Re: FOIA-2020-01022
DRH:SLE

Dear Austin Evers:

This responds to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated and received in this Office on May 5, 2020, in which you requested emails from the Office of the Attorney General, Office of Legal Policy, or former Director of the Office of Public Affairs Sarah Isgur Flores containing the term “bravoure” from January 20, 2017, to October 31, 2018.

Please be advised that searches have been conducted in the Office of the Attorney General, Office of Legal Policy, and Office of Public Affairs, and two records have been located that contain the term “bravoure.” In both instances, the references are to a Washington Post news article (see: <https://www.washingtonpost.com/news/worldviews/wp/2018/03/24/he-saved-lives-arnaud-beltrame-french-police-officer-who-traded-places-with-a-hostage-dies/>) in which the term is found within a tweet pasted within the article. These records contain no Department commentary on the substance of the Washington Post article. Accordingly, I trust that are not interested in this material.

For your information, Congress excluded three discrete categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIA. See 5 U.S.C. § 552 (2018). This response is limited to those records that are subject to the requirements of the FOIA. This is a standard notification that is given to all our requesters and should not be taken as an indication that excluded records do, or do not, exist.

You may contact our FOIA Public Liaison, Valeree Villanueva, for any further assistance and to discuss any aspect of your request at: Office of Information Policy, United States Department of Justice, Sixth Floor, 441 G Street, NW, Washington, DC 20530-0001; telephone at 202-514-3642.

Additionally, you may contact the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at the National Archives and Records Administration to inquire about the FOIA mediation services they offer. The contact information for OGIS is as follows: Office of Government Information Services, National Archives and Records Administration, Room 2510, 8601 Adelphi Road, College Park, MD 20740-6001; e-mail at ogis@nara.gov; telephone at 202-741-5770; toll free at 1-877-684-6448.

If you are not satisfied with this Office's determination in response to this request, you may administratively appeal by writing to the Director, Office of Information Policy, United States Department of Justice, Sixth Floor, 441 G Street, NW, Washington, DC 20530-0001, or you may submit an appeal through OIP's FOIA STAR portal by creating an account following the instructions on OIP's website: <https://www.justice.gov/oip/submit-and-track-request-or-appeal>. Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically submitted within ninety days of the date of my response to your request. If you submit your appeal by mail, both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

Sincerely,

Douglas R. Hibbard
Chief, Initial Request Staff
