EXTERNAL SENDER Good afternoon, Following up on the email below, it appears that for part 1 of the request, a significant number of the documents containing the keyword "Duffey" do not relate to William Duffey, the former SEB member, but instead relate to a different state employee with the last name Duffey not related to the SEB. Happy to include those in the responsive documents, if you would like, but wanted to check with you first. Please let me know if you would like these documents included. Ian,

Per our conversation, here is House substitute to SB 358.

It's now an Ethics Commission maintenance bill. It has nothing to do with SEB oversight.

It will be in House Government Affairs tomorrow afternoon. Senator Rick Williams will present the bill in Committee.

I do not have his bio yet, but this is information I collected online. Do we want to do a PR?

Governor Brian P. Kemp today announced the appointment of a new chairperson of the State Elections Board, John Fervier. Fervier has been appointed to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of former chairperson, William Duffey.

John Fervier is the Vice President of Risk Management at Waffle House, Inc. Fervier has been with Waffle House, Inc. for 28 years. He is currently the Chairman of the Subsequent Injury Trust Fund Commission. Fervier was first appointed to the Subsequent Injury Trust Fund Commission by Governor Sonny Perdue in 2004. He received his bachelor's degree from Berry College in Rome, Georgia.
