RE: AZ-AG-21-0402

Dear Ms. Shaw:

Thank you for contacting the Arizona Attorney General's Office ("AGO"). This letter serves as the response to your public records request dated March 24, 2021.

Original Request:

See attached.

Response:

1. The responsive records are attached. Please note that some personal information was redacted in lieu of withholding the record in its entirety (personal appointments, telephone numbers, conference call-in numbers, and addresses). Some information was redacted pursuant to common interest privilege.
2. The responsive records are attached. Please note that some personal information was redacted in lieu of withholding the record in its entirety. Some information was redacted pursuant to attorney-client privilege and common interest privilege.
3. The Arizona Attorney General's Office has no records responsive to this request.
4. The responsive records are attached. Please note personal identifying information was redacted in lieu of withholding the record in its entirety.

Sincerely,

Rachelle Lumpp

Executive Assistant

CLE Advocacy Made Simple (AGO) -- ZOOM

3.0 CLE CREDITS

Lessons provided through everything from ancient aphorisms to modern psychological studies affirm that simplicity – the art of rendering something universally easy to understand – offers multiple, powerful advantages to the legal advocate. Whether it is infused in our written arguments or used to design the structure of an entire trial presentation, solid concentration on simplicity can pay big dividends in persuading

Ethical Considerations for Lawyers Working Remotely
Up to 1 credits

1-Hour Program

See Credit Details Below

Overview

As more attorneys settle into the new normal of working in a virtual environment, and more bar associations offer informal guidance and ethics opinions on the subject, it's important to take a look at the unique ethical obligations remote lawyering presents. This one-hour audio briefing will help attorneys understand the potential ethical pitfalls of remote lawyering and how to avoid them. Our experts will offer a cross-jurisdictional discussion of the ethics issues, recent bar association guidance, and ethics best practices for lawyers working remotely.

What You Will Learn

- Ethical issues and best practices when working remotely
- Competence and supervision (5.1, 5.3)
- Preservation of client confidential information (1.6)
- Potential conflicts of interest (1.7)

Program Level: Overview

Intended Audience: In-house counsel, outside attorneys, and related professionals who want to learn about legal ethical and practice concerns when working remotely.
