No direct arrows in Yakima that I know of, Kennewick maybe, but of course, we survived. I am TRULY SAD and SORRY I missed prayer. Sat down on couch, fell asleep, got behind, was going to make it there late, but then when ready to walk out the door Kim wasn't ready to go yet. Should have left without her but chose not to. My sincere apologies to EVERYONE! Thank You all for praying and for your prayers! Praying, Brad Klippert

Great job last night. Sorry if I did not characterize the event, well. It was my first time there, too. ... but I wouldn't have changed a thing.

Obviously, we need to consider more funding avenues, but it think not asking for money last night, went a lot farther than asking for it. I do think the more people see you, the better the end result will be.

Thanks again for coming

Just an FYI there is a Grandview city council mtg tonight 6pm to discuss vax mandate on gview police. Word is that 9 officers are not vaxxed and would walk. We are trying to organize a mass show of community for the mtg to stop this. One councilman is pushing on the others to make this mandate. We are all planning on parking behind Hugo's appliance repair across from fire station and going in together without masks. Opportunity to speak, sign in when you show up. We are asking for a kind and respectful turnout with firm resolve. Speak to the point and Brad, last night Kim mentioned that you signed some sort of appropriation bill or document stating you were in favor of a WA audit of the 2020 election.

Would you be able to give more details so Joe could right something up for a Social Media release. Thank you!

JC

Correct, asked staff in Olympia to draft language for a Washington State Budget Proviso to fund a forensic audit by an independent organization to look deeply into the 2020 elections.
