Name: Kenneth Nunn 2020 - Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLPDisclosure Type: Legal ConsultingStatus: Review Complete

University of Florida faculty and staff are required to disclose certain outside activities and financial interests. Activities to be disclosed for review and prior approval include paid or unpaid professional activities (e.g., a consulting relationship with a private company) that you are not doing as part of your UF role and/or job description. Financial interests in entities doing business with UF (buying goods or services, selling goods or services, sponsoring your research, licensing your technology) or competing with UF (research or teaching, for example) must be disclosed. Disclosure of these kinds of activities and/or interests provides the opportunity for discussion and review by appropriate UF officials and the management or elimination of potential conflicts of interest. UF has created a list of examples to provide further clarification.

Please answer the following questions to determine whether you have an activity and/or interest to disclose:

- 1. * Do you or your spouse, child or relative have a management position (e.g., officer, director, partner, proprietor), or a material financial interest (more than 5% ownership interest) in an outside entity that enters into agreements or contracts with UF (e.g., service agreements, leases, sales agreements) or does business with UF in any capacity?

Yes

No
- 2. * Do you or your spouse or dependent child have a financial interest of $5,000 or more in a publicly traded entity where the financial interest reasonably appears to be related to your institutional responsibilities? "Financial interest" consists of the aggregate value of any remuneration received from the entity and any equity/ownership interest (including stock, stock option, or other ownership interest) in the entity as of the date of disclosure. [Note: Remuneration includes any payment or compensation for services received from the entity in the twelve months preceding the disclosure. Do not include income or any equity/ownership interest from independently managed investment vehicles like mutual funds or retirement accounts.]

Yes

No
- 3. * Do you or your spouse or dependent child receive remuneration of $5,000 or more from or have ANY equity/ownership interest (including stock, stock option, or other ownership interest) in a non-publicly traded entity where the financial interest reasonably appears to be related to your institutional responsibilities? [Note: Remuneration includes any income or payment for services received from the entity in the twelve months preceding the disclosure.]

Yes

No
- 4. * Are you a candidate for public office or do you hold public office?

Yes

No
- 5. * Do you have or are you seeking approval to hold a teaching appointment with any entity other than UF?

- Yes
 No

6. * Do you conduct or are you seeking approval to conduct any research at, or receive any research funding from or through, any entity other than UF? [Note: Research conducted at outside entities as part of a UF sponsored project or research funding received by UF does not need to be disclosed.]

- Yes
 No

7. * Do you require or are you seeking approval to require students to purchase works used in your classroom you or your spouse created, authored or co-authored (e.g., textbook(s), computer software, electronic or digital media) and for which you or your spouse will receive, or anticipate receiving payment, loan, subscription, advance, deposit of money, service, or anything of value?

- Yes
 No

8. * Do you receive royalties, licensing fees or any income of $5,000 or more from intellectual property rights and interests (e.g., patents, copyrights) related to your UF expertise from any entity other than UF?

- Yes
 No

9. * Do you serve or are you seeking approval to serve as an expert witness or engage in consulting in a legal matter such as a lawsuit or a potential lawsuit?

- Yes
 No

10. * Do you provide or are you seeking approval to provide paid or unpaid professional services related to your UF expertise to an outside entity?

- Yes
 No

11. * Do you have a paid or unpaid senior management, administrative, or leadership role related to your UF expertise with an outside entity where you make executive business or financial decisions on behalf of the outside entity?

- Yes
 No

Also, include any additional information that helps clarify this disclosure:

It will not put me in a position adverse to the interests of the University of Florida. I simply wish to sign on to an amicus brief, as one of more than 100 professors of law, to express an opinion about the proper interpretation of the law in regards to not infringing on the voting rights of ex-felons as provided by citizen initiative in the State of Florida. I understand that I may not participate in my capacity as an employee of the University of Florida or on behalf of the Levin College of Law or the University of Florida. I will ensure that the amicus brief clearly indicates that any law school or university affiliation is included for identification purposes only.

View: SF: What to disclose

University of Florida faculty and staff are required to disclose certain outside activities and financial interests. Activities to be disclosed for review and prior approval include paid or unpaid professional activities (e.g., a consulting relationship with a private company) that you are not doing as part of your UF role and/or job description. Financial interests in entities doing business with UF (buying goods or services, selling goods or services, sponsoring your research, licensing your technology) or competing with UF (research or teaching, for example) must be disclosed. Disclosure of these kinds of activities and/or interests provides the opportunity for discussion and review by appropriate UF officials and the management or elimination of potential conflicts of interest. UF has created a list of examples to provide further clarification.

Please answer the following questions to determine whether you have an activity and/or interest to disclose:

- 1. * Do you or your spouse, child or relative have a management position (e.g., officer, director, partner, proprietor), or a material financial interest (more than 5% ownership interest) in an outside entity that enters into agreements or contracts with UF (e.g., service agreements, leases, sales agreements) or does business with UF in any capacity?
 Yes
 No

- 2. * Do you or your spouse or dependent child have a financial interest of $5,000 or more in a publicly traded entity where the financial interest reasonably appears to be related to your institutional responsibilities? "Financial interest" consists of the aggregate value of any remuneration received from the entity and any equity/ownership interest (including stock, stock option, or other ownership interest) in the entity as of the date of disclosure. [Note: Remuneration includes any payment or compensation for services received from the entity in the twelve months preceding the disclosure. Do not include income or any equity/ownership interest from independently managed investment vehicles like mutual funds or retirement accounts.]
 Yes
 No

- 3. * Do you or your spouse or dependent child receive remuneration of $5,000 or more from or have ANY equity/ownership interest (including stock, stock option, or other ownership interest) in a non-publicly traded entity where the financial interest reasonably appears to be related to your institutional responsibilities? [Note: Remuneration includes any income or payment for services received from the entity in the twelve months preceding the disclosure.]
 Yes
 No

- 4. * Are you a candidate for public office or do you hold public office?
 Yes
 No

- 5. * Do you have or are you seeking approval to hold a teaching appointment with any entity other than UF?
 Yes
 No

6. * Do you conduct or are you seeking approval to conduct any research at, or receive any research funding from or through, any entity other than UF? [Note: Research conducted at outside entities as part of a UF sponsored project or research funding received by UF does not need to be disclosed.]
- Yes
 No
7. * Do you require or are you seeking approval to require students to purchase works used in your classroom you or your spouse created, authored or co-authored (e.g., textbook(s), computer software, electronic or digital media) and for which you or your spouse will receive, or anticipate receiving payment, loan, subscription, advance, deposit of money, service, or anything of value?
- Yes
 No
8. * Do you receive royalties, licensing fees or any income of $5,000 or more from intellectual property rights and interests (e.g., patents, copyrights) related to your UF expertise from any entity other than UF?
- Yes
 No
9. * Do you serve or are you seeking approval to serve as an expert witness or engage in consulting in a legal matter such as a lawsuit or a potential lawsuit?
- Yes
 No
10. * Do you provide or are you seeking approval to provide paid or unpaid professional services related to your UF expertise to an outside entity?
- Yes
 No
11. * Do you have a paid or unpaid senior management, administrative, or leadership role related to your UF expertise with an outside entity where you make executive business or financial decisions on behalf of the outside entity?
- Yes
 No

I was asked by Perkins Coie & Demos counsel to shift my expert work from Perkins Coie to Demos in a consolidated lawsuit in Florida; in Texas, I've been retained by Perkins Coie

Both of these cases, in FL and in TX, pertain to expanding the opportunities for voters to cast vote-by-mail ballots in light of health concerns resulting from COVID-19.

I have been retained for this litigation as a direct result of my scholarship on this topic. Below are some recent & relevant articles on the topic:

I seek to join an amicus brief on behalf of law professors with expertise in constitutional law, voting rights law, civil rights law, or criminal procedure in the Jones v. DeSantis case. This is the consolidated case in which the district court allowed former Florida felons to vote under the policy established by constitutional initiative (Amendment 4). The ruling is on appeal to the 11th Circuit.

The brief I would like to sign will be in support of Judge Hinkle's order ruling that the state statute restricting the registration of ex-felons was unconstitutional. The order opens the door for ex-felons to register in accordance with a constitutional amendment passed by Florida voters in 2018. The brief is being drafted pro bono by lawyers from Boies Schiller Flexner and Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman, together with the Boies Public Law Institute. I do not think this activity could in any way place me in a position that is adverse to the interests of the University of Florida.

I approve this activity so long as you participate solely in your individual capacity. You may not participate in your capacity as an employee of the University of Florida or on behalf of the Levin College of Law or the University of Florida. Please ensure that the amicus brief clearly indicates that any law school or university affiliation is included for identification purposes only. Because you are a 12-month employee, please also ensure that all work on the amicus brief is done on your personal time and that you do not use any university equipment in relation to your participation.
