For the purpose of this response and to assist you in making any future requests, I refer you to the policies of the Colorado General Assembly regarding public records requests. The policies are included in the "Legislative Policies Related to Public Records and E-Mail", dated July 2019, and are available through the "Open Records Requests and Policy" link located at the bottom of the Colorado General Assembly website: leg.colorado.gov. Please note that section II. C. 2. of the Policies directs that CORA requests for inspection of a legislative member's records must be submitted to both the legislative member and to this office.

In my December 7, 2021, letter, I responded and explained the time to respond would be extended to December 16, 2021, due to extenuating circumstances. Representative Hanks has now reviewed the records in his custody and does not have any records that are responsive to your request.

Sincerely,

Sharon Eubanks
Director
