SUBJECT: OIG Freedom of Information Act Request No. 2019-111

Dear Ms. Sloan:

This is an interim response to your Freedom of Information Act Request dated September 30, 2019 addressed to the Department of State (DOS) Office of Inspector General (OIG) seeking "all email communications (email messages, email attachments, calendar invitations, and attachments thereto) sent or received by Inspector General Steve Linick regarding any potential or submitted whistleblower complaints involving allegations that concern the conduct of Secretary Mike Pompeo."

Your request was received in this office on October 3, 2019. Your requests were given the FOIA Case number of 2019-111.

FOIA 2019-111:

In response to this request we conducted a search/searches of the OIG's Office(s) of Investigations, Evaluation and Special Projects Office of Investigations, Office of General Counsel, and the Front Office (which DOJ counsel has previously explained to you is an unclassified email account). We processed 503 potentially responsive records and identified no additional records responsive to your request.

Appeal

FOR REQUESTS IN LITIGATION:

Although I am aware that your request is the subject of ongoing litigation and appeals are not ordinarily acted on in such situations, I am required by statute and regulation to inform you of your right to file an administrative appeal.¹ If you choose to file an administrative appeal it must be received within 90 days of the date of this response. Please address any appeal to:

¹ For your information, Congress excluded three discrete categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIA. 5 U.S.C. 552(c) (2006 & Supp. IV 2010). This response is limited to those records
