EXTERNAL SENDER

Dylan Winters - This email is in response to your public records request dated 6/6/24 (below) for memoranda or complaints regarding Florida State University's (FSU) response to or handling of student activism, protests, civil disobedience and/or other forms of civic expression on campus during the period 10/7/23 to the present. The FSU Faculty Senate Resolution responsive to this request is attached. This record is also available at <https://facsenate.fsu.edu/resolutions>

A good faith search by other relevant FSU offices did not reveal any additional responsive records.

The FSU Office of the General Counsel now considers this request to be closed. Thank you.

Subject: RE: Public Records Request (FL-FSU-24-1124)

The Florida State University (FSU) Office of the General Counsel has received your public records request. We will begin a search for records soon. If there are any records responsive to your request, they will be provided subject to any exemptions or confidential designations found in Florida Statutes. Also, in certain cases, there may be a special service charge associated with a request. If a special service charge applies, we will let you know, and it will have to be paid by check or money order before responsive documents are provided. Please be aware that the FSU Office of the General Counsel receives and processes a high volume of requests, so your patience as we process your request is appreciated. In the meantime, please let me know if you have any questions.

 Please know that we received this request in two separate emails (below & attached) **
