPC administrator (or deputy) to whom the request is being forwarded (TO) and the name and address of the ICPC administrator (or deputy) whose state is submitting the request (FROM). If information for the receiving state is unknown, enter only the name of the state.

Section I – Identifying Data

Enter the full legal name, social security number, Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA) eligibility, IV-E eligibility, sex, gender, date of birth, and ethnic group of the child for whom this placement is proposed. If the child is known by a nickname, place it in parenthesis beside the legal name.

NOTE: An "Indian child" means any unmarried person who is under age 18 and is either:

- A member of an Indian tribe or
- Eligible for membership in an Indian tribe and is the biological child of a member of an Indian tribe.

Enter the names of the legal parents, usually the birth parents. When an adoption is finalized, the adoptive parents are the legal parents. If the parent is deceased, enter "deceased" after the parent's name.

If parental rights are voluntarily relinquished or terminated by the court, indicate in parenthesis beside the name. If you prefer to withhold the name, simply enter the status of the parent's rights.

Enter the complete name, address, and telephone number of the agency or person who is responsible for planning for the child and who is financially responsible for the child. In most cases, these two items will be the same (the sending agency). Email addresses are optional.

Section II – Placement Information

Types of Care Requested. Check the boxes designating the following:

- Public Placement: Public placement means a placement processed by a public child welfare agency where the state or local agency, or the court has authority to make the placement.
- Private Placement: Private placement means a placement made by a parent or a private or independent agency or representative not acting as an agent of the state (e.g., private adoption) or, in the case of a private residential treatment placement, where a parent or guardian is making the placement (e.g., private Residential Treatment Facility (RTF)/Residential Treatment Center (RTC) placement, etc.).
- Subsidy: Check the box for public foster care or adoption to denote IV-E federal, non-IV-E state or local, or none for no financial support. Select pending if not yet determined.
- Adoptive Home: Adoptive home refers to both agency and private or independent adoptive placement before finalization of an adoption. This may refer to an initial placement with a family where adoption is the intention or it may refer to the movement of an adoptive family from state A to state B following placement.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

If this is a request for private or independent adoption, you are required to also complete the fields for the names, address, social security numbers, and telephone number for the prospective adoptive resource. Indicate if it is a federally-funded adoption subsidy (IV-E) or a state- or local-funded subsidy (non IV-E), pending (if not yet determined), or none.

- Finalizing in: Check one box to indicate the state in which the adoption will be finalized if known, otherwise mark pending.
- Foster Family Home: A foster family home is a facility providing care and guidance for a child or children not related to the caretaker for regular 24-hour care, or a certified kinship care home. A family foster home may not operate without a license or a certificate as required by the laws of the receiving state.
- Group Home Care: A resource which is licensed or approved as a group home and which provides substitute care for a fee; usually a modified family-type setting which serves more children than a foster home but fewer than an institution.
- Child-Caring Institution: A group care facility that is licensed or approved to provide custodial care to a larger number of children than a foster home or group home.
- Residential Treatment Center: A group care facility that provides a specific treatment program outside the realm of a medical hospital, psychiatric hospital, or institution for children with an intellectual disability (e.g., a residential program for the treatment of alcohol or drug abuse. The receiving state is not obligated to supervise this type of placement made by the sending state.
- Parent: A biological or adoptive parent or legal guardian as determined by applicable state law and who is responsible for the care, custody, and control of a child or upon whom there is legal duty for such care.
- Institutional Care – Article VI Adjudicated Delinquent: A group care facility for adjudicated delinquents whose proposed placement is according to Article VI of the ICPC. These facilities may include group homes and residential treatment centers and may serve non-delinquents as well.
- Relative (Not Parent) Relationship: Specify relationship, such as maternal aunt, paternal grandparents, brother, etc.
- Other: Specify a type of care not already listed, such as:
  - Nonrelative free home (an unrelated family that does not require foster home licensure in the receiving state and does not need or want foster care payments)
  - Independent living arrangement (an older teenager who is still under the jurisdiction of an agency or court but is capable of independent living without the supervision of a foster home or group home)

- Maternity home
- Extended foster care (youth aged 18–21 years old)

Current Legal Status of Child. Check the appropriate box.

- Sending Agency Custody/Guardianship: The child is in the full legal custody or guardianship (depending on the state's terminology) of a public agency. For example, a public agency may be social services, youth corrections, probation, parole, or a tribe. If allowed by state law, the sending agency may also be a licensed private child placement agency, an adoption agency, or a birth mother.
- Parent/Relative Custody/Guardianship: The child is not under the jurisdiction of either an agency or the court but is the full legal responsibility of a parent or relative. This choice is most likely to be marked when a parent, relative or guardian wishes to place a child in one of the types of care listed.
- Court Jurisdiction Only: The court has an open abuse, neglect, or dependency case that establishes court jurisdiction with the authority to supervise or remove and place the child for whom the court has not taken guardianship or legal custody.
- Protective Supervision: A legal status created by court order under which the child is permitted to remain in the child's home or is placed with a relative or other suitable person and the court, the Department, or another agency designated by the court provides supervision and assistance.
- Parental Rights Terminated – Right to Place for Adoption: The sending agency has accepted a voluntary relinquishment of parental rights or has completed court action terminating parental rights and now holds complete jurisdiction over the child with the right to place for adoption.
- Unaccompanied Refugee Minor: This form is not used to report the initial placement into the United States but to request placement and services in a second state after a U.S. agency or court has been granted full legal responsibility (custody or guardianship). Check this box only if that is the case.

  Also mark the "Sending Agency Custody/Guardianship" box. If this is an unaccompanied refugee minor whose status warrants the ICPC 100A specific to those children (not the legal responsibility of an U.S. agency or court), do not use this form.
- Other: Legal status is not otherwise listed (e.g., legal action, such as a petition for custody or guardianship or to terminate parental rights, is pending).

  For example, the child is the responsibility of the sending agency under a voluntary agreement with the parent or legally responsible relative and no court action has been taken or is pending to alter the family member's legal rights over the child.

Name of Person(s) or Facility Child is to be Placed with. Enter the name, address, and telephone number of the agency, facility, or individuals where the child will be placed. These entries are required.

Name(s) of Prospective Adoptive or Foster Resource. If placement is with an agency (e.g., adoption, foster care, etc.) other than a residential treatment facility (RTF), provide the foster or adoptive resource where the child will reside.

Enter the name, address, social security number, and telephone number of the individual with whom the child will be residing if it differs from the information in the section "Name of Person(s) or Facility Child is to be Placed with."

Section III – Services Requested

Initial Report Requested. If the proposed placement is not for a group care placement and a current home study has not yet been received, check the box for the appropriate type of home study needed based on the type of care indicated in Section II.

Supervisory Services Requested. Check one of the following boxes to indicate how supervisory services are to be conducted:

- Request Receiving State to Arrange Supervision: Check this box if the sending agency cannot supervise and does not have a contractual or other agreement with a pre-determined agency to provide these services. Usually the public social service agency will be asked to provide supervision following an approved home study and subsequent placement.
- Another Agency Agreed to Supervise: Check this box if the sending agency already has received the formal agreement of a pre-determined supervisory agency. This choice is most likely to be checked in agency adoptive placements where an agency in the receiving state already has provided an adoptive home study and will be providing ongoing services to the adoptive family.

  Do not check this item because you know which county office of the public agency will receive this referral and may have discussed the case over the telephone. That does not constitute an agreement to supervise.
- Sending Agency to Supervise: Check this box if it is logistically feasible, it is the best-case plan, and the receiving state has granted the sending agency permission (which may or may not include licensure) to provide services in its state.
- Other: Check this box if requesting supervision for extended foster care youth (defined as youth aged 18–21 years).

Supervisory Reports Requested. Complete even though placement may not be a certainty at this time. Indicate how frequently you wish to receive progress reports. Standard timeframes are semi-annually, quarterly, monthly, or other. Check "other" when you wish to receive reports in a timeframe not listed.

Name and Address of Supervising Agency in Receiving State. If you know the name and address of the supervising agency, enter that information onto the line indicated. If not known by the sending agency, that information should be completed by the receiving state's compact office following receipt of a recommendation indicating that placement may be made.

Enclosed. Check which of the following items are enclosed:

- Child's Social History: Should accompany the majority of referrals; includes the pre-placement summary on adoption referrals and can be written with non-identifying information, if appropriate and preferred.
- Home Study of Placement Resource: Attach a current home study if one is not being requested; most likely to be checked if you already have an approved home study or the child is relocating with a placement resource and the home study is enclosed.
- Court Order: All applicable court documents should be enclosed (e.g., custody or guardianship orders, surrenders, orders terminating parental rights, and orders requesting a home study for the court).
- ICWA Enclosure: Obtain a letter from the child's tribe showing that the child is a member or is eligible for membership.
- Financial/Medical Plan: Attach the plan of how the proposed placement will be funded and how the children's medical needs will be covered.
- IV-E Eligibility Documentation: Attach a copy of the determination of IV-E eligibility.
- Other Enclosures: Indicates other pertinent materials, such as psychological evaluations, permanency plan, medical reports, school reports, birth certificates, and social security cards. It is not necessary to list them on the form.

Signature of Sending Agency or Person. The form should be signed and dated by anyone outside of the compact office who is completing the form as the sending agency. This includes a person with authority in the county social services agency, private agency, or court and any private individual or family member who is legally responsible for the child (as indicated in Section I and Section II, Legal Status).

Signature of Sending State Compact Administrator, Deputy or Alternate. Pursuant to Article III(d) of ICPC.

If the regulations of the sending state provide for transmittal of the form through the sending state's compact office, the compact administrator, deputy, or alternative in the sending state must sign and date the form. This is almost always the case.

Next Steps, Form 470-5592

Purpose

Form 470-5592 is an optional resource for working with families to document agreements or activities that fall outside of the scope of a Safety Plan. The Next Steps can be used whether or not a Safety Plan is required.

Families are often eager to get started on resolving issues identified during a protective assessment or service case. For example, parents may voice a commitment to making a mental health appointment for themselves or their child, seeking child care, cleaning their house, etc. The Next Steps should be simple – who will do what by when. Unlike the Safety Plan, the Next Steps can be a promissory note – a tool for creating a reminder of commitments that have been made for the good of the children and the family.

Never use the Next Steps to make temporary or voluntary changes in child custody. The Next Steps does not replace the Safety Plan, which must be completed if a child is determined to be safe with a plan. The Next Steps is not binding, but a way to engage families regarding commitments they or others (including the Department) make to help preserve and strengthen family connections.

Source

Print this form from the manual or SharePoint under Employee Manual/Forms.

This form is also printed as a three-part carbonless set. Order supplies from Iowa Prison Industries in Anamosa.

Completion

When deemed useful, the child protection worker or social work case manager completes the Next Steps with the family, documenting who has agreed to an action step, what that action step is, and when it will be completed.

Use the Next Steps during the course of an assessment or anytime throughout the Life of the Case. Only those who are agreeing to an action step need to be present and sign the Next Steps. The Next Steps can be created in the family's home, at a meeting involving the family, or in other circumstances where action steps are identified.

Distribution

If a printed form is used in place of the three-part carbonless form, a picture of the Next Steps must be taken with a state-issued phone or camera.

Leave a copy or the original of the completed form with the family. Keep a copy for the Department's records by uploading the copy or photo of the completed form into File Manager (located within the JARVIS-STAR assessment module) or in the service case file.

Data

Family name: Document the last name of the family. The child protection worker may want to include the name of the child victim. The social work case manager may want to include the name of the youngest child.

Request for a One Year Foster Family License, Form 470-5124

Purpose

Form 470-5124 is used to document the request for approval or denial of one-year licensure for foster families.

Source

Complete this form using the template in SharePoint under Employee Manual/Forms.

Completion

The Department licensing worker completes this form upon receipt of the licensing renewal packet for foster families who have completed their first two years of licensure. Use this form only for foster families whose performance in the previous licensing year indicates the need for a one-year license.

Mark the reasons for the request as indicated on the form. Other reasons can be for:

- Continuing lack of compliance with adherence to foster care licensing rules, foster care placement contract, or foster family handbook;
- Behavior that could have negative impact on foster children, such as alcohol or substance abuse;
- Health or mental health concern.

The occurrence of one or more of the reasons does not require a recommendation of a one-year license. Take into consideration the circumstances, foster family's history, willingness to take responsibility and made adjustments, and other relevant factors when deciding whether to make the request.

Also document voluntary requests by the foster family in this section. If you need more space to write the information under Other reasons, use another sheet of paper and attach it to this form.

Distribution

Attach the home study, corrective action plan, letter to the foster parents, and other supporting documents or reports to this form. Send the completed form with attachments to the Foster Family Program Manager in Central Office.

The Adult, Children and Family Services Division Administrator reviews the request and indicates on the form approval or denial and an effective date.

The division administrator signs the form. The foster family program manager returns a copy to the Department licensing worker. The Department licensing worker then sends the foster family the Notice of Action and enters the foster home renewal date in FACS. If the division administrator approves the request for a one-year license, the Department licensing worker notifies the foster family program manager who completes the override in FACS.

Establish a goal for each applicable area where a need is identified. It is critical that goals be developed in partnership with the youth. Goal statements should be strength-based and focused on achieving the outcomes essential for the youth.

After reviewing the strengths, needs, and goals for each area, identify the strategies, services, and informal supports that may be helpful to achieving the goals.

- In each area where goals are identified, list the steps necessary to bring about the changes needed to accomplish the goal for that domain. The steps should clearly identify:

Youth Transition Decision-Making (YTDM) Youth's Dream Path, Form 470-5176

Purpose

The Youth Transition Decision-Making (YTDM) Youth's Dream Path, form 470-5176, is the official model to use during the YTDM meeting.

Source

Complete this form using the template available in SharePoint under Employee Manual/Forms.

Supplies of this form may also be printed from the manual or SharePoint as needed.

Completion

The YTDM meeting facilitator develops the youth's dream path, in collaboration with the youth, after a youth transition decision-making meeting is held.

Distribution

The facilitator gives a copy of the completed form to the identified team members. Keep the original form in the youth's case file.

Data

Case Information. Enter the following information:

- Youth name
- Parent/caregiver name
- Parent/caregiver/noncustodial names
- Date of the YTDM meeting
- Date of the next YTDM meeting
- Facilitator name and approval number
- Next court hearing date and time
- Type of hearing

Desired Outcome of this Meeting. Use the Dream Path as a tool for the stabilization and action planning parts of the YTDM meeting.

The Dream Path includes the stabilization phase, which identifies the five Fostering Connection areas that need to be addressed and stabilized in the first column.

The five Fostering Connections areas are:

- Education
- Employment
- Health
- Housing
- Supportive Relationships

Complete the stabilization section of the YTDM youth plan by working through each of the five fostering connections categories from left to right. The far left column is available to write the current or 'Now" situation for the youth. Under the column, "What will happen," establish a goal for each applicable area where a need is identified. It is critical that goals be developed in partnership with the youth. Goal statements should be strength-based and focused on achieving the outcomes essential for the youth.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Employee Manual 18-Appendix.pdf <extracted> for Printed Item: 275 (Attachment 2 of 5)

After reviewing the strengths, needs, and goals for each area, identify the "Who will help me" (services or supports that may be helpful) to achieving the goals.

In each category list the action steps needed to achieve the goal. The steps should clearly identify:

- If youth is in agreement;
- Who is responsible;
- What do they agree to do; and
- By when, which is documented under either the 0 to 3 months column or the 4 to 9 months column.

Crisis Plan (Plan B). Identify and discuss what will be done if some part of the plan breaks down and a crisis happens.

Identify the risks and necessary steps needed to address the risk. The steps should clearly identify when and dated when completed or if ongoing.

To move into the Dream Path phase. Each YTDM meeting begins with a review of the five Fostering Connections areas to determine if changes or adaptations need to be made. Once the youth has achieved stability, the longer range planning can begin. Review the 'Dream' written in the 'cloud' on the far right of the document and determine the steps to head in that direction. Develop action plans with a six to nine months' time frame.

Each additional meeting of the team can look ahead further. The youth will be fully listened to and have input every step of the way. If there is disagreement, take the time to discuss the issue and resolve it before moving forward.

Each meeting covers strengths of the youth and a review of the previous assignments. Establish a new Crisis Plan (Plan B) at each meeting as well. Completion of the YTDM meeting process is determined by the youth and the team. It can continue informally after the youth ages out of the system, if desired.

This Week is National Public Health Week!

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

This week, April 1-7, is National Public Health Week (NPHW). The American Public Health Association (APHA) brings together communities across the U.S. to observe NPHW as a time to recognize the contributions of public health and highlight issues that are important to improving our nation's health. APHA developed a national campaign to educate the public, policymakers and practitioners about issues related to each year's theme.

This year's theme is Protecting, Connecting and Thriving: We Are All Public Health. Trust for America's Health (TFAH) provides examples of the contributions of the public health system to advancing Americans' health. They include increasing life expectancy, delivering vaccines, promoting maternal and infant health and more. See the list from TFAH here.

In addition, the Cook County Department of Public Health's NPHW Public Health Heroes League campaign and social media toolkit are available to NPHIC members. Login as a member to NPHIC.org, go to "member only/ COVID" then "what's new" for access to the toolkit for download, or email lespino@nphic.org.

Public Health is a Business Issue: A Discussion Dr. Mandy Cohen

Delve into an exclusive interview from Forbes with Dr. Mandy Cohen, Director of the CDC, as she shares insights on navigating the pandemic's impact on businesses and public health.

The article explores the intersection of public health and business, highlighting the crucial role the CDC plays in safeguarding public health. Director Cohen emphasizes the importance of clear communication, operational efficiency, and partnerships in addressing health threats like COVID-19. She also discusses the CDC's priorities, including vaccination, hygiene, cleaner air, testing, and treatment, while also emphasizing the agency's international efforts to combat diseases like avian flu. STI Awareness Week Toolkit: April 14 – 20

STI Awareness Week, happening April 14-20, 2024, provides an opportunity to raise awareness about STIs and how they impact our lives; reduce STI-related stigma, fear, and discrimination; and ensure people have the tools and knowledge for prevention, testing, and treatment.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

This toolkit provided by CDC serves as a comprehensive guide for public health communicators for their outreach activities during STI Awareness Week. Users can choose from three distinct campaigns—GYT: Get Yourself Tested, Prepare Before You're There, and Talk. Test. Treat.— each targeting different aspects of STI prevention and diverse audiences.

CDC Announces “Think. Test. Treat TB.” – A Campaign to Raise Awareness of Latent TB Infection

The CDC has launched “Think. Test. Treat TB.” – the inaugural national communications campaign aimed at bolstering testing and treatment for latent tuberculosis (TB) infection in the U.S. With an estimated 13 million individuals living with latent TB infection nationwide, the campaign highlights the imperative of expanding testing and treatment efforts to prevent the development of TB disease.

The initiative seeks to dispel the misconception that TB is no longer a concern and underscores the importance of addressing TB as a public health priority to foster healthier communities and promote health equity. The campaign offers free multilingual resources including digital and print materials, social media content, patient and provider education tools, and a partner toolkit, accessible nationwide. See more from the CDC here.

AIM Resource: Managing Vaccine Hesitancy During an Outbreak: A Focus on Cultural Competence

Recent outbreaks of vaccine-preventable diseases (VPDs) have emerged in areas with low vaccination rates. Vaccine hesitancy is a common factor in these outbreaks and understanding vaccine hesitancy among diverse populations is crucial for effective public health strategies.

The Association of Immunization Managers (AIM) provides Chapter 2 of their “Lessons from the Field: Promoting Vaccine Confidence” resource, where they offer essential, culturally competent steps for identifying and engaging with communities at risk for vaccine-preventable diseases to manage vaccine hesitancy, particularly in outbreak situations. Each step highlights key considerations, experiences from the field, immunization program and stakeholder insights, lessons learned, and resources to support programs’ community engagement efforts. See it here.

Feeding Our Children Nutritious Foods Should Be the Easiest of Decisions

"Health and Well-Being Matter," the monthly blog from the Director of the Office of Disease Prevention and Health Promotion, addresses the critical issue of childhood obesity in the U.S. Shockingly, nearly 1 in 5 children and adolescents are affected by obesity, with rates rising during the pandemic and showing no signs of improvement.

The heart of the epidemic lies in unhealthy dietary habits, with children consuming too few fruits and vegetables while indulging in calorie-rich, nutritionally deficient foods. Despite efforts outlined in Healthy People 2030 objectives, the situation remains dire, with little progress seen in improving dietary habits. Urgent action is needed to reverse these trends and safeguard the health of future generations. Read the blog here.

COVID-19 Side Effect Reports Mirror Red-Blue State Divide, Study Finds

People in Republican-voting states were more likely to report adverse events after receiving a COVID-19 vaccination than people living in Democratic-leaning states, a new analysis in JAMA Network Open finds, suggesting that how people view their post-vaccine side effects or decide whether to report them may be shaped by their political views.

More people died of COVID-19 in states where more voters registered as Republicans and voted that way. “The anti-vaccine movement might have started out along libertarian lines like, ‘Let’s not have compulsory vaccination,’ but it gradually moved into thinking that either the vaccines weren’t effective or that they were unsafe,” study author David Asch told STAT’s Elizabeth Cooney. Nursing Workforce is Becoming More Diverse

The latest federal data reveals a positive trend in the increasing diversity of America's nursing workforce over the past 15 years, though underrepresentation persists, particularly among Black and Hispanic nurses. Despite gains, Black and Hispanic nurses remain underrepresented compared to the overall population.

A diverse nursing workforce is crucial for reducing health disparities, delivering culturally competent care, and ultimately enhancing patient outcomes. It's imperative for healthcare organizations to prioritize sustained efforts in recruiting and retaining nurses of color to further diversify the field and address ongoing disparities in healthcare delivery. U.S. Measles Cases Surpass 2023 Total in First Three Months of This Year, CDC Says

The CDC reported a concerning increase in measles cases in the U.S., surpassing the total for 2023. As of March 21, 64 cases have been confirmed across 17 jurisdictions. The CDC issued a health advisory urging vaccination, especially for children and international travelers, emphasizing the high contagiousness of measles.

Several countries, including Austria, the Philippines, Romania, and the United Kingdom, are grappling with measles outbreaks. Despite the increase, the CDC noted low risk of widespread spread due to high population immunity in most U.S. communities, but cautioned about potential outbreaks in areas with low vaccination coverage. Nearly 108,000 Americans Died of Drug Overdoses in 2022, Breaking Record, CDC Says

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

The CDC released final figures showing that nearly 108,000 Americans died of drug overdoses in 2022, marking a continuous rise in overdose deaths over the past two decades. This trend has led to the worst overdose epidemic in American history. The fatal overdose rate for synthetic opioids like fentanyl increased by 4.1% between 2021 and 2022, along with increases in cocaine and psychostimulants.

However, there were declines in overdose rates for certain drugs such as heroin, natural and semisynthetic opioids, and methadone. The report also noted a decrease in overdose death rates among females for the first time in five years, while the rates for males continued to rise, constituting about 70% of U.S. overdose deaths. Global Fertility Rates to Plunge in Decades Ahead

A recent study published in The Lancet reveals a continuing decline in global fertility rates, predicting a significant demographic shift by the end of the century. From 1950 to 2021, the average number of children born to a woman has dropped from 4.84 to 2.23, with projections indicating a further decrease to 1.59 by 2100.

Factors contributing to this trend include increased opportunities for women in education and employment, better access to contraception and reproductive health services, and economic considerations such as the cost of raising children and changing societal values. Read more from CNN here.

COVID Vaccines Can Cut Post-Infection Heart Failure, Blood Clot Risk

A study across three European countries involving over 20 million people found that COVID-19 vaccination significantly lowers the risk of heart failure by up to 55% and blood clots by up to 78% post-infection. The study analyzed data from recipients of various vaccines and emphasized that the benefits are most pronounced within 30 days post-vaccination but can last up to a year.

Medical experts stress that the risks of COVID-19 complications outweigh any potential vaccine side effects. The findings support the CDC's recommendation for updated vaccines for adults aged 65 and above, with recent data showing a 54% effectiveness in preventing symptomatic infections among adults. First Pig Kidney Transplant in a Person: What it Means for the Future

The first successful transplant of a pig kidney into a human, performed on a 62-year-old man named Richard Slayman with end-stage renal failure, has ignited optimism among researchers for expanded clinical trials involving pig organs. Slayman is reported to be recovering well following the surgery on March 16, with the kidney sourced from a miniature pig engineered with a record 69 genomic edits to minimize rejection and virus transmission risks.

The biotech firm behind the genetically modified pigs notes that the case demonstrates the short-term safety and functionality of these organs. eGenesis is currently in talks with the US FDA to plan clinical trials for transplanted pig kidneys, pediatric hearts, and pig livers designed for external connection to recipients. Everything You Need to Know About Solar Eclipse Glasses Before April 8

With the total solar eclipse approaching on April 8, 2024, and an estimated 99% of people in the U.S. poised to witness either a partial or total eclipse, it's crucial to prioritize public health by ensuring safe viewing practices.

Special solar eclipse glasses are essential for direct viewing, as looking at the sun without proper eye protection—even for a short duration—can lead to severe eye damage or even blindness due to solar retinopathy. These glasses, designed to filter out harmful rays, are significantly darker than ordinary sunglasses, with filters permitting only a tiny fraction of visible light. Adhering to these safety measures is imperative, particularly as this rare astronomical event unfolds. Read more from NPR here.

Iowa’s Project LAUNCH initiative and Infant Toddler Court Program are sponsoring a series of “lunch and learn” webinars on topics related to infant mental health and equity.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

The webinar topics are listed below (dates for the final two webinars are yet to be determined). Each webinar will be held from 12:00 – 1:00 and is open to anyone interested in the topic. These webinars are free to attend. Feel free to share this with your contacts and let me know if you have any questions.

* Maternal Health, Birth Outcomes, and Early Childhood Development: This workshop will focus on the integration of maternal health, birth journey, and early childhood development from an equity perspective. Infant mental health is impacted by epigenetics. The impact of genes and environmental conditions begin in utero and continue throughout the lifespan. Many cognitive and social emotional delays can be linked to pregnancy outcomes. This course will highlight environmental and genetic factors contributing to infant mental health and childhood development.

March 27th * Register by clicking here: https://georgetown.zoom.us/-meeting/register/-tJYkdeCrqzIjHdc3bz9u45OWt4MSEh-JoUsNI

* Connecting with "Hard to Reach Families" IECMH Community Engagement Toolkit: One of the difficulties with the term "hard-to-reach" is that it places blame on families, when in fact, it may be the services that are "hard to reach". Families that are deemed "hard-to-reach" are those who are less likely to engage in services that are offered to them. They may be disinterested in the services, unwilling to accept help, or reluctant to ask for help. Participants will engage in activities to more deeply understand the challenges faced and how to face their own bias when interacting with families. They will learn why some families may not want to participate, while others may have difficulty accessing the services and many may not know the resources exist.

April 23rd *Register by clicking here: https://georgetown.zoom.us/-meeting/register/-tJwucuqsrjwqE9as-5--t7BJigEVQxPu6cyva#/-registration

* Secondary Traumatic Stress: Understanding the Impact on Professionals in Trauma-Exposed Workplaces: Designed for all child-serving professionals who are exposed to details of traumatic events and/or individuals suffering from post-traumatic distress in the context of their work. Participants will learn the risks associated with working with individuals suffering with traumatic stress symptoms, strategies to reduce the impact of secondary traumatic stress (STS), and how to support wellness in staff. This course addresses how STS is an ethical mandate for organizations and individuals working in trauma-exposed environments. Building in STS mitigation into systems supports equity efforts by supporting BIPOC populations with historical trauma they carry and present day stressors.

May 29th Register by clicking here: https://georgetown.zoom.us/-meeting/register/-tJckdOiupzwoGdDcFH--hGWK1lhItrFhjdOZf#/-registration

* Uncovering Implicit Bias and Racial Inequality through Reflective Supervision: This training will identify the elements of Reflective Supervision/Consultation and discuss how this intentional space is ideal to uncover implicit bias and process experiences of racial inequity to drive more equitable IECMH policies and practices.

Expanding the Massachusetts Birth Defects Monitoring Program to include additional pregnancy outcomes: Programmatic efforts and impacts on case ascertainment, 2012-2020

Birth defects affect 1 in 33 infants in the United States and are a leading cause of infant mortality. Birth defects surveillance is crucial for informing public health action. The Massachusetts Birth Defects Monitoring Program began collecting other pregnancy losses (OPLs) in 2011 including miscarriages (<20 weeks gestation) or elective terminations (any gestational age), in addition to live births and stillbirths (≥20 weeks gestation). This study describes programmatic changes for adding OPLs and their impact on prevalence estimates.

National Public Health Week is Almost Here!

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

During the first full week of April each year, the American Public Health Association (APHA) brings together communities across the U.S. to observe National Public Health Week (NPHW) as a time to recognize the contributions of public health and highlight issues that are important to improving our nation's health. This year's NPHW is April 1-7, 2024. Every year, APHA develops a national campaign to educate the public, policymakers and practitioners about issues related to each year's theme.

NPHW is a great opportunity to raise awareness about public health and how your organization and community support it! Use their toolkit to plan local events in your community and share their fact sheets and social media shareables — available in Spanish and English — with your community members, neighbors, clients and students!

U.S. Measles Cases Surpass 2023 Total in First Three Months of This Year, CDC Says

The CDC reported a concerning increase in measles cases in the U.S., surpassing the total for 2023. As of March 21, 64 cases have been confirmed across 17 jurisdictions. The CDC issued a health advisory urging vaccination, especially for children and international travelers, emphasizing the high contagiousness of measles.

Several countries, including Austria, the Philippines, Romania, and the United Kingdom, are grappling with measles outbreaks. Despite the increase, the CDC noted low risk of widespread spread due to high population immunity in most U.S. communities, but cautioned about potential outbreaks in areas with low vaccination coverage. Nearly 108,000 Americans Died of Drug Overdoses in 2022, Breaking Record, CDC Says

The CDC released final figures showing that nearly 108,000 Americans died of drug overdoses in 2022, marking a continuous rise in overdose deaths over the past two decades. This trend has led to the worst overdose epidemic in American history. The fatal overdose rate for synthetic opioids like fentanyl increased by 4.1% between 2021 and 2022, along with increases in cocaine and psychostimulants.

However, there were declines in overdose rates for certain drugs such as heroin, natural and semisynthetic opioids, and methadone. The report also noted a decrease in overdose death rates among females for the first time in five years, while the rates for males continued to rise, constituting about 70% of U.S. overdose deaths. Read more from CBS here.

Global Fertility Rates to Plunge in Decades Ahead

A recent study published in The Lancet reveals a continuing decline in global fertility rates, predicting a significant demographic shift by the end of the century. From 1950 to 2021, the average number of children born to a woman has dropped from 4.84 to 2.23, with projections indicating a further decrease to 1.59 by 2100.

Factors contributing to this trend include increased opportunities for women in education and employment, better access to contraception and reproductive health services, and economic considerations such as the cost of raising children and changing societal values. Read more from CNN here.

COVID Vaccines Can Cut Post-Infection Heart Failure, Blood Clot Risk

A study across three European countries involving over 20 million people found that COVID-19 vaccination significantly lowers the risk of heart failure by up to 55% and blood clots by up to 78% post-infection. The study analyzed data from recipients of various vaccines and emphasized that the benefits are most pronounced within 30 days post-vaccination but can last up to a year.

Medical experts stress that the risks of COVID-19 complications outweigh any potential vaccine side effects. The findings support the CDC's recommendation for updated vaccines for adults aged 65 and above, with recent data showing a 54% effectiveness in preventing symptomatic infections among adults. First Pig Kidney Transplant in a Person: What it Means for the Future

The first successful transplant of a pig kidney into a human, performed on a 62-year-old man named Richard Slayman with end-stage renal failure, has ignited optimism among researchers for expanded clinical trials involving pig organs. Slayman is reported to be recovering well following the surgery on March 16, with the kidney sourced from a miniature pig engineered with a record 69 genomic edits to minimize rejection and virus transmission risks.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

The biotech firm behind the genetically modified pigs notes that the case demonstrates the short-term safety and functionality of these organs. eGenesis is currently in talks with the US FDA to plan clinical trials for transplanted pig kidneys, pediatric hearts, and pig livers designed for external connection to recipients. Everything You Need to Know About Solar Eclipse Glasses Before April 8

With the total solar eclipse approaching on April 8, 2024, and an estimated 99% of people in the U.S. poised to witness either a partial or total eclipse, it's crucial to prioritize public health by ensuring safe viewing practices.

Special solar eclipse glasses are essential for direct viewing, as looking at the sun without proper eye protection—even for a short duration—can lead to severe eye damage or even blindness due to solar retinopathy. These glasses, designed to filter out harmful rays, are significantly darker than ordinary sunglasses, with filters permitting only a tiny fraction of visible light. Adhering to these safety measures is imperative, particularly as this rare astronomical event unfolds. Read more from NPR here.

Cook County Public Health Officials Say Recent Measles Cases Important Reminder to Get Vaccinated

Cook County public health officials in Illinois are emphasizing the importance of measles vaccination following recent cases in Chicago. Highlighting the severity of measles, especially for vulnerable groups like infants, pregnant women, and those with weakened immune systems, they stress the need for vaccination to prevent serious complications such as pneumonia and brain damage.

Measles spreads easily through the air, and symptoms typically appear 7-14 days after exposure, including fever, cough, runny nose, and distinctive rashes. The public is advised to contact healthcare providers promptly if symptoms develop to prevent further spread. Read their press release, written by NPHIC member Kim Junius here.

By 2022, COVID Pandemic had Shaved 1.6 Years from Global Life Expectancy, Research Reveals

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

A recent study published in The Lancet reveals a startling decline in global life expectancy, dropping by 1.6 years from 2019 to 2021, largely due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The research analyzed data from over 200 countries and territories, showing a significant increase in death rates and highlighting the pandemic's toll on global health.

Despite these setbacks, the study notes overall progress in global health over the past 72 years but underscores the need for proactive policies to address demographic shifts and health challenges exacerbated by the pandemic. Read more from UMN here.

EPA Bans Last Form of Asbestos Used in U.S.

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) has announced a significant milestone in public health by implementing a ban on ongoing uses of asbestos, a substance linked to various cancers. The ban applies specifically to chrysotile asbestos, the only form currently used in the U.S., primarily in car parts and friction products.

Despite its low cost and versatility, asbestos has been recognized as a carcinogen for decades, with exposure linked to over 40,000 deaths in the U.S. alone. The agency has set deadlines for different industries to phase out asbestos, aiming to mitigate its harmful effects on public health. Read more from CNN here.

FDA Seeks $7.2 Billion to Strengthen Public Health

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) has proposed a budget of $7.2 billion for fiscal year (FY) 2025, with a focus on bolstering public health efforts. This funding increase, totaling $495 million above the FY 2023 level, aims to strengthen food safety and nutrition initiatives, enhance medical product safety, ensure supply chain resiliency, and modernize agency infrastructure and facilities.

Specifically, investments will support root-cause investigations to prevent foodborne illnesses, address supply chain disruptions, maintain a qualified workforce, implement cosmetics regulation, and modernize data infrastructure. These initiatives reflect the agency's commitment to safeguarding public health and addressing critical challenges in food safety, nutrition, and medical product regulation. Read more here.

‘Alarming’ Rise in Americans with Long COVID Symptoms

A recent survey by the CDC indicates that approximately 6.8% of American adults are currently grappling with long COVID symptoms, marking a concerning uptick from previous months despite the CDC's relaxation of COVID isolation guidelines. This increase, from 5.3% in October, suggests that about 17.6 million Americans could be affected by long COVID.

Experts view this rise with alarm, particularly given the significant impact on individuals' daily activities, affecting approximately 3.8 million Americans severely. Factors such as recent infection surges, vaccination rates, and new variants contribute to this trend. This surge in long COVID cases represents the highest rate since November 2022, raising concerns among health officials about the ongoing challenges posed by post- COVID symptoms. Cancer-Causing Chemical Can Form at ‘Unacceptably High Levels’ in Certain Acne Products

A recent report from Valisure, an independent laboratory, highlights concerns regarding benzene formation in acne treatment products containing benzoyl peroxide, a known carcinogen. The report indicates that high levels of benzene, exceeding FDA concentration limits by over 800 times, can develop when these products are exposed to high temperatures, such as in a hot car.

Tests conducted by Valisure demonstrated benzene presence not only within the products but also in the surrounding air, with levels surpassing EPA thresholds for inhalation exposure by over 1,200 times. However, acne treatments containing alternative active ingredients like salicylic acid or adapalene did not exhibit similar benzene formation. Read more from CNN here.

FDA Approves First Drug for Serious Liver Disease

The FDA has approved Rezdiffra (resmetirom), the first drug for treating nonalcoholic steatohepatitis (NASH), a severe liver disease characterized by inflammation due to excessive fatty cells. NASH can lead to liver scarring and dysfunction over time, often associated with type 2 diabetes and high blood pressure.

Rezdiffra, a partial activator of the thyroid hormone receptor, aims to reduce liver fat accumulation. With an estimated 6-8 million affected individuals in the U.S., the approval marks a significant advancement, providing a treatment option beyond diet and exercise. Read more from The Hill here.

What to Know About the EPA's Upcoming Car Emissions Standards

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) is on track to finalize new emissions standards for cars and light trucks, continuing its legacy of safeguarding public health under the Clean Air Act. These standards, applicable from 2027 to 2032, are projected to yield significant public health benefits, potentially amounting to $280 billion.

By reducing local pollutant emissions by 60%, including nitrous oxide and particulate matter, the standards aim to mitigate health issues such as asthma and heart disease. Additionally, cutting greenhouse gas emissions from vehicles by 56% is crucial for combating climate change, given that the transportation sector accounts for 29% of total U.S. emissions. Hi there,

Please see below and attached for information on the Centrum MVM & Cognition Studies. I'm happy to do any follow-up discussion on this topic with Rep. Shilpley, Director Garcia, or their medical director. We know from previous nutrition research data that older adults have compromised dietary intakes of many nutrients and these studies now give us evidence of tangible benefits – and from well-done studies conducted independently of Haleon.

Centrum brand multivitamins have now been studied in 3 ancillary clinical studies from the large COSMOS parent trial (https://cosmostrial.org/) conducted by investigators at Brigham & Women's Hospital/Harvard Medical School. The three studies examined cognitive health in aging adults 65+ and found daily multivitamin use in this population had a significant positive effect on Global Cognitive Function & Memory.

Summary of 3 studies below and I've attached the three publications.

COSMOS-Mind: September 2022

* 3-year, double-blind, randomized controlled trial
* 2,262 older adults
* Primary outcome: Telephone-based assessment of Global Cognitive Function
* Secondary outcome: Episodic memory & Executive function

Findings: MVM supplementation significantly improved global cognitive function, episodic memory & executive function over 3 years.

COSMOS-Web: May 2023

* 3-year, double-blind, randomized controlled trial
* 3,562 older adults
* Primary outcome: Web-based assessment of episodic memory

Findings: Centrum Silver significantly improved memory at 1 year with persistent effects over 3
