Dear Taylor Stoneman:

This letter will serve to respond to your public records request for the following documents:

“1. Records sufficient to identify the names and titles of any staff members from the Office of the Attorney General who attended, virtually or in-person, the Rule of Law Defense Fund (RLDF) Senior Staff Summit on or around September 23-24, 2020, in Atlanta, Georgia. Responsive records may include, for example, attendance lists, registration or confirmation emails, calendar entries or invitations, or email communications.

2. All records reflecting the substance of and participants in any discussions, events, or sessions of the RLDF Senior Staff Summit held on or around September 23-24, 2020. Responsive records include, but are not limited to, agendas, presentations, video or audio recordings (including recordings or transcripts of meetings held on Zoom), meeting minutes or summaries (including handwritten notes and informal email summaries), meeting handouts, invitee and participant lists, and any materials exchanged by parties attending the meetings.

Please provide all responsive records from September 16, 2020, through September 30, 2020.”

This office does not have any responsive documents. This letter will complete your public records requests to this office.
