Dear Ms. Stoneman:

This email responds to your public records request dated May 20, 2022, concerning email communications between certain Governor's Office employees listed in your letter and anyone communicating from an email address ending in "@supremecourt.gov."

In Montana, any person has the right to examine or obtain copies of public information from a public agency. The Governor's Office conducted a search of the employees' email accounts listed in your letter, using the above-referenced domain name. There are no communications that are responsive to your request. Fees are waived.

Your remaining public records requests are in process.

Sincerely,

Guylaine Gelin
