RE: OOG PIR # 660-21

Dear Ms. Wishingrad,

This email is in response to your public information request to the Office of the Governor (“OOG”), received by the OOG on November 23, 2021. A copy of your request is attached to this email.

The OOG has reviewed its files and has located information responsive to your request, some of which is attached. The information at issue contains access device numbers subject to section 552.136 of the Government Code. The OOG may redact such information without requesting a ruling from the Office of the Attorney General. The OOG has also redacted personal e-mail addresses from the attached documents pursuant to section 552.137 of the Government Code and Tex. Att’y Gen. Open Records Decision No. 684 (2009).

The OOG asserts the remaining responsive information may be excepted from required disclosure under the Public Information Act. The OOG has requested a ruling from the Open Records Division of the Office of the Attorney General pursuant to section 552.301 of the Government Code. A copy of the OOG’s arguments submitted to the Open Records Division is attached.

If you have any questions, please contact me at publicrecords@gov.texas.gov.

Thank you,

Open Records
Office of Governor Greg Abbott

How to appeal the withholding of information under Gov't Code section 552.136

If you wish to appeal the withholding of information discussed on the previous page, you must send the following to the attorney general:

- 1) a signed, written statement indicating your wish to appeal the withholding of information;
- 2) the name of the governmental body that withheld information from you;
- 3) the date you made your original request for information; and
- 4) a copy of your original request for information, or if you are unable to provide a copy, a description of your original request for information.

You may also submit written comments stating why you think the information should be released to you, but you are not required to do so.

Send your appeal by mail to the attorney general at:

Open Records Division
P.O. Box 12548
Austin, Texas 78711-2548

Within forty-five business days after receiving all of the above-listed items necessary to file your appeal, the attorney general will issue a written ruling on the matter. You will receive a copy of this ruling in the mail.
