Good morning Ameika,

I am attaching the updated and corrected list for our Early voting volunteers.

I have a scheduler for each Early Voting Location. They are responsible for scheduling people to Poll Watch and have two watchers at their location the entire day. I am not certain of how they are scheduling shifts. It will depend on the volunteers availability to work. Each of the Poll Watchers will have their credentials with them at all times.

Please let me know when you have the dates for opening of absentee ballots and how many Voter Review Panel members you will need from the Republican Party.

Thank you and have a great day.

Barbara Jessop, Chairman
Henry County Republican Party.

Good afternoon,

Our office has identified voters in your county who were mailed a ballot to the wrong address, and they are listed in the attachment. The affected voters submitted a request through the online absentee ballot portal and requested that their ballot go to their permanent residence address.

To correct this, if you have already mailed a ballot to an affected voter, please cancel that ballot and mail another ballot to their permanent residence address on file. If you have not already mailed a ballot, please make sure that the ballot you issue is mailed to the voter's permanent residence address on record.

I see that she registered through DDS in 2017 and may not have selected the opt out box. But is she merged with the correct person? She said she registered the first time but she has a voter history. Not sure if someone there may want to call and verify.

Election Officials,

The Election Night Reporting (ENR) website for the 01/05/2021 Federal Runoff is now ready for your county to submit a test upload that contains L&A data. Registered voters do not need to be entered into your EMS for this round of testing, but we would like L&A data if you still have an export that contains test data. This will allow us to test the website functionality. If you do not have L&A data, please notify me.

Please review your county specific ENR page after the upload to ensure that all races are displaying correctly, that all candidates are present, and the votes are assigned to the correct candidates. Once you have completed this review, remember to publish the upload. If you do not publish the upload, we cannot see the work that you have done. Let me know if you experience an error or notice any display settings that need to be adjusted when attempting your upload. For this election, we will be using the Georgia Export. Please complete this upload as soon as possible, but no later than Friday, 12/30/2020.

The ENR login portal can be accessed through the following link:

https://admin.enr.clarityelections.com/GA_Login.aspx

If you are unfamiliar with the ENR upload process, training materials can be found on Firefly by searching for "Scytl Updated ENR User Guide 2020" or by navigating to Training > ENR Resources and selecting the PDF document titled "Scytl Updated ENR User Guide 2020."

Once we have completed the testing, I will send you an email asking you to do another upload to clear the L&A data from the site.

Thanks,

OFFICIAL ELECTION BULLETIN

January 30, 2019

TO: County Election Officials and County Registrars
FROM: Chris Harvey, State Elections Director
RE: Open Record Requests

Multiple counties have reported receiving Open Record Requests asking for data such as DRE audit logs, copies of DRE tapes and ballot image reports and/or copies of ballot images.

Parties that have an interest in or are actually involved in active litigation with the state regarding the security of the voting system might have made some of these requests. This fact does not diminish your requirement to comply with open record requests nor does it require any extra access to information that is not normally accessible under the Open Records Act.

Ballot images are not subject to open record requests per the advice of the Attorney General's office.

Michael Barnes can help provide technical help locating some records or data if your county attorney determines that you have responsive records.

As we usually emphasize, your county/BOE attorney is the best source of advice on these matters.

Description of Violation: None receipt of absentee ballot. I requested my absentee ballot on 18 Nov 2020. I have not received it as of today. I have emailed the Henry County office and was told that my ballot went out on 2 Dec 2020. As of today, which will be almost a month from when I requested the ballot, I do not have my ballot. I am no longer in Georgia and will not be for two months. The ballot should have arrived before I departed 10 Dec 2020. I am getting the run around as to getting this straight. I called the Henry County Office this morning and was told they could cancel the ballot which was supposedly mailed to my home of residence. They transferred me and I received someone's voice mail. I would like assistance with getting my ballot mailed to the address I am at now in Virginia early so that I can complete it and send it back in so my vote could be counted. Please contact me at  Ernise Cummings.

Question / Comment: I received an absentee ballot on Friday Dec 4 and I filled it out and put it in the dropbox at the front door of the Henry County Elections Office on Saturday Dec 5 at 11:30AM. The following Monday Dec 7 I got another absentee ballot in the mail. I called the Henry County Elections Office on Tuesday Dec 8 and they said they would call me back but I have not received a call. I still have the additional absentee ballot on my desk. What should I do with it? The number on the front envelope mailing label above the word "runoff" is 00014. Will this situation nullify my vote?

Our office is working on a case regarding excess voting in multiple counties during the November 3, 2020 election. It is our hopes that many of these can be resolved at the county level due to data entry errors, etc. We are contacting each county and providing a voter list, so that you can refer to your records to determine if there was an issue that can be resolved or explained. Please contact me if you have any questions and notify me of your findings. Thank you for your cooperation with this issue.

Witness statement of Britni Mayo:

I have to start by saying I am unbiased. I will talk about what I saw during my time working as an election official. I have worked at the Henry County Elections Office since 2018. I want it to be clear that while I was working, I only cared about having a fair election return.

I must also point out that election officials are not everyday employees for the state. No one is properly trained to know the laws and rules governing an election so there is so much room for error.

It was very clear that the process of mail in voting left much room for fraud. Election officials are not handwriting experts and were put in the spot of having to determine whether a signature matched or not. We did the best we could in that respect, but I also felt pressured to have it match. We were constantly having to give numbers on how many signature mismatches and why.

Another disturbing fact about the absentee ballots was that if a person needed assistance, they did not even have to sign the oath of elector. Any person could sign as an assistant and we cannot question it. Having to accept MANY ballots that were not even signed by the elector felt very wrong. How do we know if this is the person voting? I witnessed ballots being signed by the same person assisting many voters. The law does allow for one person to assist up to 10 voters I believe. There was no way for me to keep up with how many people that particular person assisted. We had so many ballots coming in at once it was impossible to keep up with that.

I also witnessed double voting caused by the 2 week early tabulation of ballots during early voting. Because those ballots were already being tabulated a voter would walk into an early voting sight and the managers running the satellite would cancel the ballot in the state system Election Net, then allow the voter to vote again. These votes had already been counted and once they vote again there is basically NOTHING that can be done to correct it. I have yet to see or hear that anyone has had charges brought up or been convicted of this felony. It doesn't sit well with me.

One of my biggest concerns was watching the state's Election Net being tampered with on a regular basis. I have worked other elections and I have never witnessed the state change so many things on the system.

For example, I handled the military UOCAVA ballots and I just so happened to spot check them and to my dismay most all UOCAVA ballots had been cancelled. I had to take a whole day to go through the folder and make sure they were all issued again. But it's not like it was cancelled, they were just disappeared.

Another example is that the state was mailing out ballots instead of the counties. We made sure that all the addresses were correct, but I have never seen so many ballots have to be re issued because they were undeliverable. The state would not put issue dates or ballot numbers on the website. They were also using a 3rd party to mail the ballots out. How many hands should there be in this?

I also was able to catch about 3 to 4 voters that were deceased. I always wonder how many got past me. I am not an expert. I did the best I could.

In closing, I have to say I have worked many elections before this and I have never seen anything quite like this. I wanted to be a fair and honest person in this process. I would not be a part of something I think is corrupt. I've never thought the elections were corrupt before but it got to the point where I quit the Friday after election day could not be a part of it anymore because I felt that things were being mis handled. Not necessarily by the county I worked for, but the secretary of state office. It is wrong for them to just change things in the election database whenever they saw fit. I cannot work where the ground is always changing under me.

Mr. Watson,

I am writing to express my issues with the Henry County Elections office.

As a Ballot Monitor today I was told by Luann Fesmire that over 6,000 absentee envelopes were signature verified before today. Today was the 1st day the public was allowed to observe. It is unacceptable that there are shenanigans already happening in our Runoff Election.

Myself and Bob Hinton observed the signature verification today from 2-5 pm. During that time we witness a man come into the office and drop off 75 ballot envelopes into the bin for the ladies to verify. He then walked down the hall. We saw no name tag or official ensignia. I expressed my concern to Luann (the only employee we were allowed to talk to) and she went down the hall and came back to say he was the "ballot security guy" and he said he came down with another person to drop off the ballots. We said that wasn't true, he only came by himself as witnessed by Becca and the other verifier. As Luann was speaking, the same man barged through the door, into the hallway and yelled at Bob & myself saying "IF YA'LL HAVE A PROBLEM WITH ME, YOU BETTER COME TALK TO ME!" I was the closest to the door and he was very aggressive and intimidating. He stormed off and Luann said "she would handle it". I requested a complaint form and said I was very uncomfortable with his monitor intimidation. I would not walk down that hall again to escort ballots because he was down that hallway.

The SOS is on notice that I do not feel comfortable at that location with him there. Should something happen to a voter or monitor in that building, I would not be surprised due to the aggression that is allowed there.

Also, Luann confirmed they are only verifying the signature on the voter registration records NOT the application even though I gave her a copy of Chris Harvey's 12/9/20 bulletin. She read OCGA 21-2-386(a)(1)(B) and I explained the code says they are to verify on BOTH. She said no, they are only doing one signature verification since they verified the application signature before the ballots were sent out. I tried to explain the GA code says AND but she would not listen. I will be filling an official complaint with my Elections Board also.

Thank you for investigating these issues,

Noelle Kahaian

Many counties are getting voter challenges filed under O.C.G.A. 21-2-230.

OCGA 21-2-230(b) requires that the BOE, "shall immediately consider such challenge(s) and consider whether probable cause exists to sustain such challenge(s)."

The steps are listing in the code section, and I strongly encourage you to review this code section with your board and attorney should you get such a challenge.

OFFICIAL ELECTION BULLETIN

December 18, 2020

TO: County Election Officials and County Registrars
FROM: Chris Harvey, Elections Division Director
RE: Absentee Ballot Signature Verification and Public Observation

Signature verification is a critical part of securing absentee ballots and must be conducted in a way that enhances the confidence of the electorate.

Absentee ballot applications containing the elector's signature (which would be any not coming from the Secretary of State's Absentee Ballot Application Portal or requested by an eligible family member pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 21-2-381(a)(1)(B)) must be compared to the applicant's voter registration signature as per O.C.G.A. § 21-2-381(b)(1) and determined whether they "appear to be valid" before mailing an absentee ballot to the voter. Applications containing a non-matching signature should be mailed a provisional ballot which can only be accepted if the cure process set forth is O.C.G.A. § 21-2-386(a)(1)(C). Absentee ballot applications that do not contain the required signature should be rejected.

When a voted absentee ballot has been returned by the voter, the signature on the oath envelope must then be compared to the voter registration signature and the absentee ballot application signature, if available (absentee ballots applied for through the portal will not have a signature as the voter's identity is confirmed by DDS data when using the portal.) The registrar or absentee ballot clerk must determine if the signature "appears to be valid." This signature verification requirement is detailed in O.C.G.A. 21-2-386(a)(1)(C).

We are aware of at least one instance where a voter "tested" the signature match process by intentionally signing his application in a different manner than his signature on file. If there is doubt as to the authenticity of the signature on a voted absentee ballot oath envelope following the review, the county election official should send the voter the required cure affidavit in order for the voter to provide the required documentation to confirm the authenticity of the signature. The cure process allows for both a thorough review of signatures and opportunity for voters to cure any issues.

Public Nature of Signature Comparison

Under O.C.G.A. 21-2-406, "...officials engaged in the conducting of primaries and elections held under this chapter shall perform their duties in public." Comparing signatures on absentee ballot applications and absentee ballots meet this criterion and therefore needs to be done publicly.

Performing a duty in public means that a member of the public can observe the official do the duty. There is, however, no necessity to allow a public observer to insert themselves into the duty or in any way interfere with the duty. The fact that an observer can watch an election official sitting at a desk or table, handling absentee ballot envelopes, and looking at a screen or piece of paper to compare a signature is compliance with this code section. A public observer is not expected to be able to see the specific data (signature on an envelope) or screen containing a voter registration signature from ENET (and also containing other PII) while observing this process.

There are not specially designated monitors for this process, and counties can and should set up reasonable settings and observation areas that take into account best practices for safety and security, especially with concerns for infection and possible communication of disease. While observers should be able to have a clear line of sight within a reasonable distance, election officials should be sufficiently separated from the public to ensure physical safety and security of data that might be available and subject to exposure during the comparison of signatures.

Live video streams available online also satisfy making the performance of the duty public as long as the display provides a reasonable viewing opportunity for the online viewer.

If a county will be using different locations and times for this process, counties should use reasonable efforts to notify the public. The entire goal is to allow the public to observe this process, however, it is also vitally important that this critical work be handled efficiently so that absentee ballots can flow smoothly into office, and voters can be advised of the status of their absentee ballots. Ideally, counties will be able to establish a location and time where this process can happen regularly, and observers can come and go with little need for additional notification.

There is no statutory authority to restrict cameras, phones or other devices from being present in the public observation areas designated by the county officials, but county officials can make reasonable demands on observers for the sake of good order and an environment conducive to allow workers to perform their duties without being interrupted or distracted. The fact that the duty must be done publicly does not mean that the county must provide enough space for everyone who may want to observe. Again, reasonable restrictions on the number of observers, based on the local conditions, may be imposed by the county officials.

These guidelines will likely need to be modified by local offices in order to meet local circumstances. Local boards of election and registration can have a role in observing and creating guidelines for these processes, and are the responsible parties for making sure that the law is being met, and that the process is one that is consistent, legal, and secure.

Moreover: My name in the " my voter page" is Othilia Lopes Martins (same of my license driver), and the paper received with the Official Voter Audit is Othilia Martins. I am pretty sure, where I live (Stockbridge - GA), there is NOT another voter named after Othilia, immigrant and naturalized in 2011 and had never missed a General Election. So, I believe wiping off my vote in this General Election of 2020 was intentional.

A new discussion has been posted in The Buzz by Harvey, Chris on 12/18/2020 2:34 PM

Many counties are getting voter challenges filed under O.C.G.A. 21-2-230.

OCGA 21-2-230(b) requires that the BOE, "shall immediately consider such challenge(s) and consider whether probable cause exists to sustain such challenge(s)."

The steps are listing in the code section, and I strongly encourage you to review this code section with your board and attorney should you get such a challenge.

Dear Board of Registration and Elections,

On behalf of attorneys Eliza Sweren-Becker and Gowri Ramachandran, I attach a letter from the Brennan Center for Justice, urging you to deny any mass challenges that may have been lodged against voters in your county.

It is come to our attention that mass challenges have been filed in counties across Georgia. The mass challenges we have seen thus far lack probable cause, the data is often unverifiable, and as indicated in the attached letter, they likely violate federal and state law. We urge you to uphold your obligations to Georgia voters, and view these challenges with the extreme skepticism warranted. The Cobb County and Gwinnett County Boards have already rejected these challenges.

Thank you,

BRENNAN CENTER FOR JUSTICE

December 21, 2020

Dear Members of the County Board of Elections & Registration,

We understand that you may have been presented with one or more mass challenges to the eligibility of hundreds, if not thousands, of voters in your County based on incomplete and unreliable data. Indeed, Cobb and Gwinnett Counties recently rejected several such mass challenges because they were not sufficiently supported by facts. On behalf of the Brennan Center for Justice at NYU School of Law, we write to urge you to similarly deny these mass voter challenges. Failure to do so could expose your County to legal liability under federal and state law on numerous bases. We lay out merely a few of these grounds below as examples.

I. The Information Is Unreliable

Space does not permit us to lay out all the ways in which the data presented by the challengers is unreliable.

The challengers purport to compare the County's voter rolls to the National Change of Address ("NCOA") Registry to identify voters who allegedly moved out of state. But, critically, the challengers fail to explain how they determined that the voters in the registration database are the same persons appearing in the NCOA Registry. If the challenger compared only the first and last names on the two lists, for example, there would be a high likelihood of false matches. And the challengers fail to provide both the voter's County address as listed in the state database and the County address provided on the NCOA form; thus, there is no evidence that these two addresses actually matched. In other words, there is no way to verify the information that the challengers submitted.

The Board cannot take this risk because faulty matching between lists disenfranchises voters. In 2012, Texas officials purged voters presumed to be dead, based on a comparison to the Social Security Administration's Death Master File. Texas used weak matching criteria (e.g., first name, last name, and date of birth) to target voters without further investigation. On these grounds, James Harris, Jr., a living Texas voter (and Air Force veteran) was flagged for removal because he shared information with Arkansan "James Harris," who died in 1996. According to one analysis, more than 68,000 of the

120 Broadway, Suite 1750 New York, NY 10271

80,000 voters identified as possibly dead arose from weak matches.¹ Texas changed its policy after settling litigation based on the bad purge.

II. There Is No Probable Cause to Sustain These Mass Challenges

The Board cannot sustain these challenges without finding probable cause and that threshold is not met here. Probable cause under Georgia law means the existence of such facts and circumstances that would create a reasonable belief that an accused person committed the act alleged. See Adams v. Carlisle, 278 Ga. App. 777, 782 (2006).

“Rumor, suspicion, speculation or conjecture is not sufficient to show probable cause.” Zimmerman v. State, 131 Ga. App. 793, 794 (1974). The probable cause threshold is not met precisely because of the unreliability of the data that the challengers have presented.

The unsubstantiated excel files that challengers have offered lack entire data fields from the Georgia voter file. And the information fails to demonstrate how any conclusion about a particular voter was reached. In other words, the information offered creates a reasonable belief only of the fact that the challengers are not presenting the whole picture.

Even if the challengers’ information accurately reflected NCOA forms submitted by County voters — which is unverifiable based on the data they presented — a voter’s change of address may reflect a temporary change that has no effect on the voter’s eligibility in the County.

There are many reasons why a voter might change their address with the Postal Service and still remain an eligible voter in the County. For example, a student who attends college out of state but intends to return home after the completion of his studies may file an NCOA form to receive mail at his school address during the semester. A member of the armed forces may be stationed outside of Georgia, but her permanent home remains in Georgia. Finally, some voters may have temporarily left the County to care for a sick relative—which could occur with some frequency during a global pandemic.

As these examples make clear, the challengers’ unsubstantiated spreadsheets do not establish probable cause that any of the voters they list have moved their permanent residence outside of the County.

III. These Mass Challenges Likely Violate the National Voter Registration Act

If sustained, these mass challenges — premised on unsound data analysis — could violate the National Voter Registration Act (“NVRA”) for at least two reasons.

¹ Lise Olsen, Texas’ voter purge made repeated errors, Chron, (Nov. 2, 2012), <https://www.chron.com/news/politics/article/Texas-voter-purge-made-repeated-errors-4001767.php>.

Prior Notice and Waiting Period Requirement

First, these mass challenges, if sustained, could amount to an unlawful purge of the voter rolls based on a change of residence. Under Section 21-2-230 of the Georgia code, challenges to voter eligibility can result in the removal of voters from the list of electors. See Ga. Code §§ 21-2-230(g)–(i), 21-2-229. But challengers cannot avoid the requirements of the NVRA by seeking to compel a systematic voter purge by another name.

The NVRA requires that one of three conditions be satisfied before removing a voter from the rolls due to a change in residence:

- (1) The voter has “request[ed]” to be removed;
- (2) The voter “confirm[ed] in writing” that he has changed residence; or
- (3) The voter failed to respond to a notice and failed to vote during the next two federal general election cycles after receiving the notice (“notice-and-waiting”).

See 52 U.S.C. § 20507(a)(3), (d). None of these conditions have been met here.

The alleged appearance of County voters on the NCOA Registry — a third-party database — does not constitute a request or a confirmation in writing from any of those voters. As a federal court has confirmed, “the request of the registrant” cannot be “twist[ed]” to encompass “indirect information from a third-party database.” Common Cause Indiana v. Lawson, 937 F.3d 944, 961 (7th Cir. 2019). Nor may the County “skip past” the requirement that the voter confirm the move in writing. Id. at 962. And there is no plausible argument that the County has provided notice and waited two federal election cycles here.

The NVRA expressly recognizes that NCOA information is not sufficient, on its own, to serve as the basis for cancelling a voter’s registration. The statute directs that a state would satisfy the NVRA’s requirements if it relies on “change-of-address information supplied by the Postal Service . . . to identify registrants whose addresses may have changed” and then “uses the notice procedure.” 52 U.S.C. § 20507(c)(1)(B). But a state may not rely on NCOA information without also providing notice and waiting two federal election cycles.

A federal court in North Carolina, when confronted with mass challenges that resulted in cancellations of voter registrations, found that the counties at issue “violated § 20507(d) of the NVRA in sustaining challenges to voter registrations based on change of residence . . . without complying with the prior notice and waiting period requirement.” N. Carolina State Conference of NAACP v. Bipartisan Bd. of Elections & Ethics Enf’t, No. 1:16-CV-1274, 2018 WL 3748172, at *4 (M.D.N.C. Aug. 7, 2018).

90-Day Prohibition on Systematic Removals

Second, with just fifteen days before the January 5, 2021 runoff elections, these mass challenges could also violate the NVRA's prohibition on the systematic removal of voters from the rolls on the grounds of change of residence within 90 days of a federal election. See 52 U.S.C. § 20507(c)(2)(A) ("A State shall complete, not later than 90 days prior to the date of a primary or general election for Federal office, any program the purpose of which is to systematically remove the names of ineligible voters from the official lists of eligible voters") (emphasis added).

As the Eleventh Circuit has recognized, the NVRA "permits systematic removal programs at any time except for the 90 days before an election because that is when the risk of disfranchising eligible voters is the greatest." Arcia v. Fla. Sec'y of State, 772 F.3d 1335, 1346 (11th Cir. 2014) (emphasis in original). A process that could effectively purge numerous voters in the County is indisputably systematic. See N. Carolina State Conference of NAACP, No. 1:16-CV-1274, 2018 WL 3748172 (concluding that counties that sustained mass challenges also violated the NVRA's 90-day provision).

IV. Sustaining These Challenges Without Individualized Hearings Would Violate State and Federal Due Process

Georgia law and federal due process requirements demand that every challenged voter has the opportunity to answer the grounds of the challenge at an individualized hearing. See Ga. Code § 21-2-230(c) (providing a hearing for a challenged voter who seeks to vote in person) & (g) (providing a hearing for a challenged voter who seeks to vote absentee). The fundamental requirement of due process under the U.S. Constitution is that individuals be afforded the opportunity to be heard at a meaningful time and in a meaningful manner prior to being deprived of a governmental benefit. Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319, 333 (1976). And when "the individual's fundamental right to vote" is at stake, that interest "is therefore entitled to substantial weight." Martin v. Kemp, 341 F. Supp. 3d 1326, 1338 (N.D. Ga. 2018). Similarly, under Georgia's constitution, "[d]ue process requires notice reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections." Coker v. Moemeka, 311 Ga. App. 105, 107 (2011) (quotation marks omitted).

In other words, approving these mass challenges would require you to hold numerous individual hearings to avoid violating due process. The challengers' requests appear designed to either expose this Board to legal liability or to grind election administration in the County to a halt.

These are just a few of the ways in which granting these challenge requests could violate federal and state law.

With due respect to the Board, and recognizing your tremendous effort over the last months to ensure safe and secure elections, it would be impossible to undertake the steps needed to avoid these violations by January 15, 2021, the Board's certification deadline for the January runoffs. See Ga. Code § 21-2-493(k).

We strongly urge you to deny the mass challenges before you and we will be monitoring the situation closely to protect the rights of all Georgia voters. We would be happy to speak with you further about the concerns outlined above at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

Eliza Sweren-Becker, Counsel

Gowri Ramachandran, Counsel
