Thank you for the quick response.

That is the request I was referring to, thank you. Do you happen to know if the records were sent to this email address (records@americanoversight.org)? I did see an email from Ms. Megan Werdehausen on June 28, 2021, but that was responsive to a different Sunshine request, and the pages responsive were 11, not 365; I also searched around that date as well and came up empty.

If you are able to re-forward the request easily or provide further information about to which email address the production was sent, it would be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,
Danny

EXTERNAL SENDER

Mr. Martinez,

Our records show that a few requests were submitted by Austin Evers in 2020. We believe all have been fulfilled. One request was dated November 19, 2020 and contains "MO-AG-20-2803" in the footer of the request. Broadly speaking, that request seems to relate to an amicus brief filed by this office in Republican Party of Pennsylvania v. Boockvar and contained specific search terms. If that is not the request to which you are referring, please let us know.

Our records indicate that we fulfilled that request on June 28, 2021 and produced 365 pages of responsive records. Please let us know if you cannot find our response after searching your records for correspondence from our office around that time.

The year we stayed in the studio unit, we purchased a two-bedroom unit at Santa Barbara, both weeks adjacent to each other. We were able to purchase the Santa Barbara week at a lower than full face amount with a repo deed. We were happy with our weeks because up to that point, vacation was going home to visit the folks. This gave us the impetus needed to truly get away and relax.Then Vacation Break was purchased by Fairfield Resorts. Through the coming years, we purchased more time to â get away.â* These were points purchases because we loved the flexibilityi¼ no more fixed weeks for us. We still had those two fixed weeks and we wanted to convert them. We finally were able to make that happen, by purchasing more points. CC-2016-10-003140	Carol	Crisman	Wyndham Vacation Ownership	240 Terrace Rd.	MO	65616	I wanted to meet with someone about reducing my maintenance fees, since my husband died unexpectedly and my income is now 1/2 of what it was. I met with a young man, then 2 men, then 3 men who convinced me that I needed to spend $20,000 to buy into a program that would allow me to turn timeshare points into maintenance fees. It took 3 1/2 hours, and I was crying at the end. They told me when I signed the final papers that I shouldn't say I was wanting to reduce my maintenance fees, but that I wanted more points to travel with and I wanted to own timeshares in New York. So I said those things on camera. When I got home that weekend, I started to realize that I had been film-flammed. I'm paying on a loan now, plus maintenance fees, and will be even more in debt. I tried calling the help numbers that Wyndham gave me repeatedly. I was on hold for more than 2 hours one day. I left a message on a cell no. that the first man gave me, but I haven't heard back. I want out!

CC-2016-10-004930	Karon	Golden	Wyndham Vacation Ownership	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	I will start from the beginning, our 1st buying a Wyndham Time Share, it was in San Antonio on 10-05-2007. My husband and I took a short trip there. While on this trip, we were approached at the Wyndham booth inside the mall. They mentioned all we had to do is go on a 90 minute presentation. We'd also be given coupons/gift certificates for free items and etc. regardless. All we had to do is attend their sales presentation. We were shuttled from the mall to a sales office at Fairfield San Antonio. Sales representative, Jerry Vowel, gave the presentation. We were treated like Kings, and we were immediately asked to watch a video of the numerous vacation locations. All locations were gorgeous and they said we'd never be able to afford to stay at such beautiful locations without your product. This presentation went from a movie to a "one-on-one" with the salesmen. He was very knowledgeable, was a fast talker, and the presentation keep going on and on. We were there about 5+ hours. Let me tell you something about us. In 2004, prior to buying with Wyndham, my husband and I had an awaking. He, at 55 years old, had open heart surgery, a quadruple by-pass, and since he has a pacemaker, we were told that that this surgery might have to be redone again in 15 yrs. Our vacationing had been almost non-existence until our two children, left home. We have worked "all our lives", and we are still working today.

CC-2017-01-005417	Marlene	Raether	Wyndham Vacation Ownership	6277 Sea Harbor Drive	FL	32821	After my husband passed on Valentine Day 2012, I decided to take a short vacation with a few friends. It was decided that we would vacation in Branson, MO. In late April of 2013 I went to Branson, MO with a few friends. We stayed at one of Wyndham's hotels and was offered free gas card if I sat in on a presentation for their vacation resorts. Being newly widowed and vulnerable, I was talked into buying a timeshare from Wyndham for Branson. I thought the total cost was going to be $9,724.50 for 105,000 points. They also added a $30.00 charge for closing costs. I was shown the $9,724.50 amount on page 6 of 8 of the Security Agreement in the contract. This was the exact amount charged to my Visa credit card ending in 8574 that day. They charged the $30.00 closing costs to my Master Card ending in 2626. Wyndham then began charging my Master Card $202.41 and I had no idea what it was. When I called to find out I was told this was for the balance of the loan. What Loan? The entire purchase was put on my other credit card. Somehow your people doubled the amount of the 105,000 points! They tricked me into thinking the total cost was $9,724.50, not $19,449.00. In Fall of 2013, I received a phone call by Wyndham and they told me that for $200.00, I could have 1 week vacation at Galveston. I agreed as that was a great deal. I took friends with me and we went down to Branson on my timeshare that I already had.

We told them we did not want to purchase anything in addition to what we already owned. They offered to review our membership and then said we did not have the best advantages with our current contacts. They told us we would not have 2 contracts anymore, but only 1 keeping in mind we did not want to make any new purchase. We have come to the realization that we were pressured and mislead by a less than forthright presentation. See attach complaint for more details.
CC-2017-10-001280	Jo Ellen	Glunn	Wyndham Vacation Ownership	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	33821	I had always tried to use my points at WI. Dells, but could not get reservations unless booking 13 months out and hard to do. when I donâ t know what is happening so far in advance. I have been misinformed as to what I could do with membership, as I live out of area to use. I feel I have been lied to so many times as to what they will do for me. I also have been told that places to stay with my points have been rented out to others and then telling nothing is available for me to use. Iâ m very unhappy with Wynhdam as a whole. I think I still owe about $46,000 on 2 contracts I am still paying. Would be happy to not have to pay all of my S.S. I get each month only having $85.00 left for bills. That is for 2 contracts and maintenance charges. At one time I sold back 605,000 points for 19,000.00 which I had paid $105,000.00 for Then after that I lost my Silver level âwhich they had told me I wouldnâ t, only to find out months later I had. That is when I had to purchase more points at Glacier Canyon so I would have free housekeeping. I was mis- informed again. I have been a BIG Sucker. I really want out of this mess and to recoup some money I have been suckered out of.

CC-2018-05-001234	Louise	Nikkelbrunner	Wyndham Vacation Ownership		MO		Dispute with Wyndham Vacation Ownership Branson, Mo. right to cancellation April 2, 2018. After being grilled five hours on April 1, 2018 why we should buy more points to escape escalating maintenance fees. After we notified Wyndham of cancellation, we were called two times to try and get us to not cancel by sales reps. My husband and I do not want to do anymore business with Wyndham Timeshares for the $20,000 we paid owners since 2006 we have not gotten our money's worth.

CC-2018-08-002126	Tyanna	Scott	Wyndham Vacation Ownership	10750 West Charleston Boulevard Suite 130	NV	89135	This was advertised as a 2 hour presentation and I was there 6 hours and repeatedly said no but after alot of convincing through the sales team I eventually agreed. I went in and out of distress because I keep changing my mind but in the end I was convinced this was a great idea. I signed under duress because I said no several times in the presentation, they continued to purse the sale giving me the lowest package offered. I repeatedly told the team manage I was on vacation and my grandkids were waiting for us to enjoy the day and I would think about it and get back with them. They stated that I could not think about it and contact them later to do my research. I was keep for 6 hours for an extraneous period of time and the manager demonstrated convincing tatics and I eventually signed the contract. I felt happy at times and also sad at times being confused on if I should purchase this ownership without initially researching or thinking about this very important decision. They stated that I would not be offered this again. They opened a rewards credit card in my name without me being fully aware and agreeing to the credit card until it was already done. I have sent documentation to rescind this vacation ownership agreement to the company's seller based in the State of Nevada and also to cancel the card that was generated without me being aware because I thought I had to apply for the card.
CC-2018-09-000230	George	Nault	Wyndham Vacation Ownership	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	Consumer states, purchased a vacation club with Wyndham. Did not fully comprehend, loan (paypal). After reviewing the paperwork received on 6/25/18 dated 6/23/18 we realized that we should have cancelled this contract within the 5 day terms. I'm very distressed about this purchase. Was a pressure sale and now realize we can't afford or need this vacation package. Also when looking through paperwork realized that the worksheet the salesman used was not included in the paperwork. See attached complaint for more details.

CC-2018-09-004844	Guadalupe	Del Toro	Wyndham Vacation Ownership	6277 Sea Harbor Dr	FL	32821	We are writing this letter to Wyndham to express our extreme dissatisfaction with the company. We have been owners since 2007 and over the years have been repeatedly lied to, and bullied into making purchases that we did not want or need. When we were initially introduced to Wyndham Resort at La Cascada in San Antonio, TX in 2007. We were told that the only way to stay in these beautiful resorts is to be an owner. We later learned that this is not true and anyone can stay at the resorts, not just owners. We turned down the first few times they quoted us points, but they kept coming back with cheaper deals. They told us that when we got back home we could go to our local bank and refinance for a lower interest rate. We tried this at 3 different banks and were turned down at all 3. We were told by all of them that banks do not finance timeshares. We feel sure that the sales person knew this and just told us we could refinance in order to get up to purchase that day since we were worried about the high interest rates. The entire process was overwhelming with so much information being thrown at us so fast. Upon checking in at the resort we are informed that we would have to meet with a representative to ensure that all accommodations and owner impressions are met. We thought that it was mandatory since we were staying at the resort that we attend this

CC-2018-09-005236	David	Armstrong	Wyndham Vacation Ownership	6277 Sea Harbor Drive	FL	32821	We have 2 contracts with Wyndham. The first was from Williamsburg, VA 2015 and the second, was from Branson, MO in 2017. In Branson when we bought an extra 105,000 points that salespeople, Joe Hardwick and Bryan Johnson, told us were being rolled into our previous loan from 2015. We found out to our utter dismay that they were now charging us for two loans. They told us we were buying a deeded property that would increase in value with time. They told us we could use the timeshare as a second home and get tax breaks on it. More importantly they told us we could get out of the contract at any time but unsurprisingly, when we contacted them about this they said it was not possible. We would not have invested in something if we knew it wouldn't gain in value and we could sell it like real estate. I have had prostate cancer and costly knee surgery in the last year and my wife has also had significant surgery. We cannot afford to continue paying for something that does not have the benefits and features sales people told us it did. Please help us. We have tried to communicate with Wyndham but they just say they can't substantiate our claims.

CC-2018-12-008219	Geraldine	Salbert	Wyndham Vacation Ownership	240 Terrace Rd, Branson, MO 65616	NV	89135	The appointment was for 9 am on 11/19/2018 at the Wndham office in Branson, MO. We waited in a large room along with several other couples. Shortly, we were intoduced to Donna Smith, our representative. She said there would be a group presentation in order to provide standard information about the program, given by the main manager. During the presentation (about 45 minutes), several points were made showing the benifits & savings of the Wyndham program. Then we left to continue with the individual portion with Donna Smith. Donna chatted with us to determine that we had retired this year and doing a little traveling, beginning with Branson and then on to a Thanksgiving weekend with family in Dexter, MO. We had downsized to live in our 30ft. fifth wheel camper and planned to begin full-time RV living and traveling. Of course, I was having a nice time in Branson, and hoped to return, since there was so much to see. Donna took us to her car and drove my husband and myself across the road to the hotel. There, we toured the grounds, central activity center and the picture perfect guest suites. I could really see myself and my family members enjoying this lifestyle!Afterwords, we returned to the offices across the road for the sales presentation. Costs were given as well as how the points system works. My husband said no immediately. But I was still interested and thought

In addition, the information we get from these different people in some way contradict information that we had heard before. There have been a few occasions that weâ ve tried to reach out to the representative we spoke with afterwards, sometimes as little as two weeks after the trip, only to be told that person was not available, or even was no longer with the company. Many of these individuals had promised to be there to help us whenever we needed, but we did not get any help. Their only solution to fix things was to buy more. There is a pattern, looking back now I see it clearly. The problem is it takes years to notice and by then you are so in over your head its unfathomable. Joe Dickleman was one of those individuals. He was our sales representative in Branson that December in 2016. Joe promised he was going to help us with selling and renting our points out to pay for our yearly dues. We really didnâ t understand what he was telling us to do. The more he explained it the more confusing it was. He said it was just easier for him to help us do it. So, he gave us his phone number to call and he would walk us through the steps. In addition, he tried to teach us â his waysâ* about how he gamed the system with his

I sent a letter to owner care and Justin Parker denied my complaint to cancel the contract and didn't take the time to address any of the issues I laid out in my letter and only focused on my upgrades. We are at a point in life where it would be best to separate from a company like this. We have paid about $45,000 into something that we have used 4 times total since 2008 and I do not think it is fair how the company brushed off my complaints and just dismissed it. I need help to get out of this contract as it was signed under duress and I only signed it because they told me It was going to save me money but in reality I have spent way too much money on something that has outdate properties and doesn't care about customer service.

During the sales process, I was told by my sales person Ms. Kleiner that this package would offer property upgrades, access to more availability with stronger trading power and access to more points because of the discounted points. I was also sold on the opportunity to sell my points to help offset costs. The sales manager said the 575,000 points would translate to about 6 weeks of available time, which is not true. She stressed the properties were valued at least $250 per night and that I could sell the weeks to recover some of my investment. I have found most of what was shared to be a lie. The update meeting was an extremely high-pressure sales meeting taking up half a day of my vacation. I am extremely disappointed in the sales and communication process. I feel like I have repeatedly been lied to and misled. Each time I have an owner update, I am told I should have received a letter with some offerings that I missed out on. I am told I can reactivate that offer if I write a letter now and they will personally put their jobs on the line by faxing it over to corporate before I leave the meeting to get an answer for me, otherwise it would not be available again and off of the table as an option â which Iâ ve then been told I am stupid if I pass on an opportunity like this.

Your agents deliberately misrepresented this contract and fraudulently misled us into signing. This timeshare is virtually unusable for us, as a military family. We respectfully ask you to read through the information provided within this letter, then agree to our request for a cancellation and respond accordingly. On May 7th, 2018, while on our anniversary vacation, we were approached at a movie theater by two older gentlemen about a timeshare opportunity. If we attended a 90 minute, no commitment presentation, we would get premium seating on a river boat dinner cruise. We thought we might enjoy a dinner cruise, so we agreed to attend. We checked in at 8:00 am the next morning and a little while later, were met by Cameron Robert Fulwider. Cameron assured us that the presentation would only be 90 minutes and took us on a tour of the premises to the Clubhouse. We were told that we could cancel the contract. We called the following day trying to cancel was told we couldn't cancel and since then have been trying everything to cancel they have been calling none stop for a payment even during business hours to where I cannot use my phone for work anymore as I never know when they will call. Every time we call we get the run around and nothing is done. We have been trying for over a year to get out of it and especially now due to COVID and losing a job in the household we definitely cannot afford it. We never even used it.

By way of context the Donaldsons were using points from a previous timeshare while staying in Wisconsin Dells, when they were approached by a member of your sales staff who was offering a gift card so long as they would attend an ownership update meeting whose aim it was soon obviously clear was much less to acquaint new members than to pressure the Donaldsons into an upgrade. CC-2015-10-007433	Deborah	Durbin	Wyndham Vacation Ownership Inc.	110 Fairfield Dr.	MO	65616	On Wednesday, August 12, 2015, my husband and I purchased a vacation package from Wyndham Vacation Inc. Beginning on Thursday, August 13, 2015 I began calling and leaving messages for the people we purchased the vacation package from, but no one returned my call. On the Friday, August 14, 2015 I received a call from a representative asking if I had any questions. I let her know that I was attempting to reach the sales agent and closing agent to cancel the contract. She told me they would probably be getting back to me soon. On Monday, August 17, 5 days had lapsed since closing, and I had not been contacted by anyone, so I assumed any letter sent at this point would have been denied. I continued to leave messages for the sales agent - Jennifer Spilman, her manager- Richard Akre, and the quality assurance closing agent - Tim Hall for the next two months. To this date no one has had the courtesy to return my calls. Beginning toward the end of September through mid-October, I called all the other 800 numbers I could find listed throughout the documentation we received. Everyone I spoke to didnâ t have any idea as to how, what, or who I should talk to in order to resolve the cancellation of the purchase. I finally reached a very helpful young man who didn't know how to help me deal with the need to cancel the contract, but did send a request to the Financial Hardship Department to send the

They also added $30 charge for closing cost. Wyndham then began charging my MasterCard $202.41 and I had no idea what I was. Was for the balance of the loan. What loan? Somehow your people doubled the amount of the 105,000 points. The tricked me into thinking the total cost was $9,724.50, not $19,449. Crystal kept talking $11,000 which I thought was the balance that I still owed of $8,000 on the Branson timeshare scam, plus $3,000 for the current upgrade. My original purchase price was very confusing. Bottom line, I actually purchased another $22,000 plus what I still owed on the Branson timeshare. I feel that I was completely blindsided and coerced into all of this.

CC-2017-12-009938	Carolyn	Simpson	Wyndham Vacation Ownership Inc.	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	The Wyndham sales reps consistently pressured us by using fraudulent and deceptive practices. They had told us that we would be attending a 60 to 90 minute presentation. But instead it went on for 4 hours. They told us that we would be able to get 10 days vacation for the points we had purchased. But when we tried to book at Disney Resorts, even trying to book a whole year in advance, nothing was ever available. At the sales meeting the sales rep also said he would help us make reservations, but he did not do so. The sales team told us that the timeshare was an investment in the quality of our vacations. But itâ s not. They made it sound so rewarding and easy and promising, but actually itâ s cheaper and much easier to get a vacation on your own. In order to pay our down payment, the sales reps opened up a credit card with Barclays Bank for us. They said that this credit card would earn points which would completely pay for the maintenance fees. But we later found out that this was untrue. The sales reps never mentioned the rescission period to us. But we found out about it that evening and went back the very next day to cancel the contract. But the sales rep Chad Gathercole would not allow us to do so and kept talking and spinning things out, refusing to accept our cancellation. We told him many times that we wanted to cancel, but he refused and deprived us of our legal rights. What I have described

CC-2018-06-000637	Ralph	Hall	Wyndham Vacation Ownership Inc.	6277 Sea Harbor Drive	FL	32821	This complaint concerns our contract 000201528916. We were on vacation when Wyndham reps contacted us for a presentation which they said would last about an hour. Then they put us through a presentation which lasted over 6 hours! And these reps were not even happy with that. Still they call us at home, disturbing us in order to sell us what they called â more points and more opportunities to travel.â* They also wanted to drag us back to aÿend â an important membersâ meetingâ* which we now know is just another sales pitch. These reps lied to us and keep on lying to us. They have no respect for our time or for us. This is a clear case of senior citizen abuse, as I am 88 and my wife is 77. I believe they bullied us into buying the timeshare they were selling. They did not have any consideration for us or for what we wanted. The sales reps told us that the timeshare would be a good investment because it was real estate and it would appreciate over time, especially in this particular location. But they were not telling us the truth. This is not real estate property in the true sense of the word. It is not an asset that we own. In fact, when you consider the loans of over $30,000 which they made us take out, it is actually a liability. A big liability which is frightening for us now that we are both retired. They also said that this timeshare would be advantageous for us, especially if we took vacations regularly,

CC-2018-07-005315	David	Althage	Wyndham Vacation Ownership Inc.	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	We were in a mall and a woman at a kiosk told us she had some free things to give away. She was working for Wyndham and she set up an appointment for a 90 minutes presentation for us. Our appointment was at 8:30 am, but we only got out of the room after 1:30 pm. Over 5 hours! The sales reps kept talking and stalling and feeding us ever more information. There was so much of it and so much paper, and they talked very fast and it was difficult to take it all in. They did not tell us how much the timeshare would cost until about 12:30 pm. By then we were very tired, hungry and kept asking how much longer it would be. The reps did not think to help us by offering some lunch. Neither would they allow us to leave to get some. Due to our medical issues, our heads were spinning by then, and Kathleen's blood sugar was really dropping and she felt unwell. David was tired. I should also mention that his eyesight is not good these days due to macular degeneration and glaucoma, and also needing cataract surgery. So he found it impossible to properly examine all these papers. And then it was at least another hour before we finally got out of there. I believe this was an example of senior abuse, and we really resent what Wyndham did to us. They pressured us to a huge extent, but we didn't realize it until much later. By the way, the original agent at the kiosk had promised us some show tickets to the Bambi, Bette, and Burt show.

CC-2018-08-004715	Dennis	Ogle	Wyndham Vacation Ownership Inc.	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	The Wyndham sales reps used high pressure sales techniques on us, and they also did some very questionable and possibly fraudulent adjustments to our account. As a result, they put a huge amount of debt on us, which we were not expecting, and which is beyond our means. Who would lend $60,000 on a timeshare to 2 senior citizens? All of this has also apparently led to our account being frozen, whatever that means. But in spite of that, people are still calling us to get monthly payments?? We have written to Wyndham, but we have not received any kind of empathetic hearing from them. This nightmare began on April 23, 2018 we were on vacation in Branson, MO. We stopped at the Imax to see what was showing. There were 2 men at a booth, and they asked us about Wyndham and we said that we were Silver members, but that we were not sure how to use the system and our points. They said they would have someone talk with us and set us up for a meeting at 1pm. We arrived and then Jon Junco took us to a table and started asking questions. We told him that we were Silver members and didn't know how to use the system. He said we should have someone assigned to us to show us how to use it. He left and came back and said that at $70, we had the lowest rate of monthly maintenance fees that he had ever seen, but that it would be rising to over $200 in a couple of months. We now

By the time we left the presentation it had been 5 hours, but we managed to escape. Or so we thought. But then a manager, Terry Williams, intercepted us as we were walking out, and he persuaded us to come into his office because he had â something specialâ* to show us. He was very persuasive and we spent another hour there and ended up with a Discovery Package. When we tried to use this package for Wyndham Sedona, they told us we could not reserve there. Terry had not told us about any such restrictions. Finally, we managed to get in at the Flagstaff, AZ, resort in October 2017. There the staff said we had to attend another timeshare presentation. We did not want to go through all that again, but they made us do it. When we bought it, Terry Williams had not told us that the Discovery Package meant a mandatory sales presentation when we used it. So in Arizona we were there in another sales presentation, and again it was hours and hours. We were only in Flagstaff for a few days and they deprived us of another whole day for this. We are getting up in age. 78 and 75, and living only on our social security and are having a hard time paying the maintenance fees. The consumer joined a buy back program where at the end of 8 years, the company would buy the timeshare back for 20% of the purchase price. The consumer agreed to it after they were told they would no longer have to pay maintenance fees and that they would stop the automatic withdrawal. When they returned home, they received a call stating that the consumers bank refused the automatic withdrawal for the maintenance fees. The consumer called the company and was told they would have to continue to pay them.

They talked me into applying for a new credit card and putting $18741.20 on that new credit card which I did. They gave us credit for our other time share in the amount of $21,047.05. We were supposed to receive a deed that day for the purchase of the new Branson timeshare pursuant to their paperwork. I find out there the amount financed at that time was $912.62 which has been strung out since then. I am still paying off that credit card and the balance is approximately $17,000. Now Wyndham tells me it is for the monthly maintenance fee and from the original $912.62 payoff for the time share. My husband just passed away, and I went to my lawyer about his death. She reviewed the time share documents. She is not licensed in Missouri, but she told me under Indiana law this probably is fraud since they have strung out the very low payout and not issued me a deed and continue to make monthly charges in addition to the original $18,741.20 payment. Additionally, we found on line that your agency has investigated Fairfield which became Wyndham for timeshare fraud and or irregularities. Please help me. I have all of the paperwork if you need it. I have only used the credit card for the monthly Wyndham charges and the initial purchase. The original date of transaction was October 27, 2008.

We were being pressured and asked repeatedly why we didn't want to purchase and didn't we agree it was a good deal. He also told us we were buying a piece of real estate (not time share). My husband had to leave to go pick up a couple who were traveling with us for the Worldview Weekend Conference which began at 5 p.m. to still go eat and make it to the conference on time. I was ushered into another office to sign a batch of papers and was given a 5" backpack-type bag full of books and copies of signed paperwork when leaving...no time to read anything. Our conference was over Sunday at noon. I work Mon-Fri 8-5 and on Monday night I have a college class from 6-9. Wed. night I go to church. Thursday evening I faxed a letter of cancelation to their corporate headquarters in Florida to 407-626-6328 and sent a cert. return receipt letter postmarked Fri, May 1 to their address in Las Vegas, NV according to their cancelation form I finally found. I received a letter from them dated May 11 on May 18 stating I was not entitled to cancel this contract. I'm thinking 5 BUSINESS days, but their letter said 5 calendar days. (we were not staying at a Wyndham) I became widowed in August 2013, had just sold our home, was very fragile emotionally and I was badgered, bullied, beaten down during this Wyndham presentation and after >4 hours signed the Club Wyndham Discovery Membership Agreement. I felt trapped, told them I was emotionally drained and unstable, they just kept bringing in another person to bully me. I was crying, could not talk, actually wrote on the paper, under decline, not at this time, life transition. No, no no. I felt like I was never going to get let go, I felt intimidated and scared. I was with my sister Nancy Fox, who was in a different area. She finally came into the room and asked, what is going on? She could see I was distraught. I did sign the agreement, only because I felt trapped and they had worn me down. I was already in a very fragile state. I returned home late October, tried to contact Wyndham and the phone # for Michael 417-294-4220 left a message, phone call never returned. After more than 5 hours of answering every objection we had, were persuaded to purchase 105,000 points for $16,000. cash. We were persuaded by misrepresentations, omissions, and outright lies. We trusted our salesman Billy Mattison and naively signed a document saying that everything had been explained to us. It had not. Billy assured us he would be our "training wheels" for two years; repeatedly said if we did not like it that Wyndham would buy it back after 5 years at 20% of what we paid; maintenance fee would be covered using points from Wyndham visa card. The clincher that persuaded us to buy was the perks - 10-20% off when we purchased at participating merchants, including Tractor Supply and Home Depot, where we make most of our large ranching purchases; discounts would be good for family members too. That perks promise was a total misrepresentation of the truth; we found out when we presented our perks card at check out. We emailed several times, and then called Billy but he would never address that; found the discounts were on just a few items and limited to locale - nothing in our area. Billy

We did not understand all that was said or exactly what we were signing. We were told we would have enough time for a trip to Hawaii but now find that is not true. We only have enough time for one week during off-peak season. We totally missed the explanation of the recurring maintenance fees and that it was a charge that would pass to future generations. At the time of purchase they did an initial credit check and then ended up processing two separate credit applications with pay pal in order to qualify us for a third party loan and we actually had no knowledge of this at that time. We each signed documents but thought we were signing the same thing. Only recently when we received bills from pay pal have we figured this out. We returned to the office where we made the purchase in Branson on December 9 and asked what we could do to terminate the contract. We were told by a manager, Jake Osborne, that the only thing we could do was to call Corporate Headquarters at 1-888-739-4016. On December 15, 2015 I contacted what they called the Ovation Department, 855-312-9040, #2, and spoke to Minerva who told me she would send papers for me to surrender property and stop the maintenance fees. We have paid Wyndham $6,252.74 which was required within 30 days in order to not incur interest charges. She

Based on the information we were given we felt that if we were to be able to use the membership the way we intended we had to purchase additional points. We were told that with the purchase of additional resorts back East that it would become increasingly difficult to reserve time and that with additional points this would give us more leverage to book time. In May of 2015 we contacted Wyndham via mail requesting that our membership be cancelled due to health issues. Donald was diagnosed with Parkinson's Disease in October of 2013 and due to the progression of the illness it is becoming more difficult for us to travel. In response to this letter we received a letter from Wyndam requesting copies of our financial statements, a detail of how our monthly expenses have increased due to our combined health issues, consent forms to release our medical records to them and a consent form to do a credit check. We are not willing to give them access to our medical records or allow them to do a credit check. In October 2015 we tried 3 or 4 times to make reservations and each time we were told there were no units available for 6 nights. They only had units available for 1 or 2 nights and at our age and with our health issue travel for that short of a time period is not possible. The last six months we have seen a sharper decline in Donald's health and we feel we will not be able to do any traveling in the future. At this point we want to

CC-2016-03-001543	Darrell/Connie	Webster	Wyndham Vacation Resorts	110 Fairfield Drive	MO	65616	Over the 2015 Memorial Day weekend, our family took a short vacation to Branson, MO. While there, Darrell and I thought it to be good to learn more about our Wyndham ownership since we had recently co-inherited it from my in-laws. Although we have enjoyed many vacations at Wyndham properties over the years, we have never been through a class or session to learn how the process works. On Friday, May 22nd, Darrell and I made arrangements for the twins to be taken care of for two hours for us to attend a new ownersâ session. James Magdaz introduced himself to us stating that he was the consultant that would be working with us. At that time we told him we are co-inherited current owners, but have never been through the new ownership process. He said that he doesnâ t work with new ownerships so he was glad we were existing owners, but felt he could help us out. Thus, he took us upstairs to his area. We explained how we became 50/50 owners, with Darrellâ s sister and her husband, from Darrellâ s parents. They had owned it for many years with intend of someday passing it to Darrell, Wanda and their spouses. Darrellâ s mother knows the ins and outs of the ownership process, how it all works, including RCI, the exchange process, extending points out to future years, etc. Thatâ s some of what we hoped to learn from Mr. Magdaz or at least get pointed in the right direction. Our home resort is Bonnet Creek in Orlando Florida. We are Gold VIP level with 624,888 points currently. This was shared with James

At the time we were young and did not understand what we were getting ourselves involved with. After 18 years of ownership we continue to see the same deceptive and unfair selling practices being used by sales representatives from Wyndham. Our most recent experience occurred on June 13, 2016 when we visited Branson Missouri. We stayed at a Wyndham resort and were lied to by several staff members to get us to listen to an "Update" on our membership. Based on the deceptive information we were told we visited the sales office of Wyndham in Branson. During the 2 hours we spent at the sales office we informed the sales staff we were not interested in spending more money with Wyndham. Despite our efforts the sales staff would not leave us alone and told us one lie after another to encourage us to take advantage of their new programs. We were told that the new program would cost us nothing and it would provide us with many more benefits. While sitting at the table we could hear the same conversation going on at other tables in the sales office. After a considerable amount of time, we asked the sales staff to put what they were offering in writing and let us see it. They came back with a proposal for us to pay them $20,000 to participate in the program. In addition to the up-front cash they would also increase our monthly maintenance fee as well. CC-2017-04-002636	Mary	Sigil	Wyndham Vacation Resorts	1839-K E, Independence	MO	65804	For starters the tour was only supposed to last around 30 minutes, it lasted significantly longer. I was told it was going to be mostly about the resort and its great quality. What it actually turned out to be was a high pressure sales presentation. I donâ t know how you feel about being lied to but I sure do not appreciate being lied to and mislead. During the time of the â tourâ* we were targeted and harassed to make a purchase. My husband and I both stated we were not interested in making a purchase as we were already owners of a timeshare in Grand Desert Las Vegas. I completely regretted informing the sales agents of that information because it seemed once they knew that, they pressured us more and tried to tell us how making this purchase would open a variety of benefits for us with the resort. This again was just another misleading statement to trick us into purchasing. I feel I had made it VERY clear that my intentions were not to purchase another property that I could not afford and that I was only there to gain points on my existing property, while also gaining the free tickets we were promised for attending the tour. Still the sales agent would not take no for an answer, I felt that maybe the sales agent lacked in some customer service training and that was why they were continuously nagging at us to just purchase another property, instead of helping us to purchase more points to keep us satisfied. As more time went on, it was very clear that the sales agent was back

CC-2017-04-003563	Deloris	Thaxton	Wyndham Vacation Resorts	1839-K E, Independence	MO	65804	I have been reaching out to the resort to have my contract cancelled on several occasion and nothing has been done. I got pressured into the sale of the timeshare June 19th 2016 and really donâ t want this to drag out any longer. I was scheduled to attend a resort presentation as soon as I checked into the resort. It was only supposed to last 90 minutes and I was there for 6 hours completely wasting my day. During the first 4-5 hours of the presentation I told the sales rep I was not interested in purchasing anything, he then went and got his boss and they both talked to me about how I could experience great vacations with my family. They kept offering me different sales and better deals and I continued to tell them I wasnâ t there to purchase anything and that I truly could not afford it. Then they went and got another person and all three of them were trying to pressure me into it. It was very hard to understand and follow along with all the information they were giving me at one time. I felt that they took advantage of me, I told the sales rep I was a diabetic and wasnâ t feeling well and of course that didnâ t concern them at all and they still pressed on. After 6 hours I was not feeling well and was really worn down and my daughter had dinner plans so I got stuck there alone. They went on to tell me how great of an investment it would be for me to own a timeshare. They told me that I could rent it or resell the timeshare at any time if I ever couldnâ t afford it or no longer wanted it. They kept on telling me that I would be able to

CC-2017-04-005262	Loyd	Wilson	Wyndham Vacation Resorts	240 Terrace Road	MO	65616	On April 6th, of this year, we had been invited to the Wyndham Vacation Resorts preview center, to listen to a two hour presentation, on how we could use the RCI program, a benefit we have as owners of timeshares with Bluegreen. RCI is owned by Wyndham and is supposed to allow us to use any of the Wyndham hotels or resorts where our Bluegreen is not available. In return for our time we would receive four tickets to a show in Branson. We met with a young man, Cameron F., who at first seemed very nice and polite. We told him right away that we were not interested in investing in Wyndham, we just wanted to learn how to use the RCI program. My husband is 75 years old and not in the best of health. At which time he told us, "Oh that doesn't matter to me, I am a salaried employee and don't make my living on a commission". He tried to explain to us the process, all the while we are telling him we are not interested in investing. Finally his boss Paul was called over to help explain it further and we were told in order for us to help you, we had to give him all this personal information about our timeshare, so they could look into our timeshare accounts. After obtaining this information Paul told us that it would be over $19000.00. Again we told them we were not interested in investing with Wyndham. His boss left and we didn't see him again. Then Cameron told us, "why didn't you tell me that a long time ago. We could have saved a lot of time". Then we were told

CC-2017-05-005721	Lorraine	Warwas	Wyndham Vacation Resorts	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	The Wyndham Vacations Resorts experience has been disappointing from the beginning. They have behaved unethically and dishonestly and very unprofessionally in dealing with us both at Wisconsin Dells and at Branson. For instance their sales booth is set up as an information desk. We approached it for directions and instead they invited us for a free breakfast if we would attend a short presentation. At the purchase, we signed up (apparently) for a complimentary year of Perks by Club Wyndham. They didnâ t mention there was an annual fee after that - $59.95 â that we canceled as soon as we got the bill. We didnâ t know what it was so of course it was of no use to us. The last time we stayed in Branson (November 2016) the guy told us he was meeting with us to help us get the most out our timeshare. We havenâ t been able to book a stay in Hawaii and because we could check in only on certain days, we have never been able to get there. We never tried to book anywhere except Branson after that. At one update we told â Bobâ* how difficult we found trying to book a vacation. He was rude and insulting. He dialed the Reservations line and when they answered he shoved the phone at us to prove it was that easy. When we didnâ t take the phone and talk to them, he got mad â really mad. Extremely mad. One gift we got for attending the presentation was a two-night stay at Wilderness Resort â Wisconsin Dells. We have never gotten to use this as they are always booked solid.

CC-2017-06-003338	Richard & Nancy	Armour	Wyndham Vacation Resorts		MO		Consumer states, the Wyndham sales employees always put a lot of pressure on us to purchase during the many sales presentations that we attended. The sales reps made it seem like we would never receive the fantastic deal that they were offering us if we were to leave the presentation. Then came their false claims about the ridiculously high maintenance fees. Not once did nay of Wyndham's ever mention that our maintenance fees can and will increase with no end in sight. CC-2017-06-005237	Melissa	Bechtel	Wyndham Vacation Resorts	6277 Sea Harbor Drive	FL	32821	At the end of March, we sent a complaint letter to Wyndham. We received a quick response from Ross Steinmann and spoke with him on April 1. We did not hear from him again until May 25 when he apologized in an email for not getting back to up. Since then I have tried to email call him several times and he does not answer me. This is typical. We have been owners with Wyndham since before it even became Wyndham with member number 17711609. The idea of owning timeshare originally intrigued us because we felt it would be more convenient to be able to book places to vacation to, but over the last few years we started seeing that we could do that many different ways, and usually for much, much cheaper than the cost of being an owner with their organization. However, it gets even worse when we realize we never were able to see the value or the benefits that was promised to us, and many of our expectations for our ownership were based upon lies and falsehoods told to us by the sales reps, and that we find ourselves in this situation as a direct result of your high pressure and misleading sales tactics. In 2014, we were in Pompano Beach, Florida. Our salespeople we had there added another timeshare we owned into your PIC program, worth 154,000 points. We upgraded our points to equal 308,000 points. Weâ ve been in a dispute with Wyndham Vacation Resorts since January 2018 on the basis of timeshare fraud. Despite the amount of times weâ ve reiterated our story and pleaded our case, we continue to hit resistance with our request for termination and refund. We sent our initial letter in on January 25th, 2018 and were assigned Jennifer Anzures as our designated â Senior Case Specialist.â* Weâ ve since gone back and forth with Ms. Anzures a variety of times both on the telephone and via email, but she continues to deny our request. We received a letter dated June 20, 2018 from Wyndhamâ s Recovery Services Department stating that they have options available for us to settle our debt with Wyndham and terminate our ownership. We reached out to the Recovery Services Department via postal mail on June 27, 2018. We have still not heard back from Recovery Services with regards to our letter. The last we heard from Wyndham they stated that our ownership was going to be repossessed, which is NOT okay because we arenâ t at fault here. WE are the ones that were lied to and WE are the ones who have been paying for their wrongdoing. We are sending you the the correspondence weâ ve had back and forth with Wyndham since our dispute began in January since we can't find a place to upload additional information on your website. We hope that you can review and reach out to Wyndham on our behalf to

CC-2018-07-009701	Carolyn	Ramsey	Wyndham Vacation Resorts	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	Consumer states, on April 11,2017 I went into a presentation for a timeshare with Wyndham. I was promised free tickets and a gift card for dinner. I had to make a very quick decision. They fought with the person higher up to get me a better deal then what I currently had. They promised me no stairs or ground floor, better cooking thru them personally and that my timeshare would go up so when I went to sell it I could make money off it. The other things was the maintenance fees, they promised they would never increase over my lifetime. I was sadly mistaken. See attached complaint for more details.

They told us a short meeting with them, less than an hour--that turned out to be several hours. they wear you down, tokd us they would help us by renting our all of our points as the points were for midtown New York City which there is always demand for it. the main sales guy was Anthony Lagrand, who gave us his cell number number to reach him any time, He gave us the name of a person Billy Hayes that could take care of the rentals for us. We made first payment $861.23 on April 24,2018 and also a maintenance fee For $120.00. Lagrand kept telling us he would help rentals BUT NOT TO LET PERSON WHO DID FINAL PAPERWORK DONT TELL THEM YOU ARE DOING THIS FOR INCOME TO PAY FOR POINTS ON CONTRACT. HE EVEN SAID THIS WHEN WE SIGNED PAPERWORK AND VIDEO AND TAPE THE TRANSACTION. . SINCE NOW THAY SENT US A DEFAULT LETTER WHICH ONLY GAVE US UNTIL 8/24/018 TO PAY $2213.46 IN BACK PAYMENTS. CC-2018-08-011830	Kathryn	Bryan	Wyndham Vacation Resorts	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	Consumer states, we were invited to a timeshare presentation which we were told was not a high pressure sales meeting, but rather an informational meeting. We attended the meeting on November 15,2009, at the Royal Vista Resort. We were about to leave when the sales manager came over and stated that if we purchased 154,000 points at that meeting, he would allocate an additional 154,000 bonus points which would put us in a Silver Owner level. We were convinced to put down a credit card deposit of $5644.22 and finance the remaining $13,414.03 to purchase at the Wyndham Ocean Walk in Dayton Beach. See attached complaint for more details.

CC-2018-11-002907	Merritt	Durr	Wyndham Vacation Resorts	6277 Sea Harbor Drive	FL	32821	I had booked a vacation package for June 2017 through the Branson Tourism Center. I had secured a hotel stay and three shows to attend with my wife. Due to car troubles, we arrived a day late, but were offered an opportunity to go to a presentation at the Wyndham Resorts in Branson, MO. We were invited to attend a 60-minute presentation where we would receive $150 for our time. We agreed and scheduled the presentation for the next day. At the presentation, we were brought into a large room with many small tables. We were led to one of those tables where we met James H. He began talking to us about our stay in Branson. I expressed to him that I was concerned about our vehicle troubles, and also that we had a show to attend that evening at 6:30pm. He then guided us up to the third floor of the hotel. We sat down at a table where he proceeded to ask us more questions about our vacationing goals, and where we have traveled to thus far. He wanted to know how much we had spent on those trips. We shared with him where we have vacationed and their costs, and also listed off a few destinations we would like to visit in the future. At the conclusion of the tour, we were led back to our initial location where we noticed that everyone had left. We grew anxious and wanted to leave the presentation, but instead were pressured further by James and now, Gerard Goggins. James informed us that we had been approved for two Wyndham Reward credit cards, both with $25,000 credit limits. This was

CC-2018-11-003631	David	McBride	Wyndham Vacation Resorts		MO	My wife and I upgraded our membership with Wyndham Vacation Resorts and as a result we have been roped into two contracts with their company. A second contract with Wyndham was never mentioned. During the presentation the sales representative told us that for $80 more a month we could purchase enough points to reserve a larger room for my whole family, and while talking to the sales representative and verification officer we were under the impression that the documents were for a single contract. Two months after the purchase, I received a phone call from Wyndham demanding more money because our account was not fully paid. When I questioned this I was told that I had two active contracts, not one. It was then that I realized the sales representative lied and the verification officer shuffled in documents for a second contract during the signing. This had doubled our monthly financial obligation to $900 plus. In addition, the mortgage payment of the original timeshare seems to have restarted so we'll be paying for it longer. I am seventy-nine and my wife is seventy-seven. We are both retired and cannot afford to continue paying for this ownership; especially when we've been lied to about it from the start. Buying this timeshare should've made our lives happier, but instead it has put us in a financial bind. Wyndham's actions are obvious and criminal; all of their promises have been lies. We ask that you hold Wyndham responsible for this outright fraud and cancel these contracts.

I retired, and spent 4 days at Mountain Vista in Branson, and was asked if i would come in for a survey The first purchase was paid in full on my Bank of America card, and was affordable to us then, $15,000. During this survey, they attempted to sell me another better, improved program. We argued with them nearly 4 hours. Refused to take no for an answer. Explained we were both retired and couldn't afford the program, and continued their pitch explaining I could, and eventually convinced us that if we put every purchase on our Wyndham card, we would earn enough points that we could pay for everything with it, and we gave in. My wife had $100 a month payment, I pay $289. a month, and still had to pay my Bank of America card $250, plus a maintenance fee monthly that was placed on a Barclay card they pushed on us. long story short, we were paying nearly $500 a month in payments. When I retired, my income changed from $80,000 to $36,000 between my wife and I. Theres nothing to tell you that's unique or you haven't heard before. Do we feel stupid, yes. Feel like we been scammed, yes, but even not paying them, we barely make ends meet. We cannot afford it. We cant afford an attorney at $200 an hour, and feel like there is a chance we might lose everything to these scam artists and are helpless to do anything about it, except to appeal for help. The ticket vouchers were to be picked up at Branson Shows customer service center at 3608 W 76 Country Blvd, Branson, MO 65616. Branson was the first stop of an automobile trip to San Antonio Texas delivering Christmas presents to and visiting family there. When we picked our ticket vouchers at Branson Shows customer service center, the clerk that waited on us struck up a conversation telling us that in order to make a little extra money he was moonlighting for Wyndham. He asked if we knew anything about Wyndham. I told him that I had at least two separate Wyndham Rewards numbers. One with Super8 and one with Days Inn, but was never able to accumulate enough points to redeem before they expired on either account. This gentleman assured me that if we agreed to attend a presentation the next day the personnel would be able to straighten out my rewards problem. At this point in the conversation because of medications I take daily, I had to excuse myself to go to the restroom. When I returned, my wife was signing a credit card ticket that was a guarantee we would show up for the presentation the next day, receiving a refund for the reservation fee and an additional debit card. We went to the presentation as scheduled. Although I was suspicious, this was the first presentation I attended. I was not aware of the presentation at the time. Wyndham has not kept up their end of out agreement entered into in April 2013, with five subsequent upgrades, approaching the $100,000 we have already spent on this unwise purchase. Our relationship with Wyndham began in 2013 at the Smoky Mountain Resort, when we were lured into a presentation by incentives, including a $100 cash card and dinner vouchers. This represents Tell Them Any "f"ing Thing. We feel this behavior has not stopped. And we complained to Wyndham and they just said we have no proof. You can find so many reviews on the BBB and youtube videos and complaints everywhere about these behaviors and they are continuing. What are you doing to protect consumers, such as myself, who walk into the presentations there in Missouri, where we purchased. We are fed up and this type of issues need to stop! This company seems to have the right idea to protect consumers: Coalition to reform Timeshares.They have 12 bill of rights they are trying to get approved. I spoke to a Wyndham Rep Joseph Wheeler and he did not respond to my last request for information about my case. They just do not even have an excuse for their unethical, illegal behavior. They manipulated me to get me to sign a timeshare contract. Almost every reason I purchased this was not true. I explained to my salesmen: Nick Gilbert & Ryan Fox my retirement plans for vacations for the 3 years after purchase and they sold me the package they said would do that for me. August a week in Virginia Beach, In November a week in New Orleans, for 2019 my plans where Alaska & Florida and 2020 10-15 days stay in Hawaii. They also told me I could use RCI anytime with a price of $269-319 if I did not want to use my points. Well, I tried to use my points and could not so I tried the RCI and boy what a smack in the face it was $1000, that is a huge difference in pricing. So not only can I not use my timeshare but the price to use the other thing was over 3 times what I was told. When complaining to them they told me I was not a gold member as I was told I would be but a silver Member with Gold rewards and because of that I COULD NOT GET THE PROMISED $69 FLIGHTS AND DISCOUNTS ON RENTAL CARS as I was told I would get. To use my points was 161,000 points. (just to put this in perspective a weeks stay in Las Vegas is 203,000 points) That is ridiculously expensive, and way more than just paying on my own! And again soooooo much more than $69 a timeshare. What a rip off!

CC-2020-05-002956	Patty	Peacock	Wyndham Vacation Resorts	2169 Kalia Road, Box 128	HI	96815	While in HI my husband and I were confronted by a representative of Wyndham where we went to a presentation and were somewhat pressured and lured it buying this time share. I am not a person who is easily swayed but this time was the exception to the cost of $12,660.53. My husband had recently retired and hoped that we could do a lot of traveling so all the things that were pointed out seemed so wonderful and especially in the Hawaii setting with Hilton Head in our background. Of course we were bombarded with all the pluses that would be ours world-wide etc.etc. Since making this fatal mistake, I have tried repeatedly to get out of the timeshare with absolutely no luck. I have gone to my lawyer and he looked over the contract finding nothing illegal in it. Then last Sept. I saw an ad in the newspaper telling about a company out of San Francisco, CA, who was coming to the K.C. area and could get us out of our contract. I thought, finally I could put this behind us. We attended the presentation and were told that for a fee of $2,995.00 they could get us free and clear of maintenance fees etc. In my excitement that this would be the "out" I was looking for to rid us of the fees and property, once again made another mistake, and signed yet another contract with Omni Ellis. Then yesterday I received a call from Michael Stephenson in reply to recent correspondence explaining to me that they do not sell real estate but only rid us of the maintenance fees and removing our names from the deed. so I asked

(Initially called Wyndham Vacation Plan) Throughout our Wyndham experience, we purchased the initial contract in Las Vegas, Nevada in July, 2017. We upgraded our ownership on a vacation to Myrtle Beach, South Carolina in May 2018. We upgraded again on our next trip to Myrtle Beach in June, 2019. We made our last and final upgrade when we were in Branson, Missouri in November, 2019. On July 29, 2017, we were in Las Vegas, Nevada attending our granddaughter's Cheerleading Championship Competition. We were making our way walking up and down the strip and saw advertisements for discounts on a variety of entertainment shows. We stopped and checked into tickets to see the Blue Man Group. We were told we would receive the tickets after we attended a short presentation about the new Wyndham Desert Blue Resort. We bought 6 tickets to see the show! A time was reserved for us to attend the Wyndham 1 hour presentation. We had no idea this was a sales presentation! Wyndham sent a limousine to pick us up at our hotel! CC-2015-04-005251	Marvin	Alff	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Branson, MO	110 Fairfield Drive	MO	51503	We agreed to purchase a vacation package from Wyndham Vacation Resorts based upon false information given by the sales representative and verified by his supervisor. We were told that we could stay a week at our favorite all inclusive only resort for 33,000 points. We were excited because this would allow us to stay an extra week each year at our current budget. We were devastated when we found out that it would cost $400 dollars more than we currently pay for our favorite vacation destination. I contacted the company on January 30, 2015 when I learned of the false information that was given to us. After weeks of explaining the situation to multiple people, Wyndham refused to do anything to resolve the situation. We are honest hard working educators and we just couldn't believe that a company that we thought would follow honest and legal business practices would do nothing to correct this. I expected more from a Missouri business as my wife and I both earned advanced degrees from MU.

They just kept dropping the price and finally said I would never pay more than $235.01 a month for their Points Rewards system (I have since learned it is a Time Share. Anyhow, they filed for and got me a credit card to pay them the down payment of $11,000.00, and said there would be no payment due until April. I now learn they are taking a payment of $235.01. plus $74.30 a month out starting in December and there will be another bill with payments due beginning in April, and if I were able to pay them off it would be over $25,000.00! And I havent even used it yet. A Vietnam veteran, I should have seen this coming, but I didnt. They had told us they would buy it back if we didnt want it...now I discover they will only buy it back if it is paid in full, and then just pennies on the dollar. They said I could try to sell it...but how? I cant make double the payments they told me it would be...I feel very foolish right now, but also angry at being lied to. I hope you can help me. CC-2016-11-003215	Klaus	Rode	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc	240 Terrace Rd . Branson Mo 65616	NV	89193	My wife an I attended a Wyndham presentation in Branson ,240 Terrace Rd on Sept 15 2016. At that time we purchased 70,000 points which we thought would get us 2/12 weeks. I said to the salesman when he showed us some resorts on his cell phone and the points listed,looks like we should have about 2 1/2 weeks, he did not deny this.We did not know that RCI points and Wyndham were treated the same.We were not told about the different levels of points,that people who had the most points would get their choice first(we found this out from a friend) also that our points would not get us a week at anice place in the summer.He asso told us we could a place in Hawaii on the ocean,rooms going for more than 500 a night,that's not true we found out later. We were not told about housekeeping fees and other fees,and the rules that make it difficult to book a desireable vacation. We alson were notgiven a book that told points needed to book vacations,we saw that later from a friend which was 7 days later after we signed the contract. At that time we sent a registered letter wanting to cancel the contract,since it was sold to us under false pretences. The whole sales pitch by James Slagter was misleading.Ww are still waiting for an answer from Wyndam.
CC-2017-05-004239	Carol	Kapke	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc		MO		Consumer states, we were told what a great investment this would be, that they have many locations in this country and abroad that we would be able to use. We could also let family members us this. We were so impressed after the tour that we signed the papers. After we left Branson and got down to TX and had time to think about it all we both wished we had never signed the papers. I call back to Branson. I was told I could not cancel it was to late and that I had 5 days after signing to cancel, but we were never told that at the time we were there. See attached complaint for more details.

CC-2017-08-000172	John	Swartz	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc		MO		Consumer states, the salesperson led us to believe that the 64,000 points he was trying to sale us was points that had been bought back because the person no longer wanted them. We were told that 64,000 point were enough to let us go anywhere we wanted in the Wyndham family of resorts. We were kept there for 5 hours and even when we asked to have time to talk about it we were not left alone. They just kept bring out more salespeople to tell us more about what we could do with the points and that these points they were trying to sell us were only good for that day. See attached complaint for more details.

It was a credit card he was going to get us. Dan Holman told us we could rent or sell our credits to pay the maintenance fees to. The credit card was through paypal credit. CC-2017-10-005172	Christopher	Eaton	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	Consumer states, the short presentation took nearly 2 hours. It should be noted multiple times throughout the tour and later discussions we stated that our travel nearly always included our dogs and we would not be interested if we could not bring them along. Each time we were assured that many of the properties were pet friendly and we would have no problem booking with the dogs. When we pressed the issue the agent stated that 25-35% if Resorts were pet friendly, If we decided not to continue ownership, we could contact them and they would buy back the property. They required first right of refusal any time a property was resold in order to qualify the purchasers. By not we were over 3 hours into the whole presentation/program/high pressure sales pitch, and we began to discuss maintenance fees. etc. See attached complaint for more details.

Consumer states, in July of 2015, my wife and I went to Branson for the express intent of scheduling a meeting with someone at Wyndham to learn how to use my parent's timeshare. My wife and I had not intention of buying, or adding on to my parent's existing deed. We only wanted to be taught how to use it. We wouldn't have even gone this far with it, but we were trying to honor my parent's desire to leave us something. My parents had told me repeatedly that once the deed on the timeshare had been paid, there would be nothing for us to except enjoy the points and take vacations. See attached complaint for more details.

CC-2017-12-000727	Spencer	Plumley	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	Consumer states, we were taken advantage of by not being told the truth about value, usage and cash. We were told that the purchase would increase in value and that we could make money by renting it out to pay for maintenance fees and even payments. We had regretted buying the property as soon as we got home from the sales presentation. We did not have time to read all the papers they wanted us to sign. They certainly did not explain to us or give us time to read that we had a 5 day cooling off period where we could have voided the contract if we had known. See attached for more details.
CC-2017-12-003655	David & Renee	Vetter	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	Consumer states, we received some free discovery vacations in our earlier years of vacationing. After received some free discovery vacations in our earlier years of vacationing. After deciding not to purchase with them, they offered the opportunity to purchase some rental points. As we recall, the rental purchase was around $1300 which we could use for week or two of vacation. From what we remember, we signed our first contract with Fairfield Resorts Inc. in the year 2000. This contract gave us 126,000 points which was equivalent to about one week of vacation at a Fairfield Resort. See attached complaint for more details.
CC-2017-12-006261	John	Conner	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	Consumer states, we stopped for directions to our motel at an information center and we got directions and offered free tickets to a show if we would attend a 1 hour meeting the next morning. That meeting lasted for 8 hours. We bought a timeshare at that meeting from Wyndham. We purchased 64,000 points at that time and was told if we used the timeshare in a years time we would earn a bonus 64,000 points. We did not use that frame. However, we did take another vacation in 2017 to Branson and stayed at Wyndham The Meadows. See attached complaint for more details.

CC-2018-01-006656	David	Murguia	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	Consumer states, it seems every time we used a Wyndham vacation resort they want us to go to a presentation and want us to buy more timeshares. They won't quit until they have bullied us into signing. We were talked into buy more in November of 2016, and in January 2017 we were asked to come to Nashville, Tennessee for an outing to show owners their appreciation. They promised us there wouldn't be no presentation. This was a weekend of hockey game, a meal and room that cost us $200. We ended up in a presentation. They wanted us to buy in New York more Timeshare at $50,000. This is close to $800 a month for 5 years. The sales people were very rude. We can't afford to buy something that we don't have time to use.
CC-2018-01-011767	Timothy	Donovan	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	Consumer states, I feel very strongly that I was told many untruths in order to get me to purchase. I was taken advantage of by not being told the truth about value, usage and cost with the Timeshare. I went to Branson MO at the Wyndham Vacation Resorts. The representative pressured me into buying into the Timeshare, he also pressured me into getting a Wyndham Visa Credit Card to make payments monthly for my membership/ownership. Also pressured me into putting down a down payment through PayPal. The representative also said that with my points on the Wyndham Visa Credit Card. I could cash in my points from purchases on the credit card to pay for my monthly membership payments. I really feel this is a very poor way to get people to fall for the fraud and misrepresentation.

CC-2018-04-000202	Margaret	Welch	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	Consumer states, I am not sure of the mans name that helped me last year from Wyndham and told me that my maintenance fee was going to go up to around $90 or so, however if I upgraded there would be no maintenance fee at all. He said that would be wiped off completely. I was under the impression that I was doing an upgrade to my current package and removing my maintenance fees. Instead I learned this past October 2017 when I visited Branson again that instead of the upgrade I thought I was getting, I actually bought another timeshare. So now I own 2 timeshares with the same company, Wyndham which is not what I thought I had. I have been paying $86.94 a month to Wyndham the maintenance fee, $177.97 a month to Barclay Card the timeshare payment and $123.02 a month to Wyndham for timeshare payment. For a total of $387.93 a month for a single women on social security.

You had to sit and listen to a 90 minute presentation in Myrtle Beach. We sat and listened to it. It was much longer than 90 minutes. It was October 2015 and we signed a contract with Wyndham in Myrtle Beach South Carolina. it was for $28,386.75 with a down payment of $9462.25. In November 2016 we went to Branson Missouri to see some shows. We ended up with more points but it cost us more dollars. See attached complaint for more details.

CC-2018-07-008285	Leslie	Sears	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	Consumer states, after turning them down o several offers to buy into the program, they finally came up with a plan called Club Wyndham Discovery where we would pay $2,070.36 to try out the vacation resorts for the next year. This purchased 200,000 points, which we felt were plenty for our vacation time. Our sales representative was Jorge Ocasio. We were told we would be enrolled in Perks for 1 year free. we feel very strongly that we were told many untruths in order to get us to purchase. CC-2019-02-003350	Richard	Best	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	Consumer states, the promotion basically promised us great lodging, tickets to shows, while we were there in Branson, and even spending money. All we had to do was attend a short presentation about all the Wyndham could offer us. We went ahead and scheduled to meet with Wyndham representatives on July 19,2017. We met with a sales rep by the name of Dick Ball. Our 90 minute meeting had turned into about 3 hours of just going over stuff. Several times during our meeting I told Rick we needed to go, because we had other scheduled activities planned for the day, but we were seated in the back corner of the room, and each time I said we needed to go, Mr. Ball would get another man to come tag team us with more information that we must receive. With that promotion a salesman came to our room and sold us 84,000 points. We told him that we were not ready yet but he said we could pay our maintenance fees by renting these points. He was also very forceful and would not leave our room. The salesman falsely promised that we could rent the points to a third party to pay the maintenance dues. The salesman misrepresented everything he said. It don't happen like he said it would.
CC-2016-10-007848	Marilyn	Pohlmeier	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc.		MO		Consumer states, the only reason why I agreed to purchase with Wyndham was because I was looking into getting rid of a pervious timeshare I had with Branson Nantucket. Jordan Offill promised me several things and led me on, providing me with false promised and false information. Jordan led me to believe that Wyndham would pay my RCI membership dues for the next two years and that the RCI dues I had already pre-paid for the next two years would be refunded to me. The sales rep kept calling my resent weeks with Branson as mud weeks and convincing me Wyndham would take the Branson Nantucket timeshare off of my hands. The signing process was rushed quite a bit. In fact, rather than explaining each document to me, page by page I was lead to believe I was only following standard procedure and that I'd receive the remaining documents and marketing material for my purchase by email.

CC-2017-07-002712	Royce	Stacy	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc.	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	Consumer states, we have been very gullible and naïve over and over because we really did enjoy staying in a nice condo versus Motel 6 as we traveled. The most recent was December 24,2015 when we were asked to a 90 minute owners update that became a four and a half hour sales engagement, while visiting Branson. We explained That we could not afford to make another investment in Club Wyndham. We first become interested in Wyndham in 1993 when on a trip to Branson, MO, we visited with a sales team regarding purchasing points for a vacation. Maintenance fees $188.00 per month. During the next several years, we purchased more points until we had $318,000 and became a VIP member. When each one was paid for we got a deed. In May 2013, we took our daughter and grandson for a vacation to Branson. We wanted to talk to someone about combining the 3 deeds into one so that it would pass on to our adult children. We visited with Dan. He told us he could do that for us and proceeded to tell us that we would need to purchase an additional number of points totaling $16,882.66. We did not want more points, but wanted to be able to have 1 deed. He also said that we would need to continue to pay maintenance fees for the next 10 years and after that they would disappear and we would never have to pay them again. This upped the maintenance fees to $196.00, projected 2017 $235.00. So, now we have 413,000 points that we cannot use up each year, even with our family using some of them. We also were not told that the combination of the 3 deeds was at Orlando FL. Then, we came to May 2016 when we once again are able to vacation in Branson, MO. The reps said that this would last about 45 minutes, but it went on and on for over 4 hours. Our main rep., Jeffrey Pollard, was a very confusing person. He would jump around from one point to another without taking the time to explain the connection. Several times he would call someone over to explain it their way, only to jump in and start talking about something else. But one thing he did make very clear was that this would be a great financial investment, increasing in value over time as Wyndham expanded worldwide. He compared this investment to building equity in a house, and he suggested that it would be a good idea to take out a home loan to pay off the Wyndham loan. In the end, we were offered a "free" cruise for signing up. However, this was the first Wyndham lie which we discovered, namely that the cruise was NOT free. We had to pay several associated expenses and we calculated that it was only about $300 cheaper than the normal market price. Then, the following year we went to a presentation at Bonnet Creek, Florida, and the rep there, one Elwood Weppel, told us that our Branson deal was a poor one, and we needed to change to become deeded owners in the Florida Disney area which would give us much better booking opportunities. We were really put out by this because we had already spent $20,200 on the first

Then they began to sell us on a "sample" purchase called Discovery Club. My wife has stage 4 breast cancer and they assured us we would be able to take our family for a great memory making trip to a beach resort this summer. TOTAL LIE! The sales manager said we could cancel this purchase if we decided it was not a good idea ANYTIME in the next 90 days just by calling his personal number. TOTAL LIE! No other date by which we had to cancel was ever mentioned; I found a ten day limit in the contract but of course by Missouri law I have found out it is only 5 days. TOTAL LIES AND Omission! They told us we'd be able to bring my son and his family to the Branson facility that we were enjoying in that 90 day period. TOTAL LIE! We made what for us was a huge purchase - certainly our entire travel budget for the next 12 months - thinking we would actually use it while Pat is still alive and hopefully able to enjoy it. Instead we are using up our money without see how we will ever make use of this worthless purchase. This was explained as an investment in ourselves for vacation time. it was also told that we could rent unused points at locations such as Florida over the Christmas holidays or other busy times that other people would want to rent a week's stay for vacation. I tried several times to rent out the points, but it was always booked over Christmas holidays and i was never able to use this feature. I think we used the timeshare maybe 1 time in Branson for ourselves since purchasing it. Last year, my husband passed away and I can no longer pay for the balance which is about $4900.00 nor can I afford the maintenance fees which are $673.48 for 2018. I will not use the timeshare since my husbands' passing and I want to get out of the contract. To begin, my Name is Travis Eubanks and I reside in Claremore, OK. In August of 2017 I had planned a long-awaited vacation for my wife and me. My wife had underwent over twenty brain related surgeries in the past ten years and was very ill as well as it had been almost 20 years since I had been able to take a vacation and we were beyond excited. The destination we had decided to adventure to would be Branson, MO. I had never been and felt like it was an obtainable destination considering my wife's health conditions. We picked four show to attend and I purchased them online before our trip in August. While picking up our show tickets, we were bombarded with various time share offers from several different companies. Some companies offered us a $250.00 incentive if we would sign up for a brief*, informational meeting. They assured us the meeting would not interfere with our show schedule. We had not been on a vacation in years and we were overwhelmed as well as unknowledgeable about what a timeshare* was or what we were about to encounter. We were checking in at our motel and were asked if we would like to upgrade* for free to a lodge in the country. All that was required from us was to attend a meeting the next morning and listen to a one hour presentation by Bluegreen. In addition to the upgrade they were going to throw in an additional $200.00 gift card. The next morning we went to the

They had us to sign several papers that they had certain lettering on that we could not see. we are not told that we could rescind on the contract in 5 days. We were led to believe that all of this was true and that was not the truth. It was several days later and we discovered that they had spelled my name wrong. They had spelled it as Majon on several documents, Instead of major. They lied from the time we got there until we finally got to leave and we were uneasy when we left. The presentation took about 3 hours. I was told about a particular vacation package and asked how much/little of a monthly payment I could afford. I stated that I could handle $30/month. I was asked for my information and assured that they could sell me the package and that I would be able to pay as little as $30/month. When I got notice of the first payment due, the minimum amount given was $98. I contacted my customer relations rep and he assured me that I could pay only $30. He further stated that I was on a limited time introductory payment that would end in 6 months, at which time the entire balance would have to be paid off in order to take advantage of this introduction. That was never communicated to me during the presentation. When I got the statement, I saw that I could pay just the $30/month that I agreed to. I have since come to the knowledge that the associated ownership and maintenance fees would make my entire financial commitment to about twice the amount of the package. Also, the fact that I was kept for more that 90 minutes was a violation of a regulation on this industry. I would like to get out of this mess. I have not exercised any of the vacation features.

I am 71 and was taken advantage of. I met with sales rep Matt Turnbull at the Branson Wyndham Preview Center 7/19/2017 who promised me a free room and show tickets. I thought that was very nice. Little did I know the path I was going to be led down. My sister was told to wait in the lobby. I donâ t know why she was not allowed to stay. Matt said we would be right back. However, the time got longer and longer. I asked if I could go get her and was told there wasnâ t room. My sister has dementia and Alzheimerâ s, and I was very worried about her. The sales reps knew this. They wouldnâ t even let me check on her. If I would have had my wits about me I would have gotten up right then and gone to her. I reasoned that I wanted the free show tickets so she and I could have fun together. Reps kept telling me we were almost done. This went on for hours. I said several times that I wasnâ t at all interested in the timeshare and wanted to leave. Matt and others said I could take cruises or pay for nights in motels on trips and never have to worry if we didnâ t make reservations ahead of time. This sounded great, but it just proved not to be true because it does NOT totally pay for cruises or hotel rooms as I was lead to believe. Each rep assured me that I never had to use the timeshare because it was all about the points which would be for my own use.

The incentive that attracted us to attend in the first place was the offer of a seven-day, six-night stay in Branson, Missouri, but which it turned out we were never able to redeem, due to the fact that it expired in little over one month's time, which should have been an indicator to us right away that the product was not what it was cracked up to be. Mr. Holub claimed that we would have wide and liberal access to destinations both international and domestic. Mainly, his sales pitch focused on the fact that the purchase was like that of a real estate investment, which we would be glad to pass on to our children. He told us that maintenance fees could be offset through rental and that Wyndham would buy back our contract, if we should ever decide to sell. Of course, many would assume that if it were to be considered an investment, then it should have good resale value. Very unfortunately for us, none of these things turned out to be true. We never had an opportunity to rent and Wyndham will not even agree to take back the title for zero consideration, in essence, trapping us as purchasers with a perennial, life-long debt. For the thousands charged for this purchase, we

We weren't aware of that and said so but she insisted that there was another contract written in 2017 that said we would buy these points. She told us there was an ovation program that we could use to get rid if a Shell Vacation ownership that we have and when we checked on that after getting home, that was not a possibility either. It was only available for Wyndham contracts. (Wyndham has bought out Shell so this is why she should have that knowledge of this.) She also said that she would set it up so we would get 3 points per dollar on our Barclay credit card and that hasn't happened. Of course this is all she said, we said so we have no proof of what she said. She had said because of the kind of contract it was, that the back out did not apply to this contract. We had talked to another person and they told us that all contract had that so we sent a letter asking them to void the contract because we didn't want it and that we had been lied to. CC-2017-01-005417	Marlene	Raether	Wyndham Vacation Ownership	6277 Sea Harbor Drive	FL	32821	After my husband passed on Valentine Day 2012, I decided to take a short vacation with a few friends. It was decided that we would vacation in Branson, MO. In late April of 2013 I went to Branson, MO with a few friends. We stayed at one of Wyndham's hotels and was offered free gas card if I sat in on a presentation for their vacation resorts. Being newly widowed and vulnerable, I was talked into buying a timeshare from Wyndham for Branson. I thought the total cost was going to be $9,724.50 for 105,000 points. They also added a $30.00 charge for closing costs. I was shown the $9,724.50 amount on page 6 of 8 of the Security Agreement in the contract. This was the exact amount charged to my Visa credit card ending in 8574 that day. They charged the $30.00 closing costs to my Master Card ending in 2626. Wyndham then began charging my Master Card $202.41 and I had no idea what it was. When I called to find out I was told this was for the balance of the loan. What Loan? The entire purchase was put on my other credit card. Somehow your people doubled the amount of the 105,000 points! They tricked me into thinking the total cost was $9,724.50, not $19,449.00. In Fall of 2013, I received a phone call by Wyndham and they told me that for $200.00, I could have 1 week vacation at Galveston. I agreed as that was a great deal. I took friends with me and we went down to Branson on my timeshare that I already had.

During the presentation (about 45 minutes), several points were made showing the benifits & savings of the Wyndham program. Then we left to continue with the individual portion with Donna Smith. Donna chatted with us to determine that we had retired this year and doing a little traveling, beginning with Branson and then on to a Thanksgiving weekend with family in Dexter, MO. We had downsized to live in our 30ft. fifth wheel camper and planned to begin full-time RV living and traveling. Of course, I was having a nice time in Branson, and hoped to return, since there was so much to see. Donna took us to her car and drove my husband and myself across the road to the hotel. There, we toured the grounds, central activity center and the picture perfect guest suites. I could really see myself and my family members enjoying this lifestyle!Afterwords, we returned to the offices across the road for the sales presentation. Costs were given as well as how the points system works. My husband said no immediately. But I was still interested and thought

There have been a few occasions that weâ ve tried to reach out to the representative we spoke with afterwards, sometimes as little as two weeks after the trip, only to be told that person was not available, or even was no longer with the company. Many of these individuals had promised to be there to help us whenever we needed, but we did not get any help. Their only solution to fix things was to buy more. I sent a letter to owner care and Justin Parker denied my complaint to cancel the contract and didn't take the time to address any of the issues I laid out in my letter and only focused on my upgrades. We are at a point in life where it would be best to separate from a company like this. We have paid about $45,000 into something that we have used 4 times total since 2008 and I do not think it is fair how the company brushed off my complaints and just dismissed it. I need help to get out of this contract as it was signed under duress and I only signed it because they told me It was going to save me money but in reality I have spent way too much money on something that has outdate properties and doesn't care about customer service.

During the sales process, I was told by my sales person Ms. Kleiner that this package would offer property upgrades, access to more availability with stronger trading power and access to more points because of the discounted points. I was also sold on the opportunity to sell my points to help offset costs. The sales manager said the 575,000 points would translate to about 6 weeks of available time, which is not true. She stressed the properties were valued at least $250 per night and that I could sell the weeks to recover some of my investment. I have found most of what was shared to be a lie. The update meeting was an extremely high-pressure sales meeting taking up half a day of my vacation. I am extremely disappointed in the sales and communication process. I feel like I have repeatedly been lied to and misled. Each time I have an owner update, I am told I should have received a letter with some offerings that I missed out on. I am told I can reactivate that offer if I write a letter now and they will personally put their jobs on the line by faxing it over to corporate before I leave the meeting to get an answer for me, otherwise it would not be available again and off of the table as an option â which Iâ ve then been told I am stupid if I pass on an opportunity like this.

Your agents deliberately misrepresented this contract and fraudulently misled us into signing. This timeshare is virtually unusable for us, as a military family. We respectfully ask you to read through the information provided within this letter, then agree to our request for a cancellation and respond accordingly. On May 7th, 2018, while on our anniversary vacation, we were approached at a movie theater by two older gentlemen about a timeshare opportunity. If we attended a 90 minute, no commitment presentation, we would get premium seating on a river boat dinner cruise. We thought we might enjoy a dinner cruise, so we agreed to attend. We checked in at 8:00 am the next morning and a little while later, were met by Cameron Robert Fulwider. CC-2015-10-007433	Deborah	Durbin	Wyndham Vacation Ownership Inc.	110 Fairfield Dr.	MO	65616	On Wednesday, August 12, 2015, my husband and I purchased a vacation package from Wyndham Vacation Inc. Beginning on Thursday, August 13, 2015 I began calling and leaving messages for the people we purchased the vacation package from, but no one returned my call. On the Friday, August 14, 2015 I received a call from a representative asking if I had any questions. I let her know that I was attempting to reach the sales agent and closing agent to cancel the contract. She told me they would probably be getting back to me soon. On Monday, August 17, 5 days had lapsed since closing, and I had not been contacted by anyone, so I assumed any letter sent at this point would have been denied. I continued to leave messages for the sales agent - Jennifer Spilman, her manager- Richard Akre, and the quality assurance closing agent - Tim Hall for the next two months. To this date no one has had the courtesy to return my calls. Beginning toward the end of September through mid-October, I called all the other 800 numbers I could find listed throughout the documentation we received. Everyone I spoke to didnâ t have any idea as to how, what, or who I should talk to in order to resolve the cancellation of the purchase. They also added $30 charge for closing cost. Wyndham then began charging my MasterCard $202.41 and I had no idea what I was. Was for the balance of the loan. What loan? Somehow your people doubled the amount of the 105,000 points. The tricked me into thinking the total cost was $9,724.50, not $19,449. Crystal kept talking $11,000 which I thought was the balance that I still owed of $8,000 on the Branson timeshare scam, plus $3,000 for the current upgrade. My original purchase price was very confusing. Bottom line, I actually purchased another $22,000 plus what I still owed on the Branson timeshare. I feel that I was completely blindsided and coerced into all of this.

They had told us that we would be attending a 60 to 90 minute presentation. But instead it went on for 4 hours. They told us that we would be able to get 10 days vacation for the points we had purchased. But when we tried to book at Disney Resorts, even trying to book a whole year in advance, nothing was ever available. At the sales meeting the sales rep also said he would help us make reservations, but he did not do so. The sales team told us that the timeshare was an investment in the quality of our vacations. But itâ s not. They made it sound so rewarding and easy and promising, but actually itâ s cheaper and much easier to get a vacation on your own. In order to pay our down payment, the sales reps opened up a credit card with Barclays Bank for us. They said that this credit card would earn points which would completely pay for the maintenance fees. But we later found out that this was untrue. The sales reps never mentioned the rescission period to us. But we found out about it that evening and went back the very next day to cancel the contract. But the sales rep Chad Gathercole would not allow us to do so and kept talking and spinning things out, refusing to accept our cancellation. We told him many times that we wanted to cancel, but he refused and deprived us of our legal rights. What I have described

We were on vacation when Wyndham reps contacted us for a presentation which they said would last about an hour. Then they put us through a presentation which lasted over 6 hours! And these reps were not even happy with that. Still they call us at home, disturbing us in order to sell us what they called â more points and more opportunities to travel.â They also wanted to drag us back to aÿ end â an important membersâ meetingâ which we now know is just another sales pitch. These reps lied to us and keep on lying to us. They have no respect for our time or for us. This is a clear case of senior citizen abuse, as I am 88 and my wife is 77. I believe they bullied us into buying the timeshare they were selling. They did not have any consideration for us or for what we wanted. The sales reps told us that the timeshare would be a good investment because it was real estate and it would appreciate over time, especially in this particular location. But they were not telling us the truth. This is not real estate property in the true sense of the word. It is not an asset that we own. In fact, when you consider the loans of over $30,000 which they made us take out, it is actually a liability. A big liability which is frightening for us now that we are both retired. They also said that this timeshare would be advantageous for us, especially if we took vacations regularly,

CC-2018-07-005315	David	Althage	Wyndham Vacation Ownership Inc.	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	We were in a mall and a woman at a kiosk told us she had some free things to give away. She was working for Wyndham and she set up an appointment for a 90 minutes presentation for us. Our appointment was at 8:30 am, but we only got out of the room after 1:30 pm. Over 5 hours! The sales reps kept talking and stalling and feeding us ever more information. There was so much of it and so much paper, and they talked very fast and it was difficult to take it all in. They did not tell us how much the timeshare would cost until about 12:30 pm. By then we were very tired, hungry and kept asking how much longer it would be. The reps did not think to help us by offering some lunch. Neither would they allow us to leave to get some. Due to our medical issues, our heads were spinning by then, and Kathleen's blood sugar was really dropping and she felt unwell. David was tired. I should also mention that his eyesight is not good these days due to macular degeneration and glaucoma, and also needing cataract surgery. So he found it impossible to properly examine all these papers. And then it was at least another hour before we finally got out of there. I believe this was an example of senior abuse, and we really resent what Wyndham did to us. They pressured us to a huge extent, but we didn't realize it until much later. By the way, the original agent at the kiosk had promised us some show tickets to the Ringling Brothers and the State

As a result, they put a huge amount of debt on us, which we were not expecting, and which is beyond our means. Who would lend $60,000 on a timeshare to 2 senior citizens? All of this has also apparently led to our account being frozen, whatever that means. But in spite of that, people are still calling us to get monthly payments?? We have written to Wyndham, but we have not received any kind of empathetic hearing from them. This nightmare began on April 23, 2018 we were on vacation in Branson, MO. The consumer joined a buy back program where at the end of 8 years, the company would buy the timeshare back for 20% of the purchase price. The consumer agreed to it after they were told they would no longer have to pay maintenance fees and that they would stop the automatic withdrawal. When they returned home, they received a call stating that the consumers bank refused the automatic withdrawal for the maintenance fees. They talked me into applying for a new credit card and putting $18741.20 on that new credit card which I did. They gave us credit for our other time share in the amount of $21,047.05. We were supposed to receive a deed that day for the purchase of the new Branson timeshare pursuant to their paperwork. I find out there the amount financed at that time was $912.62 which has been strung out since then. I am still paying off that credit card and the balance is approximately $17,000. Now Wyndham tells me it is for the monthly maintenance fee and from the original $912.62 payoff for the time share. My husband just passed away, and I went to my lawyer about his death. She reviewed the time share documents. She is not licensed in Missouri, but she told me under Indiana law this probably is fraud since they have strung out the very low payout and not issued me a deed and continue to make monthly charges in addition to the original $18,741.20 payment. Additionally, we found on line that your agency has investigated Fairfield which became Wyndham for timeshare fraud and or irregularities. Please help me. I have all of the paperwork if you need it. I have only used the credit card for the monthly Wyndham charges and the initial purchase. The original date of transaction was October 27, 2008.

CC-2015-12-004439	Ma	Carroll	Wyndham Vacation Resorts	110 Fairfield Drive	MO	65616	We got unsolicited call from Independent Representatives of Branson Oct 2014 offering free tickets to Branson shows if we attended what turned out to be a Wyndham Vacation sales pitch. IRB said they got our name as we stayed in a hotel in Branson the previous year. They would not reveal who was giving the "presentation." We were unaware of Wyndham or how it operates. After more than 5 hours of answering every objection we had, were persuaded to purchase 105,000 points for $16,000. cash. We were persuaded by misrepresentations, omissions, and outright lies. We trusted our salesman Billy Mattison and naively signed a document saying that everything had been explained to us. It had not. Billy assured us he would be our "training wheels" for two years; repeatedly said if we did not like it that Wyndham would buy it back after 5 years at 20% of what we paid; maintenance fee would be covered using points from Wyndham visa card. The clincher that persuaded us to buy was the perks - 10-20% off when we purchased at participating merchants, including Tractor Supply and Home Depot, where we make most of our large ranching purchases; discounts would be good for family members too. That perks promise was a total misrepresentation of the truth; we found out when we presented our perks card at check out. We emailed several times, and then called Billy but he would never address that; found the discounts were on just a few items and limited to locale - nothing in our area. Billy

We did not understand all that was said or exactly what we were signing. We were told we would have enough time for a trip to Hawaii but now find that is not true. We only have enough time for one week during off-peak season. We totally missed the explanation of the recurring maintenance fees and that it was a charge that would pass to future generations. At the time of purchase they did an initial credit check and then ended up processing two separate credit applications with pay pal in order to qualify us for a third party loan and we actually had no knowledge of this at that time. We each signed documents but thought we were signing the same thing. Only recently when we received bills from pay pal have we figured this out. We returned to the office where we made the purchase in Branson on December 9 and asked what we could do to terminate the contract. We were told by a manager, Jake Osborne, that the only thing we could do was to call Corporate Headquarters at 1-888-739-4016. On December 15, 2015 I contacted what they called the Ovation Department, 855-312-9040, #2, and spoke to Minerva who told me she would send papers for me to surrender property and stop the maintenance fees. We have paid Wyndham $6,252.74 which was required within 30 days in order to not incur interest charges. She

Based on the information we were given we felt that if we were to be able to use the membership the way we intended we had to purchase additional points. We were told that with the purchase of additional resorts back East that it would become increasingly difficult to reserve time and that with additional points this would give us more leverage to book time. In May of 2015 we contacted Wyndham via mail requesting that our membership be cancelled due to health issues. Donald was diagnosed with Parkinson's Disease in October of 2013 and due to the progression of the illness it is becoming more difficult for us to travel. In response to this letter we received a letter from Wyndam requesting copies of our financial statements, a detail of how our monthly expenses have increased due to our combined health issues, consent forms to release our medical records to them and a consent form to do a credit check. We are not willing to give them access to our medical records or allow them to do a credit check. In October 2015 we tried 3 or 4 times to make reservations and each time we were told there were no units available for 6 nights. They only had units available for 1 or 2 nights and at our age and with our health issue travel for that short of a time period is not possible. The last six months we have seen a sharper decline in Donald's health and we feel we will not be able to do any traveling in the future. At this point we want to

CC-2016-03-001543	Darrell/Connie	Webster	Wyndham Vacation Resorts	110 Fairfield Drive	MO	65616	Over the 2015 Memorial Day weekend, our family took a short vacation to Branson, MO. While there, Darrell and I thought it to be good to learn more about our Wyndham ownership since we had recently co-inherited it from my in-laws. Although we have enjoyed many vacations at Wyndham properties over the years, we have never been through a class or session to learn how the process works. On Friday, May 22nd, Darrell and I made arrangements for the twins to be taken care of for two hours for us to attend a new ownersâ session. James Magdaz introduced himself to us stating that he was the consultant that would be working with us. At that time we told him we are co-inherited current owners, but have never been through the new ownership process. He said that he doesnâ t work with new ownerships so he was glad we were existing owners, but felt he could help us out. Thus, he took us upstairs to his area. We explained how we became 50/50 owners, with Darrellâ s sister and her husband, from Darrellâ s parents. They had owned it for many years with intend of someday passing it to Darrell, Wanda and their spouses. Darrellâ s mother knows the ins and outs of the ownership process, how it all works, including RCI, the exchange process, extending points out to future years, etc. Thatâ s some of what we hoped to learn from Mr. Magdaz or at least get pointed in the right direction. Our home resort is Bonnet Creek in Orlando Florida. We are Gold VIP level with 624,888 points currently. This was shared with James

We did this once and received 50% of the rental fee and a tax bill for the full amount. When we upgraded in 2011 we were under the impression we were still within the Club Wyndham Access umbrella. Our most recent experience occurred on June 13, 2016 when we visited Branson Missouri. I have been in a dispute with Wyndham Vacation Resorts since March of this year and am continuously stuck in this cat-and-mouse game. I am a victim of their fraudulence and have requested that my timeshare ownership to be cancelled and my money refunded. At this point in time, all I've received are past due notices and a few emails from "Sloan" in their Owner Care Department, who continuously shuts down my request. I Do not feel Sloan has investigated my case fully, or else she would have provided me with cancellation paperwork months ago At this point in time, I'd like for your to take a stance in my case. Attached you will find the first letter I sent to Wyndham requesting cancellation. Below is a more complete synopsis of my complaints: When I first purchased my ownership I was told mortgage and maintenance fees were the only expenses to take a vacation. After booking, I've found hidden fees everywhere. They lied to me. I was told I could easily get out of the contract/sell back the timeshare to Wyndham. I've contacted the resort several times to do so and was denied my request. A young man in Colorado said based on my situation, Wyndham would be happy to take back the ownership. I later called and the person told me "no". I was told booking would be easy, but I can never find availability for the destinations and times I want to take a vacation. I was told I could rent out my timeshare easily but it was much more complicated and less profitable than I thought it was.

Prior to meeting with a Wyndham rep we had a platinum deed of 1,120,000 pints which was paid in full, and a smaller deed of 154,000 points which we were paying on. it is our understanding that with the new contract we would have a spilt deed with added benefits to our platinum deed. A small amount of points would be taken from our platinum deed and added to a smaller deed of 154,000 which also would have added benefits. At no time did we discuss or agree to have additional points or debt added to our platinum deed. We had a paid platinum deed why would we choose to add $54,000 to this deed. See attached complaint for more details.

CC-2017-04-002636	Mary	Sigil	Wyndham Vacation Resorts	1839-K E, Independence	MO	65804	For starters the tour was only supposed to last around 30 minutes, it lasted significantly longer. I was told it was going to be mostly about the resort and its great quality. What it actually turned out to be was a high pressure sales presentation. I donâ t know how you feel about being lied to but I sure do not appreciate being lied to and mislead. During the time of the â tourâ* we were targeted and harassed to make a purchase. My husband and I both stated we were not interested in making a purchase as we were already owners of a timeshare in Grand Desert Las Vegas. I completely regretted informing the sales agents of that information because it seemed once they knew that, they pressured us more and tried to tell us how making this purchase would open a variety of benefits for us with the resort. This again was just another misleading statement to trick us into purchasing. I feel I had made it VERY clear that my intentions were not to purchase another property that I could not afford and that I was only there to gain points on my existing property, while also gaining the free tickets we were promised for attending the tour. Still the sales agent would not take no for an answer, I felt that maybe the sales agent lacked in some customer service training and that was why they were continuously nagging at us to just purchase another property, instead of helping us to purchase more points to keep us satisfied. As more time went on, it was very clear that the sales agent was back

CC-2017-04-003563	Deloris	Thaxton	Wyndham Vacation Resorts	1839-K E, Independence	MO	65804	I have been reaching out to the resort to have my contract cancelled on several occasion and nothing has been done. I got pressured into the sale of the timeshare June 19th 2016 and really donâ t want this to drag out any longer. I was scheduled to attend a resort presentation as soon as I checked into the resort. It was only supposed to last 90 minutes and I was there for 6 hours completely wasting my day. During the first 4-5 hours of the presentation I told the sales rep I was not interested in purchasing anything, he then went and got his boss and they both talked to me about how I could experience great vacations with my family. They kept offering me different sales and better deals and I continued to tell them I wasnâ t there to purchase anything and that I truly could not afford it. Then they went and got another person and all three of them were trying to pressure me into it. It was very hard to understand and follow along with all the information they were giving me at one time. I felt that they took advantage of me, I told the sales rep I was a diabetic and wasnâ t feeling well and of course that didnâ t concern them at all and they still pressed on. After 6 hours I was not feeling well and was really worn down and my daughter had dinner plans so I got stuck there alone. They went on to tell me how great of an investment it would be for me to own a timeshare. They told me that I could rent it or resell the timeshare at any time if I ever couldnâ t afford it or no longer wanted it. They kept on telling me that I would be able to

RCI is owned by Wyndham and is supposed to allow us to use any of the Wyndham hotels or resorts where our Bluegreen is not available. In return for our time we would receive four tickets to a show in Branson. We met with a young man, Cameron F., who at first seemed very nice and polite. We told him right away that we were not interested in investing in Wyndham, we just wanted to learn how to use the RCI program. My husband is 75 years old and not in the best of health. At which time he told us, "Oh that doesn't matter to me, I am a salaried employee and don't make my living on a commission". He tried to explain to us the process, all the while we are telling him we are not interested in investing. Finally his boss Paul was called over to help explain it further and we were told in order for us to help you, we had to give him all this personal information about our timeshare, so they could look into our timeshare accounts. After obtaining this information Paul told us that it would be over $19000.00. Again we told them we were not interested in investing with Wyndham. His boss left and we didn't see him again. CC-2017-05-005721	Lorraine	Warwas	Wyndham Vacation Resorts	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	The Wyndham Vacations Resorts experience has been disappointing from the beginning. They have behaved unethically and dishonestly and very unprofessionally in dealing with us both at Wisconsin Dells and at Branson. For instance their sales booth is set up as an information desk. We approached it for directions and instead they invited us for a free breakfast if we would attend a short presentation. At the purchase, we signed up (apparently) for a complimentary year of Perks by Club Wyndham. They didnâ t mention there was an annual fee after that - $59.95 â that we canceled as soon as we got the bill. We didnâ t know what it was so of course it was of no use to us. The last time we stayed in Branson (November 2016) the guy told us he was meeting with us to help us get the most out our timeshare. We havenâ t been able to book a stay in Hawaii and because we could check in only on certain days, we have never been able to get there. We never tried to book anywhere except Branson after that. At one update we told â Bobâ* how difficult we found trying to book a vacation. He was rude and insulting. He dialed the Reservations line and when they answered he shoved the phone at us to prove it was that easy. When we didnâ t take the phone and talk to them, he got mad â really mad. Extremely mad. One gift we got for attending the presentation was a two-night stay at Wilderness Resort â Wisconsin Dells. We have never gotten to use this as they are always booked solid.

CC-2017-06-005237	Melissa	Bechtel	Wyndham Vacation Resorts	6277 Sea Harbor Drive	FL	32821	At the end of March, we sent a complaint letter to Wyndham. We received a quick response from Ross Steinmann and spoke with him on April 1. We did not hear from him again until May 25 when he apologized in an email for not getting back to up. Since then I have tried to email call him several times and he does not answer me. This is typical. We have been owners with Wyndham since before it even became Wyndham with member number 17711609. The idea of owning timeshare originally intrigued us because we felt it would be more convenient to be able to book places to vacation to, but over the last few years we started seeing that we could do that many different ways, and usually for much, much cheaper than the cost of being an owner with their organization. However, it gets even worse when we realize we never were able to see the value or the benefits that was promised to us, and many of our expectations for our ownership were based upon lies and falsehoods told to us by the sales reps, and that we find ourselves in this situation as a direct result of your high pressure and misleading sales tactics. In 2014, we were in Pompano Beach, Florida. Our salespeople we had there added another timeshare we owned into your PIC program, worth 154,000 points. We upgraded our points to equal 308,000 points. He told us that buying now would benefit us in future travel (no inflated hotel prices) and that the maintenance fees ^â  really don ^â  t go up that much ^â *. They told us that the fees ^â  may ^â * go up 1%-2% if that and sometimes even decrease. The maintenance fees quoted us were $43 a month. At the owner update meeting a year after purchase the salesmen told us we had to upgrade/purchase more points because the maintenance fees were going up to $151 a month due to restructuring. They told us if we bought more points that day, our maintenance fees would be the same. If we didn ^â  t, we would be stuck. We did upgrade and then the next day reconsidered and canceled. We found, by investigating online, that this type of trap is standard practice. We decided then and there to seek cancellation and refund for everything. How far would we get if we practiced that type of business ethic? We wouldn ^â  t be in business very long and would have a very bad reputation to boot. We tried to use the timeshare, as sold, in the Cincinnati area. There are no resorts within hours of there. We couldn ^â  t even use the points to stay in a Wyndham hotel because you have to book the hotel to use the points. They said that.

Weâ ve been in a dispute with Wyndham Vacation Resorts since January 2018 on the basis of timeshare fraud. Despite the amount of times weâ ve reiterated our story and pleaded our case, we continue to hit resistance with our request for termination and refund. We sent our initial letter in on January 25th, 2018 and were assigned Jennifer Anzures as our designated â Senior Case Specialist.â* Weâ ve since gone back and forth with Ms. Anzures a variety of times both on the telephone and via email, but she continues to deny our request. We reached out to the Recovery Services Department via postal mail on June 27, 2018. We have still not heard back from Recovery Services with regards to our letter. The last we heard from Wyndham they stated that our ownership was going to be repossessed, which is NOT okay because we arenâ t at fault here. WE are the ones that were lied to and WE are the ones who have been paying for their wrongdoing. We are sending you the the correspondence weâ ve had back and forth with Wyndham since our dispute began in January since we can't find a place to upload additional information on your website. CC-2018-07-009701	Carolyn	Ramsey	Wyndham Vacation Resorts	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	Consumer states, on April 11,2017 I went into a presentation for a timeshare with Wyndham. I was promised free tickets and a gift card for dinner. I had to make a very quick decision. They fought with the person higher up to get me a better deal then what I currently had. They promised me no stairs or ground floor, better cooking thru them personally and that my timeshare would go up so when I went to sell it I could make money off it. The other things was the maintenance fees, they promised they would never increase over my lifetime. I was sadly mistaken. See attached complaint for more details.

CC-2018-11-002907	Merritt	Durr	Wyndham Vacation Resorts	6277 Sea Harbor Drive	FL	32821	I had booked a vacation package for June 2017 through the Branson Tourism Center. I had secured a hotel stay and three shows to attend with my wife. Due to car troubles, we arrived a day late, but were offered an opportunity to go to a presentation at the Wyndham Resorts in Branson, MO. We were invited to attend a 60-minute presentation where we would receive $150 for our time. We agreed and scheduled the presentation for the next day. At the presentation, we were brought into a large room with many small tables. We were led to one of those tables where we met James H. He began talking to us about our stay in Branson. I expressed to him that I was concerned about our vehicle troubles, and also that we had a show to attend that evening at 6:30pm. He then guided us up to the third floor of the hotel. We sat down at a table where he proceeded to ask us more questions about our vacationing goals, and where we have traveled to thus far. He wanted to know how much we had spent on those trips. We shared with him where we have vacationed and their costs, and also listed off a few destinations we would like to visit in the future. At the conclusion of the tour, we were led back to our initial location where we noticed that everyone had left. We grew anxious and wanted to leave the presentation, but instead were pressured further by James and now, Gerard Goggins. James informed us that we had been approved for two Wyndham Reward credit cards, both with $25,000 credit limits. This was

CC-2018-11-003631	David	McBride	Wyndham Vacation Resorts		MO	My wife and I upgraded our membership with Wyndham Vacation Resorts and as a result we have been roped into two contracts with their company. A second contract with Wyndham was never mentioned. During the presentation the sales representative told us that for $80 more a month we could purchase enough points to reserve a larger room for my whole family, and while talking to the sales representative and verification officer we were under the impression that the documents were for a single contract. Two months after the purchase, I received a phone call from Wyndham demanding more money because our account was not fully paid. When I questioned this I was told that I had two active contracts, not one. It was then that I realized the sales representative lied and the verification officer shuffled in documents for a second contract during the signing. This had doubled our monthly financial obligation to $900 plus. In addition, the mortgage payment of the original timeshare seems to have restarted so we'll be paying for it longer. I am seventy-nine and my wife is seventy-seven. We are both retired and cannot afford to continue paying for this ownership; especially when we've been lied to about it from the start. Buying this timeshare should've made our lives happier, but instead it has put us in a financial bind. Wyndham's actions are obvious and criminal; all of their promises have been lies. We ask that you hold Wyndham responsible for this outright fraud and cancel these contracts.

The ticket vouchers were to be picked up at Branson Shows customer service center at 3608 W 76 Country Blvd, Branson, MO 65616. Branson was the first stop of an automobile trip to San Antonio Texas delivering Christmas presents to and visiting family there. When we picked our ticket vouchers at Branson Shows customer service center, the clerk that waited on us struck up a conversation telling us that in order to make a little extra money he was moonlighting for Wyndham. He asked if we knew anything about Wyndham. I told him that I had at least two separate Wyndham Rewards numbers. One with Super8 and one with Days Inn, but was never able to accumulate enough points to redeem before they expired on either account. This gentleman assured me that if we agreed to attend a presentation the next day the personnel would be able to straighten out my rewards problem. At this point in the conversation because of medications I take daily, I had to excuse myself to go to the restroom. When I returned, my wife was signing a credit card ticket that was a guarantee we would show up for the presentation the next day, receiving a refund for the reservation fee and an additional debit card. We went to the presentation as scheduled. Although I was suspicious, this was the first presentation I attended. I was not aware of the presentation at the time. I was not aware of the presentation at the time. I was not aware of the presentation at the time.

This represents Tell Them Any "f"ing Thing. We feel this behavior has not stopped. And we complained to Wyndham and they just said we have no proof. You can find so many reviews on the BBB and youtube videos and complaints everywhere about these behaviors and they are continuing. What are you doing to protect consumers, such as myself, who walk into the presentations there in Missouri, where we purchased. We are fed up and this type of issues need to stop! This company seems to have the right idea to protect consumers: Coalition to reform Timeshares.They have 12 bill of rights they are trying to get approved. CC-2019-12-005762	Susan	Davison	Wyndham Vacation Resorts	6277 Sea Harbor Drive	FL	32821	I am 70 years old and this company told me one thing and then gave me another. I spoke to a Wyndham Rep Joseph Wheeler and he did not respond to my last request for information about my case. They just do not even have an excuse for their unethical, illegal behavior. They manipulated me to get me to sign a timeshare contract. Almost every reason I purchased this was not true. I explained to my salesmen: Nick Gilbert & Ryan Fox my retirement plans for vacations for the 3 years after purchase and they sold me the package they said would do that for me. August a week in Virginia Beach, In November a week in New Orleans, for 2019 my plans where Alaska & Florida and 2020 10-15 days stay in Hawaii. They also told me I could use RCI anytime with a price of $269-319 if I did not want to use my points. Well, I tried to use my points and could not so I tried the RCI and boy what a smack in the face it was $1000, that is a huge difference in pricing. So not only can I not use my timeshare but the price to use the other thing was over 3 times what I was told. When complaining to them they told me I was not a gold member as I was told I would be but a silver Member with Gold rewards and because of that I COULD NOT GET THE PROMISED $69 FLIGHTS AND DISCOUNTS ON RENTAL CARS as I was told I would get. To use my points was 161,000 points. (just to put this in perspective a weeks stay in Las Vegas is 203,000 points) That is ridiculously expensive, and way more than just paying on my own! And again soooooo much more than $69 a timeshare. What a rip off!

My husband had recently retired and hoped that we could do a lot of traveling so all the things that were pointed out seemed so wonderful and especially in the Hawaii setting with Hilton Head in our background. Of course we were bombarded with all the pluses that would be ours world-wide etc.etc. Since making this fatal mistake, I have tried repeatedly to get out of the timeshare with absolutely no luck. I have gone to my lawyer and he looked over the contract finding nothing illegal in it. Then last Sept. I saw an ad in the newspaper telling about a company out of San Francisco, CA, who was coming to the K.C. area and could get us out of our contract. I thought, finally I could put this behind us. We attended the presentation and were told that for a fee of $2,995.00 they could get us free and clear of maintenance fees etc. In my excitement that this would be the "out" I was looking for to rid us of the fees and property, once again made another mistake, and signed yet another contract with Omni Ellis. (Initially called Wyndham Vacation Plan) Throughout our Wyndham experience, we purchased the initial contract in Las Vegas, Nevada in July, 2017. We upgraded our ownership on a vacation to Myrtle Beach, South Carolina in May 2018. We upgraded again on our next trip to Myrtle Beach in June, 2019. We made our last and final upgrade when we were in Branson, Missouri in November, 2019. On July 29, 2017, we were in Las Vegas, Nevada attending our granddaughterâ s Cheerleading Championship Competition. We were making our way walking up and down the strip and saw advertisements for discounts on a variety of entertainment shows. We stopped and checked into tickets to see the Blue Man Group. We were told we would receive the tickets after we attended a short presentation about the new Wyndham Desert Blue Resort. We bought 6 tickets to see the show! A time was reserved for us to attend the Wyndham 1 hour presentation. We had no idea this was a sales presentation! Wyndham sent a limousine to pick us up at our hotel! We checked in at the Desert Blue Conference Center and were escorted by a salesperson, Bob Needham, into a different room, along with other

CC-2015-04-005251	Marvin	Alff	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Branson, MO	110 Fairfield Drive	MO	51503	We agreed to purchase a vacation package from Wyndham Vacation Resorts based upon false information given by the sales representative and verified by his supervisor. We were told that we could stay a week at our favorite all inclusive only resort for 33,000 points. We were excited because this would allow us to stay an extra week each year at our current budget. We were devastated when we found out that it would cost $400 dollars more than we currently pay for our favorite vacation destination. I contacted the company on January 30, 2015 when I learned of the false information that was given to us. After weeks of explaining the situation to multiple people, Wyndham refused to do anything to resolve the situation. We are honest hard working educators and we just couldn't believe that a company that we thought would follow honest and legal business practices would do nothing to correct this. I expected more from a Missouri business as my wife and I both earned advanced degrees from MU.

CC-2015-01-001337	Joseph	Templeton	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc	622 Sea Harbor Drive	FL	32821	We were approached about Wyndham and my wife and I love to travel, so we attended a meeting. They just kept dropping the price and finally said I would never pay more than $235.01 a month for their Points Rewards system (I have since learned it is a Time Share. Anyhow, they filed for and got me a credit card to pay them the down payment of $11,000.00, and said there would be no payment due until April. I now learn they are taking a payment of $235.01. plus $74.30 a month out starting in December and there will be another bill with payments due beginning in April, and if I were able to pay them off it would be over $25,000.00! And I havent even used it yet. A Vietnam veteran, I should have seen this coming, but I didnt. They had told us they would buy it back if we didnt want it...now I discover they will only buy it back if it is paid in full, and then just pennies on the dollar. They said I could try to sell it...but how? I cant make double the payments they told me it would be...I feel very foolish right now, but also angry at being lied to. I hope you can help me. CC-2016-11-003215	Klaus	Rode	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc	240 Terrace Rd . Branson Mo 65616	NV	89193	My wife an I attended a Wyndham presentation in Branson ,240 Terrace Rd on Sept 15 2016. At that time we purchased 70,000 points which we thought would get us 2/12 weeks. I said to the salesman when he showed us some resorts on his cell phone and the points listed,looks like we should have about 2 1/2 weeks, he did not deny this.We did not know that RCI points and Wyndham were treated the same.We were not told about the different levels of points,that people who had the most points would get their choice first(we found this out from a friend) also that our points would not get us a week at anice place in the summer.He asso told us we could a place in Hawaii on the ocean,rooms going for more than 500 a night,that's not true we found out later. We were not told about housekeeping fees and other fees,and the rules that make it difficult to book a desireable vacation. We alson were notgiven a book that told points needed to book vacations,we saw that later from a friend which was 7 days later after we signed the contract. At that time we sent a registered letter wanting to cancel the contract,since it was sold to us under false pretences. The whole sales pitch by James Slagter was misleading.Ww are still waiting for an answer from Wyndam.
CC-2017-05-004239	Carol	Kapke	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc		MO		Consumer states, we were told what a great investment this would be, that they have many locations in this country and abroad that we would be able to use. We could also let family members us this. We were so impressed after the tour that we signed the papers. After we left Branson and got down to TX and had time to think about it all we both wished we had never signed the papers. I call back to Branson. I was told I could not cancel it was to late and that I had 5 days after signing to cancel, but we were never told that at the time we were there. See attached complaint for more details.

CC-2017-08-000172	John	Swartz	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc		MO		Consumer states, the salesperson led us to believe that the 64,000 points he was trying to sale us was points that had been bought back because the person no longer wanted them. We were told that 64,000 point were enough to let us go anywhere we wanted in the Wyndham family of resorts. We were kept there for 5 hours and even when we asked to have time to talk about it we were not left alone. They just kept bring out more salespeople to tell us more about what we could do with the points and that these points they were trying to sell us were only good for that day. See attached complaint for more details.

We told him they were to high and we were not going to have enough money to pay for them if they kept going up. He told us we could use out reward points to pay the maintenance fees. It was a credit card he was going to get us. Dan Holman told us we could rent or sell our credits to pay the maintenance fees to. The credit card was through paypal credit. CC-2017-10-005172	Christopher	Eaton	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	Consumer states, the short presentation took nearly 2 hours. It should be noted multiple times throughout the tour and later discussions we stated that our travel nearly always included our dogs and we would not be interested if we could not bring them along. Each time we were assured that many of the properties were pet friendly and we would have no problem booking with the dogs. When we pressed the issue the agent stated that 25-35% if Resorts were pet friendly, If we decided not to continue ownership, we could contact them and they would buy back the property. They required first right of refusal any time a property was resold in order to qualify the purchasers. By not we were over 3 hours into the whole presentation/program/high pressure sales pitch, and we began to discuss maintenance fees. etc. See attached complaint for more details.

Consumer states, in July of 2015, my wife and I went to Branson for the express intent of scheduling a meeting with someone at Wyndham to learn how to use my parent's timeshare. My wife and I had not intention of buying, or adding on to my parent's existing deed. We only wanted to be taught how to use it. We wouldn't have even gone this far with it, but we were trying to honor my parent's desire to leave us something. My parents had told me repeatedly that once the deed on the timeshare had been paid, there would be nothing for us to except enjoy the points and take vacations. CC-2017-12-000727	Spencer	Plumley	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	Consumer states, we were taken advantage of by not being told the truth about value, usage and cash. We were told that the purchase would increase in value and that we could make money by renting it out to pay for maintenance fees and even payments. We had regretted buying the property as soon as we got home from the sales presentation. We did not have time to read all the papers they wanted us to sign. They certainly did not explain to us or give us time to read that we had a 5 day cooling off period where we could have voided the contract if we had known. See attached for more details.

After received some free discovery vacations in our earlier years of vacationing. After deciding not to purchase with them, they offered the opportunity to purchase some rental points. As we recall, the rental purchase was around $1300 which we could use for week or two of vacation. From what we remember, we signed our first contract with Fairfield Resorts Inc. in the year 2000. This contract gave us 126,000 points which was equivalent to about one week of vacation at a Fairfield Resort. See attached complaint for more details.
CC-2017-12-006261	John	Conner	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	Consumer states, we stopped for directions to our motel at an information center and we got directions and offered free tickets to a show if we would attend a 1 hour meeting the next morning. That meeting lasted for 8 hours. We bought a timeshare at that meeting from Wyndham. We purchased 64,000 points at that time and was told if we used the timeshare in a years time we would earn a bonus 64,000 points. We did not use that frame. However, we did take another vacation in 2017 to Branson and stayed at Wyndham The Meadows. See attached complaint for more details.

CC-2018-01-006656	David	Murguia	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	Consumer states, it seems every time we used a Wyndham vacation resort they want us to go to a presentation and want us to buy more timeshares. They won't quit until they have bullied us into signing. We were talked into buy more in November of 2016, and in January 2017 we were asked to come to Nashville, Tennessee for an outing to show owners their appreciation. They promised us there wouldn't be no presentation. This was a weekend of hockey game, a meal and room that cost us $200. We ended up in a presentation. They wanted us to buy in New York more Timeshare at $50,000. This is close to $800 a month for 5 years. The sales people were very rude. We can't afford to buy something that we don't have time to use.
CC-2018-01-011767	Timothy	Donovan	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	Consumer states, I feel very strongly that I was told many untruths in order to get me to purchase. I was taken advantage of by not being told the truth about value, usage and cost with the Timeshare. I went to Branson MO at the Wyndham Vacation Resorts. The representative pressured me into buying into the Timeshare, he also pressured me into getting a Wyndham Visa Credit Card to make payments monthly for my membership/ownership. Also pressured me into putting down a down payment through PayPal. The representative also said that with my points on the Wyndham Visa Credit Card. I could cash in my points from purchases on the credit card to pay for my monthly membership payments. I really feel this is a very poor way to get people to fall for the fraud and misrepresentation.

CC-2018-04-000202	Margaret	Welch	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	Consumer states, I am not sure of the mans name that helped me last year from Wyndham and told me that my maintenance fee was going to go up to around $90 or so, however if I upgraded there would be no maintenance fee at all. He said that would be wiped off completely. I was under the impression that I was doing an upgrade to my current package and removing my maintenance fees. Instead I learned this past October 2017 when I visited Branson again that instead of the upgrade I thought I was getting, I actually bought another timeshare. So now I own 2 timeshares with the same company, Wyndham which is not what I thought I had. I have been paying $86.94 a month to Wyndham the maintenance fee, $177.97 a month to Barclay Card the timeshare payment and $123.02 a month to Wyndham for timeshare payment. For a total of $387.93 a month for a single women on social security.
CC-2018-06-003598	Herbert	Wilson	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	Consumer states, in December of 2014, we received a phone call from the USA offering us a free week in Florida or a cruise. You had to sit and listen to a 90 minute presentation in Myrtle Beach. We sat and listened to it. It was much longer than 90 minutes. It was October 2015 and we signed a contract with Wyndham in Myrtle Beach South Carolina. it was for $28,386.75 with a down payment of $9462.25. In November 2016 we went to Branson Missouri to see some shows. We ended up with more points but it cost us more dollars. See attached complaint for more details.

CC-2018-07-008285	Leslie	Sears	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	Consumer states, after turning them down o several offers to buy into the program, they finally came up with a plan called Club Wyndham Discovery where we would pay $2,070.36 to try out the vacation resorts for the next year. This purchased 200,000 points, which we felt were plenty for our vacation time. Our sales representative was Jorge Ocasio. We were told we would be enrolled in Perks for 1 year free. we feel very strongly that we were told many untruths in order to get us to purchase. All we had to do was attend a short presentation about all the Wyndham could offer us. We went ahead and scheduled to meet with Wyndham representatives on July 19,2017. We met with a sales rep by the name of Dick Ball. Our 90 minute meeting had turned into about 3 hours of just going over stuff. Several times during our meeting I told Rick we needed to go, because we had other scheduled activities planned for the day, but we were seated in the back corner of the room, and each time I said we needed to go, Mr. Ball would get another man to come tag team us with more information that we must receive. With that promotion a salesman came to our room and sold us 84,000 points. We told him that we were not ready yet but he said we could pay our maintenance fees by renting these points. He was also very forceful and would not leave our room. The salesman falsely promised that we could rent the points to a third party to pay the maintenance dues. The salesman misrepresented everything he said. It don't happen like he said it would.
CC-2016-10-007848	Marilyn	Pohlmeier	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc.		MO		Consumer states, the only reason why I agreed to purchase with Wyndham was because I was looking into getting rid of a pervious timeshare I had with Branson Nantucket. Jordan Offill promised me several things and led me on, providing me with false promised and false information. Jordan led me to believe that Wyndham would pay my RCI membership dues for the next two years and that the RCI dues I had already pre-paid for the next two years would be refunded to me. The sales rep kept calling my resent weeks with Branson as mud weeks and convincing me Wyndham would take the Branson Nantucket timeshare off of my hands. The signing process was rushed quite a bit. In fact, rather than explaining each document to me, page by page I was lead to believe I was only following standard procedure and that I'd receive the remaining documents and marketing material for my purchase by email.

CC-2017-07-002712	Royce	Stacy	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc.	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	Consumer states, we have been very gullible and naïve over and over because we really did enjoy staying in a nice condo versus Motel 6 as we traveled. But over the years we have been lied to over and over with the final straws being the rental issue and the inheritance issue. To go back to the beginning, though, in presentation. Even then the 20 minute presentation turned into more that two hours of arm twisting. See attached complaint for more details.
CC-2017-09-008801	Paul & Martha	Perez	Wyndham Vacation Resorts Inc.	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	Consumer states, my wife and I feel very strongly that Club Wyndham conveyed many untruths to in order to get us to purchase timeshare property and points. The most recent was December 24,2015 when we were asked to a 90 minute owners update that became a four and a half hour sales engagement, while visiting Branson. We explained That we could not afford to make another investment in Club Wyndham. During the sales presentation we were told that if we were not able to use our points, we could sell them through the extra holidays program and someone else could use them, pay us and we could us that money pay our maintenance fees to offset the cost. We first become interested in Wyndham in 1993 when on a trip to Branson, MO, we visited with a sales team regarding purchasing points for a vacation. Maintenance fees $188.00 per month. During the next several years, we purchased more points until we had $318,000 and became a VIP member. When each one was paid for we got a deed. In May 2013, we took our daughter and grandson for a vacation to Branson. We wanted to talk to someone about combining the 3 deeds into one so that it would pass on to our adult children. We visited with Dan. He told us he could do that for us and proceeded to tell us that we would need to purchase an additional number of points totaling $16,882.66. We did not want more points, but wanted to be able to have 1 deed. He also said that we would need to continue to pay maintenance fees for the next 10 years and after that they would disappear and we would never have to pay them again. This upped the maintenance fees to $196.00, projected 2017 $235.00. So, now we have 413,000 points that we cannot use up each year, even with our family using some of them. We also were not told that the combination of the 3 deeds was at Orlando FL. Then, we came to May 2016 when we once again are able to vacation in Branson, MO. The reps said that this would last about 45 minutes, but it went on and on for over 4 hours. Our main rep., Jeffrey Pollard, was a very confusing person. He would jump around from one point to another without taking the time to explain the connection. Several times he would call someone over to explain it their way, only to jump in and start talking about something else. But one thing he did make very clear was that this would be a great financial investment, increasing in value over time as Wyndham expanded worldwide. He compared this investment to building equity in a house, and he suggested that it would be a good idea to take out a home loan to pay off the Wyndham loan. In the end, we were offered a "free" cruise for signing up. However, this was the first Wyndham lie which we discovered, namely that the cruise was NOT free. We had to pay several associated expenses and we calculated that it was only about $300 cheaper than the normal market price. Then, the following year we went to a presentation at Bonnet Creek, Florida, and the rep there, one Elwood Weppel, told us that our Branson deal was a poor one, and we needed to change to become deeded owners in the Florida Disney area which would give us much better booking opportunities. We were really put out by this because we had already spent $20,200 on the first

CC-2019-01-000062	TRAVIS	EUBANKS	WYNDHAM Vacation Resorts, INC	240 Terrace Road	MO	65616	I am writing you today in search of a solution to a situation I encountered in 2017. To begin, my Name is Travis Eubanks and I reside in Claremore, OK. In August of 2017 I had planned a long-awaited vacation for my wife and me. My wife had underwent over twenty brain related surgeries in the past ten years and was very ill as well as it had been almost 20 years since I had been able to take a vacation and we were beyond excited. The destination we had decided to adventure to would be Branson, MO. I had never been and felt like it was an obtainable destination considering my wife's health conditions. We picked four show to attend and I purchased them online before our trip in August. While picking up our show tickets, we were bombarded with various time share offers from several different companies. Some companies offered us a $250.00 incentive if we would sign up for a brief, informational meeting. They assured us the meeting would not interfere with our show schedule. We had not been on a vacation in years and we were overwhelmed as well as unknowledgeable about what a timeshare was or what we were about to encounter. We were checking in at our motel and were asked if we would like to upgrade for free to a lodge in the country. All that was required from us was to attend a meeting the next morning and listen to a one hour presentation by Bluegreen. In addition to the upgrade they were going to throw in an additional $200.00 gift card. The next morning we went to the

The sequence of events is as follows: On the 18th of Feb I signed a contract with Wyndham. The next morning, the 19th of February (around 9:00 AM), I physically provided my letter of cancellation to an employee who indicated he would take care of it. I do not remember his name, but I believe he is one of the supervisors. I say this because during my meeting the previous day with Tom Roach, he appeared several times, introduced himself, shook my hand, and went back to what he was doing. This is why I gave him the letter in the foyer by the entrance. Since then, I have found out the contract had not been cancelled. I have sent a (registered) letter to them outlining the above and have not received any communication from them.

CC-2017-05-008607	Major	Broughton	Wyndham Vacation Resorts, Inc.	6277 Sea Harbor Dr.	FL	32821	Consumer writes: We arrived at the Branson ticket office and welcome center to pick up our tickets that we had purchased on the 8th of July 2016. And at that time, we were invited to attend a timeshare property at the Wyndham resorts. We attended that meeting on the 9th 2016 at 1 o'clock we were told that it would last approximately 2 hours. The salesperson left us several times to go consult with someone else and we were left to twiddle our thumbs while they were scheming behind our backs. We were given the run around from one place to the other we were held for 3 hours and 30 minutes. They keep talking to us to buy this and that property. They had us to sign several papers that they had certain lettering on that we could not see. we are not told that we could rescind on the contract in 5 days. We were led to believe that all of this was true and that was not the truth. It was several days later and we discovered that they had spelled my name wrong. They had spelled it as Majon on several documents, Instead of major. They lied from the time we got there until we finally got to leave and we were uneasy when we left. This was the biggest scam that we have ever seen. We are unhappy with this after all of the lies we were told, never will we make this mistake again.

CC-2017-10-005768	Charles	Harris	Wyndham Vacation Resorts, Inc.	6277 Sea Harbor Drive	FL	32821	I was invited to hear a presentation on the vacation packages, told it would take about 90 minutes. The presentation took about 3 hours. I was told about a particular vacation package and asked how much/little of a monthly payment I could afford. I stated that I could handle $30/month. I was asked for my information and assured that they could sell me the package and that I would be able to pay as little as $30/month. When I got notice of the first payment due, the minimum amount given was $98. I contacted my customer relations rep and he assured me that I could pay only $30. He further stated that I was on a limited time introductory payment that would end in 6 months, at which time the entire balance would have to be paid off in order to take advantage of this introduction. That was never communicated to me during the presentation. When I got the statement, I saw that I could pay just the $30/month that I agreed to. I have since come to the knowledge that the associated ownership and maintenance fees would make my entire financial commitment to about twice the amount of the package. Also, the fact that I was kept for more that 90 minutes was a violation of a regulation on this industry. I would like to get out of this mess. I have not exercised any of the vacation features.

I am 71 and was taken advantage of. I met with sales rep Matt Turnbull at the Branson Wyndham Preview Center 7/19/2017 who promised me a free room and show tickets. I thought that was very nice. Little did I know the path I was going to be led down. My sister was told to wait in the lobby. I donâ t know why she was not allowed to stay. Matt said we would be right back. However, the time got longer and longer. I asked if I could go get her and was told there wasnâ t room. My sister has dementia and Alzheimerâ s, and I was very worried about her. The sales reps knew this. They wouldnâ t even let me check on her. If I would have had my wits about me I would have gotten up right then and gone to her. I reasoned that I wanted the free show tickets so she and I could have fun together. Reps kept telling me we were almost done. This went on for hours. I said several times that I wasnâ t at all interested in the timeshare and wanted to leave. Matt and others said I could take cruises or pay for nights in motels on trips and never have to worry if we didnâ t make reservations ahead of time. This sounded great, but it just proved not to be true because it does NOT totally pay for cruises or hotel rooms as I was lead to believe. Each rep assured me that I never had to use the timeshare because it was all about the points which would be for my own use.

In 2017 when I was at Branson I went in for what they called "an update" of my ownership. The first thing I told them was that I definitely did not want to spend any more because it would cause a financial hardship on me. The incentive that attracted us to attend in the first place was the offer of a seven-day, six-night stay in Branson, Missouri, but which it turned out we were never able to redeem, due to the fact that it expired in little over one month's time, which should have been an indicator to us right away that the product was not what it was cracked up to be. Mr. Holub claimed that we would have wide and liberal access to destinations both international and domestic. Mainly, his sales pitch focused on the fact that the purchase was like that of a real estate investment, which we would be glad to pass on to our children. He told us that maintenance fees could be offset through rental and that Wyndham would buy back our contract, if we should ever decide to sell. Of course, many would assume that if it were to be considered an investment, then it should have good resale value. Very unfortunately for us, none of these things turned out to be true. We never had an opportunity to rent and Wyndham will not even agree to take back the title for zero consideration, in essence, trapping us as purchasers with a perennial, life-long debt. For the thousands charged for this purchase, we

Then she told us, in order to get the reduced price, we had to go to a 1.5 hr meeting the next morning. So we did....only to have it last about 5 hours. In that we were presented the "pitch" by saying we could get "all of these benefits" - one of which is using our points to get airline tickets, to get Wyndham Motel Rooms and vacation resort stays all over the world. We told them we operate "on the fly" and don't plan ahead much. We were told that is not a problem. We were also told that this is a wonderful "asset" to pass along to our heirs. You can do that with us. Anyway - we bought with that understanding. Only to find the very first time we tried to use it - we called to ask about a possible flight for 1 person, Roundtrip from Sioux Falls to Atlanta. We had already checked with the airline and found that trip to cost $413.80. They said it would cost us 193,029 of our 200,000 points that we purchased for $29,374! PLUS their fee of $59. That would mean that ticket would have cost us $28,409!!! In addition, we asked about staying at the Microtel by Wyndham in Columbus, Ga, only for their Customer Service Rep to tell us that was not part of our package!! We weren't aware of that and said so but she insisted that there was another contract written in 2017 that said we would buy these points. She told us there was an ovation program that we could use to get rid if a Shell Vacation ownership that we have and when we checked on that after getting home, that was not a possibility either. It was only available for Wyndham contracts. (Wyndham has bought out Shell so this is why she should have that knowledge of this.) She also said that she would set it up so we would get 3 points per dollar on our Barclay credit card and that hasn't happened. Of course this is all she said, we said so we have no proof of what she said. She had said because of the kind of contract it was, that the back out did not apply to this contract. We had talked to another person and they told us that all contract had that so we sent a letter asking them to void the contract because we didn't want it and that we had been lied to. We did this within 10 business days but they said they couldn't do it because it was 10 calendar days. Is there anyway we can get out of this contract? They put this on a credit card to be paid in 6 months with no interest so we haven't paid anything yet.

Re: Urging Congress to Extend the Deadline for Eligible CARES Act Expenses from December 30, 2020 to December 31, 2021

Dear Colleagues:

This is an invitation for you to join us in urging Congress to pass S. 4494, bipartisan legislation sponsored by Senator Maggie Hassan (D-NH) and Senator Chuck Grassley (R-Iowa) that would extend the eligibility period for Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act Funding.

COVID-19 has impacted every facet of American society. In anticipation of unprecedented costs and economic disruption stemming from the pandemic, Congress passed the CARES Act which provides financial assistance to communities for expenses incurred due to COVID-19. One of the restrictions placed on the funding, however, limits the money's use to expenses incurred between March 1, 2020, and December 30, 2020. While this time frame likely made sense in late March when the CARES Act was passed, we have learned a great deal about COVID-19 in the intervening months. There can be no question that states and local communities will continue to incur COVID related expenses next year.

We invite each of you to add your voice to this effort by joining the attached letter to Congress, urging the passage of S. 4494 to extend the deadline to December 31, 2021. If you have any questions about the substance of this letter, please contact Michael Rodgers of Ohio at 614-995-2273 or Michael.Rodgers@ohioattorneygeneral.gov or Nathan Blake of Iowa at 515-281-4325 or nathan.blake@ag.iowa.gov.

A sign-on sheet is attached; please return the sheet to Ryan Greenstein by email at rgreenstein@naag.org or by fax to (202) 521-4057 no later than 12:00 p.m. EST, Wednesday, November 25, 2020. The final letter will be sent Monday, November 30, 2020.

The Honorable Kevin Brady
Ranking Member
House Ways and Means Committee
1139 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Chairman Neal and Ranking Member Brady,

Thank you for everything you have done thus far in providing critical relief to communities reeling from the health, societal, and economic effects of COVID-19. We are grateful for the federal support, but we write today to ask that Congress consider extending the spending-related deadline for relief funding so Americans can receive the full benefit of this assistance.

COVID-19 has impacted every facet of American society. In anticipation of unprecedented costs and economic disruption stemming from the pandemic, Congress passed the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act, which President Trump signed into law. This legislation established the Coronavirus Relief Fund (CRF), which provides financial assistance to communities for expenses incurred due to COVID-19.

One of the restrictions placed on the funding, however, limits the money's use to expenses incurred between March 1, 2020, and December 30, 2020. This time frame likely made sense in late March when the CARES Act was passed, but we have learned a great deal about COVID-19 in the past seven months. Among other things, we know that the pandemic will continue to challenge communities well beyond December 30, 2020 – a deadline that now seems unreasonable.

With COVID-19 cases rising daily in much of the country and many states still under a health emergency declaration, we urge Congress to amend the CFR program to allow state and local governments to spend the funding at least until December 31, 2021.

In some states, Attorneys General are being called upon to help distribute CARES funding, a role that has given us firsthand knowledge of the difficulties posed by the current deadline.

For example, the Ohio Attorney General's Office is administering a grant program providing reimbursement for eligible COVID-19 expenses to rape crisis centers, domestic violence shelters, and child advocacy centers. Establishing standards and procedures for a grant program took time, thus reducing the time that these organizations have had to apply for and receive reimbursements. All the while, these groups' need for COVID-related assistance has grown only more substantial, a demand that is not likely to subside anytime soon.

The CARES Act is a program that is delivering critical resources to local governments, businesses, nonprofits, and families. We collectively thank you for your leadership on this issue and hope that you will carefully consider our request to extend the deadline for eligible expenses through 2021.

Yours,

Tom Miller

[6] LJvLS documents evidence of Timothy McVeigh's faked execution, as per notice to 10th Circuit Court; CC US Supreme Court [Annex A3²⁴: 30 Oct 18²⁵]:

Oklahoma City Bombing Truth and Reconciliation:

[34] In May 2001, I wrote a letter to President Bush requesting President Bush to suspend Timothy McVeigh's execution pending OKC bombing Truth and Reconciliation, to facilitate honest forgiveness and truth-seeking problem solving related to the US domestic and foreign policy causes of the OKC bombing. If the OKC TRC proceedings did not grant Timothy McVeigh amnesty, they would choose to sentence Timothy McVeigh and myself to death.

[35] 07 Oct – Dec 2001: Timothy McVeigh's Oklahoma City bombing commanding officer: Timothy McVeigh's execution was faked: Sometime on the morning of 07 October or between 6 and 17 December 2001 – the initial meeting occurred during media reports about the bombing of Tora Bora in Afghanistan – I accidentally met US Special Forces Native American – Seminole tribe – soldier Michael Martin – not his real name, which I do not know – at the Westridge park Flying J Truckers Parking lot – Flying J #611, at 6700 Latham St, on the corner of Papago Freeway and N 67th Avenue – in Phoenix Arizona. We traveled together for the day and spent the night at the Geronimo Motel in Flagstaff, discussing among others the OKC bombing, then returned to Phoenix the next day. Michael Martin informed me that Timothy McVeigh's execution had been faked, and he knew this, because he had personally run into Timothy – who had been partially disguised – at a homeless shelter, in the week of 4th of July 2001, a few weeks after Timothy's alleged execution. Initially we decided we would travel to various militia compounds where Michael thought McVeigh could be found, or who would know where we could find McVeigh. However, my funds were low, and I had to be back in California for a court date, and so we agreed that Michael would go back to Washington DC to speak with his Pentagon superiors to ascertain their level of interest if any for the disclosure of Oklahoma City bombing events via Truth and Reconciliation proceedings, and I would return to the Bay Area. A few weeks later Michael Martin returned to the Bay Area from DC, where I picked him up at the San Francisco bus station, where I got a parking ticket waiting for his bus to arrive. He stated his

Pentagon superiors did not object to his enquiry whether the OKC bombing events could be disclosed via Truth and Reconciliation proceedings, but they did say that it would open a can of worms that went directly back to the John F Kennedy Assassination, and they did not know whether American citizens really want to know the truth about what is done for them in their name.

[36] Upon returning to California I went to CA Governor Gray Davis office where I proceeded to inform Steve West, Former US Special Forces and then Secret Service Officer in the office of Governor Gray Davis of Michael Martin's information regarding the faked execution of Timothy McVeigh. Mr. West doubted my assertions but I refused to leave the office unless he promised to request Governor Gray Davis to ask President Bush to confirm or deny the information. A few weeks later, I returned and Steve West confirmed that his previous conclusions about the execution of Timothy James McVeigh had been incorrect. Governor Gray Davis had requested President George Bush to confirm or deny Michael Martin's information about McVeigh's faked execution, and President Bush had confirmed it; when he met President Bush at their recent meeting in San Bernadino County. Consequently he confirmed for me that Timothy McVeigh had not been executed on 11 June 2001; his execution was faked. Mr. West then thanked me for informing Governor's Davis office of this information for him to verify with President George W Bush.

EOP SUMMARY OF EOP v WIP LAW:

EoP MILED Clerk legal certainty clarity working hypothesis summary of the legal social contract difference between Ecology of Peace (“EoP”) and Babylon War is Peace (“WiP”) law, courts, legal applications, activism and elections.

[1] EoP v WiP Law:

[1.1] EoP Scientific and Cultural [eop-scicultlaw] – aka Garden of Eden – law clearly, simply and unequivocally requires citizens to procreate and consume below ecological carrying capacity limits [eop-footprint]; and relate in terms of fully informed consenting agreements [ego-eco-literacy]; to avoid ecological overshoot and racial, religious, class and gender resource conflict.

[A] The Ecology of Peace Radical Honoursty Factual Reality [eop-rh-fr] conscious strategic goal for implementing EoP Scientific and Cultural law is an egalitarian responsible freedom [responsible-freedom] stable – no population & economic consumption growth above ecological carrying capacity limits – sustainable low tech family farm agrarian village and primitivist nomad society living in peace; with no palaces, prisons, mental institutions, homeless and unemployed, where rape and murder are so rare, they don’t have words for it.¹

[1.2] Babylon WiP law consciously or unconsciously, negligently or intentionally allows citizens to procreate and/or consume above ecological carrying capacity limits; resulting in ecological overshoot and racial, religious, class and gender resource conflict.

[A] The conscious or unconscious strategic goal of WiP law is a hierarchical slavery freedumb society where the military, legal, political, religious and legal elite profiteer of cheap – economic sexual and/or military – cannon fodder labour and homeless and unemployed misery of the masses; with plenty of racial, religious, class or gender resource conflict for the elite to parasitically profiteer from to build themselves military, religious, corporate and polegal palaces, cheap labour prisons and mental institutions slavery plantations, where rape and murder are so plentiful, WiP Only BDSM addicted to misery judges don't need to subscribe to porn channels, because they have reality rape and murder porn tv channels in their courts.²

[B] In Martin Luther / Sayyid Qutb terminology: Babylonian Kufr WiP Law socio-polegally and economically profit from innocence for – procreation and consumption above ecological carrying capacity limits – sale indulgences Kufr juridical rulings.

[2] EoP v WiP Courts:

- [2.1] An 'EoP Only' Court – generally in a national polegal system dominated by WiP law whose juridical transformation goals are to transform the judiciary into an EoP legal system – only accepts applications from individuals who are consciously – unconditional or conditional cooperator – members of the Ecology of Peace culture.
- [2.2] An unconscious Babylon 'WiP Only' court unconsciously accepts applications from individuals who are consciously or unconsciously members of EoP and Babylon WiP cultures.
- [2.3] A conscious Babylon 'WiP Only' court consciously only accepts applications from individuals who are consciously or unconsciously members of Babylon WiP cultures.
- [2.4] An unconscious EoP and WiP court accepts applications from all individuals irrespective of whether they are consciously or unconsciously members of Ecology of Peace or Babylon WiP cultures.
- [2.5] A conscious EoP and WiP court accepts applications from all individuals irrespective of whether they are consciously or unconsciously members of Ecology of Peace or Babylon WiP cultures; requires applicants, counsel and jury members to unambiguously clarify whether they are EoP or WiP culture accused / defendants, applicants / respondents, counsel and jury.

[3] EoP v WiP Activists:

[3.1] EoP Civil Disobedience – unconditional or conditional co-operator – Activist engages in non-violent or violent activism – generally in a national polegal system dominated by WiP law – that violates one or more national or international Babylon WiP legal statute; on behalf of implementing EoP Scientific and Cultural law [eop-scicultlaw] as national or international law.

[A] If tried in a Babylon WiP court, they are denied EoP necessity defence exposing difference between EoP and WiP law, tried in accordance to WiP law, and if convicted, sentenced according to WiP law.

[B] If tried in EoP and WiP court; they are allowed EoP necessity defence, tried in accordance with EoP and WiP conflict of cultural laws principles³; if their EoP evidence exposes scientific and/or cultural law

³ * Paul Meerts: Culture and International Law: “Although not often explicitly mentioned, culture is always at the centre of law and politics.”

* Ex parte Minister of Native Affairs: In re Yako v Beyi 1948 (1) SA 388 (A); at 397 the Appellate Division held that neither common nor customary law was prima facie applicable. Courts had to consider all the circumstances of a case, and, without any preconceived view about the applicability of one or other legal system, select the appropriate law on the basis of its inquiry. Schreiner J.A. said lifestyle of is a choice of law factor: “Aside from an express choice of laws all connecting factors with conflict of personal laws are designed to determine, in an objective manner, the cultural orientation of the parties. Because the laws involved are conceived in terms of culture the connecting factors must be conceived in like terms. The most direct access to a person’s cultural leanings would clearly be his or her lifestyle”.

* SALC, Sept 1999: Report on Conflicts of law: P.22: 1.58. The Constitution now provides an entitlement for invoking customary law in legal suits. Because ss 30 and 31 specifically guarantee an individual and a group's right to pursue a culture of choice, it could be argued that application of customary law has become a constitutional right. Previously, the state had assumed complete discretion in deciding whether and to what extent customary law should be recognized, an attitude typical of colonial thinking, for Africans were subject to whatever policies the conquering state chose to impose on them. Now, however, the state has a duty to allow people to participate in the culture they choose, implicit in this duty is a responsibility to uphold the institutions on which that culture is based.’

* SALC, June 1988: Report on Conflicts of Law 76: The Harmonization of the Common Law and the Indigenous Law states: “Differences in culture are always likely to generate differences in law with consequent conflicts of law ... The purpose of choice of law rules is to select the law that will do justice in the case. It is the court's power (and responsibility) to decide which law to apply, paying due regard to the parties' interests and their choice of legal system.” It also provides for the following principles governing choice of law disputes: (a) The nature of the conflict: where it is assumed that an individuals personal law is a matter of their cultural affiliation; (b) Parties may select the law to be applied; based upon objective and subjective reasonableness tests; (c) Nature and form of a prior transaction; if parties disagree on each others choice of applicable cultural law; (d) Subject matter and environment of a transaction; if deeper clarification about cultural orientation is required; (e) The litigants' cultural orientation; which can include the court taking notice of details as diverse as the parties' place of residence, occupation, religion, education, style of dress, eating and sleeping habits, use of bank accounts, preparation of wills and consultation with attorneys, communication style, etc; (f) Exemption from customary or common law; as justified by the principle that every person should be free to pursue a culture of choice, which implies that errors in WiP law, the judge's ruling amends such scientific or cultural WiP law errors; if convicted they are sentenced in accordance with EoP Crimes of Aggression [crimes-of-aggression] sentencing guidelines.

- [C] If tried in EoP Court, they are allowed EoP necessity defence, if their EoP evidence exposes scientific and/or cultural law errors in EoP scientific and cultural law, the judge's ruling amends such EoP law errors; if convicted they are sentenced in accordance with EoP Crimes of Aggression sentencing guidelines.

- [3.2] Babylon WiP Civil Disobedience Activist engages in non-violent or violent activism presumably as a result of lack of ego/eco literacy character – generally in a national polegal system dominated by EoP law – that violates one or more national or international Ecology of Peace legal statute; on behalf of implementing Babylon WiP law as national or international law.

- [A] If tried in EoP Scientific law court, they are allowed WiP scientific necessity defence, if (a) their WiP evidence exposes scientific law errors in EoP scientific law, the judge's ruling amends such EoP law errors; if (b) convicted for lack of ego/eco literacy character; they are sentenced in accordance with EoP Crimes of Aggression sentencing guidelines.

- [B] If tried in EoP Cultural law court, they are allowed WiP cultural necessity defence, (i) if their WiP evidence exposes cultural law errors in EoP cultural law, the judge's ruling amends such EoP law errors; (ii) if convicted for lack of ego/eco literacy character; they are sentenced in accordance with EoP Crimes of Aggression sentencing guidelines.

- [4] EoP v WiP Legal Applications:

- [4.1] EoP culture legal applications advocate on behalf of [A] implementing EoP Scientific and Cultural law [eop-scicultlaw] as international law; and/or [B] if implemented as national or international law: enforcing EoP Scientific and Cultural law.

- [4.2] Babylon WiP culture legal applications consciously or unconsciously, advocate on behalf of [A] implementing Babylon WiP law as national or international law; and/or [B] if implemented as national or international law: enforcing Babylon WiP law.

people may not be involuntarily bound by a system of personal law; and legal certainty: where an individual can unequivocally declare in advance of any litigation their personal law; (g) Unifying choice of law.

- [5.1] An EoP election or referendum is any local, regional, or national political election or referendum based upon EoP national or international law. [6] LJvLS documents evidence of Timothy McVeigh's faked execution, as per notice to 10th Circuit Court; CC US Supreme Court [Annex A3²⁴: 30 Oct 18²⁵]:

Oklahoma City Bombing Truth and Reconciliation:

[34] In May 2001, I wrote a letter to President Bush requesting President Bush to suspend Timothy McVeigh's execution pending OKC bombing Truth and Reconciliation, to facilitate honest forgiveness and truth-seeking problem solving related to the US domestic and foreign policy causes of the OKC bombing. If the OKC TRC proceedings did not grant Timothy McVeigh amnesty, they would choose to sentence Timothy McVeigh and myself to death.

[35] 07 Oct – Dec 2001: Timothy McVeigh's Oklahoma City bombing commanding officer: Timothy McVeigh's execution was faked: Sometime on the morning of 07 October or between 6 and 17 December 2001 – the initial meeting occurred during media reports about the bombing of Tora Bora in Afghanistan – I accidentally met US Special Forces Native American – Seminole tribe – soldier Michael Martin – not his real name, which I do not know – at the Westridge park Flying J Truckers Parking lot – Flying J #611, at 6700 Latham St, on the corner of Papago Freeway and N 67th Avenue – in Phoenix Arizona. We traveled together for the day and spent the night at the Geronimo Motel in Flagstaff, discussing among others the OKC bombing, then returned to Phoenix the next day. Michael Martin informed me that Timothy McVeigh's execution had been faked, and he knew this, because he had personally run into Timothy – who had been partially disguised – at a homeless shelter, in the week of 4th of July 2001, a few weeks after Timothy's alleged execution. Initially we decided we would travel to various militia compounds where Michael thought McVeigh could be found, or who would know where we could find McVeigh. However, my funds were low, and I had to be back in California for a court date, and so we agreed that Michael would go back to Washington DC to speak with his Pentagon superiors to ascertain their level of interest if any for the disclosure of Oklahoma City bombing events via Truth and Reconciliation proceedings, and I would return to the Bay Area. A few weeks later Michael Martin returned to the Bay Area from DC, where I picked him up at the San Francisco bus station, where I got a parking ticket waiting for his bus to arrive. He stated his

Pentagon superiors did not object to his enquiry whether the OKC bombing events could be disclosed via Truth and Reconciliation proceedings, but they did say that it would open a can of worms that went directly back to the John F Kennedy Assassination, and they did not know whether American citizens really want to know the truth about what is done for them in their name.

[36] Upon returning to California I went to CA Governor Gray Davis office where I proceeded to inform Steve West, Former US Special Forces and then Secret Service Officer in the office of Governor Gray Davis of Michael Martin's information regarding the faked execution of Timothy McVeigh. Mr. West doubted my assertions but I refused to leave the office unless he promised to request Governor Gray Davis to ask President Bush to confirm or deny the information. A few weeks later, I returned and Steve West confirmed that his previous conclusions about the execution of Timothy James McVeigh had been incorrect. Governor Gray Davis had requested President George Bush to confirm or deny Michael Martin's information about McVeigh's faked execution, and President Bush had confirmed it; when he met President Bush at their recent meeting in San Bernadino County. Consequently he confirmed for me that Timothy McVeigh had not been executed on 11 June 2001; his execution was faked. Mr. West then thanked me for informing Governor's Davis office of this information for him to verify with President George W Bush.

EOP SUMMARY OF EOP v WIP LAW:

EoP MILED Clerk legal certainty clarity working hypothesis summary of the legal social contract difference between Ecology of Peace (“EoP”) and Babylon War is Peace (“WiP”) law, courts, legal applications, activism and elections.

[1] EoP v WiP Law:

[1.1] EoP Scientific and Cultural [eop-scicultlaw] – aka Garden of Eden – law clearly, simply and unequivocally requires citizens to procreate and consume below ecological carrying capacity limits [eop-footprint]; and relate in terms of fully informed consenting agreements [ego-eco-literacy]; to avoid ecological overshoot and racial, religious, class and gender resource conflict.

[A] The Ecology of Peace Radical Honoursty Factual Reality [eop-rh-fr] conscious strategic goal for implementing EoP Scientific and Cultural law is an egalitarian responsible freedom [responsible-freedom] stable – no population & economic consumption growth above ecological carrying capacity limits – sustainable low tech family farm agrarian village and primitivist nomad society living in peace; with no palaces, prisons, mental institutions, homeless and unemployed, where rape and murder are so rare, they don’t have words for it.¹

[1.2] Babylon WiP law consciously or unconsciously, negligently or intentionally allows citizens to procreate and/or consume above ecological carrying capacity limits; resulting in ecological overshoot and racial, religious, class and gender resource conflict.

[A] The conscious or unconscious strategic goal of WiP law is a hierarchical slavery freedumb society where the military, legal, political, religious and legal elite profiteer of cheap – economic sexual and/or military – cannon fodder labour and homeless and unemployed misery of the masses; with plenty of racial, religious, class or gender resource conflict for the elite to parasitically profiteer from to build themselves military, religious, corporate and polegal palaces, cheap labour prisons and mental institutions slavery plantations, where rape and murder are so plentiful, WiP Only BDSM addicted to misery judges don't need to subscribe to porn channels, because they have reality rape and murder porn tv channels in their courts.²

[B] In Martin Luther / Sayyid Qutb terminology: Babylonian Kufr WiP Law socio-polegally and economically profit from innocence for – procreation and consumption above ecological carrying capacity limits – sale indulgences Kufr juridical rulings.

[2] EoP v WiP Courts:

- [2.1] An 'EoP Only' Court – generally in a national polegal system dominated by WiP law whose juridical transformation goals are to transform the judiciary into an EoP legal system – only accepts applications from individuals who are consciously – unconditional or conditional cooperator – members of the Ecology of Peace culture.
- [2.2] An unconscious Babylon 'WiP Only' court unconsciously accepts applications from individuals who are consciously or unconsciously members of EoP and Babylon WiP cultures.
- [2.3] A conscious Babylon 'WiP Only' court consciously only accepts applications from individuals who are consciously or unconsciously members of Babylon WiP cultures.
- [2.4] An unconscious EoP and WiP court accepts applications from all individuals irrespective of whether they are consciously or unconsciously members of Ecology of Peace or Babylon WiP cultures.
- [2.5] A conscious EoP and WiP court accepts applications from all individuals irrespective of whether they are consciously or unconsciously members of Ecology of Peace or Babylon WiP cultures; requires applicants, counsel and

* Ex parte Minister of Native Affairs: In re Yako v Beyi 1948 (1) SA 388 (A); at 397 the Appellate Division held that neither common nor customary law was prima facie applicable. Courts had to consider all the circumstances of a case, and, without any preconceived view about the applicability of one or other legal system, select the appropriate law on the basis of its inquiry. Schreiner J.A. said lifestyle of is a choice of law factor: “Aside from an express choice of laws all connecting factors with conflict of personal laws are designed to determine, in an objective manner, the cultural orientation of the parties. Because the laws involved are conceived in terms of culture the connecting factors must be conceived in like terms. The most direct access to a person’s cultural leanings would clearly be his or her lifestyle”.

* SALC, Sept 1999: Report on Conflicts of law: P.22: 1.58. The Constitution now provides an entitlement for invoking customary law in legal suits. Because ss 30 and 31 specifically guarantee an individual and a group's right to pursue a culture of choice, it could be argued that application of customary law has become a constitutional right. Previously, the state had assumed complete discretion in deciding whether and to what extent customary law should be recognized, an attitude typical of colonial thinking, for Africans were subject to whatever policies the conquering state chose to impose on them. Now, however, the state has a duty to allow people to participate in the culture they choose, implicit in this duty is a responsibility to uphold the institutions on which that culture is based.’

* SALC, June 1988: Report on Conflicts of Law 76: The Harmonization of the Common Law and the Indigenous Law states: “Differences in culture are always likely to generate differences in law with consequent conflicts of law ... The purpose of choice of law rules is to select the law that will do justice in the case. It is the court's power (and responsibility) to decide which law to apply, paying due regard to the parties' interests and their choice of legal system.” It also provides for the following principles governing choice of law disputes: (a) The nature of the conflict: where it is assumed that an individuals personal law is a matter of their cultural affiliation; (b) Parties may select the law to be applied; based upon objective and subjective reasonableness tests; (c) Nature and form of a prior transaction; if parties disagree on each others choice of applicable cultural law; (d) Subject matter and environment of a transaction; if deeper clarification about cultural orientation is required; (e) The litigants' cultural orientation; which can include the court taking notice of details as diverse as the parties' place of residence, occupation, religion, education, style of dress, eating and sleeping habits, use of bank accounts, preparation of wills and consultation with attorneys, communication style, etc; (f) Exemption from customary or common law; as justified by the principle that every person should be free to pursue a culture of choice, which implies that errors in WiP law, the judge's ruling amends such scientific or cultural WiP law errors; if convicted they are sentenced in accordance with EoP Crimes of Aggression [crimes-of-aggression] sentencing guidelines.

- [3.2] Babylon WiP Civil Disobedience Activist engages in non-violent or violent activism presumably as a result of lack of ego/eco literacy character – generally in a national polegal system dominated by EoP law – that violates one or more national or international Ecology of Peace legal statute; on behalf of implementing Babylon WiP law as national or international law.

- [A] If tried in EoP Scientific law court, they are allowed WiP scientific necessity defence, if (a) their WiP evidence exposes scientific law errors in EoP scientific law, the judge's ruling amends such EoP law errors; if (b) convicted for lack of ego/eco literacy character; they are sentenced in accordance with EoP Crimes of Aggression sentencing guidelines.

- [B] If tried in EoP Cultural law court, they are allowed WiP cultural necessity defence, (i) if their WiP evidence exposes cultural law errors in EoP cultural law, the judge's ruling amends such EoP law errors; (ii) if convicted for lack of ego/eco literacy character; they are sentenced in accordance with EoP Crimes of Aggression sentencing guidelines.
