Sarah,

This is a follow up reply to the attached open records request. We have searched our records and did not locate any responsive documents related to number one of your request. We searched our records and found one potentially responsive record related to your second request. There is an email between Blair McGowan and Frances Watson, however, it is related to corporations/identity fraud and does not relate to “voter or election fraud related to absent voters or absentee ballots”. Please let me know if you believe this document is responsive to your request.
