Dear Mr. Evers:

This letter is in further response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), Title 5, United States Code, Section 552, request dated October 7, 2020, to the U.S. Census Bureau's FOIA Office. We received your request in this office on October 7, 2020. We have assigned to it tracking number DOC-CEN-2021-000038 and are responding under the FOIA to your request for the following:

All responsive records (from July 1, 2020 to the date of the search) of any final assessments or analyses regarding the projected or actual impacts (such as estimates of undercounts or overcounts of certain populations, impact on the accuracy of the overall count, and impact on state-led redistricting processes) of the August 3, 2020, decision to end Census field data collection on September 30, 2020.

Our search of the U.S. Census Bureau records failed to identify any records in our files that are responsive to your request.

You have the right to appeal this determination of the FOIA request. An appeal must be received within 90 calendar days of the date of this response letter. Address your appeal to the following office:

Assistant General Counsel for Employment, Litigation, and Information
Room 5896
U.S. Department of Commerce,
14th and Constitution Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20230

An appeal may also be sent by e-mail to FOIAAppeals@doc.gov, or by FOIAonline, if you have an account in FOIAonline, at <https://foiaonline.regulations.gov/foia/action/public/home#>. The appeal should include a copy of the original request and initial denial, if any. All appeals should include a statement of the reasons why the records requested should be made available and why the adverse determination was in error. The appeal letter, the envelope and the e-mail subject line should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

The e-mail, FOIAonline, and Office are monitored only on working days during normal business hours (8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, Monday through Friday). FOIA appeals posted to the e-mail box, FOIAonline, or Office after normal business hours will be deemed received on the next normal business day. If the 90th calendar day for submitting an appeal falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal public holiday, an appeal received by 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, the next business day will be deemed timely.

In addition, you may contact the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at the National Archives and Records Administration to inquire about the FOIA mediation services they offer. The contact information for OGIS is as follows:
