Subject: Clearance for Executive Summary for National Resilience Plan
Date: Wednesday, January 09, 2019 9:56:00 AM
Attachments: Improving Energy Resilience in Ukraine.Executive Summary.docx

Dear All:

First, a very Happy New Year to everyone.

As you may know, DOE has been working with the EC and Canadian colleagues to develop a national energy resilience plan. The lab team was in country in late October 2018 and delivered to us the final draft of the report in late December 2018. We will be sending this draft to you in the next day or so for your review before we finalize and deliver to the GOU. Given the length and complexity of the report, we will certainly give everyone a sufficient time to review and provide comments.

As you also know, the Secretary visited Kyiv in November 2018 and launched the U.S.-Ukraine Strategic Energy Dialogue. Recently we received a letter from Foreign Minister Klimkin which outlined areas of interest from the Ukrainian side for this cooperation in the energy sector. Deputy Assistant Secretary Lockwood will have a coordination call with Deputy Minister Zerkal this week, and we would like to share the executive summary of the report with her.

I am attaching here the Executive Summary of the Report, and would like to ask for your review and comments by Thursday January 10 at 3pm. I am sorry for the short turn-around here (it is only 4-5 pages) but we would like to share this with Deputy Minister Zerkal before our coordination call.

Thank you very much, and we look forward to working with you to finalize the main report. Best regards, -Paul

Dear All:

As discussed by Ambassador Yovanovitch and our DAS Andrea Lockwood, we would like to send to you the current draft of the National Energy Resilience Plan which was drafted by the international team and laboratory experts. We know that it is quite long and complex. Ambassador Yovanovitch indicated that she would confer with embassy staff and give us a timeframe for review, but we are hoping that this could be done within the next two weeks. Please do not hesitate to reach out to me with any questions or comments. Thank you very much for your help with this project.
