Hi Briana,

I hope you've had a great week! I wanted to touch base with you to see if we are still on for tomorrow's interview.

A bit of news on our end – this week, the governor launched a campaign called Come Home Montana, designed to help get Montana's economy going again and Montanans back to work in good-paying jobs. For decades, young Montanans have left the state to pursue better jobs for better pay in other states. This campaign is designed to bring these Montanans back to the Treasure State to work remotely, start a business, or take advantage of job opportunities across industries.

The governor would be happy to discuss this with Mr. Cavuto.

Best,
Brooke

Hi Brianna,

Thanks for reaching out! The governor always enjoys talking to Neil, however, unfortunately, he is on the road and can't swing today. He'll also be on the road travelling the state for most of next week, but would love to come on next Friday. We'll have some exciting news to share by then and think it'd make for a great segment.

CC'ing our Press Sec Brooke Stroyke, who will run point on this. Please reach out to either of us with any questions.

Thanks again,
Jack

Hi Jack,

I hope you're well. I wanted to reach out to see if Governor Gianforte would be available to join Neil Cavuto's show on Fox News today at around 2:05pm MT/4:05pm ET. We're interested in discussing ending extended federal unemployment benefits in Montana as we get the numbers for May's jobs report.

Thank you,
