Thanks, Dan. We consent to your request for an expansion to 23 pages, and appreciated your opposition to our motion to expand our MTD.

As a result, we realistically will likely be seeking an expansion for our reply brief (although we will wait to see your brief), as well as to respond to the DOJ brief. Our consent is not conditioned on any reciprocity, but just flagging the probable issue for down the road.

Sincerely,
Drew

Subject: Mi Familia Vota v. Hobbs -- MTD opposition page extension

Counsel:

Plaintiffs intend to seek leave to file a 23-page brief in opposition to the Attorney General's motion to dismiss, which the Republican intervenors joined. That brief is due tomorrow, December 29. We are writing to seek your consent to that motion. As you know, we did not oppose your request for an extension of the page limit as to your opening brief.

Please let us know today if we can represent to the Court that you consent to the motion.

I hope everyone has had a nice holiday season.

Regards,

Dan
