Re: Assembly Committee on Criminal Justice and Public Safety

Dear Ms. Bowler:

Please accept this letter in robust support of the following bills scheduled to be addressed at a public hearing regarding the Judicial Security Legislation Package on January 24, 2024 at 10:01 a.m.:

AB 965/ SB 926 – Picketing and Parading
AB967/SB 928 – Public Record Exemption of Judiciary Security Profiles
AB 966/ SB 927 – Judicial Officer Privacy

In recent years, incidents and threats of violence toward the judiciary and other court officers have become an increasing concern.

Personally, while I love my job and always strive to put aside my personal security concerns, one cannot help being troubled when one switches on the television in the morning and hears about another serious instance of violence involving judges and court staff.

The proposed legislation provides enhanced protections that are critically needed, especially for those of us living in rural communities. With utmost respect, I urge you to pass this legislation into law.

Thank you for your time and attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Angeline E. Winton
Washburn County Circuit Court Judge

2023 BILL

AN ACT to repeal 118.019 (2) (a) 10. and 118.019 (2) (a) 11.; to renumber and amend 118.019 (1m) (b), 118.019 (2d) and 118.019 (3); to amend 115.29 (7), 118.019 (1m) (a), 118.019 (2) (a) 1. and 2., 118.019 (2) (a) 5., 118.019 (2) (c), 118.019 (2) (e), 118.019 (4), 118.019 (5) and 146.89 (3r) (e); to repeal and recreate 118.019 (1), 118.019 (2) (intro.) and 118.019 (2m); and to create 118.019 (1m) (b) 1. and 3., 118.019 (2) (a) 3., 3m. and 4., 118.019 (2) (a) 6. and 118.019 (2r) of the statutes; relating to: human growth and development instruction.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, a school board may offer an instructional program in human growth and development, and current law recommends, but does not require, that a school board include certain instructional topics in the instructional program. Under the bill, school boards must provide an instructional program in human growth and development (instructional program) in grades kindergarten to 12. The requirements for the mandatory instructional program are based on the requirements created in 2009 Wisconsin Act 134, known as the Healthy Youth Act, for optional instructional program provided by school boards.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

BILL

Under the bill, the instructional program must present medically accurate information to pupils and must, among other things, address the following topics when age–appropriate:

1. The importance of communication between the pupil and the pupil's family members about sexuality and decision–making about sexual behavior.

2. Reproductive and sexual anatomy and physiology, including biological, psychosocial, and emotional changes that accompany maturation.

3. Puberty, pregnancy, parenting, body image, and gender stereotypes.

4. The skills needed to make responsible decisions about sexuality and sexual behavior throughout the pupil's life, including how to refrain from making inappropriate verbal, physical, and sexual advances and how to recognize, rebuff, and report any unwanted or inappropriate verbal, physical, and sexual behaviors.

5. The benefits of and reasons for abstaining from sexual activity.

6. The health benefits, side effects, and proper use of contraceptives and barrier methods to prevent pregnancy and sexually transmitted infections.

7. Methods for developing healthy life skills, including setting goals, making responsible decisions, communicating, and managing stress.

8. How alcohol and drug use affect responsible decision making.

9. The impact of media and one's peers on thoughts, feelings, and behaviors related to sexuality.

10. Marriage and parental responsibility.

11. The criminal penalties for engaging in sex.

Under current law, the state superintendent of public instruction may apply for federal funds allocated for providing instruction in any of the topics recommended under current law to be included in a human growth and development instructional program. The bill modifies that authority by authorizing the state superintendent to apply for federal funds allocated for evidence–based teen pregnancy prevention programs in order to implement such a program.

Finally, the bill allows a volunteer health care provider to provide instruction in human growth and development if the instructional program complies with the requirements above. Under current law, a "volunteer health care provider" is an individual who meets certain licensing requirements and who, while receiving no income, provides certain health care services free of charge to pupils from four–year–old kindergarten to grade six at a public school or private school participating in a parental choice program. Current law explicitly prohibits a volunteer health care provider from providing that instruction.

For further information see the local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

RE: Judicial Security Package
AB 965/SB 926 – Picketing and Parading
AB 967/SB 928 – Public Record Exemption of Judicial security Profiles
AB 966/SB 927 – Judicial Officer Privacy

Dear Committee on Criminal Justice and Public Safety:

In advance of the hearing tomorrow on the above bills, we collectively are writing with our full support. We request your support of these important pieces of legislation. In recent years, there has been a significant increase in the number of cases statewide and nationwide involving the need for additional judicial security measures. These incidents have been precipitated upon security concerns both at the workplace and homes of judges in our State. The tragedy in 2022 where a fellow colleague was murdered at his home by a litigant only highlights the risk and danger that judges can face in handling their required work.

Outagamie County has had it's own incidents requiring heightened judicial security concerns in the last year. These have included a litigant coming to the residence of a judge and multiple parties who created security concerns at the courthouse. The current legislation provides an initial step in the process of addressing judicial security concerns. All three pieces of pending legislation have a different and important role in addressing some of these concerns. Judicial security in our own homes, prohibiting releases of information and working with law enforcement to insure safety in our homes is critical in judicial safety and security. Each of these pending bills help to address these areas of concern.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

We thank you for your time and attention to this important matter. We encourage your support of these important pieces of legislation. Please do not hesitate to contact any of us with further questions.

Re: Judicial Security Legislation Package – Support for Assembly Bills 965, 966, and 967

Greetings Representatives:

I am the duly elected Clark County Circuit Court Branch II Judge. As you may know, this is one of the new branches that was added in 2023, authorized by 2019 Wisconsin Act 184. That means I am a "baby" Judge, having been in office only a little under six months now.

Intellectually, I understood the security concerns that come with being a judge before I was sworn in. However, now that I am living it, and I have actually heard cases involving violent crime, severe mental illness, and so on, I can actually put a face to people who may want to harm me, or worse – hurt my family, merely because I was the one that enforced and carried out the law. It is a more concrete, rather than abstract concern for me now.

Due to the efforts of my local Sheriff's department, I feel very safe once I am in the courthouse for the day. So, at least during that time, I don't worry too much about myself. However, what I really worry about is my family. They do not have nothing to do with the decisions I make in court, yet they could be targeted by someone wishing to do me harm.

That is why it is why I write in enthusiastic support of the Judicial Security Legislation package being discussed in your meeting on 01/24/2024, specifically Assembly Bills 965, 966, and 967.

These bills will allow me to provide local law enforcement with my family's security profile without fear that it could be discoverable with an open records request, and keep my family's information (such as residence location) off of other publically available lists, which are both issues of vital importance.

In short, please help us Judges keep our families safe by passing these bills!

Thank you for your time and for considering the needs of Judges and their families – it is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Hon. William M. Bratcher

Committee on Criminal Justice and Public Safety Members:

Dear Representatives:

We are writing to urge your support of the following:

AB 965/SB 926 – Picketing and Parading
AB 967/SB 928 – Public Record Exemption of Judicial security Profiles
AB 966/SB 927 – Judicial Officer Privacy

Since we became judges, each of us has experienced threats to our lives, or have been impacted by threats to attorneys or litigants in our courtrooms. It is too late to react to threats once they have occurred. Preemptively responding to threats and planning for greater security ensures safer court environments for all citizens.

We are requesting your support for the referenced bills. Each bill will provide greater security to our families and our homes. Retired Vernon County Judge, Hon. John Roemer, was killed in his home in 2022. Having these bills in place would keep public records for our residences and our families from being available to the general public. Disturbed individuals are bold, will act, and we need to be prepared. These bills provide an opportunity to keep personal information regarding our residences and families from falling into the wrong hands.

Thank you for your time and attention to this matter.

Hon. James M. Isaacson  Hon. Steven H. Gibbs  Hon. Benjamin J. Lane

SPEAKER'S COMMUNICATIONS

November 28, 2023

The Honorable Tony Evers
Governor of the State of Wisconsin
115 East, State Capitol
Madison, WI 53702

Dear Governor Evers:

The Marquette Law School Poll shows Wisconsinites hold an overall negative view of our economy, with 62 percent of respondents saying they are just getting by or struggling to get by. Since Joe Biden has taken office, federal spending programs have had a huge negative impact on family budgets, as inflation rose 8% last year and rates this year are still higher than we've seen in any other time in the last decade. Many of your decisions to allocate ARPA funds have grown government, exacerbating the problem. When the federal funds run out, many of these new programs will likely seek continuance via state funding, potentially stressing the taxpayer even further.

During this session we have made important investments in housing, shared revenue, and improvements to our education system. Unfortunately, your veto of substantial tax cuts has disappointed many Wisconsinites. As you anticipate delivering your State of the State Address in January, we hope you will consider ways that we can continue to work together to improve our economy that do not require massive government spending and also seek to return the bulk of our surplus back to the people who overpaid it.

To that end, it is our honor to invite you to deliver the State of the State address to a joint session of the Wisconsin State Legislature in the Assembly chambers. We invite you to join us on either January 16 or January 23, 2024. Please let us know what date works best for you.

We look forward to hearing the address and to working together to shape an even better future for our state and its citizens.

Sincerely,
ROBIN J. VOS

Hi Stephan,

How's it going, sir? As you may know, there is a hearing on community solar legislation scheduled in the Energy and Utilities Committee on 2/14. Alliant Energy opposes this bill because we already have a successful program that doesn't rely on cost shifts and subsidization to work. I'd really appreciate a few minutes of your time to walk through how our program works vs. what the bill would create.

I know you're busy, but thanks in advance if you can share a few days/times that would work for you to meet over the next couple weeks!

Best,

Zack

STATE OF WISCONSIN
SUPREME COURT
P. O. BOX 1688
MADISON, WISCONSIN 53701

CHAMBERS OF
ANNETTE KINGSLAND ZIEGLER,
CHIEF JUSTICE

STATE CAPITOL, 16 EAST
(608) 266-1881

January 24, 2024

The Honorable John Spiros, Chair
Assembly Committee on Criminal Justice and Public Safety
Room 212 North, State Capitol

RE: Assembly Bill 965, relating to picketing or parading at the residence of a judge
Assembly Bill 966, privacy protections for judicial officers
Assembly Bill 967, relating to withholding judicial security profiles from public access

Dear Representative Spiros and Committee Members:

Thank you for the opportunity to provide written comments in support of Assembly Bills 965, 966, and 967. I would also like to thank Representatives Tusler, Ortiz-Velez, and Stubbs, Senators Wanggaard and Taylor, and their staff members for their work on these proposals.

As you know, like the federal system, in recent years, the Wisconsin Court System has attracted national media attention. Unfortunately, we also experienced a tragedy in 2022, when retired Judge John P. Roemer was murdered in his home in what the Wisconsin Department of Justice characterized as a "targeted act." He was shot and killed by a man whom he had sentenced to prison years earlier. In other words, Judge Roemer appears to have been killed for doing his job as a judge.

In the last 12 months alone, the Supreme Court Marshal's Office documented 142 threats against judges and justices in the Wisconsin Court System, 44 of which were direct threats of physical harm or death. Judges should not be threatened with acts of violence from people or groups who want to intimidate or harm us, push a cause, subvert the rule of law, or control the outcome of a case. That is a basic tenet of Judicial Independence. No one should face threats or violence for carrying out their role in the legal system—a system intended to serve as a forum for resolving disputes peacefully, according to the law.

These concerns are not unique to Wisconsin. Judges are frequently becoming the target of threats and violence, and threats to judges are on the rise. Illinois federal Judge Joan Lefkow's husband and mother were shot and killed by an aggrieved litigant. In July 2020, the son of Federal Judge Esther Salas was killed, and her husband grievously injured by an attorney at the front door of the family's New Jersey home. In 2022, a man was charged in an alleged attempt to kill Justice Brett M. Kavanaugh because of a case before the United States Supreme Court. The recent horrific killing of a Maryland judge as he stood in his own driveway, at his home, continues to remind us of the need to be always vigilant and continue to enhance judicial safety.

The court's Planning and Policy Advisory Committee (PPAC) has identified court safety and security as priorities since at least 2016. Those in the court system who specialize in this area, including Waukesha County Circuit Court Judge Michael Bohren, PPAC's Court Security Subcommittee, and the Legislative Committee of the Judicial Conference, have continuously worked on security issues.

The Wisconsin Constitution vests the state's judicial power in its court system. Wisconsinites who answer the call to serve as judicial officers in our court system must have the ability to fairly administer justice and safely do their jobs. We need to ensure their security so that they, in turn, can ensure our legal system's success.

Security is a priority not only for the judges who already serve, but also for those who have served and those who will become judges in the future. Judicial officers have demanding jobs. They are aware of the nature of the job when they take their judicial oaths. They see people on their best and worst days. And some days, the robe is particularly heavy, as judges make difficult rulings that can affect freedoms, impose monetary judgments, or permanently change the course of peoples' lives. We need to give judges the tools to support the important role they have been assigned, in every case that comes before them.

Following the murder of Judge Roemer, I prioritized the security and safety of all of the judicial officers in the Wisconsin court system. My efforts included identifying tools used in other jurisdictions to develop a package of bills on judicial security to increase the security of all Wisconsin judges. According to the 2023 CCJ/COSCA Personal Safety and Security Survey, the National Center for State Courts reports that 30 states "have at least one or more statutes in place related to the protection of personally identifiable information for judges."[1] Using all of these resources, I requested that the Legislative Committee, with the assistance of members of the judiciary, work to develop Assembly Bills 965, 966, and 967.

These bills address three discrete areas of judicial safety: (1) creating a picketing/protesting prohibition applicable to judicial residences; (2) increasing privacy protections for judicial officers by exempting personal information from release pursuant to public records requests and creating a process for judicial officers who so choose, to limit the public availability of their personal information; and (3) exempting from disclosure under the Public Records Law judicial security profiles, which judges can complete and submit to law enforcement to assist in the development of an emergency response plan.

AB 965/SB 926 – Picketing and Parading

[1] Conference of Chief Justices, Conference of State Court Administrators, and National Center for State Courts, 2023 CCJ/COSCA Personal Safety and Security Survey (Aug. 28, 2023).

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

This bill recognizes the public policy and legal boundary between demonstrators' constitutional rights to free speech and assembly and judges' rights to feel safe and secure in their homes and in the carrying out of their constitutional duties. The bill creates a Class A misdemeanor to picket, parade, or demonstrate at or near any residence occupied by a judge with the intent to interfere with, obstruct, or impede the administration of justice or with the intent to influence any judge in the discharge of his or her duty.

The bill is based on 18 U.S.C. § 1507 – Picketing or Parading; however, it removes the prohibition found in 18.U.S.C. § 1507 against picketing, parading or demonstrating at, in, or near a building housing a court thus limiting the bill to prohibit individuals from picketing, parading or demonstrating in or near the residence or residences of a judge.

AB 966/SB 927 – Judicial Officer Privacy

This bill aims to recognize that public officials such as judges are at risk of harm as a result of carrying out their duties. From a public policy perspective, the goal is to protect these at-risk public servants against the disclosure or publishing of their personal information. The bill creates protections similar to those that exist in other states and at the federal level for federal judges. The bill was originally based on the Illinois Judicial Privacy Act, 705 ILCS 90/; California's comparable Inspection of Public Records Law, California Government Code 6254.21; and the Federal Daniel Anderl Judicial Security and Privacy Act of 2022.

AB 966 exempts from public records requests a judicial officer's personal information, as defined by the bill. It also prohibits data brokers from knowingly selling, licensing, trading, purchasing, or otherwise making available for consideration the personal information of a judicial officer or a judicial officer's immediate family.

The bill creates a process for judicial officers to submit a certification of residence to the Wisconsin Elections Commission prior to the circulation of nomination papers. Judicial officers who have filed such a certification are not required to indicate his or her residential address on the nomination papers or on the declaration of candidacy.

The bill also creates a process for judicial officers who so choose, to limit the public availability of their personal information. A judicial officer may make a written request to a government agency that the government agency refrain from publicly posting or displaying publicly available content that includes the judicial officer's personal information. A government agency that receives such a request must remove the information within 5 business days.

Similarly, the bill also prohibits persons, businesses, or associations from publicly posting or displaying on the internet publicly available content that includes the personal information of the judicial officer or the judicial officer's immediate family if the judicial officer has made a written request to the person, business, or association that it refrain from disclosing or acquiring the personal information. If a request is made, the information must be removed within 72 hours.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

A judicial officer whose personal information is made public in violation of the bill may bring an action seeking injunctive or declaratory relief.

The bill contains a good faith exception for employees of government agencies that published personal information in good faith on the website of a government agency in the ordinary course of carrying out public functions.

A person commits a Class G felony if the person knowingly publicly posts or displays on the internet personal information of a judicial officer or a judicial officer's immediate family, the person intends the public posting or display to create or increase a threat to the health and safety of the judicial officer, and bodily injury or death of the judicial officer or a family member of the judicial officer is a natural and probable consequence.

The bill has a delayed effective date of six months from enactment.

AB 967/SB 928 – Public Records Exemption of Judicial Security Profiles

This bill explicitly exempts from disclosure under the public records law judicial security profiles, which judges can complete and submit to law enforcement to assist in the development of an emergency response plan. These documents contain personal details of a judge and family members, and the information is very detailed to enable an effective emergency response. There is some hesitancy to complete such profiles, and an exemption from disclosure under the public records law could reduce hesitancy and provide law enforcement with an important tool in protecting judges.

The bill creates consistency and an ability for local authorities to easily recognize the forms subject to this exemption by requiring such profiles to be on a form approved by the Director of State Courts.

Thank you for considering this information. Please feel free to contact me if you have questions.

Sincerely,

Chief Justice Annette K. Ziegler

Hello Team,

I hope this message finds you well. I wanted to commend each one of you for your input during the recent press conference and floor speeches. Job well done!

Now, as you've all have been set up for Facebook boosting, it's the opportune moment to leverage the boosting tool to amplify your messages. I encourage you to connect with Kelly in the Speaker's Office to obtain video clips of your speeches. Once you have them, let's use the boosting tool strategically.

Additionally, I recommend watching Speaker Vos's speech for valuable talking points to incorporate.

Our recent struggles with Facebook can now be put into use by utilizing these tools effectively. Some of you may need to complete pending steps such as finalizing payment methods and setting up your first ad. Before initiating the boosting process, please ensure you've obtained approval from the Speaker's Office. This step is crucial for a seamless and successful boosting campaign.

Should you encounter any questions or challenges in this process, don't hesitate to reach out to me for assistance.

Thank you and let's make our messages resonate far and wide.

Best regards,

Hello,
Thanks so much or the quick response. Does 1/26 at 10:07-10:47 work?
The address for the high school is 6801 Southway. The main entrance has a flagpole in front where you can park and enter. There will be someone to check you in and front desk and then I will meet you there and walk to my classroom.
Typically the format that has worked well for our guest speakers is to start by sharing a bit about themselves (how they got into this position, their beliefs, etc.) and then leave time for student questions. Please let me know if this format works for you.
Thanks so much for the opportunity, I look forward to meeting Representative Donovan soon!

CO-SPONSORSHIP MEMORANDUM

TO: All Legislators
FROM: Representative Jeff Mursau
Senator Howard Marklein
DATE: Thursday January 25, 2024
RE: Co-Sponsorship of LRB 4225/3 relating to: changes to certain nonresident hunting, trapping, and fishing approval fees.
DEADLINE: 5:00 PM on Wednesday January 31, 2024

Wisconsin's Fish and Wildlife account is the primary funding source for DNR's Fisheries and Wildlife Management, as well as Law Enforcement Programs. These programs comprise about 2/3rd of the spending draws on the account. Going into the 2023-2025 Biennial Budget there was a structural deficit in the account. This can be attributed to less hunter and angler participation rates, no substantial fee increases since the 2005-07 budget, and (like with everything else) inflation. To help offset the deficit, $25 million was transferred from the surplus in the Forestry Account. The budget also increased certain non-resident hunting and fishing licenses to raise roughly an additional $2.2 million.

Beginning in July 2025 there will again be an expected structural deficit of nearly $16 million /fiscal year in the Fish and Wildlife account. To help address this, we are introducing legislation to change the fees for 26 different non-resident hunting and fishing licenses that weren't included in the current budget. The bill draft also includes a $2 decrease in the nonresident five-day small game hunting license to keep all fee adjustments proportional over time. For a complete list of the proposed fee changes, please see the LRB analysis below.

If you have questions or would like to co-sponsor this bill, please reply to this email, or contact Representative Mursau's office at 6-3780 or Senator Marklein's office at 6-0703 before 5:00 PM on Wednesday January 31, 2024. Your name will be added to the Senate and Assembly version unless otherwise specified.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Beginning on March 1, 2024, this bill increases all of the following fees for nonresident hunting, trapping, and fishing approvals:

1. Nonresident elk and bear hunting licenses: $248.25 to $311.25
2. Nonresident archer and crossbow deer hunting licenses: $162.25 to $197.25.
3. Nonresident bonus deer hunting permit, outside chronic wasting disease areas: $19.25 to $30.25.
4. Nonresident wild turkey hunting license: $62.25 to $97.25.
5. Nonresident additional wild turkey hunting authorization: $14.75 to $23.75.

CO-SPONSORSHIP MEMORANDUM

TO: All Legislators

FROM: Senators Lena Taylor and Melissa Agard

Representative Sue Conley

DATE: Thursday, January 25th, 2024

RE: Co-Sponsorship of LRB-5006/1, relating to: human growth and development instruction.

DEADLINE: Thursday, February 1st, 2024

2011 Act 216 repealed the Healthy Youth Act, which required comprehensive, age appropriate sex education topics in Wisconsin's public schools. Topics on human growth and development that were removed included but were not limited to puberty, pregnancy, parenting, gender stereotypes, skills needed to make responsible decisions about sexuality, how to refrain from making and how to rebuff inappropriate advances, and the health benefits and proper use of contraceptives approved by the FDA. 2011 Act 216 also requires instruction in a number of topics, including abstinence as the preferred choice of behavior for unmarried pupils.
According to the World Health Organization, evidence consistently shows that high-quality sex education delivers positive health outcomes, with lifelong impacts. Young people are more likely to delay the onset of sexual activity – and when they do have sex, to practice safer sex – when they are better informed about their sexuality, sexual health and their rights.
Sex education also helps them prepare for and manage physical and emotional changes as they grow up, including during puberty and adolescence, while teaching them about respect, consent and where to go if they need help. This in turn reduces risks from violence, exploitation and abuse.
LRB-5006/1 would repeal 2011 Act 216 and require a comprehensive, medically accurate, age appropriate sex education in Wisconsin's public schools.
If you are interested in co-sponsoring this legislation, please reply to this e-mail or contact Senator Agard's office at 266-9170 by Thursday, February 1st, 2024 at 5:00 p.m. Co-sponsors will be added to both the Assembly and Senate versions of the proposal unless specified otherwise.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, a school board may offer an instructional program in human growth and development, and current law recommends, but does not require, that a school board include certain instructional topics in the instructional program. Under the bill, school boards must provide an instructional program in human growth and development (instructional program) in grades kindergarten to 12. The requirements for the mandatory instructional program are based on the requirements created in 2009 Wisconsin Act 134, known as the Healthy Youth Act, for optional instructional program provided by school boards.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Under the bill, the instructional program must present medically accurate information to pupils and must, among other things, address the following topics when age-appropriate:

1. The importance of communication between the pupil and the pupil's family members about sexuality and decision-making about sexual behavior.

2. Reproductive and sexual anatomy and physiology, including biological, psychosocial, and emotional changes that accompany maturation.

3. Puberty, pregnancy, parenting, body image, and gender stereotypes.

4. The skills needed to make responsible decisions about sexuality and sexual behavior throughout the pupil's life, including how to refrain from making inappropriate verbal, physical, and sexual advances and how to recognize, rebuff, and report any unwanted or inappropriate verbal, physical, and sexual behaviors.

5. The benefits of and reasons for abstaining from sexual activity.

6. The health benefits, side effects, and proper use of contraceptives and barrier methods to prevent pregnancy and sexually transmitted infections.

7. Methods for developing healthy life skills, including setting goals, making responsible decisions, communicating, and managing stress.

8. How alcohol and drug use affect responsible decision making.

9. The impact of media and one's peers on thoughts, feelings, and behaviors related to sexuality.

10. Marriage and parental responsibility.

11. The criminal penalties for engaging in sex.

Under current law, the state superintendent of public instruction may apply for federal funds allocated for providing instruction in any of the topics recommended under current law to be included in a human growth and development instructional program. The bill modifies that authority by authorizing the state superintendent to apply for federal funds allocated for evidence-based teen pregnancy prevention programs in order to implement such a program.

Finally, the bill allows a volunteer health care provider to provide instruction in human growth and development if the instructional program complies with the requirements above. Under current law, a “volunteer health care provider” is an individual who meets certain licensing requirements and who, while receiving no income, provides certain health care services free of charge to pupils from four-year-old kindergarten to grade six at a public school or private school participating in a parental choice program. Current law explicitly prohibits a volunteer health care provider from providing that instruction.

For further information see the local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

Dear Sir or Madam: Re: Judicial Security Legislation

I am a Milwaukee County Circuit Court Judge. I was elected in 2009 and re-elected in 2015 and 2021. Personal security for me and my family is a paramount concern. The proliferation of violence against elected officials, and in particular judges, is always on my mind. The murder of former Juneau County Circuit Court Judge John Roemer in June, 2022 is a tragic and terrible reminder of how vulnerable we are.

I ask that the legislature pass the following legislation: AB 965/SB 926 – Picketing and Parading; AB 967/SB 928 – Public Record Exemption of Judicial security Profiles; and AB 966/SB 927 – Judicial Officer Privacy.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Subject: Follow-up Re: Talk Radio
Hi Rep. Donovan,
Great to run into you last week after our hearing on Final Five Voting! Thanks again for all your support. As we discussed, I have attached various transcripts from talk radio hits on FFV with response callouts to all the false claims/points needing context. I think your strongest point for FFV, though, is something like:

> In a blue district like Milwaukee, Congresswoman Gwen Moore can keep her seat as long as she wants. In fact, a socialist is currently more likely to win (particularly state legislative races, where this is already happening) than a republican. Having Final Five Voting would alleviate that dynamic, giving republicans and independents in the city (like us) the ability to vote for the republican, but ultimately elect someone more like Plale than Larson (rather than Larson take out Plale in a low-turnout primary – though our proposal starts with federal elections only). More importantly, it makes someone like Congresswoman Moore have to care a little about her independent and republican constituents when governing, because her only potential electoral risk isn't just from her left. She'd want to show up in Tosa or other areas of the district, to be accountable to all her general electorate voters. That's the power of Final Five Voting.
> Below my signature are the most common misconceptions and responses.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Would love to have you take a look at the various transcripts and rebuttals and then get together to discuss. Might you have time to connect in Madison the week of 1/29?
Thanks much,
Sara

| Question | Answer |
|---|---|
| Isn't FFV just a solution in search of a problem? | Wisconsinites know we have a problem with our politics. They're frustrated. They want change. They want accountability. And they want action.• While there is some veracity to the concerns about changing to a new election system, they do not outweigh the benefits of healthy competition in elections.• The choice is to do something or to do nothing. We must do something. |
| Does FFV favor Democrats? | No. FFV favors general election voters.• It is not designed to change who wins. It's designed to change the incentive of whoever wins, to represent their voters and solve problems.• FFV favors hardworking candidates of any party who run good campaigns with policy positions that resonate with general election voters in the district/state.• It also brings new ideas and competition into elections—enhancing accountability for all voters.• Some people with power in the existing system seem to object—on both sides. |
| Isn't FFV too confusing? | Voters are not confused.• Voters can only rank one candidate if they want, and their ballot still counts.• Voters are less likely to throw their votes away under FFV than traditional plurality voting.[1]• Errors are not more common or likely on ranked ballots.[2]• In Alaska, 99.8% of ranked ballots were correctly cast and counted.[3] 85% said it was simple.[4] |
| Do ballots get thrown out? | Opponents admitted in the hearing that this characterization is a rhetorical device. FFV doesn't mean ballots are thrown in the trash. It means more ballots actually count and affect the outcome—more voices are heard and there's greater accountability to voters.• Opponents are saying that voters who choose not to rank their entire ballot, and end up not preferring one of the top-two choices in the instant runoff (which is each voter's right) have their ballots trashed. This isn't true.• Their votes counted. They counted for all the choices they made, and didn't count for any choices they didn't make. Just like today. |
| Isn't FFV too hard to implement? Leading to delayed results? | Over 85% of municipalities in Wisconsin, representing 95% of registered voters, already have an instant-runoff capable voting system.[5]Delays in results reporting are not due to the use of a ranked ballot. They are because absentee ballots are collected after election day.• Delays in results reporting in is not new. When all votes matter, it's not as simple to predict who is going to win.• Wisconsin collects all absentee ballots on election day, so we will be able to tabulate the instant runoff much faster. |

Dear RepresentativeNovak,

I am writing in opposition to AB957/SB892 you will be voting on tomorrow.
In a democracy, a state law should not be written to restrict the voices of people living in a community, town or state and this bill seeks to do just that - eliminating Home Rule.

If passed, this bill will undermine the already minimal animal humane standards that currently exist in Wisconsin and will make it difficult for communities to speak up for animals living in inhumane conditions.

Furthermore, as you know SB892 was introduced by Senator Romaine Quinn and the Senator co-sponsored AB957 as well.Senator Quinn represents Wisconsin's 25th District where the Town of Trade Lake in Burnett County is being considered for the state's largest pig farm operation.Trade Lake tax-paying citizens and dozens of other communities around this state have worked hard to protect their water, land and properties from CAFOs over the last few years and their work would be nullified by the language in this bill.
The nullification clause in this bill is broadly defined which would be interpreted (per legal counsel) to mean that any standing municipal ordinances, resolutions or orders which do not comply with AB957 would all be rendered unenforceable.This bill is a disaster!*

As a nature lover and active member of a local township in Waukesha County, I urge you to oppose AB957/SB892.
Thank you,
Amy

Hi Jeff,
I received confirmation that this constituent has received all the WHH and energy assistance funds available to her. She received $7,600 from WHH for property taxes and electric bills in May 2023 and $242 for energy assistance in October 2023. She is not eligible for any further WHH assistance for property taxes. (As she notes, it is a one-time assistance program.) If she has an outstanding energy bill at the end of the winter season (April), she should contact 1-800-506-5596 about crisis assistance to cover her remaining bill.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

The delegates from Barron, Rusk, Sawyer and Washburn Counties have a robust agenda of legislative issues and needs that are at the heart of driving a thriving area of the state. Come explore issues impacting economic development, education, natural resources, public health, transportation, and tourism. Each topic area has a dedicated group presentation where select subject matter experts from the delegation will share with the legislators, staffers and agency representatives about the issues that have the greatest impact on the four counties.

Tourism: Hear about the great opportunities and economic impacts that the Hayward Lakes and Northwest Wisconsin area has on local and state tourism dollars. The HON Counties make big business out of big fun!

Natural Resources: Walleye fishing is a big deal to northern Wisconsin, yet little investments are made to ensure a successful harvest of fish for an area that touts itself as "The Walleye Capital." Let's keep the fishing heritage here instead of allowing other states to reel in the tourism dollars.

Transportation: Work Zone Safety is a continued concern and issue that needs more attention and enforcement opportunities to provide a work environment that ensures everyone arrives home at the end of a work shift. Additionally, surface maintenance funding is an ongoing need to ensure the logistical solution for a sustainable economic driver in Northern Wisconsin.

Economic Development: Workforce certification, training and retention remains a high priority for our rural, northern areas. As the average age continues to increase, the need for reliable and well-trained dental assistants is a growing area of need. The recent bills introduced in the legislature will have a great impact on the dental practices who cannot recruit enough professionals but have the employment capacity to deliver high-quality dental care. Additionally, housing stock for our hard- working workforce who choose northern Wisconsin as home is a needed area of investment. People want to live and move here for our great jobs and low-cost of living but cannot find a reliable place to live. Our group explores some solutions that meet a rural and urban need.

Education (K12-Secondary): The school districts of Barron, Rusk, Sawyer, and Washburn counties are doing amazing work. They provide fantastic opportunities that help our students develop skills to prepare them for the next phases of their lives. Addressing the issues of mental health, office of school safety, and secondary opportunities while in the K-12 system will further strengthen K-16 offerings in the four-county region.

Public Health: Mental health in the four-county region continues to play a large role in maintaining a high-quality of life; however, access to mental health professionals are scarce. Seeking alternative solutions for providing care would provide a life-link for those who need assistance but cannot access local care. Solutions are explored to continue building a resilient area for the hardy folks who live in Northern Wisconsin.

Dear Rep. Donovan,

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

I am pleased to inform you that you have been selected as the Assembly recipient of the 2023 Legislative Excellence Award from the Professional Insurance Agents of Wisconsin.
Despite your short time in the Assembly, you have already become a leader in tackling safety and property issues important to Wisconsinites. We sincerely thank you for your leadership on the reckless driving issue in authoring Wisconsin Acts 1 & 9, expanding the availability of driver's education by authoring Wisconsin Act 86, and helping aid in the prosecution of theft of valuable property by coauthoring Assembly Bill 637. We greatly appreciate your efforts towards increasing safety on our roads, which will help keep down insurance costs for Wisconsinites.
We would love to schedule an award presentation with you and some of our leaders to formally present the award and thank you for your work. Please let us know what would work with your schedule. We would also like to work with your office on coordinating press releases about the award, or timing separate releases if you prefer.
Thank you again for all of your work, and I look forward to hearing from you!

Subject: IRG Action Fund is Making Things Happen

While many of the political headlines in Wisconsin are focused on Governor Evers' State of the State Address from last night, new developments in the ongoing redistricting fight, and new GOP tax plans, the IRG Action team is focused on solving kitchen table issues that matter. While we may have policy disagreements with Gov. Evers, there were areas in his speech where bipartisanship should have a chance. In particular, we are already driving solutions forward in three kitchen table issue areas that he raised teacher apprenticeships, child care access, and mental health access. In fact, all three issues had progress in the capitol recently. Here's what we've done on those, and another important issue - helping workers take home bigger paychecks.

1. Telemental health bill earns bipartisan support and heads to Governor's desk!

Assembly Bill 541was approved on the Senate floor and is headed to the Governor's desk!This is an IRG Action supported proposal (authored by Senator Rachael Cabral-Guevara and Representative Nate Gustafson) to allow out-of-state mental health providers to care for Wisconsin residents via telehealth. Once passed, this will dramatically increase access to care and is a BIG step forward for Wisconsinites who need help.

NEXT STEP: Make Governor Evers keep his word and encourage him to sign the bill!

2.Teacher Apprenticeship Bill Heard in Senate Committee on Education

Yesterday, members of the Senate Committee on Education heard a billauthored by Representative

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Penterman and Senator Feyen that paves the way for the best version of teacher apprenticeship programs in Wisconsin, building on bipartisan success stories from 28 other states. IRG Action's Executive Vice President Chris Reader and IRG's Senior Research Director Quinton Klabon testified in favor of SB 917 because we believe teacher apprenticeships will help solve the teacher shortage, ensure that teachers are better prepared, and ultimately lead to better outcomes for students.

NEXT STEP:The bill needs to be voted out of the Senate Committee on Education and heard in an Assembly Committee. Gov. Evers announced a version of teacher apprenticeships at his State of the State address. Further legislation is needed to perfect what looks like a good start.

3.Helping workers keep what they earn - eliminating income tax on overtime

Last week, IRG Action's Director of State Budget and Government Reform, Alex Ignatowski,testified in the Senate on a bill authored by Senators Patrick Testin, Julian Bradley and Representatives Nate Gustafson and Chanz Green to exempt overtime work and small bonuses from the state income tax. This is good news for workers, and one small step closer to eliminating the income tax overall in Wisconsin. In divided government, we'll take any tax cut we can that helps workers while continuing to drive toward overall elimination.

For more information on what this would mean, check out IRG's briefing here.

NEXT STEP:The bill needs to be heard in the Assembly and voted out of the Senate committee.

4.Improving child care access for workers

In late 2023, the Assembly heard a bill that would provide a tax credit for employers who operate a child care program for their employees. Authored by Representative Armstrong and Senator Feyen, this legislation would help to increase access to child care for working families. Originally scheduled for a hearing in the Senate this week, the bill was unfortunately rescheduled due to the Senate's floor vote on redistricting.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

NEXT STEP:In the Assembly, the bill still needs a vote on the floor. In the Senate, it will be rescheduled for a hearing soon in the Senate Committee on Universities and Revenue. And when it is, IRG Action will be there to testify.

Re: Judicial Security legislation

January 23, 2024

Dear Committee Members,

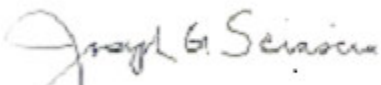
I am writing in support of the various pending legislation pertaining to judicial security, such as AB 965/SB 926 – Picketing and Parading, AB 967/SB 928 – Public Record Exemption of Judicial security Profiles and AB 966/SB 927 – Judicial Officer Privacy.

As you know, the world is a different place than it was a few years ago. Violent attacks on law enforcement and others involved in the judicial system are much more common. It could be argued that a person who decides to get involved in the judicial system accepts the risks inherent in that decision, but their spouses and children, who are often the ultimate victims, should not be subject to those risks.

With regard to the Judicial Officer Privacy bill, AB966/SB927, it is often said that a judge's personal information is "out there" and cannot be protected. You may recall that a few years ago, social security numbers were "out there" on drivers licenses and a lot of other places. Once it was realized that such information needed to be protected, we were able to make it much more difficult for someone to access that information.

The recent murder of Judge Roemer, at a time when he should have been enjoying his retirement, should serve as a warning that the danger is real and that we owe it to the future members of the judicial system to take effective action now. Unfortunately, I am unable to appear in person to support this legislation, so I must confine my remarks to this short letter. Please take action to get this legislation passed as soon as possible.

Respectfully Submitted,



Joseph G. Sciascia

We met in the Hales Corners Park for National Night Out, I was the 'hugger' and extremely happy to meet you, photo below.

I feel we really need to talk in person and would appreciate a visit next time you are back from Madison. My husband and I have been through too much with mental health regarding our son since 2020. Although everything is always apparent that my son needs help, the medical field is never there. Through our 3 year journey of trying everything, including filing a Chapter 51 which a psychiatrist did not back. The law and medical field has never been there to make sure he gets the proper or correct help leading to him finally shooting himself Sunday night. Even with that being said, they still don't know if they can hold him because it may not have been intentional even though his father witnessed it.

I can go on about these type of examples of help we have tried to seek out with no success. This is where I would like to talk personally. Something needs to be done.

To The Assembly Committee on Criminal Justice and Public Safety:

We write in support of the Judicial Security Legislation Package before you for consideration.

The judicial system is a vital part of our government. Judges and court commissioners throughout the state interpret and apply the laws that govern us. Judicial independence is imperative for society's confidence in the courts and the public's trust in its government. Security and safety of judicial officers supports an independent, fair, and competent judiciary. Court officials should not be intimidated, threatened or otherwise placed at risk just for doing their important work.

At the 2023 Annual Meeting of the Wisconsin Judicial Conference, Wisconsin Supreme Court Chief Justice Annette Ziegler addressed judicial security at the gathering stating, "Security enhances our ability to adhere to the basic tenant of judicial independence." We agree with her and believe that the legislation before you promotes judicial independence and therefore, the rule of law.

Thus, we ask that you approve as written AB 967/SB 928 – Public Records Exemption of Judicial Security Profiles and AB 966/SB 927 – Judicial Officer Privacy. We ask the you approve AB 965/SB 926 – Picketing and Parading modified to apply to all judicial officers for the same reasons that the other bills apply to judicial officers. All judicial officers should feel safe and secure in their own homes.

We thank you for taking up these important matters that directly impact the legal system.

I apologize if it seemed dismissive at the time – it was not my intention. I suppose my role in our constitutional republic is rather small and therefore I try and be impactful when I can. I believe that our country is incredibly divided and often do not see eye to eye on issues. Unfortunately, this has boiled over into the street as we have seen conflict sometimes turn violent. While many of these issues are national issues, I will continue to do what I know how to do best. Talking with constituents and gaining new perspective. I am proud that I have been very open and available to constituents over the years – regardless of opinions. If we want to truly bridge the divide in our democracy I believe that we should all be having these conversations. Through then we can perhaps understand more about each other and become less divided. There is no singular person, moment, or policy that will fix our divided country. It will be done on the ground with thousands of conversations. Politics has always thrived at the most basic level where you get to truly understand someone and their views.

I may disagree with those individuals that claim that the 2020 election was stolen, but I think it is healthier to talk with them and truly understand what brought them to this position. Changing hearts and minds takes time and effort, but I believe that strides can be made. I hope that clarifies my position better.

I am always open to meeting with constituents and to have those important conversations. Let me know what your schedule is and I can certainly pass that along to my staff. Thank you again for your thoughts.

Representative Donovan,
I appreciate your prompt response to my email of July 28th. In the past, when we lived in Franklin, most of our representatives didn't even bother responding. I believe the reason for all those non-responses has a lot to do with representatives being in "safe" districts. I'm looking forward to the day when the maps are redrawn to provide fair districts!
You are are to be congratulated on your support for the driver's education grant program. As I'm sure you know, Common Ground of Southeastern Wisconsin was the driving force for a program such as this. I have been involved with Common Ground for several years on a number of successful campaigns that have improved people's lives. Please seehttps://www.commongroundwi.org/
I appreciate that you did provide a list of accomplishments since you have been in office, but I am disappointed that you didn't even attempt to address my concern about threats to our democracy. You pass these off as national issues and so it's OK tojustconcentrate on the 84th district. Well, there were many local players from Wisconsin involved in promoting the myth that the election was stolen as I mentioned previously and it still goes on. As my representative, if you are not doing everything you can to dispel this myth, then you are falling short.
I don't wish to end on a sour note. I do appreciate what you have done since you have been in office, but if we lose our democracy, we have nothing. Perhaps, we can meet in the district over coffee sometime in the coming weeks to kick things around?
Sincerely,
Jerry

Thank you for reaching out to me regarding a multitude of issues regarding our state and our country. I appreciate hearing from you on this important matter.

First, congrats on the move to Greenfield and welcome to the district!

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Please know that I understand your concerns. I think that it is unfortunate that many of the national discussions hinder some of the good that can be accomplished at the state level. As you rightly pointed out, as a Milwaukee Alderman I was not afraid to give my opinion. Additionally, I was willingly to work with anyone that had a common sense approach to an issue. I am again taking that approach to the Legislature.

When I first was inaugurated, I wanted to hit the ground running and that is exactly what I did. I introduced two pieces of legislation, AB 55 & 56, which dealt with punishing reckless drivers and towing reckless vehicles. I spoke with area leaders from both sides of the issue and aisle to gain consensus while finding a solution we could all be proud of. The result was both pieces of legislation were passed by supermajorities in both chambers and signed by Governor Evers.

During the budget cycle, I tried to also implement this approach to deliver wins for Wisconsin and the 84th Assembly District. In the Governors proposed budget, he included a provision for a driver's education grant program. I wanted to make sure a similar proposal was included in the Legislature's budget and decided to author the budget motion. At the end of the budget process, I advocated and supported many proposals that did not benefit one party or another, but Wisconsin as a whole.

The driver's education grant program was awarded $6 million and I recently introduced legislation that would set the parameters for the program. These grants have the ability to help those on free or reduced-price lunches to afford driver education when normally they would have postponed getting a license. I also authored budget motions for $7 million for sound barriers along I-894 and $5 million for University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee health science building renovation. I spent much of the past few months working to ensure these proposal were included in the state budget – ultimately I was successful.

I think the best way to put country over party is to act accordingly. There are things that I don't always agree with my colleagues on, but I am willing to listen to anybody with a shared goal. My ultimate goal as an Alderman was to be a voice for the "little guy" and I was proud to wear that badge every day. As your Assemblyman, I want to again take that mantra which transcends party affiliation and use it as much as I can. From the few short months I've been in office, I believe my record has shown that.

Finally, although national politics are very important, my focus is on the 84th Assembly District. I feel if more people were engaged at a local level our country would be in a much better place. I've had my qualms with both President Trump and President Biden, but I don't think a constant dialogue on either of them benefits the constituents of the 84th. I'm not concerned with any election currently and want to continue focusing on helping improve the lives of all Wisconsinites.

Thank you again for taking the time to reach out to my office and being an engaged citizen – I sincerely appreciate it. Please let me know if you have any additional comments or concerns.

Best wishes,

Bob Donovan

Representative Donovan,

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

We recently moved to the 84th district from Franklin, so we have discovered that you are our new Assembly Representative. We sold our four bedroom home and purchased a condo to make life a bit easier for us. You are rather new in this district too, so I guess we have that in common as well as residents of Greenfield. So far, we are enjoying living here very much.

I sure wish I had more positive thoughts to share with you, but I feel that this is not the same state that I knew even 20 years ago. I was appalled to watch Robin Vos sucking up to Trump while flying around in his plane and then at Trump's request, hiring the corrupt Gableman to conduct a phony investigation of voter fraud...costing the taxpayers a few million. Then, the fake electors, who really should be facing prison time.. Then there was the Wisconsin congressional GOP representatives voting not to authorize the results of the election. And, to this day, about 50% of Republicans nationally still believe the election was stolen. How alarming is that!

So, my major concern is about the viability of our Democracy. We have allowed one terribly corrupt individual to divide the country as it has never been divided since before since the civil war, while most of the politicians in his party sit on their hands out of fear of offending his base. Where are their spines! Isn't this about country before party? Don't you find it exceedingly ironic that Milwaukee is hosting the GOP national convention?

Fortunately, we do have a couple of positive things to look forward to in this state. I am greatly looking forward to the corrupt district maps being redrawn so we can have fair elections again, and the woman's right to choose being restored. These things cannot happen too soon.

As a Milwaukee alderman, you had the reputation of speaking your mind. So, in your reply to me, please state how you will put country first and party second. How will you speak out against the danger to democracy? And, should Trump secure the GOP nomination, will you support him?

Best regards,

Jerry Fredrickson

To Whom It May Concern:

I have been a judge for almost 15 years and have handled many high-profile, emotionally charged cases over the years. It is not easy to tell people they are going to prison or might lose their rights to their children. I understand that part of the challenge of this job is making unpopular decisions and that, as a public figure, I relinquish some of my privacy rights. However there are certain laws that can enhance judges' safety, and the proposed legislation strikes the right balance. Therefore, I urge you to adopt:

AB 965/SB 926 – Picketing and Parading
AB 967/SB 928 – Public Record Exemption of Judicial security Profiles
AB 966/SB 927 – Judicial Officer Privacy

Thank you for your consideration.

Very truly yours,

RE: Judicial Security Legislation
Bills: AB 965/SB 926
AB 967/SB 928
AB 966/SB 927

Dear Legislators,

I write in full support of the proposed Judicial Security Package that includes the Bills noted above, and request you approve them as written.

As a current judicial officer who is a victim of threats by a convicted defendant who is about to be released, and as a previous prosecutor who has heard from other judges who are victims of threats against them, I can personally attest to the stress and anxiety caused by this. Knowing that it is so easy for anyone to find personal information to locate me and/or my family is a constant reminder of the threats I have received.

These proposed Bills at least provide some protection to judicial officers and their family members while still maintaining individual constitutional rights.

I strongly urge you to pass this legislation to try to provide some assistance in protecting those who take an oath to serve the people of this state every day.

Respectfully,

Annette M. Barna

Dear legislative committee:

I write to support the following bills:

- AB 965 Picketing and Parading

  If there is dissatisfaction with a particular judge, that issue should be taken up at the ballot box. The administration of justice requires that it be done without fear of retribution from disgruntled litigants. Judges are to apply the law to the facts of a given case. There is no room for fear in that equation.

- AB 966 – Judicial Officer Privacy

  As with each of these bills, I would have thought that personal information of judges would be protected for obvious reasons. I find it a bit unsettling that the bill allows 72 hours, after a request, to remove a judge's personal information. That said, this is better than no protection.

- AB 967/SB 928 Public Records Exemption of Judicial Security Profiles

  I am shocked that these records are not already protected. The security profile gives would be assailants a map of a judge's home, as well as specific information on the judge and his family members. The profile provides all the information one would need to carry out an attack on a judge in their home. I never would have filled a profile out, had I known it was available to would-be attackers. It is meant to aid police in the event of an attack, not to provide assistance to the attacker.

These are common sense bills that are necessary to protect the judiciary and their families. I urge the committee to expedite them.

Very truly yours

RE: JUDICIAL SECURITY PACKAGE BILLS

Dear Honorable Members of the Assembly Committee:

Judge Boyle and I strongly support the passage of AB 965/SB 926, AB 967/SB 928, and AB 966/SB 927 which relate to the safety of Judges in Wisconsin. Judges are increasingly the focus of the anger of litigants and other individuals and these bills assist in protecting the privacy and safety of Judges throughout the State. These bills not only protect the safety and privacy of the Judges but also for their families. We urge you to adopt these three bills.

Judicial Security Package

January 2024

Background

Over the past several years, the need for additional judicial security has been well-recognized, both at the state and federal level. In recent years, the Wisconsin Court System has been involved in cases that have attracted national media attention due to the nature of the cases. In 2022, following the killing of a retired circuit court judge, the Chief Justice prioritized improving the security and safety of all of the judicial officers in the court system. The goal of this particular legislative package is to address three discrete areas of judicial safety. It first creates a picketing/protesting prohibition applicable to judicial residences. Second, it exempts from disclosure under the Public Records Law judicial security profiles, which judicial officers complete and submit to law enforcement to assist in the development of an emergency response plan. The final third element increases privacy protections for judicial officers by exempting personal information from release pursuant to public records requests and creating a process for judicial officers who so choose, to limit the public availability of their personal information.

AB 965/SB 926 – Picketing and Parading

This bill recognizes the public policy and legal boundary between demonstrators' constitutional rights to free speech and assembly and judges' rights to feel safe and secure in their homes and in the carrying out of their constitutional duties.

The bill:

- Creates a Class A misdemeanor to picket, parade, or demonstrate at or near any residence occupied by a judge with the intent to interfere with, obstruct, or impede the administration of justice or with the intent to influence any judge in the discharge of his or her duty.
- Based on 18 U.S.C. § 1507 – Picketing or Parading.
    - Removes the prohibition found in 18.U.S.C. § 1507 against picketing, parading or demonstrating at, in, or near a building housing a court thus limiting the bill to prohibit individuals from picketing, parading or demonstrating in or near the residence or residences of a judge.
- Includes such conduct at a judge's secondary residence.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

AB 967/SB 928 – Public Records Exemption of Judicial Security Profiles

This bill explicitly exempts from disclosure under the public records law the judicial security profiles, which judges complete and submit to law enforcement to assist in the development of an emergency response plan. These documents contain personal details of a judge and family members. This information is very detailed to enable an effective emergency response. There is some hesitancy to complete such profiles. An exemption from disclosure under the public records law would reduce hesitancy and provide law enforcement with an important tool in protecting judges.

The bill:

- Creates a new public records law exemption similar to those found in Wis. Stat. 19.36, to exempt from disclosure judicial security profiles completed by or on behalf of judges to assist law enforcement in the creation of an emergency response plan.
- Creates consistency and an ability for local authorities to easily recognize the forms subject to this exemption by requiring such profiles to be on a form approved by the Director of State Courts.

AB 966/SB 927 – Judicial Officer Privacy

This bill aims to recognize that public officials such as judges are at risk of harm as a result of carrying out their duties. From a public policy perspective, the goal is to protect these at-risk public servants against the disclosure or publishing of their personal information. The bill was originally based on the Illinois Judicial Privacy Act, 705 ILCS 90/; California's comparable Inspection of Public Records Law, California Government Code 6254.21; and the Federal Daniel Anderl Judicial Security and Privacy Act of 2022.

The bill:

- Establishes privacy protections for judicial officers and a procedure for a judicial officer to complete a written request for protection of the personal information of the judicial officer and the judicial officer's immediate family.
- Exempts a judicial officer's personal information from public records requests unless the agency has received consent to make the information available to the public.
- Requires a government agency, upon receipt of a written request for privacy protections from a judicial officer, to refrain from publicly posting or displaying publicly available content that includes a judicial officer's personal information. Upon receipt of the written request, the agency must remove the personal information within five business days and may not publicly post or display the information.
- Requires all persons, businesses, and associations, upon receipt of a written request for privacy protections from a judicial officer, to refrain from publicly posting or displaying on the Internet publicly available content that includes the personal information of the judicial officer or the judicial officer's immediate family. The prohibition does not apply to personal information that the judicial officer or an immediate family member of the judicial officer voluntarily publishes on the Internet after the bill goes into effect or personal information lawfully received from a state or federal government source, including from an employee or agent of the state or federal government.

    - After a person, business, or association has received a written request from a judicial officer, the person, business, or association must, within 72 hours of the request, remove the personal information from the Internet; ensure that the judicial officer's personal information is not made available on any website or subsidiary website controlled by that person, business, or association; and identify any other instances of the identified information that should also be removed.
    - Once a written request is received, no person, business, or association may transfer the judicial officer's personal information to any other person, business, or association through any medium, except for personal information that the judicial officer or an immediate family member of the judicial officer voluntarily publishes on the Internet after the bill goes into effect, or if a transfer is made at the request of the judicial officer or is necessary to effectuate a request to the person, business, or association from the judicial officer.
- Expressly prohibits a data broker, as defined in the bill, from knowingly selling, licensing, trading, purchasing, or otherwise making available for consideration the personal information of a judicial officer or a judicial officer's immediate family.
- Permits a candidate for a judicial office, instead of having his or her name and residential address listed on nomination papers, to file a certification of residence with the Elections Commission before circulating nomination papers.
    - A judicial officer circulating nomination papers on behalf of a candidate for a nonpartisan office, or signing nomination papers supporting a candidate for a nonpartisan office, may similarly file a certification of residence with the Elections Commission before circulating or signing nomination papers.
    - Requires the commission, by rule, to verify the address provided in the certification of residence.
- Defines “judicial officer” to include actively employed and former or deceased Justices of the Wisconsin Supreme Court, Judges of the Wisconsin Court of Appeals, Judges of the Circuit Courts of Wisconsin, Municipal Judges in Wisconsin, and Circuit Court Commissioners in Wisconsin.
- A judicial officer whose personal information is made public in violation of the bill may bring an action seeking injunctive or declaratory relief.
- The penalty section contains a good faith exception for employees of government agencies that published personal information in good faith on the website of a government agency in the ordinary course of carrying out public functions.
- A person commits a Class G felony if the person knowingly publicly posts or displays on the internet personal information of a judicial officer or a judicial officer’s immediate family, the person intends the public posting or display to create or increase a threat to the health and safety of the judicial officer, and bodily injury or death of the judicial officer or a family member of the judicial officer is a natural and probable consequence.
- The bill has a delayed effective date of six months from enactment.

To the Assembly Committee on Criminal Justice and Public Safety,

As the committee is certainly aware, judges around the nation have recently faced increased violent, even fatal, attacks. Many courthouses have already undertaken increased security measures, but there remain substantial threats to our personal safety and that of our families at our private homes, as well. We have no way to know which of the threats we all receive are serious threats, or which person who feels aggrieved by a ruling we made will decide to respond with violence. These are unfortunate realities of today's world, and we appreciate every effort to bolster our ability to protect ourselves and our families.

We emphatically support this package of proposed legislation as vital efforts to ensure our safety outside our workplaces. We take our responsibilities very seriously, but have to think long and hard about whether the danger we face, and the danger our families face as a result of our careers are worth it. This is a call no person should have to make. We unanimously urge you to pass AB 965/SB 926, AB 967/SB 928 – Public Record Exemption of Judicial Security Profiles, and AB 966/SB 927 – Judicial Officer Privacy.

Thank you for your service to our state and your attention to this very serious matter.

Sincerely yours,

Re: AB 965/SB 926 – Picketing and Parading
AB 967/SB 928 – Public Record Exemption of Judicial security Profiles
AB 966/SB 927 – Judicial Officer Privacy

Dear Ms. Bowler:

I am writing in support of AB 965/SB 926 – Picketing and Parading, AB 967/SB 928 – Public Record Exemption of Judicial security Profiles and AB 966/SB 927 – Judicial Officer Privacy.

I was unaware the bills were already up for public hearing.

I am one of two judges here in Calumet County. It is a fairly small, mostly rural community with the highest population density in the northern part of the county. Even in a small county like this we have need of these laws. My predecessor, Judge Donald Poppy, had his home picketed by animal rights groups while presiding over a case some years ago. I am presiding over a case right now where the defendant told law enforcement at the time of his arrest that he "knew where the Judge's cabin was". After his last court appearance, the defendant went into the Clerk of Court's Office and proclaimed "that judge needs to be slapped".

I have heard similar stories from my fellow judges. Two years ago, an individual filed for an injunction in my court for a restraining order against a number of government officials including Sheboygan County Judge Samantha Bastil. This legislation is overdue.

Thank you for your time.

The Assembly Committee on Criminal Justice and Public Safety

Dear Committee Members:

We have reviewed the three bills related to judicial security, Assembly Bills 965, 966 and 967 that are on for a public hearing on January 24th. Unfortunately, we are not able to attend and provide testimony.

While we are not able to attend, we do fully support each of these bills. Judicial security is a significant issue and has come more to the forefront over the last couple of years with the killing of a retired circuit court judge in an adjacent county to ours. In addition, there have been many instances across the country that support the strong need to address security for the judiciary. The bills address privacy for judges and an increased ability for us and our families to feel safe and secure in our homes. The proposed legislative efforts are an excellent step toward providing more safety and security for our entire judiciary, our spouses, significant others, and children.

Thank you for your consideration. If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out to us.

RE: Judicial Security Bills AB 965/SB926, AB 967/SB928, and AB 966/SB 927

To Whom It May Concern:

We have just received copies of the Judicial Security Package Summary along with copies of the following bills:

- AB 967/SB 928: Public Record Exemption of Judicial Security Profiles
- AB 966/SB 927: Judicial Officer Privacy

We are writing to support the passing of these bills. In the past few years, the Judiciary has come under greater threat of harm. With the passing of these bills, it will help our Judiciary continue to do our jobs with more security, safety, and peace of mind. Thank you for your time.

January 23, 2024

To the Members of the Assembly Committee on Criminal Justice and Public Safety:

My name is Pamela Pepper. I am chief judge of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Wisconsin. I sit in Milwaukee. As a federal judge sitting in Wisconsin, I write to urge you to support AB 965/SB926, AB966/SB927 and AB967/SB928.

The Daniel Anderl Judicial Security and Privacy Act was signed into law on December 23, 2022. That law—named after the slain son of my colleague, U.S. District Judge Esther Salas of the District of New Jersey—severely limits the availability of federal judges' personally identifiable information in federal databases and restricts data aggregators from reselling such information. But as significant and critical as the Daniel Anderl Judicial Security and Privacy Act is, it does not afford the same protections to state court judges. Nor does it limit the availability of any judge's personally identifiable information in state and local databases. Without legislation such as proposed AB 965, AB 966 and AB 967, individuals who seek to harm Wisconsin judges or their families, or improperly influence Wisconsin judges, can obtain personally identifiable information about those judges from state and local databases. As Wisconsinites learned in the summer of 2022 when former Juneau County Circuit Court Judge John Roemer was murdered at his home by someone he'd sentenced years earlier, public access to a judge's personal identifying information can have tragic consequences for judges, whose decisions frequently disappoint or anger one party or the other, and for their loved ones. Less than three months ago, Judge Andrew Wilkinson of the Washington County Circuit Court in Maryland was shot and killed in the driveway of his home by a litigant against whom he'd ruled. A litigant with a judge's personal information can send threatening correspondence or other items to a judge's home. In December 1989 during the holiday season, a litigant sent a mail bomb to the home of Judge Robert Vance of the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals. When Judge Vance opened that package, it killed him and seriously injured his wife. That bomb was one of what turned out to be four mail bombs sent by former litigant Walter Leroy Moody; of those four bombs, one killed Judge Vance and another was intercepted at the federal courthouse in Atlanta. People wishing ill will toward a judge can use personal identifying information to cause financial consequences that can be dire; they can put liens on a judge's home, encumbering real estate and causing tax consequences. There are too many stories like these. Almost every judge—local, state or federal—who has been on the bench for any length of time has stories of threats or near tragedies, and most judges know at least one colleague who has faced the kinds of tragedies that the families of Judge Vance, Judge Salas, Judge Roemer, Judge Wilkinson and others have endured.

A fair and impartial judicial branch is a cornerstone of our American democratic system of government. For the judicial system to be fair and impartial, judges must decide cases based on the facts before them and the law that binds them, not based on fear for their lives and safety or the lives and safety of their loved ones. The package of judicial security bills made up of AB 965, AB 966 and AB 967 resembles bills passed in other states (including Judge Salas's home state of New Jersey) and bills being considered in other state legislatures. Passage of judicial security litigation is critical to reduce the risks to the safety of Wisconsin judges and to support the fair and impartial administration of justice for the people of Wisconsin. I urge you to support this vital legislation.

Sincerely,

Hon. Pamela Pepper

RE: Pending legislation

To the members of the Assembly Committee on Criminal Justice and Public Safety:

The Fond du Lac County Judges are writing to support the pending legislation as it relates to judicial security. We are in support of the following pending bills: AB 965/SB 926 (Picketing and Parading), AB 967/SB 928 (Public Record Exemption of Judicial Security Profiles), and AB 966/SB 927 (Judicial Officer Privacy).

We believe that this proposed legislation is appropriate to address judicial safety concerns. As the members of our legislature know, the judiciary has been subject to physical attacks both at home and in the courtroom. Judicial independence is a cornerstone of our constitutional democracy. The judiciary should not be subjected to personal attacks or intimidation. Therefore, judicial safety is a method of enforcing our nation's bedrock principles of independence and protection of the rule of law.

We appreciate your time and your attention to these bills.

To the Members of the Assembly Committee on Criminal Justice and Public Safety:

I am a Sheboygan County Circuit Court Judge. Although I, along with my colleagues in Sheboygan County, sent a general letter in support of the pending legislation related to judicial security, I am sending this separate letter relevant to two death threats I received last year.

The first involved a litigant named Jeffery Freye. He filed multiple letters and documents directing anger toward me and others. I eventually recused myself from his case after two incidents: First, on January 11, 2023, he entered the courthouse and attempted to leave a pound of meat for me. It was wrapped in white butcher paper, and was leaking a red substance consistent with raw meat. He wrote a message on the packaging to the effect of "Here is some burger to Freye and burn like you burned me." He spelled the word Freye to mirror the spelling of his last name. He left the package with my court reporter. Deputy Tennessen of the Sheriff's Department was able to intercept the package and it was returned to Mr. Freye with a warning to stop his behavior. Thereafter, I received a letter from Mr. Freye, which included a statement that he hopes I vomit, that someday I will be a rock or an albatross filled with plastic, and most concerning, that he couldn't wait until he is an owl and can silently attack and puncture my lungs. As a result of his escalating behavior, I was advised to file a complaint with law enforcement. I did so, but it is my understanding he was given a second verbal warning. The incidents were not prosecuted, nor was he detained under a mental health hold. Court security implemented measures to ensure my safety at work, but there is nothing in place to prevent him from accessing my home address and other personal information. Indeed, I am sure he is aware of my address. He is computer savvy and told my court reporter he knew her address because he had found it online.

The second threat occurred in May of last year. Law enforcement approached me to warn me a past litigant named Alfred Lee Hudson had made a perceived threat to kill me or my family. As a result of the threat, Mr. Hudson was arrested and charged with Threat to an Officer of the Court, a Class H Felony, Disorderly Conduct, a Class B Misdemeanor, and Telephone Harassment, a Class B Misdemeanor, all with repeater enhancers. That case is still pending (see Sheboygan County case 23 CF 466), though it is being prosecuted out of county for obvious reasons. That threat took me by surprise since I had not had any contact with Mr. Hudson since I had sentenced him to probation in another criminal case approximately a year earlier.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Both of the people who made the threats have mental health concerns. Both have acted irrationally. And both can easily access my home address.

I personally know four other judges who have received serious threats in the last few years. As public officials, we all accept our jobs carry a certain amount of risk. My concern, and the concern of my colleagues that received threats, are not primarily for ourselves, but for our families. The pending legislation is necessary to protect judicial independence and the rule of law. But on a personal level, it is also necessary to protect our loved ones. I hope you will support the passage of each bill.

Dear Representative Tusler,

The legislature, in enacting Wis. Stat. §940.203(1)(b), recognized a broad definition of "judge" when criminalizing behavior directed toward certain court officials; that same breadth of definition should likewise apply in the above referenced bills.

I am a Circuit Court Judge in Racine County and would like this letter to serve as my full support and endorse and encourage the passage of AB 965/SB 926; AB967/SB 928 and AB966/SB 927.

The Racine Judiciary, along with other courts throughout the country, have been the subject of ridicule, insult, and physical assault for rulings they courageously have made. Harassment in the form of UCC liens filed against their property to outright threats requiring law enforcement intervention have existed and unfortunately been on the rise. These events have created real concern for the safety of ourselves and our families.

The above-referenced litigation would go a long way to providing security and protection for members of the judiciary, their property, and their families. Please pass these important bills.

I am authorized to advise the following members of the Racine County Judiciary agree with the content of this letter:

Dear Committee Members:

Please accept this letter as support for the judicial security package which includes AB 965/SB 926 – Picketing and Parading, AB 967/SB 928- Public Record Exemption of Judicial Security Profiles, and AB 966/SB 927- Judicial Officer Privacy.

Providing privacy protections for judicial officers is imperative to ensure that judicial officers and their families feel secure in their own homes. Establishing methods that create exemptions from public disclosure, such as not requiring judicial officers to provide home addresses on nomination papers, will allow for performing constitutionally mandated responsibilities without the concern of being confronted at home.

There have been several instances of unhappy litigants appearing at my personal residence. On one occasion, a defendant went to my home when both my husband and I were at work, scaring my teenage children by pacing back and forth in front of my home, and yelling complaints in an aggressive manner. He refused to leave until law enforcement arrived. Another time, a litigant came to my address, and began taking photographs of my home in what I perceived as an attempt to intimidate me.

Incidents like these concerned my family, leaving us feeling vulnerable. Currently, it is not difficult to gain access to the personal information of judicial officials such as home addresses. I strongly support the proposed legislation as the personal information of judicial officials would be much less available to the public.

Thank you for your consideration of this proposed legislation.

Good morning,
As a reminder, earlier this year LTSB updated the voter and public datasets with the new district numbers. If your office has not requested the updated data since May 2022, your Forward database will not contain the updated geocoded data.
To request the most recent data, begin by opening Forward and clicking Import, then select the datasets that you would like to have imported. In January, "future" data will become "current" data.

Good afternoon,

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Updated voter data is now available to request for import into Forward. This data has been updated to include 2021 districts. You may be prompted to close and re-open Forward as a result of this change.
For more information on requesting this updated data, please visit this help page: http://ltsb/forward/forward-election-data/
Here are a few additional things to be mindful of:
Geocode any remaining addresses
Some addresses may not have been successfully geocoded. To learn how to find these addresses and geocode them, please visit this help page: http://ltsb/forward/updating-future-district-info-to-groups/
~~Public Data not yet geocoded~~
~~As outlined below, public data (DNR, etc.) has not been geocoded to the 2021 district boundaries. While requesting imports of this data is still possible, the data will not include the 2021 boundaries until Friday, May 20th. LTSB will send an additional communication when this is available.~~
Sharing Data between offices (via spreadsheet imports)
Due to district boundary changes, offices may be interested in sharing data with each other. LTSB recommends that offices wait to share data until after all the voter and public data sets have been geocoded (i.e. Friday, May 20th). To learn more about sharing data to another office, please visit this help page: http://ltsb/forward/forward-redistricting-2021-sharing-data/
LTSB understands the importance of this data for you and your office, and we expect heavy demand in the upcoming weeks. We ask for patience as we process your requests.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

I apologize if it seemed dismissive at the time – it was not my intention. I suppose my role in our constitutional republic is rather small and therefore I try and be impactful when I can. I believe that our country is incredibly divided and often do not see eye to eye on issues. Unfortunately, this has boiled over into the street as we have seen conflict sometimes turn violent. While many of these issues are national issues, I will continue to do what I know how to do best. Talking with constituents and gaining new perspective. I am proud that I have been very open and available to constituents over the years – regardless of opinions. If we want to truly bridge the divide in our democracy I believe that we should all be having these conversations. Through then we can perhaps understand more about each other and become less divided. There is no singular person, moment, or policy that will fix our divided country. It will be done on the ground with thousands of conversations. Politics has always thrived at the most basic level where you get to truly understand someone and their views.
I may disagree with those individuals that claim that the 2020 election was stolen, but I think it is healthier to talk with them and truly understand what brought them to this position. Changing hearts and minds takes time and effort, but I believe that strides can be made. I hope that clarifies my position better.

I am always open to meeting with constituents and to have those important conversations. Let me know what your schedule is and I can certainly pass that along to my staff. Thank you again for your thoughts.
Best wishes,

Representative Donovan,

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

I appreciate your prompt response to my email of July 28th. In the past, when we lived in Franklin, most of our representatives didn't even bother responding. I believe the reason for all those non-responses has a lot to do with representatives being in "safe" districts. I'm looking forward to the day when the maps are redrawn to provide fair districts!
You are are to be congratulated on your support for the driver's education grant program. As I'm sure you know, Common Ground of Southeastern Wisconsin was the driving force for a program such as this. I have been involved with Common Ground for several years on a number of successful campaigns that have improved people's lives. Please seehttps://www.commongroundwi.org/
I appreciate that you did provide a list of accomplishments since you have been in office, but I am disappointed that you didn't even attempt to address my concern about threats to our democracy. You pass these off as national issues and so it's OK tojustconcentrate on the 84th district. Well, there were many local players from Wisconsin involved in promoting the myth that the election was stolen as I mentioned previously and it still goes on. As my representative, if you are not doing everything you can to dispel this myth, then you are falling short.
I don't wish to end on a sour note. I do appreciate what you have done since you have been in office, but if we lose our democracy, we have nothing. Perhaps, we can meet in the district over coffee sometime in the coming weeks to kick things around?
Sincerely,
Jerry

Jerry,

Thank you for reaching out to me regarding a multitude of issues regarding our state and our country. I appreciate hearing from you on this important matter.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

First, congrats on the move to Greenfield and welcome to the district!

Please know that I understand your concerns. I think that it is unfortunate that many of the national discussions hinder some of the good that can be accomplished at the state level. As you rightly pointed out, as a Milwaukee Alderman I was not afraid to give my opinion. Additionally, I was willingly to work with anyone that had a common sense approach to an issue. I am again taking that approach to the Legislature.

When I first was inaugurated, I wanted to hit the ground running and that is exactly what I did. I introduced two pieces of legislation, AB 55 & 56, which dealt with punishing reckless drivers and towing reckless vehicles. I spoke with area leaders from both sides of the issue and aisle to gain consensus while finding a solution we could all be proud of. The result was both pieces of legislation were passed by supermajorities in both chambers and signed by Governor Evers.

During the budget cycle, I tried to also implement this approach to deliver wins for Wisconsin and the 84th Assembly District. In the Governors proposed budget, he included a provision for a driver's education grant program. I wanted to make sure a similar proposal was included in the Legislature's budget and decided to author the budget motion. At the end of the budget process, I advocated and supported many proposals that did not benefit one party or another, but Wisconsin as a whole.

The driver's education grant program was awarded $6 million and I recently introduced legislation that would set the parameters for the program. These grants have the ability to help those on free or reduced-price lunches to afford driver education when normally they would have postponed getting a license. I also authored budget motions for $7 million for sound barriers along I-894 and $5 million for University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee health science building renovation. I spent much of the past few months working to ensure these proposal were included in the state budget – ultimately I was successful.

I think the best way to put country over party is to act accordingly. There are things that I don't always agree with my colleagues on, but I am willing to listen to anybody with a shared goal. My ultimate goal as an Alderman was to be a voice for the "little guy" and I was proud to wear that badge every day. As your Assemblyman, I want to again take that mantra which transcends party affiliation and use it as much as I can.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

From the few short months I've been in office, I believe my record has shown that.

Finally, although national politics are very important, my focus is on the 84th Assembly District. I feel if more people were engaged at a local level our country would be in a much better place. I've had my qualms with both President Trump and President Biden, but I don't think a constant dialogue on either of them benefits the constituents of the 84th. I'm not concerned with any election currently and want to continue focusing on helping improve the lives of all Wisconsinites.

Thank you again for taking the time to reach out to my office and being an engaged citizen – I sincerely appreciate it. Please let me know if you have any additional comments or concerns.

Best wishes,

Subject: Introducing Ourselves

Representative Donovan,

We recently moved to the 84th district from Franklin, so we have discovered that you are our new Assembly Representative. We sold our four bedroom home and purchased a condo to make life a bit easier for us. You are rather new in this district too, so I guess we have that in common as well as residents of Greenfield. So far, we are enjoying living here very much.

I sure wish I had more positive thoughts to share with you, but I feel that this is not the same state that I knew even 20 years ago. I was appalled to watch Robin Vos sucking up to Trump while flying around in his plane and then at Trump's request, hiring the corrupt Gableman to conduct a phony investigation of voter fraud...costing the taxpayers a few million. Then, the fake electors, who really should be facing prison time.. Then there was the Wisconsin congressional GOP representatives voting not to authorize the results of the election. And, to this day, about 50% of Republicans nationally still believe the election was stolen. How alarming is that!

So, my major concern is about the viability of our Democracy. We have allowed one terribly corrupt individual to divide the country as it has never been divided since before since the civil war, while most of the politicians in his party sit on their hands out of fear of offending his base. Where are their spines! Isn't this about country before party? Don't you find it exceedingly ironic that Milwaukee is hosting the GOP national convention?

Fortunately, we do have a couple of positive things to look forward to in this state. I am greatly looking forward to the corrupt district maps being redrawn so we can have fair elections again, and the woman's right to choose being restored. These things cannot happen too soon.

As a Milwaukee alderman, you had the reputation of speaking your mind. So, in your reply to me, please state how you will put country first and party second. How will you speak out against the danger to democracy? And, should Trump secure the GOP nomination, will you support him?

Best regards,

Jerry Fredrickson

Jean,

I respectful disagree. You are copying and pasting from articles that were posted before any amendments were adopted.
I might also add that this is the not the first time a proposal has been brought to the Assembly floor without public comment. Various iterations of "fair map" proposals have been brought to the floor multiple times over the past decade without a hearing. Also, because of Senate rules, AB 415 would be required to have a public hearing. The public will have ample opportunity for input on this issue.
I would also like to draw attention to the multitude of amendments just to set the record straight.
Amendment 1: "(f) The legislative reference bureau shall provide assistance to the commission regarding the operations of the commission.".
This amendment clarifies that the Legislative Reference Bureau (LRB) would assist the commission in an advisory role. The commission is made up of nominations from both the equal parts majority and minority parties. This was done to alleviate concerns that the commission was a toothless body with no ability to consult with LRB. This fixes that.
Amendment 2: "(3m) A plan delivered under this section may only be passed by a bipartisan vote.".
This amendment is very straight forward that in order to pass any LRB redistricting proposal it must pass with a bipartisan vote. No one party can overrule the other. This amendment passed in bipartisan fashion.
Amendment 3: "No commission member may abstain from any vote taken by the commission on any matter before the commission, and no vote may be taken by the commission without all 5 members of the commission present and voting.".
This was another concern that certain sides of the commission would stall proceedings by being absent or abstaining. This would prevent that very thing, ensuring that the commission must vote and vote when all members are present. This amendment passed in bipartisan fashion.
Amendment 4: "The commission members shall, upon the legislative reference bureau's recommendation, appoint a person with expertise in the federal Voting Rights Act to provide the commission guidance regarding federal Voting Rights Act compliance.".
Although I believe both sides of the aisle attempt to adhere to the special considerations in the federal Voting Rights Act (VRA), this amendment was created to codify it. This will ensure that the VRA continues to be complied with and that interest groups are not broken up to make advantages for one side or the other. This amendment passed in bipartisan fashion.
Amendment 5: 1. Page 8, line 11: after "3rd" insert "or subsequent". 2. Page 8, line 17: delete lines 17 and 18 and substitute "than 7 days after the date of introduction, in the same manner as prescribed for the bills required under subs. (1) and (2). No plan may be considered and voted on after January 31 of the 2nd year following the federal decennial census.".
The reasoning behind this amendment can be best described by LRBs summary of the amendments. "AA5 removes the provision allowing a third bill embodying a redistricting plan to be subject to the ordinary rules of amendment. Instead, AA5 provides that the third and all subsequent bills embodying a legislative redistricting plan should be considered in the same manner as prescribed for the initial and second bills, so there may be no amendments except those of a purely corrective nature." This directly address your previous statement from an article which said, "upon the third round*the legislature could draw the maps just like any other bill*." This amendment passed in bipartisan fashion.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Amendment 6: 1. Page 15, line 21: delete “3" and substitute “8". 2. Page 15, line 23: after “Madison" insert “, one public hearing shall be held in a city of the first class,".
This amendment ensures that there will be a total of 8 public hearings across the state regarding redistricting. This bill also ensures that at least one of the hearings in the City of Milwaukee. This amendment passed in bipartisan fashion.
Amendment 7: 1. Page 16, line 9: after “policies" insert “, consistent with s. 13.92 (1) (c) and notwithstanding s. 19.35 (1),". 2. Page 16, line 14: after “census." insert “Upon the plan's introduction, the legislative reference bureau shall make the drafting file of the plan available for public inspection.".
This amendment clarifies that the drafting file follows similar rules to that of other bill drafting procedures that have been used for years for legislation. Additionally, it ensures that LRB publicly posts the drafting file for public inspection. This amendment passed in bipartisan fashion.
All of these amendments make the bill better than the original and most were done in bipartisan fashion. I think discounting a good idea because of dated media reports is not constructive to good legislation. I hope this provides some added context regarding the situation. Here are some more resources.

That's not true Stephan.
Speaker Vos announced what he calls “a non-partisan redistricting commission similar to the ‘Iowa’ model" because he is afraid that he does not have the votes to impeach and remove Justice Janet Protasiewicz.

AB 415would not actually create a true nonpartisan redistricting process. Under AB 415, the legislature can vote down maps drawn by the nonpartisan commission and upon the third round*the legislature could draw the maps just like any other bill*.The result is that Speaker Vos would still control redistricting and the legislature could still draw gerrymandered maps like the ones we have now. You can read a statement in opposition to AB 415 written by theWisconsin Fair Maps coalition that includes quotes from the League of Women’s Voters Wisconsin, the Wisconsin Democracy Campaign, and the Wisconsin Conservation Voters here.

AB 415 never had a public hearing, is an illegitimate attempt to distract from the unpopularity of impeaching Justice Janet Protasiewicz, and would not lead to fair maps or fair political representation for Wisconsin voters. For these reasons and more, democratic Representatives voted against AB 415.

Rep. Donovan was not a part of the "Big Lie," fake auits or any of the other things that you mentioned. He merely wants to deliver solutions and permanent ones that will not change every decade. Rep. Donovan believes that is something we can all get behind. AB 415 would require 3 up or down votes to pass new legislative maps. If maps are passed, the Governor still has the ability to veto them. Additionally, if maps are passed and vetoed they will most likely go back to the Supreme Court of Wisconsin – thus meeting at the same place we started. There is an incentive to pass bipartisan legislative maps without drawing a Governor veto or introducing the issue to the courts.
I hope that clears up some of the confusion.

Speaker Vos (R-Rochester) and Senate Majority LeaderDevin LeMahieu(R-Oostburg) now seem intent on utilizing SB 488/AB 415 as a means of heading off an unfavorable decision (to them) by the Wisconsin Supreme Court on their current, gerrymandered maps. In both AB 415 and SB 488 there is a provision that would put the redistricting process in effect immediately, for 2024 -- essentially negating any decision the WI Supreme Court might render on the 2021-22 maps.

Here are some other points of major concern in SB 488/AB 415:
- The consensus from the previous lead legislative sponsors of the Iowa Model Legislation in 2021, Sen.Jeff Smith(D-Brunswick) and Rep.Deb Andraca(D-Whitefish Bay), is that even if Republicans sought and accepted amendments from Democrats to improve SB 488, it is likely that the absolutely necessary 75 percent "safeguard" stipulation included in the 2019 and 2021 versions of the legislation but not included in AB 415 or SB 488, would NOT be acceptable to the Republicans. The provision requires that any partisan redistricting plan not devised by the nonpartisan Legislative Reference Bureau must attain at least 75 percent of the votes in both legislative chambers to pass, thus ensuring wide, bipartisan support and consensus. Without this provision, SB 488 is utterly unsupportable.
- The measure restricting the number of times the Legislature could reject LRB maps before the State Supreme Court would draw them (which is included in Iowa's statutes) is not included in AB 415/SB 488. There must be a finite number of times that LRB maps can be rejected.
- Therefore, the Legislature by a simple majority, could vote to reject all non-partisan maps until the deadline for the redistricting process and then ram through their own, partisan maps.

Rest assured that I will keep your thoughts in mind should a proposal come before me for a Floor vote. Again, thank you for making your voice heard and being an active participant in state government.

The legal challenges that happen every decade over legislative maps drain state resources, state time, and ultimately your tax dollars. It seems that Wisconsin has had constant questions regarding redistricting for decades with no end in sight. I believe that Wisconsin must move toward a permanent solution that provides stability going forward.

That is why I was proud to vote for AB 415 – "Iowa style" nonpartisan redistricting. Nonpartisan redistricting has support from both sides of the aisle at times. In fact, the Legislative Reference Bureau (LRB) stated that AB 415 is, "almost identical to Iowa's process." The Iowa model has long been debated as the gold-standard that is strictly nonpartisan, does not consider political implications or incumbent legislator. Here is an article from 2018 that asked if it could work in Wisconsin – I believe it can and should.

AB 415 would allow LRB, a respected nonpartisan legislative agency, to draw district boundaries – not the Legislature or the courts. Additionally, a number of amendments were added to the bill that I believe make it better than the original Iowa style. The amendments clarified language, ensured that an adopted map can only pass in bipartisan fashion and ensured compliance with the federal Voting Rights Act. These are all good faith amendments that establish a system that works for all Wisconsinites. I hope that my colleagues in the Senate also realize this and hold a hearing and a Floor vote without delay.

I've said it before and I'll say it again – people want government to work for them. I believe that AB 415 can be the solution to avoid bitter political and legal battles for years to come and return to making Wisconsin a better places. Rest assured that I will do whatever I can to put Wisconsinites first.

Thank you again for taking the time to reach out to my office. Please let me know if you have any additional comments or concerns about local or state government.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

proposal come before me for a Floor vote. Again, thank you for making your voice heard and being an active participant in state government.

The legal challenges that happen every decade over legislative maps drain state resources, state time, and ultimately your tax dollars. It seems that Wisconsin has had constant questions regarding redistricting for decades with no end in sight. I believe that Wisconsin must move toward a permanent solution that provides stability going forward.

That is why I was proud to vote for AB 415 – "Iowa style" nonpartisan redistricting. Nonpartisan redistricting has support from both sides of the aisle at times. In fact, the Legislative Reference Bureau (LRB) stated that AB 415 is, "almost identical to Iowa's process." The Iowa model has long been debated as the gold-standard that is strictly nonpartisan, does not consider political implications or incumbent legislator. Here is an article from 2018 that asked if it could work in Wisconsin – I believe it can and should.

AB 415 would allow LRB, a respected nonpartisan legislative agency, to draw district boundaries – not the Legislature or the courts. Additionally, a number of amendments were added to the bill that I believe make it better than the original Iowa style. The amendments clarified language, ensured that an adopted map can only pass in bipartisan fashion and ensured compliance with the federal Voting Rights Act. These are all good faith amendments that establish a system that works for all Wisconsinites. I hope that my colleagues in the Senate also realize this and hold a hearing and a Floor vote without delay.

I've said it before and I'll say it again – people want government to work for them. I believe that AB 415 can be the solution to avoid bitter political and legal battles for years to come and return to making Wisconsin a better places. Rest assured that I will do whatever I can to put Wisconsinites first.

Thank you again for taking the time to reach out to my office. Please let me know if you have any additional comments or concerns about local or state government.

Best wishes,

Jean,
Again, I believe a solution for non-partisan maps is within grasp if solutions are talked about or amendments discussed. Political winds change, but legislation can be here to stay despite that. I think Wisconsinites want permanent solutions instead of the constant bickering every decade. That is why Rep. Donovan support the proposal.

I like the idea of having a non-partisan entity draw the legislative maps. Like we used to. Before Scott Walker, Michael Best and a map drawing company got together behind closed doors and drew Wisconsin maps for the Republican Party.

Rep. Donovan believes that is something we can all get behind. AB 415 would require 3 up or down votes to pass new legislative maps. If maps are passed, the Governor still has the ability to veto them. Additionally, if maps are passed and vetoed they will most likely go back to the Supreme Court of Wisconsin – thus meeting at the same place we started. There is an incentive to pass bipartisan legislative maps without drawing a Governor veto or introducing the issue to the courts.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Maps Coalition were consulted or informed in advance about either the introduction of this measure or this public hearing.

There is little doubt that this is coming up now after the impeachment threats to WI Supreme Court JusticeJanet Protasiewiczhave lost much of their steam last week following conservative former JusticesDavid ProsserandJon Wilcoxtelling Speaker Vos that neither saw credible justification for impeachment of Protasiewicz and an increasing number of Republican legislators saying they would not vote to impeach (or convict) her.

Speaker Vos (R-Rochester) and Senate Majority LeaderDevin LeMahieu(R-Oostburg) now seem intent on utilizing SB 488/AB 415 as a means of heading off an unfavorable decision (to them) by the Wisconsin Supreme Court on their current, gerrymandered maps. In both AB 415 and SB 488 there is a provision that would put the redistricting process in effect immediately, for 2024 -- essentially negating any decision the WI Supreme Court might render on the 2021-22 maps.

Here are some other points of major concern in SB 488/AB 415:
- The consensus from the previous lead legislative sponsors of the Iowa Model Legislation in 2021, Sen.Jeff Smith(D-Brunswick) and Rep.Deb Andraca(D-Whitefish Bay), is that even if Republicans sought and accepted amendments from Democrats to improve SB 488, it is likely that the absolutely necessary 75 percent "safeguard" stipulation included in the 2019 and 2021 versions of the legislation but not included in AB 415 or SB 488, would NOT be acceptable to the Republicans. The provision requires that any partisan redistricting plan not devised by the nonpartisan Legislative Reference Bureau must attain at least 75 percent of the votes in both legislative chambers to pass, thus ensuring wide, bipartisan support and consensus. Without this provision, SB 488 is utterly unsupportable.
- The measure restricting the number of times the Legislature could reject LRB maps before the State Supreme Court would draw them (which is included in Iowa's statutes) is not included in AB 415/SB 488. There must be a finite number of times that LRB maps can be rejected.
- Therefore, the Legislature by a simple majority, could vote to reject all non-partisan maps until the deadline for the redistricting process and then ram through their own, partisan maps.

Jean,

I respectful disagree. You are copying and pasting from articles that were posted before any amendments were adopted.
I might also add that this is the not the first time a proposal has been brought to the Assembly floor without public comment. Various iterations of "fair map" proposals have been brought to the floor multiple times over the past decade without a hearing. Also, because of Senate rules, AB 415 would be required to have a public hearing. The public will have ample opportunity for input on this issue.
I would also like to draw attention to the multitude of amendments just to set the record straight.
Amendment 1: "(f) The legislative reference bureau shall provide assistance to the commission regarding the operations of the commission.".
This amendment clarifies that the Legislative Reference Bureau (LRB) would assist the commission in an advisory role. The commission is made up of nominations from both the equal parts majority and minority parties. This was done to alleviate concerns that the commission was a toothless body with no ability to consult with LRB. This fixes that.
Amendment 2: "(3m) A plan delivered under this section may only be passed by a bipartisan vote.".
This amendment is very straight forward that in order to pass any LRB redistricting proposal it must pass with a bipartisan vote. No one party can overrule the other. This amendment passed in bipartisan fashion.
Amendment 3: "No commission member may abstain from any vote taken by the commission on any matter before the commission, and no vote may be taken by the commission without all 5 members of the commission present and voting.".
This was another concern that certain sides of the commission would stall proceedings by being absent or abstaining. This would prevent that very thing, ensuring that the commission must vote and vote when all members are present. This amendment passed in bipartisan fashion.
Amendment 4: "The commission members shall, upon the legislative reference bureau's recommendation, appoint a person with expertise in the federal Voting Rights Act to provide the commission guidance regarding federal Voting Rights Act compliance.".
Although I believe both sides of the aisle attempt to adhere to the special considerations in the federal Voting Rights Act (VRA), this amendment was created to codify it. This will ensure that the VRA continues to be complied with and that interest groups are not broken up to make advantages for one side or the other. This amendment passed in bipartisan fashion.
Amendment 5: 1. Page 8, line 11: after "3rd" insert "or subsequent". 2. Page 8, line 17: delete lines 17 and 18 and substitute "than 7 days after the date of introduction, in the same manner as prescribed for the bills required under subs. (1) and (2). No plan may be considered and voted on after January 31 of the 2nd year following the federal decennial census.".
The reasoning behind this amendment can be best described by LRBs summary of the amendments. "AA5 removes the provision allowing a third bill embodying a redistricting plan to be subject to the ordinary rules of amendment. Instead, AA5 provides that the third and all subsequent bills embodying a legislative redistricting plan should be considered in the same manner as prescribed for the initial and second bills, so there may be no amendments except those of a purely corrective nature." This directly address your previous statement from an article which said, "upon the third round*the legislature could draw the maps just like any other bill*." This amendment passed in bipartisan fashion.

Amendment 6: 1. Page 15, line 21: delete “3" and substitute “8". 2. Page 15, line 23: after “Madison" insert “, one public hearing shall be held in a city of the first class,".
This amendment ensures that there will be a total of 8 public hearings across the state regarding redistricting. This bill also ensures that at least one of the hearings in the City of Milwaukee. This amendment passed in bipartisan fashion.
Amendment 7: 1. Page 16, line 9: after “policies" insert “, consistent with s. 13.92 (1) (c) and notwithstanding s. 19.35 (1),". 2. Page 16, line 14: after “census." insert “Upon the plan's introduction, the legislative reference bureau shall make the drafting file of the plan available for public inspection.".
This amendment clarifies that the drafting file follows similar rules to that of other bill drafting procedures that have been used for years for legislation. Additionally, it ensures that LRB publicly posts the drafting file for public inspection. This amendment passed in bipartisan fashion.
All of these amendments make the bill better than the original and most were done in bipartisan fashion. I think discounting a good idea because of dated media reports is not constructive to good legislation. I hope this provides some added context regarding the situation. Here are some more resources.

That's not true Stephan.
Speaker Vos announced what he calls “a non-partisan redistricting commission similar to the ‘Iowa’ model" because he is afraid that he does not have the votes to impeach and remove Justice Janet Protasiewicz.

AB 415would not actually create a true nonpartisan redistricting process. Under AB 415, the legislature can vote down maps drawn by the nonpartisan commission and upon the third round*the legislature could draw the maps just like any other bill*.The result is that Speaker Vos would still control redistricting and the legislature could still draw gerrymandered maps like the ones we have now. You can read a statement in opposition to AB 415 written by theWisconsin Fair Maps coalition that includes quotes from the League of Women’s Voters Wisconsin, the Wisconsin Democracy Campaign, and the Wisconsin Conservation Voters here.

AB 415 never had a public hearing, is an illegitimate attempt to distract from the unpopularity of impeaching Justice Janet Protasiewicz, and would not lead to fair maps or fair political representation for Wisconsin voters. For these reasons and more, democratic Representatives voted against AB 415.

Rep. Donovan was not a part of the "Big Lie," fake auits or any of the other things that you mentioned. He merely wants to deliver solutions and permanent ones that will not change every decade. Rep. Donovan believes that is something we can all get behind. AB 415 would require 3 up or down votes to pass new legislative maps. If maps are passed, the Governor still has the ability to veto them. Additionally, if maps are passed and vetoed they will most likely go back to the Supreme Court of Wisconsin – thus meeting at the same place we started. There is an incentive to pass bipartisan legislative maps without drawing a Governor veto or introducing the issue to the courts.
I hope that clears up some of the confusion.

Speaker Vos (R-Rochester) and Senate Majority LeaderDevin LeMahieu(R-Oostburg) now seem intent on utilizing SB 488/AB 415 as a means of heading off an unfavorable decision (to them) by the Wisconsin Supreme Court on their current, gerrymandered maps. In both AB 415 and SB 488 there is a provision that would put the redistricting process in effect immediately, for 2024 -- essentially negating any decision the WI Supreme Court might render on the 2021-22 maps.

Here are some other points of major concern in SB 488/AB 415:
- The consensus from the previous lead legislative sponsors of the Iowa Model Legislation in 2021, Sen.Jeff Smith(D-Brunswick) and Rep.Deb Andraca(D-Whitefish Bay), is that even if Republicans sought and accepted amendments from Democrats to improve SB 488, it is likely that the absolutely necessary 75 percent "safeguard" stipulation included in the 2019 and 2021 versions of the legislation but not included in AB 415 or SB 488, would NOT be acceptable to the Republicans. The provision requires that any partisan redistricting plan not devised by the nonpartisan Legislative Reference Bureau must attain at least 75 percent of the votes in both legislative chambers to pass, thus ensuring wide, bipartisan support and consensus. Without this provision, SB 488 is utterly unsupportable.
- The measure restricting the number of times the Legislature could reject LRB maps before the State Supreme Court would draw them (which is included in Iowa's statutes) is not included in AB 415/SB 488. There must be a finite number of times that LRB maps can be rejected.
- Therefore, the Legislature by a simple majority, could vote to reject all non-partisan maps until the deadline for the redistricting process and then ram through their own, partisan maps.

Rest assured that I will keep your thoughts in mind should a proposal come before me for a Floor vote. Again, thank you for making your voice heard and being an active participant in state government.

The legal challenges that happen every decade over legislative maps drain state resources, state time, and ultimately your tax dollars. It seems that Wisconsin has had constant questions regarding redistricting for decades with no end in sight. I believe that Wisconsin must move toward a permanent solution that provides stability going forward.

That is why I was proud to vote for AB 415 – "Iowa style" nonpartisan redistricting. Nonpartisan redistricting has support from both sides of the aisle at times. In fact, the Legislative Reference Bureau (LRB) stated that AB 415 is, "almost identical to Iowa's process." The Iowa model has long been debated as the gold-standard that is strictly nonpartisan, does not consider political implications or incumbent legislator. Here is an article from 2018 that asked if it could work in Wisconsin – I believe it can and should.

AB 415 would allow LRB, a respected nonpartisan legislative agency, to draw district boundaries – not the Legislature or the courts. Additionally, a number of amendments were added to the bill that I believe make it better than the original Iowa style. The amendments clarified language, ensured that an adopted map can only pass in bipartisan fashion and ensured compliance with the federal Voting Rights Act. These are all good faith amendments that establish a system that works for all Wisconsinites. I hope that my colleagues in the Senate also realize this and hold a hearing and a Floor vote without delay.

I've said it before and I'll say it again – people want government to work for them. I believe that AB 415 can be the solution to avoid bitter political and legal battles for years to come and return to making Wisconsin a better places. Rest assured that I will do whatever I can to put Wisconsinites first.

These are all good faith amendments that establish a system that works for all Wisconsinites. I hope that my colleagues in the Senate also realize this and hold a hearing and a Floor vote without delay.

I've said it before and I'll say it again – people want government to work for them. I believe that AB 415 can be the solution to avoid bitter political and legal battles for years to come and return to making Wisconsin a better places. Rest assured that I will do whatever I can to put Wisconsinites first.

Thank you again for taking the time to reach out to my office. Please let me know if you have any additional comments or concerns about local or state government.

Jean,
Again, I believe a solution for non-partisan maps is within grasp if solutions are talked about or amendments discussed. Political winds change, but legislation can be here to stay despite that. I think Wisconsinites want permanent solutions instead of the constant bickering every decade. That is why Rep. Donovan support the proposal.

I like the idea of having a non-partisan entity draw the legislative maps. Like we used to. Before Scott Walker, Michael Best and a map drawing company got together behind closed doors and drew Wisconsin maps for the Republican Party.

Rep. Donovan believes that is something we can all get behind. AB 415 would require 3 up or down votes to pass new legislative maps. If maps are passed, the Governor still has the ability to veto them. Additionally, if maps are passed and vetoed they will most likely go back to the Supreme Court of Wisconsin – thus meeting at the same place we started. There is an incentive to pass bipartisan legislative maps without drawing a Governor veto or introducing the issue to the courts.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Maps Coalition were consulted or informed in advance about either the introduction of this measure or this public hearing.

There is little doubt that this is coming up now after the impeachment threats to WI Supreme Court JusticeJanet Protasiewiczhave lost much of their steam last week following conservative former JusticesDavid ProsserandJon Wilcoxtelling Speaker Vos that neither saw credible justification for impeachment of Protasiewicz and an increasing number of Republican legislators saying they would not vote to impeach (or convict) her.

Speaker Vos (R-Rochester) and Senate Majority LeaderDevin LeMahieu(R-Oostburg) now seem intent on utilizing SB 488/AB 415 as a means of heading off an unfavorable decision (to them) by the Wisconsin Supreme Court on their current, gerrymandered maps. In both AB 415 and SB 488 there is a provision that would put the redistricting process in effect immediately, for 2024 -- essentially negating any decision the WI Supreme Court might render on the 2021-22 maps.

Here are some other points of major concern in SB 488/AB 415:

- The consensus from the previous lead legislative sponsors of the Iowa Model Legislation in 2021, Sen.Jeff Smith(D-Brunswick) and Rep.Deb Andraca(D-Whitefish Bay), is that even if Republicans sought and accepted amendments from Democrats to improve SB 488, it is likely that the absolutely necessary 75 percent "safeguard" stipulation included in the 2019 and 2021 versions of the legislation but not included in AB 415 or SB 488, would NOT be acceptable to the Republicans. The provision requires that any partisan redistricting plan not devised by the nonpartisan Legislative Reference Bureau must attain at least 75 percent of the votes in both legislative chambers to pass, thus ensuring wide, bipartisan support and consensus. Without this provision, SB 488 is utterly unsupportable.
- The measure restricting the number of times the Legislature could reject LRB maps before the State Supreme Court would draw them (which is included in Iowa's statutes) is not included in AB 415/SB 488. There must be a finite number of times that LRB maps can be rejected.
- Therefore, the Legislature by a simple majority, could vote to reject all non-partisan maps until the deadline for the redistricting process and then ram through their own, partisan maps.

The Iowa model has long been debated as the gold-standard that is strictly nonpartisan, does not consider political implications or incumbent legislator. Here is an article from 2018 that asked if it could work in Wisconsin – I believe it can and should. AB 415 would allow LRB, a respected nonpartisan legislative agency, to draw district boundaries – not the Legislature or the courts. Jean,
Thanks for sharing those links with me. I am not fully aware of the situation happening in North Carolina, but to equate the situation currently in Wisconsin is not a realistic comparison.
I have however seen the statement from the Wisconsin Fair Maps Coalition. This coalition also posted the link for the People's Maps Commission which received a vote on the Assembly Floor in 2021. That map failed by a measure of 21-77. You can read about that proposal here.

I respectful disagree. You are copying and pasting from articles that were posted before any amendments were adopted.
I might also add that this is the not the first time a proposal has been brought to the Assembly floor without public comment. Various iterations of "fair map" proposals have been brought to the floor multiple times over the past decade without a hearing. Also, because of Senate rules, AB 415 would be required to have a public hearing. The public will have ample opportunity for input on this issue.
I would also like to draw attention to the multitude of amendments just to set the record straight.
Amendment 1: "(f) The legislative reference bureau shall provide assistance to the commission regarding the operations of the commission.".
This amendment clarifies that the Legislative Reference Bureau (LRB) would assist the commission in an advisory role. The commission is made up of nominations from both the equal parts majority and minority parties. This was done to alleviate concerns that the commission was a toothless body with no ability to consult with LRB. This fixes that.
Amendment 2: "(3m) A plan delivered under this section may only be passed by a bipartisan vote.".
This amendment is very straight forward that in order to pass any LRB redistricting proposal it must pass with a bipartisan vote. No one party can overrule the other. This amendment passed in bipartisan fashion.
Amendment 3: "No commission member may abstain from any vote taken by the commission on any matter before the commission, and no vote may be taken by the commission without all 5 members of the commission present and voting.".
This was another concern that certain sides of the commission would stall proceedings by being absent or abstaining. This would prevent that very thing, ensuring that the commission must vote and vote when all members are present. This amendment passed in bipartisan fashion.
Amendment 4: "The commission members shall, upon the legislative reference bureau's recommendation, appoint a person with expertise in the federal Voting Rights Act to provide the commission guidance regarding federal Voting Rights Act compliance.".
Although I believe both sides of the aisle attempt to adhere to the special considerations in the federal Voting Rights Act (VRA), this amendment was created to codify it. This will ensure that the VRA continues to be complied with and that interest groups are not broken up to make advantages for one side or the other. This amendment passed in bipartisan fashion.
Amendment 5: 1. Page 8, line 11: after "3rd" insert "or subsequent". 2. Page 8, line 17: delete lines 17 and 18 and substitute "than 7 days after the date of introduction, in the same manner as prescribed for the bills required under subs. (1) and (2). No plan may be considered and voted on after January 31 of the 2nd year following the federal decennial census.".
The reasoning behind this amendment can be best described by LRBs summary of the amendments. "AA5 removes the provision allowing a third bill embodying a redistricting plan to be subject to the ordinary rules of amendment. Instead, AA5 provides that the third and all subsequent bills embodying a legislative redistricting plan should be considered in the same manner as prescribed for the initial and second bills, so there may be no amendments except those of a purely corrective nature." This directly address your previous statement from an article which said, "upon the third round*the legislature could draw the maps just like any other bill*." This amendment passed in bipartisan fashion.
Amendment 6: 1. Page 15, line 21: delete "3" and substitute "8". 2. Page 15, line 23: after "Madison" insert ", one public hearing shall be held in a city of the first class,".
This amendment ensures that there will be a total of 8 public hearings across the state regarding redistricting. This bill also ensures that at least one of the hearings in the City of Milwaukee. This amendment passed in bipartisan fashion.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Amendment 7: 1. Page 16, line 9: after “policies" insert “, consistent with s. 13.92 (1) (c) and notwithstanding s. 19.35 (1),". 2. Page 16, line 14: after “census." insert “Upon the plan's introduction, the legislative reference bureau shall make the drafting file of the plan available for public inspection.".
This amendment clarifies that the drafting file follows similar rules to that of other bill drafting procedures that have been used for years for legislation. Additionally, it ensures that LRB publicly posts the drafting file for public inspection. This amendment passed in bipartisan fashion.
All of these amendments make the bill better than the original and most were done in bipartisan fashion. I think discounting a good idea because of dated media reports is not constructive to good legislation. I hope this provides some added context regarding the situation. Here are some more resources.

That's not true Stephan.
Speaker Vos announced what he calls “a non-partisan redistricting commission similar to the ‘Iowa’ model" because he is afraid that he does not have the votes to impeach and remove Justice Janet Protasiewicz.

AB 415would not actually create a true nonpartisan redistricting process. Under AB 415, the legislature can vote down maps drawn by the nonpartisan commission and upon the third round*the legislature could draw the maps just like any other bill*.The result is that Speaker Vos would still control redistricting and the legislature could still draw gerrymandered maps like the ones we have now. You can read a statement in opposition to AB 415 written by theWisconsin Fair Maps coalition that includes quotes from the League of Women’s Voters Wisconsin, the Wisconsin Democracy Campaign, and the Wisconsin Conservation Voters here.

AB 415 never had a public hearing, is an illegitimate attempt to distract from the unpopularity of impeaching Justice Janet Protasiewicz, and would not lead to fair maps or fair political representation for Wisconsin voters. For these reasons and more, democratic Representatives voted against AB 415.

Most likely, the new maps would look nothing like current maps. This is not a controversial statement. Again, if an agreement cannot be made, the Supreme Court of Wisconsin would undoubtable be involved again. AB 415 merely adds the step of a nonpartisan entity to draw maps without removing the Supreme Court's ability to step in if needed.

I like the idea of having a non-partisan entity draw the legislative maps. Like we used to. Before Scott Walker, Michael Best and a map drawing company got together behind closed doors and drew Wisconsin maps for the Republican Party.

believe the amendment that were presented and voted on in a bipartisan manner should not be discounted.
Rep. Donovan was not a part of the "Big Lie," fake auits or any of the other things that you mentioned. He merely wants to deliver solutions and permanent ones that will not change every decade. Rep. Donovan believes that is something we can all get behind. AB 415 would require 3 up or down votes to pass new legislative maps. If maps are passed, the Governor still has the ability to veto them. Additionally, if maps are passed and vetoed they will most likely go back to the Supreme Court of Wisconsin – thus meeting at the same place we started. There is an incentive to pass bipartisan legislative maps without drawing a Governor veto or introducing the issue to the courts.
I hope that clears up some of the confusion.

Steven Gieschen, Office of Rep. Bob Donovan -
You're missing the point. By passing the Republican-led gerrymandered legislature's AB415, you're continuing the gerrymandering for next year. - Speaker Vos (R-Rochester) and Senate Majority LeaderDevin LeMahieu(R-Oostburg) now seem intent on utilizing SB 488/AB 415 as a means of heading off an unfavorable decision (to them) by the Wisconsin Supreme Court on their current, gerrymandered maps. In both AB 415 and SB 488 there is a provision that would put the redistricting process in effect immediately, for 2024 -- essentially negating any decision the WI Supreme Court might render on the 2021-22 maps.
Remember, Republicans promoted the Big Lie, fraudits (fake audits - there was no voter fraud), gerrymandered our state, suppressed voters, tried to take the peoples' vote away and give it to the Republican-led gerrymandered legislature, violently attacked our Capitol, and tried to overturn our 2020 Presidential election.

Thank you so much for your thoughts regarding AB 415. I would love to clarify a few things.
I think that the legislative process is beautiful in that every idea can have merit and should be examined. AB 415 although did not have any Democratic co-sponsors, it did however have Democratic support on a number of amendments that made the legislation better. I am more than willing to hear or consider any amendment that would make this legislation better in the long run. As I mentioned, we need to look for permanent solutions to this issue that will long outlive myself and the other members. We need a solution that will not devolve into bickering every decade. This is a time for Wisconsin to be the example that it has been known for.
When AB 415 was being discussed on the floor, a total of seven amendments were adopted a number of others considered. I propose we examine many of the suggestion that were made by the other groups to reach consensus. I am personally not interested in empty language. I mean what I say and I say what I mean. I want to see tangible amendments that can work toward a consensus.
Unfortunately, I believe there are some groups that do not wish for any form of AB 415 to pass or be even considered.
Having concerns is a valid thought and reaction, however I believe true consensus is reached through conversation and I look forward to continuing that.

Rep. Donovan -

Like AB 415, SB 488 has only Republican co-sponsors. Also, no Democratic Senators or public interest groups like Common Cause Wisconsin or the Fair Maps Coalition were consulted or informed in advance about either the introduction of this measure or this public hearing.

There is little doubt that this is coming up now after the impeachment threats to WI Supreme Court JusticeJanet Protasiewiczhave lost much of their steam last week following conservative former JusticesDavid ProsserandJon Wilcoxtelling Speaker Vos that neither saw credible justification for impeachment of Protasiewicz and an increasing number of Republican legislators saying they would not vote to impeach (or convict) her.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Speaker Vos (R-Rochester) and Senate Majority LeaderDevin LeMahieu(R-Oostburg) now seem intent on utilizing SB 488/AB 415 as a means of heading off an unfavorable decision (to them) by the Wisconsin Supreme Court on their current, gerrymandered maps. In both AB 415 and SB 488 there is a provision that would put the redistricting process in effect immediately, for 2024 -- essentially negating any decision the WI Supreme Court might render on the 2021-22 maps.

Here are some other points of major concern in SB 488/AB 415:
- The consensus from the previous lead legislative sponsors of the Iowa Model Legislation in 2021, Sen.Jeff Smith(D-Brunswick) and Rep.Deb Andraca(D-Whitefish Bay), is that even if Republicans sought and accepted amendments from Democrats to improve SB 488, it is likely that the absolutely necessary 75 percent "safeguard" stipulation included in the 2019 and 2021 versions of the legislation but not included in AB 415 or SB 488, would NOT be acceptable to the Republicans. The provision requires that any partisan redistricting plan not devised by the nonpartisan Legislative Reference Bureau must attain at least 75 percent of the votes in both legislative chambers to pass, thus ensuring wide, bipartisan support and consensus. Without this provision, SB 488 is utterly unsupportable.
- The measure restricting the number of times the Legislature could reject LRB maps before the State Supreme Court would draw them (which is included in Iowa's statutes) is not included in AB 415/SB 488. There must be a finite number of times that LRB maps can be rejected.
- Therefore, the Legislature by a simple majority, could vote to reject all non-partisan maps until the deadline for the redistricting process and then ram through their own, partisan maps.

Thank you for taking the time to reach out to me regarding your concerns about the Supreme Court of Wisconsin. I appreciate you taking the time to contact me on this matter.

Please know that I completely understand your concerns and appreciate you reaching out regarding this important issue. Hearing the honest opinions from engaged constituents such as yourself helps me work through these issues by providing much needed context. Rest assured that I will keep your thoughts in mind should a proposal come before me for a Floor vote. Again, thank you for making your voice heard and being an active participant in state government.

The legal challenges that happen every decade over legislative maps drain state resources, state time, and ultimately your tax dollars. It seems that Wisconsin has had constant questions regarding redistricting for decades with no end in sight. I believe that Wisconsin must move toward a permanent solution that provides stability going forward.

That is why I was proud to vote for AB 415 – "Iowa style" nonpartisan redistricting. Nonpartisan redistricting has support from both sides of the aisle at times. In fact, the Legislative Reference Bureau (LRB) stated that AB 415 is, "almost identical to Iowa's process." The Iowa model has long been debated as the gold-standard that is strictly nonpartisan, does not consider political implications or incumbent legislator. Here is an article from 2018 that asked if it could work in Wisconsin – I believe it can and should.

AB 415 would allow LRB, a respected nonpartisan legislative agency, to draw district boundaries – not the Legislature or the courts. Additionally, a number of amendments were added to the bill that I believe make it better than the original Iowa style. The amendments clarified language, ensured that an adopted map can only pass in bipartisan fashion and ensured compliance with the federal Voting Rights Act. These are all good faith amendments that establish a system that works for all Wisconsinites. I hope that my colleagues in the Senate also realize this and hold a hearing and a Floor vote without delay.

I've said it before and I'll say it again – people want government to work for them. I believe that AB 415 can be the solution to avoid bitter political and legal battles for years to come and return to making Wisconsin a better places. Rest assured that I will do whatever I can to put Wisconsinites first.

Thank you again for taking the time to reach out to my office. Please let me know if you have any additional comments or concerns about local or state government.

Hi Stephan,
How's it going, sir? As you may know, there is a hearing on community solar legislation scheduled in the Energy and Utilities Committee on 2/14. Alliant Energy opposes this bill because we already have a successful program that doesn't rely on cost shifts and subsidization to work. I'd really appreciate a few minutes of your time to walk through how our program works vs. what the bill would create.
I know you're busy, but thanks in advance if you can share a few days/times that would work for you to meet over the next couple weeks!

Alex,

Yes, that is correct. We thought it would be best to avoid a congressional question since the 84th represents three congressional districts. Instead we included Senator Bradley's approval. Here are the full results for context.
Approval rating out of 5:
Rep. Donovan – 3.93
Sen. Bradley – 3.26
Gov. Evers – 2.13
President Biden – 1.97

Comprised of 520 respondents from every part of the 84th.
Let me know if you have any questions or need anything else!

Thank you! Today on the phone, they told me I had one outstanding issue (that has been outstanding for weeks). The employer faxed over info for that in November, before Thanksgiving. They said no one is assigned to work on that issue, and they have no timeline for potential assignment.

This is in contrast to other reps saying this was no longer an issue. At this point I'm not sure if the "glitch" hypothesis holds any weight, as the rep today didn't seem to think so.

They also added a 2nd outstanding issue tonight -- saying I quit a job that I did not quit. It is a delivery gig app that I've continued to report earned wages on during my unemployed period.

I greatly appreciate your assistance. Thank you!

Hello,

I am one of your constituents in Greenfield, WI.

I was laid off in November. I applied for unemployment on 11/19/23. I still have not been paid any earned/approved benefits.

I have provided all snail mail forms and documentation they requested (approximately 9 forms, some up to 4 pages long). I called unemployment tonight, and was told all of my issues preventing payment were resolved. However, there is still no pending payment for me (I was told it could be a "glitch " that may take another week to resolve). No one has a consistent answer.

I would greatly appreciate your assistance in this matter. Fortunately I began a full time job this week, but don't get paid until 12/29/23.

Thanks,

Allison Wojnar

Dear Ms. Bowler,

I am writing to urge the committee to act favorably on the judicial security bills under consideration at its January 24th, 2024 meeting. My colleagues, Judge Sandy Williams and Judge Steven Cain, as well as Ozaukee County Circuit Court Commissioner Barry Boline, join me in supporting these bills. I believe the evidence clearly establishes the vast majority of attacks, harassing behavior, and threats directed at judges involve conduct away from their assigned courthouse. I also believe that this type of threatening behavior is increasing. On a personal note, both Judge Williams and I were subject to threats from a family member in an homicide by operation of motor vehicle while intoxicated case. Judge Williams was the Ozaukee County District Attorney at the time, I the assigned judge. Several years later a criminal defendant protest with signs in front of my home while I conducted his jury trial. Worse still, a divorce litigant once attempted to enlist the aid of a jail inmate to assist in the to hire of a person to "take care" of her ex-husband and me. She ultimately went to prison for her effort. Circuit Court Commissioner was the subject of a threat from a divorce litigant that wanted him and the litigant's ex-wife beaten and thrown in the trunk of car. All of these incident occurred away from the Justice Center.

I think the proposed bill is a step in the right direction toward ensuring a judge's safety in his or her home. Protest in front of the judge's home may still occur as long as its scope remains outside that prohibited in the bill. Security profiles should also be exempted from release under the State's open records law. That form contains a drawing of the interior or the judge's home, the type of vehicles associated with the residence, whether firearms are in the house, medications that might be in the home, and more. Exempting disclosure of this information from Wisconsin's Open Records law has very little impact on the spirit of the law while adding an extra layer of safety to the judiciary. At the same time, it allows law enforcement access to critical information, should the need arise.

I also stand in support of bill requiring a person to remove personal information from internet sites. We have had ongoing issues with information being posted on the internet that is inaccurate, inappropriate, and/or threatening. Most individuals are eventually convicted for this conduct, but this takes valuable time, during which judges and commissioners remain an easy target. These bills would deter such behavior by limiting access to such personal information. The proposed process will ensure more efficient criminal prosecution.

I am unable to be present for tomorrow's meeting. If you have any questions or need any information please feel free to contact me.

Complimentary 2023-2024 hard cover and soft cover statutes will soon be available. Each member is allowed to receive one set of hard cover and soft cover statutes. In years past, the Clerk's office ordered one set of each for all Assembly offices. Some members have indicated they prefer not to receive the bound copies of the statutes since an electronic version is available on the Wisconsin State Legislature website. Therefore, we will be ordering bound statutes for only those offices that indicate they want them.

Please check the appropriate box below. You may order one or both hard cover or soft cover statutes. After indicating your selection, please sign, fill in your district number, and date. Please return your signed form to the Assembly Chief Clerk's Office (Attn: Carol Redell), Room 401, Risser Justice Center, as soon as possible. # WAUKESHA COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT

515 W. Moreland Boulevard
PO Box 1627
Waukesha, WI 53187-1627

To legislators considering Assembly Bills 965, 966 and 967 and Senate Bills, 926, 927 and 928:

We the undersigned elected Waukesha County Circuit Court Judges and appointed Circuit Court Commissioners endorse and support the enactment into law of Assembly Bills 965, 966 and 967 and the corresponding Senate Bills, 926, 927 and 928 which, if enacted, will do much to enhance the safety and security of Wisconsin judicial officers and their families.

Many of us have been subject to threats to ourselves and family members both at the courthouse and our residences. The proposals before you make locating our homes more difficult, and enhances the ability of law enforcement to offer protection to judicial officers outside of the courthouse. Recent events in Las Vegas and New Jersey establish that the danger to judicial officers is very real. The citizens of this state, however, need only be reminded of the senseless and horrific murder of Juneau County Circuit Court Judge John Roemer in June of 2022 to understand the peril and vulnerability to each judicial officer in this state. We respectfully ask you to support this important legislation.

Dated January 23, 2024 at Waukesha, Wisconsin.

Hon. Ralph M. Ramirez

Plenty of Wisconsin sports shakeups

Yesterday was quite a day in Wisconsin sports, and I'm still catching up.

The Milwaukee Bucks are set to hire Glenn "Doc" Rivers as their 18thhead coach in franchise history. Here's what to know about Rivers, including his previous coaching gigs, awards and standout moments from his time at Marquette University. And don't miss Jim Owczarski's retracing of what led up to Adrian Griffin's firing.

Speaking of departures, the Green Bay Packers fired defensive coordinator Joe Barry, whose defense lagged behind the growth of the offense this season and was a sore thumb for most of the season. Here's our roundup of who could replace him, and how David Bakhtiari and others responded.

Finally, the Milwaukee Brewers have reportedly agreed to a deal with Rhys Hoskins to fill their vacancy at first base. Hoskins just might be the perfect fit for a small-market team, Curt Hogg reports.

Highlights from the State of the State address

Things have been just as busy in the state Capitol, including Republicans passing last-minute map plans before Democratic Gov. Tony Evers delivered his annual State of the State address.

If you didn't catch the primetime speech , perhaps the newsiest item was that Evers is moving forward with the Pelican River Forest conservation project using federal and state funding, bypassing opposition from Republicans. Laura Schulte has all the details here.

Other highlights include Evers' plans to expand access to contraception under BadgerCare Plus health insurance, launch a teacher apprenticeship program and create a mental health council. He criticized Republicans for not releasing funding for PFAS or supporting his workforce and child care strategies.

Republicans, meanwhile, said Evers should have talked about tax relief amid arecord projected budget surplus. Hours before, GOP lawmakers proposed a $2.1 billion tax package, aimed at low- and middle-income earners. Expect a lot more to come on that subject.

Committee on Criminal Justice and Public Safety
Sent Via Email: Cameil.Bowler@legis.wisconsin.gov

To the Members of the Assembly Committee on Criminal Justice and Public Safety:

The Sheboygan County Circuit Court Judges write in support of the pending legislation related to judicial security. Specifically, we write in support of the following pending bills: AB 965/SB 926 (Picketing and Parading), AB 967/SB 928 (Public Record Exemption of Judicial Security Profiles), and AB 966/SB 927 (Judicial Officer Privacy).

As you are aware, the judiciary has been subjected to physical attacks both at home and in the courtroom. We believe that the proposed legislation are necessary and appropriate to address judicial safety concerns both in our homes and in our place of work. Physical attacks on the judiciary are a threat to a cornerstone of our constitutional democracy, an independent judiciary.

These pieces of legislation are necessary to protect both judicial independence and the rule of law. We hope you will support the passage of each bill.

To: The Assembly Committee on Criminal Justice and Public Safety

I am writing to express my support for AB 965/SB 926 (Picketing and Parading); AB 966/SB 927 (Judicial Officer Privacy); and AB 967/SB 928 (Public Records Exemption of Judicial Security Profiles).

I am, as are many of my colleagues, public servants with prior public service as prosecutors and/or public defenders. In smaller rural communities, where judges carry caseloads that cover all practice areas, the list of prior disenchanted participants or their families in the court system grow with every year of public service. Verbal threats are more prevalent than one might imagine but it is the silent person with planning and public research skills that presents an unknown threat like the one that took Judge Jack Roemer's life.

I urge your support of these bills as a supplemental step to the personal security measures judges already employ thru their courthouse, but also privately at their homes or as they travel to their homes.

Respectfully,

Patricia A. Barrett

RE: Judicial Security Bills

To Whom it may Concern:

Pending before the Assembly Committee on Criminal Justice and Public Safety is a trio of bills addressing judicial officer safety: AB 965/SB 926 – Picketing and Parading; AB 967/SB 928 – Public Record Exemption of Judicial security Profiles; and AB 966/SB 927 – Judicial Officer Privacy. Rep. Schraa is a member of hat committee which will be soon holding hearings on these bills. I bring this to all of your attention as a member of the judiciary who is directly affected by the issues addressed in these three bills. Please note my support and ensure that these bills are enacted as laws in our state without delay.

The security of our judiciary (and lack thereof) became front-line news in 2022 with the murder of Reserve Judge John Roemer. The perpetrator was a litigant in his courtroom many years prior, and underscores not only the importance of the decisions we judges make every day, but the impact that extends for years on the people that appear in our courtrooms.

Judges make decisions on a daily basis affecting people's most significant interests: their liberty, their families, and their property. Most of these people are not dangerous. However, we are face to face with people in our courtroom that are impacted negatively by our decisions. We often see their anger. In the courtroom judges have protections; outside the courtroom we judges and our families have very few.

Wisconsin has a long held tradition of open records and access to information. Yet this tradition must yield to the very justifiable safety concerns of our current and former judges and their families. We will never scrub all information from the internet. Much of the information on the internet is gleaned from our public records. Under these circumstances, the interests of the public must take a back seat to judiciary security.

Let me in particular address AB 967/SB 928 – Public Record Exemption of Judicial security Profiles. I for one, have not filled out a security profile for our sheriff and local law enforcement agency. The security profile includes information including the location and layout of our house, identity family members that live in my home, whether we have pets, whether we have a security system, and other extremely important, private information. While that information would be important for law enforcement if an emergency occurs in my home, I am more concerned about the information being released to the wrong person that may intend harm to me and my family. The public does not have any legitimate interest in this information.

Please take the time to review these three Judicial Security bills when they cross your desk and you hear discussion. I encourage you to pass these three bills without delay.

Very truly yours,

/s/Kristine Snow

Kristine A. Snow

Wisconsin Transportation

WI and MN to Receive $1 Billion-Plus Federal Grant to Replace Blatnik Bridge

Wisconsin and Minnesota received great news earlier this week. The United States Department of Transportation awarded a more than $1.05 billion federal grant jointly to the Wisconsin Department of Transportation (WisDOT) and the Minnesota Department of Transportation (MnDOT) to replace the aging John A. Blatnik Bridge, connecting Superior, Wisconsin, and Duluth, Minnesota.

The funding comes through the USDOT's Nationally Significant Multimodal Freight and Highway Projects program (INFRA) as part of the federal infrastructure law. According to the USDOT website, INFRA awards are competitive grants for "multimodal freight and highway projects of national or regional significance to improve the safety, efficiency, and reliability of the movement of freight and people in and across rural and urban areas."

The Blatnik Bridge, built in 1961 and load-posted for 40 tons since 2019, is jointly owned and operated by WisDOT and MnDOT and has reached the end of its service life.

With more than 33,000 vehicles crossing the bridge daily, including commuters and visitors, and over 265,000 trucks transporting nearly $4 billion in goods annually, the Blatnik Bridge is of regional economic significance. Furthermore, the bridge is an essential connection to the Port of Duluth-Superior, the largest U.S. port on the Great Lake.

Wisconsin and Minnesota have each committed $400 million in funding for the $1.8 billion project.

With these federal funds, construction could begin as early as 2025.

WisDOT's New Interactive Map Details Federal

Grants

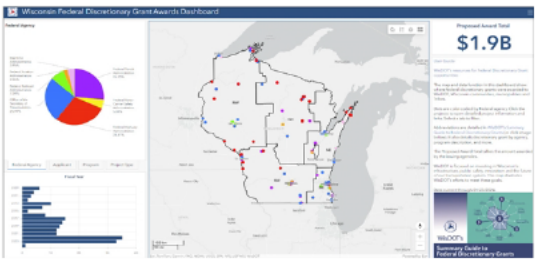
The Wisconsin Department of Transportation (WisDOT) introduced an interactive map and dashboard showing federal discretionary grants awarded from 2009 through the current year. These federal investments coming into Wisconsin over the last decade-plus impacted transportation infrastructure projects across the state.



The number of grants awarded annually and the corresponding dollars spiked after the passage of the federal infrastructure law.

"WisDOT is committed to improving Wisconsin's infrastructure, public safety, and the future of our transportation system. This innovative map illustrates the state's efforts to meet these goals, maximize federal funding opportunities, and improve the quality of life for everyone in Wisconsin," WisDOT Secretary Craig Thompson said.

State Senate Passes Pair of EV Bills

The Wisconsin Senate overwhelmingly passed two bills on Jan. 16 that would allow the state to tap into federal electric vehicle (EV) charging station funding and facilitate private sector participation in providing EV charging to the public.

Senate Bill (SB) 791 would exclude businesses, like gas stations, convenience stores, and grocery stores, selling electricity by the kilowatt-hour through EV charging stations from regulation as a public utility. The measure would also create a 3-cent per kilowatt-hour excise tax on electricity sold at these non-residential charging stations, contributing to the Transportation Fund, and exempt these transactions from sales and use tax.

Moreover, the bill would prohibit the state and local governments from selling EV charging to the public.

A second bill, SB-792, would allow WisDOT to administer $78 million in National Electric Vehicle Infrastructure (NEVI) program formula funds provided by the federal infrastructure law.

The legislation is now before the Assembly.

WisDOT Announces WEVI RFP

WisDOT announced the Wisconsin Electric Vehicle Infrastructure (WEVI) Program Request for Proposals (RFP) early this month. Under the WEVI Program, the state is eligible to receive approximately $78 million in National Electric Vehicle Infrastructure (NEVI) program formula funds over five years beginning in the federal fiscal year (FY) 2023.

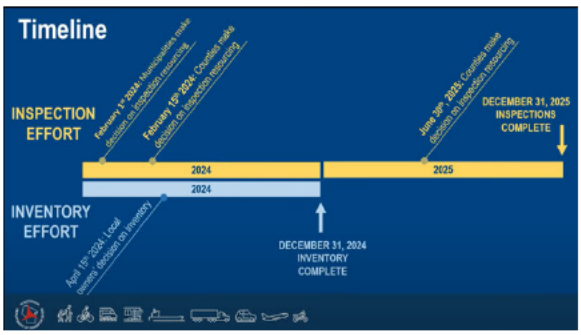
WEVI Program grants will cover up to 80% of the eligible costs, with grant recipients putting up the remaining funds.

To help interested parties complete an application, WisDOT issued a WEVI Program proposal packet. The packet contains the necessary materials and instructions for submitting a complete WEVI application.

Completed applications should be sent to wevirfpsubmission@dot.wi.gov by April 1, 2024, at 5:00 p.m. Central Standard Time.

Please visit the WisDOT Electrification page for more information on the WEVI Program and the RFP.

WisDOT and Locals Present Local Bridge and Culvert Inventory and Assessment Webinar



The 2023-25 state budget provides $12.5 million for the Wisconsin Department of Transportation (WisDOT) to administer a program for a comprehensive inventory and assessment of all local bridges and culverts in the state with spans between 6 and 20 feet in length.
This inventory and assessment program is necessary to ensure these structures are safe for the traveling public and to evaluate the dollars required to rehabilitate and reconstruct these long undocumented structures.
With the input of local government associations, WisDOT has developed atwo-stepprocess for utilizing local government and the private sector to achieve the program's objective.
Earlier this month, WisDOT, the Wisconsin Counties Association, the League of Wisconsin Municipalities, and the Wisconsin Towns Association held a webinar to review the program and process. This informational webinar covered an overview of the program, the two-step process or phases of inventory and inspection, and the timeline. Local government association representatives and WisDOT also answered participants' questions.

WisDOT Bureau of Structures will announce future training webinars for inventory and inspection efforts.

FY 2024 Continuing Resolution #3

Last Friday, Jan. 19, President Biden signed a stopgap measure to fund the government through the beginning of March. This continuing resolution (CR) avoided a partial shutdown as lawmakers continue working to pass the 12 annual federal appropriations bills for Fiscal Year 2024.

Funding for the Department of Transportation and other agencies will now expire on March 1,with the rest of government funding running out on March 8.

This CR is the third short-term funding extension this fiscal year.

TDA Podcast: WisDOT Secretary Craig Thompson

Wisconsin Department of Transportation Secretary Craig Thompson, serving as the 2024 American Association of State Highway and Transportation Officials (AASHTO) president, joins TDA Executive Director Debby Jackson on the On The Go podcast.

Thompson talks about the department's work and accomplishments during his five years at WisDOT and the plans and priorities for the year ahead. They also discuss his priorities for AASHTO and what he has learned about the transportation challenges states face – the similarities and differences – by working with his colleagues in other states. Safety is an integral part of Thompson's objectives.

Jackson and Thompson also touch on transportation funding, including states' progress on a longer-term solution for shoring up lost gas tax productivity.

Good morning,

Now we find out, as if you didn't already know given anything with portals to the outside world is less secure than paper ballots, the Dominion machines are easily accessed. The refusal to return to paper ballots; refusal to return to a requirement of cause for obtaining an absentee ballot; refusal to require a notarized absentee ballot; a refusal to eliminate early voting and mail in ballots are all indications of the desire by the establishment of both parties to destroy this republic. As the clock ticks and we get closer to the 2024 election evidence mounts that the 2020 election was conducted under conditions not compatible with state election laws. And has any of this been corrected? In times like these a Cincinnatusis in order.

DHS warned of integrity of mail-in voting in 2020 election but at the same time censored questions

"The federal government was trying to basically spread propaganda that 2020 was "safe and secure", and that there was no issue with the mail-in ballots when they themselves knew that this is a huge vulnerability," Abe Hamadeh said.

By Natalia Mittelstadtand Greg Piper

The Department of Homeland Security'sCybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency (CISA) was aware of the issues with mail-in voting during the 2020 election cycle but censored social media narratives about the risks as alleged disinformation, according to agency documents.
CISA documentswere released on Mondayby America First Legal, showing the agency's concerns about mail-in voting while it was also monitoring online opinions about such concerns.

"These documents demonstrate federal bureaucrats knew that there was no credible evidence supporting the claim that in-person voting spread COVID-19, and that mail-in and absentee voting were indeed less secure than in-person voting, precisely as President Trump, Attorney General Barr, and others had warned," said AFLSenior Counselor and Director of Oversight and Investigations Reed D. Rubenstein.

"Yet, the government and its allied social and legacy media companies covered up the truth, using unlawful censorship and bogus 'fact checks' to advance mass vote-by-mail schemes," he continued. "This 'mail-in ballot cover-up,' like Russia Collusion, Ukraine impeachment, and the Hunter Biden laptop suppression, shows how Deep State bureaucrats, liberal operatives, and their corporate allies combined to interfere in our Presidential elections. It is a monumental scandal."

America First Legal is suingCISA for 2020 records from itsmis-, dis-, and malinformation (MDM) team. According to recordsobtained by America First Legal from its lawsuit, CISA knew thatmail-in and absentee voting are less secure than voting in person.America First Legal has represented Just the News in some Freedom of Information Act cases.

CISA had made a chartby October 2020 listing the risks of mail-in voting.

The list of risks were:

1. “Implementation of mail-in voting infrastructure and processes within a compressed timeline may also introduce new risk.”

2. “For mail-in voting, some of the risk under the control of election officials during in-person voting shifts to outside entities, such as ballot printers, mail processing facilities, and the United States Postal Service.”

3. “Integrity attacks on voter registration data and systems represent a comparatively higher risk in a mail-in voting environment when compared to an in-person voting environment.”

4. “The outbound and inbound processing of mail-in ballots introduces additional infrastructure and technology, increasing potential scalability of cyber attacks.”

5. “Inbound mail-in ballot processes and tabulation take longer than in-person processing, causing tabulation of results to occur more slowly and resulting in more ballots to tabulate following election night.”

6. “Disinformation risk to mail-in voting infrastructure and processes is similar to that of in-person voting while utilizing different content.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Threat actors may leverage limited understanding regarding mail-in voting processes to mislead and confuse the public."

CISA also listed three"major challenges with absentee voting"by September 2020, noting "the process of mailing and returning ballots," the "high numbers of improperly completed ballots (figures not yet released)," and "the shortage of personnel to process ballots in a prompt manner."

Despite being aware of the concerns of mail-in voting, CISA contractedaccounting and consulting firm Deloitte to monitor and flag social media posts regarding the 2020 election and vote-by-mail. One such postthat was flagged by Deloitte to CISA was from President Donald Trump's Twitter feed, which saidthat there were "big problems and discrepancies with Mail In Ballots."

Other flagged poststhat Deloitte reported to CISA included, "The Governor of Texas quoted an article from a local news outlet on the state's recent history of voter fraud convictions and claimed that it reveals 'Mail ballot vote fraud in Texas,'" and "A conservative online activist accused Twitter of censoring her posts about voter fraud she is 'witnessing here in Nevada,' and expressed her frustration with Twitter's disclaimers stating that mail-in ballots are secure."

CISA also formed the Election Integrity Partnership(EIP), a private-led consortium that policed and mass-reported alleged misinformation to social media providers ahead of the 2020 and 2022 elections.The agency largely flew under the public radar before Just the News highlighted the leading role it played in creating EIP.

The subsequent barrage of litigation, public records requests and congressional probes revealed consortium leaders crediting CISA with the ideaof circumventing First Amendment protections by outsourcing policing to third parties and shaping the effort.

The Supreme Court accepted a case this term to evaluate the constitutionality of alleged federal coercion of private platforms to suppress disfavored narratives. Advocacy groups for journalists, academics, doctors, technologists and big business asked the court to tread lightlyon federal powers.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

EIP also noted in a 2020 election after-action reportthe importance of the Center for Internet Security, a nonprofit that participated in censorship of purported election "misinformation." CIS participated in censorship during both the 2020 and 2022 elections through its Elections Infrastructure Information Sharing & Analysis Center(EI-ISAC).

"EI-ISAC served as a singular conduit for election officials to report false or misleading information to platforms," according to the EIP report. "By serving as a one-stop reporting interface, the EI-ISAC allowed election officials to focus on detecting and countering election misinformation while CIS and its partners reported content to the proper social media platforms."

Abe Hamadeh, GOP candidate for Arizona's 8th Congressional District, discussed issues with mail-in voting and the CISA documents on "Just the News, No Noise" TV show on Monday.

Hamadeh, who served in the Army, said that he was deployed in Saudi Arabia during the 2020 presidential election and voted from overseas. However, after he returned home, he found multiple mail-in ballots were sent to his house.

"When I came back home from my deployment, I had multiple mail-in ballots in my house that were not associated with my name — they were prior tenants or prior owners," Hamadeh said. "The idea that the federal government was trying to basically spread propaganda that 2020 was safe and secure, and that there was no issue with the mail-in ballots when they themselves knew that this is a huge vulnerability … just shows you the lengths that the deep state goes to try to control the narrative and the propaganda," he later added.

Mike Benz, executive director of Foundation For Freedom Online, told Just the News on Monday that the CISA documents showed how this was a "scandal because DHS was the entity responsible for censoring anybody who questioned mail-in ballots and questioning anything about them that might be fraud," or where there was "risk of fraud."

He added that CISA "pulled off the heist of the century to argue that as cybersecurity agency, they had the power to censor the internet because misinformation about elections is a cyber threat to critical infrastructure, the critical infrastructure being elections, the threat being disinformation, and cyber being internet related."

This "long-armed jurisdiction" meant CISA believed "that tweets about mail-in ballots not being safe and secure and reliable should be censored" on social media platforms, Benz explained.

CISA and Deloitte didn't immediately respond to requests for comment on Monday.

Subject: VoIP Phone Numbers

Dear Representatives and Staff,

Starting January 2023, the Assembly telephone directory and Assembly website will list the VoIP phones numbers. The phone numbers have been active since the Assembly made the switch to the VoIP phone system, but the traditional numbers (with a 266 and 267 prefix) continued to be listed in the directory and on the website. The traditional numbers have been routed through the VoIP system since the initial change over. You may have already noticed when you receive a call from another Assembly office the 237 number is displayed on the caller ID. When the VoIP phone system was installed the plan was to switch over to the VoIP phones numbers after the next redistricting cycle.

Please note that the traditional numbers will still work. You do not need to make any changes to business cards, letterhead or other resources you may have that have the 266 and 267 numbers listed. Those numbers are Assembly property and will continue to be routed through the VoIP system. You may start giving constituents the 237 number and in the future when you make changes to your business cards, letterhead, or other contact information you can add the new number.

For consistency, all of the Assembly phone numbers are the same, except for the last two digits. All numbers will be (608) 237-91xx. The last two digits of the number will be the district number that you represent. Therefore, the 1st Assembly District will be (608) 237-9101 and the 99th Assembly District will be (608) 237-9199. When dialing internally within the Assembly you will simply need to use the last four digits, 91xx. You must dial the "608" area code when dialing from outside of the Capitol.

The Speaker's office and Majority Leader's office numbers will remain that same. The Speaker's office number will be (608) 266-3387, but can be dialed as 9163 internally. The Majority Leader's office number will be (608) 266-2401, but can be dialed as 9132 internally. The Chief Clerk and Sergeant at Arms offices will maintain the 266 prefix number.

An updated Assembly directory reflecting the new VoIP numbers for each district and state legislative agency will be sent out January 3, 2023. If you have any questions, please contact Jeryn Veserat at x9605.

Ted

Good morning,

Below is part 2 of Rob Natelson's analysis of what's wrong with universities. Medieval universities were primarily chartered by Church authorities and governed by like-minded faculties. Governance that restrains deviant theories is logical and justified. Any governance at odds with the founding principles is suicidal.

Commentary
The first installmentin this series explained that colleges and universities have been centers of orthodoxy and intolerance far more than they have been havens of tolerance and free inquiry. It also explained that the concept of "academic freedom" is fairly recent and derived much of its force from efforts to protect left-wing academics from political reprisal during the Cold War (1945–1990).

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Medieval universities generally were governed by their faculties. But faculty governance didn't prevail in the United States until a few decades ago. It was more common for a university president to rule a campus, or a dean to rule his department, with near-dictatorial power. This was still true in 1985 at the small private Oklahoma university where I received my first full-time academic job.

Dictatorship means that the level of tolerance and freedom at an institution depends on the whim of the dictator. And university dictators could be very intolerant, as the following story illustrates:

In 1964, Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.) was the Republican nominee for president against the Democratic incumbent, Lyndon Johnson. Goldwater was a conservative icon and drew many enthusiastic young volunteers into his campaign.

Among the volunteers was a young University of Montana law student named Gerald Neely. But the then-reigning law school dean didn't approve of Sen. Goldwater. When the dean found out Neely was supporting Goldwater, he called the young man into his office and told him that if he wanted to stay in law school, he had to quit the Goldwater campaign. Otherwise, the dean would expel him.

Neely reluctantly opted out of the Goldwater campaign. He thereby remained in law school and became a distinguished Billings, Montana, attorney. He told me the story when I was a University of Montana law professor volunteering my non-work time to conservative causes. So I wasn't surprised when the same law school dean, now retired, publicly demanded that I be dismissed from my university job. Fortunately, the man then serving as law dean, although a liberal Democrat, was more tolerant and respectful of political differences.

The Toxic University Model

Despite the baleful results of academic dictatorship, it may, in fact, be the only way to govern the dysfunctional university model. Let's reconstruct that model.

First: Collect in one place several thousand adolescents and post-adolescents, all of them heavily hormoned, most of whom are away from home for the first time. Ensure that most of them don't value learning for the sake of learning; they want the university degree either to improve their job prospects or postpone the need to get a job.

Second: Cram them in dense housing (preferably male and female together), impose few rules of good conduct, and ignore or even encourage sexual promiscuity.

Third: Add a sprinkling of adults, but make sure most have no training in human behavior, aren't responsible for the consequences of their ideas, have little or no experience in the "real world," and often harbor resentment against those who do.

Fourth: Ensure that authority is so fragmented that no one person has the power to do much of anything. Require administrators to pander to transient faculty and student desires if they wish to keep their jobs.

Fifth: Add a band of Marxist and other radical organizers attracted to the opportunities for mischief presented by thousands of naive students and hundreds of resentful professors.

A Closer Look at the Toxic Model

Human nature has certain commonalities, but most people also respond to their environments. Those environments provide incentives and rules that encourage either good behavior or bad behavior. The university environment often encourages bad behavior.

Perhaps the most serious defect in the university model (imitated more and more by public school systems) is stratifying people by age. When people associate with those of different ages, good things happen: Older people serve as role models and as teachers for younger ones. The ideals and energy of younger people inspire their elders.

But the college and university population consists mostly of people in a very tight age range—generally between 18 and 24. This is when most people are inexperienced and impulsive, free from family responsibilities, and insecure enough to take their clues from the mob. No wonder "the student body" (as academics call it) is turbulent and foolish.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Dictatorial governance, intelligently applied, may be able to control the turbulence. Governance by faculty members of outstanding character and sense might be able to control it also. But dictatorial governance has been superseded by faculty governance, and most faculty members bear little resemblance to the legendary teachers of the past.

Since the 1970s, faculties have been swelled with leftist ideologues. Universities make no consistent effort to prevent those ideologues from propagandizing and inducing students to parrot their ideology.

Nor do universities make any consistent effort to train professors in the art of teaching. That's why so many professors "teach" merely by lecturing and answering questions.

Universities do ask students to fill out forms about their instructors. However, young students know little about pedagogy, so the forms mostly just reveal which professors are best at courting popularity. Institutions should poll students several years after graduation to learn which professors affected them for the best. But few universities do that.

Finally, universities hire professors who have never done what they purport to teach. Most law professors, for example, are hired with little or no experience practicing law. (Unbelievable, but true.) Most history professors have never participated in diplomacy, war, official decision-making, or the economic activities about which they tell their students. Few economics professors have operated small businesses, even though small businesses dominate the U.S. economy.

All of which leaves "the groves of academe" floating apart from reality and unaffected by the consequences of what it does.

Chair Spiros, Vice-Chair Schutt, Members of the Committee:

On behalf of the Consumer Data Industry Association, I write to express agreement with the core concepts behind AB 966, which seeks to provide understandable protections for the personal information of Wisconsin judicial officers and their families. However, CDIA is concerned that without revisions, the exceptionally broad data broker provisions could exclude the protected class from conducting normal, day-to-day financial transactions and accessing other critical services.

CDIA, founded in 1906, is the trade organization representing the consumer reporting industry, including agencies like the three nationwide credit bureaus, regional and specialized credit bureaus, background check companies and others. CDIA exists to promote responsible data practices to benefit consumers and to help businesses, governments and volunteer organizations avoid fraud and manage risk.

AB966 creates a separate, more restrictive standard for data brokers at 757.07 3(a). As drafted, data brokers may not "knowingly sell, license, trade, purchase, or otherwise make available for consideration the personal information of a judicial officer or a judicial officer's immediate family." Comparatively, all other businesses are merely prohibited from publicly posting or displaying protected information.

This blanket prohibition on a data broker sharing any protected information associated with a member of the protected class could inadvertently preclude judicial officers and their immediate family members from participating in a variety of regular economic transactions or other services that require the nonpublic sharing and verification of personal information otherwise protected by AB966.

Without adjustment, AB966 could make it difficult or impossible for members of the protected class to access new lines of credit, mortgages, auto loans, verify certain retail transactions, purchase automobile and other types of insurance or even secure tenancy. Worse, AB966 could disrupt efforts to protect consumers from identity theft, fraudulent transactions, and similar financial crimes by prohibiting the sharing of information necessary to verify identities. The same is true for state services and benefits, state unemployment insurance, or state tax refunds that require authentication of applicants or beneficiaries' identities.

Furthermore, as AB966 does not have a verification process to ensure that someone providing written notice to a data broker is a member of the protected class, any other Wisconsinite who decides to provide notice to data brokers governed by this section could lose access to these regular transactions and services.
Other states that have established similar protections for certain public servants and their families without establishing a clear verification procedure have seen tremendous volumes of unverifiable requests from the public to exclude their information, extending the risks of AB966 far beyond the judicial officers and the family members it intends to protect.

Minor amendments to AB966 can eliminate these unintended consequences without undermining the authors' intent to protect that judicial officers and their family members remain protected public disclosure of information that could put them at risk. These changes would also ensure that AB966 does not conflict with the provisions of the comprehensive data privacy bill, AB 466, that passed the Assembly last year.

CDIA respectfully requests that the sponsors and committee consider striking 757.07 3(a) in its entirety, which would alleviate the concerns and risk of unintended consequences outlined above. This change would still provide strong protection for judicial officers and their families as data brokers, as businesses, would still be bound by the prohibitions in 3(b) from making protected information publicly available.

We also respectfully request that the committee consider amending AB966 to incorporate clearer exemptions for federal and state laws regulating, authorizing, or requiring the disclosure of protected information in alignment with AB466. We would seek inclusion of exemptions for the Fair Credit Reporting Act, data subject to the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, data/information used to prevent identity theft and fraud, and data/information used for employment purposes.

Notably, these five exemptions have been included in all fifteen of the comprehensive state data privacy laws passed across the country to date and their inclusion in AB966 would help avoid compliance issues and confusion down the road, should AB466 pass the Wisconsin Senate and be signed into law.

On behalf of CDIA and its members, I want to reiterate our recognition of the important intent underpinning AB966 and our support for the concept of providing special protections to certain public servants and their families who through their work may face higher risks to their safety and well-being.

We hope that this committee will consider incorporating our proposed changes to ensure that judicial officers and their immediate families will see the benefits of AB966 without unfairly and unnecessarily being cut-off from normal day-to-day financial transactions, important life opportunities and other critical services like insurance markets and fraud protection.

CDIA and its members stand ready to work with the sponsors of AB966 and this committee toward that goal. Please contact me via email at ztaylor@cdiaonline.org should you, your staff, or your colleagues wish to discuss our concerns and proposed amendments in greater detail following the hearing.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Good afternoon,

Thank you for working with me to schedule a meeting with our members next Tuesday, January 30th at 1:30 pm for our 2024 Government Affairs Conference! Constituents look forward to meeting with your office.

These meetings will mostly be a meet and greet and going over some credit union differences. We also want to be sure to thank you for your support in passing Act 60-requiring financial education credit for high school graduation, as well as SB 773-financial institutions modernization. Activists may also bring up discussion on AB 578/SB 628-financial elder abuse, AB 121/SB 122-Wisconsin ABLE Accounts, and legislation surrounding predatory lending practices. I wanted to reach out with a list of constituents (either personal or credit union) that will be attending next week:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Javier | Johnson | Landmark Credit Union |
| Michael | Nembhard | Landmark Credit Union |
| Jamie | Bay | Summit Credit Union |
| Kristina | Kostka | Summit Credit Union |

I have also attached an invite to our reception for Tuesday afternoon. All legislators and staff are welcome to join!

If you have any questions or need anything else, please let me know. I can be best reached via email or if you call or text my cell (715) 347-4752.

Thanks again,

Shelby
