Dear Austin Evers:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act/Privacy Act (FOIA/PA) request received in this office on April 22, 2020 regarding email communications (including email messages, complete email chains, email attachments, calendar invitations, and calendar invitation attachments) sent by Robert Law, chief for the Office of Policy and Strategy to any email address ending in .com, .net, .org, .edu, or .mail.

We have considered the foreseeable harm standard when reviewing the record set and have applied the FOIA exemptions as required by the statute and the Attorney General's Guidance. We have completed the review of all documents and have identified 337 pages that are responsive to your request. Enclosed are 80 pages released in their entirety and 227 pages released in part. Additionally, we have referred 22 pages in their entirety to U.S. Department of State and 8 pages in their entirety to Department of Homeland Security. We have reviewed and have determined to release all information except those portions that are exempt pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(5) and (b)(6) of the FOIA.

The following exemptions are applicable:

Exemption (b)(5) provides protection for inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters, which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency. The types of documents and/or information that we have withheld under this exemption may consist of documents containing pre-decisional information, documents or other memoranda prepared in contemplation of litigation, or confidential communications between attorney and client.

Exemption (b)(6) permits the government to withhold all information about individuals in personnel, medical and similar files where the disclosure of such information would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. The types of documents and/or information that we have withheld may consist of birth certificates, naturalization certificates, drivers' licenses, social security numbers, home addresses, dates of birth, or various other documents and/or information belonging to a third party that are considered personal.

There may be additional documents that contain discretionary releases of exempt information. If made, these releases are specifically identified in the responsive record. These discretionary releases do not waive our ability to invoke applicable FOIA exemptions for similar or related information in the future.

The enclosed record consists of the best reproducible copies available. Certain pages contain marks that appear to be blacked-out information. The black marks were made prior to our receipt of the file and are not information we have withheld under the provisions of the FOIA or PA.

You have the right to file an administrative appeal within 90 days of the date of this letter. By filing an appeal, you preserve your rights under FOIA and give the agency a chance to review and reconsider your request and the agency's decision. You may file an administrative FOIA appeal by mail to USCIS FOIA/PA Appeals Office, 150 Space Center Loop, Suite 500, Lee's Summit, MO 64064-2139. Both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

If you would like to discuss our response before filing an appeal to attempt to resolve your dispute without going through the appeals process, you may contact our USCIS FOIA Public Liaison at U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, National Records Center, FOIA/PA Office, P.O. Box 648010, Lee's Summit, MO 64064-8010, or by email at FOIAPAQuestions@uscis.dhs.gov.

A USCIS FOIA Public Liaison is an agency official to whom FOIA requesters can raise concerns about the service the requester has received from the agency's FOIA Office. USCIS FOIA Public Liaisons are responsible for assisting in reducing delays, increasing transparency, and understanding of the status of requests, and assisting in the resolution of disputes.

If you are unable to resolve your FOIA dispute through our USCIS FOIA Public Liaison, you may contact the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at the National Archives and Records Administration to inquire about the FOIA mediation services they offer. The contact information for OGIS is Office of Government Information Services, National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road-OGIS, College Park, Maryland 20740-6001; email ogis@nara.gov; telephone 202-741-5770; toll free 877-684-6448; or facsimile 202-741-5769.

The National Records Center does not process petitions, applications, or any other type of benefit under the Immigration and Nationality Act. If you have questions or wish to submit documentation relating to a matter pending with USCIS, please visit the Contact Us page at www.uscis.gov or call the USCIS Contact Center at 800-375-5283 (TTY 800-767-1833).

Hi Michael,

Given my current workload I don't have the bandwidth to be responsive in a timely manner so I've copied Jacob Stubbs from our shop who should be able to better assist for the time being. Jacob, as we discussed Michael and his group are fantastic and instrumental in their recommendations to combat fraud in the O and P consultation process.

Thanks,

Hi Robert –

Greetings and nice to e-meet you. ☺ This is great. Right now we do have 2 USCIS panel discussions we are trying to get representatives for. The USCIS Hot Topics is on 5/17/2019 from 10:30 a.m.-12:00 p.m. This would be the more applicable panel for your expertise and thus I will put you on that panel.

We do have another USCIS panel on 5/18/19... but looks that would not work for you. I did also email Dan Renaud and Don Neufeld as it may be more in their areas as it is a more “boots on the ground” type of panel. Don responded back and indicated he forwarded the request to Public Engagement to determine who may be available for that panel.

Thus, if you are available for the 5/17/19 Hot Topics panel, I will provide your contact info to our FBA Conference organizer and she will forward a formal invitation to you so that you can follow through for official approval.

Once you are confirmed, I will reach back out to you with a draft agenda items for discussion and other panel members. Then we can get prepared and ready.

Look forward to your participation on the panel. ☺

Cheers!

Subject: Speakers for the FBA ILS Conference May 2019

Hi Craig –

How are you? I hope your role as Chief Counsel is going well and you are surviving the government shutdown craziness. ☺

It is my understanding that Molly and John have talked to you about a request for being a speaker for the Federal Bar Association Immigration Law Conference being held in Austin, TX from May 17-18, 2019. I am currently a board member and have been a participant in the FBA for the past few years (even while with USCIS). I will be moderating the USCIS Hot Topics panel this year and was hoping you may join me.

I know there has been a pull back with government folks attending conferences to speak on current policies and issues due to the harsh advocacy going on right now. However, I think if the government was going to attend any conference, this is the one that should be attended (yes, I am a little biased). But in all honesty, the FBA is a bar association for Federal government attorneys. The conference is well attended by folks from both the government as well as private bar. We have federal district court judges, government attorneys, retired IJ's, current IJ's and private bar who attend. I think the most important thing about this conference is the fact that we are all here to discuss the law and due process, not advocacy. The mission of the Association is to strengthen the federal legal system and administration of justice by serving the interests and the needs of the federal practitioner, both public and private, the federal judiciary and the public they serve.

This year, the Immigration Law Section (ILS) and myself are trying to bring back civility in the immigration discussions. However, we need well balanced panels in order to discuss the important immigration issues before us. That means ensuring that the federal government agencies are well represented and have opportunities to be part of the discussion. I believe this conference is a great opportunity to do so. Thus, my request to you to see if you or others would be interested in participating with me. I am asking OCC because this is a group of attorneys attending. Therefore, an appropriate place for OCC to be vocal and present. However, if you believe asking operational folks would be better, I am happy to do so as well. I know Dan R. and Don N. I believe a request may have also gone out to Ron Rosenberg directly from another panel.

So, Let me know your thoughts and would love to have USCIS properly represented. ☺

Cheers!

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

[REDACTED] (b)(6)
[REDACTED].org

Statement on USCIS's Announcement Regarding P Visa Consultation Process

WASHINGTON, February 13, 2019 - Last week U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) announced that labor unions can directly send consultation letters to USCIS in instances when unions are not providing a letter that is favorable to a P-1, P-2, or P-3 nonimmigrant visa petitioner. The P visa category is used by athletes, artists, entertainers, and support personnel who want to work temporarily in the United States. A petitioner that seeks a P visa must submit a consultation letter from the appropriate union in its application materials to the U.S. government.

Department for Professional Employees, AFL-CIO (DPE) President Jennifer Dorning issued the following statement in response to this USCIS directive:

“DPE and our affiliate unions in the arts, entertainment, and media industries commend USCIS and Director L. Francis Cissna for continuing to address serious fraud and abuse within both the O and P visa programs. Unscrupulous petitioners submitting consultation letters on fraudulently altered union letterhead is an issue across visa categories. Our unions take seriously their role as advisors in both the O and P visa petition process because it is through this advisory role that these unions can help maintain pay and working conditions, safeguarding the economic interests of all professionals working in the industry. When low-road petitioners abuse the O or P visa approval process, they undermine the ability of our unions to maintain the workplace standards their members fought hard to achieve.

We view USCIS’s February 8th announcement as a continuation of needed reforms to the O and P visa consultation process, and look forward to further reforms that more fully address misuse of the consultation process.”

DPE unions in the arts, entertainment, and media industries include:

Actors’ Equity Association (AEA)
American Federation of Musicians (AFM)
American Guild of Musical Artists (AGMA)
American Guild of Variety Artists (AGVA)
Directors Guild of America (DGA)
Guild of Italian American Actors (GIAA)
International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees, Moving Picture Technicians, Artists and Allied Crafts (IATSE)
International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (IBEW)
Office and Professional Employees International Union (OPEIU)
Screen Actors Guild-American Federation of Television and Radio Artists (SAG-AFTRA)
Stage Directors and Choreographers Society (SDC)
Writers Guild of America, East (WGAE)

About DPE

The Department for Professional Employees, AFL-CIO (DPE) is a coalition of 24 unions representing over four million professional and technical union members. DPE affiliate unions represent professionals in over 300 occupations in education and healthcare; science, engineering, and technology; legal, business, and management; media, entertainment, and the arts; and public administration.

NOTICE TO EMPLOYEE

Do you have to file? Refer to the Form 1040 instructions to determine if you are required to file a tax return. Even if you don't have to file a tax return, you may be eligible for a refund if box 2 shows an amount or if you are eligible for any credit.

Earned income credit (EIC). You may be able to take the EIC for 2018 if your adjusted gross income (AGI) is less than a certain amount. The amount of the credit is based on income and family size. Workers without children could qualify for a smaller credit. You and any qualifying children must have valid social security numbers (SSNs). You can't take the EIC if your investment income is more than the specified amount for 2018 or if income is earned for services provided while you were an inmate at a penal institution. For 2018 income limits and more information, visit www.irs.gov/EITC. Also see Pub. 596, Earned Income Credit. Any EIC that is more than your tax liability is refunded to you, but only if you file a tax return.

Corrections. If your name, SSN, or address is incorrect, correct Copies B, C, and 2 and ask your employer to correct your employment record. Be sure to ask the employer to file Form W-2c, Corrected Wage and Tax Statement, with the Social Security Administration (SSA) to correct any name, SSN, or money amount error reported to the SSA on Form W-2. Be sure to get your copies of Form W-2c from your employer for all corrections made so you may file them with your tax return. If your name and SSN are correct but aren't the same as shown on your social security card, you should ask for a new card that displays your correct name at any SSA office or by calling 800-772-1213. You also may visit the SSA Web site at www.SSA.gov.

Cost of employer-sponsored health coverage (if such cost is provided by the employer). The reporting in box 12, using code DD, of the cost of employer-sponsored health coverage is for your information only. The amount reported with code DD is not taxable.

Credit for excess taxes. If you had more than one employer in 2018 and more than $7,960.80 in social security and/or Tier 1 railroad retirement (RRTA) taxes were withheld, you may be able to claim a credit for the excess against your federal income tax. If you had more than one railroad employer and more than $4,674.60 in Tier 2 RRTA tax was withheld, you also may be able to claim a credit. See your Form 1040 instructions and Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Instructions

Box 1. Enter this amount on the wages line of your tax return.

Box 2. Enter this amount on the federal income tax withheld line of your tax return.

Box 5. You may be required to report this amount on Form 8959, Additional Medicare Tax. See the Form 1040 instructions to determine if you are required to complete Form 8959.

Box 6. This amount includes the 1.45% Medicare Tax withheld on all Medicare wages and tips shown in box 5, as well as the 0.9% Additional Medicare Tax on any of those Medicare wages and tips above $200,000.

Box 8. This amount is not included in box 1, 3, 5, or 7. For information on how to report tips on your tax return, see your Form 1040 instructions.

You must file Form 4137, Social Security and Medicare Tax on Unreported Tip Income, with your income tax return to report at least the allocated tip amount unless you can prove that you received a smaller amount. If you have records that show the actual amount of tips you received, report that amount even if it is more or less than the allocated tips. On Form 4137 you will calculate the social security and Medicare Tax owed on the allocated tips shown on your Form(s) W-2 that you must report as income and on other tips you did not report to your employer. By filing Form 4137, your social security tips will be credited to your social security record (used to figure your benefits).

Box 9. If you are e-filing and if there is a code in this box, enter it when prompted by your software. The only valid characters are the letters A-F and digits 0-9. This code assists the IRS in validating the W-2 data submitted with your return. The code is not entered on paper-filed returns.

Box 10. This amount includes the total dependent care benefits that your employer paid to you or incurred on your behalf (including amounts from a section 125 (cafeteria) plan). Any amount over $5,000 also is included in box 1. Complete Form 2441, Child and Dependent Care Expenses, to compute any taxable and nontaxable amounts.

Box 12. The following list explains the codes shown in box 12. You may need this information to complete your tax return. Elective deferrals (codes D and E) and designated Roth contributions (codes AA and BB) under all plans are generally limited to a total of $18,500 ($12,500 if you only have SIMPLE plans; $21,500 for section 403(b) plans if you qualify for the 15-year rule explained in Pub. 571).

However, if you were at least age 50 in 2018, your employer may have allowed an additional deferral of up to $6,000 ($3,000 for section 401(k)(11) and 408(p) SIMPLE plans). This additional deferral amount is not subject to the overall limit on elective deferrals. Contact your plan administrator for more information. Amounts in excess of the overall elective deferral limit must be included in income. See the instructions for Form 1040.

Note: If a year follows code D, E, AA, or BB, you made a make-up pension contribution for a prior year(s) when you were in military service. To figure whether you made excess deferrals, consider these amounts for the year shown, not the current year. If no year is shown, the contributions are for the current year.

Box 12 C. Taxable cost of group-term life insurance over $50,000 (included in boxes 1, 3 (up to social security wage base), and 5).

Box 12 D. Elective deferrals to a section 401(k) cash or deferred arrangement. Also includes deferrals under a SIMPLE retirement account that is part of a section 401(k) arrangement.

Box 12 E. Elective deferrals under a section 403(b) salary reduction agreement.

Box 12 P. Excludable moving expense reimbursements paid directly to an employee (not included in box 1, 3, or 5).

Box 12 W. Employer contributions (including amounts the employee elected to contribute using a section 125 (cafeteria) plan) to your health savings account. Report on Form 8889, Health Savings Accounts (HSAs).

Box 12 AA. Designated Roth contributions under a section 401(k) plan.

Box 12 BB. Designated Roth contributions under a section 403(b) plan.

Box 12 DD. Cost of employer-sponsored health coverage. The amount reported with code DD is not taxable.

Box 13. If the "Retirement plan" box is checked, special limits may apply to the amount of traditional IRA contributions you may deduct. See Pub. 590-A, Contributions to Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs).

Box 14. Employers may use this box to report information such as state disability insurance taxes withheld, union dues, uniform payments, health insurance premiums deducted, nontaxable income, educational assistance payments, or a member of the clergy's parsonage allowance and utilities. Railroad employers use this box to report railroad retirement (RTA) compensation, Tier 1 tax, Tier 2 tax, Medicare Tax and Additional Medicare Tax.

Note: Keep Copy C of Form W-2 for at least 3 years after the due date for filing your income tax return. However, to help protect your social security benefits, keep Copy C until you begin receiving social security benefits, just in case there is a question about your work record and/or earnings in a particular year.

Subject: RE: FBA Immigration Law Conference - USCIS Hot Topics Panel

Hi Robert –

Sorry I have been so quiet over the past few weeks. Was just waiting to get the green light from USCIS Public Engagement that you were confirmed and on board.

Our other panel member currently is tentatively Stacy Shore from the USCIS Ombudsmen's Policy office. We are just waiting to get the green light from her as well.

But in the meantime, please review the below. We need you to log in to our Speakers Portal and complete the necessary registration. I will work the materials for CLE credit. Unless you have anything you want to submit. Otherwise, I can handle that through the links to the various policies, pending regs, etc. Finally, please see the location of the conference and hotel info.

Furthermore, I would love to get time on our calendars in early April so that we can start to formalize our topic discussion and determine if we want any PPT materials or if we just want to do a Q&A type session. I will be in the office the weeks of April 8 -12 and April 15 -19. Let me know if any days and times work best for you during those weeks. ☺

Cheers!

Subject: Dinner Thursday night (b)(6)

Charlie and Tiffany—Kelli is a Senior Counsel with BAL, and former USCIS counsel, and she is on the USCIS panel. We looked at the official dinner, and it is pretty steep—60 bucks—so we were thinking of going on our own. Any interest in you all (and Becky Austin) joining us? Kelli is on the USCIS panel and is going to invite the USCIS folks. Jeff.

Policy Guidance

We want to make as much progress as we can by Labor Day on drafting and revisions. We will then assess any deficiencies we need to address the week of Labor Day to ensure we submit the guidance document(s) into concurrence in early September.

National Stakeholder Engagement

EXA would prefer to do a stakeholder engagement in late September. I have concerns about doing a national stakeholder engagement before the guidance is published, but EXA is concerned that a vacuum of information sharing will occur if we wait closer to the October 15th effective date.

Training

Here is FOD's proposed training plan.

FOD Training Calendar (Tentative)

	Date (Anticipated that training will not last more than 6.5 hours)
NBC	Wednesday, October 16, 2019
NER	Tuesday, October 22, 2019
SER	Thursday, October 24, 2019
CRO	Tuesday, October 29, 2019
WRO & Honolulu	Tuesday, November 5, 2019 10am - 4:30pm PT 8am – 2:30 Hawaiian Time

- FOD is asking the Regions to designate a District Office in which the training will occur and to send a training officer and SME in-person.
- All others will be able to join by WebEx.
- FOD is also planning on recording the trainings and making the best one available for future trainings.
- FOD is currently working on a training PPT and hopes to have a working draft to share on Friday.

We still need to find out what SCOPS plans to do.

Dear Kathy and Andrew,

I hope you had a safe trip back home after this intense meeting in Paris.

As I mentioned to you I will be in DC next week for a meeting at IDB (programme attached).

I would have some time on Friday afternoon 31/01 and would be delighted to meet with both of you if possible notably to discuss the attached document which presents the new Mid Term Orientation for the OECD
This document was received today and surprisingly it seems that the United States propose to cut OECD activities on migration altogether and to reorganise them under labour issues.

I would be happy to discuss with you how we can serve better your priorities and interests in all areas that are relevant for your work.

Please let me know if you would have time for such a meeting.

All the best,

Jean-Christophe

Dear Jean-Christophe,

Thank you for your email, and for taking the time to meet with me last week while you were in D.C. I hope your return trip to Paris went smoothly.

I am so glad our schedules aligned for a brief in-person conversation. I thoroughly enjoyed learning more about the OECD – its structure, impact, and policy initiatives. As we discussed, the U.S. will revise its budget position on migration. I leave it to the U.S. Mission in Paris to officially inform the OECD of our revised response.

Thank you, as well, for the information on future OECD meetings. Meredith is working closely with Neil Gibson to identify the appropriate U.S. involvement.

I look forward to our meeting in Ottawa.

Dear Robert

Many thanks for our very fruitful meeting yesterday. Many thanks for your support and the continuous excellent cooperation. I was pleased to hear that the official US position on MTO for migration is actually not “exit” and look forward to any further indication you may have in this regard. As discussed my understanding is that the next important step is the Ambassadors meeting on February 28. I hope that the US Ambassador will be able to echo the US perspective on OECD work on migration at this occasion.

As I did not had the exact dates in mind yesterday please note that the next Working Party on Migration will take place on the 17 to 19th of June. I will send a draft agenda in April. The OECD Expert group on migration (to which Mike Hoefer/Marc Roseblum used to come before) is on the 19-21st of October. I will send guidelines for the national reports in July. The next NETCOM meeting (for communication officers) should take place in April/May in Paris but we do not have a fix date yet. I will come back to you on that asap.

I look forward to seeing you at the senior official meeting of IGC in Ottawa and at the next occasion

Please do not hesitate to contact me directly for any question/query

Kind regards

Hi Rob,

Hope you're holding up alright through all of this.

Do you have 15 minutes for a quick call with the IATSE's Dan Mahoney and me? The IATSE experienced a quirky incident recently with the visa waiver program that is connected to Hawaii's International Film Association. We're hoping to update you on the incident and get your thoughts on how to proceed.

Thanks in advance for any time you can provide.

Best,
Michael

Hey Rob,

I saw that a letter is coming from Senators Cotton, Cruz, Hawley, and Grassley today to President Trump with a request to suspend all guest worker programs.

With the assumption that USCIS is part of deliberations about any possible suspension of nonimmigrant visa programs, do you have 10 minutes for a quick call re: O and P programs?

Thanks,
Michael

NOTICE TO EMPLOYEE

Do you have to file? Refer to the Form 1040 instructions to determine if you are required to file a tax return. Even if you don't have to file a tax return, you may be eligible for a refund if box 2 shows an amount or if you are eligible for any credit.

Earned income credit (EIC). You may be able to take the EIC for 2019 if your adjusted gross income (AGI) is less than a certain amount. The amount of the credit is based on income and family size. Workers without children could qualify for a smaller credit. You and any qualifying children must have valid social security numbers (SSNs). You can't take the EIC if your investment income is more than the specified amount for 2019 or if income is earned for services provided while you were an inmate at a penal institution. For 2019 income limits and more information, visit www.irs.gov/EITC. Also see Pub. 596, Earned Income Credit. Any EIC that is more than your tax liability is refunded to you, but only if you file a tax return.

Corrections. If your name, SSN, or address is incorrect, correct Copies B, C, and 2 and ask your employer to correct your employment record. Be sure to ask the employer to file Form W-2c, Corrected Wage and Tax Statement, with the Social Security Administration (SSA) to correct any name, SSN, or money amount error reported to the SSA on Form W-2. Be sure to get your copies of Form W-2c from your employer for all corrections made so you may file them with your tax return. If your name and SSN are correct but aren't the same as shown on your social security card, you should ask for a new card that displays your correct name at any SSA office or by calling 800-772-1213. You also may visit the SSA Web site at www.SSA.gov.

Cost of employer-sponsored health coverage (if such cost is provided by the employer). The reporting in box 12, using code DD, of the cost of employer-sponsored health coverage is for your information only. The amount reported with code DD is not taxable.

Credit for excess taxes. If you had more than one employer in 2019 and more than $8,239.80 in social security and/or Tier 1 railroad retirement (RRTA) taxes were withheld, you may be able to claim a credit for the excess against your federal income tax. If you had more than one railroad employer and more than $4,836.30 in Tier 2 RRTA tax was withheld, you also may be able to claim a credit. See your Form 1040 instructions and Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Instructions

Box 1. Enter this amount on the wages line of your tax return.

Box 2. Enter this amount on the federal income tax withheld line of your tax return.

Box 5. You may be required to report this amount on Form 8959, Additional Medicare Tax. See the Form 1040 instructions to determine if you are required to complete Form 8959.

Box 6. This amount includes the 1.45% Medicare Tax withheld on all Medicare wages and tips shown in box 5, as well as the 0.9% Additional Medicare Tax on any of those Medicare wages and tips above $200,000.

Box 8. This amount is not included in box 1, 3, 5, or 7. For information on how to report tips on your tax return, see your Form 1040 instructions.

You must file Form 4137, Social Security and Medicare Tax on Unreported Tip Income, with your income tax return to report at least the allocated tip amount unless you can prove that you received a smaller amount. If you have records that show the actual amount of tips you received, report that amount even if it is more or less than the allocated tips. On Form 4137, you will calculate the social security and Medicare tax owed on the allocated tips shown on your Form(s) W-2 that you must report as income and on other tips you did not report to your employer. By filing Form 4137, your social security tips will be credited to your social security record (used to figure your benefits).

Box 10. This amount includes the total dependent care benefits that your employer paid to you or incurred on your behalf (including amounts from a section 125 (cafeteria) plan). Any amount over $5,000 also is included in box 1. Complete Form 2441, Child and Dependent Care Expenses, to compute any taxable and nontaxable amounts.

Box 12. The following list explains the codes shown in box 12. You may need this information to complete your tax return. Elective deferrals (codes D and E) and designated Roth contributions (codes AA and BB) under all plans are generally limited to a total of $19,000 ($13,000 if you only have SIMPLE plans; $22,000 for section 403(b) plans if you qualify for the 15-year rule explained in Pub. 571).

However, if you were at least age 50 in 2019, your employer may have allowed an additional deferral of up to $6,000 ($3,000 for section 401(k)(11) and 408(p) SIMPLE plans). This additional deferral amount is not subject to the overall limit on elective deferrals. Contact your plan administrator for more information. Amounts in excess of the overall elective deferral limit must be included in income. See the instructions for Form 1040.

Note: If a year follows code D, E, AA, or BB, you made a make-up pension contribution for a prior year(s) when you were in military service. To figure whether you made excess deferrals, consider these amounts for the year shown, not the current year. If no year is shown, the contributions are for the current year.

Box 12 C. Taxable cost of group-term life insurance over $50,000 (included in boxes 1, 3 (up to social security wage base), and 5).

Box 12 D. Elective deferrals to a section 401(k) cash or deferred arrangement. Also includes deferrals under a SIMPLE retirement account that is part of a section 401(k) arrangement.

Box 12 E. Elective deferrals under a section 403(b) salary reduction agreement.

Box 12 W. Employer contributions (including amounts the employee elected to contribute using a section 125 (cafeteria) plan) to your health savings account. Report on Form 8889, Health Savings Accounts (HSAs).

Box 12 AA. Designated Roth contributions under a section 401(k) plan.

Box 12 BB. Designated Roth contributions under a section 403(b) plan.

Box 12 DD. Cost of employer-sponsored health coverage. The amount reported with code DD is not taxable.

Box 13. If the "Retirement plan" box is checked, special limits may apply to the amount of traditional IRA contributions you may deduct. See Pub. 590-A, Contributions to Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs).

Box 14. Employers may use this box to report information such as state disability insurance taxes withheld, union dues, uniform payments, health insurance premiums deducted, nontaxable income, educational assistance payments, or a member of the clergy's parsonage allowance and utilities. Railroad employers use this box to report railroad retirement (RRTA) compensation, Tier 1 tax, Tier 2 tax, Medicare tax and Additional Medicare tax.

Note: Keep Copy C of Form W-2 for at least 3 years after the due date for filing your income tax return. However, to help protect your social security benefits, keep Copy C until you begin receiving social security benefits, just in case there is a question about your work record and/or earnings in a particular year.
