Sent via email: foia@americanoversight.org

Dear Ms. Lewis:

This letter responds to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated January 11, 2021. Your matter is now in litigation in American Oversight v. DOD, et al., 21-cv-624 (D.D.C.).

Your January 11, 2021, FOIA request is for all responsive records from December 31, 2020, through January 7, 2021:

1. All communications (including emails, email attachments, complete email chains, text messages (or messages on similar applications such as Signal or WhatsApp) and calendar invitations) sent or received by the officials listed below regarding events at the U.S. Capitol, U.S. National Mall, or surrounding grounds in Washington D.C. on January 6, 2021, including but not limited to the potential or actual deployment of law enforcement officers and/or National Guard troops, requests for assistance from members of Congress or Congressional staff, protests or armed activity at the Capitol, President Trump's rally, or concerns about security.

2. All orders, directives, protocols, or guidance prepared, written, approved, or signed by the officials listed below, regarding events at the U.S. Capitol, U.S. National Mall, or surrounding grounds in Washington D.C. on January 6, 2021, including but not limited to the potential or actual deployment of law enforcement officers and/or National Guard troops, requests for assistance from members of Congress or Congressional staff, protests or armed activity at the Capitol, President Trump's rally, or concerns about security. Our search yielded the attached responsive records.

Our search yielded the attached responsive records. These records are part of a continuous rolling release over the course of the litigation. This release consists of 47 pages. We have redacted material under Exemptions (b)(5), (b)(6), and (b)(7)(E).

Exemption 5 of the FOIA 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5)

Exemption 5 protects "inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency." 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5). Courts have interpreted Exemption 5 to encompass the privileges recognized by statute or case law in the civil discovery context. See U.S. v. Weber Aircraft Corp., 465 U.S. 792, 800 (1984); FTC v. Grolier Inc., 462 U.S. 19, 26 (1983) at 26, NLRB v. Sears, Roebuck & Co., 421 U.S. 132, 149 (1975). In this case, the applicable privilege that serve as bases for citing Exemption 5 is the Deliberative Process Privilege and Attorney-Client Privilege.

Deliberative Process Privilege

Exemption 5 of the FOIA which protects from disclosure “interagency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party. . . in litigation with the agency”: 5 U.S.C. Section 552(b)(5)(1994). Exemption 5 includes the “Deliberative Process Privilege,” which protects from release agency records that disclose the agency’s decision-making process. NLRB V. Sears, Roebuck & Co., 421 U.S. 132, 95 S.Ct. 1504, 44 LEd.2d. 29 (1975) and Jordan v. Department of Justice, 591 F2d 75.3 (D.C. Cir. 1978) (en banc). In this case, the document you requested contains specific recommendations and frank opinions. As such, it forms part of the “give-and-take” between agency officials involved in the decision-making process. These recommendations and opinions do not necessarily represent the views of the Department of the Army. Release of such pre-decisional and deliberative exchanges would chill the open communication between Federal employees as they would fear that their developing thoughts and opinions would be shared with the public. Accordingly, this information is exempt from release under the deliberative process privilege of exemption (b)(5) of the FOIA.

Attorney-Client Privilege

The attorney-client privilege protects “confidential communications between an attorney and his client relating to a legal matter for which the client has sought professional advice.” Mead Data Central, Inc. v. Dept. of the Air Force, 566 F.2d 242, 252 (D.C. Cir. 1977). Additionally, the privilege protects communications containing purely factual information divulged by a client to the attorney and any opinions given by an attorney to his client based upon those facts.” Electronic Privacy Info. Ctr., v. Dept. of Homeland Security, 384 F. Supp. 2d 100, 114 (D.D.C. 2005).

Exemption 6 of the FOIA 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6)

Exemption (b)(6) of the FOIA protects from mandatory disclosure “personnel and medical files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of privacy.” 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) (2011). To qualify for protection under Exemption (b)(6), records must meet two criteria: (1) they must be “personnel and medical files and similar files,” (2) the disclosure of which “would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.” Id.; United States Dep’t of State v. Washington Post Co., 456 U.S. 595, 599-603 (1982). The first prong is met if the information “appl[ies] to a particular individual” and is “personal” in nature. New York Times Co. v. NASA, 852

F.2d 602, 606 (D.C. Cir. 1988). The second prong requires courts to strike a “balance between the protection of an individual’s right to privacy and the preservation of the public’s right to government information.” United States Dep’t of State v. Washington Post Co., 456 U.S. 595, 599 (1982). The “public interest” in the analysis is limited to the “core purpose” for which Congress enacted the FOIA: to “shed . . . light on an agency’s performance of its statutory duties.” United States Dep’t of Justice v. Reporters Comm. for Freedom of the Press, 489 U.S. 749, 773 (1989).

We are withholding telephone numbers and other contact information for all Army personnel (e.g., e-mail addresses, telephone-line numbers) and third-party information under Exemption 6. 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6). See Judicial Watch, Inc. v. United States, No. 03-1160, 2004 WL 26736, at *4 (4th Cir. Jan. 6, 2004). Under the Exemption (b)(6) balancing test, the Supreme Court held in a similar case that disclosure of employee addresses “would not appreciably further the citizens’ right to be informed about what their Government is up to and, indeed, would reveal little or nothing about the employing agencies or their activities.” United States Dep’t of Defense v. Fed. Labor Relations Auth., 510 U.S. 487 (1994). The same is true here regarding telephone numbers. Disclosure of the names, contact, and personal information of government employees would contribute little to the public’s understanding of government activities. By contrast, such disclosure would constitute a “non-trivial” and “not insubstantial” invasion of government employees’ privacy interests. Id. at 500, 501.

Exemption 7 of the FOIA 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)7(E)

Exemption (b)7(E) of the FOIA protects from mandatory disclosure law enforcement records and affords protection to all law enforcement information that “would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law.” 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7)(E).

If you have any questions regarding this letter or the information furnished, please contact Lee Reeves at (202) 616-0773 or Lee.Reeves2@usdoj.gov.

Attached is a draft letter (word document) that the SA would like to sign and send to the SEC DEF tomorrow. Request that you have your team put it in SA format and tweak as required for his style.

The SA would also like to meet with the A/SD in person tomorrow at 0900 (with the CSA). He told me it was re-scheduled as a phone call. I will engage but would like you to engage as well.

Attached is a draft letter (word document) that the SA would like to sign and send to the SEC DEF tomorrow. Request that you have your team put it in SA format and tweak as required for his style.

The SA would also like to meet with the A/SD in person tomorrow at 0900 (with the CSA). He told me it was re-scheduled as a phone call. I will engage but would like you to engage as well.

BG LaNeve,

Please add as required.

Thanks

Subject: DCNG 5-6 January 2021 Support and Contingency Plan

CLASSIFICATION: UNCLASSIFIED

The Honorable Ryan D. McCarthy,
Secretary of the Army
The Pentagon, Washington, D.C.

Mr. Secretary,

Sir, this afternoon I received a call from Dr. Chris Rodriquez, Director of the District of Columbia Homeland and Security Management Agency (HSEMA) requesting DCNG support on 5 and 6 January 2021 to assist the MPD and Fire and Emergency Medical Services (FEMS). Mr. Secretary we have yet to receive a formal request for assistance, however our MPD liaison advises the request will be for the DCNG to augment 30 Traffic Control Points and six Metro Stations. Sir, FEMS is going to request the 33rd Civil Support Team assist them.

Sir, we anticipate B5 DCNG Guardsmen will be required to assist the District on both days with two 12 hour shifts. Mr. Secretary, the attached slides outline the plan to support the two District agencies upon receipt of a formal request and your approval.

Mr. Secretary, we remain in continuous communication with Federal and District Government law enforcement authorities and as of 1700 hours this evening, no Federal requests for assistance have been made, and with the possible exception of the U.S. Secret Service, none are anticipated. Sir, the Secret Service will let us know by Monday if they will request our support.

Mr. Secretary, I am standing by to answer any questions. Sir, I will provide additional details and any updates as they become available. Happy New Year Sir.

Most respectfully,

MG Walker
