Hi Taylor,

The CD that was sent to you was the only copy of the redacted files. My IT Dept is putting together another CD to send through my legal department. Once that process has been completed, I will have my IT Dept help me with the Dropbox for you. Thank you for your patience.

Regards,

Hi Brandie,

I'm following up on your email below, as American Oversight never received either confirmation that you put the CD in the mail, or the actual CD containing records responsive to our request.

Would it be possible to instead produce the records to us online? If they are too large to send by email, we use Dropbox internally and could provide you with a folder to upload the records to.

Thanks for your help,
Taylor
