Dear Requester:

This letter is a final response to your 2 April 2020 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for all materials prepared or compiled by officials at [our] agency or through an interagency process for Jared Kushner, senior advisor to the President, regarding the coronavirus and the risk of its spread (or any efforts or opportunities to mitigate its spread); to include, but not limited to, all materials requested or tasked by Mr. Kushner regarding the coronavirus outbreak; all updates or recommendations for Mr. Kushner regarding the outbreak and efforts to mitigate its spread; and all finished intelligence products (including any other final intelligence articles, assessments, or memoranda, or any final daily updates or situation reports for [our] agency's senior leadership) prepared by analysts and [our] agency or through an interagency process and provided to Mr. Kushner regarding the coronavirus outbreak, and the risk of its spread (or any efforts or opportunities to mitigate its spread). The timeframe [you] request is December 1, 2019 through March 31, 2020.

We completed a thorough review of your request and determined that, in accordance with Section 3.6(a) of Executive Order 13526, the CIA can neither confirm nor deny the existence or nonexistence of records responsive to your request. The fact of the existence or nonexistence of such records is itself currently and properly classified and is intelligence sources and methods information protected from disclosure by Section 6 of the CIA Act of 1949, as amended, and Section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended. Therefore, your request is denied pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

As the CIA Information and Privacy Coordinator, I am the CIA official responsible for this determination. You may appeal this response to the Agency Release Panel, in my care, within 90 days from the date of this letter. Please explain the basis for your appeal.

Please be advised that you may also seek dispute-resolution services from the CIA FOIA Public Liaison or from the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) of the National Archives and Records Administration. OGIS offers mediation services to help resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies. Please note, contacting CIA's FOIA Public Liaison or OGIS does not affect your right to pursue an administrative appeal.

To contact CIA directly with questions or to appeal the CIA's response to the Agency Release Panel:	To contact the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) for mediation or with questions:
