Re: ACF FOIA 19-F-0036 and 19-F-0194 (American Oversight v. U.S. Department of Commerce et. al., Case No. 19-cv-912)

Dear Mr. Evers:

This is the sixth interim response pertaining to Case No. 19-cv-912 filed April 2, 2019, relating to Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests 19-F-0036 and 19-F-0194, submitted to the Administration for Children and Families.

FOIA requests 19-F-0036 and 19-F-0194 seek the following records:

> All calendars or calendar entries for any of the following individuals, including any calendars maintained on behalf of these individuals:
> - Scott Lloyd
> - Jonathan Hayes
> - Lynn Johnson
> - Clarence Carter
> - Pedro Moreno
> - Anna Pilato
> - Mary Powers

Enclosed are 198 pages of responsive records. Three additional pages were forwarded to outside agencies for consultation on those pages that originated within their offices. Some of the information on the disclosed pages has been withheld under the FOIA exemptions (b)(4), (b)(5) and (b)(6).

Exemption 4 of the FOIA protects trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person that is privileged or confidential. The information being withheld under (b)(4) includes descriptions of a company's proprietary material.

The exemption (b)(5) protects inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency. The exemption protects agency deliberations, both internal and with agency contractors and consultants, attorney-client privileged records and attorney work product. In this case, the withheld information includes pre-decisional discussions within the agency and between agency staff.

FOIA exemption (b)(6) permits the withholding of records which, if released, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. In this case, the withheld information consists of the identities and/or other private information of private individuals and the work cell phones of federal employees. Public disclosure of this information would constitute an invasion of privacy of those individuals whose identifying information was disclosed. In withholding the information, the individual's privacy interest was balanced against any public interest in disclosure. In each instance where information was withheld, it was determined that the individual's privacy interests outweighed any public interest in disclosure of the withheld information. Disclosure of the withheld information would invade the privacy of the subject individuals but would reveal nothing about the operations or activities of the government.

We will continue to produce records to you. If you are not satisfied with any aspect of the processing and handling of this request, you may contact the Assistant United States Attorney in the United States Department of Justice who is handling this case for the Department.

Sincerely yours,

Alexis Chancellor

Federal Learning Exchange: Using Predictive Analytics to Enhance Prevention in Human Services Programs -- Humphrey 425A and WebEx

Good morning,

Hope you all can join us tomorrow! Please see agenda below. Thanks!

Dear Colleagues,

ASPE's Office of Human Services Policy is pleased to invite you to a Learning Exchange with the Institute for Research on Poverty/University of Wisconsin as part of our National Poverty Research Center. This event will focus on using predictive analytics in human services programs as a key to preventing adverse outcomes in at-risk populations. Please forward this invitation to interested federal colleagues.

HHS-18-0681, 19-0275-G-000004

Event: Using Predictive Analytics to Enhance Prevention in Human Services Programs

Date: Wednesday, March 13th, 2019 – 10am-12pm

Location: Room 425A, Hubert H. Humphrey Building, 200 Independence Ave SW, Washington, DC

WebEx available for those who are unable to join in person. Click here to join the event, or copy and paste the following link to a browser: https://hhs-osaspe.webex.com/hhs-osaspe/j.php?MTID=meadfab0889b79fafa770c022193061ed

Audio Only: 1-650-479-3208

Presenter: Erin Dalton, Allegheny County Department of Human Services, Pennsylvania

Megan Schoor, Washington State Department of Social and Health Services

Overview

Predictive analytics, a set of advanced analytical methods used to determine patterns and predict outcomes and trends, is receiving increased attention among human services agencies as a way for identifying predictors of risk and assigning risk categories. This cross-cutting approach is being implemented as a mechanism to identify those who are at the greatest risk of experiencing an adverse outcome and targeting prevention services. This learning exchange will explore a range of possible applications of predictive analytics across human services programs and the limitations of this approach. We also will highlight exciting work happening in Washington State on a project that predicts the likelihood that a parent will become delinquent on their next child support payment.

What is a Learning Exchange?

The Learning Exchange provides an opportunity for HHS leadership and staff, as well as other federal partners, to learn about cutting-edge, emerging findings from applied research that have clear relevance for HHS programs and policies. During the Learning Exchange, poverty center affiliates will discuss research findings on a specific topic and engage in a dialogue with federal leaders and staff about implications for policy and practice. The goals are to increase the ability of research findings to inform government policy and programs in a timely manner and to inform University of Wisconsin researchers of current federal priorities.

Please contact Kaitlyn Jones at Kaitlyn.Jones@hhs.gov, for more information or with any questions.

Clarence,

Attached are minutes from our last call with the MS Development Team. We are moving forward. AS you can see, the group has selected 4 areas from the list of challenges to address. I intend to get them down to three at the next meeting. I also plan to have the local planning teams identified and ready to begin the planning for the conference. The contractors will need to begin identifying locations asap. (b) (5)

10:00 AM - 11:00 AM Meeting with: Inter Tribal Council of Arizona and Commissioner Hovland -- Mary E. Switzer; 330 C Street, SW, Room # 4125/4202 Washington, D.C. 20101
Dear Ms. Dadgar,

Commissioner Hovland appreciates the opportunity to meet with you. The purpose of this meeting is to introduce ITCA Tribal Water Systems Director, Brian Bennon to Commissioner Hovland. Mr. Bennon will share important information and program funding history regarding the HHS Rural Community Development grant and its impact on tribal communities with regard to maintaining safe drinking water. Additionally, the discussion of this meeting would benefit ANA to know about ITCA's 35 year + program that works to maintain safe drinking water on tribal lands nationally and it is funded through HHS RCD.

Background information:
For more than 35 years, low-income rural trial communities have relied on the no-cost operator training and certification services of ITCA for building their technical capacity for providing clean and safe water and wastewater treatment. This is a national program that trains and certifies tribal water operators to build their capacity to oversee water systems on tribal lands nationally. In fact, we are now providing this training and technical assistance in Alaska. ITCA receives funding from a variety of federal sources to run this vital program across the nation. One of our longest funding partnerships has been with the Office of Community Services (OCS), Administration for Children and Families (ACF), U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). The specific grant that we receive funding through is the Rural Community Development grant.

Participants in this meeting are:

- Maria Dadgar, Executive Director, Inter Tribal Council of Arizona
- Travis Lane, Assistant Director, Inter Tribal Council of Arizona
- Brian Bennon, Director, ITCA Tribal Water Systems Department
- Jennie Hovland, ANA Commissioner
- Michelle Sauve, Intergovernmental Affairs Specialist

We are located at Mary E. Switzer Building, 330 C Street, SW, Washington, DC 20201. Please give yourself ample time to go through security and call us upon arrival at (b) (6) or at (b) (6) be escorted to our offices.

If there's no objection, I'll send out a 90min meeting invite for 1:30pm instead of 1pm. There's a 2 hour meeting wrapping at 1pm and I have a feeling Clarence, William, and Cheryl might want a few minutes to grab a bite.

Dear Clarence, Cheryl, William, and Warren;

Thank you again for the time together last week (William - we missed you but brought your voice from convo with Tim)! We agree that with the SIPPRA NOFA released - it is the right time to take action on (b) (4) .

As we think about equipping folks to pursue the future SIPPRA feasibility NOFA (released this summer) - we hear some more immediate next steps to work on a broader framework/approach for how government uses its resources:

Scheduling In-Person Working Session 3/19 or 3/20:

- Caroline and I will be in DC on these dates. Clarence/Cheryl asked that we find time to meet (would be great to include ASPE team working on SIPPRA).

- David/Warren: What is best 1.5 hr time slot on those dates for Clarence, Cheryl, William?

- Purpose would be to discuss further the types of supports and capacity necessary to implement an outcomes framework across ACF (b) (4) .

Preparing Internal Brief for ACF: (b) (4) .

Subject: Request for Meeting with Director Carter

Good Morning,

I hope this email finds you well. I am reaching out to you in hopes of scheduling a meeting with Director Clarence Carter for Tony McAnelly, the Executive Director of the California Community Action Partnership Association and Brenda Callahan-Johnson, the Board of Directors President.

Brenda and Tony will be in Washington DC next week for the National Community Action Foundation Conference and they would greatly appreciate the opportunity to speak with Director Carter regarding Community Action in California. They are available on Thursday March 21st from 1:00 - 5:00 pm, if needed they may be able to find time on Tuesday the 19th or Wednesday the 20th as well.

Please let me know if there is any time on one of those days that you would be able to squeeze in a meeting with them. Thank you for your time and I look forward to hearing from you.

FY 2020 President's Budget Request Update

As noted last week, the White House released initial documents for the President's FY 2020 Budget Request on Monday, March 11th. The more-detailed Congressional Justification has now been posted (see link below). During the One OFA this week we will discuss the proposals summarized here.

TANF: The Budget proposes to cut the TANF block grant by 10% and to eliminate the TANF Contingency Fund. The Budget also proposes the following improvements to TANF:

1. Refocus TANF on employment outcomes, ensuring that the program helps parents prepare for work, get jobs, and advance in employment.
2. Simplify the calculation of the work participation rate (WPR)
3. Target TANF and MOE funds to core purposes and needy families
4. Improve TANF data and reporting
5. Provide for alternative improper payments reporting for the TANF program

Remaking the Safety Net — Opportunity and Economic Mobility Demonstrations: The Budget proposes to reimagine work-oriented integration of TANF and other U.S. safety net programs through development, in partnership with states, localities, and other federal agencies, of a portfolio of rigorously planned, implemented, and evaluated Opportunity and Economic Mobility Demonstrations.
HMRF: The Budget proposes a five-year reauthorization of the Healthy Marriage and Responsible Fatherhood (HMRF) program with amendments to several provisions designed to resolve technical issues and strengthen service provisions within the authorizing legislation.
HPOG: The Budget proposes a one-year extension for current HPOG grantees, at the current level of $85 million in mandatory funding per year, to allow for continued evaluation and improvement.

Greetings,

In an effort to improve overall service and support, the ACF Office of the Chief Information Officer (OCIO) will be officially rolling out the ACF Service Desk. The ACF Service Desk will be the central means for reporting issues, asking questions, or requesting a new technology need.

To help transition the program offices to utilizing the ACF Service Desk, we would like to conduct an informational session with your key stakeholders prior to the Go Live Announcement.

The 30 minute Service Desk Informational Session (OCS – Office of Community Services) will be Friday March 22, 2019 at 9:00am in the Mary Switzer Building - Conference Room 4202.

Ladies & Gentlemen,

As many of you know, we are starting an Executive Briefing Series. These briefings will cover new technologies and their potential impact to ACF. Our goal is to be better informed so that we can make better enterprise-wide decisions in the future.

The first of these briefings will cover Blockchain technology. Our briefing

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT
HHS-18-0681, 19-0275-G-000041

will look at the technology but more importantly what it means to us here at ACF. Topics included:

- What is blockchain technology?
- How are other federal agencies using/trying to use block chain?
- Should we be leveraging blockchain technology?
- What problems can we solve with blockchain technology?
- What questions can we answer with blockchain technology?

We look forward to seeing you and hope that you will find these sessions both informative and thought-provoking.

Thank You!

Hi Steven,

We sat across from each other at the National Drug Control Strategy meeting at ONDCP a couple of weeks ago. I had hoped to catch you before you left, but wasn't able to speak with you.

You mentioned that ACF is focused on getting people in recovery back into the workforce, and I'm following up to see if there are opportunities for our agencies to collaborate on your efforts. While I'm housed within the Employment and Training Administration here at the Department of Labor, I'm actually coordinating the Department's response across all of its agencies. As you might imagine, helping those in recovery rejoin the workforce is a goal we share.

Do you have some time this week for a quick phone call or in-person meeting to discuss further? If there is a staff member in your office who has been the primary lead on these issues, I'm happy to coordinate with that person instead.

Thank you,
Meghan

Good afternoon Clarence, Shannon, Scott Lekan, Scott Logan, Jerry, and William-

On Wednesday, I briefed many of you on the State and County Human Services Commissioner Survey Results (please see PPT, in case you were unable to join us). This is one tool the Aim for Independence Initiative (AFI) is using to evaluate how we can integrate self-sufficiency programs to be mission and outcomes-focused with the ultimate goal of empowering families to achieve economic independence.

It is integral to the success of AFI and ACF programs to consider stakeholder feedback across all levels of government. As political leaders with direct responsibility over self-sufficiency programs that have an emphasis on work and economic independence, your input and insights are desired. As such, I will be hosting a series of individual listening sessions in March and April to discuss and hear your perspectives about how HHS might put people in the center of our programs and help people obtain employment and get out of poverty, with a specific focus on eligibility and person-centered service delivery, and outcome measurement.

Andrea Hayes, AFI's Project Manager, will be reaching out to you and your Executive Assistants to schedule this listening session.

We are looking forward to partnering with you to ReImagine HHS and help the families we serve Aim for Independence!

Dear Clarence, Shannon and Barbara –

Thank you for coming to present at our RA Meeting next week. We look forward to hearing more about your priorities and how ORO can support your efforts. Below is the description for the session.

11:00 AM 12:00 PM	SUBJECT	Supporting Work and Self-Sufficiency: A Holistic Approach to We Family Well-being Presenters will provide an overview of ACF priorities around supporting w and well-being. Leadership from the Office of Family Assistance, Office o Office of Child Support Enforcement will highlight their priorities and FY2 proposals. RAs will have a chance to engage in discussion with them abo support their efforts.

	PRESENTERS	Clarence Carter, Director, Office of Family Assistance; Shannon Chris of Child Care; and Barbara Lacina, Director, Division of Program Inno Child Support Enforcement
	MODERATOR	Joyce A. Thomas, Acting Director, Office of Regional Operations

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

We have 1 hour for the session and below is a general outline for the hour:

- Brief introduction to the session, 5 minutes (Joyce)
- Office of Family Assistance priorities, 15 minutes (Clarence)
- Office of Child Care priorities, 15 minutes (Shannon)
- Office of Child Support Enforcement priorities, 15 minutes (Barbara)
- Q&A and Discussion (10 minutes)

For your individual office presentations, below are some suggested topics to cover:

- Key policy and program office priorities, especially from the FY2018 budget that was passed, as well as what is proposed for FY2019
- How you see the work across ACF programs are being interconnected with your priorities
- Promising strategies or challenges with implementation of priorities
- Opportunities for partnerships and collaboration with ORO regional work, especially with other federal partners
- Anything else that you think the RA should know about regarding the work your office is doing the regions or at Central Office

Please let me know if you have questions or need anything else in the meantime. Thank you!

Dear Clarence and Shannon – This was a time that worked for both of you. Just sending the invite to hold this on your calendars. We are finalizing the agenda but will send that shortly. The RAs will be in town and we look forward to hearing more about your inter-related priorities and how we can support the work in the regions.

Scott- I see that you are out on April 9 and 10—is there someone else you would like to come in your place? We can work on inviting you to come to one of our other weekly meetings in April.

Dear Clarence, Scott, and Shannon –

I am reaching out on behalf of Joyce to invite you to join our RA Meeting next month. Considering the work that you are all doing together around welfare reform, we were hoping the three of you might be available for a panel discussion with the RAs on Monday, April 9th from 10-11am? The topic of the panel would be around supporting work, self-sufficiency and well-being. We view this session as a chance for you to share your Office priorities (and also the proposed budget priorities) with the RAs and also

About the series
Over the course of the next three months, the HHS Welfare Working Group will host a speaker series to explore social capital. The series will feature a variety of researchers, policy experts, and practitioners who will share perspectives and programs on the utilization of social capital. This series will inform how HHS conceptualizes social capital and lay the groundwork for how HHS policy, program, and research work can leverage social capital and civil society to promote work and reduce dependence.

About this session
During this session, Dr. Winship and Dr. Streeter will offer a policy perspective on social capital and explore the questions What is social capital? And why should we care?

Additional information
Session will start promptly at 11:00AM.
This is an internal speaker series for HHS only.

Discussion w/ Michael's Class -- The George Washington University
From: Michael Wiseman [mailto:wisemanm@gwu.edu]
Sent: Thursday, February 01, 2018 6:23 PM
To: Carter, Clarence (ACF)
Subject: Class

I teach a graduate course/seminar titled "Poverty and Social Policy" in the spring. There are 8 students, a mixture of people pursuing graduate degrees in public health, public administration, and policy analysis. I take pride in emphasizing the connections between policy and administration, and I like for students to meet people who have feet in both camps. For example, Robert Doar visited the class last spring. There are at least three former students in the course working at ACF at present.

I would like an informal discussion of your career, your ambitions for OFA, and your vision for our rebuilding the safety net effort. I think you will find the students interesting, interested in what you have to say, and appreciative of what you do. The class meets from 6:10-8:00 p.m. We could go over by Metro (faster than cab) at 5:30, and you would be done by 6:45 or 6:50, certainly no later than 7:00. We meet in the Media and Public Affairs Building on campus.

Subject: TA for TANF Organization

Hello Lisa,

Clarence referred me to you after we spoke recently.

The AFI Financial Literacy Technical Assistance providers are willing to set up an information session with OFA TANF staff to share ideas and strategies on how TANF organizations that received TA (as well as TANF org. that did not) can sustain the integration of the financial literacy processes and benefits after TA has ended. Clarence said that was your ball park. So I am throwing the idea out to you for your thoughts and feedback.
TA to the organizations are scheduled to wrap up mid to the end of April.

I am looking forward to your feedback.

Thank you.

About this session

This session focuses on bonding social capital through family and peer supports. During this session, presenter will provide tangible and compelling examples of how their programs build and leverage social capital to improve opportunity for low-income populations. Read more about the featured programs below.

About the speaker series

The Speaker Series will explore social capital, featuring a variety of researchers, policy experts, and practitioners' perspectives and programs on the utilization of social capital. This series will facilitate learning among HHS colleagues, inform how HHS conceptualizes social capital, and lay the groundwork for how HHS policy, program, and research work can leverage social capital and civil society to promote work and reduce dependence.

Featured Programs

- Building Wealth and Health Network: The Building Wealth and Health Network provides asset-building activities and trauma-informed peer support to low-income caregivers of young children under the age of six who are participating in TANF and work-mandatory. The goal of the program is to increase the caregiver's financial, human, and social capital in order to improve financial security and maternal and child health. Eligible participants can participate in Building Wealth and Health Network as an allowable work activity. The peer support groups, draw from the Sanctuary® trauma-informed approach to social services. The Network curriculum focuses on four domains called SELF -- creating personal, emotional, moral and physical Safety; processing and managing Emotions; recognizing Loss and letting go; and developing goals for a sense of Future – and financial empowerment programming that includes savings accounts that receive a 1-to-1 financial match from the Network.

- Family Independence Initiative: The Family Independence Initiative (FII) trusts and invests in the initiative and capacity of low-income families so they can work individually and collectively to achieve prosperity. FII does this by providing an offline and online environment to strengthen social networks, access capital, and support one another in achieving mobility. The more families share with each other and FII, the more initiatives they take, the more, not less, access to financial capital they can access in to accelerate their efforts. FII has partnered with more than 10,000 adults, teens, and children in 10 cities to create this new environment. On average, during two years of engagement with FII families report a 22% increase in monthly income, save an average of $1,039 through newly established retirement investment accounts, and report a 55% decrease in federal subsidies such as TANF and SNAP. Ultimately, FII is changing the narrative about low-income families in our country.

- Project STRIVE (Support to Reunite, Involve and Value Each Other) is an evidence-based approach to family mediation that seeks to intervene in the lives of newly homeless youth and young adults to prevent them from spiraling into chronic homelessness, by successfully reunifying them with their parents or guardians. The intervention/mediation consists of 5 one-hour sessions based on cognitive – behavioral and family systems, with the specific aims being to reunify runaway youth, improve family functioning, and improve mental health. The STRIVE program has been shown to improve youth health and behavioral outcomes, and reduce risky behaviors. CT has launched a STRIVE pilot statewide to help prevent and end youth homelessness and provide tools to families and youth to help them stabilize and thrive. As part of this initiative in CT, interested staff from schools, child welfare, homeless assistance, and other systems across Connecticut are being trained on using STRIVE. Project STRIVE was developed by Dr. Norweeta Milburn of UCLA and has been implemented with 151 families in Los Angeles County and the surrounding areas and has been used within their juvenile justice system.

See draft slides for the session, attached.

We would like to meet to prep for the RSN session at the Family Self-Sufficiency Technical Working Group on May 29 (the day before the RECS conference).

In advance of the meeting, we will share a draft of proposed slides to use for the session (inclusive of an overview of the RSN initiative and the capacity measures). We can then discuss slide revisions and the session structure when we meet. We may not need a full hour but blocking it off just in case.

Ladies & Gentlemen,

As many of you know, we are starting an Executive Briefing Series. These briefings will cover new technologies and their potential impact to ACF. Our goal is to be better informed so that we can make better enterprise-wide decisions in the future.

The first of these briefings will cover Blockchain technology. Our briefing

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT
HHS-18-0681, 19-0275-G-000083

will look at the technology but more importantly what it means to us here at ACF. Topics included:

- What is blockchain technology?
- How are other federal agencies using/trying to use block chain?
- Should we be leveraging blockchain technology?
- What problems can we solve with blockchain technology?
- What questions can we answer with blockchain technology?

We look forward to seeing you and hope that you will find these sessions both informative and thought-provoking.

Thank You!

Hi Steven,

We sat across from each other at the National Drug Control Strategy meeting at ONDCP a couple of weeks ago. I had hoped to catch you before you left, but wasn't able to speak with you.

You mentioned that ACF is focused on getting people in recovery back into the workforce, and I'm following up to see if there are opportunities for our agencies to collaborate on your efforts. While I'm housed within the Employment and Training Administration here at the Department of Labor, I'm actually coordinating the Department's response across all of its agencies. As you might imagine, helping those in recovery rejoin the workforce is a goal we share.

Do you have some time this week for a quick phone call or in-person meeting to discuss further? If there is a staff member in your office who has been the primary lead on these issues, I'm happy to coordinate with that person instead.

Thank you,
Meghan

Steve – Robert passed your email along to me. Please count me as interested in what you found comparing NDNH and TANF data. I'm a longtime fan of using NDNH data to improve program integrity and very interested in what you found in TANF.

Best,
Matt

Subject: Collaboration meeting

Good afternoon Admiral, I am following up on the conversation we had in the hall of the sixth floor. I hope your visit to our UAC shelters was beneficial. Thank you for taking the time to visit them. I look forward to hearing your thoughts about the tours. As we discussed, ACF is integrating and collaborating internally and externally to have a primary prevention approach to maltreatment, abuse and neglect and poverty. We are respectfully requesting your participation in our initiative as this will be a historical first for this Department. Currently SAMHSA and CDC are fully involved. We are also reaching non-profit partners and philanthropy, in addition to local and state leaders. Last week I met with the American Academy of Pediatrics who not only brought your name up but also informed me they would like to be a partner in this effort. I will send you a copy of my speaking notes for the 21 Century Conference where I began to roll out this effort. April 24-26 is our 21st National Conference on Child Abuse and Neglect where we will further stress the move to primary prevention and what this means to the field. I am requesting a meeting with you and staff of your determination to meet with my team

Discussion of FY 2018 IPERA Compliance Review - ACF Findings and Anticipated Responses -- Humphrey 540D or 1-888-547-5160 / (b) (6)

Good afternoon, I'm adding a power point presentation to the invite that we will use for tomorrow's discussion. In addition, as we discuss ACF's areas of non-compliance we will start with Foster Care before moving to TANF to accommodate schedules.

Thanks, and talk to you tomorrow, Joe

Good afternoon, Similar to last year, ASFR would like to meet with ACF leadership to discuss the OIG's FY 2018 IPERA compliance review and OIG's findings and recommendations. This discussion will help us draft a response to the OIG draft report as well as future reports that will be required for those programs that are out of compliance.

Additional materials (agenda, findings, draft report (if available), draft response, etc.) will be provided prior to the meeting.

Please let me know if you have any questions, Joe Pika

Hi Lynn,

Doug Besharov, a friend of mine who is also a Professor at the University of Maryland, is beginning a project that might be of interest to you (and perhaps other agencies): How to evaluate federal funding streams that are block grants (such as the Social Services Block Grant) or close to a block grant (such as SAMHSA's new opioid treatment grant program).

This week's conversation will conversation on the proposed data points for our Welfare Scorecard. We'll want to group our data points in three initial categories:

1. Implementation Data: data that demonstrate funds are distributed efficiently, as intended by statute.

2. Innovation Data: data that demonstrate how states use statutory flexibility to engage with their populations in evidenced-based methods while the participants are on the program.

3. Outcome Data: data that demonstrate how the participants are doing after they cease receiving program benefits.

Thanks all—looking forward to our discussion.

I'm going to change this in-person meeting to a conference call. Here is the dial-in:

(202) 395-6392

Code: (b) (6)

This meeting will review ongoing priorities and timelines.

Since the meeting two weeks ago was so close to Easter, we'll be focusing again on the Welfare Scorecard. We'll want to group our data points in three initial categories:

2:30 PM - 3:00 PM Tribal TANF Data Reporting and One-Year Stand-Alone Program Requirements -- WebEx Online or Clarence's Office

Hi everyone,

Clarence and Jeannie would like to keep the discussion of these two issues open and loop in legal counsel. This meeting is for an OFA-only meeting before joining a larger gathering with ANA. I'll look for availability with ANA next week.

Subject: FY 19 Legislative and Budgetary Proposals - Response due June 8th

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT
HHS-18-0681, 19-0275-G-000128

While we have not yet received the Department's instructions and funding targets for the FY 2019 budget and legislative request, we believe it's prudent to begin the internal ACF process now in order to give sufficient time for internal discussions. Here are the key ACF FY 2019 process dates and deadlines (note: the dates may change pending receipt of the Department's instructions):

Due Date	Action
June 8	Offices submit to OLAB their draft FY 2019 proposals in the attached ter This information should include new legislative proposals (with and with budgetary impacts), new non-legislative budgetary proposals (requests not require legislative changes to authorizing statutes but have costs or budget implications), and substantive changes to any proposals from th President's FY18 budget. OLAB will work with offices to refine their pro for clarity prior to presentations.
June 12 (1-3) and June 14 (3-5)	Offices will present their FY19 proposals to the Acting Assistant Secreta will provide the schedule for presentations after the A-19s are received hold these times on your calendar.
Week of June 19	Offices will submit to OLAB revised A-19s based on feedback from the presentations and any subsequent discussions that follow the presentat
TBD Based on HHS Deadlines	Offices notified of decisions of which A-19s and budgetary proposals wi included in ACF's request.
TBD Based on HHS Deadlines	Offices submit revised A-19s, budget narratives, and budgetary tables to OPRE will separately coordinate performance updates.

As the chart indicates, program offices are invited to submit the FY19 proposals template (which includes new legislative proposals and non-legislative budgetary proposals, and substantive changes to any proposals from the President's FY18 Budget) to Amanda Barlow and Scott Logan by cob June 8.

Program Request Considerations

During this stage, the Acting Assistant Secretary has strongly encouraged programs to put forward proposals that will improve programs and policy. While there may be budgetary and practical considerations that limit some of the ideas that go forward, the initial submissions should think broadly.

We are setting up times during the week of June 12th to discuss the FY19 proposals with the Acting Assistant Secretary. Program Offices will have approximately 15 minute blocks to discuss these initiatives and determine whether a revised A-19 is needed for each proposal or whether the proposal is a non-legislative budgetary proposal.

A-19s should be submitted for the following:

- All Legislative Proposals from the FY 2018 President's Budget that have not been enacted. If you are proposing substantive changes to legislative proposals included in the FY 2018 President's Budget this should be identified along with an explanation for the shift in direction.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

  - Newly Expiring Authorizations.
- Any other legislative proposals for other program authorities.

Thanks for your help in pulling this information together. If you have any questions please reach out to Scott Logan or me.

Thank you all for your patience in nailing down a time for us to discuss the upcoming plenary, "Remake the Safety Net" at the 2018 Research and Evaluation Conference on Self-Sufficiency (RECS). This time is for us to discuss the structure of the session, address any logistical questions, and hear from you what would be helpful leading up to the plenary.

Some reminders about the plenary session:

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

- This session will be held on Wednesday, May 30, 2018, from 9:00am – 10:30am at the Renaissance Hotel in Washington, DC.

- What's the plenary about? This plenary is a response to the concern that the current intention and architecture of the public safety net is not the most effective and efficient model to address the challenges of economically and socially vulnerable families. Under the leadership of Clarence H. Carter, Director of the Office of Family Assistance within ACF, the Remake the Safety Net (RSN) concept positions the federal government as a catalyst for engaging all sectors of the community to develop and implement a shared vision to grow the capacity of economically and socially challenged individuals to support themselves and their families and thereby reduce their need for and dependence on public assistance. To this end, the FY 2019 President's Budget proposes a set of rigorously planned, implemented, and evaluated "Welfare to Work" demonstrations.

- What's the basic structure of the plenary? This plenary will be facilitated by Director Clarence Carter. Clarence will first open by explaining the overall vision and objectives of Remake the Safety Net. He will then facilitate a discussion between a researcher (Mike Fishman, MEF associates), state administrator (Cynthia Dungey, Director of Ohio Department of Job and Family Services), a non-governmental representative (Pastor Corey Brooks, CEO of Project HOOD), and a customer of the safety net (Jennifer Pankey, Solutions for Change).

  The timeline for the 1 hour, 15 minute session is below:
  - Clarence lays the foundation for the plenary (including structure) – 3min
  - Clarence briefly introduces the members of the plenary – 3min
  - Clarence shares his vision for the safety net – 10min
  - Each panelist offers their reaction to this vision – 5-7min, each
  - Q&A including Clarence asking questions of the plenary participants, as well as audience questions – 40min
  - Clarence wrap-up – ~5min

  As you can see, a bulk of the session is dedicated to Q+A, however we do ask that each of you prepare a 5-7 minute reaction to the idea of Remaking the Safety Net. Our hope is that the pre-conference call will give you the information you need about Remaking the Safety Net in order to develop your reactions.

- More information about the conference can be found at www.recsconference.net

HHS Social Capital Speaker Series
Practitioner Perspectives: Mentors and Allies
Tuesday, May 22nd from 12:00pm to 1:30pm in Humphrey 443E
- - - - - -

The presenters

- Mr. Craig DeRoche - Senior Vice President for Advocacy and Public Policy, Prison Fellowship
- Dr. Sarah Hemminger - Co-founder, Thread, Inc.
- Mr. Jon Katov - Founder and CEO, The Open Table
- Mrs. Shannon Royce - Director, Center for Faith and Opportunity Initiatives (moderator)

About this session
This session focuses on bridging social capital through mentors and allies. During this session, presenters will provide tangible and compelling examples of how their programs build and leverage social capital to improve opportunity for low-income populations.
Read more about the featured programs below.

About the series
The speaker series will explore social capital, featuring a variety of researchers, policy experts, and practitioners' perspectives and programs on the utilization of social capital. This series will facilitate learning among HHS colleagues, inform how HHS conceptualizes social capital, and lay the groundwork for how HHS policy, program, and research work can leverage social capital and civil society to promote work and reduce dependence

Prison Fellowship is the nation's largest outreach to prisoners, former prisoners and their families. Founded in 1976, Prison Fellowship is also one of the longest serving and most influential voices in criminal justice and prison reform. Our founder, Chuck Colson, served as Special Assistant to President Nixon and served time in federal prison for a felony conviction related to the Watergate investigation. He believed, and our ministry believes that no person is beyond redemption. Prison Fellowship today runs 78 Academies in 27 states, programming in 428 prisons and services in more than 1,000 prisons in America. Prison Fellowship's Warden Exchange Program teaches wardens how to transform the culture of a prison from the inside out, to transform the people who live there. Prison Fellowship's Advocacy team is regarded as one of the country's leading subject matter experts on public policy related to sentencing, in prison policy and post release issues.

Thread, Inc. - Many people assume that at-risk students—with GPA's as low as 0.0, living in neighborhoods with concentrated poverty, and surrounded by violence and drugs—are a lost cause. Thread proves this notion wrong and demonstrates that even students living in the bottom of almost every statistical scale can thrive and transform their communities. Thread intervenes in the 9th grade and disrupts the pattern of isolation that leads to academic underperformance, enrolling students who rank academically in the bottom 25% of their class and who face an abundance of challenges outside of the classroom. Students remain in Thread for 10 years, surrounded by a group of up to 5 volunteers—a Thread Family–that provides the student with continuous support and increased access to community resources while deeply enriching the lives of committed volunteers. Once enrolled, Thread commits to never giving up on a single student, and our students consistently defy the odds. The Thread Community Model achieves exemplary outcomes and also serves as a disruptor and model for creating systemic change by building enduring relationships.

The Open Table uses a faith and community-based, bottom-up, grassroots model to draw together the relational, intellectual and social capital of communities to transform poverty. Each Table is composed of a group of volunteers that make a year-long commitment to act – through reciprocal relationship—as a team of life specialists, encouragers, and connectors to social capital in the community. Over the course of a year, the Table and the participant/family develop friendships and together implement a participant-driven plan to build a better life. After participating in a Table, 95 percent of participants stayed in relationship with other members, 85 percent had a better job or were in college, and 95 percent felt optimist about their future ability to be self-supported. The Open Table has been trained in 30+ states and internationally.

Featured Presenters

Craig DeRoche serves as senior vice president for advocacy and public policy at Prison Fellowship, the nation's largest outreach to prisoners, former prisoners, and their families. He leads the organization's efforts to advance restorative criminal justice reform at the state and federal levels. A recognized subject-matter expert, he has testified before Congress and confers with lawmakers to help them design legislation that prioritizes accountability, community participation, and second chances. DeRoche made front-page news when, at 34, he became the speaker of the Michigan House of Representatives. In 2010, he made national headlines again for two alcohol-related arrests, revealing a long-concealed addiction to alcohol. It was only after his arrests, the ensuing rehab, and a renewed focus on his Christian faith that he entered lasting recovery. He relates the story in Highly Functional, his 2015 memoir. Since joining Prison Fellowship, DeRoche has brought his political acumen and personal experiences to the pursuit of restorative criminal justice. He pens op-eds for publications including The New York Times, The Washington Times, and The Christian Post. He serves on the Charles Colson Task Force on Federal Corrections, a bipartisan body charged with making recommendations to Congress and the president about how to improve the federal corrections system. He is also a signatory to Right on Crime's Statement of Principles on conservative criminal justice reform. Right on Crime is a project of the Texas Public Policy Foundation in cooperation with Prison Fellowship and the American Conservative Union Foundation.

Sarah Hemminger is a social entrepreneur, scientist, and ice dancer who co-founded Thread with her husband Ryan Hemminger in 2004. Equipped with the fundamental understanding that we all need deep interpersonal bonds to thrive, Sarah knows that caring relationships have the power to radically and permanently alter the social support structure of everyone involved. She has fourteen years of experience in nonprofit management and expertise in the development, expansion, and replication of innovative, paradigm-shifting models of forming relationships across lines of difference between high school students, volunteers and collaborators. Sarah was awarded fellowships from

Ashoka, Echoing Green Foundation, Open Society Institute, and the Albert Schweitzer Fellows Program, which support social entrepreneurs with innovative ideas. In 2010, Sarah received her Ph.D. in Biomedical Engineering from the Johns Hopkins University for her work on the role of the cerebellum and the primary motor cortex on the time scales of consolidation of motor memory. She received the prestigious Siebel Scholars Award for outstanding work in the field of technology and engineering. Her research was published in the Journal of Neuroscience, Journal of Neurophysiology, and Cerebral Cortex and she has lectured internationally on her work. Sarah received her undergraduate degree from the Johns Hopkins University in 2002, and prior to pursuing her PhD, she worked as an engineer for Medtronic XOMED.

Jon Katov founded Open Table after colliding with a homeless man on a church outreach mission in 2005. Jon joined with his congregation to build a board of directors around his "Brother" and develop a business plan to tap the abundant intellectual and social capital and personal networks of the faith community. This first and subsequent successes resulted in the founding of Open Table as a 501 c3 non-profit organization. Open Table has been trained to congregations and communities in 30+ states and internationally. It has become the foundation of a breakthrough community/government intellectual and social capital co-investment model now being practiced by the faith, business, legal and healthcare community sectors and government agencies. Through the Open Table co-investment model, "boards of directors," now called Tables, are able to invest the abundant, sustainable intellectual and social capital of the community to support the life plans of participants/families experiencing poverty. Jon leads a team of staff, researchers, graduates and consultants, almost all whom have sat on Tables, to train the model.

Shannon Royce, Esq. brings a wealth of experience to her role as Director of the Center for Faith and Opportunity Initiatives at the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. Shannon's professional background includes both government and private sector experience. In government, she worked for over seven years on Capitol Hill, including serving as Counsel to Senator Chuck Grassley (now Chairman of Senate Judiciary Committee). In the private sector, Shannon worked in several faith-based non-profits, including the Ethics & Religious Liberty Commission (ERLC) and the Family Research Council. In leading the Center, Shannon sees her role as one of service and stewardship, carrying out the vision of the Administration. She received her Juris Doctor from the George Washington University School of Law. Shannon is married with two grown sons and enjoys running half-marathons for fun.

Hello, David. How are you? I hope all is well.

I was wondering if I could get 15 – 20 minutes for Clarence's time within the next couple of weeks. I am one of the OCS Managers working within the Division of Social Services. I enjoyed meeting both you and Clarence during the managers meeting on April 25th and even more inspired after our meeting with the staff on May 9th.

In a couple of weeks I will I be going on a 16-week rotation for the Executive Potential Program I am in and would like the opportunity to meet with Clarence as I will be gone all summer and may just miss the start of an era of opportunities (that is what I call it). I understand Clarence is very busy and I can be very flexible in availing myself. I telework on Fridays and I AWS on alternate Mondays.

Thank you in advance for coordinating this for me.

Ladies & Gentlemen,

As many of you know, we are started our Executive Briefing Series. These briefings will cover new technologies and their potential impact to ACF. Our goal is to be better informed so that we can make better enterprise-wide decisions in the future.

This is a repeat of the Blockchain technology session. Our briefing will look at the technology but more importantly what it means to us here at ACF. Topics included:

- What is blockchain technology?
- How are other federal agencies using/trying to use block chain?
- Should we be leveraging blockchain technology?
- What problems can we solve with blockchain technology?
- What questions can we answer with blockchain technology?

We look forward to seeing you and hope that you will find these sessions both informative and thought-provoking.

Thank You!

- Angela Karaidos, Residential Manager, Fresh Start Women's Center, Iowa Department of Corrections, 5th Judicial District
- Amanda Cox, Probation Parole Officer, Fresh Start Women's Center, Iowa Department of Corrections, 5th Judicial District

Overview

Over 50 percent of the 7 million people under correctional supervision are on community supervision in either probation or parole. Recent criminal justice legislation has also encouraged the release of low-risk individuals from incarceration into community supervision. This federal leadership and staff discussion will focus on the challenges this population faces in achieving self-sufficiency and the strategies that can help these individuals find employment, meet their needs, and navigate the requirements of being on community supervision such as checking-in with probation officers, participating in programming, and staying within a city/state.

What is a Learning Exchange?

The Learning Exchange provides an opportunity for HHS leadership and staff, as well as other federal partners, to learn about cutting-edge, emerging findings from applied research that have clear relevance for HHS programs and policies. During the Learning Exchange, poverty center affiliates will discuss research findings on a specific topic and engage in a dialogue with federal leaders and staff about implications for policy and practice. The goals are to increase the ability of research findings to inform government policy and programs in a timely manner and to inform researchers of current federal priorities.

Dear Clarence and William,

Hope all is well with you! I touched based with Tim and Raquel regarding the Kresge Convening in Detroit last week, and was excited to hear about all of the productive conversations. Although it is challenging to strike a right balance between being focused on outcomes achievement and keeping families' and individuals' needs at the center, it is empowering to know that there are so many prominent players committed to tackling this work.

I wanted to reach out to see if you would be interested in a meeting with Andi Smith, Executive Director of the Ballmer Group, and me next month. Andi and I, in addition to Anna Carter from North Carolina and Stacey Gillette from Washington State, will be presenting a panel on "Operationalizing Whole-Family Outcomes: Driving Agency-Level Systems Change through Procurement" at the APHSA Summit in mid-May held in Arlington, Virginia. Both Andi Smith and I will be visiting with several agency/office key leaders and staff in Washington, DC on May 20-21.

Given our conversations on the use of data and evidence-based programming, your interest in organizational change and outcomes frameworks, and your commitment to helping low-income families build capacity for self-sufficiency, we thought that you might be interested in learning more about our work with the Ballmer Group. Andi is particularly interested in brainstorming ways the Ballmer Group can increase their partnerships and leverage their capital to catalyze a movement towards focusing on whole family outcomes at the state and federal level.

Please let us know if you are interested in this meeting and we can coordinate based on your availability on May 20 or 21.

ear Colleagues:

We are requesting a brief panel prep call for the upcoming “Government and Catalyst” panel at the Fanning the Fatherhood FIRE Summit in Nashville. I have attached an overview document that I sent to you all on May 14. This call will be an opportunity to give some “final” instructions and respond to any questions you may have.

Please let me know either way whether you will be able to participate on the call. Look forward to seeing you soon.
