Dear Mr. Evers:

This is letter is the initial agency decision to your July 28, 2020, Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552 request. You submitted your request to the United States Department of Veterans Affairs Central Office FOIA Service.

Initial Request

On July 28, 2020, you submitted a FOIA request to the VA FOIA Service where you requested “All calendars and calendar entries for the agency official listed below, including any calendars maintained on their behalf, reflecting events that took place from January 1, 2020 to the date the search is conducted.” The specific calendars that you are seeking pertain to the following:

- a. Secretary Robert Wilkie;
- b. Acting Deputy Secretary Pamela J. Powers; and,
- c. Acting Chief of Staff Brooks D. Tucker.

Search

A search was conducted by Ms. RuthAnne Parise, FOIA Officer for the Office of the Executive Secretary. Upon conducting her search, she located four (4) pages of responsive documents that were referred to the Office of General Counsel, for a direct response to you.

Analysis

In reviewing the four (4) pages that were referred to this office, I find that the four (4) pages are being withheld in their entirety pursuant to FOIA Exemption (5), 5 U.S.C § 552 (b)(5).

FOIA Exemption (b)(5) permits VA to withhold any inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters if two requirements are met. First, there is an identifiable deliberative process. Second, the agency generated the information or document as part of the agency decision process. Stated another way, VA may withhold information under Exemption (b)(5) where the document or its content makes recommendation or expresses opinions about legal or policy matters during the decision-making process and the document is not the decision documents or incorporated into the decision document. Additionally, as a matter of Federal policy, the agency must state an articulable, foreseeable harm to the agency or its activities that could occur as a result of release of the document or information. Specifically, Exemption (b)(5) of the FOIA protects “inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters, emails, notes which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency.” The Deliberative Process Privilege of FOIA Exemption (b)(5) is invoked. See Sears, 421 U.S. at 150; see also Missouri ex rel. Shorr v. U.S. Army Corps of Eng’r, 147 F.3d 708, 710 (8th Cir. 1998).

Conclusion

Consequently, I am denying your request in full under FOIA Exemption (b)(5) (5 U.S.C. 552(b)(5)).

Appeal Rights

If you disagree with my determination to withhold the information pursuant to FOIA Exemption (b)(5) or wish to appeal, please be advised you may appeal to:
