Dear Taylor Stoneman:

This letter will serve to respond to your public records request for the following public records:

“1. Records sufficient to identify the names 1, job titles, and Attorney General’s Office divisions (e.g., Administrative Law Bureau, Complex Litigation Bureau, or Office of Statewide Prosecution) of each employee temporarily or permanently assigned to cases prosecuted in part or whole under Florida Statutes Chapter 104 (Election Code: Violations; Penalties) (‘Fla. Stat. Chapter 104’).

For request item 1, please provide all responsive records for each month spanning January 2019 through January 2022 (i.e., January 2019, February 2019, March 2019, April 2019, May 2019 [...] October 2021, November 2021, December 2021, and January 2022).

[2] Records sufficient to identify (a) the total number of pending cases prosecuted in part or whole under Fla. Stat. Chapter 104; (a) the Attorney General’s Office division (e.g., Administrative Law Bureau, Complex Litigation Bureau, or Office of Statewide Prosecution) handling each case; and (c) the current disposition of each case.

For request item 2, please provide all responsive records for each month spanning January 2019 through January 2022 (i.e., January 2019, February 2019, March 2019, April 2019, May 2019 [...] October 2021, November 2021, December 2021, and January 2022).

[3] Records sufficient to identify (a) the total number of resolved cases (including, but not limited to, cases resulting in a finding of guilt or liability, cases resolved by plea or stipulation, or dismissed cases) prosecuted in part or whole under Fla. Stat. Chapter 104; (b) the Attorney General ’s Office division (e.g., Administrative Law Bureau, Complex Litigation Bureau, or Office of Statewide Prosecution) handling each case; and (c) the final disposition of each case, regardless of the outcome.

For request item 3, please provide all responsive records for each month spanning January 2019 through January 2022 (i.e., January 2019, February 2019, March 2019, April 2019, May 2019 [...] October 2021, November 2021, December 2021, and January 2022).

[4] Records sufficient to identify all costs and expenses incurred in connection with any pending or resolved cases prosecuted in part or whole under Fla. Stat. Chapter 104.

For request item 4, please provide all responsive records reflecting the described costs and expenses for fiscal years 2019, 2020, 2021, and 2022.

[5] Records sufficient to identify all Attorney General ’s Office staff hours, across all programs, units, bureaus, and offices, logged in connection with any pending or resolved cases prosecuted in part or whole under Fla. Stat. Chapter 104.

For request item 5, please provide all responsive records reflecting the described staff hours for fiscal years 2019, 2020, 2021, and 2022.”

This office does not have any responsive documents to your specific requests.

Thank you for the opportunity to assist you in this matter. In the event that you have any additional questions, please feel free to contact me directly at (850) 414-3634.

Sincerely,

s/ Nicholas J. Weilhammer
