Re: ACF FOIA 19-F-0036 and 19-F-0194 (American Oversight v. U.S. Department of Commerce et. al., Case No. 19-cv-912)

Dear Mr. Evers:

This is the sixth interim response pertaining to Case No. 19-cv-912 filed April 2, 2019, relating to Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests 19-F-0036 and 19-F-0194, submitted to the Administration for Children and Families.

FOIA requests 19-F-0036 and 19-F-0194 seek the following records:

> All calendars or calendar entries for any of the following individuals, including any calendars maintained on behalf of these individuals:
> - Scott Lloyd
> - Jonathan Hayes
> - Lynn Johnson
> - Clarence Carter
> - Pedro Moreno
> - Anna Pilato
> - Mary Powers

Enclosed are 177 pages of responsive records. Twenty-three additional pages were forwarded to outside agencies for consultation on those pages that originated within their offices. Some of the information on the disclosed pages has been withheld under the FOIA exemptions (b)(5) and (b)(6). The exemption (b)(5) protects inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency. The exemption protects agency deliberations, both internal and with agency contractors and consultants, attorney-client privileged records and attorney work product. In this case, the withheld information includes pre-decisional discussions within the agency and between agency staff.

FOIA exemption (b)(6) permits the withholding of records which, if released, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. In this case, the withheld information consists of the identities and/or other private information of private individuals and the work cell phones of federal employees. Public disclosure of this information would constitute an invasion of privacy of those individuals whose identifying information was disclosed. In withholding the information, the individual's privacy interest was balanced against any public interest in disclosure. In each instance where information was withheld, it was determined that the individual's privacy interests outweighed any public interest in disclosure of the withheld information. Disclosure of the withheld information would invade the privacy of the subject individuals but would reveal nothing about the operations or activities of the government.

We will continue to produce records to you. If you are not satisfied with any aspect of the processing and handling of this request, you may contact the Assistant United States Attorney in the United States Department of Justice who is handling this case for the Department.

Sincerely yours,

Carla C. Smith -A

Subject: Conference Call

Good Afternoon Carlis,

We recently had the opportunity to share our gen+ Approach with Clarence Carter and he was very gracious in telling us he likes what we are doing. He suggested that I contact you and see if we could arrange a conference call through your office and include him. He is excited about the opportunity to implement a well defined evaluation plan with both short and long term data.

If possible, may I get Ms. Zola Haralson from my office to contact your office to arrange this meeting? We are truly excited to see all of this coming together.

Thank you as always for being such a supporter of states.

Respectfully,
John

Discussion with Be Strong Families founding director, Kathy Goetz Wolf -- Switzer 4523

Kathy Goetz Wolf, Be Strong Families (BSF) will be here to discuss their experiences with Parent Cafes and other prevention/intervention strategies for parent engagement, father engagement, and more effective/sensitive professional development of providers working with vulnerable families. BSF's work incorporates, yet goes beyond, efforts to build the evidence-based protective factors originally developed by CSSP for Strengthening Families. Up to the point I started at ACF, I served on their board. I've watched their approach make a transformational difference for families and service providers, and believe it is well worth understanding better as we rethink social service delivery.
http://www.bestrongfamilies.net/

I'm setting this up as an informal discussion following a short description of BSF's work with parents and providers, the impacts they are seeing, and the program ingredients/approaches they think are making the difference. I'd like to keep the group small – mostly program directors -- but it would be fine to bring an issue expert or special assistant or two with whom you kick around your creative program/policy ideas.

Scott Miller, Circles Founder and CEO, has written two books about Circles;
Until It's Gone and The Circles Story

On Jan 16, 2018, at 4:00 PM, Jim Masters <jmasters@cencomfut.com> wrote:

Dear Clarence,

I continue as a volunteer board member for Move the Mountain, now renamed Circles USA. Circles USA is going strong with 67 chapters in 20 states. We have a wide variety of sponsors, including CAA's, city and county governments, the Methodist Church, the Salvation Army, United Way and others. After Gary Stokes retired several years ago, Scott Miller became CEO.

Circles continues the original core concept of a Circle Leader taking the initiative for developing and implementing a plan for self-improvement. Allies (3 to 5 volunteers) give advice and moral support to a Circle Leader for a minimum two-year period. Scott has helped develop several upgrades in curriculum and coaching methods. We call him the founder of the new approach to Circles. We help Circle Leaders build their confidence and skills as they create social capital. We do not give people money or any other "stuff."

We have evaluations showing our progress and results. It works! Several sponsors had TANF recipients in their programs who have increased their income and who no longer receive public assistance.

One innovation Scott created is a Cliff Effects Planning Tool. We are using it in eight states to help state administrators and Circles Leaders stair-step off of benefit programs rather than have a small increase in income produce a large, sudden loss of child care or medical insurance. It has catalyzed a very productive conversation among state officials in Pennsylvania.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Spring, I think the Cliff Effects Planning Tool would be of great interest to you and to state administrators. And, Circles is a proven methodology that helps some TANF recipients become more self-sufficient. Scott is coming to DC on January 31. I suggest that Scott meet with you to show you more details about Circles and the Cliff Effects Planning Tool.

Scott's e-mail is cc'd here.

Subject: Briefing re: OPRE Same-Sex Relationships Research Study
Importance: High

Clarence:

We would like to schedule a briefing with you related to a research study that OPRE is going to place into the clearance process. Because it involves research related to the Healthy Marriage and Relationship Education grant program, we want to make sure you are aware of the study and that you are able to give comment or feedback.

Briefly, during the previous Administration, OFA funded a research project in collaboration with OPRE, the Urban Institute, Public Strategies, and researchers from the Williams Institute at UCLA to conduct a Same-Sex Relationships: Updates to Healthy Marriage and Relationship Education Programming (SUHMRE) study. This study arose in response to the Supreme Court decisions in Windsor (2013) and Obergefell (2015) and anticipation of the need to prepare grantee organizations to provide services to same-sex couples and individuals interested in same-sex relationships or marriage. The project was designed to explore strategies to help programs better serve those who identify along the spectrum of sexual orientation in HMRE programs (i.e., the Healthy Marriage grantees).

Attached is the Overview and Executive Summary sections of Approaches to Providing Healthy Marriage and Relationship Education Programming for Lesbian, Gay, and Bisexual Populations: An Exploratory Study for your review in preparation for this briefing. I also have the full report (approximately 40 pages plus appendices, for a total of 130 pages) if you would like a copy.

As stated, OPRE intends to move this through the clearance process for publication, which means that it will likely come to the attention of the Acting Assistant Secretary and other agency and Department

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

We want to make certain that you are aware.

I will work with David to find a convenient time for this meeting. I am available tomorrow and Friday (although we have a scheduled meeting with Steve Wagner this Friday also).

Let me know if you have any immediate questions and if you want a full copy. I will also place a hard copy of the Overview and Executive Summary in your inbox.

Clarence, David, Warren and William,

It was a pleasure to reconnect today with you and your team! Thank you for thinking of us for the San Diego outcomes-focused interventions. We are looking forward to connecting with Steve next week and San Diego supervisors/Solutions for Change and helping them to evaluate whether the SIPPRA opportunity is a good fit for their program.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Additionally, I was particularly excited about your vision for how ACF could take a more "enterprise-level" approach to the pay for performance movement as part of its priorities to silo-bust to drive impact. As William and I have been discussing, SIPPRA is a wonderful opportunity to generate interest in the pay for success movement, but not every community is ready or will be able to win SIPPRA funding.

Your idea that ACF could leverage it's TA resources more broadly to educate, prepare, and activate communities to implement pay for performance approaches across government, philanthropy and community providers is fantastic. It is a way to leverage SIPPRA as one opportunity to help make the case for communities to invest in the broader movement towards outcomes based funding. I cannot think of a better way to use Federal TA than to help build capacity of communities to spend government dollars efficiently and effectively, and Third Sector would be excited to partner on that systems change effort.

I look forward to hearing about your and William's conversations with Lynn Johnson when I return from my honeymoon. I'm so excited to continue this conversation that this is one of my last emails of the day! :)

Thank you again for your time today. Happy holidays and onward to an impactful 2019!

My best,

Caroline

Hello,

OPRE is looking forward to this discussion of the family homelessness work that we've recently undertaken. We've invited Jill Khadduri and Lauren Dunton from Abt Associates to join us. Both Jill and Lauren worked on the Family Homelessness Briefs project, resulting in 10 briefs OPRE released over several years highlighting analysis on the well-bring of parents and children experiencing family homelessness. Abt is also currently leading a project to look at how TANF agencies are supporting families experiencing homelessness, which Lauren will also discuss.

We'll begin Tuesday's briefing with introductions, hear from Jill and Lauren about both studies, and have plenty of time for discussion. I'm attaching the slides here.

HHS Partners,

Please join us for a HHS Briefing/Update on the Social Impact Partnership to Pay for Results Act (SIPPRA).

SIPPRA was signed into law on February 9, 2018 and provides $100 million to Treasury to make available funds for successful outcome award payments for social impact partnership projects. ASPE staff have been leading HHS engagement with OMB and Treasury, along with some other HHS agency staff, to develop the Notice of Funding Availability (NOFA) for Social Impact Partnership Demonstration Project Grants, which will be released in early February as required by the law.

We think it is important for key stakeholders to be aware of this release and the potential implications for HHS agencies. We would welcome your input and involvement in the outreach strategy and rollout planning.

Please share this invitation with key staff in your agency and alert us of individuals you would like us to include and keep informed on SIPPRA matters going forward. Please send this information to our ASPE SIPPRA POCs: Ken Finegold (Kenneth.Finegold@hhs.gov) and Kim Burgess (kimberly.burgess@hhs.gov).

Thank you!

In any event, let me know if I can be of any assistance, thanks!

Friends of the Children Lunch -- AEI Roof-Top

Please join us for a luncheon discussion with senior leadership from the Portland, Oregon-based Friends of the Children (FOTC) program.

FOTC, founded 20 years ago by timber entrepreneur Duncan Campbell, provides paid, professional mentoring for children identified as being at the greatest risk for the classic problems of intergenerational poverty: educational failure, early parenting, and juvenile justice involvement. Children who join FOTC are paired with mentors who follow them from kindergarten through high school graduation. The program is funded chiefly by private and corporate donations and is undergoing rigorous evaluation by University of Washington researchers who have received funding from the National Institutes of Health and the U.S. Department of Justice. Here's a short video that describes the program and its outcomes.

Most recently, University of Washington completed a formative study on FOTC's growing partnership with foster care agencies, families, and children (attached). Susan Walsh, FOTC Director of Research, and Erinn Kelley-Siel, Public Funding and Policy, will be presenting results from this study.

FOTC is, by a wide margin, the best community-based anti-poverty program I have encountered. I hope you will be able to join us to hear about their remarkable work.

Dear Clarence,

I continue as a volunteer board member for Move the Mountain, now renamed Circles USA. Circles USA is going strong with 67 chapters in 20 states. We have a wide variety of sponsors, including CAA's, city and county governments, the Methodist Church, the Salvation Army, United Way and others. After Gary Stokes retired several years ago, Scott Miller became CEO.

Circles continues the original core concept of a Circle Leader taking the initiative for developing and implementing a plan for self-improvement. Allies (3 to 5 volunteers) give advice and moral support to a Circle Leader for a minimum two-year period. Scott has helped develop several upgrades in curriculum and coaching methods. We call him the founder of the new approach to Circles. We help Circle Leaders build their confidence and skills as they create social capital. We do not give people money or any other "stuff."

We have evaluations showing our progress and results. It works! Several sponsors had TANF recipients in their programs who have increased their income and who no longer receive public assistance.

One innovation Scott created is a Cliff Effects Planning Tool. We are using it in eight states to help state administrators and Circles Leaders stair-step off of benefit programs rather than have a small increase in income produce a large, sudden loss of child care or medical insurance. It has catalyzed a very productive conversation among state officials in Pennsylvania.

With additional restructuring of public assistance programs likely this Spring, I think the Cliff Effects Planning Tool would be of great interest to you and to state administrators. And, Circles is a proven methodology that helps some TANF recipients become more self-sufficient. Scott is coming to DC on January 31. I suggest that Scott meet with you to show you more details about Circles and the Cliff Effects Planning Tool.

Scott's e-mail is cc'd here.

Subject: Briefing re: OPRE Same-Sex Relationships Research Study
Importance: High

Clarence:

We would like to schedule a briefing with you related to a research study that OPRE is going to place into the clearance process. Because it involves research related to the Healthy Marriage and Relationship Education grant program, we want to make sure you are aware of the study and that you are able to give comment or feedback.

Briefly, during the previous Administration, OFA funded a research project

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT
HHS-18-0681, 19-0275-F-000065

in collaboration with OPRE, the Urban Institute, Public Strategies, and researchers from the Williams Institute at UCLA to conduct a Same-Sex Relationships: Updates to Healthy Marriage and Relationship Education Programming (SUHMRE) study. This study arose in response to the Supreme Court decisions in Windsor (2013) and Obergefell (2015) and anticipation of the need to prepare grantee organizations to provide services to same-sex couples and individuals interested in same-sex relationships or marriage. The project was designed to explore strategies to help programs better serve those who identify along the spectrum of sexual orientation in HMRE programs (i.e., the Healthy Marriage grantees).

Attached is the Overview and Executive Summary sections of Approaches to Providing Healthy Marriage and Relationship Education Programming for Lesbian, Gay, and Bisexual Populations: An Exploratory Study for your review in preparation for this briefing. I also have the full report (approximately 40 pages plus appendices, for a total of 130 pages) if you would like a copy.

As stated, OPRE intends to move this through the clearance process for publication, which means that it will likely come to the attention of the Acting Assistant Secretary and other agency and Department principles. We want to make certain that you are aware.

I will work with David to find a convenient time for this meeting. I am available tomorrow and Friday (although we have a scheduled meeting with Steve Wagner this Friday also).

Let me know if you have any immediate questions and if you want a full copy. I will also place a hard copy of the Overview and Executive Summary in your inbox.

Jerry & Clarence:

The Ask: I am doing the closing plenary of ACF's Child Care and Early Education Policy Research Consortium (CCEEPRC) 2018 Annual Meeting and would love it if you two would join me to share perspectives on future research needed to help inform policy decisions around child/family well-being. We are all funding OPRE to do research related to improving child & family outcomes and it would be a chance to think about the kinds of questions we could be asking to guide collaborative work in this area. It can be as informal and interactive as we want it to be.

Date/Place of Event: February 8, 2018, 4:00-5:00 (I promise drinks afterword). Hilton Crystal City Hotel, Arlington

I/we (hopefully) follow a plenary on Coordinated Services for Children and their Families: Research Approaches, Benefits, and Challenges that would be good to attend first (3:00-4:00). Mathematica is presenting on a TANF funded, two generation research project, Overview of Coordinated Service Models and Research Approaches, in addition to speakers from Duke and Northwestern.

Background: CCEEPRC's Annual Meeting is sponsored jointly by OPRE and OCC for ACF-funded researchers, policy-makers, program administrators and other partners involved in child development and early education. This meeting focuses on research findings and current research projects that can help inform policy decisions.

Let me know what you think…

Update on OPRE's Building Evidence on Employment Strategies for Low-Income Families (BEES) Project -- IOAS Conference Room (4026A), conference line below

This updated document is modified slightly from what was sent on Friday to include key points for the San Diego discussion.

Hello,

OPRE will use this time to give an update on the Building Evidence on Employment Strategies for Low-Income Families (BEES) Project, which was awarded in September 2017. We will also discuss the first potential site to be included in this multi-year, multi-site rigorous evaluation. OPRE will provide background information about the project and site before the meeting, but a brief description of the project is below.

Project Description:
In September 2017 ACF's Office of Planning, Research, and Evaluation awarded a contract for a new five-year project: Building Evidence on Employment Strategies for Low-Income Families (BEES). The project will evaluate state-initiated employment-focused interventions and will prioritize building evidence specifically related to preventing and addressing opioid dependency, abuse of other substances, and/or mental health issues that create barriers to employment and two-parent family stability among TANF participants and individuals at risk of TANF dependency and their family members. The initial contract award was for $8 million. We expect to award a comparable amount in FY 2018.

Subject: Requesting a Meeting to Discuss Possible Tools aka Trampoline (Feb. 6 or 7?)

Hi Clarence,

I hope you are doing well after the stop and start at the beginning of the week!

Per my voice mail, Jim Bates and I would love to come back and sit down with you to present a new array of tools to help you operationalize your vision for a new TANF human services model. We've been having multiple conversations with our colleagues including Andy Bush and Michael De La Rosa to help shape an offering we'd like to present to you.

If you are in town and available February 6 or 7, would your Special Assistant be able to help set up a meeting to discuss please?

I look forward to your thoughts and thanks so much for your consideration!

My best,
Jocelyn

Jerry & Clarence:

The Ask: I am doing the closing plenary of ACF's Child Care and Early Education Policy Research Consortium (CCEEPRC) 2018 Annual Meeting and would love it if you two would join me to share perspectives on future research needed to help inform policy decisions around child/family well-being. We are all funding OPRE to do research related to improving child & family outcomes and it would be a chance to think about the kinds of questions we could be asking to guide collaborative work in this area. It can be as informal and interactive as we want it to be.

Date/Place of Event: February 8, 2018, 4:00-5:00 (I promise drinks afterword). Hilton Crystal City Hotel, Arlington

I/we (hopefully) follow a plenary on Coordinated Services for Children and their Families: Research Approaches, Benefits, and Challenges that would be good to attend first (3:00-4:00). Mathematica is presenting on a TANF funded, two generation research project, Overview of Coordinated Service Models and Research Approaches, in addition to speakers from Duke and Northwestern.

Background: CCEEPRC's Annual Meeting is sponsored jointly by OPRE and OCC for ACF-funded researchers, policy-makers, program administrators and other partners involved in child development and early education. This meeting focuses on research findings and current research projects that can help inform policy decisions.

Let me know what you think…

Clarence,

Brandon appreciates your having reached out on the ACF budget proposal and is happy to meet to discuss further. Unfortunately, he is fully booked this week and is on travel early next week, so best availability would be toward the end of next week. Do you have time availability for Thursday or Friday next week that you could offer that I could then work with his scheduler? If that doesn't work, we would work to set something up the week of 2/12.

Let me know.

Thanks,

Jessica

Subject: Requesting a Meeting to Discuss Possible Tools aka Trampoline (Feb. 6 or 7?)

Hi Clarence,

I hope you are doing well after the stop and start at the beginning of the week!

Per my voice mail, Jim Bates and I would love to come back and sit down with you to present a new array of tools to help you operationalize your vision for a new TANF human services model. We've been having multiple conversations with our colleagues including Andy Bush and Michael De La Rosa to help shape an offering we'd like to present to you.

If you are in town and available February 6 or 7, would your Special Assistant be able to help set up a meeting to discuss please?

I look forward to your thoughts and thanks so much for your consideration!

My best,
Jocelyn

Thanks Melissa….we've been honored to have Jerry and David with us all day…..they should be returning soon from a site visit --- our North Inland Live Well Center in Escondido. We're very fortunate having all of you leading ACF!

BTW: I mentioned to Jerry and David that I will be in DC the week of Feb 28 thru Mar 7th I'm speaking at a Medicaid conference as well as attending the NACO legislative conference. I believe Jerry is speaking at the NACo conference on Mar 2nd or 3rd. It would be great to do a follow up meeting with you while we're in DC. County Supervisor Greg Cox will be with me, as well. Right now we have all of March 1st open and the late morning/early afternoon of March 7th. We'll be attending the conference during Mar 2-6 but depending on the time we may be able to break away to attend a meeting at your offices. Look forward to catching up with you.

Good morning, William!

I didn't have a chance to see you after the briefing yesterday. I was curious as to your thoughts? I also wanted to follow up to see if you had any more specific questions I (or someone on the team) could help to answer? It was good to have Schoolhouse Connection on the call, I really like their work! When I was with the ABA we passed three interrelated education policies on behalf of at-risk youth and I know Schoolhouse has a strong advocacy arm. In any event, let me know if I can be of any assistance, thanks!

Friends of the Children Lunch -- AEI Roof-Top
Please join us for a luncheon discussion with senior leadership from the Portland, Oregon-based Friends of the Children (FOTC) program.

FOTC, founded 20 years ago by timber entrepreneur Duncan Campbell, provides paid, professional mentoring for children identified as being at the greatest risk for the classic problems of intergenerational poverty: educational failure, early parenting, and juvenile justice involvement. Children who join FOTC are paired with mentors who follow them from kindergarten through high school graduation. The program is funded chiefly by private and corporate donations and is undergoing rigorous evaluation by University of Washington researchers who have received funding from the National Institutes of Health and the U.S. Department of Justice. Here's a short video that describes the program and its outcomes.

Most recently, University of Washington completed a formative study on FOTC's growing partnership with foster care agencies, families, and children (attached). Susan Walsh, FOTC Director of Research, and Erinn Kelley-Siel, Public Funding and Policy, will be presenting results from this study.

FOTC is, by a wide margin, the best community-based anti-poverty program I have encountered. I hope you will be able to join us to hear about their remarkable work.

Our hope for this session is that Clarence can provide some brief remarks to set the stage and then folks from ASPE will pose research questions to kick off the group discussion.

I'll provide some additional documents prior to this meeting. Looking forward to talking to everyone then.

Subject: SIPPRA NOFA IS LIVE! Time to touch base today?

Clarence, William, Warren and David,

The SIPPRA NOFA is LIVE! I wanted to make sure you all were first on my list to reach out to. A couple of aspects particularly relevant to ACF: Kids are defined as under 18, and there is 90 days to respond once the NOFA is submitted to the Federal register (it has not been submitted yet, so will be likely due sometime in June 2019). Awards will be made by Nov. 2019.

Do you have time for a quick call to discuss? I'm also available at (b) (6) if easier to call and have good flexibility today.

I also just spoke with Grant Collins yesterday about the Fedcap program and the potential to scale that model and approach through SIPPRA and other TA training to states. They are doing deeply impressive work to break down siloes and reduce dependency, and I'm so glad (and not surprised!) that he is already on your radar.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

I'd love to connect via phone with you about Fedcap and Solutions for Change and other SIPPRA ideas (there is a project in IL and in Cuyahoga we think could be very competitive given the NOFA). With the solicitation out, I want to make sure we're aligned on quality applications relating to ACF and sending the messages that you want to Treasury and OMB.

My best,

Caroline

HOLD: HMRF Employment Roundtable - Opening Remarks -- Melrose Georgetown Hotel | 2430 Pennsylvania Ave NW, Washington, DC 20037

Clarence/Susan:

We would like to invite you both to join the HMRF team, CVS Health representatives, and a select group of grantees to the Employment Partnership Roundtable on February 26-27 in at the Melrose Georgetown Hotel in Washington, DC.

The Event

I've mentioned this in passing on several occasions, but wanted to remind you of this event since we're now at the point of implementing this exciting new pilot project.

This is an innovative collaboration between several HMRF grantees and CVS Health that presents a valuable opportunity for grantees to develop a pilot employer partnership with CVS in their regions. Nine grantees were selected by OFA to build on CVS's unique public-private partnerships around the nation. We considered a number of factors in the selection, including successful program progress, a strong emphasis on employment in their program designs, their proximity to CVS "hot-spots," which are areas in which CVS particular wants to foster partnerships like these across the country, and grantee interest. The grantees will have the opportunity to work hand-in-hand with CVS managers representing their region to develop a unique pilot for their program that will support your participants' employment and workforce development goals.

The meeting is 1.5-days during which participants will engage in interactive discussion to: craft an implementation plan, ask questions regarding their program and region, and receive targeted TTA from staff regarding this pilot program.

Your Participation

We would love for both of you to attend at least some portion of this event if available. I'm also asking that Clarence (if available) consider providing some opening comments, with Susan considered providing same if Clarence is unavailable.

Friday

10:30 AM - 11:30 AM TANF policy discussion -- Heritage | 7th floor | Luce

Hi folks! At popular demand, I'm hosting a conversation about TANF policy with a small group of policy leaders who focus on it. The conversation is timely as the law needs reauthorizing sooner rather than later this year. The purpose of this meeting is to get a common understanding of what people have been working on and priorities going forward. We'll start with an update from our colleagues in Congress.

PS Some context on how this relates to the broader Domestic Policy group that met recently and will meet again March 1 for lunch. Invites for the TANF meeting are being sent to TANF-focused leaders, so they can focus on specifics. And keep the broader group up to date on the effort. If attendees find the conversation valuable, we'll keep this going or adjust as needed.

Thanks Melissa….we've been honored to have Jerry and David with us all day…..they should be returning soon from a site visit --- our North Inland Live Well Center in Escondido. We're very fortunate having all of you leading ACF!

BTW: I mentioned to Jerry and David that I will be in DC the week of Feb 28 thru Mar 7th I'm speaking at a Medicaid conference as well as attending the NACO legislative conference. I believe Jerry is speaking at the NACo conference on Mar 2nd or 3rd. It would be great to do a follow up meeting with you while we're in DC. County Supervisor Greg Cox will be with me, as well. Right now we have all of March 1st open and the late morning/early afternoon of March 7th. We'll be attending the conference during Mar 2-6 but depending on the time we may be able to break away to attend a meeting at your offices. Look forward to catching up with you.

Hi Kevin,

I'll be standing in for Commissioner Scott Lekan and giving a joint plenary presentation with Clarence Carter at the 20th International Fatherhood Conference in Minneapolis, MN on June 5th. I've attached a copy of the draft agenda and the conference website is http://npclstrongfamilies.org/16th-ifc.html. Would you be able to schedule time for me on Clarence's calendar over the next couple of weeks to talk about the presentation? Or do you know who drafts Clarence's talking points? I'd like to draft something as soon as possible for Scott and Clarence to give their input.

HOLD: HMRF Employment Roundtable - Opening Remarks -- Melrose Georgetown Hotel | 2430 Pennsylvania Ave NW, Washington, DC 20037

Clarence/Susan:

We would like to invite you both to join the HMRF team, CVS Health representatives, and a select group of grantees to the Employment Partnership Roundtable on February 26-27 in at the Melrose Georgetown Hotel in Washington, DC.

The Event

I've mentioned this in passing on several occasions, but wanted to remind you of this event since we're now at the point of implementing this exciting new pilot project.

This is an innovative collaboration between several HMRF grantees and CVS Health that presents a valuable opportunity for grantees to develop a pilot employer partnership with CVS in their regions. Nine grantees were selected by OFA to build on CVS's unique public-private partnerships around the nation. We considered a number of factors in the selection, including successful program progress, a strong emphasis on employment in their program designs, their proximity to CVS "hot-spots," which are areas in which CVS particular wants to foster partnerships like these across the country, and grantee interest. The grantees will have the opportunity to work hand-in-hand with CVS managers representing their region to develop a unique pilot for their program that will support your participants' employment and workforce development goals.

The meeting is 1.5-days during which participants will engage in interactive discussion to: craft an implementation plan, ask questions regarding their program and region, and receive targeted TTA from staff regarding this pilot program.

We would love for both of you to attend at least some portion of this event if available. I'm also asking that Clarence (if available) consider providing some opening comments, with Susan considered providing same if Clarence is unavailable.

10:30 AM - 11:30 AM TANF policy discussion -- Heritage | 7th floor | Luce

Hi folks! At popular demand, I'm hosting a conversation about TANF policy with a small group of policy leaders who focus on it. The conversation is timely as the law needs reauthorizing sooner rather than later this year. The purpose of this meeting is to get a common understanding of what people have been working on and priorities going forward. We'll start with an update from our colleagues in Congress.

PS Some context on how this relates to the broader Domestic Policy group that met recently and will meet again March 1 for lunch. Invites for the TANF meeting are being sent to TANF-focused leaders, so they can focus on specifics. And keep the broader group up to date on the effort. If attendees find the conversation valuable, we'll keep this going or adjust as needed.
