Dear Bill,

As we near the 50-days out mark for Annual Meeting, we are seeing record numbers for registration. As a valued member of our Board of Directors, I wanted to let you know where Ohio currently stands in terms of registered Legislative members as compared to years past and ask you to set a "reach goal" of 20 for Ohio!

- 2018: 18
- 2019: 16
- 2020: 10
- 2021: 8

One additional enticing draw for the Ohio legislative delegation is our Legislative and Committee Staff Workshop track that we will be hosting at this year's meeting. The Legislative and Committee Staff Workshop will feature presentations by ALEC and ACCE experts on major policy topics across the states and a discussion about how ALEC and ACCE can be resources and platforms for staff members. Please see the attached brochure to find more information about this program (and the discounted legislative staff rate!) and you can click here to register or share with your staff.

Also, please remember to RSVP for the Board Meeting and Annual Meeting by submitting your information to the Board Specific RSVP Link here. Elizabeth will take care of your registration and hotel reservation once your information is submitted. As a member of the Board, ALEC will cover your meeting registration cost, a hotel room for 4 nights and travel up to $500. As a reminder, the Board meeting will begin at 8:45am MT on Tuesday, July 27th and the Annual Meeting will run from July 28th – July 30th. You can find the current meeting agenda here.

With thanks,

Lisa

Dear Vivek:

It was great to meet you last month at the Center Right Coalition meeting at which we both spoke. My partner, Alex Triantafilou, has sung your praises for quite some time and I certainly concur with his opinion. I greatly enjoyed your piece in the Woke Capitalism issue of National Review (to which I have faithfully subscribed for over 40 years).

Please accept this missive as an email introduction to Lisa Nelson, who is the Chief Executive Officer of the American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC). As I mentioned when we met, ALEC is the premier organization to which state legislators belong in partnership with private sector members to advance the principles of free markets, limited government, and federalism. Scores of U.S. congressmen, and dozens of U.S. senators and governors, are among ALEC alumni and I have served on its national board of directors for at least a decade. Lisa is a close confidante of Newt Gingrich, for whom she once worked, and had an impressive background in private sector/public company government affairs before taking the helm at ALEC. Truly, ALEC is the intellectual engine of the conservative movement at the state government level, and approximately 2,000 serving state legislators are among its dues-paying members.

She would very much like to meet you and I hope this email serves to make that connection. ALEC's summer convention is right around the corner, from July 28-July 30, in Salt Lake City. I know it's short notice, but Lisa asked me to invite you to the Wednesday, July 28 Executives Roundtable featuring Art Laffer and Stephen Moore, and to the opening plenary luncheon that day to hear Governor DiSantis. Her cell phone number is 202-573-1334 and she would welcome your call.

Someone of your considerable talent, energy, intellect, and enthusiasm would find ALEC a great connection to make.

Finally, I look forward to your keynote address for our Hamilton County GOP Lincoln-Reagan Day Dinner – that's right around the corner, too. Best personal regards,

William J. Seitz
