Dear Mr. Evers:

This is in further response to your November 19, 2020 Freedom of Information Act request, received by the Civil Rights Division, seeking access to records pertaining to:

All email communications (including emails, email attachments, complete email chains, calendar invitations, and calendar invitation attachments) sent by Assistant Attorney General Eric Dreiband; anyone serving as Deputy Assistant Attorney General supervising the Voting Section; anyone serving as Voting Section Chief to anyone communicating from an email address ending in who.eop.gov from September 1, 2020 to the present.

After a thorough search, I have determined that the Civil Rights Division has no records pertaining to the subject of your request.

If you are not satisfied with the Civil Rights Division's determination in response to this request, you may administratively appeal by writing to the Director, Office of Information Policy (OIP), United States Department of Justice, 441 G Street, NW, 6th Floor, Washington, D.C. 20530, or you may submit an appeal through OIP's FOIA STAR portal by creating an account on the following website: <https://www.justice.gov/oip/submit-and-track-request-or-appeal>. Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within 90 days of the date of my response to your request. If you submit your appeal by mail, both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

I hope the Civil Rights Division has been of some assistance to you in this matter.

Sincerely,

Kilian Kagle

Kilian Kagle, Chief
Freedom of Information/Privacy Acts Unit
