RE: OOG PIR # 651-20

Dear Ms. Wishingrad:

This email is in response to your modified public information request to the Office of the Governor ("OOG"), received by the OOG on January 5, 2021. A copy of your request follows this email.

The OOG has reviewed its files and has located the attached documents that are responsive to your request.

Per your permission granted via email, the OOG has redacted information it believes is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.104 and 552.107 of the Government Code. The information at issue also contains personal information subject to section 552.117. Under section 552.024 of the Government Code, such personal information is confidential and may also be withheld without the necessity of requesting a ruling from the Office of the Attorney General. Furthermore, the information at issue contains access device numbers subject to section 552.136 of the Government Code. The OOG may also redact such information without requesting a ruling from the Office of the Attorney General. The enclosed notices provide additional information and instructions if you wish to appeal our decision to withhold this information.

If you have any questions, please contact me at 512-475-2256 or publicrecords@gov.texas.gov.

Sincerely,

Kieran Hillis
Public Information Coordinator
Assistant General Counsel
Office of Governor Greg Abbott

How to appeal the withholding of information under Gov't Code section 552.136

If you wish to appeal the withholding of information discussed on the previous page, you must send the following to the attorney general:

- 1) a signed, written statement indicating your wish to appeal the withholding of information;
- 2) the name of the governmental body that withheld information from you;
- 3) the date you made your original request for information; and
- 4) a copy of your original request for information, or if you are unable to provide a copy, a description of your original request for information.

You may also submit written comments stating why you think the information should be released to you, but you are not required to do so.

Send your appeal by mail to the attorney general at:

Open Records Division
P.O. Box 12548
Austin, Texas 78711-2548

Within forty-five business days after receiving all of the above-listed items necessary to file your appeal, the attorney general will issue a written ruling on the matter. You will receive a copy of this ruling in the mail.
