Boyne Falls, MI 49713

SUBJECT: Response to FOIA request dated August 8, 2022

Dear Mr. Hartman:

I have received your request for public records under the FOIA. Your request is granted in part and denied in part. I will now address the response to each of the requests in the order presented.

1. In response to Request 1, the request for that public record is hereby DENIED. That public record is exempt from disclosure pursuant to Section 13(1)(y) of the Freedom of Information Act, MCL 15.243(1)(y), because disclosure of that public record would pose a security risk to the confidentiality, integrity, or availability of the voter systems and electronic poll book. In addition, Lori A. Bourbonais, Director of the Election Administration Division, Michigan Bureau of Elections has provided instructions that the information sought in Request 1 cannot be shared for the reason stated above. Section 931(1)(h) of the Michigan Election Law, MCL 168.931(1)(h), provides that it is a criminal misdemeanor for a person to wilfully "disobey a lawful instruction or order of the secretary of state as chief state election officer."

2. In response to Request 2, the request for that public record is hereby DENIED. That public record is exempt from disclosure pursuant to Section 13(1)(y) of the Freedom of Information Act, MCL 15.243(1)(y), because disclosure of that public record would pose a security risk to the confidentiality, integrity, or availability of the voter systems and electronic poll book. In addition, Lori A. Bourbonais, Director of the Election Administration Division, Michigan Bureau of Elections has provided instructions that the information sought in Request 2 cannot be shared for the reason stated above. Section 931(1)(h) of the Michigan Election Law, MCL 168.931(1)(h), provides that it is a criminal misdemeanor for a person to wilfully "disobey a lawful instruction or order of the secretary of state as chief state election officer."

3. In response to Request 3, the request for that public record is hereby DENIED. That public record is exempt from disclosure pursuant to Section 13(1)(y) of the Freedom of Information Act, MCL 15.243(1)(y), because disclosure of that public record would pose a security risk to the confidentiality, integrity, or availability of the voter systems and electronic poll book. In addition, Lori A. Bourbonais, Director of the Election Administration Division, Michigan Bureau of Elections has provided instructions that the information sought in Request 3 cannot be shared for the reason stated above. Section 931(1)(h) of the Michigan Election Law, MCL 168.931(1)(h), provides that it is a criminal misdemeanor for a person to wilfully "disobey a lawful instruction or order of the secretary of state as chief state election officer."

4. In response to Request 4, the request for that public record is hereby DENIED. That public record is exempt from disclosure pursuant to Section 13(1)(y) of the Freedom of Information Act, MCL 15.243(1)(y), because disclosure of that public record would pose a security risk to the confidentiality, integrity, or availability of the voter systems and electronic poll book. In addition, Lori A. Bourbonais, Director of the Election Administration Division, Michigan Bureau of Elections has provided instructions that the information sought in Request 4 cannot be shared for the reason stated above. Section 931(1)(h) of the Michigan Election Law, MCL 168.931(1)(h), provides that it is a criminal misdemeanor for a person to wilfully "disobey a lawful instruction or order of the secretary of state as chief state election officer."

5. In response to Request 5, the request for that public record is hereby GRANTED IN PART AND DENIED IN PART. The electronic copy of the public portion of the Qualified Voter File is being provided. The non-public portion of the Qualified Voter File is exempt from disclosure pursuant to Section 13(1)(d) of the Freedom of Information Act, MCL 15.243(1)(d) and Section 509gg(1) of the Michigan Election Law, MCL 168.509gg(1), which provides:

> The information described in this subsection that is contained in a registration record is exempt from disclosure under the freedom of information act, 1976 PA 442, MCL 15.231 to 15.246. The secretary of state, a designated voter registration agency, or a county, city, township, or village clerk shall not release a copy of that portion of a registration record that contains any of the following:
> (a) The record that a person declined to register to vote.
> (b) The office that received a registered voter's application.
> (c) A registered voter's driver's license or state personal identification card number.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

(d) The month and day of birth of a registered voter.

(e) The telephone number provided by a registered voter.

(f) The digitized signature of an elector that is captured or reproduced and transmitted to the qualified voter file by the secretary of state or a county, city, or township clerk under section 509hh or by the secretary of state under section 307 of the Michigan vehicle code, 1949 PA 300, MCL 257.307.

6. In response to Request 6, the request for that public record is hereby GRANTED, and the requested record is being provided.

7. In response to Request 7, the request for that public record is hereby GRANTED, and the requested record is being provided.

8. In response to Request 8, the request for that public record is hereby GRANTED, and the requested record is being provided.

9. In response to Request 9, the request for that public record is hereby GRANTED, and the requested record is being provided.

10. In response to Request 10, other than the public records provided in response to Requests 6-9 above, no other public record exists in response to the request.

Please be advised you have the following rights in this matter:

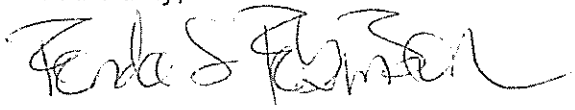

1. You may file a written appeal of my decision to the Charter Township of Long Lake Board. Your appeal must specifically state the word "appeal" and must identify the reason or reasons you believe my decision should be reversed. Any written appeal should be filed with me in my capacity as the township clerk. I will then submit your appeal to the township board, but will not vote as a member of the board on your appeal.

2. You may file a lawsuit in circuit court within 180 days after the final decision denying, in whole or in part, your request for public records. If the circuit court determines that the township has not complied with the FOIA and orders disclosure of all or a portion of the public record requested, then you have a right to receive in that lawsuit reasonable attorneys' fees, costs, and disbursements. If the circuit court determines that you or the township prevailed in part, then the court may, in its discretion, award all or an appropriate portion of reasonable attorneys' fees, costs, and disbursements. If the circuit court determines that the township has arbitrarily and capriciously violated the act by refusal or delay in disclosing or providing copies of a public record, the court shall order the township to pay a civil fine of $1,000.00, which shall be deposited into the general fund of the state treasury. Finally, if the circuit court determines that the township has arbitrarily and capriciously violated the act, the court shall award you, in addition to any actual or compensatory damages, punitive damages in the amount of $1,000.00.

Yours truly,

Ronda Robinson,
Township Clerk

(6) The following instructions for an applicant for an absent voter ballot shall be included with each application furnished an applicant:

INSTRUCTIONS FOR APPLICANTS FOR ABSENT VOTER BALLOTS

Step 1. After completely filling out the application, sign and date the application in the place designated. Your signature must appear on the application or you will not receive an absent voter ballot.

Step 2. Deliver the application by 1 of the following methods:

(a) Place the application in an envelope addressed to the appropriate clerk and place the necessary postage upon the return envelope and deposit it in the United States mail or with another public postal service, express mail service, parcel post service, or common carrier.

(b) Deliver the application personally to the clerk's office, to the clerk, or to an authorized assistant of the clerk.

(c) In either (a) or (b), a member of the immediate family of the voter including a father-in-law, mother-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, grandparent, or grandchild or a person residing in the voter's household may mail or deliver the application to the clerk for the applicant.

(d) If an applicant cannot return the application in any of the above methods, the applicant may select any registered elector to return the application. The person returning the application must sign and return the certificate at the bottom of the application.

(7) A person who prints and distributes absent voter ballot applications shall print on the application the warning, certificate of authorized registered elector returning absent voter ballot application, and instructions required by this section.

(8) A person who makes a false statement in an absent voter ballot application is guilty of a misdemeanor. A person who forges a signature on an absent voter ballot application is guilty of a felony. A person who is not authorized in this act and who both distributes absent voter ballot applications to absent voters and returns those absent voter ballot applications to a clerk or assistant of the clerk is guilty of a misdemeanor.

WARNING

You must be a United States citizen to vote. If you are not a United States citizen, you will not be issued an absent voter ballot.
A person making a false statement in this absent voter ballot application is guilty of a misdemeanor. It is a violation of Michigan election law for a person other than those listed in the instructions to return, offer to return, agree to return, or solicit to return your absent voter ballot application to the clerk. An assistant authorized by the clerk who receives absent voter ballot applications at a location other than the clerk's office must have credentials signed by the clerk. Ask to see his or her credentials before entrusting your application with a person claiming to have the clerk's authorization to return your application.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

(4) An applicant for an absent voter ballot shall sign the application. A clerk or assistant clerk shall not deliver an absent voter ballot to an applicant who does not sign the application. A person shall not be in possession of a signed absent voter ballot application except for the applicant; a member of the applicant's immediate family; a person residing in the applicant's household; a person whose job normally includes the handling of mail, but only during the course of his or her employment; a registered elector requested by the applicant to return the application; or a clerk, assistant of the clerk, or other authorized election official. A registered elector who is requested by the applicant to return his or her absent voter ballot application shall sign the certificate on the absent voter ballot application.

(5) The clerk of a city, township, or village shall have absent voter ballot application forms available in the clerk's office at all times and shall furnish an absent voter ballot application form to anyone upon a verbal or written request. The absent voter ballot application shall be in substantially the following form:

"Application for absent voter ballot for:

[ ] The primary or special primary election to be held on .....(Date).

[ ] The election to be held on .....(Date).

(Check applicable election or elections)

I, ... , a United States citizen and a qualified and registered elector of the ..... precinct of the township of ..... or village of ..... or of the ..... ward of the city of ..... , in the county of ..... and state of Michigan, apply for an official ballot, or ballots, to be voted by me at the election or elections as requested in this application.

The statutory grounds on which I base my request are:

[ ] I expect to be absent from the community in which I am registered for the entire time the polls are open on election day.

[ ] I am physically unable to attend the polls without the assistance of another.

[ ] I cannot attend the polls because of the tenets of my religion.

STATE OF MICHIGAN
JOCELYN BENSON, SECRETARY OF STATE DEPARTMENT OF STATE LANSING

Dear Registered Voter,

You have the right to vote by mail in every election. Voting by mail is easy, convenient, and secure. During the outbreak of COVID-19, it also enables you to stay home and stay safe while still making your voice heard in our elections.

There are two upcoming elections in Michigan this year: a statewide election in August and a national election in November. If you would like to vote by mail in these elections, you can request that your clerk mail your ballot directly to you by completing the enclosed form. After you have signed the form, you can submit it in any one of the following ways:

- Option 1 – Scan or take a photo of the form that clearly shows your signature, and email it to your clerk at the email address included on the bottom of your AV application.

  OR

- Option 2 – Mail or drop-off the form to your local clerk at the address included on the bottom of your AV application.

Go to www.Michigan.gov/Vote for more information about how to return your absent voter ballot application electronically.

Democracy is essential to the success of our nation, and your vote is the foundation of our democracy. Thank you for doing your part by being a registered voter, and making your voice heard.

Sincerely,

Jocelyn Benson
Michigan Secretary of State

Conclusion. Even if the SoS is soliciting people to vote, she is likely authorized under the statute and is only soliciting but isn't collecting and returning, so probably not prosecutable (unfortunately).

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

He has other similar stories from Barry County about people who have received these absentee ballot applications for voters that don't live at the house.

I think the value of Sheriff Leaf as a leader on election integrity efforts is twofold:

1.) Leaf and other sheriffs don't have the resources or ability to combat fraud on this massive level. They don't have the investigators, or personnel and even if they did, he says they don't have the funds for training them. As you know, training local investigators on how to find and build a case against white collar crime is difficult.

2.) Second, he's been sheriff for along time and has contacts everywhere. He could easily recruit people who have received these ballot applications, registered to other voters.

He brought up this other issue that got me wondering if the SoS is violating § 168.759's prohibition on absentee ballot-application-harvesting. I am including my analysis as I walked through this and chased down the relevant code sections, but I don't think there is anything here.

No violation of § 168.759

The sheriff wants to "charge the secretary of state", with illegal solicitation of absentee ballots. That is likely outside the scope of his authority. But can the SoS be treated as a sort-of absentee-ballot-application-harvester? No. (But that is not to say what she is doing isn't wrong and maybe illegal)

The letter. I'm attaching a picture of the letter that Benson sent to voters along with a cloudy picture of part of the ballot application. The letter says, "if you would like to vote by mail in these elections, you can request your ballot be sent directly to you". However, the ballot application invites voters to permanently sign up to vote. "Other Elections: Complete to join permanent absent voter application list. I want to vote in all elections ." We have already established that this is likely outside the scope of the SoS. But is there a chance this can be read as a solicitation of ballots?

Michigan Code § 168.759 discusses absentee ballots.

(4) states that no one can take signed absentee ballot applications except the enumerated people.

(5) highlights a statement that the person returning the ballot must state that returner did not "solicit or request to return the application".

(8) precludes absentee ballot application harvesting, stating that the same unauthorized person cannot both deliver and collect the ballot applications, making it a criminal offense!

MEMO

I spoke with Sheriff Dar Leaf of Barry County Michigan today.

He is definitely willing to meet with us this coming week. He is on fire and has a lot theories about who/why COVID was released, what the democrats plan to do, etc. He says that he knows other sheriffs that feel the same way.

Leaf also said he would pass my information along to Senator Ruth Johnson, who has been outspoken about the unilateral ballot application process.

I also left a voicemail for County Clerk/Register Lisa Posthumus Lyons (616-632-7590).

Dar Leaf.

Leaf states that his small county won't be able to investigate all of the election fraud that could happen as a results of these ballot applications being sent out. What I didn't anticipate is the scope of the fraud that is likely already happening.

He mentioned the fact that Michigan voters were sent 7.7 Million absentee ballots. There are 9.8 Million Michigan residents. Less than 1.4 Million Michigan voters voted in 2016.[1] Sheriff Leaf himself received an absentee ballot application for a gentleman that has not lived at the residence for 16 years, and has been dead for four years. An estimated 2.27 Michigan residents are children.[2]

- How many reports are you getting? A box up here, he gave a bunch to Ruth Johnson. They are doing an investigation.

- Prosecutor is a woman who lost previous election but is back. Total there for 10 years. Calls herself republican, but leans on CA Attorney's Association.

- She has suspended COVID.

- E-MAIL. Him info on NGB-Van & Governor Whitmire.

- What are the machines in Michigan for? SEND TO

- Can we open logs to see on election day what is going on?

- PHILL FASHION REQUEST FROM SHERIFF'S TO BE ABLE TO MONITOR COMPUTER LOGS. GET NATIONAL EXPERTS TO SIGN ON. Stark in Berkeley could sign off on. Harry Hursty?

Sheriff Leaf meeting 7/1/20

- Niagara Falls Underground Heritage Center; The PENN GAS Newsroom – some groups coming out about the sheriff
- Sheriff is concerned with investigating fraud. 31 officers in total for (60k residents).
- What is the work load right now? Sex cases, they work with SW enforcement team on drug issues. Meth, fentanyl. Lots of domestic cases. Any offer for anything from government offering to help? HE WOULD BE WILLING TO ASK.
- What does he see as the risk of fraud? SoS's funding came from outside.
- Looking for claim to stop. We think we have a good claim re:
- Sheriff's friend moved to S.C. 20 years ago, died 6 years ago. He gave it to the clerk. Some Voter Fraud….
- Penny W. (didn't catch name), Clerk in for the township of Hastings.

- Pam Palmer is the county clerk for Barry County. She is friendly but a democrat.

- But willing to draw up an affidavit.

- Sheriff says they aren't checking signatures like forensics, with loops and pen swirls. Don't know if they now have Parkinson's.

- Sheriff doesn't think they have access to software

- Would the sheriff be willing to go on record saying they don't have the resources to investigate election fraud? Yes.

- They don't have a handwriting analyst in house, and would have to hire someone.

I ut together a rough outline o my ro osed to do list or any oll challengers or candidate treated to a re-election walk thru o an AV Counting Board.

While my em hasis is u on technology con igurations, I would like to thank my riend Bob Cushman or his analysis o the MI Bureau o Election s Michigan Elections Manual which includes many unlaw ul rovisions which should be challenged.

I you are able to er orm this walk thru, lease make sure it is documented via video.

This is not as olished as I would like but ho e ully it will rovide some measure o guidance on what to look or during these walk-thrus rom a legal and a technology ers ective.

I nothing else, they will know that we are aying attention and erha s less likely to cheat☺

General Facility Observations

How many precincts?

How many Counting Boards?

How many tabulators?

How many adjudicators?

Provide precinct to Counting Board map

Provide counting board to tabulator map

Provide adjudicator to tabulator map

If no adjudicator to tabulator map is available, how will the batch-specific cast vote record be maintained?

Michigan Election Manual Assertions

ID	MICHIGAN ELECTION MANUAL REFERENCE	ISSUE	MICHIGAN COMPILED LAW	REMEDY REQUESTED
1	(Page 21) Challengers may not: "Speak with or interact with election inspectors who are not the challenger liaison or the challenger liaison's designee, unless given explicit permission by the challenger liaison or a member o the clerk's staff"	The MI SoS is citing restrictions upon poll challenger behavior not specified in statute. Poll challenger restrictions are explicitly stated in MCL 168.727(3). The restrictions cited by the MI SoS will inhibit the ability of poll challengers to execute their statutory oversight duties specified in MCL 168.733 and the documentation of their challenges by poll inspectors. The MI Bureau of Election restrictions upon the duties of Poll Challengers is in itself a violation of MCL 168.733 which invokes the penalties cited in MCL 168.742.	MCL 168.727 MCL 168.733 MCL 168.742	Limit restrictions upon Poll Challengers to those explicitly cited in MCL 168.727 by removing referenced provision, notify all election officials accordingly, require the posting of these changes at all poll locations and counting boards, and require the MI Auditor General to perform a book audit of the MI Bureau of Elections Manual ensuring compliance with Michigan Election Law prior to every release.
	(Page 21) "Make repeated impermissible challenges;"	Impermissible according to who? Poll inspectors making such assertions should be required to make their case before a judge. They are not given the sole authority to determine what constitutes impermissible challenges. Poll challengers have specific rights and responsibilities under MCL 168.733. In making such an assertion in the elections manual, the MI Bureau of Elections is subject to penalties cited in MCL 168.742.	MCL 168.733	Limit restrictions upon Poll Challengers to those explicitly cited in MCL 168.727 by removing referenced provision, notify all election officials accordingly, require the posting of these changes at all poll locations and counting boards, and require the MI Auditor General to perform a book audit of the MI Bureau of Elections Manual ensuring compliance with Michigan Election Law prior to every release.
	(Page 21) "Use a device to make video or audio recordings in a polling place, clerk's office, or absent voter ballot processing facility"	There are no such restrictions under current election law. Furthermore, such restrictions prevent effective documentation of challenges (MCL 168.733) and evidence of violations of law in support of court proceedings (MCL 24.272). In so doing, they constitute violations of MCL 168.733 and invoke the penalties in MCL 168.742.	MCL 168.733 MCL 168.742 MCL 24.272	Limit restrictions upon Poll Challengers to those explicitly cited in MCL 168.727 by removing referenced provision, notify all election officials accordingly, require the posting of these changes at all poll locations and counting boards, and require the MI Auditor General to perform a book audit of the MI Bureau of Elections Manual ensuring compliance with Michigan Election Law prior to every release.
	(Page 21) "If serving at an absent voter ballot processing facility, possess a mobile phone or any other device capable of sending or receiving information between the opening and closing of polls on Election Day."	There are no such restrictions under current election law. Prohibitions pertaining to the act of transmitting election results prior to closure of polls not the ability to do so. This is clearly designed to prevent effective documentation of challenges and evidence of violations of law in support of court proceedings. In so doing, they constitute violations of MCL 168.733 and invoke the penalties in MCL 168.742. DON'T (DISS) COUNT MICHIGAN!

A Critical Analysis of the November 2020 Michigan Election

Report 1: A Sample Canvass - The Michigan Legislature

April 19, 2022

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Acknowledgments:

Election Integrity Force would like to thank all of our valued volunteer county canvass teams for their commitment to excellence. Special recognition is given to one dedicated Livingston County volunteer for compiling the enclosed information and one dedicated Oakland County volunteer for exceptional data analysis

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Summary / Background:

A canvass can be defined as an examination, a survey or a poll. Hundreds of volunteers in Michigan have been canvassing their communities across the State to confirm whether the qualified voter file (QVF) – the official record of the Michigan election - was a true and accurate representation of the November 03, 2020 election.

While we are determined to share all of the results of our canvass/research project of the Qualified Vote File (QVF) with all of our Michigan citizens, we thought it best to start with a small, but highly relevant and somewhat disturbing sample report. We are and will always be dedicated to a geographically diverse sample. Our reporting sought to represent differing parties, however this was difficult to define in a State without party designation in its voter files. Finally, we demanded relevance.

After some deliberation, Election Integrity Force has chosen an analysis of the Michigan legislature's voting records for its first canvass report. Our review was conducted utilizing the 12/31/2020 Qualified Voter File (QVF). Our review was limited to the method a member voted in each of the last five (5) November elections (November of 2012 to November of 2020). The results follow:

The Legislative Branch:

Michigan's legislature consists of two chambers. The upper chamber, the Michigan Senate, has 38 seats – all occupied. The lower chamber, the Michigan House, has 110 seats. Four of the current House seats are vacant, therefore, our sample size is 144 which is all 38 occupied Senate seats and the 106 occupied House seats.

Lost/Disappeared Legislative Voters:

Three Michigan state level legislators – all Republicans – have no vote recorded in the 11/2020 election. We believe that it is highly unlikely (if not almost impossible) that these three individual legislators did not vote in this particularly pivotal election, so we have labeled their records as lost/disappeared votes. The individuals of note are from three (3) different counties suggesting disturbingly widespread lost/disappeared voter issues. These three lost/disappeared votes across the legislature represent 2.08 percent of the total legislature. See the table below for the lost legislative votes:

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Key: I = In person vote

A = Absentee vote

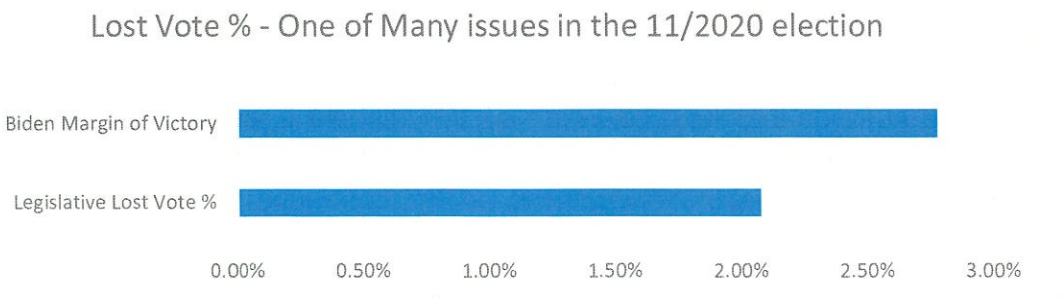

N = No recorded vote

Name	Party	Branch	District	County of Residence	Method Voted 11/2020	Method Voted 2018	Method Voted 2016	Method Voted 2014	Method Voted 2012
Aric Nesbitt	R	Senate	26	Van Buren	N	I	I	I	I
John Roth	R	House	104	Grand Traverse	N	I	I	I	I
Steve Marino	R	House	24	Macomb	N	I	I	I	I

This lost/disappeared vote issue is certainly not unique to the legislature of Michigan. Kristina Karamo, a current candidate for the office of Secretary of State - and a Republican – was shocked to recently discover that she too has a lost/disappeared vote from the 11/2020 election. Election Integrity Force is finding similarly missing votes among citizen voters from across the entire state.

Note that Joe Biden's purported margin of victory in Michigan is being listed as 2.78 percent. This singular issue of the lost/disappeared vote, that is only one of many issues with the 11/2020 election, represents 2.08 percent of our sample canvass. We recognize that our sample size is limited to 144 persons, but it can not be argued that it is a representation across the state.

Given the many other issues of irregularities that continue to be exposed, we are convinced that a formal investigation of the 11/2020 remains imperative.

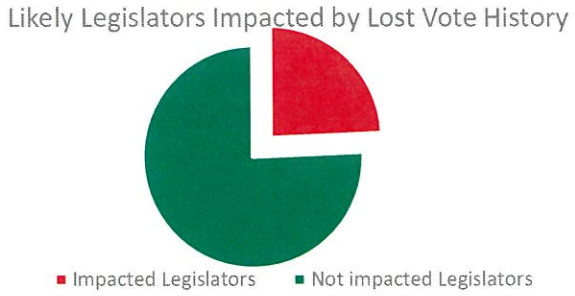

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

We encourage voters to go to www.audityourvote.com (provided by Coalition for a Free America) to see if they are among the many lost/disappeared voters of our State.

Disappearing Voter History:

In addition to the Qualified Voter File (QVF) being the official record of Michigan election results, the QVF is also the source of valid voter history in the State of Michigan. By law, the Secretary of State is tasked to maintain voter history for at least five (5) years for all Michigan voters. Yet, as this report details our multi-election canvass of only the Michigan legislators voting history, we identified a shocking number of thirty-five (35) legislators where it appears that their voter history is missing! This potentially represents an unacceptable level of incompetence at best and/or malfeasance at worst that cannot continue to be left unattended.

As you can see, these thirty-five (35) legislators with Disappearing Voter History from across our sample size represents a whopping 24.3 percent of the total legislature.

We further documented that some of the disappeared voter history was restored in an updated version of the Qualified Voter File (QVF) dated April of 2021 - but none of the 11/2020 lost/disappeared votes were restored in that updated version of the QVF. So, the glaring question that must be asked is, "Why should a static voter history for 24.3 percent of the Michigan state legislature – and potentially millions of Michigan voters - suddenly vanish?"

The totally unacceptable answer appears to be that perhaps history is not as static as one would think it is. This question will be examined in further detail in a later report.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

A list of the likely legislators with disappearing voting history is reflected in the Table below:

The Safest Most Secure Election Ever?

Many of our elected officials would like us to believe that the November 2020 election was the safest most secure election ever. Our response to that seemingly shortsighted and potentially biased opinion is: "How can that be?" In just our small sample, we have shown unacceptable examples of lost/disappeared votes and missing voting history. We have yet to expose the details of assessing the legislators' voting method and we have yet to look at issues of potential ghost voters and/or ghost registrants at legislators' residences, instances that we have proof existed in other voting populations across the State of Michigan.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

We have much more evidentiary data to share over the ensuing months and we certainly intend to share it across multiple platforms; however, in the meanwhile we would sincerely encourage Senator Edward McBroom and the Michigan State senate oversight committee to dust off their June 2021 report and take a serious second look among their legislative peers to see if they can now find anything additionally suspect in the November 2020 election that might warrant a true, independent investigation into election fraud. These culpable senators may choose, once again, not to look into these significant issues of election fraud but we assure you that we have looked, and we will continue to conduct the due diligence that we believe is lacking from the persons elected and/or appointed to protect and defend our constitution and our God-given rights to trusted and transparent elections. Stay tuned for more.

Election Integrity Force Finds Corruption in the Governor's Election Records!

Critical Analysis of the November 2020 Michigan Election – Report 2: The Governor of Michigan's Voting History Corrupted??

As the chief executive officer, tasked with overseeing the administration of the constitutionally delegated duties of the state government, the governor of the great state of Michigan should be incensed quite frankly to discover that her own historical voting record expressed in two separate Qualified Voting Files has been sorely manipulated and misrepresented.

See the chart below that shows one data-set file generated on December 31, 2020, and the same data-set file generated on April 01, 2021, showing different results.

As of 12/31/20

Name	Party	Branch	Method Voted 11/2020	Method Voted 2018	Method Voted 2016	Method Voted 2014	Method Voted 2012

Gretchen Whitmer	D	GOV	A	I	I	A	I

KEY: A = Voted Absentee
N = No Recorded Vote
I = Voted In-Person

The above chart is directly drawn from a true copy of the Michigan Qualified Voter File, which is supposed to be a static historical representation of the official record of the Michigan elections data for every "qualified voter" in the state.
It shows that the display of Michigan's governor Gretchen Whitmer's own voting history somehow changed between December of 2020 and April of 2021. How can this be?

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Maybe you should call Governor Whitmer at (517) 335-7858 and ask her to explain it to you. Here are a few more questions you might consider asking the governor:

How can this governor (or any of us) be certain that her (our) vote was actually counted when the oversight of our elections processes is so obviously malformed, mangled and mismanaged?

How can we believe that the November 03, 2020, election was the most secure election in the history of the state when the persons who are responsible for our election records cannot even properly complete the simple task of maintaining an accurate historical record?

This truly isn't rocket science.

Thus begins Report 2 in our Critical Analysis of the November 2020 Michigan Election series that continues to expose an unacceptable level of incompetence and/or malfeasance that bespeaks of corruption at the deepest levels of our election processes.

When our crack canvassing team uncovered the Lost/Disappeared Votes and Disappearing Voter History of our Michigan State Legislators, as detailed in Report 1, our State Data Lead was inspired to research the voting history of Michigan's Governor Gretchen Whitmer and the candidates running to replace her on November 08, 2022.

See Report 1 here: https://frankspeech.com/article/critical-analysis-november-2020-michigan-election-report-1-sample-canvass-michigan

There is an extraordinarily large group of Michigan citizens who would like to replace Mrs. Whitmer as the Governor of Michigan, as can be evidenced by the following chart showing their voting histories, again directly drawn from the Michigan Qualified Voter File (QVF):

N/A = Vote History Not Available (one speculative reason might be that this person may have voted in a different state in those years)

But still, say what? Why are these records so "all over the place" when it comes to describing how Michigan citizens are voting?

Maybe we should ask each and every one of these candidates to explain to us how this might have happened and what it might tell us about the security of our election processes and what they might do to address these issues.

Here are the Campaign Committee phone numbers for each of them:

You might also ask them what level of incompetence We the People have to put up with when it comes to describing the data showing us who is participating in the election of our public functionaries?

We can only hope that their answer is that we should not have to put up with any incompetence and we certainly cannot put up with any malfeasance, so we hope that they agree that it is imperative that some people are held accountable for these apparent gross violations of their duty to preserve our voting data. If these people cannot get the display of the data right, how are we to expect that they can protect and defend our constitution, our country, our families, and/or our voting records and results?

The Election Integrity Force is just getting started exposing the gross mismanagement of one of the most fundamental obligations that we have in this country – the obligation to guarantee that our elections are transparent and trustworthy.

Stay tuned for Report 3.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Summary:

In Report 1, Election Integrity Force's Data Heroes shared that three (3) Michigan Legislators had lost votes in the November 2020 election.

Let's clarify that "lost votes" means that if these public functionaries did vote (and we have every reason to believe that they did), their vote was not recorded in the state government's official record of all citizen's voting history called the Qualified Voter File (QVF).

Before we dig into the details, let us be clear. This is not a report about three lost legislative votes. In report 1 we were giving you a glimpse of a significant problem. You see, we have identified at least 55,132 Michigan voters whose votes were not reported in a timely manner to the QVF (a late vote) or may not have been reported at all (a lost vote). 55,132!!!

In Report 3 we will share "the where" and question "the how" those votes were late and/ or lost.

Background:

There are multiple reports supporting an election in Michigan. There is, however, only one 'official' record of the election in Michigan as recognized by Michigan State Law. That record is the Qualified Voter File (QVF).

Michigan law requires that the Qualified Voter File (QVF) be made 'current' within seven (7) days after an election. So, one would think that when we take a look at the Qualified Voter File that is published 28 days following an election, all of the recorded votes would be included in the file. Well, EIF tested that theory….

The Qualified Voter File (QVF) for Votes Cast on November 3, 2020:

The Secretary of State's website indicates that there were 5,579,317 ballots cast in the November 03, 2020 election (that is over 5 ½ million ballots). So if we look at a Qualified Voter File (QVF) from December 01, 2020 (this is 28 days past the election date and 21 days past the legally mandated reporting date deadline), we would expect that the state's recorded number of ballots cast would be equal (or almost equal) to the 5,579,317 ballots cast shown on the website.

Logic would suppose that to be true; Math would confirm that to be true; and the Law would require that to be true.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

However, much to our consternation, Michigan appears to be a place where laws and logic don't seem to apply and where fuzzy math reigns supreme. In fact, we see that things fall apart pretty quickly on just about all measures of accuracy in reporting.

SOS - Ballots Cast			5579317
QVF Numbers		Votes	Diff from SOS Ballots Cast
12/1/2020	Official File	5475120	-104197
12/31/2020	Official File	5476095	-103222
4/1/2021	Official File	5511303	-68014

So, the state's official QVF is missing 104,197 votes in the December 01, 2020 file.

Someone then manages to 'find' 915 votes and add them to the file before publishing the December 31, 2020 QVF ... but the report still showed 103,222 missing votes. Really?!

Finally, when we look at the ballots cast in the April 1, 2021 QVF for the 11/3/20 election we still see a shortfall of 68,014 ballots.

Now if we sit down with a clerk they will tell us that the QVF is a dynamic document - that voters are being added and deleted constantly. While that is true, we believe that the QVF has never represented the votes cast in November 2020 and that the election staff have been conditioned to use the 'dynamic nature' of the QVF as an excuse to hide the lack of credibility and mismanagement of the document.

Additionally, before our government workers and/or the complicit and compliant media that tends to do their bidding starts saying that 104,197 votes is not enough to overturn the election, let us remind everyone that this lost vote issue is just one of MANY disturbing display-of-data issues identified with the November 2020 election.

Then, for those who want to jump up and point the finger away from themselves by saying 'look to Wayne county', well gang – not this time.

We would never suggest that Wayne county had a purely unadulterated election – we are highly suspect that they didn't – but this issue can be found just about everywhere in Michigan.

We have identified issues within 57 of Michigan's 83 counties so far and we are still counting. Make no mistake, that represents 68.67 percent of the counties … that's a majority by anybody's standard and we are not done sleuthing. So if you are thinking that because you live in Keweenaw, Luce or Kalkaska that these problems do not apply to you – YOU WOULD BE WRONG.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Irrefutable Math in the lovely County of Grand Traverse:

Here is a photo of the county courthouse in beautiful downtown Traverse City, situated in Grand Traverse County along the magnificent shores of Lake Michigan. As of 2020 the population of Grand Traverse County was 95,238.

There are a total of 39 voting precincts in Grand Traverse County. You might not be able to easily discern this fact if you simply look at the Precinct Map posted to the county website:

https://www.gtcountymi.gov/DocumentCenter/View/13644/Voting-Precincts

We asked Christine at the Grand Traverse County Clerk's office to verify the exact number of voting precincts, so we are pretty sure that we can confidently state this number to be true.

Just using Grand Traverse County as an example, we will show you a bit more detail around late and lost votes.

Looking at just a handful of precincts in Grand Traverse County, we find that the December 01, 2020 Qualified Voter File (QVF) reported absentee votes and in-person votes cast for the majority of precincts. Yet Mayfield Township 1 and Long Lake Township 3 had no in-person votes cast on November 3, 2020?

	SOS Vote Totals	12/1/2020			Absolute Variance
		Absentee	In Person	Total
LONG LAKE TOWNSHIP 1	2134	1321	821	2142	8
LONG LAKE TOWNSHIP 2	2119	1360	772	2132	13
LONG LAKE TOWNSHIP 3	2538	1604	0	1604	934
MAYFIELD TOWNSHIP 1	995	368	0	368	627
PARADISE TOWNSHIP 1	1525	644	879	1523	2
PARADISE TOWNSHIP 2	1209	510	703	1213	4

1,561*

To add a little subjective analysis to the mix, according to a website that sources data from the US Census 2020, Mayfield Township has a reported total population of 1,517. Of that total, it is reported that approximately 76 percent of those Mayfield Twp. residents are between the ages of 18 and 80. That would be around 1,153 people of relative voting age. So, if 995 people are registered to vote, that would mean that 86 percent of voting age people are registered to vote. Why would only 37 percent of these registered voters have voted? And why would none of them have voted in person? Good questions.

https://censusreporter.org/profiles/06000US2605552480-mayfield-township-grand-traverse-county-mi/

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Additionally these two precincts of interest (Mayfield Township 1 and Long Lake Township 3) had official vote totals that are off by 1,561 votes.* Are we kidding? No, we are not. Look at the data.

If those good people of voting age in either one of these two precincts voted in person, they should be very unhappy right about now. Don't you think that someone should be held accountable for the fact that it appears that their vote didn't get recorded? But the real question is, "Did their vote get counted?"

Remember that in Report 1, (called A Sample Canvass - the Michigan Legislature), we identified three legislators, John Roth (Grand Traverse County), Aric Nesbitt (Van Buren County) and Steve Marino (Macomb County) who have late and lost votes. We can now share that Representative John Roth and Senator Aric Nesbitt were not alone.

Every in-person voter in their voting precincts was a late / lost vote victim in November 2020.

As for Representative Steve Marino (Macomb County), his lost vote appears to be one of many lost votes that we are randomly finding across the state. So yes, while there are big patterns to the late / lost votes allowing us to quantify at least 55,132 lost votes in the QVF, there are also issues of votes late / lost with no pattern to be found.

In all, we have 57 counties – 131 precincts - and AT LEAST 50,154 LATE AND LOST IN-PERSON VOTES which have experienced this issue related to November 2020. (Note: We estimate another 4,978 late and lost absentee votes from Wayne County for a minimum estimate of 55,132 TOTAL late and lost votes.)

At the risk of causing further indignation to our readers, please remember that the three legislators identified as having lost/late votes in EIF's Report 1 were all members of the Republican Party. As we meet our "lost/late vote" voters from across the state, we do ask which party they cast a ballot for in the Presidential race of 2020. We know that this information might be considered anecdotal and only represents hearsay but the truth remains that every single "lost/late vote" voter who volunteered a response indicated that they voted Republican in November 2020 – 100% Republican for the Presidential race.

So How Did This Happen?

One of our 3 lost vote legislators did reach out to their local clerk to understand what happened with his vote in November 2020. The clerk looked him up in a voter list printed from the election and reported that he did indeed vote. That is all true, but unless that vote is reported to the 'official' election document for the state of Michigan – the QVF – did it count? And since that vote was not reported within the 7 days as required by law, did it count?

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Before you say, 'Well the clerk forgot to load the data,' lets pause for a moment. How conceivable is it that the clerk in Long Lake Township (or any municipality for that matter), who is tasked with the constitutional duty of managing election data, would remember to load the electronic poll book for two precincts and somehow forget to load the electronic poll book for a third precinct? If that did indeed happen then we are back to the same two questions:

1) How much incompetence are the American people going to endure in their election data management systems?

2) How much malfeasance are we going to tolerate?

And, how are we to interpret the fact that we have had reports of clerks indicating that the QVF seemed 'glitchy' that day. Really? Glitchiness; Incompetence; or Malfeasance? None of these options square with transparency and trustworthiness.

Here is the crux of the matter. Systems are in place to alert clerks when data is not being transmitted in a timely manner. It begins with pinging the city and/or township clerks, then pinging the county clerks and continuing up the chain of command to the state level.

What is pinging? Ping is the acronym for Packet Internet Groper, which is a method for determining the amount of time it takes for computer data to travel between two networks.

So are we to surmise that the communications monitoring system was conveniently disabled for the 2020 election? Say it isn't so … no, rather... prove it isn't so.

Then, are we to believe that clerks across 131 precincts forgot to load or cross check their records? … plus 57 county clerks; plus the State Board of Canvassers; plus the Secretary of State and oh – lets not forget the Auditor General who neglected to pick up this issue in their March of 2022 report? We repeat: Prove it isn't so.

So again, as we march through the election data systems we ask, "How exactly was the 2020 election the safest, most secure election ever?"

How about a FOIA?

If you are feeling a bit stumped by now, fear not, former State Senator Patrick Colbeck is stumped too. He filed a Freedom of Information (FOIA) request with the Secretary of State's office back in December of 2021 (more than a year after the November 3, 2020 election) and asked for a list of voters from that November 2020 election.

As of this writing, he has not received the data. The state has graciously agreed to provide the list, and he has submitted the $750+ deposit, but he continues to wait for the data.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Senator Colbeck, we believe you will be waiting a long time because it is our belief that the state can not provide the report that you have requested because they can not tell you to whom the 5,579,317 ballots cast belong.

What's Next?

For those of you wondering if your vote counted or not, we have listed the 131 precincts with issues that have been identified in Exhibit 1 below. While your first instinct will be to call your local clerk, we instead recommend you reach out to your legislators (See phone directory in Exhibit 2). Let them know that the time for them to request an audit has long since passed.

It is time for them to nullify the November 2020 election and recall the Michigan electors.

Or, as we have said, prove it isn't so.

Report 4 is coming soon.

Exhibit 1: 55,132 Minimum Estimated Late and Lost Votes by Precinct

A late vote is a vote that is not reported in a timely manner (by law within 7 days of the election). A lost vote is a vote which was never reported (as of 4/1/21).

Report 4: Election Integrity Force's Critical Analysis of the November 2020 Michigan Election

May 20, 2022

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Dare We Ask:
Why Were Approx. 4 Million Voter History Records Deleted from the Michigan QVF Shortly After the November 3, 2020 Election?

Our research/canvass team has uncovered indisputable verification that 3,999,075 voter history records appear to have gone missing from the 01/01/2021 Michigan Qualified Voter File (the QVF) that were then added to the 04/01/2021 version of the same official record (the QVF) with no significant elections in between those two dates. Why would this be?

Dare we ask?

Let's be clear about what we are saying. We are talking about HISTORICAL RECORDS. We are not talking about voters (who may or may not have died, or moved away or come of voting age between the months of January of 2021 to April of 2021). We are talking about the legally mandated storage of historical records - the Qualified Voter File – which is the official report that is used to record historical data of real living in-state people who are qualified to vote in the State of Michigan.

Who did these 3,999,075 voter history records belong to and how did they come about being added back into the QVF just three short months later?

Dare we ask?

Below you will find screenshots of the absolutely undeniable data tracks that do not make sense and here's how to interpret them:

In Database language a "voter record" contains the voter identification and personal information for each individual voter (many of the numbers in the Voter Record column in the chart shown below are highlighted in yellow).

In a different database, a "voter history" record contains information for each time a person votes (some Voter History records shown in yellow on the chart below identify data tracks of concern).

The Average History/Voter column then shows the approximate percentage of elections each voter voted in. In other words, if you divide the Voter History number of records by the Voter Records you will see percentages ranging from approximately 4 ½ to very close to 6 – indicating that the people included in the report voted in an average of 4 to 6 elections.

After reviewing the chart shown below, we think you will agree that some highly relevant questions that must be asked (and answered) are:

1) With the number of voters increasing by 153,873 from 10/1/2019 to 3/1/2020, why is there a decrease of 2,238,972 voter history records? That's a decrease of over 2 million voter history records!

2) With the number of voters decreasing by 157,528 from 1/1/2021 to 4/1/2021, why is there an increase of 3,999,075 voter history records? That's almost 4 million voter history records that all of a sudden appear without any significant elections that might have accounted for such a massive increased voter history.

Take a look...

5/1/2022	8,105,969	47,870,781	5.91

With increasing voter records, why did the voter history drop over 2 MILLION records?

With 8 million voter records, why are about 4 MILLION voter history records missing right after the Nov. 2020 election?

Hopefully we haven't lost you already because this data is crucial to election integrity (or lack thereof).

So that we are all clear on what this chart tells us, let's pick up our trusted calculators and once again describe, in a little different way, some of what the above data display is showing us.

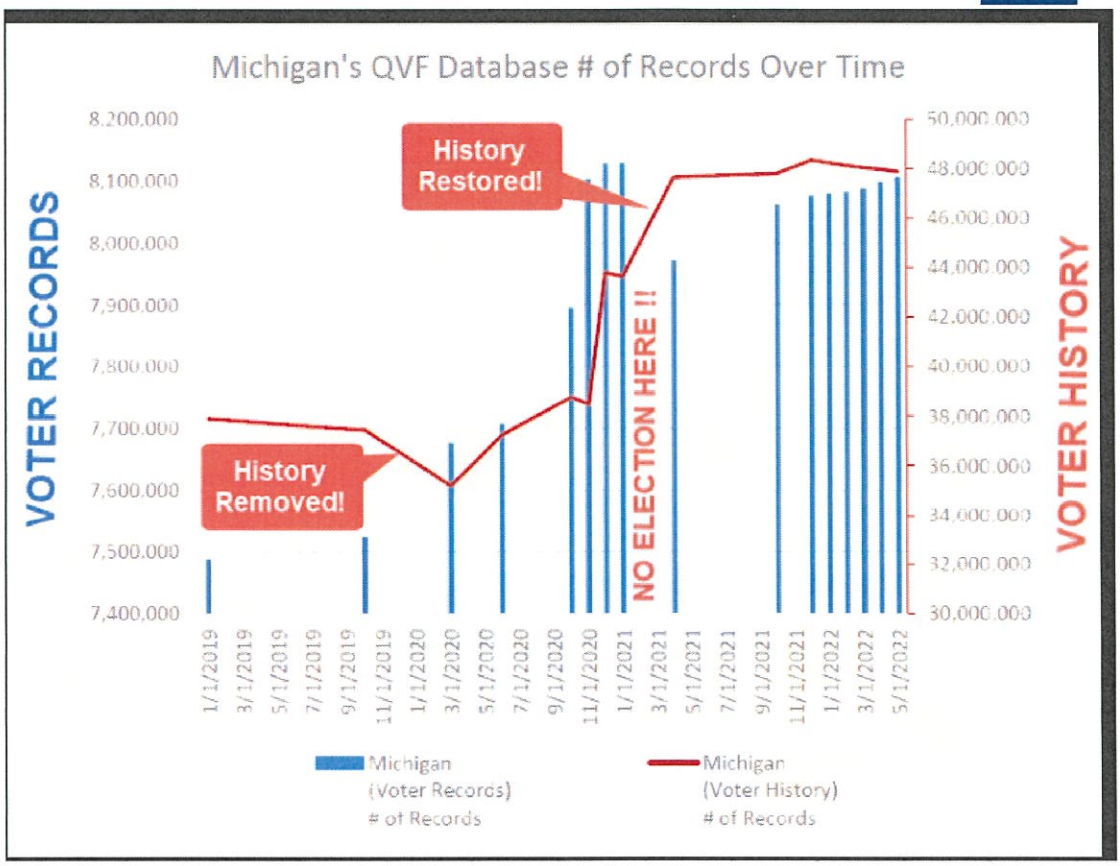

First, if you look at the column called (Voter Records), you can see that the Number of Records increased from 10/1/20 to 12/1/20 by 233,306 with a corresponding increase in the (Voter History) Number of Records of 5,020,196.

Moving down the rows, you can see that the (Voter Records) increased from 12/1/20 to 1/1/21 by 882 with a questionable decrease in (Voter History) by 151,684! That doesn't make sense, does it?

But the coup de gráce can be seen when comparing the data from 1/1/21 to 4/1/21 where the number of (Voter Records) decreased by 156,898 while the corresponding (Voter History) records increased by 3,999,075 (almost 4 million) historical records. That happened with no general election in Michigan between these dates. So, what caused this astonishing increase of voter history records at a point when the number of voters decreased at that same time)?

If that is difficult for you to visualize, here is a diagram combining the two data sets (the Voter Records and the Voter History) with the Voter Records shown in BLUE and the Voter History shown in RED which results in an incredible in-our-faces manipulation of historical data that is almost inconceivable.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

What could possibly be worse than this? Well, let us explain.

If you understand research of any kind, for any thing, you know that when you open one door or find one piece of evidence between one rock and one hard place, you generally find more data that begs to be researched.

So, our data gurus kept digging.

They decided to look at just one of the multitude of voter records at their disposal. They chose Republican Party candidate for Secretary of State Kristina Karamo.

Here is what they found.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Kristina Karamo - Voting History per QVF Dates

QVF Dates	8/3/2010	11/2/2010	11/6/2012	11/4/2014	3/8/2016	11/8/2016	11/7/2017	8/7/2018	11/6/2018	3/10/2020	8/4/2020	11/3/2020	11/2/2021	# of votes

5/1/2022	I	I	I	I	I	I	I	I	I	I	I	I	I	13

The data is quite clear. Mrs. Karamo likes to vote in-person (that is what all of those I's represent).

The fields highlighted in YELLOW represent the historical voting records that were removed from the QVF from the 3/1/2020 version all the way through to the 1/1/2021 version for Kristina Karamo's voting history from 8/3/2010 to 8/7/2018.

Then mysteriously all of her voting history was reinstated in the 4/1/2021 version and beyond EXCEPT her 11/3/2020 voter history records were not restored until 2/1/2022!

This is one out of untold numbers of legitimate, lawful, legal American citizens whose voting histories are being manipulated in ways that can only politely be called troubling.

The Election Integrity Force leaders, volunteers and data gurus demand that an explanation of these unnatural discrepancies be given to The People of the State of Michigan, but by whom?

Should we seek the advice of the executive branch in the person of Michigan Secretary of State Jocelyn Benson who has already been found guilty of having given unlawful guidance to the elections clerks regarding absentee ballot signature verification processes?

https://www.washingtonexaminer.com/news/judge-rules-michigan-sec-state-broke-law-absentee-ballot

Or should we ask the executive branch in the person of Michigan Attorney General Dana Nessel who tweeted out a warning on November 23, 2020, that "intentionally making a false claim of criminal activity to law enforcement is itself a crime" (seemingly in response to former Senator Patrick Colbeck's claims of election fraud)? By the way, what exactly is the crime that might be identified in Ms. Nessel's threat? Could it otherwise be called "free speech" in those polite circles we mentioned before? I don't know; let's ask usurper Joe Biden for his opinion.

https://thehill.com/homenews/state-watch/527265-michigan-ag-warns-on-election-fraud-claims-a-false-claim-of-criminal/

Maybe we could ask a high-level member of our state legislature, such as Michigan's State Senator Ed McBroom, who is the chairman of the State Senate Government Oversight Committee. But wait, isn't he the man who admitted in a recorded meeting that he never reviewed the drop box surveillance video recordings prior to his making a sweepingly definitive statement that there was no evidence of ballot harvesting in the November 2020 election? Yes, we are talking about that same man.

Well, then, maybe we should approach the judicial branch of our state government to intervene against the executive branch of our state government since the legislative branch of our state government seems to be either neutered, spayed or willfully ignorant (or all three).

If we do "approach the bench" we have to first remember that we are still asking the government to investigate the government, we are still expecting the government to define government actions and we are still relying upon the government to decide whether these government actions rise to the level of a crime.

How much would you like to bet that the judiciary will fall back on their seemingly favorite argument that these issues are either "moot" because the records were restored in April of 2021 or that they are "ripe" because they only might affect elections that are not scheduled to take place until August of 2022 or November of 2022? Don't bet too much against the use of this type of judicial legerdemain; chances are you will lose.

So, how might you spell CRONYISM? Or can you spell INCOMPETENCE? Or wait, could this be MALFEASANCE? Or does it rise to the level of the F word … meaning FRAUD?

How do we define FRAUD? Let me count the almost 4 million ways.

But wait, does this potential crime rise to the even higher level of LARCENY which is defined as "The illegal taking of the property of another with the intent to deprive the owner thereof."

https://www.law.cornell.edu/wex/larceny

What might be the penalties ascribed to the theft of 3,999,075 historical voter election records if we are able to find truth in a just court of law in Michigan (if there is still a just court of law in Michigan)?

According to excerpts from the Michigan Penal Code Act 328 of 1931, it states under 705.356 that...

(1) A person who commits larceny by stealing any of the following property of another person is guilty of a crime as provided in this section:

(f) A writ, process or public record

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

(2) If any of the following apply, the person is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment for not more than 10 years or a fine of not more than $15,000.00 or 3 times the value of the property stolen, whichever is greater, or both imprisonment and a fine;

(a) The property stolen has a value of $20,000.00 or more.

Right now, there are too many unanswered questions here, but maybe, just maybe, the most important question is: "How much is your vote worth to you?"

The good people of this great State had better start getting involved in reining in our State government – all three branches: executive, legislative and judiciary – before it is too late for any of our votes to count.

COUNT MICHIGAN!

An analysis of the November 2020 Michigan Election

May XX, 2022

An Election Integrity Force Report

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Background:

The November 3rd, 2020 election is a hot topic in political circles. For the past twelve months, the Election Integrity Force (EIF) team has been pining away. Through trial and error, an evaluation of the Nov 3rd, 2020 Michigan election has been conducted across the state. In Oakland county, a research project was put in place to investigate all aspects of the Qualified Voter File (QVF) and the 2020 election.

The QVF is a document maintained by each Jurisdiction Clerk. It contains all information of the jurisdiction's registered voters; such as their address, voting history, etc… It is the responsibility of the jurisdiction clerk to maintain this document and ensure, to the best of their ability, it is accurate. This article will address how accurate the current voter roles are in Oakland County and why citizens need to be continuous stewards of our government.

The following topics will highlight findings from Oakland County.

1. Registered voters with illegitimate addresses.
2. Registered voters that applied for change of address.
3. Registered voters that have moved or do not exist.
4. Registered voters that haven't voted in 6 years.
5. Registered voters who are registered more than once.

All QVF's were obtained using a FOIA.
The number of registered voters in Oakland County, MI in the Dec 31st, 2020 QVF is:
1,037,877 (Note SOS reporting at time of vote 1,035,172)
Number of votes counted in Oakland County, MI in the Dec 31st, 2020 QVF:
767,783 (note SOS Reporting vote total is 775,379)

Registered Voters with Illegitimate Addresses:

Michigan election law states that a residence is defined as a, "place at which a person habitually sleeps, keeps his or her personal effects, and has a regular place of lodging." To identify the addresses that do not qualify, all addresses with over 10 registrations were digitally canvassed. A digital canvassing effort to classify the address was conducted by a small group of volunteers. The digital canvassing was audited afterwards to ensure maximum accuracy.

The total number of registrations, with an illegitimate addresses, total 4600 in Oakland County.

Of the 4600 registrations, 2175 voted in the 2020 election.

Illegitimate addresses include:
a. Apartments addresses without apartment number.
b. Senior care facilities without room number.
c. Trailer parks without lot number.
d. Businesses, USPS PO boxes, USPS stores, and empty lots.
e. Hotel addresses without room number.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

The QVF registration process allows for illegitimate addresses to be used to vote and these violations are difficult to identify for jurisdiction clerks.

Registered Voters that Applied for a Change of Address:

With the QVF, it is up to the jurisdiction clerk to maintain integrity and conduct programs to remove obsolete registrations (MI-168.509). One such way to conduct a clean up of the voter rolls is to use National Change of Address data that is maintained by the postal service. This NCOA data comes from citizens who apply to the postal service for an address change.

The USPS does not provide National Change of Address (NCOA) data directly. A series of companies are authorized providers of the information. The canvassing team acquired authorized NCOA data and enlisted the help of a second authorized paid for service, Melissa.com, for a double check. The NCOA data goes back 4 years, therefore the team was only able to use data back to February, 2018. From Feb 2018 to Sept 2020, 3569 people applied for a change of address departing Oakland County. To be eligible to vote in an election, a resident must be present in this jurisdiction from at least 30 days before the election.

Therefore, all 3569 of these votes have been called into question. If the citizen's applied for a NCOA to move out of county, more than 30 days before the election, how can it be ensured they were the ones to vote? Was a legitimate process to validate absentee ballot signatures followed?

Registered Voters that Moved or Do Not Exist:

The NCOA database gives a history of 4 years. To go beyond the 4 year window, Melissa.com's search engine was used to filter through potential moves prior to Feb 2018. To ensure integrity and have two data points, the 14,800 names from Melissa were put through a double check process on TruePeopleSearch.com.

The end result was an additional 1715 votes where the individual is listed as not living in Oakland County during the Nov 3rd, 2020 election.

Registered Voters that Haven't Voted in 6 Years:

In the beginning of the article, the number of registrants in Oakland County on Dec 31st, 2020 was 1,037,877. According to MI-168.509r, after 6 years of consecutive non-voting, a registrant should move to an inactive voter status. At that point in time, the jurisdiction clerk should implement a program to identify if the voter is still a resident at the address. There are multiple means to make this happen, such as a mail verification or in person canvass.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

It was quite baffling for the team to find 95,287 Oakland County registrants have not voted since 2013 and still marked in active status for the 2020 election. This represents 9.18% of the total registrations in Oakland County.

The QVF maintenance process allows for inactive voters to sit on the rolls.

Voters Registered More than Once:

The final analysis, of the QVF, was to find duplicate registrations of an individual citizen. A duplicate registration is when a citizen with the same first/middle/last name and date of birth are found in the QVF.

Through the analysis of Oakland County, 2783 individual voters had 5586 registrations. This totals to 2803 duplicate registrations.

The QVF maintenance process allows for duplicate registrations.

Findings:

Over the course of this article, many technicalities and numbers have been shared. Below, a table has been constructed to show the cumulative findings of the Oakland County canvass.

Subject	Registrants	Nov 3, 2020 Votes
Illegitimate Addresses	4,600	2,175
Change of Address Applications Pre-Election	3,569	3,569
Digitally Canvassed Moved or Non-Existent Pre-Election	1,715	1,715
Inactive Voters	95,287	-
Duplicates	2,803	-
Total	107,974	7,459

Total Registrants to be challenged 107,974 = 10.4% of registrations

The election system in place enables bloating of voter roles and is challenging for clerks to maintain. The EIF Oakland County team is moving forward to challenge the registrations of all 107,974 registrants. It is the hope, that clerks will collaborate to set up cleaning programs on the voter rolls. It is unacceptable for the government to maintain records to have a 10.4% error rate, when it comes to electing public servants.

Contested Votes

While the canvass displayed a whopping number of quality issues for registrations, it also brought to light contested votes. These contested votes are from addresses that do not comply with MI election law, NCOA filings for out of county moves pre-election, and digitally canvassed moves pre-election. Oakland Counties 7,459 records do not make sense. These votes should be audited for validity.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

This number of 7,459 might seem small, added below is a calculation to conceptualize it. If all of the votes were identified as fraudulent...

7,459 instances of voter fraud X (1000$) = 7.459 million in fines
7,459 instances of voter fraud X (93 days jail-time) = 693,687 days jail-time

The EIF Oakland County team is contacting the local clerks to help clean up voter roles. We strive to identify gaps in the voting process that allow for loss of custody and open the door to fraud.

Path Forward:

Moving forward, it is essential that all citizens start to take part in the election process and learn it's intricacies. For, as stewards of the government, it is our responsibility to ensure these elections are run fairly, without fraud.

If you are looking to talk to the local county clerk or sheriff, here are demands for future elections.

1. No election tabulation machines to count votes. Hand count only.
2. No absentee ballot's for all, only for military and those with chronic illness.
3. No drop boxes, all absentee votes must be delivered to clerk with ID check.
4. All absentee ballot envelopes must go through signature verification with QVF file.
5. One day election, with in person voting.
6. Toss current QVF files. Make registration necessary every 2 years to maintain eligibility.

COUNT MICHIGAN!

An analysis of the November 2020 Michigan Election

May XX, 2022

An Election Integrity Force Report

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Background:

The November 3rd, 2020 election is a hot topic in political circles. For the past twelve months, the Election Integrity Force (EIF) team has been pining away. Through trial and error, an evaluation of the Nov 3rd, 2020 Michigan election has been conducted across the state. In Oakland county, a research project was put in place to investigate all aspects of the Qualified Voter File (QVF) and the 2020 election.

The QVF is a document maintained by each Jurisdiction Clerk. It contains all information of the jurisdiction's registered voters; such as their address, voting history, etc… It is the responsibility of the jurisdiction clerk to maintain this document and ensure, to the best of their ability, it is accurate. This article will address how accurate the current voter roles are in Oakland County and why citizens need to be continuous stewards of our government.

The following topics will highlight findings from Oakland County.

1. Registered voters with illegitimate addresses.
2. Registered voters that applied for change of address.
3. Registered voters that have moved or do not exist.
4. Registered voters that haven't voted in 6 years.
5. Registered voters who are registered more than once.

All QVF's were obtained using a FOIA.
The number of registered voters in Oakland County, MI in the Dec 31st, 2020 QVF is:
1,037,877 (Note SOS reporting at time of vote 1,035,172)
Number of votes counted in Oakland County, MI in the Dec 31st, 2020 QVF:
767,783 (note SOS Reporting vote total is 775,379)

Registered Voters with Illegitimate Addresses:

Michigan election law states that a residence is defined as a, "place at which a person habitually sleeps, keeps his or her personal effects, and has a regular place of lodging." To identify the addresses that do not qualify, all addresses with over 10 registrations were digitally canvassed. A digital canvassing effort to classify the address was conducted by a small group of volunteers. The digital canvassing was audited afterwards to ensure maximum accuracy.

The total number of registrations, with an illegitimate addresses, total 4600 in Oakland County.

Of the 4600 registrations, 2175 voted in the 2020 election.

Illegitimate addresses include:
a. Apartments addresses without apartment number.
b. Senior care facilities without room number.
c. Trailer parks without lot number.
d. Businesses, USPS PO boxes, USPS stores, and empty lots.
e. Hotel addresses without room number.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

The QVF registration process allows for illegitimate addresses to be used to vote and these violations are difficult to identify for jurisdiction clerks.

Registered Voters that Applied for a Change of Address:

With the QVF, it is up to the jurisdiction clerk to maintain integrity and conduct programs to remove obsolete registrations (MI-168.509). One such way to conduct a clean up of the voter rolls is to use National Change of Address data that is maintained by the postal service. This NCOA data comes from citizens who apply to the postal service for an address change.

The USPS does not provide National Change of Address (NCOA) data directly. A series of companies are authorized providers of the information. The canvassing team acquired authorized NCOA data and enlisted the help of a second authorized paid for service, Melissa.com, for a double check. The NCOA data goes back 4 years, therefore the team was only able to use data back to February, 2018. From Feb 2018 to Sept 2020, 3569 people applied for a change of address departing Oakland County. To be eligible to vote in an election, a resident must be present in this jurisdiction from at least 30 days before the election.

Therefore, all 3569 of these votes have been called into question. If the citizen's applied for a NCOA to move out of county, more than 30 days before the election, how can it be ensured they were the ones to vote? Was a legitimate process to validate absentee ballot signatures followed?

ONE PERSON GRAND JURY

Complaint for Expedited Investigation by Judicial Officer

Oakland County, MI (September 8, 2010) – On August 27, 2010, the 6th Judicial Circuit Court, Oakland County, Michigan, received a Complaint of Expedited Investigation by Judicial Officer (One Person Grand Jury) by complainant, L. Brooks Patterson.

Today Chief Judge Nanci Grant announced that the Circuit Court, by affirmative majority decision of the Bench, authorized issuance of an order to convene a One Person Grand Jury for the purpose of conducting a judicial investigation as to the allegations contained in the Complaint.

Furthermore, the judges of the Circuit Court, by unanimous vote, designated the Honorable Edward Sosnick to act as grand juror. Chief Judge Grant commented, "As Dean of the Bench, we have complete confidence in Judge Sosnick's ability to impartially and fairly fulfill this important role."

All further proceedings regarding this investigation will be conducted in compliance with MCLA 767.3 et seq.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE COUNTY OF CHARLEVOIX

In the Matter of the Complaint of XXXXXXX for a Judicial Investigation Concerning the Commission of Certain Crimes and Offenses in Charlevoix County, including XXXXXX
XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

COMPLAINT FOR JUDICIAL INVESTIGATION

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXa concerned citizen and resident of XXXXXXXXXXXX, hereby petitions for an Order for a judicial investigation ("one person grand jury") concerning the commission of certain crimes and offenses within XXXXXXXXX COUNTY, on oath and after first being duly sworn, on knowledge, information and belief, states:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

This Court has jurisdiction to consider this Complaint and Order a judicial investigation ("one man grand jury"). MCLA 767.3 states:

> Sec. 3.
> Whenever by reason of the filing of any complaint, which may be upon information and belief, or upon the application of the prosecuting attorney or attorney general, any judge of a court of law and of record shall have probable cause to suspect that any crime, offense or misdemeanor has been committed within his jurisdiction, and that any persons may be able to give any material evidence respecting such suspected crime, offense or misdemeanor, such judge in his discretion may make an order directing that an inquiry be made into the matters relating to such complaint, which order, or any amendment thereof, shall be specific to common intent of the scope of the inquiry to be conducted, and thereupon conduct such inquiry. In any court having more than 1 judge such order and the designation of the judge to conduct the inquiry shall be made in accordance with the rules of such court. Thereupon such judge shall require such persons to attend before him as witnesses and answer such questions as the judge may require concerning any violation of law about which they may be questioned within the scope of the order....

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

All of the alleged crimes happened in xxxxxxxxxx County Michigan. Each violation will refer to the accompanying exhibits which will have the appropriate documentation regarding suspect, date, venue etc.

STANDARD OF PROOF

A one-person grand jury may also be convened to investigate whether probable cause exists to suspect that a crime has been committed. The one-person grand jury is a creation of, and draws its extraordinary powers from, statutes. MCL 767.3 and 767.4; People v Farquharson, 274 Mich App 268 (2007) citing In re Slattery, 310 Mich 458; 17 NW2d 251 (1945).

The standard of proof for a one-man grand jury is the same as the standard of proof for a preliminary exam. MCR 6.110(E) states:

> (E) Probable Cause Finding. If, after considering the evidence, the court determines that probable cause exists to believe both that an offense not cognizable by the district court has been committed and that the defendant committed it, the court must bind the defendant over for trial. If the court finds probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense cognizable by the district court, it must proceed thereafter as if the defendant initially had been charged with that offense.

Probable Cause is not approached from the view of a legal scholar; standard is whether a person of reasonable prudence and caution would believe D had committed a crime. People v Harper, 365 Mich 494, 501 (1962)

PROCEDURE AND DURATION OF ONE MAN GRAND JURY

In a Circuit with more than one Judge, the sitting Circuit Judges will vote whether to Order a one man grand jury based upon the petition and if the petition states probable cause that a crime committed and that the person of focus of the petition committed that crime. If a one man grand jury is ordered, then the Chief Judge shall draw lots to see which Circuit Judge shall sit as the grand juror. In a circuit with only one circuit Judge, that Judge shall determine if the petition alleges probable cause that a crime was committed and probable cause that the person of interest committed the crime. If this court so determines, then this court will issue an Order specifically listing the scope of the inquiry of the one man grand jury and then conduct the inquiry.

INTRODUCTION

> The scope of the grand jury's powers reflects its special role in insuring fair and effective law enforcement. A grand jury proceeding is not an adversary hearing in which the guilt or innocence of the accused is adjudicated. Rather, it is an ex parte investigation to determine whether a crime has been committed and whether criminal proceedings should be instituted against any person. The grand jury's investigative power must be broad if its public responsibility is adequately to be discharged. [United States v Calandra, 414 US 338, 343-344; 94 S Ct 613; 38 L Ed 2d 561 (1974).]

Based on the facts and circumstances stated in this Petition and Complaint, the Complainant requests this Court to Order a judicial investigation ("one person grand jury") to investigate each of the following:

2) .....

THE TARGET OF THIS COMPLAINT AND ALLEGATIONS TO SUPPORT CHARGES OF.....

I. Violation of State Election Law

Recently in Ingham County Michigan, a one man grand jury was convened in a political scandal where the prosecuting attorney from Kent County and the attorney general declined to institute criminal charges In re Investigative Subpoenas, 286 Mich App 201 (2009). That is the case where the Grand Traverse County Prosecutor appealed the decision from the lower court claiming that a prosecuting attorney has the ability to bring criminal charges against an entity [there a corporation; here an individual or their committee] after the Michigan Elections Bureau has imposed a civil fine. The case was vacated on other grounds involving the amount of contributions that corporations could donate to campaigns based on the Citizens United Supreme Court case. The holding though clearly stands for the proposition that a civil fine that is imposed has no bearing on a criminal prosecution.

II.

III. .....

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, the Complaint asks that this Honorable Court issue an Order to convene in accordance with the statute for the purpose of conducting a judicial investigation ("one man grand jury") concerning the commission of the offenses set forth in this Complaint, and require the attendance of any witnesses to the various crimes, if in the discretion of this Court, those witness will prove by probable cause that a crime was committed, in order that the person alleged in this Complaint can be brought to justice.

767.6 Incriminating answers of witnesses; order granting immunity; use of truthful testimony or other information against witness in criminal case; transcript; applicability of secrecy provisions; scope of order.

Sec. 6.

(1) Upon inquiry, a witness shall not be required to answer any questions or be convicted for contempt upon refusal to do so If the answers might tend to incriminate him or her.

(2) Upon written motion by the prosecuting attorney or a duly authorized representative of the state in a proceeding described in section 3 of this chapter, the judge may enter a written order granting immunity to the witness. The order shall set forth verbatim the questions the witness refused to answer. A true copy of the motion and order shall be delivered to the witness before he or she answers the questions in the inquiry. The order granting immunity shall extend to all related questions which may be asked of the witness after entry of the order until the judge advises the witness that the immunity no longer applies.

(3) Truthful testimony compelled under the order granting immunity and any information derived directly or indirectly from that truthful testimony shall not be used against the witness in a criminal case, except for impeachment purposes or in a prosecution for perjury or otherwise failing to comply with the order.

(4) All questions and the witness's answers shall be transcribed under the judge's direction. A true copy of the transcript, duly certified by the judge, shall be delivered to the witness as soon as practicable.

(5) The provisions for secrecy provided for in section 3 of this chapter apply to all copies of the motion, order, and transcript delivered to the witness. However, the witness may disclose that information to his or her attorney if his or her testimony or any information derived directly or indirectly from that testimony is used against the witness in violation of subsection (3).

(6) An order granting immunity does not extend beyond the scope of an inquiry described in this section or beyond the particular questions set forth in the motion, order, or transcript.

INVESTIGATIVE SUBPOENA

767A.7 Order granting immunity.

Sec. 7.

(1) The prosecuting attorney may apply to the court for an order granting immunity to any person, designated by name and address in the application, whom the prosecuting attorney intends to require to give testimony concerning any matter investigated under this chapter. The application shall be accompanied by the prosecuting attorney's verified petition setting forth the facts upon which the application is based. If the judge determines it is in the interest of justice to grant immunity, the judge shall enter an order granting immunity to the person if the person appears before the prosecuting attorney and testifies under oath concerning the felony set forth in the petition of the prosecuting attorney. The order granting immunity shall extend to all related questions asked of the person.

(2) The prosecuting attorney shall provide the person with a true copy of the order issued under subsection (1) before the prosecuting attorney asks the person any questions. No testimony or other information compelled under the order, or any information directly or indirectly derived from that testimony or other information, may be used against the person in any criminal case, except for impeachment purposes, in a prosecution for perjury, or for otherwise failing to comply with the order granting immunity.

(3) An order issued under this section that grants immunity to a person continues in effect until the judge or his or her successor, in his or her discretion and upon application by the prosecuting attorney, enters an order terminating the order granting immunity and the prosecuting attorney notifies the witness of the order of termination.

(4) Any person granted immunity under this section may have legal counsel present at all times at which he or she is being questioned concerning any matter included within the order granting immunity.

GENERAL IMMUNITY

780.701 Order granting immunity; application by prosecuting attorney; verified statement; determination to grant immunity.

Sec. 1.

(1) The prosecuting attorney may apply to the following, as applicable, for an order granting immunity to any person designated by name and address in the application who might give testimony concerning the violation charged in the complaint and warrant or alleged in the petition:

(a) The examining magistrate at a preliminary examination.

(b) The trial judge at a trial for a felony or misdemeanor.

(c) The judge at an adjudication for a juvenile alleged to be within the court's jurisdiction under section 2(a)(i) of chapter XIIA of the probate code of 1939, 1939 PA 288, MCL 712A.2, or a probable cause hearing or trial in a case designated as a case in which the juvenile is to be tried in the same manner as an adult under section 2d of chapter XIIA of the probate code of 1939, 1939 PA 288, MCL 712A.2d.

(2) The application shall be accompanied by the prosecuting attorney's verified statement setting forth the facts upon which the application is based.

(3) If the judge determines that it is in the interest of justice that immunity be granted, the judge shall enter an order granting immunity to the witness if the witness appears before the court in the proceeding and testifies truthfully under oath concerning any matter or thing of which the witness knows concerning matters charged in the complaint and warrant or alleged in the petition, as set forth in the prosecuting attorney's application.

Decided December 9, 1969. Application for leave to appeal filed December 24, 1969.

People v Diponio 20 Mich App 658, 174 NW2d 572 Published Michigan Court of Appeals Opinion Opinion by McGregor, J. Before: Lesinski, C. J., and Fitzgerald and McGregor, JJ.

Docket No(s) 5,420

McGregor, J.

McGregor, J.

On August 19, 1966, pursuant to a petition filed by the attorney general, the Wayne county circuit judges issued an order creating a grand jury, and a grand juror was appointed.

The part of the amended order pertinent to this appeal is as follows:

"It is therefore ordered that this court convene on September 1, 1966, in accordance with the statute in such case made and provided and continue in session from time to time thereafter as directed by the court, for the purpose of requiring the attendance of witnesses and the taking of testimony of all persons having knowledge of the commission of said offenses, and conducting an investigation to determine whether the crime of violating the provisions of Act 27, Public Acts of 1959; the crime of violating the provisions of Act 116, Public Acts of 1954 as amended, by certain persons either as candidates or treasurers of political committees in behalf of candidates seeking county or municipal offices within the said county of Wayne; the crime of perjury; the crime of attempted bribery; the crime of bribery of public officers and employees; the crime of accepting of bribery by public officers and employees; the crime of offering a reward to public officers and employees to omit to perform acts for a consideration, reward or inducement; the crime of conspiracy to bribe public officers or employees and to solicit bribes; the crime of conspiracy to obstruct justice [Page 661] by private persons of public officers and employees; the crimes of embezzlement, larceny by conversion, receiving stolen property, wilful neglect of duty, malfeasance, misfeasance and nonfeasance of public officials and public employees; violations of law relating to public contracts including, but not limited to, price fixing; the violation of laws relating to the prescribing, administering and use of drugs, medicines and narcotics for human use; and the crime of extortion or other related offenses against the laws of this State, have been committed within the jurisdiction of this court, and, if so, the names of the perpetrators thereof;" (Emphasis added.)

On July 19, 1967, defendant testified under subpoena before the grand juror concerning alleged violations of chapter 34 (Public Act 116) of the Michigan Election Law of 1954, pertaining to campaign expenses and contributions. MCLA § 168.1 et seq. (Stat Ann 1956 Rev § 6.1001 et seq.).

On July 31, 1967, an indictment and warrant were issued against defendant, charging him in six counts with violations of the election law; he was arraigned on the warrant that same day and stood mute.

On September 27, 1967, having waived preliminary examination, defendant was arraigned on the information and again stood mute.

On March 1, 1968, defendant filed a motion to quash the information and warrant on the grounds that: (1) the order of indictment and warrant against him was null and void, because the charges contained therein were beyond the scope and purview of the order establishing the grand jury and thus, the grand juror lacked jurisdiction to return such charges, and (2) the order violated his rights under the immunity provision of § 910 of the Michigan Election Law of 1954. MCLA § 168.910 (Stat Ann 1956 Rev § 6.1910). Oral argument was heard [Page 662] on the motion before the recorder's court for the city of Detroit.

On March 27, 1968, the motion was denied. On August 6, 1968, leave to appeal was granted. Defendant on appeal raises the same issues as were presented in his motion to quash the information and warrant.

Appellant advances several arguments assailing the indictment returned by the grand juror. It is asserted that an examination of the charges contained in the indictment[1] reveals that the jurisdictional scope which created the grand juror had been exceeded. This Court notes that this subject has long been inundated in a miasma of doubt and uncertainty.

Any jurisdiction granted to a grand juror has for its source MCLA § 767.3 (Stat Ann 1969 Cum Supp § 28.943). This statute deals with the procedural and jurisdictional aspects establishing a grand jury. In essence, it says that upon proper application and an averment that probable cause exists to suspect that certain crimes have been committed, a grand jury may be authorized. An order to investigate these crimes may be issued, but such order must be specific.

[Page 663] "Whenever by reason of the filing of any complaint, which may be upon information and belief, or upon the application of the prosecuting attorney or attorney general, any judge of a court of law and of record shall have probable cause to suspect that any crime, offense or misdemeanor has been committed within his jurisdiction, and that any persons may be able to give any material evidence respecting such suspected crime, offense or misdemeanor, such judge in his discretion may make an order directing that an inquiry be made into the matters relating to such complaint, which order, or any amendment thereof, shall be specific to common intent of the scope of the inquiry to be conducted, and thereupon conduct such inquiry." (Emphasis added.)

The Court notes the importance of the above-cited statute, since it signifies that crimes may be investigated only when there is probable cause to suspect they have been committed.

The order authorizing the grand juror is for investigation of persons as candidates or treasurers of political committees. In the indictment in the instant case, there is no mention that the defendant holds one of these positions. In addition, the order was to authorize investigation into municipal and county offices in Wayne county. There again, the indictment does not charge that the political office in question was of either county or city nature and, in fact, it appeared to be a Federal office. In tracing the procedural aspects of the order creating the grand jury, probable cause may have existed to investigate candidates or treasurers of political committees involved in county or city offices, but the fact that there may have been probable cause to investigate the above cannot be equated with cause to inquire into political contributions to candidates to a Federal office.

[Page 664] This Court notes that it is not without significance that in the preamble to the order creating the grand jury, the attorney general had asked for an investigation into the following:

"* * * the crime of violating the provisions of Act 116, Public Acts of 1954, as amended. * * *"

In both the original and amendatory orders entered by the circuit court, the grand juror was given authority to investigate the following:

"[t]he crime of violating the provisions of Act 116, Public Acts of 1954, as amended, by certain persons either as candidates or treasurers of political committees on behalf of candidates seeking county or municipal offices within the said county of Wayne; * * *."

The fact is that the order authorizing the grand juror was not nearly as broad as the scope sought by the attorney general. Appellant correctly points out that while the grand juror was given much broader authority in other areas (see order) his authority to investigate election law violations was much more circumscribed.

It is urged by appellee that the present grand jury statute should be given a liberal construction, relying upon People v. Wolfson (1933), 264 Mich 409, and People v. Wilcox (1942), 303 Mich 287, as authority. Guided by this principle of liberal construction, appellee asserts that defendant's alleged crimes could be considered to be included within the scope of the grand juror. This Court is aware of a crucial difference between this prior statute, CL 1929, §§ 17217–17220, and the present one which contains the words, "shall be specific to the common intent of the scope of the inquiry." Although the Michigan Supreme Court has not given an authori- [Page 665] tative interpretation to any changes which might have resulted from the inclusion of this phrase, the intention of the Court is clear. In In Re Colacasides (1967), 379 Mich 69, it said, in regard to the grand jury statute:

"No longer does the statute permit a grand juror to search out conduct generally but, instead, it requires the order authorizing the inquiry, and the complaint upon which the order is based to 'be specific to the common intent of the scope of the inquiry.'"

In light of this recent decision, it would be a clear abuse of judicial interpretation to say that the crimes charged to this defendant were encompassed within the scope of the inquiry.

For the reasons herein given, we grant the motion to quash the indictment.

All concurred.

1 Circuit judge, sitting on the Court of Appeals by assignment.

Per Curiam.

Defendant appeals by leave granted an order denying her motion to dissolve the appointment of a special prosecutor. The appointment had been made after the Grand Traverse County Prosecutor decided not to prosecute defendant.

We reverse and remand for further proceedings. In doing so, we hold that a prosecutor's decision to refrain from prosecuting is not, in itself, a conflict of interest authorizing the appointment of a special prosecutor pursuant to MCL 49.160; MSA 5.758.

I

In 1988, defendant was a principal prosecution witness in a murder trial in Otsego County. See generally People v Canter, 197 Mich App 550; 496 NW2d 336 (1992); People v Moore, 189 Mich App 315; 472 NW2d 1 (1991). In March 1988, an attorney representing one of the defendants in the trial received a handwritten death threat. The man who was convicted for writing the threat had allegedly implicated defendant as an aider and abettor in the crime.

[Page 596] In July 1993, the recipient of the death threat and other defense attorneys involved in the Otsego County murder cases (hereafter complainants) asked the Grand Traverse County Prosecutor to prosecute defendant for her role in the death threat. In a letter dated July 12, 1993, the county prosecutor informed complainants that he had decided not to prosecute. In support of his decision, the county prosecutor cited a lack of evidence to corroborate the allegation that defendant played a role in writing the death threat and the prosecutor's reluctance to intervene in a case principally affecting Otsego County. A third reason was given in an affidavit that was attached to defendant's motion to quash the appointment of the special prosecutor. In the affidavit, the county prosecutor testified that the recipient of the death threat had stated to him that the "real reason" he wanted defendant prosecuted was so that she would "turn on the prosecutor in Otsego County." This allegation was vehemently denied by complainants.

Later, in July 1993, complainants sought and obtained in the district court a "citizen's warrant" for the arrest of defendant for her alleged role in the death threat. The Grand Traverse County Prosecutor refused to prosecute the warrant for the reasons he had stated earlier. Thereafter, complainants successfully petitioned the circuit court to appoint a special prosecutor to execute the warrant and prosecute defendant for obstruction of justice. In authorizing the appointment of a special prosecutor, the circuit court ruled that the county prosecutor "is disqualified from acting in this matter by reason of a conflict of interest arising due to the unwillingness of the Grand [Page 597] Traverse County Prosecuting Attorney to act in this matter."

Thereafter, the special prosecutor moved to amend the felony information by changing the charge to extortion. The amended felony complaint (which was brought under a new file number because of an alleged clerical error) was coauthorized by the Attorney General, Frank J. Kelley. On February 24, 1994, the circuit court allowed the amendment.

Defendant moved to dissolve the appointment of the special prosecutor. At a hearing, defendant argued that the circuit court invaded the prosecutor's executive discretion by appointing a special prosecutor to overcome the prosecutor's decision not to prosecute.

The circuit court denied defendant's motion. In its ruling, the court stated that it had not instructed a special prosecutor to initiate a charge against defendant, but had instead given effect to a citizen's warrant. The court reasoned that, under the circumstances, its refusal to appoint a special prosecutor would nullify the statute that provides citizens the ability to request the issuance of an arrest warrant.[2] Further, the circuit judge stated that he "dramatically disagrees with [Page 598] defendant in the argument that any lawfully elected or appointed prosecutor has within his or her discretion the ability to ignore a citizen warrant."

This Court granted defendant's application for leave to appeal limited to the issues raised in defendant's application.

II

On appeal, defendant argues that the circuit court erred as a matter of law in ruling that the prosecutor's decision not to prosecute constitutes a conflict of interest authorizing the appointment of a special prosecutor pursuant to MCL 49.160; MSA 5.758. We agree.

The county prosecutor is a constitutional officer with discretion to decide whether to initiate criminal charges. Genesee Prosecutor v Genesee Circuit Judge, 386 Mich 672, 683; 194 NW2d 693 (1972); In re Special Prosecutor , 122 Mich App 632, 636; 332 NW2d 550 (1983); Inmates of Attica Correctional Facility v Rockefeller, 477 F2d 375, 380 (CA 2, 1973); Moses v Kennedy, 219 F Supp 762, 764 (D DC, 1963). The principle of separation of powers restricts judicial interference with a prosecutor's exercise of executive discretion. Special Prosecutor, supra at 636; People v Bolton, 112 Mich App 626, 630; 317 NW2d 199 (1981); Inmates of Attica Correctional Facility, supra at 379-380; see generally Const 1963, art 3, § 2.

MCL 49.160; MSA 5.758 is the exclusive source of the judiciary's authority to appoint a special prosecutor in lieu of a county prosecutor. The statute permits such an appointment only when (1) the prosecuting attorney "is disqualified by reason of conflict of interest," or (2) "is otherwise unable to attend to the [Page 599] duties of his office."[3] See People v Johnston, 326 Mich 213, 217; 40 NW2d 124 (1949); Special Prosecutor, supra at 634.

Case law involving the disqualification of prosecutors because of a conflict of interest falls into two main subject categories. People v Doyle, 159 Mich App 632, 641; 406 NW2d 893 (1987), modified on rehearing 161 Mich App 743; 411 NW2d 730 (1987). The first involves disqualification for conflicts arising from a professional attorney-client relationship, such as when the prosecutor has become privy to confidential information. Id. The second encompasses those situations where the prosecutor has a personal, financial, or emotional interest in the litigation or with the accused. Id.;People v Fitzsimmons, 183 Mich 284; 149 NW 976 (1914); People v Cline, 44 Mich 290; 6 NW 671 (1880). A prosecutor's decision not to prosecute a suspected criminal falls into neither category. Nor does the decision fall within any other stan- [Page 600] dard definition of "conflict of interest." See MRPC 1.7-1.9. Therefore, upholding the decision of the circuit court would require the creation of an entirely new category to be included within the definition of "conflict of interest."

We are unwilling to create a definition of "conflict of interest" that would include a prosecutor's decision not to prosecute. In effect, such a construction would divest prosecutors of their executive discretion by making a particular exercise thereof grounds for the appointment of a special prosecutor. In our view, such a result would constitute a clear violation of the principle of separation of powers by permitting the judiciary to overrule the prosecutor's exercise of executive discretion. See Special Prosecutor, supra at 635-636; People v Davis, 86 Mich App 514, 521-522; 272 NW2d 707 (1978).

For these reasons, we hold that the trial court erred as a matter of law in ruling that the prosecutor's decision not to prosecute constituted a conflict of interest within the meaning of MCL 49.160; MSA 5.758. Because there was no other basis to authorize the appointment of a special prosecutor in this case, we reverse.

III

The fact that complainants had acquired a citizen's warrant against defendant does not affect our conclusion. The statutory provision, MCL 49.160; MSA 5.758, is the only authority by which a court may appoint a special prosecutor. It provides no exception for a situation where the prosecutor has decided not to pursue a citizen's warrant.

[Page 601] Nor does the statute that authorizes citizens to seek an arrest warrant grant a corresponding right to have charges filed and prosecuted pursuant to the warrant. See, e.g., Sayles v Newton, 82 Mich 84, 90-91; 46 NW 29 (1890); see also Linda R S v Richard D, 410 US 614, 619; 93 S Ct 1146; 35 L Ed 2d 536 (1973) ("in American jurisprudence … a private citizen lacks a judicially cognizable interest in the prosecution or nonprosecution of another"); Anderson v Norfolk & W R Co, 349 F Supp 121, 122 (WD Va, 1972) ("criminal statutes can neither be enforced by civil action … nor by private parties"); Manning v Municipal Court of Roxbury Dist, 372 Mass 315, 317-318; 361 NE2d 1274 (1977) (same). Serious constitutional questions would arise regarding the judiciary's ability to initiate criminal charges if the court-approved issuance of a citizen's warrant were to trigger the appointment of a special prosecutor.[4]

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

We cannot accept such a construction because it would be inconsistent with our duty "to give the presumption of constitutionality to a statute and construe it as constitutional unless the contrary clearly appears."Caterpillar, Inc v Dep't of Treasury, 440 Mich 400, [Page 602] 413; 488 NW2d 182 (1992), quoting People v McQuillan, 392 Mich 511, 536; 221 NW2d 569 (1974).

IV

Finally, the special prosecutor argues that if his appointment is found to be invalid, the case may nevertheless be continued by the Attorney General. In the present appeal, this issue is not before us. We acknowledge that the Attorney General has the authority to initiate criminal charges in any jurisdiction in the state. In re Lewis' Estate , 287 Mich 179, 183, 184; 283 NW 21 (1938); People v Karalla, 35 Mich App 541, 543-544; 192 NW2d 676 (1971). Thus, the Attorney General acts as a check on the discretion of the county prosecutor. Further, we note that in the present case the Attorney General coauthorized the extortion complaint. However, the Attorney General has not filed an appearance or participated in these proceedings. Accordingly, it is unclear whether the Attorney General has made a decision to prosecute defendant.

Reversed and remanded for proceedings consistent with this opinion. We do not retain jurisdiction.

2 MCL 764.1; MSA 28.860 provides in part:

(1) For the apprehension of persons charged with a felony, misdemeanor, or ordinance violation, a magistrate may issue processes to implement [an arrest], except that a magistrate shall not issue warrants for other than minor offenses until an order in writing allowing the issuance of the warrant is filed with the magistrate and signed by the prosecuting attorney, or unless security for costs is filed with the magistrate.

See also MCR 6.101. This Court has interpreted this statute to allow a private citizen who is prepared to file security for costs to ask for the issuance of an arrest warrant. People v Joker, 63 Mich App 421, 427; 234 NW2d 550 (1975).

3 MCL 49.160; MSA 5.758 provides in part:

(1) If the prosecuting attorney of a county is disqualified by reason of conflict of interest or is otherwise unable to attend to the duties of the office, the supreme court, the court of appeals or the circuit court for that county, upon a finding to that effect by the court, may appoint an attorney at law as a special prosecuting attorney to perform the duties of the prosecuting attorney in the respective court in any matter in which the prosecuting attorney is disqualified or until such time as the prosecuting attorney is able to serve.

(2) If the prosecuting attorney of a county is disqualified by reason of conflict of interest or is otherwise unable to attend to the duties of the office, the circuit court for that county, upon a finding to that effect by the court, may appoint an attorney at law as a special prosecuting attorney to perform the duties of the prosecuting attorney in the probate court, the district court, or any other court within the county in any matter in which the prosecuting attorney is disqualified or until such time as the prosecuting attorney is able to serve.

4 In Sayles, supra at 89-90, our Supreme Court held that a circuit court may appoint a special prosecutor only in cases that are currently pending within its jurisdiction. See also People v Davis, 86 Mich App 514, 521-522; 272 NW2d 707 (1978). Despite some minor changes in the statutory language, this Court has recently construed MCL 49.160; MSA 5.758 in a similar fashion. Special Prosecutor, supra at 635-636. In each case, it was held that a special prosecutor could not be appointed to investigate or initiate a criminal charge. Sayles, supra at 90; Special Prosecutor, supra at 635-636. Thus, it appears that the authority to appoint a special prosecutor is limited to those cases where charges have been brought and it is later discovered that the prosecutor is unable to act or is disqualified by reason of conflict of interest. Sayles, supra at 90; Special Prosecutor, supra at 635-636; Davis, supra at 521-522.

O'Hara, J.

We accept the statement of facts as set forth in Judge Cavanagh's opinion. We, however, arrive at a different legal conclusion.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

The Constitution of 1963, art 6, § 5 provides in relevant part:

"The supreme court shall by general rules establish, modify, amend and simplify the practice and procedure in all courts of this state."

Amongst the reports of our Supreme Court the cases are cohort if not legion which recognize that this state's highest court has broad powers to promulgate rules to assist in the efficient administration of justice. For example, see Perin v Peuler, 373 Mich 531; 130 NW2d 4 (1964), and Buscaino v Rhodes, 385 Mich 474; 189 NW2d 202 (1971). That such rules take precedence over and supercede inconsistent legislation in the area of practice and procedure is hardly open to question. Perin v Peuler and Buscaino v Rhodes, supra.

GCR 1963, 927 (1) expressly authorizes certain courts to make local rules of practice with respect to matters not covered by nor in conflict with the Michigan General Court Rules.

Section 1 of Rule 9 of the Recorder's Court Rules, enacted pursuant to GCR 927, supra, provides:

[Page 424] "Sec. 1. Issuance of Warrants. Requests for arrest warrants, and search warrants in cases of alleged felonies and high misdemeanors shall be presented to, and the warrant shall issue in the name of the Examining Magistrate. In his absence such warrants may be issued and signed by any available regular Judge of this Court. Bench warrants and capias writs shall be signed by the Judge who ordered their issuance." (Emphasis supplied.)

In contradistinction to Recorder's Court Rule 9 are various statutes such as MCLA 766.2; MSA 28.920 and MCLA 764.1; MSA 28.860 which authorize all Recorder's Court judges to issue warrants.

What then of this conflict, real or imagined? This necessitates a review of one Supreme Court case and two other cases out of our own Court.

As to the first of these cases, we have no quarrel with the basic proposition as set forth in Krell v Wayne Circuit Judge, 246 Mich 412; 224 NW 392 (1929), which holds that a local court rule cannot govern the same subject matter as that governed by a statute. Krell is simply inapposite since that case involved a local court rule as to which the Supreme Court had taken no action. Per contra, the Supreme Court has specifically approved Rule 9 of the Recorder's Court Rules. See People v Mordell, 55 Mich App 462, 463; 223 NW2d 10 (1974), *lv den*393 Mich 771 (1974).

People v Williams # 2, 45 Mich App 630; 207 NW2d 180 (1973), presents a closer case to the situation herein. While Williams does state that only the Supreme Court can supercede a legislative enactment pursuant to its broad constitutional prerogatives under the 1963 Constitution, art 6, § 5, at no place does the Williams opinion directly discuss the extremely sticky situation as to whether or not a local court rule approved by the Supreme Court takes precedence over a conflicting [Page 425] statutory provision concerned solely with matters of practice and procedure.

In the last of these cases, People v Mordell, supra, the defendant attacked the validity of a search warrant issued by a Recorder's Court judge other than the examining magistrate. This Court did not resolve the alleged conflict between the Supreme Court-approved local rule, the same Recorder's Court Rule 9 involved herein, and the statute, but held that even if Rule 9 did take precedence, failure to follow it did not affect defendant's Fourth Amendment rights. The Court reached this decision by balancing the interests of the defendant against the interests of protecting the public. No claim was made as to the search being unreasonable or improper. In effect the Court applied a harmless error standard and held the trial judge erred in suppressing the evidence and dismissing the case.

Since none of the cited cases are controlling decisionally we feel free to write to the issue as one of apparent first impression in this state.

In the instant case we have a situation where the Supreme Court has approved a local court rule requiring inter alia all arrest warrants to issue in the name of the examining magistrate, subject to limited exceptions, even though this contravenes specific statutory authority permitting all Recorder's Court judges to issue warrants. Parenthetically, we further hold that should Judge Cavanagh be correct in his view that the involved court rule was never formally approved by the Supreme Court that it in no manner affects the result which we reach. This because the Supreme Court in effect implicitly placed its stamp of approval on Rule 9 of the Recorder's Court Rules by its silence or failure to affirmatively reject the rule [Page 426] when proposed. Now it is true in the case of GCR 1963, 927 that it merely provides for the method to be followed by the particular court in adopting local rules and specifically states that the Supreme Court shall be notified in writing 10 days in advance of a rule's adoption.[2] Nowhere, we concede, does it expressly state that this procedure constitutes formal approval, or that the local rule is given the dignity of a rule originally promulgated by the Supreme Court or that such a rule takes precedence over a statute. But the irrefutable fact remains that GCR 927 expressly requires proper notice and additionally states that "[t]he adoption or continuance of any local court rules shall be subject to the superintending control of the Supreme Court". Read in a common sense manner this implies none too subtlely that the purpose of the notice provision is to permit the state's highest court to make a threshhold determination as to whether a proposed court rule or modification thereof should be promulgated at all. Since the local rule's adoption or continuance is expressly made subject to the superintending control of the Supreme Court, it is stretching credulity a bit to say that initial promulgation and continued existence of such a rule does not stand as mute testimony to the fact that the Supreme Court has already given its tacit "approval" of the involved rule.

Since the Supreme Court has by its action or inaction raised the local rule to the dignity of a rule initially promulgated by the highest court itself and since the subject matter of the court rule relates to both "practice and procedure", we are constrained to hold that the statutes authorizing [Page 427] all Recorder's Court judges to issue warrants must give way to the extent that they are inconsistent with Rule 9 of the Recorder's Court Rules. See generally, Buscaino v Rhodes, and Perin v Peuler, supra.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Because of certain highly unusual circumstances involved in the present case we cannot see applying a "harmless error" or "manifest injustice" standard as did the Court in People v Mordell, supra. The Mordell opinion took the rather sensible view that the issuance of search warrants was a common procedure which could be handled as well by one judge as by another member of the judiciary and that it would unduly frustrate effective law enforcement to require that police delay obtaining warrants which could result in apprehension of narcotics dealers merely to comply with an "in-house court rule" intended for the convenience of the local judiciary. After balancing the interest of the defendant in a strict, literal compliance with the local court rule as against the interest of the public in ridding the streets of drug traffickers, Mordell concluded that the policy underlying the exclusionary rule did not dictate suppressing evidence obtained by a search and seizure which was unchallenged as to reasonableness.

The instant case is distinguishable from Mordell. Here we are dealing with a truly extraordinary statutory procedure, MCLA 764.1; MSA 28.860, providing for the issuance of an arrest warrant by a judge upon complaint of a private citizen who is prepared to file security for costs. That such is not the usual manner of obtaining an arrest warrant need not be gainsaid. We see no reason why judicial notice may not be taken of the fact that the prosecutor is the public official entrusted under applicable statutory and case authority with the [Page 428] basic and fundamental decision as to whether a warrant will in fact issue. In the case at bar the Wayne County Prosecutor had discharged the duties of his office by investigating the charges made against defendant Lindsay Joker and declining to take any further action. Quite obviously the prosecutor found insufficient merit in the charges to justify initiation of criminal proceedings. Only then did Judge Ravitz authorize the issuance of an arrest warrant not signed by the examining magistrate in direct contravention of Rule 9 of the Recorder's Court Rules. This action constituted reversible error. Where there has been resort to such an extraordinary artifice to commence criminal proceedings following the good faith refusal of the prosecutor to act after investigation of a complainant's story, basic fairness, if not due process, would seem to require that we adhere to fundamental principles by requiring that there be strict compliance with the applicable procedures. Should we do less do we not invite seriously the possibility, nay the likelihood, of frivolous proceedings instigated before a magistrate favorable to the alleged victim? Even if this not be true the appearance of impropriety certainly exists and the judiciary as guardians of the law must be not only concerned that justice in fact be done but that it also appear that proper procedures were followed.

Thus we hold that without a showing that the examining magistrate was absent or otherwise unavailable the warrant was improperly issued and the warrant should be quashed and the charges dismissed.

We also must record our vigorous disagreement with the contention made in Judge Cavanagh's opinion that it would raise grave constitutional questions if the complainant's alleged indigency [Page 429] somehow precluded him from obtaining a warrant because of inability to post the requisite security for costs.

Unlike Griffin v Illinois, 351 US 12; 76 S Ct 585; 100 L Ed 891 (1956), the complainant is not faced with a situation where he has been convicted of the commission of a crime and stands to be deprived of an opportunity for full appellate review solely because of his impecunious state.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

To the contrary, he merely seeks to vindicate his right to be free from alleged intrusions on his person. Admittedly, this interest is hardly insubstantial but it surely pales in comparison with the prospect of answering criminal charges and the very real possibility of having one's personal liberty restrained for some indefinite period by imprisonment. Nor should it be overlooked that the complainant herein, in contrast with many indigents, such as in Griffin, supra, was not faced with obtaining a waiver of certain fees in order to assert his rights or totally foregoing any possibility of redress. Just as any other citizen the complainant could and, in fact, did importune the prosecutor's office to issue an arrest warrant. That his efforts were unavailing is not to the point. What is to the point is that there was a reasonable, viable alternative open to the complainant to seek redress of his grievances. This more than satisfies Griffin and its progeny. Hence even if the complainant was indigent he was not entitled to post a purely nominal sum as security for costs.

In like manner, for yet another reason, we are more than a little puzzled by the apparent holding that it would be constitutionally impermissible to require that a reasonable security bond be posted in the case of an indigent. For purposes of discussion only, let us suppose that the complainant [Page 430] herein was not so fortunate as to have the charges against him dismissed and was eventually bound over for trial. As a purported indigent, we presume that he would not be able to post bond and he would not be able to secure his freedom unless released on his own recognizance. By failing to meet any bond set he necessarily would be incarcerated until the date of trial. The complainant would suffer the loss of his personal liberty solely because of his impoverished status. Yet this apparently raises no insurmountable constitutional obstacle since it happens countless times every day in Wayne County and no relief is granted to those individuals. Some may say that the two situations are not entirely comparable. Be that as it may, the interest of a criminal accused in not being deprived of his freedom is, in our view, substantially greater than the interest of a private citizen in seeking to right an alleged wrong. We also concede that the state's interest in insuring that an accused criminal will show up for trial is likewise a not insubstantial interest. But if we may deprive a man of one of his most basic rights, the freedom to go where he pleases, prior to any final adjudication of his guilt, we fail to see why we cannot place a limited condition precedent in the way of one who seeks to invoke an extraordinary procedure in order to cause criminal process to issue.

We have not chosen to discuss the separation of powers doctrine but we add that in our view the examining magistrate arrogated to himself authority which properly is vested in the prosecuting attorney. See generally, People v Holbrook, 373 Mich 94; 128 NW2d 484 (1964).

For the reasons stated herein, we reverse the order of the trial judge denying defendant's motion to quash the warrant.

T. M. Burns, P. J., concurred.

M. F. Cavanagh, J., (dissenting).

I must respectfully dissent from the majority's disposition of this appeal.

This case arises from a confrontation between the defendant, a police officer, and another person named Franklin Newsom when the defendant arrested Newsom for resisting and obstructing a police officer. MCLA 750.479; MSA 28.747. After arraignment, Newsom brought a motion to dismiss the complaint and warrant before Detroit Recorder's Court Judge Justin C. Ravitz, who had also been the arraigning magistrate. Newsom also requested that a warrant be issued against the defendant police officer. After an evidentiary hearing, Judge Ravitz on June 20, 1974, granted the motion to dismiss and issued a warrant against the defendant for felonious assault, MCLA 750.82; MSA 28.277. With the warrant and complaint was included an order setting security for costs at $1, which was paid by complainant Newsom. The defendant filed an emergency motion to quash the warrant.

Several days later on June 24, 1974, after the prosecutor had disqualified himself and the rest of the Wayne County Prosecutor staff, Judge Ravitz appointed a special prosecutor who continues to represent the people at this time. Two days later, the defendant filed an emergency application for leave to appeal to the Michigan Court of Appeals. On June 27, 1974, one day before the preliminary examination was scheduled, this Court entered an order quashing the warrant on the grounds that the setting of costs at $1 was arbitrary and capricious in light of MCLA 764.1; MSA 28.860, and People v Holbrook, 373 Mich 94; 128 NW2d 484 (1964).

This order, however, was vacated on October 11, [Page 432] 1974, by the Michigan Supreme Court. The cause was remanded to Recorder's Court for a hearing on the motion to quash, which was pending there. People v Joker, 392 Mich 801 (1974).

The defendant's motion to quash in Recorder's Court was denied and, after a preliminary examination, he was bound over for trial on the felonious assault charge. On December 18, 1974, this Court granted a second emergency application for leave to appeal.

The defendant contends that we should quash the subject warrant and dismiss the charges against him because of two alleged irregularities in the initial proceeding which resulted in the issuance of the warrant against him.

The first contention of error is that Judge Ravitz failed to adhere to the procedure set forth in Detroit Recorder's Court Rule 9 for the issuance of the warrant for his arrest. This, defendant contends, deprived the magistrate of jurisdiction to issue a warrant against him.

Rule 9 of the Recorder's Court Rules provides in pertinent part:

"Sec. 1. Issuance of Warrants. Requests for arrest warrants, and search warrants in cases of alleged felonies and high misdemeanors shall be presented to, and the warrant shall issue in the name of the Examining Magistrate. In his absence such warrants may be issued and signed by any available regular Judge of this Court. Bench warrants and capias writs shall be signed by the Judge who ordered their issuance.

"Sec. 2. Record of Warrants. All arrest and search warrants shall be prepared by the prosecutor and numbered and recorded before delivery to any officer or other person for service."

The problem involved in this issue is raised by [Page 433] the fact that these rules are, to some extent, inconsistent with certain statutes, both in respect to the authority of a particular judge to issue a warrant and the manner in which that warrant may be issued.

MCLA 766.2; MSA 28.920 along with MCLA 764.1; MSA 28.860 gives authority to issue warrants to, inter alia, all Recorder's Court judges. The statutes contain no stipulation as in Rule 9 that the examining magistrate be absent before other judges may exercise that authority. See also MCLA 780.651; MSA 28.1259(1). The recent decision of People v Mordell, 55 Mich App 462, 466; 223 NW2d 10 (1974), recognized this inconsistency between the court rule and the statute:

"By statute, all judges of the Recorder's Court are empowered to sign search warrants. MCLA 764.1; MSA 28.860. If the judge is satisfied there is reasonable cause for the warrant's issuance, the statute provides he 'shall issue a warrant'. MCLA 780.651; MSA 28.1259(1) (emphasis supplied). Rule 9 obviously diminishes the statutory power since the rule precludes issuance if the Recorder's Judge is not the then-designated presiding magistrate, and available. This conflict between the statute and the rule raises the question of the extent to which a local court rule, approved by the Supreme Court, may abrogate or qualify an existing statute."

People v Williams #2, 45 Mich App 630; 207 NW2d 180 (1973), also involved a potential conflict between a Recorder's Court Rule and a statute. Although there was some question as to whether the rule encompassed the trial judge's actions in that case, Williams held that only the Michigan Supreme Court, through exercise of its Const 1963, art 6, § 5 power to adopt general court rules, could modify the provisions of a legislative enactment. 45 Mich App 630, 642. See also Pressley v Wayne [Page 434] County Sheriff, 30 Mich App 300; 186 NW2d 412 (1971), and Krell v Wayne Circuit Judge, 246 Mich 412; 224 NW2d 392 (1929).

Recorder's Court Rule 9 cannot be construed to cover only the usual situation of a request for a warrant by the prosecutor. It must encompass citizen requests also. The rotating designation of the Recorder's Court judges as examining magistrate cannot prohibit a private citizen from seeking the issuance of a warrant under MCLA 764.1, 766.2; MSA 28.860, 28.920. This ministerial rule was intended only to channel the great majority of cases, which involve prosecutor-requested warrants, into the court of the examining magistrate when he was not absent. This would properly serve the purposes of expediting the criminal justice process and of deterring the practice of "judge-shopping". However, these purposes clearly cannot prohibit a complainant from proceeding on his own, without an order from the prosecutor, if security for costs is filed. People v Carter, 379 Mich 24, 29; 148 NW2d 860 (1967).

The court rule cannot stand in light of the contrary statute empowering all Recorder's Court judges to issue warrants. MCLA 766.2; MSA 28.920 authorizes any magistrate to examine a complainant and witnesses who contend that a criminal offense has been committed. If he determines from that examination that an offense has been committed, "the magistrate shall issue a warrant". MCLA 766.3; MSA 28.921.

The majority opinion proceeds under the assumption that the Michigan Supreme Court, pursuant to GCR 1963, 927, has given its express approval to Recorder's Court Rule 9 so as to give the local court rule precedence over a statute. GCR 927(2), at the time Rule 9 was adopted, stated as follows:

[Page 435] "The Supreme Court shall be notified in writing 10 days in advance of adoption or amendment of any local court rules. The adoption or continuance of any local court rules shall be subject to the superintending control of the Supreme Court. Two copies of any local court rules or amendment thereto shall be mailed to the Supreme Court whenever such rules or amendments are adopted. Amended December 3, 1968."

This is apparently the imprimatur which the majority concludes is a justification for the elevation of a local court rule so as to abrogate a statute. But recently this Court, in considering a similar contention raised as to the authority of Recorder's Court Rule 10, expressly denied this interpretation of the court rule:

"GCR 1963, 927(2) only facilitates the control of the Supreme Court over the rules for practice and procedure in all courts of the state. It does not provide a way for lower courts to share the power to fashion rules that are superior to legislative enactments. 'No other court, only the Supreme Court, enjoys that power.' Pressley v Wayne County Sheriff, 30 Mich App 300, 313; 186 NW2d 412 (1971)." In the Matter of the Attorney Fees of Ruth Ritter and Raymond E. Willis , 63 Mich App 24; 233 NW2d 876 (1975).

I concur in this reading of GCR 927. The notification to the Supreme Court and the authority of that Court to alter lower court rules does not effect precedence over a contrary statute. Moreover, it is interesting to note that GCR 1963, 925.1, concerning powers of a judge in multiple judge circuits, states:

"The powers and duties of each judge shall be the same as judges in the circuits having only 1 judge."

The effect of the majority's rule will serve to [Page 436] reduce the authority of a Recorder's Court judge in the area of issuing warrants.

For these reasons, I conclude that a Recorder's Court judge who is not the examining magistrate may nevertheless examine a complainant's request that a warrant be issued; and, if it appears that a criminal offense has been committed, the judge is authorized to issue the arrest warrant.

As his second issue, defendant contends that the setting of security for costs at $1 violates MCLA 764.1; MSA 28.860.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

MCLA 764.1; MSA 28.860 states as follows:

"For the apprehension of persons charged with offenses, excepting such offenses as are cognizable by justices of the peace, the justices of the supreme court, the several circuit judges, courts of record having jurisdiction of criminal causes and circuit court commissioners, mayors and recorders of cities and all justices of the peace, shall have power to issue processes to carry into effect the provisions of this chapter: Provided, however, That it shall not be lawful for any of the above named public officials to issue warrants in any criminal cases, except where warrants are requested by members of the department of public safety for traffic or motor vehicle violations until an order in writing allowing the same is filed with such public officials and signed by the prosecuting attorney for the county, or unless security for costs shall have been filed with said public officials."

See also MCLA 775.12; MSA 28.1249. The statute basically provides for two methods for a court's issuance of an arrest warrant: upon written order of the prosecuting attorney or upon complaint of a private person with the filing of security.

The requirement of "security for costs" has not been completely clarified by our courts. People v [Page 437] Griswold, 64 Mich 722; 31 NW 809 (1887), considered an early statute, the reenactment of which is MCLA 774.4; MSA 28.1195, the counterpart of MCLA 764.1 for the issuance of warrants for offenses cognizable by a justice of the peace. Like MCLA 764.1, MCLA 774.4 provides for the issuance of a warrant upon complaint of a private person with the filing of "security for costs".

Griswold held that a complainant's failure to file security for costs was not a ground for reversing the conviction:

"The object sought to be accomplished by that statute was to guard against the indiscretion, frequently indulged in by magistrates, in permitting legal proceedings to be instituted against parties for crime without any previous inquiry into the circumstances. While an omission to secure an order from the prosecuting attorney before issuing process in criminal cases might subject the magistrate to censure, and possibly, in some cases, to pecuniary injury and official embarrassment, it was never intended to deprive the court of jurisdiction in any case; and whether the complaining party has given to the people security for costs in the case is a subject in which the respondent is not especially interested, and, if the people are satisfied to prosecute without such security, there is no reason why he should complain." 64 Mich 722, 723.

This case would seem to support the prosecutor's argument against reversal, but Griswold has been overruled by People v Holbrook, 373 Mich 94; 128 NW2d 484 (1964). In that case, a justice of the peace issued an arrest warrant for a game law violation. The complaint had been drawn up by a conservation officer and signed by a state trooper. The Court reversed the conviction. The justice of the peace had no jurisdiction since there had been no order signed by the prosecuting attorney and [Page 438] since the two statutory exceptions to such a procedure were not factually applicable.

The fact that the prosecutor had subsequently appeared and prosecuted the case did not serve to validate the initial unlawfulness. It is in this context that Griswold was specifically overruled. 373 Mich 94, 99.

Whether Griswold's rule remains viable that only the county, and not the party against whom a complaint was filed, has standing to complain about a magistrate's failure to require security for costs is an uncertain question. Holbrook stated in dictum in explaining MCLA 774.4:

"Exception is allowed in connection with traffic violations, or a complainant is permitted to proceed on his own if security for costs is filed with the justice. The filing of costs assures payment to the justice, and is also a test of the complainant's belief in the guilt of the person accused." 373 Mich 94, 97.

See also People v Carter, 379 Mich 24; 148 NW2d 860 (1967).

There is another variable for consideration. The complainant had a statutory right to institute this criminal proceeding by requesting the issuance of a warrant. A substantial constitutional question would be raised if we were to hold that the complainant's indigency precluded him from enforcing this right. In a different context, Griffin v Illinois, 351 US 12; 76 S Ct 585; 100 L Ed 891 (1956), stated:

"Providing equal justice for poor and rich, weak and powerful alike is an age-old problem. People have never ceased to hope and strive to move closer to that goal. This hope, at least in part, brought about in 1215 the royal concessions of Magna Charta: 'To no one will we sell, to no one will we refuse, or delay, right or justice'. [Page 439] * * * These pledges were unquestionably steps toward a fairer and more nearly equal application of criminal justice. In this tradition, our own constitutional guaranties of due process and equal protection both call for procedures in criminal trials which allow no invidious discriminations between persons and different groups of persons. Both equal protection and due process emphasize the central aim of our entire judicial system—all people charged with crime must, so far as the law is concerned, 'stand on an equality before the bar of justice in every American court.' [Citations omitted.]

"In criminal trials a State can no more discriminate on account of poverty than on account of religion, race or color. Plainly the ability to pay costs in advance bears no rational relationship to a defendant's guilt or innocence and could not be used as an excuse to deprive a defendant of a fair trial." 351 US 12, 16–18.

It is also relevant to note that GCR 1963, 120 authorizes a court to suspend or waive the payment of fees and costs required to be paid by law for indigent persons. Judge Ravitz made an express determination that complainant Newsom was indigent.

Because of all of these considerations I would hold that a magistrate's requiring of only token payment of security for costs under MCLA 764.1; MSA 28.860 after the magistrate has determined the complainant to be indigent is not error.

The prosecution appeals by delayed leave granted the trial court's March 25, 2006, order granting defendant's motion to admit the investigative-subpoena testimony of a now-deceased witness, Andre Mathis, at trial. Because defendant was required to show that the prosecution had a similar motive in developing Mathis's testimony at the investigative-subpoena hearing before the trial court could admit Mathis's investigative-subpoena testimony at trial, we vacate the trial court's order and remand for a determination regarding whether the prosecution had a similar motive in developing Mathis's testimony at the investigative-subpoena hearing.

This appeal arises from the shooting of Denise Colen and her brother, David Colen, Jr., outside an after-hours club in Flint. David Colen died as a result of injuries he incurred in the shooting. Mathis witnessed the shooting and, after being issued an investigative subpoena, appeared at the Genesee County Prosecuting Attorney's office to give sworn testimony regarding the incident. The testimony he provided indicated that a man known as "Rick" (later clarified to be Ricardo Otis Dickerson) was the shooter. Several months later, Mathis signed a proffer agreement concerning a criminal charge brought against him (for an unrelated incident), which contained a written statement about the Colen shootings and which the prosecution contends contradicted [Page 271] his investigative-subpoena testimony. Mathis was listed as a witness for the prosecution, but died as a result of gunshot wounds before trial in this matter began. After Mathis's death, defendant filed a motion to introduce at trial a transcript of Mathis's investigative-subpoena testimony, and the trial court granted defendant's motion. By leave granted, this appeal followed.

This Court reviews for an abuse of discretion a trial court's determination of evidentiary issues. People v Smith, 456 Mich 543, 549; 581 NW2d 654 (1998). "'[A]n abuse of discretion standard acknowledges that there will be circumstances in which there will be no single correct outcome; rather, there will be more than one reasonable and principled outcome.'" Maldonado v Ford Motor Co, 476 Mich 372, 388; 719 NW2d 809 (2006), quoting *People v Babcock,*469 Mich 247, 269; 666 NW2d 231 (2003). "'When the trial court selects one of these principled outcomes, the trial court has not abused its discretion and, thus, it is proper for the reviewing court to defer to the trial court's judgment." Maldonado, 476 Mich at 388, quoting Babcock, 469 Mich at 269. "However, decisions regarding the admission of evidence frequently involve preliminary questions of law, e.g., whether a rule of evidence or statute precludes admissibility of the evidence." People v Lukity, 460 Mich 484, 488; 596 NW2d 607 (1999). This Court reviews de novo questions of law. Id.

On appeal, neither party disputes that Mathis's testimony is hearsay. Rather, defendant contends that the testimony falls within an exception to the hearsay rule and is thus admissible. The prosecution, however, contends that defendant failed to show that Mathis's investigative-subpoena testimony was admissible under MRE 804(b)(1) and that the admission of the testimony constituted an abuse of the trial court's discretion. The [Page 272] prosecution also contends that Mathis's testimony is akin to grand-jury testimony, and, thus, it must satisfy the same evidentiary standards to be admissible at trial.

Out-of-court statements offered for their truth are usually inadmissible hearsay. See MRE 801(c); MRE 802. MRE 804(b), however, provides several hearsay exceptions if a declarant is unavailable as a witness. [1] Defendant advocates the admission of Mathis's testimony in his defense pursuant to MRE 804(b)(1), which provides that "former testimony" is excluded from the hearsay rule if the witness's testimony was "given as a witness at another hearing of the same or a different proceeding, if the party against whom the testimony is now offered . . . had an opportunity and similar motive to develop the testimony by direct, cross, or redirect examination."

Pursuant to the langue of MRE 804(b)(1), the first element necessary for the admission of former testimony is that the testimony must have been made at "another hearing." The prosecution does not seriously dispute that the investigative-subpoena hearing qualifies as "another hearing." In fact, the prosecution likens Mathis's testimony to testimony given during a grand-jury proceeding, which has been held to be a hearing for purposes of FRE 804(b)(1). [2] See United States v Salerno, 505 US 317 , 321; 112 S Ct 2503 ; 120 L Ed 2d 255 (1992). Moreover, a quick review of the statutes governing investigative-subpoena proceedings and grand-jury proceedings reveals noteworthy similarities that compel [Page 273] us to hold that Mathis's testimony was given at "another hearing" for purposes of MRE 804(b)(1).

MCL 767A.2 allows a prosecuting attorney to petition the district court, the circuit court, or the recorder's court in writing for authorization to issue one or more subpoenas to investigate the commission of a felony. A court may authorize the prosecutor to issue an investigative subpoena if the judge determines that there is reasonable cause to believe a felony has been committed and that there is reasonable cause to believe that the person who is the subject of the investigative subpoena may have knowledge concerning the commission of a felony or the items sought are relevant to investigate the commission of a felony. [In re Subpoenas to News Media Petitioners, 240 Mich App 369, 375; 613 NW2d 342 (2000), citing MCL 767A.3(1).]

Investigative subpoenas must include a statement that a person may have legal counsel present at all times during questioning, MCL 767A.4(g), and a witness must be advised of his or her constitutional rights against compulsory self-incrimination, MCL 767A.5(5); People v Stevens, 461 Mich 655, 659 n 1; 610 NW2d 881 (2000). A person served with an investigative subpoena must appear before the prosecuting attorney and answer questions concerning the felony being investigated. MCL 767A.5(1). The prosecuting attorney is authorized to administer oaths, MCL 767A.5(2), and if a witness testifies falsely under oath during an investigative-subpoena proceeding, perjury penalties apply, MCL 767A.9.

In Michigan, grand-jury proceedings are governed by MCL 767.1 et seq. See People v Glass (After Remand), 464 Mich 266, 278-280; 627 NW2d 261 (2001). "There is no state constitutional right to indictment by grand jury; rather, indictment by grand jury is an alternative [Page 274] charging procedure created by the Legislature." Id. at 278-279, citing *In re Palm,*255 Mich 632; 238 NW 732 (1931). MCL 767.21 provides:

The prosecuting attorney and other prosecuting officers, may, in all cases, issue subpoenas for witnesses to appear and testify on behalf of the people of this state; and the subpoena, under the hand of such officer, shall have the same force and be obeyed in the same manner and under the same penalties, as if issued by the clerk or any magistrate.

A witness testifying before a grand jury does so under oath and may be found in contempt if the witness neglects or refuses to appear or testify or to "answer any questions before the grand jury concerning any matter of thing of which the witness has knowledge concerning matters before the grand jury . . . ." MCL 767.19c.

A one-person grand jury may also be convened to investigate whether probable cause exists to suspect that a crime has been committed. The one-person grand jury is a creation of, and draws its extraordinary powers from, statutes. MCL 767.3 and 767.4; In re Slattery, 310 Mich 458; 17 NW2d 251 (1945). MCL 767.3 grants the one-person grand jury certain powers, including subpoena power to require such persons to attend before him as witnesses and answer such questions as the judge may require concerning any violation of law about which they may be questioned within the scope of the order. The proceedings to summon such witness and to compel him to testify shall, as far as possible, be the same as proceedings to summon witnesses and compel their attendance and testimony.

Any witness who neglects or refuses to appear in response to a summons or to answer any questions [Page 275] posed by the one-person grand jury may be found in contempt of court. MCL 767.5.

As can be seen, both sets of statutes provide mechanisms to subpoena witnesses to testify regarding circumstances surrounding the investigation of a felony. MCL 767.3; MCL

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

767.21; MCL 767A.3(1). Furthermore, a witness testifying before either a grand jury or during an investigative-subpoena hearing does so under oath and subject to the penalties for perjury. MCL 767.19d; MCL 767A.9. Similar procedures are also available for a defendant to obtain a witness's testimony from either a grand-jury proceeding or an investigative-subpoena hearing. See MCL 767.19g; MCL 767A.5. Because of the similarities between a grand-jury proceeding and an investigative-subpoena hearing, we find that testimony given at an investigative-subpoena hearing qualifies as "[t]estimony given as a witness at another hearing of the same or a different proceeding" under MRE 804(b)(1).

The challenged testimony having been given at another hearing, we next address whether the testimony meets the second requirement of MRE 804(b)(1)—that is, whether the party against whom the testimony is now offered had an opportunity and similar motive to develop the testimony. Whether a party had a similar motive to develop the testimony depends on the similarity of the issues for which the testimony is presented at each proceeding. People v Vera, 153 Mich App 411, 415; 395 NW2d 339 (1986). Given the similarities between a grand-jury proceeding and an investigative-subpoena hearing, we find a review of cases involving the admission of grand-jury testimony under various hearsay exceptions helpful in resolving the issue in the present case.

In United States v Salerno, the Supreme Court addressed whether the grand-jury testimony of two unavailable witnesses could properly be admitted under FRE 804(b)(1). There, both witnesses invoked the right against self-incrimination at trial, and the defendants attempted to introduce the witnesses' exculpatory grand-jury testimony under FRE 804(b)(1). Salerno, 505 US at 319-320. However, the district court refused to admit the testimony, reasoning that the government did not have a similar motive under FRE 804(b)(1) in eliciting the witnesses' testimony during the grand-jury proceedings because the "'motive of a prosecutor in questioning a witness before the grand jury in the investigatory stages of a case is far different from the motive of a prosecutor in conducting the trial.'" Id. at 320. On appeal, the Supreme Court agreed that to admit the testimony under FRE 804(b)(1), the defendants were required to show that the United States had a similar motive in developing the witnesses' testimony at the grand-jury proceedings. Id. at 322. Furthermore, the Supreme Court rejected the defendants' argument that "adversarial fairness may prohibit suppression of exculpatory evidence produced in grand jury proceedings," reasoning that nothing within the explicit provisions of FRE 804(b)(1) allowed the Court to resolve the issue in equity. Id. at 323-324. Consequently, the Supreme Court remanded the matter to the Second Circuit Court of Appeals for a determination regarding whether the prosecution had a similar motive in eliciting the witnesses' grand-jury testimony. Id. at 325.

This Court addressed a similar issue in People v Chavies, 234 Mich App 274; 593 NW2d 655 (1999), overruled on other grounds by People v Williams, 475 Mich 245 (2006). There, two witnesses testified before a one-person grand jury under penalty of perjury, implicating the defendant in a murder. At trial, however, the [Page 277] witnesses "claimed to remember nothing about the murder or about their prior statements . . . .." Chavies, 234 Mich App at 282. This Court held that the witnesses' grand-jury testimony was properly admitted as a prior inconsistent statement under MRE 801(d)(1)(A), but would have been inadmissible under MRE 804(b)(1) because the "defendant had no 'opportunity . . . to develop the testimony by direct, cross, or redirect examination' in front of the grand jury." Id. at 283-284, quoting MCL 767.3. [3]

Federal courts have also addressed issues involving admission of grand-jury testimony under the former-testimony exception. In United States v DiNapoli, 8 F3d 909 , 912 (CA 2, 1993) (en banc), the Second Circuit Court of Appeals interpreted the "similar motive" requirement of FRE 804(b)(1). The Second Circuit noted that there are differences between grand-jury and trial proceedings, but declined to hold that a prosecutor generally will not have the same motive to develop testimony at grand-jury proceedings as he or she does at trial. Id. at 913-914. The DiNapoli court also declined to accept the converse, that the motives will always be similar, indicating that, "[i]n almost every criminal case, . . . the Government could probably point to some aspect of cross-examination of an exonerating witness that could have been employed at a prior trial and surely at a prior grand jury proceeding." Id. at 914. The [Page 278] Second Circuit thus encouraged a fact-specific inquiry regarding whether the prosecution had a "similar motive" in developing the witness's testimony during a grand-jury proceeding:

The proper approach, therefore, in assessing similarity of motive under [FRE] 804(b)(1) must consider whether the party resisting the offered testimony at a pending proceeding had at a prior proceeding an interest of substantially similar intensity to prove (or disprove) the same side of a substantially similar issue. The nature of the two proceedings—both what is at stake and the applicable burden of proof—and, to a lesser extent, the cross-examination at the prior proceeding—both what was undertaken and what was available but forgone—will be relevant though not conclusive on the ultimate issue of similarity of motive. [Id. at 914-915.]

We find the analysis employed in DiNapoli well-reasoned and compelling, and thus adopt the following as a nonexhaustive list of factors a trial court is to examine in determining whether the party had a similar motive to examine a witness at the prior proceeding: (1) whether the party opposing the testimony "had at a prior proceeding an interest of substantially similar intensity to prove (or disprove) the same side of a substantially similar issue"; (2) the nature of the two proceedings—both what is at stake and the applicable burdens of proof; and (3) whether the party opposing the testimony in fact undertook to cross-examine the witness (both the employed and the available but forgone opportunities).

The trial court relied on unpublished opinions in rendering its decision and made no finding with respect to the prosecution's motive in developing Mathis's testimony at the investigative-subpoena hearing. Absent such a finding, we cannot determine whether the trial court properly considered the admissibility of the [Page 279] statements under MRE 804(b)(1). Therefore, we remand this case to the trial court for a determination regarding whether the prosecution had a similar motive in developing Mathis's testimony at the investigative-subpoena hearing. See Salerno, 505 US at 320.

Defendant separately argues on appeal that he would be denied his constitutional right to present a defense if he is precluded from presenting Mathis's investigative-subpoena testimony at trial and that the evidentiary rules should yield to his constitutional right. Defendant notes that he intends to introduce Mathis's former testimony to show that Mathis identified Dickerson, and not defendant, as the person who committed the shootings. However, this Court granted the prosecution's delayed application for leave to appeal and limited review to the issues raised in the prosecution's application. People v Farquharson, unpublished order of the Court of Appeals, entered August 21, 2006 (Docket No. 271783). The prosecution did not raise defendant's constitutional claims in its application. Further, defendant did not file a cross-appeal. We thus decline to specifically consider defendant's constitutional claim because "this appeal is limited to the scope of this Court's order granting leave to appeal . . . and defendant has not raised these constitutional issues in a cross-appeal." People v Cervi, 270 Mich App 603, 623 n 13; 717 NW2d 356 (2006), citing MCR 7.205(D)(4) and Jenkins v Patel, 256 Mich App 112, 130; 662 NW2d 453 (2003), rev'd on other grounds 471 Mich 158 (2004).

Vacated and remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order. We do not retain jurisdiction.

Fort Hood, P.J., concurred.

1 Unavailability as a witness includes situations in which the declarant is unable to be present or to testify at the hearing because of death. MRE 804(a)(4).

2 The text of MRE 804(b)(1) is almost identical to FRE 804(b)(1). As our Supreme Court noted in *People v Katt,*468 Mich 272, 280; 662 NW2d 12 (2003), federal decisions interpreting federal rules of evidence are instructive in interpreting similar Michigan rules of evidence.

3 The admission of testimony under MRE 804(b)(1) often raises issues concerning a defendant's right to confront witnesses against him or her. However, this Court has recognized that a defendant may personally and expressly waive this right of confrontation. See People v Lawson, 124 Mich App 371, 376; 335 NW2d 43 (1983). In this matter, the prosecution does not dispute that defendant has waived his constitutional right to confront Mathis through cross-examination at the investigative-subpoena hearing. The confrontation clauses (US Const, Am VI, and Const 1963, art 1, § 20) are thus not at issue here.

Talbot, J. (concurring in part and dissenting in part).

While I concur, in general, with the majority's reasoning and analysis regarding the admissibility of investigative-subpoena testimony under MRE 804(b)(1), I respectfully dissent and write separately because I believe that this Court is able to determine whether the prosecution in this matter had a similar motive in developing the disputed testimony, and I would reverse the trial court's ruling regarding admissibility of the investigative-subpoena testimony.

As recognized by both the majority and caselaw, for testimony secured through an investigative subpoena to qualify as a hearsay exception when the declarant is subsequently unavailable for trial, MCR 804(b)(1) requires "the party against whom the testimony is now offered" to demonstrate that the party had "an opportunity and similar motive to develop the testimony . . . ." The inquiry to determine the existence of a "similar motive must be fact specific . . . ." United States v DiNapoli, 8 F3d 909 , 914 (CA 2, 1993) (en banc).

In accordance with this Court's ruling in People v Vera, 153 Mich App 411, 415; 395 NW2d 339 (1986), in ascertaining the similarity of motive, "the issue for which the former testimony was elicited and the issue for which the party wishes the former testimony admitted must be substantially similar . . . ." In addition,

[t]he test must turn not only on whether the questioner is on the same side of the same issue at both proceedings, but also on whether the questioner had a substantially similar interest in asserting that side of the issue. If a fact is critical to a cause of action at a second proceeding but the same fact was only peripherally related to a different cause of action at the first proceeding, no one would claim that the questioner had a similar motive at both proceedings to show that the fact had been established (or disproved). [DiNapoli, supra at 912.]

Hence, situations are not necessarily equivalent or "the same where the two proceedings are different in significant respects, such as their purposes or the applicable burden of proof." Id. at 913.

The stated purpose of an investigative subpoena is simply to provide a mechanism to assist a prosecutor in gathering facts and information "to investigate the commission of a felony . . . ." MCL 767A.2(1). In contrast, at trial a prosecutor's role is to seek justice, and not merely to obtain a conviction. *People v Pfaffle,*246 Mich App 282, 291; 632 NW2d 162 (2001). The motive for development of testimony in these two types of proceedings is inherently different, making it "quite unrealistic to characterize the prosecutor as the 'opponent' of a witness's version" of events when examined pursuant to an investigative subpoena. DiNapoli, supra at 913. Hence, in conducting an investigative-subpoena hearing, a prosecutor is motivated more by an interest in discovery than a desire to evaluate or test the reliability of a particular witness's testimony. Specifically:

At a preliminary stage of an investigation, the prosecutor is not trying to prove any side of any issue, but only to develop the facts to determine if an indictment is warranted. Even if the prosecutor displays some skepticism about particular testimony . . . , that does not mean the prosecutor has a motive to show the falsity of the testimony, similar to the motive that would exist at trial if an indictment is returned and the witness's testimony is presented by a defendant to rebut the prosecutor's evidence of guilt. [Id.]

I do not purport to suggest that a bright-line rule can be established regarding the admissibility of investigative-subpoena testimony under MRE 804(1)(b). However, the facts of this case permit this Court to determine that the trial court erred in ruling [Page 282] the testimony admissible without the trial court having evaluated whether the prosecutor had a "similar motive" sufficient to meet the requirements of MRE 804(1)(b). Although, in certain circumstances it would be both necessary and appropriate to remand to the trial court for a determination regarding the existence of a "similar motive," to avoid further delay in these proceedings, I would assert that it is unnecessary in this instance because, when conducting the investigative-subpoena hearing, the prosecutor's concern and motivation were simply to gather information, and not to prove either the truth or falsity of the testimony provided. Given the absence of any similarity in motive, as required by MRE 804(1)(b), I would reverse the trial court's ruling regarding the admissibility of the investigative-subpoena testimony.

We granted leave to appeal in this case to determine whether the examining magistrate abused his discretion when he refused to bind defendant over for trial in the circuit court. Finding such an abuse occurred, we affirm the circuit court judgment that reinstated the charges.

I. PROCEEDINGS BELOW

Donna Yost was charged with open murder, MCL 750.316(1)(a), and felony murder, MCL 750.316(1)(b), [1] of her seven-year-old daughter Monique, who died of an overdose of a prescription medication called Imipramine on Sunday, October 10, 1999.

The preliminary examination lasted seven days. The prosecution called several lay witnesses and two expert witnesses, Dr. Kanu Virani, a forensic patholo [Page 124] gist who performed an autopsy, and Dr. Michael Evans, a toxicologist who analyzed a blood sample obtained during the autopsy. The defense also called several lay witnesses and three experts, Dr. David Fleisher, an expert in pharmocology; Dr. Laurence Simson, a forensic pathologist; and Dr. Alan Berman, a clinical psychologist. The district judge, in his role as examining magistrate, refused to bind defendant over for trial for lack of credible evidence of a homicide.

The prosecution appealed to the circuit court. That court reviewed the lengthy transcripts and determined that the record established a sufficient basis for finding that a homicide was committed and probable cause to believe that defendant committed it, and that the magistrate therefore had abused his discretion in refusing to bind defendant over.

Defendant appealed the circuit court's decision to the Court of Appeals. The Court of Appeals denied leave to appeal "for failure to persuade the Court of the need for immediate appellate review."[2] The Court of Appeals subsequently denied defendant's motion for rehearing. [3]

[Page 125] Defendant next filed an application for leave to appeal with this Court. We granted leave to appeal limited to the issues

(1) whether the refusal of the magistrate to bind the defendant over for trial was an abuse of discretion, (2) what is the appropriate role of the magistrate at a preliminary examination in assessing the credibility of witnesses and how does that assessment affect the bindover decision, and (3) whether the reviewing court applied the correct standard of review in this case? [4]

II. PRELIMINARY EXAMINATIONS

Preliminary examinations are not constitutionally required. Hall, supra at 603. Rather, the preliminary examination is solely a creation of the Legislature, i.e., it is a statutory right. [5]

MCL 766.13 provides:

If it shall appear to the magistrate at the conclusion of the preliminary examination either that an offense has not been committed or that there is not probable cause for charging the defendant therewith, he shall discharge such defendant. If it shall appear to the magistrate at the conclusion of the preliminary examination that a felony has been committed and there is probable cause for charging the defendant therewith, the magistrate shall forthwith bind the defendant to appear before the circuit court of such county, or other court having jurisdiction of the cause, for trial.

As the statute indicates, the preliminary examination has a dual function, i.e., to determine whether a [Page 126] felony was committed and whether there is probable cause to believe the defendant committed it. At the examination, evidence from which at least an inference may be drawn establishing the elements of the crime charged must be presented. People v Doss, 406 Mich 90, 101; 276 NW2d 9 (1979). The probable-cause standard of proof is, of course, less rigorous than the guilt-beyond-a-reasonable-doubt standard of proof. Id. at 103. Probable cause requires a quantum of evidence "sufficient to cause a person of ordinary prudence and caution to conscientiously entertain a reasonable belief" of the accused's guilt. People v Justice (After Remand), 454 Mich 334, 344; 562 NW2d 652 (1997). Yet, to find probable cause, a magistrate need not be without doubts regarding guilt. The reason is that the gap between probable cause and guilt beyond a reasonable doubt is broad, id. at 344, and finding guilt beyond a reasonable doubt is the province of the jury. People v Goecke, 457 Mich 442, 469–470; 579 NW2d 868 (1998).

III. STANDARD OF REVIEW

Our case law has sometimes indicated that a reviewing court may not reverse a magistrate's bindover decision absent a "clear abuse of discretion," e.g., People v Dellabonda, 265 Mich 486, 491; 251 NW 594 (1933); Doss, supra at 101. At other times our case law has omitted the word "clear" and has simply required a reviewing court find an "abuse of discretion," e.g., Genesee Prosecutor v Genesee Circuit Judge, 391 Mich 115, 121; 215 NW2d 145 (1974); Justice, supra at 344.

In defining what an "abuse of discretion" is, this Court has frequently invoked the test adopted in [Page 127] Spalding v Spalding, 355 Mich 382; 94 NW2d 810 (1959). As Spalding stated the test, an abuse of discretion occurs when the lower court's decision is "so palpably and grossly violative of fact and logic that it evidences not the exercise of will but perversity of will, not the exercise of judgment but defiance thereof, not the exercise of reason but rather of passion or bias." Id. at 384–385. [6]

IV. MAGISTRATE'S CONSIDERATION OF CREDIBILITY

Our prior case law recognizes the propriety of an examining magistrate's considering the credibility of witnesses. In People v Paille #2, 383 Mich 621, 627; 178 NW2d 465 (1970), the examining magistrate, when faced with several collusive witnesses, was struck with their inability to coordinate their testimony. He concluded that their testimony was incredible and "could not possibly convince a disinterested arbiter of facts of their good faith or their truthfulness." Id. at 624. They were, as he described it, engaged in "calculated prevarication to the point of perjury …." Id. This Court, in reviewing the matter, indicated that a magistrate in determining whether a crime has been committed has not only the right, but the duty, to [Page 128] pass judgment on the credibility of the witnesses. [7] Id. at 627.

While this holding clearly allows a magistrate authority to consider the credibility of witnesses, we have also instructed examining magistrates to not refuse to bind a defendant over for trial when the evidence conflicts or raises reasonable doubt of the defendant's guilt. Yaner v People, 34 Mich 286, 289 (1876), Doss, supra at 103, and Goecke, supra at 469–470. [8]

With regard to expert testimony, after the expert has been properly qualified by the court, [9] credibility determinations are generally handled in the same manner as for lay witnesses.

V. THE MAGISTRATE'S DECISION

Analysis of a blood sample by a laboratory revealed Monique died from an overdose of Imipramine. [10] Dr. Virani testified that he did not find any pill residue or granular material in Monique's stomach during the autopsy. He used this fact as the basis for his opinion that Monique had not taken the pills intact, i.e., the [Page 129] pills probably had been liquified and then ingested. Dr. Virani also opined that children at the age of seven do not commit suicide. Putting these propositions together, Dr. Virani concluded that a crime, homicide, had taken place.

Defendant called several expert witnesses. Dr. Fleisher, a pharmacology expert, calculated that Monique had taken eighty-nine Imipramine pills and, because he was familiar with the dissolution characteristics of Imipramine, concluded there was no reason to expect to find pill residue in Monique's stomach even if she had taken the pills whole. A forensic pathologist, Dr. Simson, testified that, having considered Dr. Fleisher's dissolution testimony, he was not surprised that no pill residue was found and he could not conclude that a homicide had occurred. Finally, Dr. Berman, an expert in suicidology, testified that while rare, children as young as seven have been known to commit suicide.

The magistrate in stating his ruling indicated that Dr. Virani's two major premises were rejected as "not credible." First, he disregarded Dr. Virani's opinion that there would have been pill residue in Monique's stomach if the pills had been taken intact because Dr. Virani was not qualified in pharmacology or pharmaceutics and because this conclusion was "completely refuted" by qualified defense expert testimony. Second, he disregarded Dr. Virani's conclusion that children as young as seven do not commit suicide because Dr. Virani had limited training in psychiatry or psychology and because this conclusion was refuted by Dr. Berman. The gist of this was that the magistrate thought Dr. Virani was simply not qualified as an expert in these two areas. Having rejected these [Page 130] two points of Dr. Virani's testimony, the magistrate concluded that one would have to speculate to conclude that a homicide had occurred. Moreover, if a homicide did occur, there was little to link the defendant to it. Thus, the magistrate refused to bind defendant over.

VI. THE CIRCUIT COURT'S OPINION

The circuit court found that there was credible expert testimony on both sides and, thus, the magistrate had exceeded his authority by comparing the credibility of the experts. The court stated that Dr. Virani's expert opinion was not inherently incredible or unbelievable and, given the conflicting expert opinions, it was the responsibility of the fact-finder, not the magistrate, to resolve them.

The circuit court further indicated that, leaving aside Dr. Virani's two premises, there was enough other credible circumstantial evidence from which one could conclude that Monique's death was a homicide and that defendant killed her. Circumstantial evidence included that (1) defendant had the opportunity to give Monique the pills because she was alone with the child during the day when the child ingested the pills and died, (2) there was evidence of motive in that defendant was angry and frustrated with Monique and had been punishing her (for leaving the yard without telling anyone) at the time Monique ingested the pills, (3) defendant initially told the police after Monique's death that all the family's medications were accounted for and that Monique could not have gotten into any of them, (4) defendant failed to tell the police at that time that Monique had previously been taking Imipramine, (5) three days after [Page 131] Monique died forty-six Imipramine pills mysteriously appeared in an upstairs room on the second floor, when, according to a neighbor, no pills were present in the room the day after Monique died, and (6) after the pills were "discovered," defendant told the police the pills must have been what killed Monique (this was before the toxicology report had been completed).

On the basis of all these, the judge concluded that these circumstances were sufficient to warrant a conclusion by a cautious person that the defendant had committed murder. The judge observed that the defendant was free to argue at trial that Monique committed suicide, but the possibility of suicide did not preclude a bindover of defendant where there was sufficient other proof of homicide. Thus, the circuit judge concluded that the magistrate had abused his discretion and the charges should be reinstated.

VII. ANALYSIS

After carefully reviewing this matter, we agree with the circuit court that the examining magistrate abused his discretion in refusing to bind defendant over for trial.

The magistrate rejected Dr. Virani's opinion testimony that the lack of pill residue suggested the pills were not taken whole, but liquified first and then swallowed. It was the magistrate's view that Dr. Virani was not qualified to render such testimony where he did not know how long it took Imipramine to dissolve in gastric juices. It is unnecessary for us to determine whether this ruling regarding Dr. Virani's qualifications was correct because Dr. Virani's conclusion was [Page 132] echoed in the testimony of another expert, the toxicologist, Dr. Evans, who, because of his own knowledge of the dissolution characteristics of Imipramine, concluded that, given the large number of pills taken, residue should have been present. [11]

The second opinion component of Dr. Virani's testimony was that children at the age of seven do not commit suicide. Again, we need not deal with the ruling on Dr. Virani's qualifications in this area because the bindover decision could be made without expert testimony on the propensity of children to commit suicide. There were proofs in this case that would cause a cautious individual to have probable cause to believe that the prosecution had circumstantially established that defendant had committed murder. This is not to say that at trial a fact-finder could not be convinced that the child self-administered the pills, but that the prosecution has no duty at the preliminary examination to negate that theory to get defendant bound over for trial. It is enough that a reasonable person could believe that a crime by poisoning was shown and that defendant had motive [12] and [Page 133] opportunity, as well as arguably incriminating actions and explanations.

In sum, we agree with the circuit court that the expert testimony in tandem with the circumstantial evidence, which included evidence relating to motive and opportunity, was sufficient to warrant a bindover. We conclude that the magistrate failed to give any weight to Dr. Evans's expert testimony when he should have, failed to give any weight to the lay testimony related to defendant's possible motive [13] and opportunity, and gave undue weight to the testimony regarding the propensity of children to commit suicide. [14] Thus, the magistrate abused his discretion when he concluded from all the evidence that probable cause to bind defendant over for trial did not exist.

The fact that the magistrate may have had reasonable doubt that defendant committed the crime was not a sufficient basis for refusing to bind defendant over for trial. As we stated in Justice, supra at 344, a magistrate may legitimately find probable cause while [Page 134] personally entertaining some reservations regarding guilt.

For these reasons we affirm the judgment of the circuit court.

1 "Murder committed in the perpetration of, or attempt to perpetrate … child abuse in the first degree …."

2 Unpublished order, entered June 6, 2001 (Docket No. 234065). If the Court of Appeals had denied leave to appeal "for lack of merit," we would comment no further. However, the ground cited by the Court of Appeals for denying leave to appeal was "failure to persuade the Court of the need for immediate review." This reason was flawed. If defendant went to trial and were found guilty, any subsequent appeal would not consider whether the evidence adduced at the preliminary examination was sufficient to warrant a bindover. People v Hall, 435 Mich 599, 601–603; 460 NW2d 520 (1990) (an evidentiary deficiency at the preliminary examination is not a ground for vacating or reversing a subsequent conviction where the defendant received a fair trial and was not otherwise prejudiced by the error).

3 Unpublished order, entered July 24, 2001 (Docket No. 234065).

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

4 465 Mich 966 (2002).

5 However, as explained in People v Glass (After Remand), 464 Mich 266, 271; 627 NW2d 261 (2001), the right to a preliminary examination does not apply if a defendant is indicted by a grand jury.

6 While the propriety of utilizing the Spalding test in criminal cases has been questioned, People v Williams, 386 Mich 565, 573; 194 NW2d 337 (1972), and People v Talley, 410 Mich 378, 393–397; 301 NW2d 809 (1981) (LEVIN, J., concurring) overruled in part on other grounds, People v Kaufman, 457 Mich 266, 276; 577 NW2d 466 (1998), we have continued to utilize the Spalding test, People v Hine, 467 Mich 242, 250; 650 NW2d 659 (2002); People v Jackson, 467 Mich 272, 277; 650 NW2d 665 (2002), and find no occasion to revisit this question today.

7 Similar statements authorizing the examining magistrate to assess the credibility of witnesses are found in Talley, supra at 386, People v King, 412 Mich 145, 152–154; 312 NW2d 629 (1981), and Justice, supra at 343 n 14 (citing King with approval).

8 There is some tension between these two principles. However, we find no need to clarify the interplay between these two principles in this opinion.

9 As we stated in People v Christel, 449 Mich 578, 587; 537 NW2d 194 (1995), before permitting expert testimony, the court "must find that the evidence is from a recognized discipline, as well as relevant and helpful to the trier of fact, and presented by a witness qualified by 'knowledge, skill, experience, training, or education ….' MRE 702[.]"

10 This medication had been prescribed to Monique to help prevent bedwetting.

11 The district court's written opinion never mentioned Dr. Evans's testimony, and thus it is unclear that this testimony was ever considered. This omission is significant because it suggests that the district court, in making its bindover decision, overlooked significant evidence that was relevant to whether there was probable cause to bind over defendant for trial. Dr. Evans's testimony tended to support the prosecutor's theory of the case while Dr. Fleisher's tended to support the defense's theory. Because the testimony of both experts was relevant to a substantial, disputed issue in this case, and because each witness's testimony was competent and credible, resolution of the conflict between them should have been left for the fact-finder at trial.

12 The testimony established more than one possible motive. As the circuit court noted, defendant was angry and frustrated with Monique's behavior of leaving the yard without telling anyone where she was going. However, in addition to anger and frustration, there were other possible motives. Defendant told the police that Child Protective Services had been out to the house because Monique had said that defendant had mistreated her. Also, there was testimony that defendant knew the prosecutor's office wanted to interview Monique regarding allegations that she had been molested by a teenager who had previously stayed at their house and that the teenager had indicated that Monique's nine-year-old brother had been molesting Monique. Further, neighbor Mary Jo Sheldon testified that just a few days before Monique died Monique had told her that her brother and father had molested her. Ms. Sheldon indicated that she reported this to defendant and that defendant slapped Monique and called her a liar.

13 While motive is not an element of the crime, evidence of a possible motive was relevant to the bindover decision in this case.

14 While a child's propensity to commit suicide was potentially relevant to whether a crime was committed and to the defense's theory of the case, the conflicting testimony on this issue amounted to the type of disputed fact that should normally be resolved by the trier of fact.

PEOPLE

v.

WOLFSON.

No. 124

Supreme Court of Michigan

October 2, 1933

Appeal from Circuit Court, Macomb County; Herman Dehnke, Judge.

Alvin Wolfson was adjudged guilty of perjury, and he appeals.

Order and sentence appealed from affirmed.

Argued before the Entire Bench.

264 Mich. 410

Henry C. Bogle, of Detroit (Edward G. Kemp, of Detroit, and Christian F. Matthews, of Mt. Clemens, of counsel), for appellant.

Patrick H. O'Brien, Atty. Gen., and Roy M. McKinstry, Pros. Atty., of Mt. Clemens, for the People.

[250 N.W. 261] SHARPE, Justice.

On March 26, 1931, the prosecuting attorney of the county of Macomb filed a petition in the circuit court, verified by him, praying for an investigation whether or not an offense not cognizable by a justice of the peace had been committed. The investigation was conducted by Judge Dehnke of the Twenty-Third circuit, sitting as a one-man grand jury, pursuant to the provisions of section 17217 et seq., Comp. Laws 1929. In the course of the proceeding, the defendant, Wolfson, who had given testimony as a witness, was adjudged to be guilty of perjury. From the order so entered and the sentence imposed he has taken this appeal.

The questions involved are stated by his counsel as follows:

'1. Has a circuit judge sitting as a one-man grand jury power to punish a witness for contempt on the ground that he has given false, evasive or untrue answers

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

264 Mich. 411

'2. Were the proceedings for the calling of said one-man grand jury sufficient to give the circuit judge jurisdiction

'3. Were the answers of the witness to the various questions false, evasive or untrue and did they constitute contempt

'4. Was certain proof offered by defendant in the contempt proceedings material

1. This question has quite recently been decided by this court adversely to the claim of the defendant. In Mundy v. McDonald, 216 Mich. 444, 185 N.W. 877, 20 A. L. R. 398, the defendant, a circuit judge, had conducted a one-man grand jury investigation in the county of Bay. At the conclusion thereof, he filed a report in which the plaintiff, at that time mayor of the city of Bay City, was charged with willful neglect of duty. An action of libel based thereon was brought against him. It was dismissed on motion in the circuit court and an appeal taken to this court, where it was held that the defendant was acting as a judge of a court of record and was exempted from civil liability reason thereof.

The authorities are there reviewed at length. Attention was called to the holding in Johnson v. Morton, 94 Mich. 1, 53 N.W. 816, wherein it was urged that a circuit judge at chambers is not invested with the powers of the circuit court, and the court said (page 6 of 94 Mich., 53 N.W. 816, 818): 'When an application is made to a judge to hold to bail, it is his duty to hear and investigate; and if the affidavit sets up facts and circumstances tending to show fraud or breach of trust, thus bringing the case within the exceptions of the constitution, authority to act depends upon the facts, and the determination of the judge must be held to have all the qualities of a judicial decision, and as such protects the judge, the officer, and the party.'

Ward v. Cozzens, 3 Mich. 252, and Thomas v. Rosecrantz, 193 Mich. 357, 159 N.W. 514, were also referred to at some length. The conclusion reached was thus stated by Mr. Justice Stone (pages 458, 459 of 216 Mich., 185 N.W. 877, 882): 'Under the foregoing authorities, it must be held that the composing of and filing in the clerk's office of the findings complained of as libelous were judicial acts requiring a decision on the part of the judge as to the proper course to be pursued. To hold that the acts were in excess of jurisdiction, and therefore for that reason subject the judge to private liability, is to say that courts and judges must decide questions of jurisdiction at their peril. Such a doctrine would, in a large measure, destroy the independence of the judiciary and take away the immunity and privilege considered so essential and necessary to the proper and just administration of law.'

In the later case of People v. Doe, 226 Mich. 5, 196 N.W. 757, 758, a witness in a one-man grand jury proceeding, conducted by a circuit judge, was held to be properly convicted by him of perjury. While there was dissent on the part of four of the justices, it was based upon the finding by them that the inquiries directed to the defendant, and on which the conviction was based, 'were privileged because they came to him professionally from his client or clients.'

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

While the question here involved was not presented or considered in that case, it was doubtless assumed that it was settled by the decision in, the Mundy Case. In our opinion this question was properly answered in the affirmative.

2. In the petition by the prosecuting attorney above referred to, he stated that the finance committee of the board of supervisors had conducted an informal investigation into the affairs of the county drain commissioner and had submitted the result thereof to him with a recommendation that a formal investigation be had in the circuit court; that the findings of the committee indicated that certain money had been paid out by the commissioner 'under circumstances which furnish a reasonable ground to believe may amount to such a misappropriation of the county's funds as to constitute a violation of the statute not cognizable by a justice of the peace,' and that certain individuals in the employ of the drain commissioner have knowledge of facts which, if true, would furnish the basis for a complaint for such offense.

Sections 17217 to 17220, inclusive, Comp. Laws 1929, while now a part of the Code of Criminal Procedure (Act No. 175, Pub. Acts 1927), were enacted in 1917, Act No. 196. The title reads as follows: 'An Act to authorize proceedings for the discovery of crime, and to provide penalties for a violation of such procedure.'

[250 N.W. 262] The purpose is thus fully disclosed. It being remedial in its nature, it should receive a liberal construction. Under the petition filed, there was a statement of facts which might well have caused the judge to suspect that a crime had been committed within his jurisdiction and that certain persons might be able to give material evidence respecting such offense, and, if so, he was justified in conducting the investigation had. The fact that the defendant's name was not mentioned in the petition in no way affected the right of the judge to call upon him to testify if it appeared that his evidence was material to any matter under investigation. In

People v. Phelps, 261 Mich. 45, 245 N.W. 565, it was held that the investigation might be conducted by the judge of another circuit if directed to do so by the presiding circuit judge. That Judge Dehnke was so directed is not questioned.

3, 4. It will serve no useful purpose to review the testimony on which the defendant was adjudged to be guilty. Judge Dehnke saw him on the witness stand and heard him testify. His finding of guilt is supported by competent evidence. We find no error in rejecting the proof sought to be introduced by the defendant, as it in no way affected the guilt or innocence of the defendant.

The order and sentence appealed from are affirmed.

Gen., for the State. George E. Brand, of Detroit, amicus curiae. PER CURIAM. This case is here on an application for leave to appeal in the nature of mandamus, certiorari, and prohibition. Notice of the application was given to the Attorney General's department, and to George E. Brand, designated by the judge of the recorder's court for the city of Detroit. The application involves only legal questions which have been fully argued and considered by the court, and, at the request of counsel for both parties, and opinion is filed disposing of the same. Petitioner alleges five reasons which are thus stated in petitioner's brief: '1. Has the Judge of the Recorder's Court of the City of Detroit, which is a court of limited jurisdiction, the power to conduct an investigation under the so-called One Man Grand Jury Act? '2. If the said Recorder's Court has such jurisdiction, then may it take cognizance of any matter coming within the terms of said act except on petition of the Prosecuting Attorney of Wayne County?

270 Mich. 330

'3. If the court has such jurisdiction then may it exclude the Prosecuting Attorney of Wayne County from participating in such proceedings? '4. Has a judge of said Recorder's Court the right or the power to appoint a 'Friend of the Court' to conduct said proceedings to the exclusion of the Prosecuting Attorney of Wayne County? '5. Assuming the said court to have such jurisdiction, and a judge thereof the right or power described aforesaid, has a general officer of the State the right to invade the County of Wayne to the exclusion of its local officers and initiate such a proceeding in contravention of the Constitution and Laws of the State which guarantee local rule to the people?' The proposed appeal is from an order of the judge of the recorder's court of the city of Detroit, purporting to have been made under Act No. 196, Public Acts 1917, as amended by Act No. 395, Public Acts 1921, being section 17217 et seq., Compiled Laws 1929, which statute governs the proceedings. That statute provides complaint may be made before 'any justice of the peace, police judge or judge of a court of record.' Comp. Laws 1929, § 17217. Judge Cotter had jurisdiction of this proceeding and of the locus of the offense alleged in the complaint. The statute provides that 'whenever by reason of the filing of any complaint, which may be upon information and belief' (Comp. Laws 1929, § 17217), the judge may proceed, which indicates that the complaint may be made by any one, and neither the prosecuting attorney of the county of Wayne nor the Attorney General of the state of Michigan is a necessary party complainant. Any private person may appear and make complaint under this statute. The investigation is conducted by the judge and he may requlre any person or persons whom he may require to attend and be examined as witnesses the same as upon a complaint naming a particular person as defendant. The judge, in making this investigation, may call such assistants from the bar or otherwise as he may desire. The investigation, being under the control of the judge and in the nature of an inquest, and not a specific proceeding under the control of the prosecuting attorney or the Attorney General, it may be instituted by any private citizen and is not one which may be instituted only by the [258 N.W. 778] Attorney General or the prosecuting attorney. It is, in its nature, a proceeding for the discovery of crime and the apprehension of criminals under the control fo the judge and not under the control of either the prosecuting attorney or the Attorney General, one in which the public is interested, and which is intrusted by the statute to the judge. It is no invasion of the constitutional right of municipal home rule that the judge of the recorder's court of the city of Detroit investigates, upon complaint made, the charges in such complaint indicating crimes have been committed within the city of Detroit. Leave to appeal denied. POTTER, C.J., and NELSON SHARPE, NORTH, FEAD, WIEST, BUTZEL, BUSHNELL, and EDWARD M. SHARPE, JJ., concur.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Elmer B. O'Hara, Lester Currier, John De Gutis, James Garrett, Charles Lark, T. Emmet McKenzie, Franklyn K. Morgan, Joseph W. Neil, Bruno Nowicki, Chester Pons, Alfred J. Skiffington, Herbert L. Sullivan, James Walker, Anthony J. Wilkowski, William Wilson, Anthony J. Gallagher, Joseph Greishaber, and Vincent Murphy were convicted of attempted election fraud, and they appeal.

Affirmed.

In prosecution for attempted election fraud and conspiracy, improper remarks of prosecuting attorney and other irregularities held not reversible error, where defendants had fair and impartial trial and record showed no reasonable doubt as to justification for conviction. NORTH, Chief Justice.

This is an appeal in a criminal case wherein the appellants were charged, tried jointly, and convicted of what may be designated in general terms as an attempted election fraud. At the opening of the trial there were 32 defendants. As to some of them final disposition of the prosecution was made pending the trial. Of the remaining defendants 22 were tried by the jury and 4 by the court without a jury.

[270 N.W. 301] The jury convicted 15 and acquitted 7; the court convicted 3 and acquitted 1.

It is the People's claim that in the election recount investigation certain of the defendants altered some of the ballots which they were investigating and that certain other defendants permitted others to alter such ballots, and that all of defendants conspired to do so and conspired to change the result of the election by so doing. Many of the details surrounding the alleged offense will be found in Behrendt v. Board of State Canvassers, 269 Mich. 247, 257 N.W. 631; Wilson v. Atwood, 270 Mich. 317, 258 N.W. 773; In re Petition for Investigation of Recount, 270 Mich. 328, 258 N.W. 776, 778; In re Wilkowski, 270 Mich. 687, 259 N.W. 658; and Behrendt v. Wilcox, 277 Mich. 232, 269 N.W. 155 (Oct. 5, 1936).

The following provision is a part of the General Election Law of this state: 'Every inspector of election, clerk or other officer or person having the custody of any record, election list of voters, affidavit, return or statement of voters, certificates, poll book, or of any paper, document or vote of any description, in this act directed to be made, filed or preserved, who is guilty of stealing, wilfully destroying, mutilating, defacing, falsifying or fraudulently removing or secreting the whole or any part thereof, or who shall fraudulently make any entry, erasure, or alteration therein, or who permits any other person so to do, shall, on conviction, be deemed guilty of a felony.' 1 Comp.Laws 1929, 3299.

The information which charged the defendants with violating or conspiring to violate the provisions of the foregoing statute, as originally filed, contained five counts; but the fifth count by subsequent amendment, to avoid possible duplicity, was divided into counts 5 and 6. Briefly, defendants are charged in the respective counts as follows:

Count 1. That the defendants, having possession of election ballots, fraudulently made certain alterations in the ballots by making marks and crosses upon certain ballots in addition to the crosses placed thereon by the voters.

Count 2. That defendants, having possession of election ballots, did permit other persons to fraudulently make such alterations.

Count 3. That defendants, having such possession, conspired together to fraudulently make such alterations.

Const 4. That defendants, having such possession, conspired to permit other persons to fraudulently make such alterations.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Count 5. (as amended). That defendants conspired together to conduct an investigation and recount of ballots cast for the secretary of state in the county of Wayne on November 6, 1934, and thereby and therein to unlawfully change and alter the result of the election for said office, and that in so doing said defendants did illegally alter certain of the ballots substantially in the manner charged in count 1, and did place other marks upon ballots for the purpose of spoiling such ballots so that the same could not be counted.

Count 6. (as amended). That defendants did then and there conspire together to conduct an investigation and recount of the ballots and to unlawfully permit other persons to commit the illegal acts charged in count 5.

In the November, 1934, election Orville E. Atwood and Guy M. Wilson were rival candidates for the office of secretary of state; the former on the Republican ticket, the latter on the Democratic ticket. The election of Atwood was certified by the Board of State Canvassers. Certain of Wilson's supporters questioned the accuracy of the certified result. Because of the election controversy, the Legislature was specially convened for the purpose of holding a joint convention to determine who was elected to the office of secretary of state. For a time the issue as to who had been elected to the office of Attorney General was also involved, but this was abandoned and we will not refer further to that phase of the facts.

'In case two or more persons have an equal and the highest number of votes for any office, as canvassed by the board of state canvassers, the legislature in joint convention shall choose one of said persons to fill such office. When the determination of the board of state canvassers is contested, the legislature in joint convention shall decide which person is elected.' Constitution of Michigan, art. 16, 4.

The attempt to convene a joint convention of the Legislature was abortive because [270 N.W. 302] of lack of a quorum. See Wilson v. Atwood, supra. None the less, this purported joint convention, acting through its chairman, appointed a committee of five members of the Legislature to conduct an investigation of the election and to report. Defendant Wilkowski, a member of the State, Senate, was selected chairman of this committee, which proceeded at once to arrange for an investigation in the nature of a recount of the ballots of certain election precincts in Wayne county. Arrangements were made to carry on the activities in the Barlum Tower building in Detroit, and numerous persons were appointed or employed to assist in the details of the investigation which was in progress continuously for four days and nights. The committee demanded and received possession of ballot boxes of certain voting precincts in Wayne county from the officials in whose custody they were.

The committee appointed defendant Franklyn K. Morgan chief inspector of the investigation proceedings. As the result of the investigation which followed and in which defendants participated, defendant Wilkowski, as chairman of the committee of five, reported back to the Legislature that Candidate Wilson had gained 13,774 votes, which would be enought to justify declaring him elected to the office of secretary of state. A minority report was made in which the irregularities of the so-called recount investigation were set forth. Thereupon the members of the Legislature present voted to declare Guy M. Wilson elected secretary of state, and the Board of State Canvassers was directed to so certify. Decision in Wilson v. Atwood, supra, in effect nullified this action of the so-called joint convention.

Early in January of 1935 a committee of the State Senate made an investigation into the investigation of the committee of the so-called joint convention. Subsequently a petition was filed with the recorder's court of Detroit by the Attorney General for a one-man grand jury inquiry into the investigation of the legislative committee. Hon. Thomas M. Cotter, a judge of the recorder's court of Detroit, conducted such grand jury investigation, under and in accordance with statutory provisions. 3 Comp.Laws 1929, 17217, 17218. The record shows that all of the appellants appeared and testified in the one-man grand jury proceeding. Warrants were issued against each of the defendants, examinations were conducted and defendants were held for trial. An information was filed by the Attorney General. Nearly all of defendants on arraignment stood mute and pleas of not guilty were entered by the court. Prior to trial, motions to quash were heard and denied. As noted above, appellants were convicted, the verdict of the jury designating under which count or counts those tried by the jury were found guilty. Sentences were imposed, and defendants have appealed.

It is claimed by appellants the warrant issued by the judge who conducted the one-man grand jury investigation was illegal because the warrant was issued without security for costs being filed and without a written order from the prosecuting attorney of Wayne county allowing the issuance of the warrant being filed, contrary to the requirements of 3 Comp.Laws 1929, 17135, as amended by Pub.Acts 1931, No. 173. This section is not applicable to a one-man grand jury proceeding, authorized by 3 Comp.Laws 1929, 17217, 17218, but instead it is plainly intended to apply to prosecutions arising in the ordinary course of complaints and warrants. Its inapplicability to the one-man grand jury proceeding is indicated by a recent decision of this court: 'It [the one-man grand jury proceeding] is, in its nature, a proceeding for the discovery of crime and the apprehension of criminals under the control of the judge and not under the control of either the prosecuting attorney or the Attorney General, one in which the public is interested, and which is intrusted by the statute to the judge.' In re Petition for Investigation of Recount, supra.

In any event, the claimed irregularity is not jurisdictional. People v. Griswold, 64 Mich. 722, 31 N.W. 809.

Nor under the circumstances of this case is there merit to appellants' contention that this prosecution could not be conducted by the Attorney General to the exclusion of the prosecuting attorney of Wayne county. Appellants call attention to the following statutory provision:

278 Mich. 294

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

'The prosecuting attorneys shall, in their respective counties, appear for the state or county, and prosecute or defend in all the courts of the county, all prosecutions, suits, applications and motions, whether civil or criminal, in which the state or county may be a party, or interested.' 1 Comp.Laws 1929, 1286.

[270 N.W. 303] This provision must be construed in the light of 1 Comp.Laws 1929, 176 and 187, which vest the Attorney General with the right to intervene in any civil or criminal proceeding when in his judgment the interests of the state so require. The statutory provisions, as a matter of public policy, have been liberally construed by the court. Mundy v. McDonald, 216 Mich. 444, 185 N.W. 877, 20 A.L.R. 398; Russell v. Wayne County Bank, 275 Mich. 415, 266 N.W. 401. Further in the instant case the court in which the proceedings were pending granted the petition of the Attorney General to intervene at the outset of the examination. 1 Comp.Laws 1929, 187. While possibly somewhat anomalous, the court's order granting intervention was none the less effective notwithstanding the proceeding was one instatuted by the Attorney General. This record also discloses that the prosecuting attorney of Wayne county filed with the court in which the proceedings were pending a statement headed and reading in part as follows:

'Statement of Reasons by Prosecuting Attorney for not Filing Information

'That the investigation of what law, if any was violated by the above named defendants, respecting the charges in this case, was conducted by the attorney general's office of the State of Michigan through a grand jury investigation; which grand jury investigation was entirely under the control and direction of the attorney general. * * *

'That the prosecuting attorney of Wayne county has in his possession no evidence of any violations of the law, committed by the above named defendants, sufficient upon which to file an information, and that if any information is ordered filed in said cause, by the court, such order should be directed to the attorney general, and not to the prosecuting attorney.'

Aside from the above, the court had the inherent power to permit the Attorney General to intervene in a case of this character. The court so ordered, and appellants have no just reason for complaint. See In re Petition for Investigation of Recount, supra.

As before stated, all of the appellants testified in the one-man grand jury proceeding. For that reason they assert they are immune from prosecution in this case. This claim is based upon 1 Comp.Laws, 3314 and 3344. Section 3314 reads: 'No person otherwise competent as a witness shall be excused from answering any question, in any proceedings under this chapter, on the ground that such answer would tend to incriminate him; but no proseuction can afterwards be had against such witness for any such offense concerning which he testified for the prosecution except in an action for perjury in giving such testimony.'

The above section is embodied in chapter 2 Part 5 of the Michigan election law. The provisions of this chapter 2 pertain to election expenses and filing detailed accounts thereof under oath. None of these defendants have testified 'in any proceedings under this chapter,' nor are they being prosecuted 'for any such offense.' It follows that none of defendants are entitled to immunity under 1 Comp. Laws 1929, 3314. Likewise the immunity provided in 1 Comp.Laws 1929, 3344, is not available to defendants. That section affords immunity only to persons who have been 'called to testify in behalf of the people in any such proceeding,' clearly meaning thereby persons called by the people to testify in the prosecution of one on trial charged with having violated some provision of the General Election Law (Comp.Laws 1929, 2747 et seq.) None of these defendants have been called upon to so testify.

The constitutionality of our statutory provisions providing for a one-man grand jury is challenged on the ground that the 'statute does not give immunity as broad as the constitutional protection it so completely destroys.' We think this contention is not sound. The statute which provides for judicial inquiry for the purpose of discovery of crime contains its own provision for protection from self-incrimination. 3 Comp.Laws 1929, 17220. See, also, People v. Willson, 205 Mich. 28, 171 N.W. 474. None of appellants assert immunity on the ground of there having been compliance with the provisions of section 17220. So far as this record discloses, none of the defendants have had their right of immunity from self-incrimination violated.

The sufficiency of the information is challenged by appellants, but we [270 N.W. 304] think without justification. In general, the objections are that the information charges no offense known to the law, that it does not inform defendants of the nature of the accusation, or of what common-law or statutory offense they conspired to commit, or how or by what means they conspired to commit any offense. Hereinbefore we have briefly outlined the respective counts. The amended information covers twelve pages of the printed record. It clearly charges violation of 1 Comp.Laws 1929, 3299, hereinbefore quoted, and also a conspiracy to violate said section. Appellants claim that the quoted section 'does not pertain to recounts nor legislative investigations.' This cannot be so. Section 3299 is part and parcel of the Michigan election code. The Code provides for election recounts. The Constitution provides for a joint convention of the Legislature to act in such cases as that out of which these charges arise. And further the purpose of our election law appears from the mandate of the Constitution which provides: 'Laws shall be passed to preserve the purity of elections and guard against abuses of the elective franchise.' Constitution of Michigan, art. 3, 8.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Surely section 3299 was designed to preserve the purity of the elections and to prevent the stealing, willful mutilation, destruction, alteration, or falsification and the fraudulent removal of election records. It is true that in a strict technical sense this recount investigation was not an election recount. But it was the method employed by the legislative committee by which under the constitutional provision it proposed to make a determination as to the correctness and validity of the certification of the Board of State Canvassers. Further, it may be noted the Election Code by the express terms of its title embodies provisions designed 'to guard against the abuse of the elective franchise; to define violations of this act; [and] to prescribe the penalties therefor.' Pub.Acts 1925, No. 351. The pertinent provisions of the Election Code are designed to protect and preserve the regularity of elections and the expressed will of electors. Nefarious conduct of the character herein charged falls within its provisions and is subject to its penalties. In so concluding we are mindful that the Legislature by Act No. 234, Pub. Acts 1935, amended the Election Code in various particulars; but it does not follow that prior to that time misconduct of the character charged in this information could be indulged in with impunity as not being an offense within our General Election Law. Further, a conspiracy, as herein charged, to violate the provisions of the statute, constitutes an indictable offense punishable at common law. People v. Tenerowicz, 266 Mich. 276, 253 N.W. 296.

The sufficiency of an information which is challenged should, at least to some extent, be determined with reference to the nature of the offense charged. This information contains counts charging both a specific offense and conspiracy. It is not indispensable that an information should charge in every detail how, or by what means, or in just what manner, the alleged offense was committed or the conspiracy was effected. Often such details would present an insurmountable barrier to prosecution. In the instant case the People could not allege nor prove that a particular defendant altered a particular ballot, or the defendants conspired that any particular one of them should mark or mutilate in a certain manner a certain ballot or a certain number of ballots from a certain election precinct. Nor was a charge of such detailed character required in order that the rights of the accused persons might be protected. Tested by the rules of criminal pleading, some of which we note below, the information must be held sufficient.

'In criminal proceedings the accused is entitled to demand and know the nature and cause of the accusation against him. Beyond that, technical elaboration of pleadings fails to subserve the ends of justice, and becomes but ingenious pitfalls for one side or the other. In charging the offense a detailed recital of the evidence by which it will be established is not required.' People v. Quider, 172 Mich. 280, 137 N.W. 546, 548.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

'If they could enter into a conspiracy to commit offenses without agreeing upon all of the details as to how or where some features of their conspiracy would be carried out, surely the indictment would not be rendered bad if it charged a conspiracy which also left out such details. If it were otherwise, it would not be difficult to form a criminal conspiracy which the law could not punish. The law is note as helpless as that. An indictment may be as general and indefinite as the conspiracy which it seeks [270 N.W. 305] to punish.' Bailey v. U.S. (C.C.A.) 5 F. (2d) 437, 439.

Some of appellants contend that, since it has been judicially determined there was no joint convention of the Legislature because of the lack of a quorum (Wilson v. Atwood, supra), the appointment of a committee and the recount investigation were all without authority in law, and hence the acts of defendants, even as charged, were not such as would be within the penal provisions of 1 Comp.Laws 1929, 3299. This contention is not tenable. Defendants intended to act, and claimed to act, under the authority of the committee created by the Legislature. Notwithstanding the lack of legal status of the legislative joint convention, its committee and those appointed by it acted in a de facto capacity in undertaking the recount investigation. It does not now lie in the mouths of defendants to say there was no such proceeding. See People v. Sanders, 139 Mich. 442, 102 N.W. 959.

By some of appellants it is urged they do not come within 1 Comp.Laws 1929, 3299, which by its terms applies to 'every inspector of election, clerk or other offficer or person.' The contention is that under the rule of ejusdem generis 'other officer or person' must refer to and include only those of a class similar to election inspectors, clerks, etc. The rule of ejusdem generis is not applicable because it cannot be so applied without unduly limiting the scope of the statute and causing it to fall short of the plain legislative intent.

'We think the rule applicable here is that stated by this court in McDade v. People, 29 Mich. 50, where Chief Justice Graves said:

"It is a well-settled general rule, and one especially applicable in the interpretation of statutes which define crimes and regulate their punishment, that general words are to be restrained to the matter with which the act is dealing, and that if it be dealing with specific things or particular modes only, the general words must be limited to such things or modes, except when it is apparent that the Legislature intended by the general words to go further." People v. Gogak, 205 Mich. 260, 171 N.W. 428, 429.

'If upon a consideration of the context and the objects sought to be attained and of the act as a whole, it adequately appears that the general words were not used in the restricted sense suggested by the rule, we must give effect to the conclusion afforded by the wider view in order that the will of the Legislature shall not fail.' Helvering v. Stockholms, etc., Bank, 293 U.S. 84, 55 S.Ct. 50, 52, 79 L.Ed. 211.

The statute under which this prosecution is brought is broad enough to include each of appellants.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

It is also asserted by certain of appellants that there is no testimony tending to show they had possession of the ballots or other election records or such control thereof as is charged and necessary to sustain conviction. And further that without proof of such possession and control these appellants could not be convicted under the counts wherein it is alleged they permitted or conspired to permit others to do the unlawful acts charged. We think it is not necessary to prove that each of the accused persons had actual manual possession or control. Instead, if, as we believe, there was evidence sufficient to show that among those persons charged there were some who, acting in concert with the others, had the actual possession or control, all would be considered as being participants in such possession or control and chargeable therewith and subject to prosecution the same as an accessory. In the same manner, if among those acting acting together knowingly in the consummation of the offense charged a part of them permitted or caused others to do the unlawful acts, all who knowingly engaged in the unlawful undertaking should be held. 'Who permits' as used in this statute means those who enable or who assist others in the unlawful undertaking. People v. Terrowicz, supra.

There is no merit to the claim that there was error in connection with permitting the people to amend the fifth count of the information as originally drafted. By the amendment this count was restated at counts 5 and 6. This was done to avoid duplicity. Amended counts 5 and 6 have to do with the same transaction in an attempt to accomplish the same result by unlawful means as was charged in count 5 as originally drafted. The statute expressly gives the court power to sever a duplicitous count into separate counts. 3 Comp.Laws 1929, 17289. Failure to remand defendants for further examination or to rearraign them after the [270 N.W. 306] amendment was in no way prejudicial. The amendment was one of form rather than substance. In this connection see 3 Comp.Laws, 17354.

Nor is there merit to the claim of error in that the demand of certain of the defendants for a bill of particulars was denied. The information itself sufficiently advised defendants of the offense charged against them. The information is not in a statutory or short form, and in such cases the statute (3 Comp.Laws 1929, 17258) providing for a bill of particulars in criminal cases is not mandatory. People v. Tenerowicz, supra.

In behalf of defendant O'Hara it is strenuously insisted that the record is barren of testimony to support his conviction. He was found guilty on counts 2, 4, and 6 of the information, charging that O'Hara permitted other persons to fraudulently alter ballots; that he conspired to permit others to fraudulently alter ballots; and that he conspired to conduct this recount investigation and to unlawfully change the election results by permitting others to alter ballots. A directed verdict of not guilty was asked and denied, and also a motion for a new trial was denied. In certain cases, of which this is a rather striking example, the probative force of some, and perhaps all, of the testimony is properly determined in the light of disclosed attendant circumstances. In cases wherein several are charged jointly, it often appears that some defendants are more openly and actively engaged in the commission of the unlawful act than are other defendants. Whether the testimony is sufficient as to any particular defendant should be determined in the light of his interest or lack of interest, purpose or lack of purpose, his motive or lack of motive, and all other material facts or circumstances disclosed by the proof. In criminal as in civil cases just and logical inferences may be drawn from facts proven. The record of the instant case discloses that defendant O'Hara was the chairman of the Democratic state central committee. He was evidently active in Wayne county politics. He was county clerk of Wayne county. His deputy, defendant Morgan, was appointed by the legislative committee to supervise the recount investigation. There is testimony that O'Hara suggested Morgan's appointment as the deputy to be in charge of the investigation. O'Hara's chief deputy clerk, defendant Herbert L. Sullivan, also took part in the recount investigation. There is also testimony that, in the event of Wilson's election, O'Hara as chairman of the Democratic state central committee would have much to do with dispensing political patronage; and that in this connection O'Hara said: 'Well, there is 2,800 jobs here, I am going to get over there, and be sure to get this thing and start this recount.'

Because of his interest in this election matter O'Hara did go from Detroit to Lansing and was in and about Lansing prior to the appointment of the legislative committee. A witness testified that just prior to the recount investigation the following occurred in a Detroit hotel: '(O'Hara) Pulled out a whole pocket full of bills and receipts that he had received from Senator Wilkowski, told me that Wilkowski was spending money like a drunken sailor getting this recount thing organized in Lansing, * * *'

There is testimony that O'Hara's deputy Morgan, 'as supervisor, hired the workers and kept tab of the tally sheets.' While guards were used to exclude the general public from the place where the recount investigation was being carried on, O'Hara was there on several occasions, apparently going and coming at will, and talking with those in charge. On Sunday morning, while the recount was in progress, O'Hara took three of the workers to his office in another building, treated them to liquor, and discussed the recount investigation. According to certain testimony, he was there told of recount irregularities, including alteration of ballots and destruction of tally sheets. One of the three workers told O'Hara, '* * * if he had another table like ours, he wouldn't need any of the rest of those fellows over there, that (we) had already picked up at our table between four and five thousand votes. * * *'

While these men were in O'Hara's office, he telephoned to some third party and said: 'Well, I have got the three champion recounters of America, (or words to that effect), * * * and I am just buying them a drink. * * *'

As the three men were leaving, O'Hara gave one of them $3 for lunches.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

The foregoing are some of the facts and circumstances disclosed by the record [270 N.W. 307] from which a fair inference may be drawn as to the connection of defendant O'Hara with the commission of the offense charged. The record conclusively shows that there were deliberate fraudulent alterations of ballots by persons who took part in the recount investigation. At the oral argument in this court no one had the temerity to attempt to deny such was the fact. The question is, Who were the actual participants We think it cannot be said there is not sufficient testimony in this record to present an issue for the jury's determination as to the guilt or innocence of defendant O'Hara.

278 Mich. 305

Some of the other defendants, particularly Charles Lark and John Degutis, contend that either there is no testimony at all to support the conviction as to them, or that the verdict of guilty was against the great weight of the evidence. Our review of the record satisfies us that as to each defendant there was sufficient testimony produced to sustain the verdict rendered. Also our review of the record satisfies us that the refusal of the court to grant the application of defendants for separate trials was fully justified.

Upon a showing of indigency, Attorney Joseph C. Murphy was appointed as counsel for defendant Currier. At that time Attorney Murphy was also the counsel of record for defendant Martin. And, when the court appointed Attorney Murphy as counsel for Currier, the attorney's name was indorsed on the information as one of the People's witnesses. This fact was known by the attorney, and it was readily ascertainable by the defendant for whom the appointment was made, and it must be assumed that it was known to other counsel in the case. One of the errors relied upon by appellants is that it was error for the court to appoint Attorney Murphy, his name being indorsed on the information; and further that it was error to compel him to testify. If there were to be objection to the testimony of this attorney whose name was already indorsed upon the information, it should have been made, or at least the circumstance should have been called to the attention of the court at the time of the appointment if any of defendants' counsel believed that the course pursued by the court would result in prejudice to their clients. It is not claimed that the examination of Attorney Murphy in any way violated the rule of confidential communications between himself and his client. We think that under the circumstances the objection was not timely made, and further that the course pursued in the trial of the case did not work a prejudice to any of the defendants.

Other questions are raised by defendants. The record on appeal contains ninety-four assignments of error. A total of ten briefs have been filed in this cause by appellants. There has been much duplication in these briefs, doubtless in a large measure unavoidably so. Each brief has been given careful consideration, and we deem it neither practical nor necessary to write in further detail. Numerous instances of alleged prejudicial remarks by the Assistant Attorney General are noted; it is claimed that the court made certain prejudicial remarks and erroneous rulings as to the admission as well as on the rejection of testimony; that there was error in the charge of the court and of the refusal to give certain requested charges; and further that there is fatal inconsistency in the verdict of the jury. Careful consideration has been given to these and other questions raised by the numerous counsel for appellants, but we fail to find any irregularity sufficiently prejudicial to justify reversal. Trial of the case required an unusual length of time, and the volume of testimony is unusually large. Absolute perfection never has been, and probably never will be, attained in legal procedure, especially in trials of hotly contested cases. In the instant case the record discloses that on each side counsel indulged in remarks which were not fully in accord with proper practice. Other irregularities might be noted; but, as before stated, we fail to find in them a justification for setting aside the verdict and judgment in the trial court. The test is, not whether there were some irregularities, but instead did the defendants have a fair and impartial trial. 3 Comp.Laws 1929, 17354. We think they did, and the record is such that no reasonable doubt arises as to the justification for conviction as to each of appellants. Judgment as to each of them is affirmed.

This case requires that we determine whether defendant's right to be free from double jeopardy was violated. The issues presented are (1) whether defendant's retrial for second-degree murder, after a jury in the first trial deadlocked on that count, was a constitutionally impermissible successive prosecution; (2) whether defendant's conviction of involuntary manslaughter on retrial resulted in an unconstitutionally impermissible multiple punishment because he had previously been convicted of negligent homicide under prosecution for a separate count; and (3) whether defendant is entitled to a conviction of the lesser offense when multiple punishments have resulted from a retrial.

[Page 596] We hold that defendant's retrial for second-degree murder was permissible and did not violate the constitutional protection against successive prosecutions. However, the retrial of the defendant resulted in multiple punishments for the same offense. Therefore, the defendant is entitled to a remedy for the multiple punishments violation. We hold that the constitutional violation should have been remedied by affirming defendant's conviction of involuntary manslaughter and vacating his conviction of negligent homicide.

Additionally, we address whether the defendant's conviction of involuntary manslaughter at the second trial, following his previous conviction of negligent homicide, was precluded by application of MCL 768.33, as proposed by Judge White. We conclude that MCL 768.33 does not apply to defendant because he was not subjected to a subsequent trial for different degrees of the same offense for which he was originally acquitted or convicted upon an indictment.

Accordingly, we reverse the judgment of the Court of Appeals, reinstate defendant's conviction and sentence for involuntary manslaughter, and vacate his conviction and sentence for negligent homicide.

I

The facts relevant to our decision in this case were sufficiently set forth in the unpublished decision of the Court of Appeals:

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

On October 17, 1995, after drinking alcohol and ingesting a controlled substance, phencyclidine (PCP), defendant drove a U-Haul truck at an immoderate rate of speed and in an erratic manner on the streets of Grosse Pointe Woods. He struck one car, causing it to spin around, then drove on, striking another vehicle head-on, killing the driver, Christina [Page 597] Comito. These events occurred on a clear fall day at approximately 3:30 P.M., just as a nearby middle school was dismissing students for the day and traffic on the roads was heavy. Blood tests performed later on defendant revealed the presence of PCP, but no alcohol.

The prosecutor charged defendant with second-degree murder, MCL 750.317; MSA 28.549 [count I], operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of a combination of alcohol and a controlled substance thereby causing death (OUI causing death), MCL 257.625(4); MSA 9.2325(4) [count II], and driving on a suspended or revoked license [count III]. The jury was permitted to consider, on count I, the lesser offenses of involuntary manslaughter involving a motor vehicle, MCL 750.321; MSA 28.553, and negligent homicide, MCL 750.324; MSA 28.556, and on count II, negligent homicide was again given as a lesser included offense of OUI causing death. … Ultimately, the jury convicted defendant on count II of negligent homicide and on count III of operating a motor vehicle while his license was suspended or revoked,[1] but was unable to reach a verdict on count I. The trial court ordered a mistrial on that count. The prosecutor retried defendant on the second-degree murder charge, with the jury being instructed on the lesser offenses of involuntary manslaughter involving a motor vehicle and negligent homicide. The jury convicted defendant of involuntary manslaughter. [Issued April 6, 1999 (Docket No. 198353), slip op at 1-2.]

On appeal to the Court of Appeals, defendant argued that his retrial on the charge of second-degree murder, after being convicted of negligent homicide in his first trial, violated his constitutional protections against double jeopardy. Stating that "a fundamental error in the proceedings below … resulted in a violation of defendant's constitutional right to be free from double jeopardy," the Court of Appeals first [Page 598] determined that where the facts of a case support separate charges for murder, involuntary manslaughter, or OUI causing death, the charges must be brought in the alternative, and presented to the jury in that manner. Id. at 2. The Court then concluded that because "the defendant's drunken driving ha[d] caused the death of one person, he [could] be convicted of only one of these offenses." Id. (emphasis in the original). The Court of Appeals further concluded that defendant's conviction of both negligent homicide and involuntary manslaughter constituted multiple punishments for the same offense, given the statutorily created link between these two crimes,[2] with negligent homicide being a necessarily included lesser offense of involuntary manslaughter. Id.

Although the Court of Appeals recognized that, when a defendant is convicted of both a greater and lesser offense of the same category, the general rule is to vacate the conviction of the lesser offense and affirm the conviction of the greater,[3] it determined that, because the charges were improperly presented to the jury in the first trial, defendant's conviction of involuntary manslaughter in the second trial was "tainted and cannot stand." Id. at 3. Accordingly, the Court of Appeals vacated defendant's conviction for involuntary manslaughter and affirmed his conviction for negligent homicide. Id.[4]

In concurring with the Court of Appeals majority, Judge White relied on a statutory rather than consti- [Page 599] tutional ground,[5] essentially stating that because negligent homicide was a "different degree" of involuntary manslaughter, defendant's conviction of negligent homicide precluded his subsequent conviction of involuntary manslaughter arising from the same vehicular death. Id. at 1.

II

This appeal involves challenges based on constitutional double jeopardy principles. A double jeopardy challenge presents a question of law that we review de novo. See, e.g., People v Sierb, 456 Mich 519, 520-521; 581 NW2d 219 (1998).

US Const, Am V provides, in pertinent part

[n]o person … shall … be subject for the same offence to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb. …

This provision is applicable to the states through the Fourteenth Amendment. Benton v Maryland, 395 US 784, 794; 89 S Ct 2056; 23 L Ed 2d 707 (1969). Further, Michigan Const 1963, art 1, § 15 provides:

No person shall be subject for the same offense to be twice put in jeopardy.

The Double Jeopardy Clause of the Fifth Amendment protects against two general governmental abuses: (1) multiple prosecutions for the same offense after an acquittal or conviction; and (2) multiple punishments for the same offense. Ohio v Johnson, 467 US 493, 497; 104 S Ct 2536; 81 L Ed 2d 425 (1984).

[Page 600] "The principal thrust of double jeopardy protection by the very terms of our federal and state constitutional provision[s] is protection from repeated prosecutions for the same criminal offense arising out of the same conduct."People v Harding, 443 Mich 693, 705; 506 NW2d 482 (1993). This includes protection from being prosecuted in a subsequent prosecution for a greater offense, following conviction in a previous trial for a lesser included offense. Green v United States, 355 US 184, 190; 78 S Ct 221; 2 L Ed 2d 199 (1957); Price v Georgia, 398 US 323; 90 S Ct 1757; 26 L Ed 2d 300 (1970). Additionally, "[t]he concept of multiple punishment in double jeopardy jurisprudence has as its purpose the avoidance of more than one punishment for the same offense arising out of a single prosecution." Harding, supra at 705.

In the present case, we are faced with challenges involving both defendant's constitutional right to be free from multiple prosecutions and his right to be free from multiple punishments.

First, we conclude that there was no violation of defendant's right to be free from multiple prosecutions when he was retried on the charge of second-degree murder in the second trial.[6] Successive- [Page 601] prosecution cases implicate the core values of the principles relating to double jeopardy. See Bartkus v Illinois (On Rehearing), 359 US 121, 151; 79 S Ct 676; 3 L Ed 2d 684 (1959) (Black, J., dissenting). Where successive prosecutions occur, double jeopardy principles protect a defendant's interest in not having to twice run the gauntlet, in not being subjected to "embarrassment, expense and ordeal," and in not being compelled "to live in a continuing state of anxiety and insecurity," with enhancement of the "possibility that even though innocent he may be found guilty." Green v United States, supra at 187-188; see also United States v Wilson, 420 US 332, 343; 95 S Ct 1013; 43 L Ed 2d 232 (1975).

The United States Supreme Court has recognized that certain situations are not amenable to strict application of the general principle that the Double Jeopardy Clause bars a defendant from being tried twice for the same crime. Richardson v United States, 468 US 317, 323-324; 104 S Ct 3081; 82 L Ed 2d 242 (1984). In Richardson, the Supreme Court held that in those circumstances in which "manifest necessity" causes the termination of a criminal trial, the defendant's right against being placed twice in jeopardy is not implicated with regard to the charges unsuccessfully completed. In particular, the Supreme Court has long recognized that a jury's inability to [Page 602] agree upon a verdict constitutes manifest necessity. Id.

Michigan courts also recognize that where manifest necessity compels the termination of a proceeding, the state's double jeopardy provisions do not bar retrial. People v Thompson, 424 Mich 118, 123; 379 NW2d 49 (1985), quoting People v Anderson, 409 Mich 474, 483-484; 295 NW2d 482 (1980). Such manifest necessity, although elusive of precise definition, includes at least those instances in which a jury is unable to reach a verdict. Thompson, supra at 123.

When a jury is unable to reach a verdict and a declaration of mistrial has been made by the court, the mistrial is not the equivalent of an acquittal. There exists a long line of cases, starting with the opinion of Justice Story in United States v Perez, 22 US (9 Wheat) 579, 580; 6 L Ed 165 (1824), which hold that "a failure of the jury to agree on a verdict [is] an instance of 'manifest necessity' which permits a trial judge to terminate the first trial and retry the defendant, because 'the ends of public justice would otherwise be defeated.'" The Court in United States v Bordeaux, 121 F3d 1187, 1193 (CA 8, 1997) stated that [w]here a jury ha[s] not been silent as to a particular count, but where, on the contrary, a disagreement is formally entered on the record[,] [t]he effect of such entry justifies the discharge of the jury, and therefore a subsequent prosecution for the offence as to which the jury has disagreed and on account of which it has been regularly discharged, would not constitute second jeopardy.

The present case falls within the scope of this exception to the general prohibition against successive prosecutions. Here, the jury in defendant's first trial expressly deadlocked with regard to count I (sec- [Page 603] ond-degree murder), thus compelling the termination of an otherwise properly pursued criminal prosecution. Under these circumstances, defendant was neither acquitted nor convicted of this offense. Richardson, supra at 323-324; Thompson, supra at 123. Rather, the trial court's declaration of a mistrial, regarding the second-degree murder charge, completely halted the proceedings that ultimately would have led to a verdict on this charge. Johnson, supra at 499-500. Where criminal proceedings against an accused have not run their full course, the Double Jeopardy Clause does not bar a second trial. Price v Georgia, supra at 326-327. Thus, because the prosecutor's retrial of defendant on the charge of second-degree murder was the result of a hung jury, we conclude that there was no violation of double jeopardy principles aimed at multiple prosecutions.

Vacating defendant's conviction for involuntary manslaughter, the Court of Appeals majority in this case determined that a "fundamental error in the proceedings below … has resulted in a violation of defendant's constitutional right to be free from double jeopardy." Slip op at 2. Apparently, this "fundamental error" occurred when the prosecutor chose to pursue convictions against defendant for both second-degree murder and OUI causing death. According to the Court majority, "where the facts support separate charges of murder, involuntary manslaughter, or OUI causing death, the charges must be brought in the alternative, and presented to the trier of fact as such." Id. (emphasis added). We disagree to the extent where, as here, defendant was charged with second-degree murder and OUI causing death in the first trial, but [Page 604] was acquitted of the latter, and properly retried for second-degree murder in a subsequent trial.

Thus, the Court of Appeals vacation of defendant's conviction for involuntary manslaughter on this ground was in error.

Second, we conclude that defendant received multiple punishments for the killing of the victim, Ms. Comito, in violation of his double jeopardy right to be free from multiple punishments, when he was convicted of, and sentenced for, negligent homicide and involuntary manslaughter.

Under neither the federal nor the Michigan double jeopardy provisions does this Court instruct the Legislature regarding what conduct it can and cannot make separate crimes. People v Robideau, 419 Mich 458, 485; 355 NW2d 592 (1984). In Michigan, the penalty for involuntary manslaughter is codified,[7] but the definition is left to the common law. People v Stubenvoll, 62 Mich 329, 331; 28 NW 583 (1886). This Court has defined the common-law offense of involuntary manslaughter as "the killing of another without malice and unintentionally, but in doing some unlawful act not amounting to a felony nor naturally tending to cause death or great bodily harm, or in negligently doing some act lawful in itself, or by the negligent omission to perform a legal duty."People v [Page 605] Ryczek, 224 Mich 106, 110; 194 NW 609 (1923); see also People v Beach, 429 Mich 450, 477; 418 NW2d 861 (1988). The kind of negligence required for manslaughter is something more than ordinary or simple negligence, however, and is often described as "criminal negligence" or "gross negligence,"People v Townes, 391 Mich 578, 590, n 4; 218 NW2d 136 (1974).

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

The negligent homicide statute, MCL 750.324 provides:

Any person who, by the operation of any vehicle upon any highway or upon any other property, public or private, at an immoderate rate of speed or in a careless, reckless or negligent manner, but not wilfully or wantonly, shall cause the death of another, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 2 years or by a fine of not more than $2,000.00, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Where two statutes prohibit violations of the same societal norm, albeit in a different manner, as a general principle it can be concluded that the Legislature did not intend multiple punishments. Robideau, supra at 487. With regard to the statutes addressing the offenses of involuntary manslaughter and negligent homicide, it is reasonable to conclude that the causation of the death of another human being is the violation of a societal norm sought to be prohibited by the Legislature. These two crimes are part of a hierarchy of offenses in which statutes incorporate the elements of a base statute, but increase the penalty on the basis of the presence of increasingly aggravating conduct. See id. at 487-488; see also People v Price, 214 Mich App 530, 544; 543 NW2d 49 (1995). In other words, the only difference between the two offenses [Page 606] is the level of conduct necessary to establish criminal culpability.

That the involuntary manslaughter and negligent homicide statutes prohibit violations of essentially the same societal norm is further evidenced by MCL 750.325, which provides:

The crime of negligent homicide shall be deemed to be included within every crime of manslaughter charged to have been committed in the operation of any vehicle, and in any case where a defendant is charged with manslaughter committed in the operation of any vehicle, if the jury shall find the defendant not guilty of the crime of manslaughter, it may render a verdict of guilty of negligent homicide.

The hierarchal nature of these two offenses thus evidences a legislative prohibition against the imposition of dual convictions and punishments for violation of the societal norm sought to be protected by both the statute against involuntary manslaughter and the statute against negligent homicide. See Robideau, supra at 487-488; People v Sturgis, 427 Mich 392, 407; 397 NW2d 783 (1986).

In the present case, defendant was first convicted of negligent homicide, under a charge of OUI causing death.[8] He was retried on the second-degree murder charge, a charge on which the jury in the first trial [Page 607] had expressly deadlocked, and was convicted of involuntary manslaughter. Defendant thus received multiple punishments for the killing of Ms. Comito, in violation of his double jeopardy right to be free from multiple punishments for the same offense. See Robideau, supra at 487.

In People v Harding, supra, the defendants were found guilty of armed robbery, assault with intent to murder, and possession of a firearm, arising out of a robbery during which the victim "was shot once in the heart and once in the abdomen, and then thrown headfirst into a sewer to die." Id. at 696 (Brickley, J.). He survived the attack, but suffered from irreversible heart problems from that time until his death four years later. Id. at 696-697. The defendants were then prosecuted for felony murder and felony-firearm. Id. In a joint trial with separate juries, one defendant was convicted of felony murder and felony-firearm, while the other defendant was convicted of felony murder only. Id. at 698. The defendants appealed, and the Court of Appeals held that the prosecution and conviction of both defendants for felony murder was not precluded by double jeopardy. The Court of Appeals reversed the second conviction and the sentence for [Page 608] felony-firearm, on the basis that it was precluded by double jeopardy protections. Id. at 698. The Court of Appeals also concluded, in light of the felony-murder conviction, that both defendants' prior convictions and sentences for armed robbery and assault with intent to commit murder were violative of the protection against multiple punishments and should be vacated and set aside, the time having been served by them credited to the sentences imposed as a result of their earlier convictions. Id. at 699.

This Court affirmed in part and reversed in part, holding that it was not a violation of the Double Jeopardy Clause to charge, try, and convict these defendants of felony murder after prosecution for the other crimes arising out of the same conduct. Id. at 704-705. This Court went on to analyze the "constitutional implications" of the penalties imposed on the defendants for the previous crimes in light of the felony-murder conviction. Id. Reversing in part the Court of Appeals decision, this Court also held that since the felony-murder conviction did not amount to a double jeopardy violation, it followed that the accompanying felony-firearm conviction was valid as well.

Thus, in Harding, this Court had occasion to consider whether a multiple punishment problem that arises when punishments are exacted in successive trials should be treated in the same manner as when multiple punishments are exacted in a single trial. The Court stated:

We conclude that double jeopardy protection dictates that defendants not receive a form of multiple punishment that could not have been exacted had their felonious intentions been realized sooner and had they been prosecuted to the extent of their ultimate culpability in the first trial. They [Page 609] were not placed in jeopardy twice by the second prosecution …; rather, they were subjected to punishment for offenses arising out of a single transaction that could not have been exacted in a single proceeding. [Id. at 715-716.]

In separate opinions, a majority of the Harding Court recognized that the same guiding principles apply in both situations.[9]

Harding also stated that, in cases in which no successive prosecutions problem arises, but in which a defendant has been punished doubly "for offenses arising out of a single transaction but that could not have been exacted in a single proceeding," it is an appropriate remedy in a multiple punishment double jeopardy violation to affirm the conviction of the higher charge and to vacate the lower conviction. Id. at 716; see also Jones v Thomas, 491 US 376, 381-382; 109 S Ct 2522; 105 L Ed 2d 322 (1989). Likewise, we believe that Harding can be extended to cases, such as the instant one, in which the multiple punishments problem does not arise in the first trial because of the declaration of a mistrial. Had the jury not deadlocked on the second-degree murder charge, but, instead had convicted the defendant of involuntary manslaughter, punishment could have been exacted in a single trial and the multiple punishment remedy would have been to affirm the greater conviction. This fact, cou- [Page 610] pled with the fact that the second trial was permissibly brought out of manifest necessity, supports the conclusion that, for constitutional purposes, defendant's conviction for involuntary manslaughter should stand, and his conviction of negligent homicide should be vacated. We therefore reverse the Court of Appeals decision, reinstate defendant's conviction and sentence for involuntary manslaughter, and vacate his conviction and sentence for negligent homicide.

III

Apart from the constitutional issues of double jeopardy discussed above, however, we are also faced with the applicability of MCL 768.33 to the present case. Section 33 provides:

When a defendant shall be acquitted or convicted upon any indictment for an offense, consisting of different degrees, he shall not thereafter be tried or convicted for a different degree of the same offense; nor shall he be tried or convicted for any attempt to commit the offense charged in the indictment or to commit any degree of such offense.

The application of this statute to the present case was first raised by Judge White in her concurring Court of Appeals opinion.

According to Judge White, because the defendant should not have been tried for involuntary manslaughter after being convicted of negligent homicide, the involuntary manslaughter conviction was improper. Instead, Judge White would have affirmed the defendant's negligent homicide conviction and vacated his involuntary manslaughter conviction. Essentially, then, Judge White's opinion suggests that MCL 768.33 justifies departure from the generally accepted rem- [Page 611] edy for multiple punishments, see Harding, supra, and requires affirmance of the lesser conviction rather than the greater.

While we acknowledge that MCL 768.33 may affect the prosecutor's ability to retry a defendant for a crime in instances where the defendant has previously been convicted of a lesser-included offense of that crime, we hold that MCL 768.33 is inapplicable to the facts of this case. Thus, we believe that the appropriate remedy is to affirm the defendant's involuntary manslaughter conviction and vacate his negligent homicide conviction.

In reviewing questions of statutory construction, our purpose is to discern and give effect to the Legislature's intent. People v Morey, 461 Mich 325, 329-330; 603 NW2d 250 (1999). "We begin by examining the plain language of the statute; where that language is unambiguous, we presume that the Legislature intended the meaning clearly expressed—no further judicial construction is required or permitted, and the statute must be enforced as written." Id. at 330. "We must give the words of a statute their plain and ordinary meaning. …" Id.

The plain language of § 33 provides that a defendant shall not be tried or convicted for a different degree of the "same offense" for which he has been acquitted or convicted upon any indictment. In the present case, the only acquittals or convictions the defendant received were upon an indictment for OUI causing death.[10] He was not thereafter tried for a different degree of OUI causing death. Therefore, he was [Page 612] not subsequently tried for a different degree of the same offense.

Judge White's opinion implies that the defendant's conviction of negligent homicide upon an indictment for OUI causing death barred subsequent trials (including a retrial) for any charges that would include negligent homicide as a lesser offense.[11] We respectfully disagree. The plain language of § 33 ties the "offense, consisting of different degrees" to the indictment under which a defendant is convicted, not to the particular crime of which he is ultimately convicted. This becomes apparent when the statute is read in its entirety. In the first part of § 33, the phrase "for an offense, consisting of different degrees" immediately follows, and modifies, the word "indictment." Moreover, the second half of the statute clearly refers to a subsequent trial or conviction regarding "the offense charged in the indictment." MCL 768.33 (emphasis added).

Further, in Michigan, a prosecution must be based on an information or an indictment. MCR 6.112(B). The word "indictment" includes information, presentment, complaint, warrant, and any other formal written accusation. MCL 750.10; see also People v Grove, 455 Mich 439, 459, n 24; 566 NW2d 547 (1997). The term "indictment" is to be treated as also referring to charges made by the filing of an information. People v Russo, 439 Mich 584, 588, n 1; 487 NW2d 698 (1992); [Page 613] see also MCL 767.2. "Each count in an indictment is regarded as if it was a separate indictment."People v Vaughn, 409 Mich 463, 465; 295 NW2d 354 (1980).

In essence, defendant here was originally tried under three separate charges, or "indictments": second-degree murder, OUI causing death, and driving on a suspended driver's license. At his first trial, defendant was convicted of negligent homicide. However, this conviction was based upon count II (OUI causing death) of a three-count information.

Because the focus of § 33 is on the offense charged in the indictment, not on the offense for which a defendant is ultimately convicted, defendant herein could not thereafter be tried for a "different degree" of OUI causing death. At his second trial, defendant was convicted of involuntary manslaughter, as a result of being retried on the charge of second-degree murder, a charge upon which the jury in defendant's first trial expressly deadlocked.

The issue then becomes whether OUI causing death and second-degree murder or involuntary manslaughter constitute "different degrees" of the same offense. We conclude that they clearly do not, and are thus persuaded that this lack of relationship serves to negate the application of § 33 under the circumstances of the present case.

IV. CONCLUSION

We conclude that it was appropriate for the prosecutor to retry defendant for second-degree murder in a subsequent trial, after the jury deadlocked on that count after the first trial. The prosecutor's retrial of defendant on the charge of second-degree murder [Page 614] was the result of manifest necessity, and therefore not in violation of double jeopardy principles aimed at multiple prosecutions.

We thus reverse the judgment of the Court of Appeals and reinstate defendant's conviction and sentence for involuntary manslaughter. However, because defendant received inappropriate multiple punishments for involuntary manslaughter and negligent homicide, we vacate his conviction and sentence for negligent homicide.

3 People v Harding, 443 Mich 693; 506 NW2d 482 (1993).

4 The Court of Appeals also ordered resentencing on defendant's negligent homicide conviction for reasons that are not relevant here.

5 MCL 768.33.

6 The Court of Appeals concluded that "defendant's right against successive prosecutions for the same offense was implicated once the trial court accepted the first jury's verdict of negligent homicide and the prosecutor was allowed to retry defendant on the higher charges." Slip op at 2. However, the Court of Appeals holding erroneously failed to recognize that the second trial in this case was a retrial after mistrial of the second-degree murder charge initially brought simultaneously with the OUI causing death charge. Jeopardy relating to the second-degree murder charge continued from the initial trial into the retrial. The retrial did not involve a second prosecution for the OUI charge. Thus, as will be explained, the problem perceived by the Court of Appeals is actually a multiple punishments problem rather than a multiple prosecutions problem. This case is similar to Harding, supra, in which this Court discussed the difficulty in analyzing a challenge arising when the punishment complained of is exacted from successive trials rather than from a single trial. See discussion below at 608-611.

7 The penalty for involuntary manslaughter is set forth in MCL 750.321:

Any person who shall commit the crime of manslaughter shall be guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, not more than fifteen years or by fine of not more than seven thousand five hundred dollars, or both, at the discretion of the court.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

8 As we have concluded today, such charging neither constituted overreaching by the prosecutor, nor resulted in a violation of defendant's right to be free from multiple punishments. However, a trial court is required to instruct the jury concerning the law applicable to the case and to present the case fully and fairly to the jury in an understandable manner. MCL 768.29. People v Mills, 450 Mich 61, 80; 537 NW2d 909 (1995). We recognize that the instructions articulated by the trial court at defendant's first trial have served to complicate the issues in the present case. Here, the trial court instructed the jury on the offense of negligent homicide as a lesser included offense of both second-degree murder and OUI causing death.

Defendant, however, arguably waived any potential claim of error resulting from the trial court's instructions to the jury at his first trial. Waiver has been defined as "the intentional relinquishment or abandonment of a known right."People v Carines, 460 Mich 750, 762-763, n 7; 597 NW2d 130 (1999). "One who waives his rights under a rule may not then seek appellate review of a claimed deprivation of those rights, for his waiver has extinguished any error." United States v Griffin, 84 F3d 912, 924 (CA 7, 1996). In the present case, defendant did not fail to object to the negligent homicide instruction as it related to the OUI causing death charge. Rather, he both requested, and approved of, this instruction. Defendant may not now harbor any claim of error regarding this instruction as an appellate parachute. See People v Carter, 462 Mich 206, 214; 612 NW2d 144 (2000).

Thus, in cases involving the double jeopardy protection against double punishment, although we have not decided a case involving both successive prosecutions and multiple punishment as in Garrett [v United States, 471 US 773; 105 S Ct 2407; 85 L Ed 2d 764 (1985)], it is clear that we have interpreted the Michigan Constitution consistently with the United States Supreme Court's interpretation of the federal constitution—legislative intent controls. [Id. at 708 (opinion of Brickley, J.).]

10 In association with the OUI causing death charge, the defendant was convicted of negligent homicide as a lesser-included offense and was thereby implicitly acquitted of OUI causing death.

11 We note that the complicated question arises partially from the fact that the jury was instructed that a homicide offense, negligent homicide, was also a lesser-included offense of OUI causing death. Our opinion should not be read as holding that negligent homicide is a lesser-included offense of OUI causing death. Rather, we are merely addressing the issues as they pertain to the prosecution of the defendant and the punishments he actually received.

In this prosecution for reckless driving causing death, MCL 257.626(4), the prosecution appeals by leave granted the trial court's order granting defendant's motion to instruct the jury on the lesser included offense of moving violation causing death, MCL 257.601d, contrary to the prohibition against doing so under MCL 257.626(5). The case arises from a three-vehicle collision in which defendant struck another vehicle, causing the second vehicle to strike a third, killing the driver of the second vehicle. MCL 257.626(5) states that "[i]n a prosecution under [MCL 257.622(4) for reck- [Page 437] less driving causing death], the jury shall not be instructed regarding the crime of moving violation causing death [under MCL 257.601d]." The trial court determined that this statutory prohibition unconstitutionally infringed on the judicial power to determine court practice and procedure. As a constitutional question, we review the matter de novo. People v Benton, 294 Mich App 191, 203; 817 NW2d 599 (2011). Because MCL 257.626(5) is unconstitutional, we affirm.

"It is a general rule of criminal law, that a jury may acquit of the principal charge, and find the prisoner guilty of an offense of lesser grade, if contained within it." People v McDonald, 9 Mich 150, 153 (1861). Many crimes, today and at common law, consist of several "concentric layers" of crimes, each of which is in fact another crime with an element added or subtracted; the "rejecting of successive aggravations is a function open to juries in all cases where there is presented to them one offense in which another is inclosed" and "[n]o question has ever been made as to this right on the part of the jury . . . ." 1 Wharton, A Treatise on Criminal Law (10th ed), § 27, pp 34-35. See also Hanna v The People, 19 Mich 316, 318 (1869). Michigan codified this principle by statute as early as 1846 in 1846 RS, ch 161, § 16, which provided that [u]pon an indictment for any offence, consisting of different degrees, as prescribed in this title, the jury may find the accused not guilty of the offence in the degree charged in the indictment, and may find such accused person guilty of any degree of such offence, inferior to that charged in the indictment, or of an attempt to commit such offence.

Our Supreme Court recognized that, at the time, the only crime formally divided into degrees was murder, for which no such provision was needed; consequently, the provision must "be construed as extending to all [Page 438] cases in which the statute has substantially, or in effect, recognized and provided for the punishment of offenses of different grades, or degrees of enormity, wherever the charge for the higher grade includes a charge for the less." Hanna, 19 Mich at 321-322. Our Supreme Court eventually concluded that this principle from Hanna had become inappropriately extrapolated to include cognate offenses, not only necessarily included offenses. See People v Nyx, 479 Mich 112, 118-121; 734 NW2d 548 (2007). However, Nyx affirmed the Hanna conclusion that the statutory language concerning inferior offenses referred to any offense contained within the charged offense, not just offenses within which the Legislature has formally created degrees. Nyx, 479 Mich at 127-129.

Today, MCL 768.32 provides essentially the same rule, with the addition of one enumerated exception, contained in MCL 768.32(2), and an explicit provision for the judge at a bench trial to make the same finding. We find it unambiguous that MCL 768.32(1) embodies a venerable and important rule of common law; consequently, the Legislature is strongly presumed not to have intended any alteration to the common law by enacting it. See Bandfield v Bandfield, 117 Mich 80, 82; 75 NW 287 (1898), overruled in part on other grounds in Hosko v Hosko, 385 Mich 39; 187 NW2d 236 (1971). Of course, the Legislature can abrogate the common law, but "[w]hen it does so, it should speak in no uncertain terms." Hoerstman Gen Contracting, Inc v Hahn, 474 Mich 66, 74; 711 NW2d 340 (2006).

In an earlier case, this Court determined that the previously noted exception contained in MCL 768.32(2), pertaining to certain drug offenses, is unconstitutional. People v Binder

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

(On Remand), 215 Mich App 30, 38-42; 544 NW2d 714 (1996). While that conclusion has never [Page 439] been overturned on any substantive basis, our Supreme Court subsequently vacated that portion of this Court's opinion as having been unnecessary to the resolution of the case. People v Binder, 453 Mich 915; 554 NW2d 906 (1996). No binding caselaw presently establishes whether MCL 768.32(2) is or is not constitutional. [1] Furthermore, no binding caselaw addresses whether, or to what extent, the Legislature could abrogate the longstanding rule that the trier of fact may find a defendant not guilty of a charged offense in lieu of finding the defendant guilty of a necessarily included lesser offense.

It is axiomatic that the Legislature may establish the elements of a given crime. People v Calloway, 469 Mich 448, 450-451; 671 NW2d 733 (2003). The Legislature may, within constitutional limits, therefore, alter the definition of a crime so that it becomes or ceases to be a necessarily included lesser offense of another. There is no dispute before us that moving violation causing death is, by definition, a necessarily included lesser offense of reckless driving causing death; indeed, the prosecution explicitly so agreed at oral argument. The only distinction between the two crimes is that reckless driving causing death requires the motor vehicle to be operated "in willful or wanton disregard for the safety of persons or property . . . ." MCL 257.626(2). The Legislature could have defined a moving violation causing death in such a way that it included an element not present in reckless driving causing death, with the result that the two would be cognate offenses. However, the Legislature did not do so.

Rather, the Legislature provided that "[i]n a prosecution under [MCL 257.626(4) for reckless driving causing death], the jury shall not be instructed regarding the crime of moving violation causing death [under MCL 257.601d]." MCL 257.626(5). Significantly, this provision (1) does not change the fact that, by definition, moving violation causing death remains a necessarily included lesser offense of reckless driving causing death, (2) does not impose any restrictions on the trial court sitting as the trier of fact at a bench trial, and (3) does not even preclude the jury from finding a defendant guilty of the lesser offense.

Pursuant to Const 1963, art 6, § 5, "[t]he supreme court shall by general rules establish, modify, amend and simplify the practice and procedure in all courts of this state." While not present in Michigan's first constitution of 1835, an essentially identical provision is found in all of Michigan's constitutions since 1850. See McDougall v Schanz, 461 Mich 15, 26 n 10; 597 NW2d 148 (1999). The courts therefore may "prescribe procedural rules that vindicate constitutional rights," but may not promulgate "procedural rules contrary to legislative enactments that involve nonconstitutional substantive policies." People v Glass (After Remand), 464 Mich 266, 281 n 11; 627 NW2d 261 (2001). Consequently, our Supreme Court has "exclusive rule-making authority in matters of practice and procedure," but may not "enact court rules that establish, abrogate, or modify the substantive law." McDougall, 461 Mich at 26-27.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

In People v Cornell, 466 Mich 335, 353-354; 646 NW2d 127 (2002), our Supreme Court held that only necessarily included lesser offenses could be considered by the fact-finder and observed that this rule extended to misdemeanor offenses. Courts are not free to expand [Page 441] upon what crimes may be considered by the trier of fact to include what are, essentially, uncharged offenses. Cornell therefore stands for the conclusion that the Legislature sets the substantive law. Id. at 353. As noted, the Legislature can therefore define what constitutes a given offense. Pursuant to the definitions it crafts, some of those offenses may constitute necessarily included lesser offenses of other offenses. However, the Legislature is not free to dictate that the courts give instructions to the jury that conflict with substantive law. The courts are to instruct the jury on the law; this is established by statute, MCL 768.29, but also by court rule, MCR 2.513(A) and (N), and, importantly, by the simple fact that a jury not properly informed of the law cannot fulfill its duty. See, e.g., People v Potter, 5 Mich 1, 8-9 (1858); People v Duncan, 462 Mich 47, 52-53; 610 NW2d 551 (2000). [2] Correctly instructing the jury, therefore, arguably involves more than mere "substantive law;" it is in fact a fundamental requirement of the fair and proper administration of justice. See People v Murray, 72 Mich 10, 16; 40 NW 29 (1888); People v Townes, 391 Mich 578, 587; 218 NW2d 136 (1974).

It is the role of the courts to effectuate the right to a properly instructed jury; it is not the role of the Legislature to dictate to the courts the details of how to do so. Indeed, in Cornell our Supreme Court quoted, seemingly with approval, Justice LINDEMER's dissent in People v Chamblis, 395 Mich 408; 236 NW2d 473 (1975), [3] in which he explicitly noted that MCL 768.32 "'does not speak to instructions on lesser included offenses,'" and that although MCL 768.29 "'says that [Page 442] the court shall instruct the jury as to the law applicable to the case, [it] does not mandate what law is applicable to the case.'" Cornell, 466 Mich at 349, quoting Chamblis, 395 Mich at 433 (LINDEMER, J., dissenting). Trial judges are, to the contrary, permitted to instruct the jury however they believe best, as long as they accurately convey to the jury the material substance of the law applicable to the case. This supports our view that it is the Supreme Court that determines the practice and procedure to be followed by the courts in effectuating the law. If anything, Cornell supports our conclusion that determining what instructions should be given to the jury is exclusively the judiciary's role. See People v Knoll, 258 Mich 89, 101; 242 NW 222 (1932). The Legislature's role is only to create the law.

Consequently, if a necessarily included lesser offense exists, it is a violation of the principle of separation of powers for the Legislature to forbid the courts to instruct the jury on that lesser offense. A trial court's duty is to instruct the trier of fact regarding what the law actually is, and the law actually is that moving violation causing death is a necessarily included lesser offense of reckless driving causing death.

Even if the statute was not invalid as a violation of the constitutional separation of powers, we would have to strike it down as a violation of the right to trial by jury. As discussed earlier in this opinion, MCL 257.626(5) does not state what is or is not a lesser included offense of reckless driving causing death. It merely states that "[i]n a prosecution under [MCL 257.626(4) for reckless driving causing death], the jury shall not be instructed regarding the crime of moving violation causing death [under MCL 257.601d]." MCL

257.626(5). The plain text of the statute does not state that a trial court sitting as the finder of fact may not [Page 443] consider the offense of moving violation causing death nor that it may not convict a defendant of this lesser included offense. Had the legislature wished to limit the judge in this fashion it could readily have included explicit language to that effect. Our Legislature is presumed to be aware of the consequences of its use or omission of statutory language as well as its effect on existing laws. In re MKK, 286 Mich App 546, 556-557; 781 NW2d 132 (2009). See also, Carson City Hosp v Dep't of Community Health, 253 Mich App 444, 447-448; 656 NW2d 366 (2002) ("When the Legislature enacts laws, it is presumed to know the rules of statutory construction and therefore its use or omission of language is generally presumed to be intentional."). [4]

The limitation in MCL 257.626(5) is not a statement of substantive law. Instead, MCL 257.626(5) is an infringement on the exclusive role of the judiciary to establish procedures to vindicate constitutional rights, as well as an infringement on the fundamental right of criminal defendants to a properly instructed jury. MCL 257.626(5) is also infirm in that, under the statute, a criminal defendant must give up his or her right to a jury in order for the fact-finder to consider the lesser included offense. Significantly, a defendant has no right to a bench trial unless the prosecution and the judge agree. MCL 763.3; MCR 6.401. Therefore, the statute places defendants in the position of having to trade one right for another without even the ability to make an autonomous choice, and it presents the prosecution [Page 444] with a potentially improper basis for refusing to consent to a requested bench trial.

We conclude that MCL 257.626(5) is unconstitutional as a violation of fundamental due process and as a violation of the principle of separation of powers. Affirmed.

1 We respectfully reject the dissent's assertion that we rely on Binder. We discuss Binder only to explain that it is not binding and therefore has no applicability. Because the parties discussed it, however, we believe we would have been remiss had we failed to address Binder at all.

2 Binder, 215 Mich App at 40, and Duncan, 462 Mich at 49 n 3, both refer to MCR 6.414(F), the predecessor rule concerning jury instructions, which was repealed and incorporated into MCR 2.513 in 2011.

3 Chamblis, 395 Mich 408, was overruled in Cornell, 466 Mich 335.

4 The dissent suggests that we should ignore the plain language of the statute. It states that "the clear intent of the Legislature" would bar a judge from considering the lesser included offense of moving violation causing death. The dissent does not explain, however, what wording in the statute sets out this intent. Rather, the dissent seeks to impose what it views as a reasonable reading of the statute onto words that do not actually so read.

K. F. Kelly (dissenting).

I respectfully dissent. MCL 257.626(4) provides that "a person who operates a vehicle in violation of subsection (2) [in willful or wanton disregard for the safety of persons or property] and by the operation of that vehicle causes the death of another person is guilty of a felony . . . ." MCL 257.626(5) further provides that "[i]n a prosecution under subsection (4), the jury shall not be instructed regarding the crime of moving violation causing death." Because the trial court clearly violated the statutory mandate of MCL 257.626(5) by granting defendant's motion to instruct the jury on the misdemeanor offense of moving violation causing death, MCL 257.601d(1), [1] and because the statutory mandate neither deprives defendant of the right to a jury determination of all of the elements of the crime charged nor violates the principle of separation of powers, I would reverse.

MCL 768.32(1) provides:

Except as provided in subsection (2), upon an indictment for an offense, consisting of different degrees, as prescribed in this chapter [MCL 768.1 through MCL 768.37], the jury, or the judge in a trial without a jury, [Page 445] may find the accused not guilty of the offense in the degree charged in the indictment and may find the accused person guilty of a degree of that offense inferior to that charged in the indictment, or of an attempt to commit that offense.

In People v Cornell, 466 Mich 335, 356; 646 NW2d 127 (2002), our Supreme Court discussed the principles supporting an instruction on lesser included offenses as well as when a necessarily included offense instruction should be given:

[I]n a case where some of the elements of the crime charged themselves constitute a lesser crime, the defendant, if the evidence justifie(s) it . . . (is) entitled to an instruction which would permit a finding of guilt of the lesser offense. But a lesser-offense charge is not proper where, on the evidence presented, the factual issues to be resolved by the jury are the same as to both the lesser and the greater offenses. In other words, the lesser offense must be included within but not, on the facts of the case, be completely encompassed by the greater. A lesser-included offense instruction is only proper where the charged greater offense requires the jury to find a disputed factual element which is not required for a conviction of the lesser-included offense. [Quoting Sansone v United States, 380 US 343 , 349-350; 85 S Ct 1004 ; 13 L Ed 2 d 882 (1965) (quotation marks omitted).]

The Cornell Court thus held that a court could properly give an instruction on a necessarily included lesser offense "if the charged greater offense requires the jury to find a disputed factual element that is not part of the lesser included offense and a rational view of the evidence would support it. To permit otherwise would be inconsistent with the truth-seeking function of a trial . . . ." Cornell, 466 Mich at 357.

Defendant argues that MCL 257.626(5) conflicts with the holding in Cornell and unconstitutionally infringes [Page 446] on our Supreme Court's rulemaking authority, violating the separation of powers doctrine. I disagree.

"The powers of government are divided into three branches: legislative, executive and judicial. No person exercising powers of one branch shall exercise powers properly belonging to another branch except as expressly provided in this constitution." Const 1963, art 3, § 2. The Legislature has the power over matters of substantive law. See People v Pattison, 276 Mich App 613, 619-620; 741 NW2d 558 (2007). While the Legislature has the sole power to define crimes and set punishments, People v Calloway, , 451; 671 NW2d 733 (2003), the Supreme Court has the power to establish practice and procedure, *People v Watkins*469 Mich 448, 491 Mich 450, 472; 818 NW2d 296 (2012). Therefore, "the Legislature may not enact a rule that is purely procedural, i.e., one that is not backed by any clearly identifiable policy consideration other than the administration of judicial functions." Pattison, 276 Mich App at 619. In the course of deciding whether a statutory rule of evidence violated the principle of separation of powers, our Supreme Court held that the Legislature infringes on the Supreme Court's domain only when no clear legislative policy reflecting considerations other than judicial dispatch of litigation can be identified . . . . Therefore, [i]f a particular court rule contravenes a legislatively declared principle of public policy, having as its basis something other than court administration . . . [,] the [court] rule should yield. . . .

. . . [P]rocedural rules of evidence involving the orderly dispatch of judicial business are those rules of evidence designed to allow the adjudicatory process to function effectively . . . . Examples are rules of evidence designed to let the jury have evidence free from the risks of irrelevancy, confusion and fraud. [Watkins, 491 Mich at 474-475, quo- [Page 447] ting McDougall v Schanz, 461 Mich 15, 30-31; 597 NW2d 148 (1999) (quotation marks omitted) (first and third alterations in original).]

Contrary to the majority's conclusion, MCL 257.626(5) is obviously not a matter of practice and procedure; rather, § 626(5) is absolutely within the substantive power of the Legislature.

Cornell clearly stated that MCL 768.32 is not confined to practice and procedure, but is a matter of substantive law:

As this Court has recognized, matters of substantive law are left to the Legislature. Determining what charges a jury may consider does not concern merely the "judicial dispatch of litigation." Rather, the statute concerns a matter of substantive law. As this Court has noted,

[t]he measure of control exercised in connection with the prevention and detection of crime and prosecution and punishment of criminals is set forth in the statutes of the State pertaining thereto, particularly the penal code and the code of criminal procedure. The powers of the courts with reference to such matters are derived from the statutes.

[Cornell, 466 Mich at 353 (emphasis added) (citations and quotation marks omitted).]

Our Supreme Court has determined that MCL 768.32, involving the jury's consideration of lesser included offenses, is a matter of substantive law; it follows that MCL 257.626(5) is also a matter of substantive law. MCL 257.626(5) identifies two specific offenses, prohibiting a jury instruction on the less serious offense when the more serious one has been charged. It reflects the Legislature's policy decision that, in certain cases, the jury shall not be instructed on certain offenses. Consequently, § 626(5) is within the Legislature's power over [Page 448] matters of substantive law and does not violate the separation of powers doctrine.

I find unavailing the majority's reliance on People v Binder (On Remand), 215 Mich App 30; 544 NW2d 714 (1996). In Binder, the defendant was charged with delivery of a controlled substance, and MCL 768.32(2) specifically prohibited the trial court from instructing the jury on mere possession. Id. at 32-33. The Court of Appeals held that MCL 768.32(2) was contrary to the constitutional doctrine of separation of powers. Id. at 41-42. Our Court stated that "once the Supreme Court takes action on a matter relating to practice or procedure, the Legislature is without authority to set other requirements." Id. at 40. Our Court concluded that the Supreme Court demonstrated its intent to occupy the domain of jury instructions by court rule and case law and, therefore, MCL 768.32(2) was an impermissible infringement on the Court's rulemaking authority. Id. at 40-42. However, our Supreme Court vacated the portion of the judgment of the Court of Appeals that held the lesser offense and jury instruction provisions of MCL 768.32(2) unconstitutionally infringe on the Supreme Court's authority over practice and procedure, . . . because it was unnecessary for the Court of Appeals to reach this constitutional question after determining that the defendant's conviction would be affirmed in any event. [People v Binder, 453 Mich 915; 554 NW2d 906 (1996) (citation omitted).]

Because that portion of Binder was specifically vacated by the Supreme Court, no binding authority supports the majority's conclusion. Statutes are presumed constitutional, and courts must construe statutes as constitutional unless the unconstitutionality of a statute is clearly apparent. People v Dipiazza, 286 Mich App 137, 144; 778 NW2d 264 (2009). That a statute may appear ill-advised does not make it unconstitutional and em- [Page 449] power a court to override the Legislature. People v Boomer, 250 Mich App 534, 538; 655 NW2d 255 (2002).

Finally, while the majority expresses concern that MCL 257.626(5) effectively allows a judge, sitting without a jury, to find a defendant guilty of a lesser included offense, I believe that such an assumption is contrary to the longstanding principle that "[i]n a bench trial, the trial court is presumed to know the applicable law." People v Lanzo Constr Co,

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

272 Mich App 470, 484; 726 NW2d 746 (2006); see also People v Cazal, 412 Mich 680, 691 n 5; 316 NW2d 705 (1982) (stating that a trial court is not required in a bench trial to give instructions in open court on the law to be applied). Given the clear intent of the Legislature to forbid consideration of the lesser misdemeanor offense of moving violation causing death when a defendant has been charged with reckless driving causing death, a judge trying a case without a jury would surely understand that he or she could not convict the defendant of the lesser offense.

For these reasons, I would reverse.

MCR 2.119 Motion Practice
(A) Form of Motions.

(1) An application to the court for an order in a pending action must be by motion. Unless made during a hearing or trial, a motion must

(a) be in writing,

(b) state with particularity the grounds and authority on which it is based,

(c) state the relief or order sought, and

(d) be signed by the party or attorney as provided in MCR 2.114.

(2) A motion or response that presents an issue of law must be accompanied by a brief citing the authority on which it is based. Except as permitted by the court, the combined length of any motion and brief, or of a response and brief, may not exceed 20 pages double spaced, exclusive of attachments and exhibits. Quotations and footnotes may be single-spaced. At least one-inch margins must be used, and printing shall not be smaller than 12-point type. A copy of a motion or response (including brief) filed under this rule must be provided by counsel to the office of the judge hearing the motion. The judge's copy must be clearly marked JUDGE'S COPY on the cover sheet; that notation may be handwritten.

(3) A motion and notice of the hearing on it may be combined in the same document.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

(4) If a contested motion is filed after rejection of a proposed order under subrule (D), a copy of the rejected order and an affidavit establishing the rejection must be filed with the motion.

(B) Form of Affidavits.

(1) If an affidavit is filed in support of or in opposition to a motion, it must:

(a) be made on personal knowledge;

(b) state with particularity facts admissible as evidence establishing or denying the grounds stated in the motion; and

(c) show affirmatively that the affiant, if sworn as a witness, can testify competently to the facts stated in the affidavit.

(2) Sworn or certified copies of all papers or parts of papers referred to in an affidavit must be attached to the affidavit unless the papers or copies:

(a) have already been filed in the action;

(b) are matters of public record in the county in which the action is pending;

(c) are in the possession of the adverse party, and this fact is stated in the affidavit or the motion; or

(d) are of such nature that attaching them would be unreasonable or impracticable, and this fact and the reasons are stated in the affidavit or the motion.

(C) Time for Service and Filing of Motions and Responses.

(1) Unless a different period is set by these rules or by the court for good cause, a written motion (other than one that may be heard ex parte), notice of the hearing on the motion, and any supporting brief or affidavits must be served as follows:

(a) at least 9 days before the time set for the hearing, if served by mail, or

(b) at least 7 days before the time set for the hearing, if served by delivery under MCR 2.107(C)(1) or (2).

(2) Unless a different period is set by these rules or by the court for good cause, any response to a motion (including a brief or affidavits) required or permitted by these rules must be served as follows:

(a) at least 5 days before the hearing, if served by mail, or

(b) at least 3 days before the hearing, if served by delivery under MCR 2.107(C)(1) or (2).

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

(3) If the court sets a different time for serving a motion or response its authorization must be endorsed in writing on the face of the notice of hearing or made by separate order.

(4) Unless the court sets a different time, a motion must be filed at least 7 days before the hearing, and any response to a motion required or permitted by these rules must be filed at least 3 days before the hearing.

(D) Uncontested Orders.

(1) Before filing a motion, a party may serve on the opposite party a copy of a proposed order and a request to stipulate to the court's entry of the proposed order.

(2) On receipt of a request to stipulate, a party may

(a) stipulate to the entry of the order by signing the following statement at the end of the proposed order: "I stipulate to the entry of the above order"; or

(b) waive notice and hearing on the entry of an order by signing the following statement at the end of the proposed order: "Notice and hearing on entry of the above order is waived."

A proposed order is deemed rejected unless it is stipulated to or notice and hearing are waived within 7 days after it is served.

(3) If the parties have stipulated to the entry of a proposed order or waived notice and hearing, the court may enter the order. If the court declines to enter the order, it shall notify the moving party that a hearing on the motion is required. The matter then proceeds as a contested motion under subrule (E).

(4) The moving party must serve a copy of an order entered by the court pursuant to subrule (D)(3) on the parties entitled to notice under MCR 2.107, or notify them that the court requires the matter to be heard as a contested motion.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subrule (D)(3), stipulations and orders for adjournment are governed by MCR 2.503.

(E) Contested Motions.

(1) Contested motions should be noticed for hearing at the time designated by the court for the hearing of motions. A motion will be heard on the day for which it is noticed, unless the court otherwise directs. If a motion cannot be heard on the day it is noticed, the court may schedule a new hearing date or the moving party may renotice the hearing.

(2) When a motion is based on facts not appearing of record, the court may hear the motion on affidavits presented by the parties, or may direct that the motion be heard wholly or partly on oral testimony or deposition.

(3) A court may, in its discretion, dispense with or limit oral arguments on motions, and may require the parties to file briefs in support of and in opposition to a motion.

(4) Appearance at the hearing is governed by the following:

(a) A party who, pursuant to subrule (D)(2), has previously rejected the proposed order before the court must either

(i) appear at the hearing held on the motion, or

(ii) before the hearing, file a response containing a concise statement of reasons in opposition to the motion and supporting authorities.

A party who fails to comply with this subrule is subject to assessment of costs under subrule (E)(4)(c).

(b) Unless excused by the court, the moving party must appear at a hearing on the motion. A moving party who fails to appear is subject to assessment of costs under subrule (E)(4)(c); in addition, the court may assess a penalty not to exceed $100, payable to the clerk of the court.

(c) If a party violates the provisions of subrule (E)(4)(a) or (b), the court shall assess costs against the offending party, that party's attorney, or both, equal to the expenses reasonably incurred by the opposing party in appearing at the hearing, including reasonable attorney fees, unless the circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

(F) Motions for Rehearing or Reconsideration.

(1) Unless another rule provides a different procedure for reconsideration of a decision (see, e.g., MCR 2.604(A), 2.612), a motion for rehearing or reconsideration of the decision on a motion must be served and filed not later than 21 days after entry of an order deciding the motion.

(2) No response to the motion may be filed, and there is no oral argument, unless the court otherwise directs.

(3) Generally, and without restricting the discretion of the court, a motion for rehearing or reconsideration which merely presents the same issues ruled on by the court, either expressly or by reasonable implication, will not be granted. The moving party must demonstrate a palpable error by which the court and the parties have been misled and show that a different disposition of the motion must result from correction of the error.

(G) Motion Fees. The following provisions apply to actions in which a motion fee is required:

(1) A motion fee must be paid on the filing of any request for an order in a pending action, whether the request is entitled "motion," "petition," "application," or otherwise.

(2) The clerk shall charge a single motion fee for all motions filed at the same time in an action regardless of the number of separately captioned documents filed or the number of distinct or alternative requests for relief included in the motions.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

(3) A motion fee may not be charged:

(a) in criminal cases;

(b) for a notice of settlement of a proposed judgment or order under MCR 2.602(B);

(c) for a request for an order waiving fees under MCR 2.002 or MCL 600.2529(4) or MCL 600.8371(6);

(d) if the motion is filed at the same time as another document in the same action as to which a fee is required; or

(e) for entry of an uncontested order under subrule (D).

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

CHALLENGES IN COURT BEFORE PROCEEDINGS START

These statements and questions can be directed to the judge, for himself, the prosecuting attorney and state witnesses, such as police, etc., and to each one, individually. Not all of these need be made, so we state those which are most appropriate for the circumstances. If both we and our opposition, including the judge, fully understand the very serious, lawful positions and Constitutional implications of the statements and questions, usually, only the first three are needed for Constitutional justice to be served.

1. When the judge asks if the parties are ready to proceed, we say, "No, not just yet, sir (or madam), I have a few matters I need to clarify before we begin." Then we make the statements we think most appropriate.

A. You and the prosecutor have taken oaths of office to support and uphold the Constitution of the united States of America and that of this state. Is that correct?

B. Pursuant to your oaths, you are required to abide by those oaths, in the performance of your official duties, especially those before this Honorable Court. Is that correct?

Note: If the judge, or the prosecuting attorney or other state witnesses say "no", then, obviously, they must be disqualified and/or removed from the bench, position or impeached as witnesses, along with their testimonies, for obvious reasons. This answer is evidence that the one who answered "no" will not abide by his oath in the performance of his official duties, therefore, by his own answer, his oath is meaningless to him. He is a traitor and a danger to the American People, and must be removed from power.

The American Citizen is guaranteed due process of law in all court proceedings and actions before government. If a judge were to answer "no" to the above confirming questions, then, it is obvious that he does not intend to uphold due process of law and Rights guaranteed to the Citizens. In such a situation, we would say "Sir, you are required to uphold due process of law. However, by your answer, it appears that you have either taken an oath, but have no intention of abiding by it, or you have not taken an oath of office, as required by the Constitutions. In either event, your answer demonstrates that you will not uphold due process of law and protect my Constitutionally secured Rights, which are guaranteed to me during these proceedings. Therefore, sir, you are disqualified. Step down."

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

All those who have taken oaths are required to answer "yes". This answer is consistent with the requirements under the oath, the bond which binds the oath and requirements of the Constitutions. A "yes" answer means that ALL actions taken by the public servant, PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE must be consistent with Constitutional requirements, specific to the Bill of Rights. If the public servant's past actions failed this, and if those actions are used in an action or as evidence against the defendant, then those actions were not taken pursuant to his oath and were done in opposition to Constitutional requirements. Therefore, the public servant perjured his oath, invoked the self-executing Sections 3 and 4 of the 14th Amendment, vacated his office, and forfeited all benefits of that former office, including salary and pensions. All charges must be dismissed, with prejudice.

He must be disqualified from his position, and if he is acting as a witness, he and his testimony must be impeached and all his unconstitutional, unlawful actions and evidence against the defendant must be denied, and the charges dismissed. All present and future actions by the judge and court must be conducted pursuant to the Constitutions, federal and state. In this situation, if you are fully aware of your Rights and the full extent of the implications of the "yes" answer, you will prevail. However, if the judge were to then violate his answer by his statements and actions during the proceedings, we must inform him of his answer and his Constitutional requirements thereto, and of his liability, if he were to fail in his duty to uphold his oath.

2. I appear before this Honorable Court, by special appearance, as a living, breathing natural-born American Citizen, on the land, with and claiming, all Rights guaranteed to me in the federal and state Constitutions, and with my name properly spelled only in upper and lower case letters.

After this is stated, we wait a few seconds to look at the prosecutors and the judge, then, we say:

Is there any objection to what I just stated?

Obviously, pursuant to oaths taken by the judge, prosecutors or opposing attorneys, there can be no lawful objection to what we just stated, because all that we just stated, includes, but is not limited to, truth and fact. Since what we just stated is true, namely, that we are natural born American Citizens, it would be lawfully foolish and absurd for the judge, the prosecutor or our opposing attorney(s) to object. If they were to object, then, we would demand that they support their objections with fact and law, or their objections are reduced to opinions, only, and opinions are not valid bases in any court of Constitutional competence upon which to state objections or claim lawful positions. In this event, we must specify our objections and demand specific lawfully based performance, pursuant to oaths taken.

When no objection is made, then, we appear before the Court as we stated in our verbal judicial notice to the court. If there are any assumptions or presumptions made by any of our opposition regarding any alleged contracts or requirements with the fictitious entity, those assumptions, contracts, etc., were just removed by our statements, with no objections made. If the case against us is based upon those contracts and assumptions, the entire basis for the case has been removed by our own direct and simple statements and the inability of the opposition to object.

3. If we know, for certain, that the charges alleged against us are bogus, false and not based upon lawful position of substance, then, we attempt to resolve the issue with the motions discussed in this paragraph. Whether the matter before the court is civil or criminal, the opposing party, by and through its attorney, is required to verify that all information he presents to the court is true and correct to the best of his knowledge and ability, and/or that the charges filed are supported by oath or affirmation that they are valid. With these positions in mind, knowing that the charges and complaints alleged against us are fraudulent and bogus, and further knowing that the opposing attorneys have not verified the charges or affirmed them by oath, we make the following verbal motion to the judge: "Sir, I move to dismiss all charges and this case, with prejudice, since the charges and claims alleged against me are fraudulent and bogus, without lawful merit."

If the opposing attorney has read our entire case file, which consists of the presumptive letter(s), affidavit(s), the affidavit(s) filed on the public record, and the motions and challenges filed with the court, then, he should realize that Constitutionally, lawfully and legally we have fully established and proven our positions, while his positions are, at best, entirely weak and without lawful merit. Further, if he truly understands that, from a lawful and legal position, he has not met his requirements to verify the charges, and/or to present only truthful information to the court, then, he may realize that he has not established his lawful positions, and in fact, has no valid, lawful case against us. In such a situation, he would likely remain silent and let the judge rule on our verbal motion to dismiss.

However, if the opposing attorney cannot comprehend the legal jeopardy regarding his positions, and if he displays the usual arrogance and stupidity that most of these attorneys demonstrate, he will object. If this were to occur, then, we say the following to the judge: "Sir, based upon opposing counsel's objection, I move the court to require him to verify the charges and claims alleged against me, as valid, in compliance with all lawful and Constitutional requirements, specific to the Bill of Rights, by means of his own sworn, notarized affidavit so attesting, under the pains and penalties of perjury under the laws of the United States of America and of this state."

The presiding judge has already affirmed, on the record, that he and the opposing counsel have taken oaths and must abide by those oaths in the performance of their official duties. Any competent, aware judge fully realizes that the opposing attorney has not met his lawful requirements to verify the charges and claims alleged against us or to authenticate his representations to the court. By this time, the opposing counsel should also be aware of this. In order to abide by due process of law and within the Constitutional mandates imposed upon the judge by his oath, he and the court lack lawful authority to hear, entertain, adjudicate and rule on false, bogus, unsupported charges. The opposing counsel should now realize that he has no valid, lawful authority to file such charges with the court and expect the court to rule upon them. Both the judge and the opposing counsel are lawfully and Constitutionally defective, if they proceed in this matter, and both of them, by now, should know it.

The judge will not require the opposing attorney to execute the affidavit, and the attorney would be entirely reluctant, if the judge were to so require. Both of them are caught in a no-win situation. In such circumstances, there is usually a conference called amongst the parties and the judge, and the case is quickly dismissed.

4. This court abides by all the powers of and Rights guaranteed to American Citizens in the federal and state Constitutions, including due process of law. Is that correct?

Note: A "no" answer carries the same conditions as above. A "yes" answer is in compliance with Constitutional requirements for American Citizens and is consistent with the "yes" answer to #1 above. Again, if we are fully aware of our Rights and the conditions underlying the affirmative answer, we will prevail. Remember: We bind the judge by his answer.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

5. I am entitled to and guaranteed a fair and impartial trial presided over by a fair, unbiased and impartial judge, in a court of record, before and decided by a well-informed jury of my peers. Is that correct?

Note: A "no" answer is consistent with conditions stated above. A "yes" answer confirms the conditions of the statement, including: (1) Right to a fair and impartial trial; (2) unbiased and impartial judge; (3) a jury of my peers; (4) which jury decides guilt or innocence.

6. I am presumed innocent of all aspects of the alleged charges, presumptions and assumptions in, by and of this court, unless proven guilty by a well-informed jury of my peers, beyond a reasonable doubt, based solely on verified evidence and proof. Is that correct?

Note: Either answer is consistent with conditions as stated above. However, in this statement, with a "yes" answer, you are confirming several vital positions: (1) presumed innocent of all ASPECTS of the alleged charges; (2) presumed innocent of ALL PRESUMPTIONS and ASSUMPTIONS of this court; (3) unless PROVEN guilty by a JURY OF MY PEERS; (4) proven guilty BEYOND A REASONABLE DOUBT (5) based SOLELY ON VERIFIED EVIDENCE AND PROOF.

7. A. "Proof" consists of verified and demonstrated evidence, and not opinion, especially opinion unsupported by fact, law and evidence. Is that correct?

Note: In this statement, by the judge's answer, we are confirming the nature and status of "proof". It is highly unlikely that any judge will, on the public record, answer "no" to this statement, since his answer would defy the very loudly proclaimed concept of American justice, would defy due process of law, deny Constitutional Rights and allow 'opinion", unsupported or otherwise, to be used as "proof".

When the judge answers "yes", that will be consistent with the judge's oath, Constitutional requirements and his other "yes" answers. He will confirm the statement, and the fact that opinion, verified or otherwise, is not proof. This is a major position, a major lawful gain and benefit. Many "testimonies" by witnesses are simply opinions, usually unsupported and unverified. The defendant can now be assured that only verified and documented proof, and not opinion, from anyone, can be used against him.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

B. "Beyond a reasonable doubt" consists solely of decisions and verdicts from a well-informed jury of my peers based entirely on proof that absolutely and conclusively confirms guilt, without any reservations or questions, whatsoever, from the jury. Is that correct?

Note: A "no" answer is consistent with conditions above stated. A "yes" answer confirms ALL the conditions of the statement, due process of law, Constitutional requirements, the judge's oath, and assures that a jury of our peers will make its verdict based solely on PROOF, not opinion, which absolutely confirms guilt, without any questions, whatsoever.

8. Opinion from any witness or prosecuting attorney unsupported and unverified by fact, law and proven evidence, is simply opinion, and opinion, as previously established, is not proof. Is that correct?

Note: A "no" answer is consistent with conditions stated above. A "yes" answer again confirms the status of "proof", as different from opinion. Thus, any plaintiff, (or opponent), prosecutor, or witness MUST have verified proof, as described, and not opinion to support his statements. This is of vital importance to American Citizens. Therefore, "proof" by the prosecutor and testimony of witnesses is only opinion, unless it is supported as above stated, and if not, it is meaningless, frivolous, without lawful and legal weight; thus, is null and void and not accepted by the court as proof of anything, including guilt.

9. A. Since I am guaranteed a fair and impartial trial, how is that possible when you, the presiding judge, the prosecuting attorney and all the witnesses against me work for and are paid by the state which is the plaintiff in this case, and my opponent? In this situation, it is impossible for me to have a fair trial. Is that correct?

B. Further, any data used against me is obtained from sources who, are also paid by the state, the same plaintiff against me. At minimum, conflict of interest takes place.

Note: A "no" answer is consistent with above conditions. If the judge were to answer "no", he is essentially saying, on the public record, that it is possible for a defendant to have a fair trial, even though he, the judge, the prosecutor and the state witnesses all work for and are paid by our opponent, and that all the so-called "evidence" against the defendant was obtained from sources paid by the state, again, the very same opponent. Even the most avowed critic can see through this fraud and blatant conflict of interest.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

A "yes" answer confirms the conditions of the statement, and conclusively demonstrates that a presiding judge recognizes, on the public record, that the referenced court conditions are not fair, not partial, and, as such, unconstitutional. This is a major Constitutional and lawful victory for the people, with far reaching implications.

10. Since I am presumed innocent of the charges and all aspects, presumptions and assumptions of those charges and of this court, I have challenged the jurisdiction of this court, which jurisdiction my opponent has failed to prove, on the record. Therefore, since I am presumed innocent of all aspects of the charges and presumptions of the court, and since jurisdiction has not been proven, jurisdiction is simply a presumption of this court, of which I am presumed innocent and to which I am not subject. Therefore, I move for dismissal of all charges for lack of jurisdiction. Pursuant to the foregoing, and to numerous federal and Supreme Court rulings, this case must be dismissed, with prejudice, and I hereby move for dismissal of all charges and this case, with prejudice.

Note: By prior "yes" answers, it has been established that the defendant is presumed innocent of all assumptions and presumptions of the court. Jurisdiction is both an assumption and presumption of the court, of which the defendant is presumed innocent and to which he is not subject. The defendant challenged the jurisdiction of the court, which the plaintiff failed to prove, on the record. Therefore, since the defendant is presumed innocent of jurisdiction, has challenged jurisdiction, which the plaintiff has failed to prove, on the record, the court lacks jurisdiction. Since jurisdiction does not exist, the court cannot lawfully proceed, thus, charges must be dismissed, with prejudice.

If the judge were to deny this lawful position and insist that "his" court has jurisdiction, without plaintiff having factually and lawfully proven it, on the record, the following could be stated:

"Since the judge has stated that this court conforms to all Constitutional requirements, then, this court conforms to the Bill of Rights, Article III of the federal Constitution and to due process of law. Jurisdiction is directly related to the foregoing, is an aspect of the charges, and a presumption of this court, of which the defendant is presumed innocent and not subject; yet the court has not held plaintiff to its requirement to prove jurisdiction, on the record. Thus, this court defies Constitutional requirements, due process of law, federal and Supreme Court rulings, therefore, forfeits any "perceived jurisdiction", has no Constitutional authority to hear this case, and this case must be dismissed, with prejudice, or the presiding judge, pursuant to his oath, perjures that oath, commits insurrection and sedition against the Constitution, on the public record, and treason against the American People.

11. A. Juries are required to take oaths to the Constitutions. Is that correct? In its deliberations and in its verdict, the jury is required to abide by its oath. Is that correct?

Note: Since the jury swears an oath and is required to abide by that oath, it is obvious that a "yes" answer is required. The Constitutional and lawful position here is that the jury must abide by its oath in making its verdict. If it fails to do so, then the jury perjures its oath, its actions and its verdict are unconstitutional, and the jury verdict null and void, without lawful force or effect, whatsoever. Just as a public servant is required to abide by his oath in the performance of his official duties, so is the jury. However, the People must know and demand their Rights, or they have none.

If the judge were to answer "no", which is highly unlikely, then, as a defendant, we would move for immediate dismissal of all charges, with prejudice, because any judge or court that permits an unconstitutional jury to perjure its oath and reach an unconstitutional verdict, pursuant to its oath, operates as an open fraud upon the People, denies and defies the Constitution and the powers of and Rights guaranteed therein to the American people, denies due process of law and has no lawful jurisdiction over any American Citizen, whatsoever.

B. If the jury, pursuant to its oath, makes its verdict in perjury of its oath or in opposition or contradiction to the Constitutions and the Rights guaranteed therein to American Citizens, or based in false information and fraud, that verdict is plainly unconstitutional, thus, null and void, frivolous, and without force or effect, whatsoever. Is that correct?

Note: Answer given in previous note. Further, pursuant to oaths taken, any jury verdict based, either in whole or in part, in fraud, deception, manipulation, lies or false information is null and void.

If the judge were to say that this is not correct, then we, as defendants, would inform him, pursuant to his oath and pursuant to his preceding "yes" answers, why his response is not only incorrect, but unconstitutional and unlawful. Further, we would inform him that he has no Constitutional authority to deny, on the record, the very Constitution to which he is bound by oath and bond, and to which the jury swore an oath. Further, he has no Constitutional authority to exceed his limited, Constitutionally delegated authority, or to step outside that authority. It is obvious that the judge is not a higher authority than the Constitutions, therefore, he cannot overrule them.

If the judge were to insist that the jury verdict, even when based in fraud, etc., as above described, is valid, we would remind him of his first "yes" answer to statement #1, in which he is required to conduct his professional duties pursuant to his oath, as is the jury also required. We would then remind the judge of his other "yes" answers, in which he confirmed, including, but not limited to, the Constitutional duties of the court. His response is made in contradiction to his oath, as is the jury's verdict, thus, both are unlawful, unconstitutional, without force or effect, whatsoever, and not binding in a Constitutionally compliant court, which the judge stated, on the record, is the status of this court.

At this point, we would move for immediate dismissal of all charges and this case, with prejudice, for, including, but not limited to, lack of jurisdiction, lack of Constitutional authority, defiance of the federal and state Constitutions, denial of due process, perjury of oath, insurrection and sedition against the Constitution, and treason against the American People, in the instant case, the defendant.

If the "judge" were to remain firm, then, as defendants, we would inform him that we are entitled to a fair and impartial trial, by a jury of our peers, as he has previously agreed, and as is Constitutionally guaranteed, yet this jury is not a jury of our peers for many reasons, including, but not limited to: (1) jury members are not part of my ethnicity; (2) they do not work in the same profession I do; (3) they do not come from the same background and education that I do; (4) they are not Constitutionalists and supporters of the Supreme Law of the Land, as I am; (4) they are traitors to the Constitution and to the American People, which I am not.

We would then, again, move for dismissal of all charges and the case, with prejudice, based upon previously stated grounds, and further include the fact that the judge would permit an unconstitutional verdict by a lawless, unconstitutional jury not of our peers. The Constitutions guarantee us a jury of our peers, yet this judge denies this Constitutionally guaranteed Right to us. Pursuant to his oath, he has no Constitutional authority to overrule the very same Constitution to which he swore an oath, and, further, is not a higher authority than the Constitution. If the judge were to remain firm, we would again inform him that, by his own actions and responses, he committed insurrection, sedition and treason against the American People, is a traitor to this Nation and its People, and must be removed from the bench for his treason. We will immediately file criminal and civil charges against him, personally, and in his professional capacity, and take action against him in an Article III federal court, which we will demand, by Motion.

Questions To Ask The Jury

1. Are you aware that the Constitution of the united States of America, to which you swore an oath when you were initiated into jury duty, is the Supreme Law of the Land – the Highest Authority in this Nation – and that as such, no other law, statute, rule or ordinance can supersede it, and no other authority, including the Supreme Courts, federal and state, any judge, prosecutor, district attorney, attorney general or other public officer, can be a higher authority than the Constitution?

2. Are you aware that the Constitution is the foundation of all forms of American government, including the courts, and that it LIMITS the power of government to take away any of the People's inherent Sovereign Rights?

3. The Constitution, specifically the Bill of Rights, guarantees to all Americans their inherent, unlimited, inalienable Rights, including, but not limited to, all due process Rights, such as those set out in the 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th Amendments to the Constitution.

(a) Are you, as jurors, fully aware of what these Amendments mean and how they apply in this proceeding?

(b) If not, will you request the court provide you with copies of the Constitution so you can fully understand due process of law?

(c) If you do so, will you make your verdict in this trial in strict compliance with Constitutional due process of law and uphold all Constitutionally guaranteed Rights of the Defendant?

4. Pursuant to your oath, is there anyone on this jury who will not abide by his/her oath in the performance of his official duties, including, but not limited to, jury deliberations and reaching jury verdict?

5. Are there any jury members who believe and will abide by the belief that the government is superior to the People and that government is Sovereign in this

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Nation, and that the People are required to obey the government in all situations, no matter how unlawful and unconstitutional that government or its actions may be?

6. Are there any members on this jury who are lawyers, government officers, or work for any form of any government, in any capacity, or are employed by corporations or companies that work for government?

7. Are there any informants, paid or otherwise, spies or provocateurs on this jury, for anyone or anything?

8. You have been asked these questions and are expected to, and will be held to, your answers, pursuant to your oaths. Does anyone wish to change his answer?

Note: Feel free to come up with your own questions and qualifiers for the jury.

CONSTITUTIONAL CASE LAW

Bennett v. Boggs, 1 Baldw 60, "Statutes that violate the plain and obvious principles of common right and common reason are null and void". Would we not say that these judicial decisions are straight to the point --that there is no lawful method for government to put restrictions or limitations on rights belonging to the people? Other cases are even more straight forward: "The assertion of federal rights, when plainly and reasonably made, is not to be defeated under the name of practice."

Davis v. Wechsler , 263 US 22, 24. "Where rights secured by the Constitution are involved, there can be no rule making or legislation which would abrogate them."

Miranda v. Arizona, 384 US 436, 491. "The claim and exercise of a constitutional right cannot be converted into a crime."

Miller v. US, 230 F 486, 489. "There can be no sanction or penalty imposed upon one because of this exercise of constitutional rights."

Sherer v. Cullen , 481 F 946. We could go on, quoting court decision after court decision, however, the Constitution itself answers our question ◆ Can a government legally put restrictions on the rights of the American people at anytime, for any reason? The answer is found in Article Six of the U.S. Constitution: Miranda v. Arizona, 384 U.S. 426, 491; 86 S. Ct. 1603 "Where rights secured by the Constitution are involved, there can be no 'rule making' or legislation which would abrogate them."

Norton v. Shelby County , 118 U.S. 425 p. 442
"An unconstitutional act is not law; it confers no rights; it imposes no duties; affords no protection; it creates no office; it is in legal contemplation, as inoperative as though it had never been passed."

Sherar v. Cullen , 481 F. 2d 946 (1973)
"There can be no sanction or penalty imposed upon one because of his exercise of constitutional rights."

Simmons v. United States , 390 U.S. 377 (1968)
"The claim and exercise of a Constitution right cannot be converted into a crime"... "a denial of them would be a denial of due process of law".

Cooper v. Aaron, 358 U.S. 1, 78 S. Ct. 1401 (1958)
Note: Any judge who does not comply with his oath to the Constitution of the United States wars against that Constitution and engages in acts in violation of the supreme law of the land. The judge is engaged in acts of treason. The U.S. Supreme Court has stated that "no state legislator or executive or judicial officer can war against the Constitution without violating his undertaking to support it". See also In Re Sawyer, 124 U.S. 200 (188); U.S. v. Will, 449 U.S. 200, 216, 101 S. Ct. 471, 66 L. Ed. 2d 392, 406 (1980); Cohens v. Virginia, 19 U.S. (6 Wheat) 264, 404, 5 L. Ed 257 (1821).

Hoffsomer v. Hayes, 92 Okla 32, 227 F. 417 "The courts are not bound by an officer's interpretation of the law under which he presumes to act."

Marbury v. Madison, 5 U.S. (2 Cranch) 137, 180 (1803)
"... the particular phrascology of the constitution of the United States confirms and strengthens the principle, supposed to be essential to all written constitutions, that a law repugnant to the constitution is void, and that courts,as well as other departments, are bound by that instrument." "In declaring what shall be the supreme law of the land, the Constitution itself is first mentioned; and not the laws of the United States generally, but those only which shall be made in pursuance of the Constitution, have that rank". "All law (rules and practices) which are repugnant to the Constitution are VOID". Since the 14th Amendment to the Constitution states "NO State (Jurisdiction) shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the rights, privileges, or immunities of citizens of the United States nor deprive any citizens of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law, ... or equal protection under the law", this renders judicial immunity unconstitutional.

Scheuer v. Rhodes, 416 U.S. 232, 94 S. Ct. 1683, 1687 (1974)
Note: By law, a judge is a state officer. The judge then acts not as a judge, but as a private individual (in his person). When a judge acts as a trespasser of the law, when a judge does not follow the law, the Judge loses subject-matter jurisdiction and the judges' orders are not voidable, but VOID, and of no legal force or effect. The U.S. Supreme Court stated that "when a state officer acts under a state law in a manner violative of the Federal Constitution, he comes into conflict with the superior authority of that Constitution, and he is in that case stripped of his official or representative character and is subjected in his person to the consequences of his individual conduct. The State has no power to impart to him any immunity from responsibility to the supreme authority of the United States."

Miller v. U.S., 230 F. 2d. 486, 490; 42
"There can be no sanction or penalty imposed upon one, because of his exercise of constitutional rights."

Murdock v. Pennsylvania, 319 U.S. 105
"No state shall convert a liberty into a license, and charge a fee therefore."

Shuttlesworth v. City of Birmingham, Alabama, 373 U.S. 262
"If the State converts a right (liberty) into a privilege, the citizen can ignore the license and fee and engage in the right (liberty) with impunity."

Picking v. Pennsylvania Railway, 151 F.2d. 240, Third Circuit Court of Appeals
The plaintiff's civil rights pleading was 150 pages and described by a federal judge as "inept". Nevertheless, it was held "Where a plaintiff pleads pro se in a suit for protection of civil rights, the Court should endeavor to construe Plaintiff's Pleadings without regard to technicalities."

Puckett v. Cox, 456 F. 2d 233 (1972) (6th Cir. USCA)

HALE v. HENKEL 201 U.S. 43 at 89 (1906) Hale v. Henkel was decided by the united States Supreme Court in 1906. The opinion of the court states: "The "individual" may stand upon "his Constitutional Rights" as a CITIZEN. He is entitled to carry on his "private" business in his own way. "His power to contract is unlimited." He owes no duty to the State or to his neighbors to divulge his business, or to open his doors to an investigation, so far as it may tend to incriminate him. He owes no duty to the State, since he receives nothing there from, beyond the protection of his life and property. "His rights" are such as "existed" by the Law of the Land (Common Law) "long antecedent" to the organization of the State", and can only be taken from him by "due process of law", and "in accordance with the Constitution." "He owes nothing" to the public so long as he does not trespass upon their rights."

HALE V. HENKEL 201 U.S. 43 at 89 (1906) Hale v. Henkel is binding on all the courts of the United States of America until another Supreme Court case says it isn't. No other Supreme Court case has ever overturned Hale v. Henkel None of the various issues of Hale v. Henkel has ever been overruled since 1906, Hale v. Henkel has been cited by the Federal and State Appellate Court systems over 1,600 times! In nearly every instance when a case is cited, it has an impact on precedent authority of the cited case. Compared with other previously decided Supreme Court cases, no other case has surpassed Hale v. Henkel in the number of times it has been cited by the courts. Sec. 1715.

(1) Except as otherwise provided by law, punishment for contempt may be a fine of not more than $7,500.00, or imprisonment which, except in those cases where the commitment is for the omission to perform any act or duty which is still within the power of the person to perform shall not exceed 93 days, or both, in the discretion of the court. Rick, this part 2 says if you are no longer a threat, they can't continue to hold you. In fact, unless you know otherwise, I have not seen that you ever actually represented Marlena in a court of record? Yes, you filled out the form, but you never really acted upon that form. Now, that does not mean they had a right to violate your constitutional rights to offer assistance of council, but even under their statutes, you had not actually represented Marlena in court at any time to that point. You should be able to abate the judge's order because you were never an actual threat under their statutes. Then we can hang them on all the other constitutional issues with our affidavits and other lawful options.

(2) If the contempt consists of the omission to perform some act or duty that is still within the power of the person to perform, the imprisonment shall be terminated when the person performs the act or duty or no longer has the power to perform the act or duty, which shall be specified in the order of commitment, and pays the fine, costs, and expenses of the proceedings, which shall be specified in the order of commitment. Don't forget to reserve your rights to sue the hell out of them.

Maybe we should file this in Federal Court??

30TH CIRCUIT COURT

Richard-Travis: Martin, sui juris, as the living man Plaintiff vs. Judge Rosemarie Elizabeth Aquilina Respondent	Case No.: _____ PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

AN EXTRAORDINARY REMEDY

> Praecipimus tibi quod corpus Richard-Travis: Martin, Sui Juris, in prisona nostra sub custodia tua detentum, ut dicitur, una cum die et causa captionis et detentionis suae, quocumque nomine praedictus Richard Travis Martin. censeatur in eadem, habeas *coram nobis ... ad subjiciendum et recipiendum ea quae curia nostra de eo adtunc et ibidem ordinare contigerit in hac parte. >
> We command you, that the body of Richard-Travis: Martin, the living man, having come of full age, in the prison under your unlawful order being detained, as it is said, together with the day and cause of his unlawful kidnapping and detention, by whatever name the said Richard Travis Martin, the living man, may be known therein, you have at the Court ... to undergo and to receive that which the Court shall then and there consider and order in that behalf. Hereof in no way fail, at your peril and have you then there this writ.

Judge Rosemarie Elizabeth Aquilina, before the court at the location of 313 West Kalamazoo, Lansing, MI 48933 and that location being called the 30th Circuit Court , Ingham County, Michigan; by profer of this Petition for the Writ of Habeas Corpus, the wish is that it be so ordered; that the Custodian exercising responsibility for the Deprivation of Liberty suffered by Richard-Travis: Martin, the living man, be called to Court to answer for the continued custodial detainment thereof, as a Judicial Review to determine whether or not the detainment is lawful.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Richard-Travis: Martin, the living man (hereafter, also referred to as I, Plaintiff, my, me); may not be subjected to any legal proceeding, such as unlawful; kidnapping, arrest and imprisonment, without sufficient evidence having already been collected to show that there is a prima facie case to answer. This evidence must be collected beforehand, because it must be available to be exhibited in a public hearing within hours, or at the most days, after arrest, not months or longer as may happen in other unlawful jurisdictions that employ Napoleonic-inquisitorial criminal laws, where evidence is commonly sought after a suspect's incarceration. Any charge leveled at the hearing, thus, must be based on evidence already collected, and a kidnapping, arrest and incarceration order is unlawful if not supported by sufficient evidence; that evidence not being repugnant to the Supreme Law of the Land, and / or in violation thereof.

STATEMENT OF FACTS:

1. Identification and notification are the first essential elements of due process of law. Let it be known by these presentations that I; Richard-Travis: Martin, the living man, am a competent natural born man upon the land. At this time, I demand in writing notification of Judge Rosemarie Elizabeth Aquilina's oath of office.
2. Your oath of office being your binding duty to uphold the Constitution of the United States of America and my God given unalienable rights, utilizing UCC-1-308 without prejudice: without prejudice meaning you are not to hold prejudice against me for knowing and invoking my God-given, unalienable rights per: Mattox v. United States, 156 U.S. 237 (1895) The Constitution should be interpreted in the light of the law as it existed at the time it was adopted.

3. You have interfered with my right to assist a handicap person who is not fluent and has difficulty with the English language. This is in violation of well established federal law.

4. Furthermore, Hale v. Henkel, 201 U.S. 43 (1906) states that I can stand upon my God-given, unalienable rights as a living man, my right to contract is unlimited, and that I owe no duty to the state.

5. U.S. V. MINKER, 350 U.S. 179 at 187 (1956) "The Supreme Court of the United States 1795 "insomuch as every government is an "artificial person", an abstraction and a creature of the mind only, a government can interface only with other artificial persons, the imaginary have neither actuality nor substance, is foreclosed from creating and attaining parity with the "tangible." The legal manifestation of this is that no government, as well as any law, agency, aspect, court, etc. can concern itself with anything other than corporate, "artificial" persons and the "contracts" between them."

6. Marbury v. Madison (1803) states that any law or rule making that is repugnant to the Constitution is null and void.

7. At this time, I demand that you provide corpus delicti in writing, that you have both; the legal and lawful authority to continue this path of injustice.
8. I demand that you abide by your Constitutional oath and uphold your oath of office, as the trustee, to protect my God-given, unalienable rights.
9. I; as the executor of the Cestui Que Vie Trust, demand proof of claim at this time. If my God-given rights are trespassed upon in any way, I will be holding you; Judge, Rosemarie Elizabeth Aquilina, in your official and private capacity, liable, in federal court, in a 1983 action.
10. It is also at this time that I demand that you produce proof of your bond, as well as the prosecution's.
11. This notice is to inform you that trespasses have already been committed against my God-given, unalienable rights by and through the court, of which you are the trustee; not the beneficiary, of the Cestui Que Vie Trust. Trespasses have already been committed by you; the court, by way of unlawfully denying me due process of law.
12. I have been trespassed upon, by way of unlawful imprisonment, kidnapping, threats, fear mongering, scare tactics, fraud and defamation of character, the infliction of emotional distress, and have deprived me , Richard-Travis: Martin, the living man, "not a corporation"; of my rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.
13. The Constitution for the united States of America has been violated.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

14. If this is to continue, and not be dismissed, or proof of claim be provided in writing; you will be held accountable in your official and private capacity.
15. You are hereby lawfully notified; that this contract between us is irrevocable.
16. You; having knowledge of the law, shall suspend and negate your 11th amendment immunity.
17. Further trespass and acts under color of law, as well as deprivation of my God-given, unalienable rights and religious freedoms, will be the cause of your demise; by way of USC Title 18 241 and USC Title 18 242, Color of Law, and Deprivation of Rights, respectively.
18. Due process of law is demanded at this time.
19. I demand removal of all my personal information from the court's database, and for the court to dismiss this case, with prejudice.
20. If these gross trespasses upon my God-given, unalienable rights are not halted immediately upon receipt of this writ, and proof of claim is not provided with your oath and bond, you will be looking at a 1983 action by a superior court of the STATE OF MICHIGAN. There will be a claim of $150,000.00 gold backed dollars and/or the equivalent of .999 silver bullion for every right violated; per person involved, multiplied by number of days of unlawful imprisonment.
21. Failure to dismiss will be verified as your fraud, pursuant to United States v. Tweel 550 F2d 297, 299-300 5th Circuit 1977.

CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

Count One:

Constitutional Claim.

Petitioner alleges and incorporates by pages 2, 3 & 4. Lines 3, 4 & 19, respectively, to the facts being addressed. Petitioners' detention violates his right to substantive and procedural due process guaranteed by the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution for the united States of America.

Count Two:

Statutory Claim

28 U.S. Code § 2241 - Power to grant writ

(a) Writs of habeas corpus may be granted by the Supreme Court, any justice thereof, the district courts and any circuit judge within their respective jurisdictions. The order of a circuit judge shall be entered in the records of the district court of the district wherein the restraint complained of is had.

Count Three

If he prevails, Petitioner may request attorney's fees and costs under the Example: *Equal Access to Justice Act as amended, "28 U.S.C. § 2412".

The courts have historically viewed a release from custody as the presumption, and not the exception, as it pertains to one's liberty; Pre-Trial, with limited exceptions.

Without drawing parallels to Writs of Certiorari, or Motions to Amend Bail; the Petitioner believes the presiding judge will conclude by finding the facts in support of; why issuing a Writ of Habeas Corpus is the equitable decision, and the only Constitutionally-sound choice that can be made between issuance and non-issuance of an Order to execute the prerogative writ.

The agent(s) and / or agency(ies) that have exercised colorable authority over Richard-Travis: Martin, the living man, should be brought before the Court to answer to the Constitutional aspects of that decision to retain custody. Sheriff Scott Wrigglesworth is the individual upon whom the custodial authority and responsibility lies, within the agency of Ingham County Jail, 630 North Cedar Street, Mason MI 48854.

Prayer For Relief

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

MI-BARRY-22-0903-C-000482

WHEREFORE, Petitioner prays that this Court grant the following relief:

1. Assume jurisdiction over this matter;

2. Issue an order directing Respondents to show cause why the writ should not be granted;

3. Issue a writ of habeas corpus ordering Respondents to release Richard Travis Martin, the living man, on his own recognizance or under parole, a low bond or reasonable conditions of supervision show;

4. Award Petitioner reasonable costs and attorney's fees; and,

5. Grant any other relief which this Court deems just and proper.

The Petitioner testifies under penalty of perjury of the laws of united States of America, that the foregoing information is true, correct and complete to the best of my knowledge.

INFORMATION ON "HABEAS CORPUS" PETITIONS FROM 1996 SUPREME COURT CASE RULING: ELLIS WAYNE FELKER, PETITIONER v. TONY TURPIN, WARDEN on writ of certiorari to the united states court of appeals for the eleventh circuit and on petition for a writ of habeas corpus

[June 28, 1996]

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Chief Justice Rehnquist delivered the opinion of the Court.

On April 24, 1996, the President signed the Act into law. Title I of this Act contained a series of amendments to existing federal habeas corpus law. The provisions of the Act pertinent to this case concern second or successive habeas corpus applications by state prisoners. Subsections 106(b)(1) and (b)(2) specify the conditions under which claims in second or successive applications must be dismissed, amending 28 U.S.C. § 2244 (b) to read:

"(A) the applicant shows that the claim relies on a new rule of constitutional law, made retroactive to cases on collateral review by the Supreme Court, that was previously unavailable; or

"(B)(i) the factual predicate for the claim could not have been discovered previously through the exercise of due diligence; and

"(ii) the facts underlying the claim, if proven and viewed in light of the evidence as a whole, would be sufficient to establish by clear and convincing evidence that, but for constitutional error, no reasonable factfinder would have found the applicant guilty of the underlying offense." 110 Stat. 1220-1221.

Subsection 106(b)(3) creates a "gatekeeping" mechanism for the consideration of second or successive applications in district court. The prospective applicant must file in the court of appeals a motion for leave to file a second or successive habeas application in the district court. §106(b)(3)(A). A three judge panel has 30 days to determine whether "the application makes a prima facie showing that the application satisfies the requirements of" §106(b). §106(b)(3)(C); see §§106(b)(3)(B), (D). Section 106(b)(3)(E) specifies that "[t]he grant or denial of an authorization by a court of appeals to file a second or successive application shall not be appealable and shall not be the subject of a petition for rehearing or for a writ of certiorari."

28 U.S. Code § 2241 - Power to grant writ

(a) Writs of habeas corpus may be granted by the Supreme Court, any justice thereof, the district courts and any circuit judge within their respective jurisdictions. The order of a circuit judge shall be entered in the records of the district court of the district wherein the restraint complained of is had.

(b) The Supreme Court, any justice thereof, and any circuit judge may decline to entertain an application for a writ of habeas corpus and may transfer the application for hearing and determination to the district court having jurisdiction to entertain it.

(c) The writ of habeas corpus shall not extend to a prisoner unless—

(1) He is in custody under or by color of the authority of the United States or is committed for trial before some court thereof; or

(2) He is in custody for an act done or omitted in pursuance of an Act of Congress, or an order, process, judgment or decree of a court or judge of the United States; or

(3) He is in custody in violation of the Constitution or laws or treaties of the United States; or

(4) He, being a citizen of a foreign state and domiciled therein is in custody for an act done or omitted under any alleged right, title, authority, privilege, protection, or exemption claimed under the commission, order or sanction of any foreign state, or under color thereof, the validity and effect of which depend upon the law of nations; or

(5) It is necessary to bring him into court to testify or for trial.

(d) Where an application for a writ of habeas corpus is made by a person in custody under the judgment and sentence of a State court of a State which contains two or more Federal judicial districts, the application may be filed in the district court for the district wherein such person is in custody or in the district court for the district within which the State court was held which convicted and sentenced him and each of such district courts shall have concurrent jurisdiction to entertain the application. The district court for the district wherein such an application is filed in the exercise of its discretion and in furtherance of justice may transfer the application to the other district court for hearing and determination.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Dear _____ (President, US Attorney, Governor, Public Health Officer, Sheriff, Mayor, etc.)

Your declaration of a State of Emergency for the COVID-19 diagnosis criteria for a series of pneumonia and influenza related symptoms and the allegations of the existence of a "novel coronavirus" is based on a series of assumptions that are patently false.

1. According to the International Committee on Taxonomy of Viruses' (ICTV) Coronaviridae Study Group (CSG) publication on March 2, 2020, the preliminary data suggesting that there was sufficient variation to determine this to be a novel virus vs. a mutation of known coronaviruses, was not based on established scientific principles but was responsive to the World Health Organization's prior unfounded declaration of novelty of both the virus and a new disease;
2. There could be no independent verification of the epidemiologic models predicting dire infection and mortality rates as the underlying models and data were not published, and when sought, were reportedly corrupted so as to make their examination impossible;
3. In violation of State law, no medical or scientific evidence was provided to establish even causal links between the SARS CoV-2 and the symptoms of COVID-19, relying instead on foreign government hearsay and conjecture;
4. Since 2003, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services and their subordinate organizations – the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases (NIAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) – maintained a patent preventing any independent organization from testing for the presence of coronavirus transmissible to humans through 2018 resulting in a complete lack of testing technologies;
5. No State official reviewed for accuracy or veracity any of the causal statements made in the Declaration of Emergency which contain false, misleading, and terror inducing statements;
6. In violation of well-established legal precedent from Jew Ho v. Williamson, 103 F. 10, 26 (C.C.N.D. Cal. 1900) and subsequent public health law, arbitrary and capricious rules were inflicted upon a part of the population that were not applied generally, resulting in the unlawful confinement of a healthy population with no basis in science or fact;
7. The Governor failed to provide adequate testing to confirm or deny the presence or absence of "a novel coronavirus" and, based on recent reports from testing of incarcerated persons reported by Reuters, 96% of prisoners testing positive for coronavirus are asymptomatic, demonstrating a failure to establish even a statistical link between the virus and the disease;
8. Neither the Governor nor any public health officer has followed evidence-based, peer-reviewed, clinical science showing that neither social distancing (of up to 6 feet of separation), nor the wearing of masks has any clinical effect in a healthy population and that instituting such policies is exclusively for the inducement of fear and terror in the population;

As result of these and other established facts, your orders and those that follow from these orders issued in violation of the State Constitution, are illegal and unenforceable. I hereby demand that you immediately cease and desist in your suspension of my Constitutional rights and those of the common citizenry.

Sincerely,

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

For your reference, please review the following facts:

Assertion:

On April 25, 2003, the United States Department of Health and Human Services Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (hereinafter, "CDC") filed an application for a United States (Application Number Coronavirus isolated from humans". Claim 3 – US46592703P, subsequently issued as U.S. Patent 7,776,521) entitled "A method of detecting a severe acute respiratory syndrome-associated coronavirus (SARS-CoV) in a sample...; and, Claim 4 - A kit for detecting a severe acute respiratory syndrome-associated coronavirus (SARS-CoV) in a sample..., provided the CDC with a statutory market exclusion right for the detection of and sampling for severe acute respiratory syndrome-associated coronavirus (SARS-CoV). Securing this right afforded the CDC exclusive right to research, commercially exploit, or block others from conducting activities involving SARS-CoV since 2003. On September 24, 2018, the CDC failed to pay the required maintenance fees on this patent and their rights expired with no notification issued by CDC alerting the private sector to this decision.

From April 2003 until September 2018, the CDC owned SARS-CoV, its ability to be detected and the ability to manufacture kits for its assessment. During this 15-year period, the effect of the grant of this right — ruled unconstitutional in 2013 by the United States Supreme Court in the case of Association for Molecular Pathology et al. v. Myriad Genetics – meant that the commercial exploitation of any research or commercial activity in the United States involving SARS-CoV would constitute an infringement of the CDC's illegal patent.

It appears that, during the period of patent enforcement and after the Supreme Court ruling confirming that patents on genetic material were illegal, the CDC and National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases led by Anthony Fauci (hereinafter "NIAID" and "Dr Fauci", respectively) entered into trade among States (including, but not limited to working with Ecohealth Alliance Inc.) and with foreign ~~nations~~ national entities (specifically, the Wuhan Institute of Virology and the Chinese Academy of Sciences) through the 2014 et seq National Institutes of Health Grant R01AI110964, to exploit their patent rights.

It further appears that, during the period of patent enforcement and after the Supreme Court ruling confirming that patents on genetic material was illegal, the CDC and National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases (hereinafter "NIAID") entered into trade among States (including, but not limited to working with University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill) and with foreign nations (specifically, the Wuhan Institute of Virology and the Chinese Academy of Sciences represented by Zheng-Li Shi) through U19AI109761 (Ralph S. Baric), U19AI107810 (Ralph S. Baric), and National Natural Science Foundation of China Award 81290341 (Zheng-Li Shi) et al. 2015-2016.

It further appears that, during the period of patent enforcement and after the Supreme Court ruling confirming that patents on generic material was illegal, the CDC and NIAID entered into trade among States (including, but not limited to working with University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill) and with foreign nations to conduct chimeric construction of novel coronavirus material with specific virulence properties prior to, during, and following the determination made by the National Institutes for Health in October 17, 2014 that this work was not sufficiently understood for its biosecurity and safety standards.

In this inquiry, it is presumed that the CDC and its associates were: a) fully aware of the work being performed using their patented technology; b) entered into explicit or implicit agreements including licensing, or other consideration; and, c) willfully engaged one or more foreign interests to carry forward the exploitation of their proprietary technology when the U.S. Supreme Court confirmed that such patents were illegal and when the National Institutes of Health issued a moratorium on such research.

Reportedly, in January 2018, the U.S. Embassy in China sent investigators to Wuhan Institute of Virology and found that, "During interactions with scientists at the WIV laboratory, they noted the new lab has a serious shortage of appropriately trained technicians and investigators needed to safely operate this high-containment laboratory." The Washington Post reported that this information was contained in a cable dated 19 January 2018. Over a year later, in June 2019, the CDC conducted an inspection of Fort Detrick's U.S. Army Medical Research Institute of Infectious Diseases (hereinafter "USAMRIID") and ordered it closed after alleging that their inspection found biosafety hazards. A report in the journal Nature in 2003 (423(6936): 103) reported cooperation between CDC and USAMRIID on coronavirus research was followed by considerable subsequent collaboration. The CDC, for what appear to be the same type of concern identified in Wuhan, elected to continue work with the Chinese government while closing the U.S. Army facility.

The CDC reported the first case of SARS-CoV like illness in the United States in January 2020 with the CDC's Epidemic Intelligence Service reporting 650 clinical cases and 210 tests. Given that the suspected pathogen was first implicated in official reports on December 31, 2019, one can only conclude that CDC: a) had the mechanism and wherewithal to conduct tests to confirm the existence of a "novel coronavirus"; or, b) did not have said mechanism and falsely reported the information in January. It tests credulity to suggest that the WHO or the CDC could manufacture and distribute tests for a "novel" pathogen when their own subsequent record on development and deployment of tests has been shown to be without reliability.

Around March 12, 2020, in an effort to enrich their own economic interests by way of securing additional funding from both Federal and Foundation actors, the CDC and NIAID's Dr Fauci elected to suspend testing and classify COVID-19 by capricious symptom presentation alone. Not surprisingly, this was necessitated by the apparent fall in cases that constituted Dr. Fauci's and others' criteria for depriving citizens of their 1st Amendment rights. At present, the standard according to State and Territorial Epidemiologists Interim-20-ID-01 for COVID-19 classification is:

> In outpatient or tele-health settings at least two of the following symptoms must be indicated: fever (measured or subjective), chills, rigors, myalgia, headache, sore throat, new olfactory and taste disorder(s) > at least one of the following symptoms must be indicated: cough, shortness of breath, or difficulty breathing OR Severe respiratory illness with at least one of the following:
> OR

- Clinical or radiographic evidence of pneumonia, or

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

- Acute respiratory distress syndrome (ARDS).
  AND No alternative more likely diagnosis

  Laboratory Criteria for Reporting

- Detection of SARS-CoV-2 RNA in a clinical specimen using a molecular amplification detection test.
- Detection of specific antigen in a clinical specimen.
- Detection of specific antibody in serum, plasma, or whole blood indicative of a new or recent infection serologic methods for diagnosis are currently being defined

After inflicting grave harm to the people of the United States of America through economic hardships resulting from ~~their~~ allegations of an "epidemic" or "pandemic", the CDC and the NIAID set forth, and the President of the United States and various Governors in the respective States promulgated, standards for lifting restrictive conditions which are in violation of the 1st Amendment to the Constitution and serve exclusively to enrich themselves. Both the presence of a vaccine or treatment and, or, the development of testing — each of which solely benefit the possible conspiring parties and their co-conspirators — are set forth as a condition for re-opening the country. This appears to be an unambiguous violation of the Sherman Act and, if so, should be prosecuted immediately to the full extent of the law.

The CDC and WHO elected to commit to a narrative of a novel coronavirus – exhibiting properties that were anticipated in the U.S. Patent 7,618,802 issued to the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill's Ralph Baric – and, in the absence of testing protocols, elected to insist that SARS-CoV-2 was the pathogen responsible for conditions that were consistent with moderate to severe acute respiratory syndrome.

DOMESTIC TERRORISM - Still in Effect Until March 15, 2020

Section 802 of the USA PATRIOT Act (Pub. L. No. 107-52) expanded the definition of terrorism to cover ""domestic,"" as opposed to international, terrorism. A person engages in domestic terrorism if they do an act "dangerous to human life" that is a violation of the criminal laws of a state or the United States, if the act appears to be intended to: (i) intimidate or coerce a civilian population; (ii) influence the policy of a government by intimidation or coercion;

Lastly, current policing, fining, arrests and harassment throughout the country and CA/Orange County in this case, is in violation of not only First Amendment "abridging the right of people to peaceably assemble" but more narrowly:

Title 18 U.S.C., Section 242 Deprivation of Rights Under Color of Law:

Whoever, under color of any law, statute, ordinance, regulation, or custom, willfully subjects any person in any State, Territory, Commonwealth, Possession, or District to the deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured or protected by the Constitution or laws of the United States, or to different punishments, pains, or penalties, on account of such person being an alien, or by reason of his color, or race, than are prescribed for the punishment of citizens, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than one year, or both; and if bodily injury results from the acts committed in violation of this section or if such acts include the use, attempted use, or threatened use of a dangerous weapon, explosives, or fire, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both; and if death results from the acts committed in violation of this section or if such acts include kidnapping or an attempt to kidnap, aggravated sexual abuse, or an attempt to commit aggravated sexual abuse, or an attempt to kill, shall be fined under this title, or imprisoned for any term of years or for life, or both, or may be sentenced to death.

PREFACE

The purpose of this pocket handbook is to "fully inform" the American County Sheriffs, Deputies and Bailiffs as to their authority, duty and the Law. This handbook is an endeavor to concisely and completely cover the aforesaid in a topical style to make it easy for reference.

We also created a website www.PoweroftheCountySheriff.org to further expound on the topics within this handbook; provide a further education, offer two (2) free online courses[1], provide many pertinent documents, provide pertinent information, provide for a national platform for communications among Sheriffs and offer authoritative advice; in short a Proper Education.

Constitution for the United States of America Article VI: The Senators and Representatives before mentioned, and the members of the several state legislatures, and all executive and judicial officers, both of the United States and of the several states, shall be bound by oath or affirmation, to support this Constitution. Sheriffs are judicial officers.

Sheriffs Oath: "I hereby do solemnly swear that I will support and defend this Constitution for the united States of America, against all enemies, foreign and domestic, so help me God".

Don't be deceived the Law is not complex; Thomas Jefferson said that "Common sense is the foundation of all authorities, of the laws themselves, and of their construction."

The Law of the Land consists of: (1) the Constitution, written by We the People, under the authority of God, to empower, control and restrict government servants. (2) Common Law which is written by God in the hearts of men; and, (3) Constitutional Statutes which are written by legislators. Any statute or code outside of the aforesaid, and there are many, is null and void and that is why we need a Constitutional Law protector who knows the difference. If a Sheriff must depend upon a lawyer to determine the Law, it's no different than giving (s)he your badge and the responsibility for your oath. That is not honoring your oath. Lawyers already run our government and have the People ratchetted down in unconstitutional codes, statutes and illegal warrants; therein is the problem in a nut shell and the reason we need Sheriffs who know the Law.

> "Lawyers rejected the counsel of God" - Luke 7:30; "The lawyers, said unto Jesus, Master, thus saying thou reproaches us also. And Jesus said, Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers... Woe unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered." Luke 11:45-46, 52

In order for statutes to become Law, the legislators must first be given authority by We the People which is found under Article I. Section 8 which is restrained by Article I. Section 9 and the Bill of Rights. This is where the Sheriff's attention should be. If Congress writes statutes outside of Article I. Section 8 or statutes that violate Section 9 or the Bill of Rights the following "General Rule" of the United States Supreme Court is to be applied, and herein is the Power of the County Sheriff.

> "The general rule is that an unconstitutional statute, though having the form and name of law, is in reality no law, but is wholly void and ineffective for any purpose, since its unconstitutionality dates from the time of its enactment... In legal contemplation, it is as inoperative as if it had never been passed... Since an unconstitutional law is void, the general principles follow that it imposes no duties, confers no right, creates no office, bestows no power or authority on anyone, affords no protection and justifies no acts performed under it... A void act cannot be legally consistent with a valid one. An unconstitutional law cannot operate to supersede any existing law. Indeed insofar as a statute runs counter to the fundamental law of the land, (the Constitution) it is superseded thereby. No one is bound to obey an unconstitutional law and no courts are bound to enforce it." Bonnett v. Vallier, 116 N.W. 885, 136 Wis. 193 (1908); NORTON v. SHELBY COUNTY, 118 U.S. 425 (1886)

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Show us a County Sheriff that does not know the Law and we will show you a Lawless County. Because it is in the nature of unrestrained government servants to seize more and more power and control over the People and this is precisely why we need a true Lawman who takes pride in the knowledge of the Law. The office of the Sheriff is not to blindly enforce codes, rules and statutes but to enforce the Law and constitutional statutes that prevent lawless servants from injuring the People; it's up to the Sheriff to "bind the government servant down from mischief by the chains of the Constitution."

> "If a nation expects to be ignorant and free... it expects what never was and never will be." - Thomas Jefferson

The County Sheriff also has a duty to enforce the Common Law which is written by God in the hearts of men. There are two Common Law Principles that guide us in knowing the Common Law; (1) In order for there to be a crime there must be an injured party and the government in general cannot be the injured party. (2) For every injury there must be a remedy. This is the simplicity of God's Law, do not kill, do not steal, do not injure, do not trespass, etc.... We all know this!

What separates the Sheriff from the police is the fact that police are code enforcement officers that answer to a political servant who has the power to fire. And if the political servant is lawless, so are the police! Whereas, the Sheriffs' are Law enforcement officers, that answers to We the People directly at the ballot box. Therefore, the Sheriff will be as Lawful as his knowledge of the same. There are only three ways a Sheriff can be removed from office (1) the People can vote him/her out, (2) impeachment and (3) indictment by the Grand Jury.

There are four things the Sheriff needs in order to arrest a lawless judge or any lawless elected or appointed servant with impunity and fearlessness. They are: (1) Knowledge of the Law; (2) Knowledge that no agency or elected or appointed servant can remove a Sheriff from office nor can a Sheriff be arrested unless (s)he violates the Common Law such as stealing, killing, etc..., (3) the People standing behind him and (4) access to the Grand Jury to get an indictment. The Sheriffs should not be going to the county prosecutor for an indictment as all too often, they are gatekeepers for the lawless.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

It is imperative that the Sheriff have the active support of the People. The best place for the Sheriff to find that is in locally controlled citizen and liberty groups. Go out and talk to them often, ask for their support to help you protect their unalienable rights, because they are the most active and will show up to support you when you need them.

Sheriffs should keep their eye out for Committees of Safety (COS) which are exploding across the Nation. All 56 signers of the Declaration of Independence were members of Committees of Safety. Committees of Safety are the most powerful tool the Sheriff can have because they are We the People; learn about them! To see if there are Committees of Safety in your County you can go to www.PoweroftheCountySheriff.org/ and click on the Committees of Safety tab to find one. If there are no Committees of Safety in your County you can contact the National COS Committee Chairman, whose job it is to help start Independent Grassroots Committees of Safety and he will contact patriots in your County and encourage them to start a COS and connect you with them.

Sheriffs need to have a "proper education" and the support of other "properly educated" Sheriffs standing with them and, if necessary, an armed posse, especially if they are going up against a federal or state agency or lawless government servants. You can go to www.powerofthecountysheriff.org/ to find such an education and unite with other Sheriffs who are awakening.

Most importantly, the Sheriff must have "Grand Jury Access"! The Sheriff has been around for 100's of years, and like the Coroner, has always had direct access to the Grand Jury without a monitor. The only purpose of a gatekeeper is to protect the guilty, and the only reason they can get away with having all powerful gatekeepers is because of the Sheriff's and the Peoples' ignorance of the Law of the Land.

Just because there are lawful rules and statutes that provide for prosecutors to call the Grand Jury, which is necessary to empower them to do so, it doesn't negate the power and authority that the Sheriff and the coroner have always had and still have the authority to call the Grand Jury themselves.

The major problem with prosecutors is that they think that after they get an indictment they have the power to add or remove chargers or make deals. Only the

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT
MI-BARRY-22-0903-C-000499

Grand Jury can add or remove charges and make a deal with the accused, but they can only make a deal if they have the consent of the injured party. That is because another Common Law Principle says "for every injury there must be a remedy" and only a Trial Jury can render a remedy without the consent of the injured. This is all Common Sense; this is Common Law, so called because it is common onto all!

Prosecutors usually throw the book at the accused thereby inflating jail sentences and then later offer the accused less time if they plead guilty; that's called extortion!

The Sheriff should always know when the Grand Jury is in session so that if (s)he wants to ask the People for an indictment against a judge, some other elected or appointed official or maybe even the prosecutor, the Sheriff can go to the court and talk to the Grand Jury directly. He need not explain himself to anyone, and, if necessary, and can arrest anyone who gets in his way for obstruction of justice. Once the Sheriff gets an indictment, the prosecutor cannot reduce or change the charges because that's a crime!

> "One single object... will merit the endless gratitude of society: that of restraining the judges from usurping legislation." - Thomas Jefferson to Edward Livingston, 1825. ME 16:113.
> "The government will certainly decide for itself on whose counsel they will settle the construction of the laws they are to execute. We are to look at the intention of the Legislature, and to carry it into execution while the lawyers are nibbling at the words of the law." - Thomas Jefferson to Albert Gallatin, 1808 ME 12:168.

Sheriffs whether they be a democrat or republican, liberal or conservative should not indulge in party favors, only the Law, that's your oath! This Comprehensive Handbook was written to fully inform the Sheriff and deputies of their powers and authorities that they took an oath to perform. Thereby, supporting and defending the Constitution for the United States of America. For a higher education go to www.PoweroftheCountySheriff.org/

DUTY OF THE COUNTY SHERIFF

The Sheriff is to support and defend the Law of the Land a/k/a the Constitution and the Laws of Nature's God a/k/a Common Law by which the former is vested via We the People who are vested by the latter, not legislative bodies!

We are a nation governed by the common laws of God which makes our Law superior and more Just than any other nation's law. Therefore, the Oath of the County Sheriff is a Sacred Oath which, when violated, is a direct assault upon God whose judgement will not rest forever[2]. Thomas Jefferson professed America's covenant between God and We the People when he penned the following:

> "When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation. We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed,"

SHERIFF AND THE COURT

The court belongs to the sovereign people. The United States Supreme Court defines the Court as:

> "An agency of the sovereign [the People] created by it [the People] directly or indirectly under its [the People's] authority, consisting of one or more officers, [magistrate, sheriff, coroner and prosecutor] established and maintained for the purpose of hearing and determining issues of law and fact regarding legal rights and alleged violations

[2] "I tremble for my country when I reflect that God is just; that his justice cannot sleep forever." -- Thomas Jefferson thereof, and of applying the sanctions of the law, authorized to exercise its powers in the course of law at times and places previously determined by lawful authority." Isbill v. Stovall, Tex.Civ.App., 92 S.W.2d 1067, 1070.

State and County Courts are Courts of Record. In some cases, city courts are Courts of Record. For instance, New York City Courts are Courts of Record, but all other city courts in New York State are Not Courts of Record. To find out what courts are Courts of Record, look in your State Constitution which will list these courts. All other courts are called nisi prius courts, also called administrative courts. These courts are not Courts of Record. Unless your State Constitution says differently all city, town and village courts are not Courts of Record.

Bouvier's Law defines nisi prius courts: "Where courts bearing this name exist in the United States, they are instituted by statutory provision (not Constitutional)." Nisi prius is a Latin term Black's Law states: "Prius means first. Nisi means unless. A nisi prius procedure is a procedure to which a party FIRST agrees UNLESS he objects. A rule of procedure in courts is that if a party fails to object to something, then it means he agrees to it. A nisi procedure is a procedure to which a person has failed to object A "nisi prius court" is a court which will proceed unless a party objects. The agreement to proceed is obtained from the parties first."

The United States Supreme Court said concerning "Courts of Record and Courts Not of Record; the former being those whose acts and judicial proceedings are enrolled, or recorded, for a perpetual memory and testimony, and which have power to fine or imprison for contempt. Courts not of record are those of inferior dignity, which have no power to fine or imprison, and in which the proceedings are not enrolled or recorded." 3 Bl. Comm. 24; 3 Steph. Comm. 383; The Thomas Fletcher, C.C.Ga., 24 F. 481; Ex parte Thistleton, 52 Cal 225; Erwin v. U.S., D.C.Ga., 37 F. 488, 2 L.R.A. 229; Heininger v. Davis, 96 Ohio St. 205, 117 N.E. 229, 231.

The Sheriff has a duty to provide Law Enforcement officers in all courts of Record, often called Bailiffs, which means guardian or steward, who are a Sheriff's Deputy, in all Courts of Record. Like the Sheriff Deputies, are to have a "proper education". It is the duty of the Sheriff to make sure that his Deputies have a "proper education".

The Bailiff is not in the Courtroom as a private body guard for the judge, (s)he is there to protect the People and the judge who is also one of the People. He is there to keep the peace by making sure the Law of the Land is being adhered to and that unalienable rights are not being violated.

If the Sheriff perceives that the judge, or any other elected or appointed official for that matter, is breaking the law, the best way to proceed is to get an indictment before making an arrest. Don't trust the gatekeeper, because he is likely to help the judge. Judges and prosecutors are both elected, both political, both BAR members, both lawyers and have a close working relationship and therefore, are likely to share a comradery. Go see the Grand Jury directly and secure an indictment.

COURT DUTIES - Sheriffs are responsible for maintaining the safety and security of the court. A Bailiff is required to attend all court sessions, to take charge of juries whenever they are outside the courtroom, to serve court papers, to extradite prisoners, and to perform other court-related functions.

SHERIFF AND WARRANTS

AMENDMENT IV: "The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no Warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by Oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized."

According to Black's Law Dictionary, the word oath, in its broadest sense, includes "all forms of attestation by which a party signifies that (s)he is bound in conscience by "a solemn and formal declaration or asseveration that an affidavit is true.

No warrant, including a federal warrant is to be served without going through the Sheriff's office. Any warrant without a sworn affidavit and a judge's wet ink signature (not a stamp) is not an executable warrant. It is the Sheriff's duty to make sure that all warrants, federal or state, served within their county passes constitutional scrutiny; IRS warrants rarely pass constitutional scrutiny. For example the IRS has a form 4490 called Proof of Claim for Internal Revenue Taxes, which is an affidavit form that must be filled out and sworn to, without which the warrant with the wet ink signature is not executable.

SHERIFF AND THE COUNTY JAIL

Sheriffs' offices maintain and operate county jails or other detention centers, community corrections facilities such as work-release, and halfway houses. Sheriffs are responsible for supervising inmates, protecting their rights and providing food, clothing, exercise, recreation and medical services.

Before the Sheriff is to accept any prisoner, he is to make sure that due process has been exercised. If a court sends a prisoner sentenced to be incarcerated and there was no indictment and petit jury (trial by 12 jurists) before the sentencing, the prisoner is now a victim who was not given due process. The Sheriff cannot accept that prisoner. Unfortunately, because of ignorance, County Jails are filled with such prisoners. Black's Law defines an "infamous crime" as a crime punishable by imprisonment.

> Amendment V: "No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a Grand Jury."
> Amendment VI: "In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury..."

The Sheriff cannot accept any prisoners that were tried in Courts "Not of Record" because they are nisi prius courts and do not have the power to fine or incarcerate.

> "Courts not of record are those of inferior dignity, which have no power to fine or imprison, and in which the proceedings are not enrolled or recorded." 3 Bl. Comm. 24; 3 Steph. Comm. 383; The Thomas Fletcher, C.C.Ga., 24 F. 481; Ex parte Thistleton, 52 Cal 225; Erwin v. U.S., D.C.Ga., 37 F. 488, 2 L.R.A. 229; Heininger v. Davis, 96 Ohio St. 205, 117 N.E. 229, 231.

SHERIFF IS THE CHIEF LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER OF THE COUNTY

"The Sheriff is the chief executive and administrative officer of a county, being chosen by popular election. His principal duties are in aid of the criminal courts and civil courts of record; such as serving process, summoning juries, executing judgments, holding judicial sales and the like. He is also the chief conservator of the peace within his territorial jurisdiction." Harston v. Langston, Tex.Civ. App., 292 S.W. 648, 650. When used in statutes, the term may include a deputy sheriff. Lanier v. Town of Greenville, 174 N.C. 311, 93 S.E. 850, 853.

Justice Scalia, writing for the majority in a 1997 decision said that the "States are not subject to federal direction" and that the US Congress only had "discreet and enumerated powers" and that federal impotency was "rendered express" by the Tenth Amendment. He further confirmed that the Sheriff is the Chief Law Enforcement Officer of the county and also proclaimed that the States "retained an inviolable sovereignty." Scalia went even further in this landmark decision, one in which two small-town sheriffs headed the Feds "off at the pass" and sent them on their way. Scalia, in his infinite obligation to the Constitution, took this entire ruling to the tenth power when he said, "The Constitution protects us from our own best intentions... so that we may resist the temptation to concentrate power in one location as an expedient solution to the crisis of the day." Obviously the Sheriff is the Peoples last line of defense against a government gone rogue.

Law Enforcement - A sheriff always has the power to make arrests within his or her own county. Some states extend this authority to adjacent counties or to the entire state. Many sheriffs' offices also perform routine patrol functions such as traffic control, accident investigations, and transportation of prisoners. Larger departments may perform criminal investigations, and some unusually large sheriffs' offices command an air patrol, a mounted patrol, or a marine patrol.

Sheriffs still enlist the aid of the citizens. The National Neighborhood Watch Program, sponsored by the National Sheriffs' Association, allows citizens and law enforcement officials to cooperate in keeping communities safe. This is why the new mission of the Indiana Sheriffs' Association and their slogan is "Building Communities of Trust in ALL 92 Indiana Counties."

As the sheriffs' law enforcement duties become more extensive and complex, new career opportunities exist for people with specialized skills: underwater diving, piloting, boating, skiing, radar technology, communications, computer technology, accounting, emergency medicine, and foreign languages (especially Spanish, French, and Vietnamese.)

JUST COURTS OF LAW REST UPON SIX FOUNDATIONAL TRUTHS

(1) Truths are self-evident, (2) All men are created equal, (3) We are endowed (gifted) by the Creator, (4) We have unalienable Rights, (5) To secure these rights we have a right to institute governments, (constitution), (6) Governments that derive their just powers from the consent of the People wherein we ordained and established the following:

> "We the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America." -- Preamble to the Constitution for the United States of America

Therefore, by the Powers vested in We the People by God, We the People did "Ordain & Establish" vested powers to our government servants who are bound by the chains of the Constitution[3] thru their oaths, to the following six ends, alone: (1)Form a more perfect union, (2)Establish justice, (3)Insure domestic tranquility, (4)Provide for the common defense, (5)Promote the general welfare and (6)Secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity. No legislation is to pass that does not in the end serve one or more of the aforesaid six ends, any legislation to the contrary is "null and void"[4] and the Sheriff is bound to treat it as such under the following General Rule:

GENERAL RULE

> "The general rule is that an unconstitutional statute, though having the form and name of law, is in reality no law, but is wholly void and ineffective for any purpose, since its unconstitutionality dates from the time of its enactment... In legal contemplation, it is as inoperative as if it had never been passed... Since an unconstitutional law is void, the general principles follow that it imposes no duties, confers no right, creates no office, bestows no power or authority on anyone, affords no

[3] "Put not your faith in men, but bind them down with the chains of the constitution." -- Thomas Jefferson.
[4] "All laws, rules and practices which are repugnant to the Constitution are null and void" -- Marbury v. Madison, 5th US (2 Cranch) 137, 180; "Where rights secured by the Constitution are involved, there can be no rule making or legislation which would abrogate them" Miranda v. Arizona, 384 U.S. 436, 491; "... that statutes which would deprive a citizen of the rights of person or property without a regular trial, according to the course and usage of common law, would not be the law of the land." Hoke vs. Henderson,15, N.C.15,25 AM Dec 677.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

> protection and justifies no acts performed under it... A void act cannot be legally consistent with a valid one. An unconstitutional law cannot operate to supersede any existing law. Indeed insofar as a statute runs counter to the fundamental law of the land, (the Constitution) it is superseded thereby. No one is bound to obey an unconstitutional law and no courts are bound to enforce it." Bonnett v. Vallier, 116 N.W. 885, 136 Wis. 193 (1908); NORTON v. SHELBY COUNTY, 118 U.S. 425 (1886)

Any Sheriff unable to understand and enforce "The General Rule" violates his oath of office and wars against God and We the People. For the Sherriff to correct this error there are only two choices (1)study and show thyself approved by your oath or (2) resign the office of Sheriff. It is also the duty of every Sherriff to train their Deputies in the Law of the Land. This is the very purpose of this book; to train up our Sheriffs and deputies in the way they should conduct themselves and not depart from it.

It has become agonizingly obvious through communicating with many Sheriffs and their deputies across the Nation, that the majority of them are not properly educated and, do not understand their oath and authority.

LAW OF THE LAND

Law: "That which is laid down, ordained, or established." Koenig v. Flynn, 258 N.Y. 292, 179 N. E. 705.

U.S. Constitution Article VI: "This Constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof; and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the land; and the judges in every state shall be bound thereby, anything in the Constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding."

In conclusion; Law is all about the securing of unalienable rights. We do not need a PhD to know and understand the Law. We need not yield our understanding to statutory lawyers, a/k/a BAR attorneys. The Bible tells us that lawyers reject the counsel of God[5], they lay upon men grievous burdens[6] and take away the key of knowledge[7].

The Bible tells us that God has written his laws in the hearts of all men. We the People can know right from wrong. We do not need legislators and lawyers to tell us. That is precisely why We the People never gave our servant legislators authority to write statutes that govern our behavior. Nor did we give judges and prosecutors the authority to indict or judge We the People; that authority we reserved to ourselves via untainted Juries with the power of nullification.

Common Law is built upon logic and reason through "maxims" and "principles". Maxims are self-evident truths such as: "all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness."; "For every injury there must be a remedy" and "for there to be a crime there must be an injured party". Principles are a state of mind that always needs to be considered such as Honor, Justice and Mercy.

Likewise, we need not yield our trust in understanding law to BAR attorneys. Thomas Jefferson told us: "Laws are made for men of ordinary understanding and should, therefore, be construed by the ordinary rules of common sense. Their meaning is not to be sought for in metaphysical subtleties which may make anything mean everything or nothing at pleasure."[8]

"The purpose of a written constitution is entirely defeated if, in interpreting it as a legal document, its provisions are manipulated and worked around so that the document means whatever the manipulators wish." Jefferson recognized this danger and spoke out constantly for careful adherence to the Constitution as written, with changes to be made by amendment, not by tortured and twisted interpretations of the text. A rule of thumb concerning the constitutionality of any

[5] Luke 7:30 But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God against themselves, being not baptized of him.

[6] Luke 11:46 And he said, Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

[7] Luke 11:52 Woe unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.
