American Oversight v. DHS
First Interim Release

Dear Mr. Evers:

This is our first interim response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests to the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), dated January 17, 2019.

For this production, DHS reviewed 411 pages of which 99 pages are released in full, and 271 pages are withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(5) and (b)(6). 35 pages are not responsive. DHS has also located and sent six pages to other agencies for consultation. The 370 pages for release are bates stamped DHS-001-2395-000001 to DHS-001-2395-000370.

If you have any questions regarding this release, please contact Assistant United States Attorney Benton Peterson by email at Benton.Peterson@usdoj.gov.

Sincerely,

This can definitely be done at the TS level or below.

My week is somewhat overtaken by foreign fighter/vetting executive order implementation, but I've cc'd by EA to work on finding a time that will work as soon as can be arranged.

David,

That would be great. Caveat – OPM is dragging their feet on upgrading my TS. Can this be done at TS or below?

Katie left for the day and I don't know her availability. I'm fairly flexible. What are some good windows on your end? Let us know and we will work around your availability.

Hi John – hope all's well.

Happy to provide that information. What I'd suggest is a short meeting for us to describe the process we followed and the results. I suggest this rather than dumping reports on you is because we generated a bunch of reports, (b)(5) think an hour would be sufficient to cover it. Adding Jim Dunlap from I&A Homeland Threats Division who did most of the work on this.

Hi all,

Kirstjen asked that we keep moving on this tomorrow. Can those of you who are available please join for an informal discussion re. I will endeavor to send around a dial-in tomorrow. If you can't make it, we will work to schedule a follow-on early next week.

Brave New Cyberworld -- Washington, DC

Join Jigsaw and the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace to explore diplomacy in the digital age—the threat environment, the policy imperatives, and the role of the private sector.

State-sponsored cyber attacks have crippled critical infrastructure, manipulated elections, and ushered in a new age of high-stakes espionage. The threat are multiplying and outpacing the policy response. The need for new doctrines and concepts could not be more urgent. That will require both the private and public sector, especially when it comes to the use of active cyber defense by the private sector. This event will draw on the expertise of distinguished policy, legal, and technical experts to help clarify the contours of the strategic landscape and the specific challenge of active cyber defense by the private sector.

All,

Monday

Just a reminder about our working group meeting on Monday, April 24.

Best wishes,

(b)(6)

Since we last met for the Threat Assessment training with (b)(6) in January, the Working Group has continued to gain momentum – and members – and we are looking forward to our next meeting, proposed for Monday, April 24 at 2:00 p.m. here at EDNY.

Since we last met, we have presented our project at an NYPD terrorism conference, a meeting of FBI Field Offices in Phoenix, Arizona, and the DOJ's National Advocacy Center. Our work also has been featured in the Wall Street Journal.

In sum, there is a lot of interest and a growing need for our collective efforts. We would like to update the group on information we gleaned from the engagements above, and continue to turn these ideas into reality.

At our next meeting, we will:

- be joined by a former jihadist, who will talk about his experiences overseas as well as his perspective on the U.S. government's role in his case, as well as creative ways to deter people from following the path he initially took;
- Discuss use of specific threat assessment tools and approaches at various stages of an investigation/case;
- Meet new members of the group, who are joining us from private law firms and other components of the U.S. government;
- Make a "wish list" for additional resources, and set a plan to get what we need to continue to responsibly protect the public and individual liberties.

Finally, as a matter of housekeeping, we have created a distribution list for our working group. Going forward, we will BCC recipients to make the distro list more manageable, but part of the draw of this group is who on it.

If you would like to be removed from the list, or have any concerns about sharing your contact info with other members of this group, please contact (b)(6) at

(b)(6)

Similarly, if you know of anyone who we have left off by mistake, please let us know and we will make sure they are included.

Looking forward to seeing you all on April 24.

holds a closed-session meeting with the Secretary on Tuesday and Wednesday prior to the Forum. We would like to ask for you to attend the Homeland Security Group meeting. The draft agenda for the meeting is attached. We are still making changes and will provide an updated version when available. This closed session allows the Secretary and his senior leadership to engage with members of the Homeland Security group on topics we selected. A DHS person will set the scene for about 10 minutes, followed by the Homeland Security Group's discussion on the topic. The Secretary and those seated at the table are able to engage in the dialogue with the group – but the primary goal is to listen to their ideas for how to address current challenges.

The Secretary will be there from either Monday night or Tuesday Morning (arrival still being worked) and will depart on Thursday morning at 9 am. Most of the delegation will depart at some point on Thursday or Friday. The Forum (which is the public gathering) kicks off on Wednesday night (the Secretary will give the keynote) and ends Saturday night. The Forum agenda can be found here: <http://aspensecurityforum.org/agenda/>

Erin Waters is the Secretary's Advance Lead for this event and can provide your office more information on suggested travel arrangements. The short version is your office will need to arrange your air travel, but we have a room for you already reserved.

Would you please let us know of your availability to attend? We will also need to know your arrival/departure dates as it will affect our room reservation footprint.

I look forward to meeting you soon.

Where: NAC (b)(6)

DHS colleagues –

Please join OCP for an informal roundtable on Wednesday September 20 from 3:30-4:30 with Maajid Nawaz and Muhammad Fraser-Rahim of Quilliam International. Quilliam describes itself as “the world’s first counter-extremism organization.” Maajid and Muhammad are well-known to most of us in the CVE/terrorism prevention world, so this will be a chance to hear about their latest work, particularly in North America, as well as ongoing projects.

Please note that we will be meeting at NAC (b)(6). Feel free to forward this invite to anyone with NAC access.

(b)(6)

Maajid Nawaz is a counter-extremist, author, columnist, broadcaster and Founding Chairman of Quilliam – a globally active organisation focusing on matters of integration, citizenship & identity, religious freedom, immigration, extremism and terrorism.

Maajid’s work is informed by years spent in his youth as a leadership member of a global Islamist group, and his gradual transformation towards liberal democratic values. Having served four years as an Amnesty International adopted ‘prisoner of conscience’ in Egypt, Maajid is now a leading critic of his former Islamist ideological dogma, while remaining a secular liberal Muslim.

Maajid encourages the reform of Islam today, inclusive citizenship-based participation of Muslims in their respective countries, and seeks to synergise a respect for human rights with the civic liberal imperative to defend those in danger of being stigmatised by extremists of all stripes due to their personal choices.

Maajid's autobiographical account of his life story 'RADICAL' has been released in the UK and US, as is his second co-authored book "Islam and the Future of Tolerance".

Maajid is an Honorary Associate of the UK's National Secular Society, a weekly columnist for the Daily Beast, a monthly columnist for the liberal UK paper the 'Jewish News' and LBC radio's weekend afternoon radio host. He also provides occasional columns for the London Times, New York Times and Wall Street Journal, among others. Maajid was the Liberal Democrat Parliamentary candidate in London's Hampstead & Kilburn for the May 2015 British General Election.

A British-Pakistani born in Essex, Maajid speaks English, Arabic and Urdu, holds a BA (Hons) from SOAS in Arabic and Law and an MSc in Political Theory from the London School of Economics (LSE). He is personally interested in Arabic grammar & morphology, Muslim Medieval jurisprudence, scholastics and emerging modern political thought and trends. He is also a keen member of the Warrior Cast MMA fighting team.

Good afternoon,

I've scheduled a meeting with USCIS Office of Citizenship to explore partnering on developing CVE programs for children of immigrants. USCIS has also mentioned that they are particularly interested in refugee assimilation programs. Attendees from USCIS' Office of Citizenship will be:

Laura Patching, Chief

Nathan Stiefel, Deputy Chief

(b)(6) Chief of Staff

After introductions, David will talk about OCP (who we are/what we do). I'll then discuss some of the information on developing cultural identity and ways that child immigrants can benefit from being involved in learning about the rights/responsibilities of citizenship. Finally, I'll discuss some of the research on refugee assimilation (if you have key points you want included on this, please let me know).

If you can, let me know ASAP whether you want to attend. The Office of Citizenship would like a complete list of names/titles from our side prior to the meeting.

Thanks,

The British have also sent the latest agenda and logistical info attached below.

PLCY Brown Bag: Coaching and Mentoring to Empower Your Employees -- The Commons (Large Conference Room on 1st Floor next to the PLCY FO)

In honor of November being designated as National Career Development Month, I will be offering a workshop on "Coaching and Mentoring to Empower Your Employees". We will take a look at the difference between Mentoring and Coaching and highlight the contributions that each makes to an organization. I will offer insights into selecting the right approach for the right situation. Finally, we'll work in small groups to practice the GROW model, a powerful yet simple coaching tool that anyone can use for both goal - setting and problem solving with others.

This workshop is open to anyone in PLCY (not only supervisors) but due to space limitations, will be capped at 20 people. I will send a confirmation e-mail to the first 20 RSVPs confirming your slot.

PLCY Brown Bag: Understanding and Working Well with Congress -- The Commons (1st Floor, conference room near the PLCY FO) + Dial in: (b)(6)

Please join (b)(6) a Policy Analyst from our Immigration team and Adjunct Professor at Georgetown University, for a discussion on Understanding and Working Well with Congress. Every bill, nominee, and appropriation that goes through Congress must comply with a complex and intricate series of procedural rules, created not just by Congress, but by the Constitution, courts, and some hidden in statutes. Understanding Congress and how to interact with them as an Executive Branch employee requires knowledge of the rules that govern their consideration of legislation. This discussion will focus on the role of congressional committees in appropriating, legislating, and oversight. Committees function as the frontline gatekeepers for all congressional action and have their own separate rules and practices independent of consideration in the full House or Senate. Most of the attention will focus on committees with a direct tie to DHS, but also provide an overview of the entire committee structure as well.

Subject: Tiger Team for S1 presentation on terrorism prevention

Colleagues,

Counselor to the Secretary Miles Taylor commissioned a briefing on terrorism prevention (TP) for the new Secretary. Miles asked Katie Gorka and I to spearhead development of this presentation and to collect input from knowledgeable stakeholders including Office of Terrorism Prevention Partnerships (OTPP, formerly OCP), OPE, Policy, I&A, CRCL, FEMA, S&T and NPPD. The presentation will include TP history, an update on ongoing TP efforts, potential new TP programs and changes, and recommendations for specific actions for the new S1 to take. Katie and I met with OTPP and CVE Task Force staff this morning and propose to include those of you in the To line of this email in a meeting next Monday or Tuesday. In particular, we are hoping you can assist with ideas for new programs, changes to the TP mission and activities, and recommendations for S1 actions. While I don't expect this to be a significant time commitment, I am copying leadership in your organizations to ensure they are comfortable with this request. Our deadline for a draft presentation is December 4th and I hope you can participate. You will soon see an invitation to two meetings and are free to attend either or both. Feel free to call me to discuss if you have any questions.

Thanks,

Thanks for the immediate follow up email. On terrorist use of the internet I could actually send a small team the beginning of the week after next. That might be a bit keen but I think we could get a lot done in person. I'm very keen to build on the momentum of the recent interactions around the G7 and last week's visit. What do you think? Would it be possible to get the right cast list together?

Dear David,

Bobby McKenzie, who runs the Muslim Diaspora Initiative at New America Foundation, can come here to brief us about his big Houston survey on December 5th at 11:00. Does that time work for you?

And if so, would you want to open this to your OTPP colleagues? If yes, then let's hold this in your space because you have better conference rooms.

Where: HST (b)(6)

Dear Colleagues,

- Please join us for a book presentation and conversation with Dr. Christopher C. Harmon, from the Asia-Pacific Center for Security Studies, on his new book "The Terrorist Argument," (Brookings Institution Press, January 9, 2018), on December 11th, 2017, 3:30pm.

"The Terrorist Argument uses nine case studies of how armed groups have used communications techniques with varying degrees of success: radio, newspapers, song, television, books, e-magazines, advertising, the Internet, and social media. It is fascinating reading for anyone interested in civil conflict, terrorism, communications theory and practice, or world affairs in general."

Biography

Christopher C. Harmon is a terrorism specialist and held the privately endowed Horner Chair at the Marine Corps University Foundation. He has lectured at INTERPOL headquarters, on Capitol Hill, and at dozens of universities and graduate schools, in the United States and abroad. The lead author or editor of four books on terrorism and counterterrorism, he has published essays in the geopolitics journal Orbis, Strategic Studies Quarterly, and Oxford bibliographies.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Warm regards,

Pre-Call on Engagement with the EU on Terrorist Use of the Internet - (b)(6) (the Commons) or dial-in:
(b)(6)

In preparation for a Dec. 20th phone call with the EU on Terrorist Use of the Internet, we will hold a prep call on December 19th at 2:00 pm in Room (b)(6) (the is the big conference room near the Policy front office). For those of you who cannot attend in person, dial-in information has been provided.

For background: the European Commission and DHS committed to coordinate strategies on working with the internet companies regarding TUI. On December 6th, The EU hosted an internet forum with social media companies in Brussels, and they have additional engagements planned for early 2018. EU Home Affairs Commissioner Dimitris Avramopolous may be traveling to the US in March and may want to meet with some Internet companies. In Germany, an online hate speech law is due to come into force on 1 January 2018 but the EU seems to want to avoid a multitude of separate national laws, preferring a self-regulatory model. Avramopolous has said, "There is a lot of room for improvement, for this cooperation to produce even better results, starting with the reporting from the companies, which must become more regular and more transparent."

The December 20th DHS/EU VTC will be for the purpose discussing a coordinated strategy and common aims.

Discussion with Tony McAleer, Life After Hate -- NAC (b)(6) (Large Conference Room)

Good evening all. This Thursday, Katie Gorka of PLCY has arranged to have Tony McAleer of Life After Hate join us. He will be speaking about Life After Hate's programs, including ExitUSA, their assessment tools, and their research and evaluation on domestic radicalization to violent extremism. More on Tony is found below the call in info.

Please pass this invite forward to anyone you feel would like to join us.

Thanks,
John

CALL IN INFO: (b)(6)

Tony McAleer, Board Chair and Co-Founder, Life After Hate

A former organizer for the White Aryan Resistance (WAR), Tony McAleer served as a skinhead recruiter, proprietor of Canadian Liberty Net (a computer operated voice messaging center), and manager of the racist rock band, Odin's Law. Tony was eventually found to have contravened Section 13 of the Canadian Human Rights Act that prohibits the dissemination of messages likely to expose groups to hatred by telephone.

Tony's love for his children led him on a spiritual journey of personal transformation. Financial hardship and the harsh realities of single parenthood brought him to a place of compassion and forgiveness. Tony has spent the past six years as principal of McAleer & Associates Wealth Management and traveling as a motivational speaker. Today he is executive director of Life After Hate and shares his practice of compassion as a presenter of LAH's Kindness Not Weakness curriculum.

Meeting with Denver CELL -- NAC (b)(6) (Large Conference Room)

Good day all. Next week Tom Ruppel, Assistant Director, and colleagues from the Denver-based Counterterrorism Education Learning Lab (CELL) will be in town (more on them below). They are looking to discuss with us an upcoming “refresh” of their exhibits. They are hoping to discuss with us some ideas they have and elicit our expertise on how best to proceed. The topics they are most interested in discussing are:

- Current domestic terrorism & HVE threats (addressing the full spectrum of ideologies)
 - How have these threats evolved over the past decade?
 - Current CVE efforts to address these threats
- What international groups/movements are most active or pose the largest threat domestically?
 - How has this evolved over the past decade
 - Current CVE efforts to address these threats
- How do we see this threat landscape evolving over the next 5-10 years?

I hope you all can join us to help this group. If you would like to invite others to join us, please chat with me first. While I want to get the group right, too large a group could prove a distraction.

Thanks,
John

The CELL, founded in 2009, is about to embark upon a redesign of its one-of-a-kind exhibit in order to address the ever-changing global security landscape. They have enlisted the help of renowned exhibit developer, Luci Creative, which is based in Chicago.

The redesign team is coming to Washington, D.C. in January to meet with subject matter experts in an effort to capture the most salient issues addressing terrorism and global security today.

About the Counterterrorism Education Learning Lab (CELL)

The CELL, based in Denver, Colorado is a nonpartisan, nonprofit institution dedicated to addressing the prevention of terrorism and enhancing community safety. The CELL has worked in conjunction with the FBI’s Denver Office and the Department of Homeland Security to develop community outreach programs that have received national recognition. This has included the film Recognizing 8 Signs of Terrorism that Secretary Janet Napolitano launched and the Community Awareness Program (CAP) that was featured nationally by the DHS and the Department of Justice and is U.S. DHS SAFETY Act Certified.

Developed in consultation with world-renowned experts and Academy and Emmy award-winning artists, the CELL built an exhibit addressing the threat of terrorism and national security efforts. Through its acclaimed exhibit, a distinguished speaker series, and targeted training programs for law enforcement to educate the community on suspicious activity, the CELL provides a valuable service in creating public-private partnerships by working with DHS, the FBI and other public safety entities on efforts to enhance our nation's safety.

The CELL's prominent national and global security forums draw sold-out audiences in the thousands.

Past speakers and advisors include:

The Honorable John Brennan

The Honorable Michael Chertoff

The Honorable Michael B. Mukasey

The Honorable Leon Panetta

General David Petraeus

Senator John McCain

Brian Jenkins, Senior Adviser to the RAND President

Matt Olsen, Former Director of the National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC)

Subject: FINAL REMINDER: A Discussion with DOJ's Domestic Counterterrorism Coordinator

Annual Discussion with DOJ's Domestic Counterterrorism Coordinator

On January 9, 2018, The George Washington University's Professor Thomas Brzozowski, Counsel for Domestic Terrorism in the U.S. Department of Justice's National Security Division (NSD), for a discussion on the current state of domestic terrorism in the United States.

Two years ago, in a speech delivered at the Program on Extremism, General John Carlin announced the creation of the Domestic Terrorism Center within NSD to help coordinate domestic terrorism matters and to assist in headquarters-level efforts to identify trends, analyze threats, and support the Department's strategy to respond to the threat. In 2015, the Center hosted its now-annual discussion with the Counsel for Domestic Terrorism.

Mr. Brzozowski will address the current dynamics of the risk of domestic terrorism, the point, and discuss the DOJ's future options for responding to the threat. The event will be followed by a moderated discussion between Mr. Brzozowski and the Program on Extremism's Foreign Affairs and Defense Producer for PBS News Hour, who will moderate the discussion on counterterrorism.

When you enter the Hilton, follow the signs to go to Tower 1, and take the elevators to the 42nd floor (the elevators are marked for Cityscape). I will plan to meet those who arrive by 5:30 in the main lobby off of O'Farrell Street and then we can head up together.

As this cocktail bar only serves small plates for vittles, we can decide on dinner plans while there and then head out either as a group or separately.

Domestic Terrorism Discussion - (b)(6)

Good afternoon to all,

Ms. Kate Gorka and I would like to have an exploratory, informal conversation with you about how the Department could do “more” in the Domestic Terrorism arena. We would like to discuss what that “more” could look like given the resources, authorities and capabilities currently available to the Department.

A few questions to consider prior to the meeting:

- (b)(5)

FYSA, in the CT Mission Center Working Group, one of the items we will explore is what (b)(5) This exploratory meeting may prove to be helpful in shaping our thoughts for that project.

We've got one final tweak to our speaker line-up, as Bennett Clifford will actually be speaking about the new GWU PoE report "The Travelers: American Jihadists in Syria and Iraq."

Good afternoon,

Wednesday

We wanted to send around a calendar invite for our next CVE Task Force Research and Analysis working group meeting, which will take place on Wednesday 21 February from 2-3:30 PM at GSA Headquarters near the White House. For those unable to join in person, we will also have a dial in for the meeting: (b)(6)

For our February gathering:

- Audrey Alexander, Research Fellow at the George Washington University (GWU) Program on Extremism (PoE). She will be providing a deep dive briefing about trends with ISIS online propaganda, including the PoE's recent in-depth report "Digital Decay? Tracing Change Over Time Among English-Language Islamic State Sympathizers on Twitter."
- Bennett Clifford, also a Research Fellow at the GWU PoE. He will be providing an in-depth look at the trends with recent US foreign fighters, based on the brand new report "The Travelers: American Jihadists in Syria and Iraq."

We are going to reschedule Dr. Robert McKenzie, a Director and Senior Fellow at New America, for a future Task Force meeting because he had a late developing conflict that precludes his attendance. Dr. McKenzie leads the Muslim Diaspora Initiative, which will be conducting detailed surveys of Muslim communities in the US this year.

Thanks and we hope to see you there.

CRCL, PRIV and Policy friends,

We have developed the attached draft Strategic Plan and will start circulating it throughout the Department to seek consensus. We want to circulate it to you first. In order to help you read, review and provide edits to the Strategic Plan, we would like to hold this teleconference so that we can describe the Plan, what we are trying to achieve, and why we made certain choices. We think this teleconference could save you a great deal of time as you review and comment on the plan.

We will also soon start scheduling more regular check-ins with you on various topics.

Please circulate this to everyone who should see it; late at night I am sure I have forgotten someone!

Inaugural Extremist Recidivism COI - (b)(6)

You are invited to the inaugural Extremist Recidivism Community of Interest (COI) scheduled for Thursday 25 April from 10:30-12 in (b)(6). (b)(6) The purpose of this COI is to bring together officials working in corrections and probation, national level policymakers, and intelligence analysts who are all working on the topic of potential extremist recidivism in the Homeland. We hope the COI will serve as a key forum to share information about the current threat environment and the policies and programs designed to mitigate this threat, as well as provide an opportunity to further interagency collaboration on select analytic and programmatic initiatives focused on Homeland extremist recidivism.

For our first meeting, we are excited that our featured presentation will be from (b)(6) Federal Bureau of Prisons' Counter Terrorism Unit (CTU). The meeting will be held at the S/NF level, so this invite has also been shared widely on the high-side with staff from key departments and agencies.

Feel free to share this message with others who may also be interested in attending. Also, if you do not have an IC badge and would like to attend, please let me know as soon as you are able so that we can pass your clearances.

We look forward to seeing you in April!

Registration Link and Agenda Forthcoming

You are invited to attend a one day summit on Preventing Targeted Violence on Wednesday, June 19 at Adams County Government Center at 4430 S Adams County Parkway, Brighton, CO 80601, USA.

With support from the National Governor's Association, the state of Colorado is creating a plan to prevent targeted violence in our state, and we need you and your agency's involvement. With the recent attack on a mosque in New Zealand, we remember incidents that also happened here in Colorado, such as the Planned Parenthood shooting in Colorado Springs, Coloradans attempting to join ISIS overseas, or numerous hate incidents directed at minority populations.

Our plan involves a multidisciplinary approach that requires your agency's participation and partnership. We look forward to learning more about how we can partner in this important work.

Please see the attached flyer for more information on Colorado's Preventing Targeted Violence program.

Women Peace and Security Working Group -- (b)(6)

Hi all-

I know everyone is experiencing some WAVE issues. I am trying to resolve them right now, so please note that this meeting will now start a few minutes late.

Best,

(b)(6)

Colleagues-

Please submit your WAVES by COB today- we want to ensure we have a better idea of numbers/attendees. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Best,

(b)(6)

Colleagues

I look forward to meeting with all of you next week to discuss next steps for the Women, Peace and Security Strategy. It would be great to hear from all of you about the process to date, and what your Agencies/Departments are doing within this space before we jump into next steps. For a tentative schedule, please see below:

1. Introductions
2. Discussion of Progress to Date: Key Successes and Challenges of your Department/Agency
3. Interagency Criteria for Monitoring and Evaluating the WPS Results Framework (90 days)
4. Agency and Department Implementation Plans (120 days)

Please let me know if you have any questions- and please let me know if some of the POCs are out of date, and if so, who their replacement would be.
