- cc. TransCor (@TransCor.com),
- dd. Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP (@bradley.com) (including any communications with Paul Kavinoky) or
- ee. Ballard Partners (@ballardfl.com) (including any communications with David Stewart).

Records were requested from the offices specified below:

- a. Office of Director
- b. Office of Deputy Director
- c. ICE Health Service Corps
- d. Office of Detention Oversight
- e. Custody Management Office
- f. Detention Management Division
- g. Detention Planning and Acquisitions
- h. Detention Monitoring Unit
- i. Detention Standards Compliance Unit
- j. Office of Acquisition Management

ICE has considered your request under the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552, and a search of the ICE Office of Director has located records that were potentially responsive to your request. For this production ICE reviewed 520 pages of potentially responsive records. ICE has determined that 462 pages of records were duplicative or non-responsive. Therefore, this production consists of 58 pages of responsive records, which have been Bates numbered 2020-ICLI-00030 1179 through 2020-ICLI-00030 1236.

ICE has applied FOIA Exemptions (b)(4), (b)(5), (b)(6), (b)(7)(C), and (b)(7)(E) to portions of the pages produced as described below.

FOIA Exemption 4 protects “trade secrets and commercial or financial information...[that is] privileged or confidential.” Under the new U.S. Supreme Court precedent, Food Marketing Institute v. Argus Leader Media, 139 S. Ct. 2356 (2019), information will be deemed “confidential” for the purposes of protection under Exemption 4 “at least where commercial or financial information is both customarily and actually treated as private by its owner and provided to the government under an assurance of privacy.” I have reviewed the responsive documents, the submitter’s objections to release, and relevant case law, and I have determined that portions of the responsive records are exempt from disclosure under subsection (b)(4) of the FOIA and must be withheld in order to protect the submitter's proprietary interests.

FOIA Exemption 5 protects inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency. The deliberative process privilege protects the integrity of the deliberative or decision-making processes within the agency by exempting from mandatory disclosure opinions, conclusions, and recommendations included within inter-agency or intra-agency memoranda or letters. The release of this internal information would discourage the expression of candid opinions and inhibit the free and frank exchange of information among agency personnel. The attorney work-product privilege protects documents and other memoranda prepared by an attorney in contemplation of litigation. The attorney-client privilege protects confidential communications between an attorney and his client relating to a legal matter for which the client has sought professional advice. It applies to facts divulged by a client to his attorney, and encompasses any opinions given by an attorney to his client based upon, and thus reflecting, those facts, as well as communications between attorneys that reflect client-supplied information. The attorney-client privilege is not limited to the context of litigation.

ICE has applied FOIA Exemptions 6 and 7(C) to protect from disclosure the names, e-mail addresses, and phone numbers of ICE and DHS employees contained within the documents, as well as the names, and other personally identifiable information of other individuals contained within the records.

FOIA Exemption 6 exempts from disclosure information in personnel or medical files and similar files the release of which would cause a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. This requires a balancing of the public's right to disclosure against the individual's right to privacy. The privacy interests of the individuals in the records you have requested outweigh any minimal public interest in disclosure of the information. Any private interest you may have in that information does not factor into the aforementioned balancing test.

FOIA Exemption 7(C) protects records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes when production of such could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. This exemption takes particular note of the strong interests of individuals, whether they are suspects, witnesses, or investigators, in not being unwarrantably associated with alleged criminal activity. That interest extends to persons who are not only the subjects of the investigation, but those who may have their privacy invaded by having their identities and information about them revealed in connection with an investigation. Based upon the traditional recognition of strong privacy interests in law enforcement records, categorical withholding of information that identifies third parties in law enforcement records is ordinarily appropriate.

ICE has applied FOIA Exemption 7(E) to protect from disclosure internal agency law enforcement case numbers contained within the document, internal codes used to identify folders in an internal ICE task management system, law enforcement database category codes, and law enforcement techniques.

FOIA Exemption 7(E) protects records compiled for law enforcement purposes, the release of which would disclose techniques and/or procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law. The disclosure of certain law enforcement sensitive information contained within the responsive records could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law. Additionally, the techniques and procedures at issue are not well known to the public.

If you have any questions about this letter, please contact Kirti Reddy, Assistant U.S. Attorney, at (212) 637-2751 or kirti.reddy@usdoj.gov.

Sincerely,

Fernando Pineiro Jr.
(A)FOIA Officer

Yes. I told Domestic Ops UC's to prep Buffalo and SFR for an ask (b)(6); (b)(7)(C) said (b)(7)(E) and (b)(7)(E) will make it work.

We'll let the offices know tomorrow.

Attached is the Quality of Medical Care (QMC) Tool that was built by (b)(6); (b)(7)(C) team to assess quality of care. We are now using this during all of our site visits/inspections. Please feel free to use this tool at your facilities. Be advised that there will likely be additions as this tool matures. We will forward improved versions as they roll out.

I've cc'ed (b)(6); (b)(7)(C) who is the Deputy Assistant Director for Healthcare Compliance at ICE Health Service Corps. He will lead the IHSC team next week (Tuesday through Thursday) during the Adelanto site visit. I've advised (b)(6); (b)(7)(C) to communicate directly with you (cc me) on any issues prior to the visit.

The team is looking forward to meeting you and your team (to include your CMO (b)(6); (b)(7)(C)) next week to partner with you on increasing the quality of care at Adelanto, thereby raising compliance and enhancing patient safety.

As I mentioned on our call, once the Aurora Mortality Review is cleared by our legal office, I'll forward to you. Looking forward to receiving your report on Aurora, as well.

(b)(6);
(b)(7)(C) my team and I look forward to forging a very productive relationship with you as we move ahead.

Cheers - (b)(6);

Good Afternoon;

We have a 2 year old female being airlifted to Methodist Children's Hospital from Otto Kaiser Memorial Hospital due to respiratory distress from RSV. The child was diagnosed with RSV on Friday and sent to OKMH for treatment and released back to the facility. She was monitored in SSU throughout the weekend, and then began to have respiratory distress today. She was sent back to OKMH where she was ordered to be sent to Methodist Children's Hospital via Airline. I will send you more information and the updated synopsis when it is available. Thank You
