Re: ACF FOIA 19-F-0036 and 19-F-0194 (American Oversight v. U.S. Department of Commerce et. al., Case No. 19-cv-912)

Dear Mr. Evers:

This is the fifth interim response pertaining to Case No. 19-cv-912 filed April 2, 2019, relating to Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests 19-F-0036 and 19-F-0194, submitted to the Administration for Children and Families.

FOIA requests 19-F-0036 and 19-F-0194 seek the following records:

> All calendars or calendar entries for any of the following individuals, including any calendars maintained on behalf of these individuals:
> - Scott Lloyd
> - Jonathan Hayes
> - Lynn Johnson
> - Clarence Carter
> - Pedro Moreno
> - Anna Pilato
> - Mary Powers

Enclosed are 236 pages of responsive records. Some of the information on the disclosed pages has been withheld under the FOIA exemptions (b)(5) and (b)(6). The exemption (b)(5) protects inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency. The exemption protects agency deliberations, both internal and with agency contractors and consultants, attorney-client privileged records and attorney work product. In this case, the withheld information includes pre-decisional discussions within the agency and between agency staff.

FOIA exemption (b)(6) permits the withholding of records which, if released, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. In this case, the withheld information consists of the identities and/or other private information of private individuals and the work cell phones of federal employees. Public disclosure of this information would constitute an invasion of privacy of those individuals whose identifying information was disclosed. In withholding the information, the individual's privacy interest was balanced against any public interest in disclosure. In each instance where information was withheld, it was determined that the individual's privacy interests outweighed any public interest in disclosure of the withheld information. Disclosure of the withheld information would invade the privacy of the subject individuals but would reveal nothing about the operations or activities of the government.

We will continue to produce records to you. If you are not satisfied with any aspect of the processing and handling of this request, you may contact the Assistant United States Attorney in the United States Department of Justice who is handling this case for the Department.

Sincerely yours,

Carla C. Smith -A

ASPA respectfully requested our Joint Information Center (which ran two weeks ago for the House Energy & Commerce Subcommittee on Oversight & Investigations; and which will run tomorrow, Tuesday 2/26 for the House Judiciary Committee hearing on UAC Program) to plan to also run on Wednesday 2/27 this week (details below) – again to correct the record or to set the record straight whenever there is a material error of fact or mischaracterization by a Member of Congress or witness. This rapid response mechanism is important and the Secretary and Assistant Secretary for Public Affairs request our assistance in this critical effort. I realize not everyone can attend all sessions, but ask that your office lead ensure that at least someone is on hand from ASPA, OLAB, ASL, ASFR, ORR, IOAS, OC and EA. I've invited most, but feel free to add whomever I may have missed. Thank you!

Governors tout state funding for early childhood education

By Bianca Quilantan

02/22/2019 03:27 PM EDT

Two state leaders from different political parties said Friday they are looking to see how they can implement and fund early childhood education.

New Hampshire Gov. Chris Sununu, a Republican, and Oregon Gov. Kate Brown, a Democrat, said a state involvement in early childhood education is needed to provide opportunities for students to be successful in school and later on in the workforce.

"We know that 90 percent of brain development happens in the first five years, but where we start spending the money at the state level is in kindergarten," Brown said at an Axios event that also included actress Jennifer Garner and Mark Shriver, senior vice president of U.S. programs and advocacy for Save the Children. "And, from my perspective, it's critically important that we start much earlier, prenatally, that families have the support that they need."

Brown created a "Children's Agenda" last September and a cabinet for it with members from nonprofits, the business community and state government to "figure out how we can develop a system of early childhood care and education, literally from cradle to kindergarten."

The goal, she said, is to make sure families have support and services, children are prepared to enter kindergarten and students are reading by third grade.

Brown's budget has allotted "a several hundred million-dollar investment" to add at least 10,000 spots in pre-K and provide early intervention services, affordable day care and home visit programs.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Sununu, in a budget address last week, also proposed an office of early childhood education.

"I am a huge believer in early childhood education," he said. "When you have the opportunity in the most formative years of someone's life to get them on that right path, everything else falls into place."

Sununu, the first governor to fully fund kindergarten in New Hampshire, said the office would bring together nonprofits, health and human services professionals and education leaders to discuss the future of early childhood education in the state.

He also advocated for school choice as an opportunity for low-income families.

"Opening up those doors of opportunity allows everything to rise," Sununu said. "It almost creates a better sense of competition all the way through school and all the way into the workforce.

"School choice, by the way, is not public versus private — let's get that out of the way," he said. "School choice is about allowing a student, no matter where he is — home-schooled, private, public, no matter what it is — what pathways can they design for themselves."

Garner, who is also a trustee for Save the Children, said the conversation starting on early childhood education is "exciting because 10 years ago, this conversation didn't exist."

Garner said she grew up middle class in West Virginia but surrounded by poverty. Now, through Save the Children, she does home visits and sees that children in poorer areas are about 18 months behind developmentally when they reach kindergarten because they lack access to early education.

"Imagine in kindergarten, when you go in, you've never held a book before, you might not have ever seen a book," she said. "You've never had to sit still and listen in a circle or stand in a line, you can't control yourself, your brain isn't wired to learn and if you haven't been hearing words and building a capacity, you haven't been growing the neurons, and that chance is gone — the opportunity is lost."

If she were president for a day, Garner said she would push for universal pre-K for 3- and 4-year-olds across the country.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Overview
Predictive analytics, a set of advanced analytical methods used to determine patterns and predict outcomes and trends, is receiving increased attention among human services agencies as a way for identifying predictors of risk and assigning risk categories. This cross-cutting approach is being implemented as a mechanism to identify those who are at the greatest risk of experiencing an adverse outcome and targeting prevention services. This learning exchange will explore a range of possible applications of predictive analytics across human services programs and the limitations of this approach. We also will highlight exciting work happening in Washington State on a project that predicts the likelihood that a parent will become delinquent on their next child support payment.

What is a Learning Exchange?
The Learning Exchange provides an opportunity for HHS leadership and staff, as well as other federal partners, to learn about cutting-edge, emerging findings from applied research that have clear relevance for HHS programs and policies. During the Learning Exchange, poverty center affiliates will discuss research findings on a specific topic and engage in a dialogue with federal leaders and staff about implications for policy and practice. The goals are to increase the ability of research findings to inform government policy and programs in a timely manner and to inform University of Wisconsin researchers of current federal priorities.

Please contact Kaitlyn Jones at Kaitlyn.Jones@hhs.gov, for more information or with any questions.

We hope you can join us!

Natalie and ACF Team: Good afternoon.

HCA Healthcare provides our aspiring and progressive leaders with various experiences within the healthcare sector. Currently, a group of emergency services leaders will be in DC meeting with various agencies and departments within the federal sector with a goal to learn more about our Nation's healthcare system and to foster relationships.

Dr. Chris Mott, copied on this email, is leading a group that will be meeting with ASPR leadership, Congressional members and other federal partners.

I'm writing to ask a favor. Would you and the Human Trafficking team be interested and willing to take time next Thursday 3/14 or Friday 3/15 to meet with this cohort of HCA leaders so they can learn about the amazing work you do?

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

If this is possible, please feel free to connect direct with Dr. Mott (and cc me).

Thank you for the consideration and support.

Good morning, ACF,

Because Charles Becoat established the original ACF/ORP appointment, I felt it would make sense to send a new appointment for our bi-weekly meetings with new call-in information, given that he has returned to FDA. This will allow me to be able to manage our calls if we decide to make changes to the schedule.

Thank you!

Barbara

Friends of the Partnership Center,

For our meeting in March of those building partnerships with faith-based and community partners within HHS, we will convene by conference call at 12 Noon EDT this Tuesday, March 26th.

We will be joined by Jennifer S. Korn, Special Assistant to the President and Deputy Director of the White House Office of Public Liaison. Jennifer will share how faith and opportunity initiatives are a priority for the President and his Administration. She will also share what faith and community leaders are highlighting for the White House as areas of concern and importance for them.

After we hear from Jenny, we will share some of the activities and priorities of the Center.

Lastly, we will have a chance to hear from the rest of the Department. If you and your agency would like to share more about your efforts addressing faith and community leaders, please let us know so we can add you to the agenda.

We look forward to connecting with you all next Tuesday at Noon.

Ladies & Gentlemen,

As many of you know, we are starting an Executive Briefing Series. These briefings will cover new technologies and their potential impact to ACF. Our goal is to be better informed so that we can make better enterprise-wide decisions in the future.

The first of these briefings will cover Blockchain technology. Our briefing will look at the technology but more importantly what it means to us here at ACF. Topics included:

- What is blockchain technology?
- How are other federal agencies using/trying to use block chain?
- Should we be leveraging blockchain technology?
- What problems can we solve with blockchain technology?
- What questions can we answer with blockchain technology?

We look forward to seeing you and hope that you will find these sessions both informative and thought-provoking.

Thank You!

Hello all,

Hope you had a great and restful weekend!

First, I would like to reiterate my appreciation and thanks to you for helping organize and participating in the ACF Listening Session with NACo's membership. I have received such incredible feedback from the members who participated and they are very excited about our future work with ACF. That being said, I was wondering what your thoughts are on potential next steps? I know it was mentioned that we could set up future calls with the Listening Session group, but wanted to hear your insight about what may work best.

I would be more than happy to compile some sort of comprehensive list of barriers/pain points and positive feedback from our members, and maybe that list could be a starting point? I know you all are extremely busy, so don't want to put more on your plates, but would love to keep this momentum going. Additionally, if there are any resources you would like me to send to the group, let me know (Chris – I think you had mentioned the inoperability toolkit?).

Let me know your thoughts and if hopping on the phone is easier, I am more than happy to set up a call that works best with your schedules!

Thank you again for everything!

Hello Philanthropic Partners,

The purpose of this communication is to invite you to a special invitation only roundtable discussion between philanthropic leaders in child welfare and Federal government officials to discuss priorities and opportunities to work together. First though, I'd like to extend my thanks to all of you for your interest and participation in the 21st century child welfare discussion. It's exciting to observe the leadership role philanthropy is playing in transforming our country's child welfare system to better serve and support children and families, prevent child abuse and neglect and promote child and family well-being. With the passage of the Family First Prevention and Services Act, the work the Center for Disease Controls has led through its Essentials for Childhood initiative and the recent interpretation by the Children's Bureau to allow title IV-E-foster care funds to support legal representation, we have an unprecedented opportunity to move child welfare from a reactive system that intervenes after children are hurt to one that actually strengthens families and communities to assure children aren't abused or neglected in the first place.

We are especially fortunate that Lynn Johnson, the Assistant Secretary for the Administration for Children and Families (ACF), shares our interest in transforming child welfare and has begun to lead the efforts that the federal government will have to undertake to assure our collective success. Secretary Johnson has agreed to participate in a roundtable discussion with foundations leading efforts towards transformation. She is interested in hearing our priorities, discussing her priorities, and looking for common ground where we might work together to accelerate progress.

I look forward to joining you in this important call. Christie Cruzan from my office will be in touch with additional information about the time for the call and other logistics. In addition, if you have any questions please feel free to contact Christie at (b) (6) .

12:00 PM - 1:00 PM FW: Monthly Faith and Opportunity Liaison Meeting -- Humphrey Building: 747D or conference call
Friends,

Many think our work to build partnerships with faith-based and community partners is all about building the capacity of faith-based and community groups to address the challenges our communities face. While the Center works to strengthen the ability and capacity of these leaders, there is also important work to build the capacity of the rest of the system to partner with these leaders. In fact, we regularly find that those participating in our webinars and outreach events are seeking to learn how to build partnerships and connect with faith-based and community leaders. As a part of our liaison conference call this month, we want to share some of our experiences in building the capacity of systems to partner with local leaders, including faith-based and community partners. We would like to hear examples of how your program might benefit from this strategy as well as your experience with this goal.

Additionally, we will have a chance to share the regular updates on the work of the Center and have an opportunity to hear from the rest of HHS with updates on their efforts as well.

We hope you are able to join us.

Warmly,

Shannon

Ladies & Gentlemen,

As many of you know, we are started our Executive Briefing Series. These briefings will cover new technologies and their potential impact to ACF. Our goal is to be better informed so that we can make better enterprise-wide decisions in the future.

This is a repeat of the Blockchain technology session. Our briefing will look at the technology but more importantly what it means to us here at ACF. Topics included:

- What is blockchain technology?
- How are other federal agencies using/trying to use block chain?
- Should we be leveraging blockchain technology?
- What problems can we solve with blockchain technology?
- What questions can we answer with blockchain technology?

We look forward to seeing you and hope that you will find these sessions both informative and thought-provoking.

Thank You!

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

To all the great colleagues at ACF and Office of Trafficking in Persons (OTIP),
It is my pleasure to share the contact information for Kristen Morse who is the Lead in DC for A21.

A21 stands for abolishing injustice in the 21st century and is a global nonprofit that has been working for more than a decade now towards achieving their mission to abolish slavery everywhere, forever. A21 currently combats modern-day slavery in 12 countries through a multi-dimensional, operational strategy: Reach, Rescue, and Restore. Through partnerships and efforts of supporters all across the globe, we truly believe that slavery can be prevented, that victims can be identified and assisted, that perpetrators can be brought to justice, and that more survivors can step into a life of independence. In the United States, A21's focus is on prevention education, public awareness campaigns and events, and a community model of aftercare for survivors of labor trafficking and sexual exploitation. In DC specifically, A21 focuses on raising awareness and fundraising through Walk For Freedom DC, one of 475 walks in 50 countries that will occur on the same date globally: October 19, 2019. The faith-based connection for A21 comes through their founders, Nick and Christine Caine. For more information: A21.org.

I hope someone from ACF/OTIP can connect sometime with Kristen to learn more about their efforts and how they might connect with ongoing efforts.

Overview

Over 50 percent of the 7 million people under correctional supervision are on community supervision in either probation or parole. Recent criminal justice legislation has also encouraged the release of low-risk individuals from incarceration into community supervision. This federal leadership and staff discussion will focus on the challenges this population faces in achieving self-sufficiency and the strategies that can help these individuals find employment, meet their needs, and navigate the requirements of being on community supervision such as checking-in with probation officers, participating in programming, and staying within a city/state.

What is a Learning Exchange?

The Learning Exchange provides an opportunity for HHS leadership and staff, as well as other federal partners, to learn about cutting-edge, emerging findings from applied research that have clear relevance for HHS programs and policies. During the Learning Exchange, poverty center affiliates will discuss research findings on a specific topic and engage in a dialogue with federal leaders and staff about implications for policy and practice. The goals are to increase the ability of research findings to inform government policy and programs in a timely manner and to inform researchers of current federal priorities.

Please contact Sofi Martinez, Sofi.Martinez@hhs.gov or Jhamirah Howard, Jhamirah.Howard@hhs.gov for more information or with any questions.

We hope you can join us!

Session description: In the last year, HHS ReImagine Aim For Independence (AFI), in partnership with ACF's Office of Regional Operations, administered ACF's first-ever State and County Customer Feedback Survey and hosted 8 listening sessions with 76 state human services leaders and over 40 county human services leaders to learn about what is getting in the way of families achieving sustained economic independence and what ACF can do to support on-the-ground solutions. This invitational session with state and county executives will be a chance to hear the findings from this work and engage in a discussion with ACF about the state and county solutions and recommendations that are being used to inform economic mobility strategies and initiatives at HHS and other federal agencies.

Good Afternoon Colleagues,

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

On behalf of Mrs. Lynn A. Johnson, Assistant Secretary for the Administration for Children and Families (ACF) at the Department of Health and Human Services, I would like to formally invite you to the kickoff meeting for the 2019 National Emergency Repatriation interagency planning effort.

The first planning meeting is scheduled for Monday, May 20, 2019 from 2:00 – 4:00pm in the Mary E. Switzer Building, Room 3126/3202. Please save this date, time and location as the final agenda and read-ahead documents will be forthcoming. Also, kindly affirm your agency's participation and representative through reply to this message.

The Repatriation Program is managed by ACF's Office of Human Services, Emergency Preparedness and Response (OHSEPR). OHSEPR leads disaster and emergency human service operations on behalf of HHS and collaborates with federal and non-federal partners to support the coordination and provision of temporary assistance during repatriation operations.

The National Emergency Repatriation Plan (NERP) provides a federal framework and describes the HHS U.S. Repatriation Program coordination and operations during mass evacuations of U.S. citizens and others from overseas to the United States.

The HHS U.S. Repatriation Program (Program) is authorized under Title XI, Section 1113 (42 U.S.C. §1313) of the Social Security Act, to provide temporary assistance to U.S. citizens and their dependents identified by the Department of State (DOS) as having returned or been brought from a foreign country to the United States because of destitution or illness of a U.S. citizen or any of his/her dependents, because of war, a threat of war, invasion or similar crisis, and due to lack of available resources. In addition, under Executive Order 12656 (as amended), the Program is authorized to develop plans and procedures, in coordination with the heads of Federal departments and agencies, for assistance to U.S. citizens and others evacuated from overseas areas.

Your agency plays a crucial role during DOS coordinated mass evacuations and emergency repatriation and your participation in this planning meeting will ensure that your role and requirements are properly addressed and captured in the 2019 NERP update.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Program Coordinator, CDR Elizabeth Russell Elizabeth.russell@acf.hhs.gov or Mili Patel, at mili.patel@acf.hhs.gov.

Once again, thank you for your continued support and we look forward to seeing you on May 20th at 2pm!

Very Respectfully,

Subject: Executive Mid-year Progress Reviews

Good afternoon ACF Senior Executives,

We are approaching the mid-year review phase for SES performance plans. Below, you will find technical guidance on the process and timeline. To improve the dialogue with the Assistant Secretary or your immediate supervisor, we encourage you to discuss the following during your one-on-one meeting: major successes thus far in FY 2019; challenges and opportunities; and your top priorities for the remainder of the year.

The Department also requires all members of the Senior Executive Service to incorporate standard FEVS language into their FY 2019 performance plans no later than May 17, 2019. Please note that we completed this requirement for you. The following language is now included on all SES PAMAPs in the Leading People performance element:

Develop and implement strategies to address two (2) or more areas of concern from the 2018 FEVS results, focusing on those areas that have impact on the Employee Engagement Index (EEI), Global Satisfaction Index (GSI), and the Employee Communication Index (ECI). Along with addressing OpDiv/StaffDiv issues, special consideration should be given to sub-organizations where addressing deficiencies would have the most impact on improving the EEI in support of the Department's goal and Office of Personnel Management requirements, as well as improving the GSI and the ECI. Ensure timely distribution of the annual FEVS reports to work units. If the FEVS participation RATE is below 60% in an office or sub-organization, increase PARTICIPATION by at least 2 percentage points through outreach activities to that level. If the participation RATE is above 60%, continue to implement outreach activities to sustain a high response rate.

Technical Guidance
The Senior Executive Service (SES) Mid-year Progress Reviews for career and non-career must be certified by Friday, May 31, 2019. As you know, the performance year began October 1, 2018 and ends September 30, 2019. As a result, it's time for a mid-way check-in.

Progress Review Requirements:
- Must meet face-to-face with their supervisor/rating official
- Discuss current performance and expectations for the remainder of the year
- Ensure that goals are aligned with the Department's finalized Strategic Plan FY 2018-2022 (https://www.hhs.gov/about/strategic-plan/index.html)
- Use this as an opportunity to review and revise goals based on a shift in organizational priorities (if applicable)
- Attach your electronic signature to your 2019 performance plan

Please note that for mid-year, the SES plans are required to be in the new USA Performance system.

To access your performance plan, click on the USA Performance link https://usaperformance.opm.gov/Login.aspx. At the sign in page, enter your ACF email address (firstname.lastname@acf.hhs.gov). Click on the forgot password icon and you will receive a temporary password to log in. You must create a new password (12 characters).

For those members of the SES who report to the Assistant Secretary, Angela Sellers will reach out to you to schedule your face-to-face progress review.

If you have any questions, please contact me or Mia Bailey (Mia.Bailey@acf.hhs.gov). Thank you and have a wonderful weekend.

Proposed Resolution to Minimize the Negative Impacts of Immigration Enforcement

on Families and Children

Issue: The need to carry out enforcement of immigration law in a matter that does not increase reliance on local social safety-net services or increase administrative costs for counties.

Proposed Policy: The National Association of Counties (NACo) urges the federal government to carry out its enforcement of immigration law in a manner that minimizes negative impacts on families and children and does not increase reliance on local social safety-net services or create new demands and administrative costs for counties.

Background: Collectively, counties invest over $140 billion annually in health and human services, playing a major role in providing health care and public assistance to individuals regardless of immigration status. Across the nation, counties fund and administer federal, state and local programs that support the health and successful development of all residents, including immigrant populations. Federal immigration policies that impact families or children can unintentionally affect the ability of counties to provide supportive services to residents, often resulting in additional strain to local budgets.

Fiscal/Urban/Rural Impact: Federal immigration policies may unintentionally affect the ability of counties to provide supportive services, often resulting in additional strain on level budgets.

Good afternoon,

Please see the agenda and background information attached! We hope you can join us tomorrow ☺

Dear Colleagues,

It is the mission of HHS to enhance and protect the health and well-being of all Americans. There is exciting discussion and movement in other countries and in communities here in the U.S. on how to measure well-being. Come learn more about this and participate in a lively panel on the best measures of well-being for the U.S.

Event: Measures of Well-Being

When: May 30th, 2019
9:00am – 12:30pm ET

Location: Hubert H. Humphrey Building, Room 505A
200 Independence Avenue S.W. Washington, D.C.

Overview

This event, hosted by ASPE and the HHS National Poverty Research Center at the Institute for Research on Poverty (IRP), University of Wisconsin-Madison, will explore key measures of well-being, the theories and concepts behind them, and how they are used. The panel will include well-being measures from the U.S. as well as international presentations including: the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) Better Life Initiative and Programme on Measuring Well-Being and Progress; the United Kingdom Office for National Statistics (ONS) Measures of National Well-Being; and the Canadian Index of Well-Being (CIW). The panel will close with a policy session moderated by Associate Deputy Secretary Charles Keckler, and including Scott Winship of the Joint Economic Committee, to discuss the most appropriate components of an effective measure of well-being for the U.S.

What is a Pop-Up Panel?

Anna:

Good afternoon!

Thank you for your kind email and opportunity to have a further conversation. I will actually be in Washington DC September 24 – 26 but do not know our final itinerary. That'd be great to visit during that time if it were to all fall into place. Could we keep that open as a possibility?

Also, in the meantime, I'd love to have a conversation with you and include Lara Lynn Strugess in that conversation. Lara Lynn is our director of foster care and has been a part of one adoption already this year out of our foster care program! Yea!!

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

I've included Pam Bishop on this email. Pam will help coordinate any future calls and our possible visit (once we know more details).

Thanks so much! I hope you have a Happy Memorial Day weekend…

Dear Riley,

It was very nice to meet you at CAFO a few weeks ago. I appreciate Dr. Jerry Haag introducing us in the café at the church during a break time.

I greatly admire the work of Chick Fil A in the area of strengthening families and children and the other worthy endeavors. ACF is going to be issuing a nationwide Adoption Challenge (shortly) to greatly reduce the number of children in foster care. I would be interested in speaking to you about this initiative. If you have some time in the near future, I would like to schedule a time to discuss. Or, if you are in the DC area, we would like you to invite you to come to the Department of Health and Human Services. I look forward to a future conversation. I have added my assistant, Tina Newell who can help us with scheduling. Thank you.

Best,
Anna Pilato

Jedd,

It was so great to see you (and Elizabeth) at CAFO a few weeks back. I was so happy to attend and be a part of this amazing conference. It was the highlight of my week, and my spirit and heart were greatly blessed! I returned and told our Assistant Secretary Lynn Johnson how fruitful my time was at CAFO, and how we needed to have you (and whoever you would like to bring along) come to ACF to meet her and our team. She is eager to meet you.

Also, I believe I mentioned to you our endeavor to promote adoptions from the foster care system. We are in the process of building the framework and it looks like we will be issuing an "Adoption Challenge" nationwide. I told her about CAFO's new initiative, but it would be great for you to come and tell us more.

I have added my assistant Tina Newell who will help us with scheduling a meeting in the near future. I look forward to conversation and potential collaboration!

Hi Brad-

Thought I would extend an invitation to the RA meeting in early June since the last one conflicted with the strategic planning meeting. We thought we could focus the meeting on ACF's new vision, strategic priorities and from an RA perspective, opportunities and challenges for integrating and enabling states to better serve families. We would like to have some candid conversations about what it is going to take to move from a compliance-culture to one that is solutions and customer-oriented. Perhaps you can speak about how this fits into SCOPE, as well.

Best,

Mishaela

Pacific Visit Agenda:

Background on the Pacific Visit:
Commissioner Hovland is leading a delegation of nearly a dozen federal and state leaders, legislative staff, and expert ANA training and technical assistance providers to visit Pacific Indigenous projects and organizations throughout the Pacific Basin. The visit will last from June 22 to July 7 and cover Hawaii, Guam, and the Commonwealth of Northern Mariana Islands.

Part of the reason for this visit is to mark 45 years after the passing of the Native American Programs Act, which created ANA. During this trip, the delegation will see first-hand the impact of ANA funding and Pacific Indigenous communities, and visit with state and local leadership, community members, and other stakeholders to discuss priorities that are important to Pacific Indigenous communities including human-trafficking, Missing and Murdered Indigenous People, healthy & thriving communities, veteran's issues, and Native languages.

Federal agencies represented include ACF's ANA, OTIP, OAS, OHSEPR as well as SBA, DOI Insular Affairs, and potentially the WH. This is the first visit by an ANA Commissioner to Guam and CNMI in a decade.

Points of Contact:

- Pacific Region logistics: Mark Allender
- Commissioner Hovland's schedule and other items: Delvin Schmunk

Subject: RE: Fort Sill Activation

Dear Anna (and thanks Lucreda for the connection!),

Thank you for your response, and for your attention on and service to these difficult issues, particularly your service to children who find themselves in your care.

Back in 2014 as I'm sure you know, the United States experienced a large influx of unaccompanied migrant (alien) children, of which some 1,200 were temporarily housed at Fort Sill in Oklahoma. Catholic Charities contacted the Army post leadership, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) Administration for Children and Families as well as the contracted service provider BCFS (formerly Baptist Children & Family Services) to offer assistance (Counseling, Case Management and/or legal assistance) with these children. These organizations were initially slow to accept our offer, but then sought assistance with a priest as a majority of the children arrived from largely Catholic countries of origin. Father Phil Seeton of Holy Family Parish in Lawton became a great source of comfort to the children transiting Fort Sill. Subsequently, Catholic Charities was able to provide counseling assistance and legal assessment information to some 670 of the 1,200 children who processed through Fort Sill. Catholic Charities was the only nonprofit in the state given access to the children.

It took a long time to get connected to any responsible entities last time around. If Fort Sill is again used to house the children, we again want to offer assistance—we have Spanish-language attorneys/paralegals/accredited reps who can do initial screening, Know Your rights presentations and such; Spanish-language counselors; Spanish-language case managers and a local office in the Lawton area. I am a retired USAF Colonel as well, so understand the DoD side of things as well. If you or someone thinks we might be able to assist, it would be helpful to get as much of a head start as possible so we can get post access and line up staff or trained/screened volunteers. I completely/completely understand if this decision remains close-hold at the moment—I'm not asking for anything I'm not supposed to have. But the last go-around we were unable to assist nearly half of the children who processed through due to the lag in communication and connection.

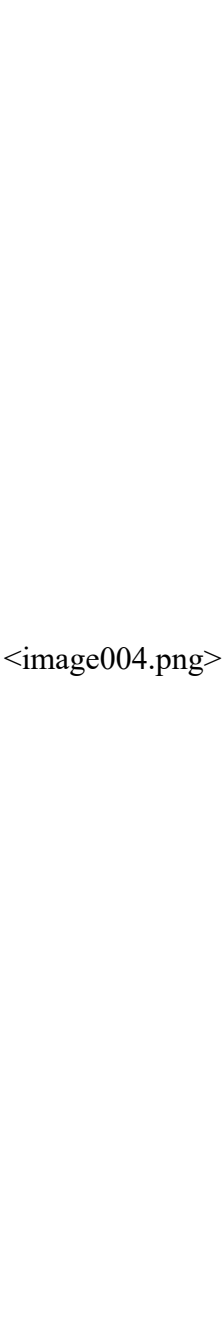

I had the privilege of hearing Lynn Johnson at our CCUSA meeting in Alexandria last April, and she urged us to reach out as partner where we could, and thus this request.

Given the above, would you recommend a phone call, e-mail or other? We're a relatively small agency, so our contribution won't be huge, but we do know the lay of the land and have lots of community partners.

June's Discussion Topic:

In the Partnership Center, we often get questions from leadership asking where faith-based organizations are engaged in HHS. It is important for all of us to be tracking faith-based and community engagement in our respective efforts; but how do we do that? On Tuesday at Noon ET during our regular monthly call with agency liaisons, the HHS Partnership Center will lead a discussion on how agencies can build strategies for tracking where and how faith-based and community groups are involved in their grant programs. This will include clarifications on the strategies that will and won't work to implement these tracking activities.

We hope you can join us by phone next Tuesday!

Phone number: 866.705.5077
Code: (b) (6)

REMINDER: This conference call brings together individuals within HHS that are building partnerships and connections with faith-based and community partners. It is scheduled to occur the fourth Tuesday of each month.

Good afternoon, Anna!

Please forgive us for taking so long to reply. Things have been pretty crazy since we saw you last at CAFO. All good, but very busy!

It was a joy for Alicia and me to get to meet you at the Summit. Jerry and Christi Haag are such dear friends who have been such a tremendous blessing to us and to our family! We are so glad that they made this introduction.

As you know, exciting things are happening here in Kentucky, and we would love to see these same things spread to other places around the country. We would love the opportunity to hear more about what is being planned regarding this nationwide challenge, and we would be honored to be a part of it in any way! We would also love to give you some additional details about what we are doing to support Governor and Mrs. Bevin's desire to get more governors and first spouses focused on child welfare issues.

We are looking at possibly setting up a trip to DC, so if there is a time that would work well for you and your team, please let us know. Otherwise, we would be glad to connect via phone, as well. Please let us know what might work with your upcoming schedule, and we will be glad to accommodate.

We look forward to connecting soon. Have a great evening!

Dear Chris and Glenna,

It was very nice to meet you both at CAFO a few weeks ago. I appreciate Dr. Jerry Haag introducing us in the café at the church during a break time.

It was so nice to be in Kentucky and I appreciate the great work of Governor Bevin particularly in the areas of foster care and adoption. ACF is going to be issuing a nationwide Adoption Challenge (shortly) to facilitate adoptions to greatly reducing the number of children in the foster care system . I would be interested in speaking to you about this initiative.

If you have some time in the near future, I would like to schedule a time to discuss. Or, if you are in the DC area, we would like you to invite you to come to the Department of Health and Human Services. I look forward to a future conversation. I have added my assistant, Tina Newell who can help us with scheduling. Thank you.

Hello, Anna!

I hope you had a great time away over the holiday last week. I'm sure things are crazy as you returned to the office this week. ☺

As I promised during our last phone conversation, I am connecting you with Jenny Ditto and Victoria Herrin. Jenny is the Operations Director for First Lady Glenna Bevin, and Victoria is with the Alan Madden Foundation. These ladies are overseeing all the various parts of the One Mind event. I have shared with Jenny that you would like to connect regarding some logistical questions about the event and regarding Assistant Secretary Johnson's involvement in the program. These ladies will be able to get you all the information that you need! It's going to be a great event!!

Hope you have a great rest of the day! Thank you for all that you do!!

Hey Anna! Thanks so much for taking time to talk. It was so good to catch up with you. Please let me introduce you to my good friend Jamie Trussell who I know you will enjoy getting to know as well :-) Jamie is the new chief development officer of Teen Challenge USA!

Jamie please let me introduce you to my longtime friend Anna Pilato. Anna is running the administration for children and families at HHS - she's a big dog now and I'm so proud of her. :-) I know you will really enjoy getting to know her.

Jamie, Anna thought it might be good if you could talk with her before Gary comes to DC so she has an idea of who would be best for him to meet with. Hope y'all can connect soon :-)

Blessings,

Hey Anna – Hope this email finds you well. I was hoping I could schedule some time this week to provide you an update on a meeting that Jerry, David, and myself had with HUD last week regarding a plan they have to expand family unification vouchers to more foster youth. Tomorrow is wide open for me so if you have availability tomorrow, let me know what time works best and I'll send a calendar appointment. I also have a follow up call with HUD scheduled this Wednesday, so if you'd like to wait till Wednesday afternoon, that would be fine too.
Let me know what works best.

Please join us for an exciting and fascinating discussion with ladies who have taken the leap – they are fighting the pervasive influence of homelessness, poverty and abuse. They are making an empowered decision to rise up and become productive community members. They understand, unequivocally, that the decision to a better life – for themselves and their families – rests entirely with themselves.

Meet them (via teleconference) and learn about their lived experiences and explore their perspectives on what ACF is doing around the promotion of fatherhood, welfare reform, homelessness and other human services.

While we understand their questions might be:

1) How would fatherhood promotion work for them when the fathers of their children are behind prison walls?
2) What kind of fathers will they encounter after their release from prison – will the fathers have the same abusive or criminal conduct – or will they be rehabilitated and in shape/condition to take responsibility for their children and the mother?
3) How will the presence of the father affect the mother's income? The mothers who apply for welfare are sometimes told by County welfare personnel not to claim a known father of their children because it will cause the state to go searching for the father in order to collect child support and that will only delay their ability to collect welfare.

Let's hear their stories so we can better understand the perspective of these women – and learn what we should be asking about the fathers of their children. How do they manage as single moms? How did they become homeless (if they did) and how are they learning to become self-sufficient?

This is a "late in the day" opportunity because these women are located in California – a 3-hour time difference. We hope you can join us for this interesting discussion.

Hi Darcie! Hope you had a great Independence Day weekend break! ☺

We are going to have CEO Benj Heuston back in DC on July 23-24 – going to take another shot at getting a meeting with Lynn Johnson. Also we had a solidly positive feature in the

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

New York Times yesterday – discussing how we are filling the gaps, reaching rural and low-income children and solving for state needs to serve 4 year olds in lieu of or in addition to state and federally funded pre-k. I am also going to reach out to Dr. Bergeron to see if she specifically has someone on her team who handles Head Start Home Visiting programs. I will cc you. Thank you for your time and consideration. I know you are doing yeoman's work there at HHS. Sincerely, Christina

Background:
Waterford Institute is nationally recognized non-profit, early childhood online learning, parent engagement and research organization based in Salt Lake City, Utah. For over 30 years Waterford has worked with states, districts, Head Start and community-based agencies to serve at-risk preschool children and families to build early learning skills. They have a particular focus on rural areas, where limited access to services make it difficult for families to participate in classroom-based pre-K programs. Through its state and philanthropically funded (Omidyar Network, Intel and others) hands-on online delivery of the UPSTART program, Waterford is reaching America's most vulnerable communities in all 50 states, and 15 countries They currently have a 50 state legislative strategy to create more UPSTART programs. In 2018, Waterford was awarded a federal EIR grant to implement the online software system and parent engagement program, UPSTART, in five rural states of Idaho, Wyoming, Montana, South and North Dakota. This is a follow on to a successful implementation of a federal i3 early learning grant from the US Department of Education. All 4 year-olds in Utah are offered and currently one third of them receive UPSTART thanks to unanimous state legislative support. Children participating in Waterford UPSTART exceed their counterparts who receive regular or no pre-k. In Mississippi, 900 4 year olds in Head Start programs are receiving the UPSTART program at home in addition to their center care. In Hillsborough County, 90 Head Start Centers are using UPSTART.

We would like to share our results and data on the powerful impact for children and their futures.

Each year, 2.2 million four-year-old children in the United States do not have access to publicly-funded early education. More than half of those 2.2 million are low-income children with no early education options at all. In April 2019, Waterford UPSTART was named a 2019 Audacious project grant recipient. With $26 million in philanthropic commitments, they will be helping overcome access barriers like availability, transportation, and cost to expand access to early learning opportunities for children across the nation.

The Goal of Waterford UPSTART
Waterford UPSTART has one goal: to ensure that every child arrives to kindergarten on day one ready to learn in the context of a parent's choice, whether at home or center based. Research shows that at-risk children who arrive to kindergarten without basic skills are 25% more likely to drop out of school, 40% more likely to become teen parents, and 60% less likely to attend college.

Dear Tina,
After contacting Lynne and Anna, I realized you handled a similar discussion with Patrick Raglow, CC OKC. Catholic Charities in the Miami area (located 20 minutes from the Homestead shelter) is interested in discussing the possibility of expanding their licensed permanent facility for unaccompanied minors. From what I understand someone from ORR recently reached out regarding the potential expansion. Could you assist with moving this discussion forward?
