EXTERNAL SENDER

Ms. Haddix,

Thank you for your message. Please see below for responses to your three follow-up questions regarding the attached public records request.

1. Regarding messages sent or received by Mr. Woodhouse: Based on our review, we are not aware of any text messages or messages from third party platforms sent or received by Mr. Woodhouse that are responsive to part 2 of the request.

2. Regarding attachments: On review, we realized that some responsive files, including the attachments listed in your May 5 email, were inadvertently excluded from the zip folder shared in the April 28 production. Apologies for that omission. All responsive documents are available to view and download at the following link: Disclosure

3. Regarding redactions: The redacted information in the records listed in your May 5 email includes personal email addresses and cell phone numbers of county boards of elections members. We redacted this information because we consider it to be personal information of county employees generally protected from disclosure by N.C.G.S. § 153A-98(a) and not included in the list of information subject to disclosure under N.C.G.S. § 153A-98(b). (See also N.C.G.S. § 126-22, et. seq., which applies similar protections to the personnel files of State employees.) The North Carolina Supreme Court has held that the "clear purpose" of N.C.G.S. § 153A-98 is to provide confidentiality to persons applying for positions to be filled by county boards. Durham Herald Co. v. Cnty. of Durham, 435 S.E.2d 317, 319 (N.C. 1993). We read this precedent to mean that information provided to the State Auditor in an application for a county board chair position would be similarly protected here since the Auditor has appointment authority over chair seats.

   However, we have no objection to releasing the names of the recipients of the emails listed in your May 5 email. Those names are below.

   a. Mr. Woodhouse's Oct. 8, 2025 "Dear Auditor Boliek BOE Appointees" email was sent to the chairs of county boards of elections throughout the State. The names of the recipients are as follows:
      - Kevin Harrison

Subject: Re: Public Records Act Request (NC-AUD-25-2362)

Mr. Benton:

Thank you for the April 28, 2026 document production. I am writing to follow up on some missing information.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

First, please advise when we can expect to receive records responsive to part 2 of the request, which seeks the following records from Sept. 1, 2025 through Oct. 8, 2025:

All text messages and messages on messaging platforms (such as Signal, Slack, GChat or Google Hangouts, Lync, Skype, X (formerly Twitter) direct messages, Facebook messages, Microsoft Teams messages, WhatsApp, Telegram, Parler, Mattermost, Wickr, TeleMessage, TM SGNL or any app that can interface with an app such as those listed or otherwise borrow its technology) sent or received by Dallas Woodhouse regarding official government business.

There were no text messages or messages from third party platforms in the records you sent us on April 28, despite the fact that records indicate Mr. Woodhouse uses his iPhone to communicate about official business.

Second, there appear to be some email attachments missing from the April 28 production, specifically, attachments to the following:

1. Sept. 26, 2025 email to Kirk O'Steen and Brent Wilcox
2. Sept. 29, 2025 email to Dallas Woodhouse
3. Sept. 20, 2025 email to Anna Martina

Please provide us with copies of those attachments.

Third, it appears that information has been improperly withheld from some of the documents, specifically:

a. Contact information for county board members (in the spreadsheet attachment as well as the county board member list attachment)

b. Names and email addresses of recipients of Mr. Woodhouse's Oct. 9, 2025 "Dear Auditor Boliek BOE Appointees" email

c. Name and email address of the other "bcc" recipient of Mr. Woodhouse's Sept. 23, 2025 email attaching the CBE Director termination documents

d. Name and address of the recipient of Mr. Woodhouse's Sept. 23, 2025 email sent at 12:00:00PM

Please either explain the legal basis for those redactions, or promptly provide us with unredacted copies.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

We look forward to your prompt response to the above.

Thank you,

Elizabeth

Dear Mr. Stout:

I hope this finds you well. We've not received any response to the below-referenced October 9, 2025 public records request, which I've attached again here for your convenience.

NCGS § 132-6 requires your agency to furnish copies of requested public records "as promptly as possible." We ask that you comply with that obligation. If you wish to discuss the request, please contact me at (252) 359-7424 or Elizabeth.Haddix@americanoversight.org.

Thank you,

Executive Leadership Training Events for BOE Chairs

Dear Chairs: As part of our efforts to assist you in your role we will from time to time offer Executive Leadership Training Events for our County Board Chair appointees. These events are intended to supplement, not replace/supplant the excellent training provided by Sam Hayes, Executive Director of the NC State Board of Elections and his team.

Our two events will take place this Sunday, Oct 5th at 7:00 P.M. The series is conducted on-line.

This event will be conducted by a bi-partisan team of some of the most experienced county board of elections members.

They will detail their first-hand experience in conducting:

Absentee Review
Tabulation
Absentee Cure Review & Provisional Review
Canvass

There will be plenty of time for Questions and discussion.

We will hold a second similar event Wednesday October 15th at 5:00 P.M. This event will allow for questions that have risen after the process has begun in many places.

We realize that roughly 20% of North Carolina counties either have no municipal elections this year or have no absentee/early voting in their area, however we think these events will be helpful to you in the future should you choose to join

In my new role as Elections Liaison for the State Auditor, I can assist in leadership training, advice

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

and general problem solving. I can help you find answers to general questions and assist with problem solving. However technical guidance on the application of the law or adopted rules will continue to be delivered by NCSBE staff and your county Executive Director

Dear

Thank you for your continued service to the people of the State of North Carolina as County elections board chair.

To assist in your efforts to ensure election integrity while encouraging maximum participation in our elections, I have appointed Dallas Woodhouse as my liaison to the local and state board of elections. Mr. Woodhouse is a member of the Office of the State Auditor team.

In this role, Mr. Woodhouse will serve as my eyes and ears on the ground in our elections process. As we have many new chairs, Mr. Woodhouse will soon coordinate a series of training events to assist you in your new role.

Dallas will serve as a resource for you in a variety of areas including developing robust early voting plans, election policy and proper oversight. You may reach Dallas at 919 671-1050 and dallas.woodhouse@ncauditor.gov. I know he will be reaching out to you soon. As we continue to develop our elections team, we hope this addition will assist you in all your efforts.

. Sincerely,

Dave Boliek

Dear Auditor Boliek BOE Appointees:

On behalf of the State Auditor, we want of offer congratulations for successful elections yesterday in:

Durham
Louisburg
Rocky Mount
Fayetteville
Erwin
Henderson
Roxboro
Asheboro
Greensboro
Jamestown
New Bern
Elizabeth City
Dobbins Heights
Hickory

This was our first elections since the appointment of new board and the reorganization of election responsibilities across state government and they went off almost perfectly.
We could not be more pleased with your efforts and results.

From Elizabeth City, to Durham to Hickory and all in-between you made sure the system worked and the people of North Carolina were well served.

We have full confidence that under our chair's leadership, all other areas will preform just as well this year and next.

We would like to hear from you about your current experiences, challenges, concerns and feedback, no matter if you just had, have or do not have an upcoming election.

Also: We will be conducting our in-person chair training events during the first two weeks of December tentatively in Wilmington, Greenville, Raleigh, Greensboro, Charlotte and Asheville. Details to follow.

I look forward to hearing your update via email or by phone, where I am available to you anytime. 919-671-1050

Numbered Memo 2023-06

TO: County Boards of Elections

FROM: ~~Karen Brinson Bell~~Sam Hayes, Executive Director[1]

RE: Election Observers

DATE: December 13, 2023 (Updated September 30, 2025)

This numbered memo provides guidance about election observers in accordance with the changes made by Session Law 2023-140 (SB 747). It replaces Numbered Memo 2016-21.

Election observers appointed by political parties and candidates serve an important role in our elections, by making the voting process transparent to representatives of the parties and candidates vying for office. Observers are in the voting place to witness the conduct of voting. They can report any perceived problems to the chief judge, the boards of elections, or the party or candidate that appointed them. The State Board and county boards are accustomed to regularly communicating with the parties during the conduct of voting, to address any such perceived issues. By law, the voting place must remain peaceful and orderly. To that end, observers should be welcome to witness the voting process, but may not be permitted to interfere with voters or election officials, or to engage in any other conduct that is unlawful or disruptive.

1. Appointment of Observers

Observers shall be appointed as follows:[2]

- The chair of a county political party may:

[1] This updated memo was approved by a vote of the State Board on September 30, 2025. This memo was originally issued by Executive Director Karen Brinson Bell on December 13, 2023. This memo was updated by Executive Director Sam Hayes on September 30, 2025, with regard to the appointment of observers in nonpartisan elections.~~This memo is issued under the authority delegated by the State Board to the executive director pursuant to G.S. § 163-22(p).~~

[2] See G.S. § 163-45.1(b) (S.L. 2023-140, sec. 7(b)).

- Designate two site-specific observers per voting place (including early voting and Election Day sites) wherever the party has a candidate on the ballot;[3] and
- Designate ten at-large observers wherever the party has a candidate on the ballot. County at-large observers may serve at any voting site in the county.

- The chair of a state political party may:
  - Designate 100 state at-large observers wherever the party has a candidate on the ballot. State at-large observers may serve at any voting site in the state.
- An unaffiliated candidate may:
  - Designate two site-specific observers per voting place wherever the candidate is on the ballot.[4]
- The proponents and opponents for an alcoholic beverage election, as determined by the county board of elections, may appoint two observers to attend each voting place.[5]

2. Submission of Lists of Observers

The list of observers may be submitted electronically or in writing by noon on the business day before the observer is scheduled to observe as follows:

- Site-specific or county at-large observers shall be submitted to county elections director.
- State at-large observers shall be submitted to the Executive Director of the State Board of Elections, who will forward a copy to each county board of elections.

Before each voting place opens for voting, the county board shall provide a complete list of observers to the chief judge of each voting place.[6]

[3] As of January 1, 2024, the parties may appoint observers where the party "has a candidate appearing on the ballot." G.S. § 163-45.1(b)(1)–(3) (S.L. 2023-140, sec. 7(b)). For the purposes of the observer appointment statute, this~~This~~ means that in partisan primaries and elections, there must be an official party nominee on the ballot, identified on the ballot with the party. ~~This change in the law means that political parties are no longer entitled to appoint observers in nonpartisan elections.~~ And in nonpartisan primaries and elections, this means a political party may appoint observers only when a candidate on the ballot is registered as affiliated with that party.

[4] For the purposes of the observer appointment statute, an~~An~~ "unaffiliated candidate" is a candidate who has successfully petitioned to appear as "unaffiliated" on a general election ballot in a partisan contest. See G.S. §§ 163-122, -296. ~~The term does not include a candidate in a nonpartisan contest.~~And in nonpartisan primaries and elections, the term means a candidate on the ballot who is registered as unaffiliated with a party.

3. Identification of Observers

Observer shall check in with the chief judge when the observer arrives at the voting site. The chief judge must ensure that only authorized persons are present in the voting site, and must therefore ensure that individuals entering the voting site to observe are authorized to do so.[7] The chief judge should verify the identity of individuals appearing at the voting place to serve as an observer, which may include asking the observer to show photo ID. Observers are not required to sign the log of non-voters that is required by the new law (SB 747),[8] but the county board or chief judge may wish to maintain a separate log of observers and runners, to keep track of who has entered and exited the voting place.

County boards shall require every observer on duty to wear an identification tag or badge to make voters and election officials aware of the observer's role in the voting place.[9] County boards of elections shall prepare and provide a sufficient supply of tags for the observers that may be present at each voting site.

4. Presence of Observers

No more than three observers from the same political party shall be in the voting enclosure at any time.

Observers appointed to serve at a particular voting place may be relieved during the day after serving no less than four hours. That means that a new observer cannot take the place of a site-specific observer before that site-specific observer's four-hour shift has concluded (i.e., four hours after the observer first checked in at the voting place). Observers appointed to serve countywide or statewide may be relieved at any time throughout the day, including by a properly appointed site-specific observer.[10]

5. Challenges to Appointment of Observers

The county board of elections or chief judge of a voting place may challenge the appointment of an observer for "good cause, which shall include evidence that the observer could impact the conduct of the election."[11] For example, "good cause" may include one or more previous instances where the observer's conduct led to their removal from the voting site, factoring in how long ago this occurred. The county board or chief judge would need to provide documentation, witness accounts, or other records to substantiate their conclusion that the proposed observer could impact the conduct of the election.

The county board shall promptly decide the challenge, providing notice to the party that appointed the observer and an opportunity for that party to be heard in opposition to the challenge.[12]

No challenge is required if an observer does not meet the statutory qualifications for appointment—e.g., they appear on the ballot as a candidate or serve as an election official in the primary or election in which the observer is serving as an observer, or they are not a registered voter of the county (for county-appointed observers) or of the state (for state-appointed observers). The county board shall promptly inform the party that state law does not permit the observer to serve, and a replacement observer may be named by the deadline set forth in G.S. § 163-45.1(c).

6. Conduct of Observers

6.1 Permitted Conduct[13]

Under the observer statute, an observer is permitted to engage in the following activities, as long as the observer does not interfere with the privacy of any voter or the conduct of the election, or violate any other election law, whether state or federal:

- Take notes in the voting place, including using an electronic device to take notes.
    - This does not authorize video or audio recording in the voting place.[14]
- Listen to conversations between a voter and election official that take place in the voting place, provided the conversation is related to election administration.
    - However, to protect the privacy of the voter, an election official may not allow an observer to listen to a voter (1) discussing how they will vote their ballot (whether with an election official or an authorized voter assistant),[15] or (2) sharing personal information with an election official that the law makes confidential (e.g., birth date, Social Security number, driver's license number, confidential address for confidential voters).[16]

    - State law also requires county boards to provide a space in the voting place for "[p]rivate discussion with voters concerning irregular situations."[17] And an observer may not "interfere with the privacy of any voter" when listening to conversations between a voter and an election official.[18] To comply with these requirements, election officials should exercise their discretion to prevent observers from listening to conversations with voters concerning sensitive personal matters (e.g., discussions of impairments or disabilities, registration while applying for public assistance, domestic issues and restraining orders, etc.).
- Move about the voting place, including the designated area for curbside voting.
    - However, election officials must not allow observers to position themselves in a way that obstructs, intimidates, or interferes with a voter.[19] Voter interference is a state crime.[20] Voter intimidation is a state and federal crime, as explained in Section 6.3 below.
    - To protect the privacy of voters, a county board or chief judge may find it necessary to forbid observers from entering the voting booth section of a voting place. In many voting places, there is so little distance between the rows of voting booths that it is possible to see how a person is filling out their ballot from every location in the voting booth area. Under no circumstances should an observer be allowed to position themselves close enough to a voter in the act of voting such that the observer can see how the voter is filling out their ballot, including when the voter is feeding their ballot into the tabulator.[21]

    - To ensure that observers moving about the voting place do not interfere with the conduct of the election, election officials must ensure that unsupervised observers do not get close to tabulators, voted and unvoted ballots, pollbooks, or other sensitive voting materials which, if tampered with, could undermine the integrity of the election.[22]
- Leave and reenter the voting enclosure.
    - If a site-specific observer leaves and reenters the voting enclosure during their four-hour shift, that does not restart their shift for the purposes of when they may be replaced.
- Communicate via phone outside of the voting enclosure.
- Witness any opening and closing procedures at the voting place.
    - "Opening procedures" on the first day of early voting and on Election Day refer to the opening of the voting system, examination of the ballots for accuracy, and examination of the tabulation counters to ensure there is a zero balance.[23] Opening procedures on every other day of early voting include turning on the voting system and checking that the tabulator counters align with the end of voting for the previous day.
    - "Closing procedures" on Election Day refer to closing the polls on the tabulators, counting ballots (including curbside), and certifying and announcing results.[24] Closing procedures during early voting refer to turning off the tabulators, checking and noting the counters on the tabulators to compare with the next morning, and securing all ballots.

- Take photographs inside the voting place before voting begins and after voting has concluded (i.e., during "opening" and "closing" procedures), provided that the taking of photographs does not impair any election official in executing opening and closing procedures or compromise the security of ballots, election equipment, or election results.[25]
    - This does not authorize video or audio recording.[26]
    - As explained in Numbered Memo 2022-14, observers must always remain at a secure distance from the tabulator. A secure distance is at a minimum out of arm's reach. They may not take photographs of any security features of the voting system, including any passwords entered into the tabulator.[27] If a tabulator's zero tape contains a configuration report showing the Election Qualification Code (EQC), the configuration report portion of the zero tape may not be shown to observers or photographed since the EQC is a "security feature" of the voting system and therefore may not be disclosed until the election has been finally certified.

6.2 Prohibited Conduct

Prohibited conduct by observers must be addressed promptly by the chief judge. It is the chief judge's duty to "prevent and stop improper practices and attempts to obstruct, intimidate, or interfere with any person in registering or voting," and to "enforce peace and good order in and about the place of registration and voting."[28]

The observer statute forbids an observer from doing any of the following inside the voting place:[29]

- Look at, photograph, videotape, or otherwise record the image of any voter's marked ballot;

Other provisions of law forbid an observer from doing any of the following:

- Photograph, videotape, or otherwise record the image of any voter within the voting enclosure, except with the permission of both the voter and the chief judge;[30]
- Interfere with a voter at any point inside the voting enclosure;[31]
    - The chief judge should not allow observers to question voters in the voting place, which constitutes interference with voters and with the conduct of the election. It is the duty of sworn election officials to interact with voters and determine their qualifications to vote.[32] An observer who has grounds to believe a voter is ineligible may follow the process set forth in law to challenge that voter.[33] An observer's questioning of a voter could also constitute voter harassment or intimidation, both of which are illegal, as discussed below.
- Attempt to see how a voter voted or, if an observer somehow learns how a voter voted, revealing that information;[34]
- Retain a voter's signature, full or partial Social Security number, date of birth, the identity of the public agency at which the registrant registered, any email address submitted for the voter's registration, or driver's license number;[35]

6.3 What is Voter Intimidation?

Voter intimidation is conduct that would make the voter reasonably fearful, threatened, or coerced during the voting process.[47] It is a crime under state and federal law[48] and may take many forms. Voter intimidation can include both threats of violence or bodily harm as well as "threats of economic harm, legal action, dissemination of personal information, and surveillance," depending on the circumstances.[49] Voter intimidation includes an attempt to intimidate a voter that is not completed or is not successful.[50]

Whether an action constitutes voter intimidation depends on the circumstances.

In determining whether a person's conduct constitutes intimidation, the election official should ask themselves whether the specific circumstances confronting the voter would make the voter reasonably fearful, threatened, or coerced during the voting process, considering those circumstances from the voter's point of view.[51]

Some examples of acts at the polls that have been found to constitute voter intimidation include:

[47] The voting process covers all procedures in obtaining and casting a ballot, so it covers all voter activity at the voting place. See 52 U.S.C. § 10310(c)(1).

[48] State law makes it a crime to "intimidate or oppose any legally qualified voter on account of any vote such voter may cast or consider or intend to cast, or not to cast, or which that voter may have failed to cast." G.S. § 163-274(a)(7). Voter intimidation is also a prohibited under federal law: "No person, whether acting under color of law or otherwise, shall intimidate, threaten, or coerce, or attempt to intimidate, threaten, or coerce any person for voting or attempting to vote, or intimidate, threaten, or coerce, or attempt to intimidate, threaten, or coerce any person for urging or aiding any person to vote or attempt to vote, or intimidate, threaten, or coerce any person for exercising any powers or duties" under certain provisions of the Voting Rights Act. 52 U.S.C. § 10307(b). App. 545, 552, 471 S.E.2d 109, 114 (1996) (defining "intimidate" in the elections context as "to make timid or fearful: inspire or affect with fear: frighten"); N.C. Pattern Jury Instructions–Criminal 230.66 (using same definition for witness intimidation). See also Nat'l Coal. on Black Civic Participation v. Wohl, 498 F. Supp. 3d 457, 482–85 (S.D.N.Y. 2020), which explains that voter intimidation can involve placing a voter in fear of violent injury or many forms of nonviolent injury, and that the full context confronted by the voter is important to determining whether a particular behavior is reasonably intimidating to that voter.

- The presence of "ballot security forces";[52]
- Wearing or carrying items that create the appearance that the individual is performing an official government function such as public or private security uniforms, armbands with the title "National Ballot Security Taskforce," or carrying guns or badges;[53]
- Videoing or photographing voters during a part of the voting process;[54]
- Following minority voters around and recording their license plate numbers;[55]
- Filing baseless voter challenges of predominantly-minority individuals;[56]
- Cursing at or threatening someone based on a disagreement about whether a voter is eligible to vote the assigned ballot.[57]

The above list is not exhaustive and merely includes examples when voter intimidation has resulted in federal litigation. As discussed, whether something constitutes voter intimidation will depend on the specific circumstances.

This case dealt with a person intimidating an election official, but the behavior would also constitute voter intimidation if directed at the voter or if it occurred in the voter's presence and could make the voter reasonably fearful during the voting process.

7. Removal of Observers for Misconduct

In those hopefully rare occasions when an observer engages in misconduct, a chief judge has a duty to maintain order at the voting place,[58] which could include the removal of that observer, when warranted.

7.1 Grounds for Removal

The chief judge may remove an observer for:

- Engaging in conduct specifically prohibited by the observer statute, G.S. § 163-45.1, which includes the items in the first bulleted list in Section 6.2.
- "Good cause," which "shall include evidence that the observer could impact the conduct of the election."[59] Engaging in conduct that the law prohibits at the voting place—which includes all of the items listed in Section 6.2—may impact the conduct of the election. Additionally, conduct that is not clearly prohibited in Section 6.2, but which could nonetheless impact the conduct of the election, is also grounds for removal.

The chief judge would need to assess the situation and determine, in their best judgment, whether the conduct at issue "could impact the conduct of the election."

7.2 Procedure for Removal

If possible, the chief judge shall first issue a verbal or written warning to the observer.[60] It is preferable that the warning be in writing, so that there is documentation of the warning. The warning shall include the time and nature of the offense, and the chief judge must provide the observer a reasonable opportunity to correct the behavior.

If warranted by the seriousness of the situation, the chief judge has the authority to immediately remove an observer, without a warning.[61] The chief judge should exercise his or her best judgment in such situations and document the interaction on an incident form.

If the chief judge determines the observer should be removed, the law requires the chief judge to then immediately notify the director of the county board that the observer was removed. And the [61] The warning is required "if possible." G.S. § 163-45.1(j) (S.L. 2023-140, sec. 7(b)). The chief judge has a duty under the law to "enforce peace and good order" and to "stop improper practices and attempts to obstruct, intimidate, or interfere with any person." G.S. § 163-48. If misconduct is serious enough, it may not be possible to provide a warning and permit the observer to remain in the voting site.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

director must immediately notify the appointing authority so that a replacement observer can be appointed.

The grounds for the removal shall be recorded in an incident report, which details the observer conduct that resulted in the removal. The chief judge should ensure that any witness accounts are included in the report. Proper documentation of the grounds for removal is important because the decision to remove an observer may be appealed to the county board.[62]

If the observer refuses to leave after the chief judge has communicated that they are being removed, then the chief judge should exercise their authority under G.S. § 163-48 to call law enforcement.

7.3 Other Recourses

If warranted by the situation, the chief judge shall report an alleged violation of State or federal law to the appropriate authority and, in extreme cases, may "order the arrest of any person violating any provision of the election laws."[63] See Numbered Memo 2022-12 for information about maintaining order at the polls.

8. Duty to Maintain Order

The chief judge and judges have a statutory duty to maintain "peace and good order" at the voting place.[64] This includes the duty to:

- Keep "open and unobstructed" access to the voting place;
- "[P]revent and stop improper practices and attempts to obstruct, intimidate, or interfere with any person in registering or voting;" and
- "[P]revent riots, violence, tumult, or disorder."

The recent amendments to the observer statute do not diminish the chief judge and judges' duty to maintain order and prevent attempts to obstruct, intimidate, or interfere with any voter or election official at the voting place.

9. Obtaining Lists of Voters Who Voted

Observers are entitled to obtain a list of the individuals who have voted in the voting site so far on that day at certain times. This applies at early voting sites and on Election Day.[65]

The chair of a county political party may send a runner to obtain copies of the list of persons who have voted at each voting place during the times the voting place is open for voting. The chair of the county political party shall provide a written list of runners to be used in the same way as the process for appointing observers pursuant to G.S. § 163-45.1. The runner shall only enter the voting enclosure to announce the runner's presence and obtain a copy of the list of the persons who have voted that day. The runner must leave immediately after being provided a copy of the list.[66]

Observers and runners may obtain a list of the individuals who have voted at the voting site so far in that day at least at the following times: 10 a.m., 2 p.m. and 4 p.m. This includes during early voting days and on election day. Counties using authorization-to-vote (ATV) documents as opposed to traditional pollbooks may comply with the requirement by permitting each observer to inspect election records so that the observer may create a list of persons who have voted in the precinct.[67]

In providing access to these records, elections officials must ensure all registration records are kept secure and do not leave the voting enclosure for any purpose.

10. Frequently Asked Questions About Observers

1. A countywide observer arrives at the voting site at 8am and leaves at 9am, when they are replaced by a different countywide observer. Is this allowed?

Yes. There is no minimum amount of time a countywide or statewide observer may serve before being replaced.

2. When may a site-specific observer be replaced?

A site-specific observer, whether serving on Election Day or at an early voting site, may be replaced after serving for at least four hours. For example, if the observer arrives at 6:30 a.m., the observer may be replaced by another site-specific observer at 10:30 a.m. This assumes that there are two site-specific observers from that party serving. If there is only one site-specific observer serving, a second site-specific observer may arrive and serve at the same time.

3. An observer continually leaves and returns from the voting place. Is this allowed?

In general, yes. An observer is allowed to leave and reenter the voting enclosure. However, if the observer's activity interferes with the conduct of the election or otherwise constitutes prohibited conduct as defined in Section 6.2 of this memo, the observer is subject to removal after having been given appropriate warning.[68]

4. What should we do if an observer refuses to comply with the rules of conduct at the polls?

If possible, the chief judge must first give the observer a written or oral warning. It is preferable that the warning be in writing if possible so that there is documentation of the warning. The warning shall include the time and nature of the offense, and the chief judge must provide the observer a reasonable opportunity to correct the behavior.

If the observer does not correct their behavior and the chief judge determines the observer should be removed, the chief judge must immediately notify the director of the county board of elections. The director of the county board of elections must immediately notify the appointing authority so that a replacement observer can be appointed.

5. Are observers permitted to board a bus that contains curbside voters?

The county board of elections has no authority to authorize observers to board a private vehicle. Observers may observe the voting process from outside the vehicle provided they respect the privacy of the voter, including not standing so close that they may observe how the voter marks their ballot.

6. Where is an observer allowed to be in the voting place?

In general, observers are permitted to move around the voting place. However, as described in this memo, observers are not permitted to interfere with the privacy of any voter or the conduct of the election, or to violate any other election law. Observers may not stand so close to a voting booth or tabulator that they can see how a voter voted. Depending on the setup of a given voting place, there are certain areas that may be completely off-limits, such as when the voting place is small and all the voting booths are located closely together.

7. Are immediate family members of candidates allowed to be observers?

MEMORANDUM

To: County Board of Elections Chairs

From: Dallas H. Woodhouse, Elections Liaison
Office of the State Auditor, Government Affairs Division

Date: September 30, 2025

Subject: Executive Leadership Training Events for County Board of Elections Chairs

As part of our ongoing efforts to support you in your role, we will periodically offer Executive Leadership Training Events for our County Board of Elections Chair appointees. These sessions are designed to supplement—rather than replace—the excellent training already provided by Sam Hayes, Executive Director of the North Carolina State Board of Elections (NCSBE), and his team.

Our first event will take place Sunday, October 5, at 7:00 p.m. The series will be conducted online.

This inaugural session will be led by a bipartisan team of highly experienced county board of elections members, with participation from an NCSBE staff member. They will share first-hand insights and practical experience in the following areas:

- Absentee Review
- Tabulation
- Absentee Cure Review & Provisional Review
- Canvass

A significant portion of the session will be dedicated to your questions and answers.

A second training event will be held on Wednesday, October 15, at 5:00 p.m.

Wednesday, October 15 Teams Link: Join the meeting now

Meeting ID: [redacted]

Passcode: [redacted]

This follow-up session will provide an opportunity to address questions that may arise once the election process is underway in many counties.

We recognize that approximately 20% of North Carolina counties either do not have municipal elections this year or do not conduct absentee/early voting. However, we believe these events will be beneficial for future reference, and we encourage your participation.

In my new role as Elections Liaison for the State Auditor, I am available to assist with leadership training, general advice, and problem-solving. My goal is to help you find answers to your questions and support you in addressing challenges. In this capacity, I view myself as part of the elections customer service process—you, the State Auditor, and members of the State Board of Elections are my customers.

Please note that technical guidance on the application of law or adopted rules will continue to be provided by NCSBE staff and your county's Executive Director, as always.

Dear County Election Board Chairs,

Thank you to so many of you who have reached out after receiving Auditor Dave Boliek's note announcing my appointment as his liaison to the local and state boards of elections. I look forward to speaking with each of you in the coming days to hear your feedback and concerns about the vital role you hold.

As part of the State Auditor's office, my responsibility is to support your efforts to ensure election integrity while also encouraging maximum participation in our elections. While I am not new to the elections process, I am new to this role, and I greatly appreciate your assistance as I get up to speed.

My goal is to be a resource for you in a variety of areas, including the development of strong early voting plans, election policy, and proper oversight. It is also my job to pass along your suggestions and concerns to the State Auditor, Members of the State Board or other appropriate individuals as a service to you.

The best way to reach me is by phone at (919) 671-1050 or by email at dallas.woodhouse@ncauditor.gov. Please include this contact information in your meeting notices, and do not hesitate to alert me to any difficult issues that may arise. Simply put—I am here to help.

It is an honor to work alongside you and on behalf of the people of North Carolina to ensure fair, secure, and accessible elections.

§ 163-35.1. Termination of county director of elections; suspension.

(a) The county board of elections may, by petition signed by a majority of the board, recommend to the Executive Director of the State Board of Elections the termination of the employment of the county board's director of elections. The petition shall clearly state the reasons for termination. Upon receipt of the petition, the Executive Director shall forward a copy of the petition by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the county director of elections involved. The county director of elections may reply to the petition within 15 days of receipt thereof. Within 20 days of receipt of the county director of elections' reply or the expiration of the time period allowed for the filing of the reply, the State Executive Director shall render a decision as to the termination or retention of the county director of elections. The decision of the Executive Director of the State Board of Elections shall be final unless the decision is, within 20 days from the official date on which it was made, deferred by the State Board of Elections. If the State Board defers the decision, then the State Board shall make a final decision on the termination after giving the county director of elections an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and information to the State Board, and then notify the Executive Director of its decision in writing. Any one or more members of the State Board designated by the remaining members of the State Board may conduct the hearing and make a final determination on the termination. For the purposes of this section, the member(s) designated by the remaining members of the State Board shall possess the same authority conferred upon the chairman pursuant to G.S. 163-23. If the decision, rendered after the hearing, results in concurrence with the decision entered by the Executive Director, the decision becomes final. If the decision rendered after the hearing is contrary to that entered by the Executive Director, then the Executive Director shall, within 15 days from the written notification, enter an amended decision consistent with the results of the decision by the State Board or its designated member(s).

(b) Upon majority vote on the recommendation of the Executive Director, the State Board of Elections may initiate proceedings for the termination of a county director of elections for just cause. If the State Board votes to initiate proceedings for termination, the State Board shall state the reasons for the termination in writing and send a copy by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the county director of elections. The director has 15 days to reply in writing to the notice. The State Board of Elections shall also notify the chair of the county board of elections and the chair of the county board of commissioners that the State Board has initiated termination proceedings. The State Board shall make a final decision on the termination after giving the county director of elections an opportunity to be heard, present witnesses, and provide information to the State Board. Any one or more members of the State Board designated by the remaining members of the State Board may conduct the hearing and make a final decision. For the purposes of this section, the member(s) designated by the remaining members of the State Board shall possess the same authority conferred upon the chairman pursuant to G.S. 163-23.

(c) A county director of elections may be suspended, with pay, without warning for causes relating to personal conduct detrimental to service to the county or to the State Board of Elections, pending the giving of written reasons, in order to avoid the undue disruption of work or to protect the safety of persons or property or for other serious reasons. Any suspension may be initiated by the Executive Director but may not be for more than five days. Upon placing a county director of elections on suspension, the Executive Director shall, as soon as possible, reduce to writing the reasons for the suspension and forward copies to the county director of elections, the members of the county board of elections, the chair of the county board of commissioners, and the State Board of Elections. If no action for termination has been taken within five days, the county director of elections shall be fully reinstated.

(d) Termination of any county director of elections shall comply with this section.

(e) In the event the Executive Director is recused due to an actual or apparent conflict of interest from rendering a decision under this section, the chair and vice-chair of the State Board

JOHN LOWERY TO FILL VACANCY IN NC HOUSE DISTRICT 47

LUMBERTON, N.C. – On Tuesday evening, the Robeson County Republican Party Executive Committee voted unanimously to recommend John L. Lowery to fill the vacancy in North Carolina House District 47, created by the resignation of Representative Jarrod Lowery, effective October 7.

The selection was made in accordance with North Carolina General Statute § 163-11, which directs the Governor to appoint the person recommended by the political party of the departing legislator. The Governor has seven days from receipt of the certification to make the appointment official.

Numbered Memo 2021-03

TO: County Boards of Elections

FROM: Karen Brinson Bell, Executive Director[1]

RE: Absentee Container-Return Envelope Deficiencies

DATE: June 11, 2021 (updated September 25, 2023; January 19, 2024)[2]

The State Board is required to provide a cure process for voters whose absentee ballot envelopes contain certain deficiencies.[3] In general, the cure process for absentee-by-mail deficiencies is guided by G.S. § 163-230.1(e), as amended by Session Law 2023-140 (SB 747), and this numbered memo. The cure process for photo ID documentation containing deficiencies, when that documentation is submitted with an absentee ballot, is provided through G.S. § 163-230.1(e), as amended by Session Law 2023-140, an administrative rule adopted by the State Board[4], and is guided by this numbered memo. County boards of elections must ensure that the votes of all eligible voters are counted using the same standards, regardless of the county in which the voter resides.

The ballot container-return envelope (ballot envelope) and the accompanying photocopy of the voter's photo ID or completed Photo ID Exception Form (photo ID documentation) are transmitted to the county board in an outer return envelope. This numbered memo directs the procedure county boards must use to address deficiencies in the envelopes and photo ID

[1] This memo is issued under the authority delegated by the State Board to the executive director pursuant to G.S. § 163-22(p).

[2] This numbered memo replaces Numbered Memo 2020-19, which was first issued on August 21, 2020 and subsequently revised and reissued on September 22, 2020, and October 17, 2020. This numbered memo was updated on September 25, 2023, and again on January 19, 2024, to include processes related to photo ID requirements for absentee-by-mail voting.

[3] See G.S. § 163-230.1(e), revised by N.C. Session Law 2023-140 § 35, to provide a cure process for deficiencies associated with returned absentee-by-mail ballots. See also Democracy NC v. State Board of Elections, 476 F.Supp.3d 158 (M.D.N.C. Aug. 4, 2020) (explaining that due process requires such a cure opportunity).

documentation, to ensure that a voter is provided every opportunity to correct certain deficiencies, while also recognizing that processes must be manageable for county boards to timely complete required tasks.

No Signature Verification[5]

Verification of the voter's identity is completed through the witness requirement. The voter's signature on the envelope shall not be compared with the voter's signature in their registration record, on their request form, or on their photocopy of photo ID or Photo ID Exception Form submitted with their ballot, because this is not a requirement for the approval of an absentee ballot under North Carolina law.[6] County boards shall accept the voter's signature on the ballot envelope if it appears to be made by the voter, meaning the signature on the envelope appears to be the name of the voter and not some other person. Absent clear evidence to the contrary, the county board shall presume that the voter's signature is that of the voter, even if the signature is illegible. A voter may sign their signature or make their mark.

Types of Deficiencies

Trained county board staff shall review each return envelope, executed ballot envelope, and photo ID documentation the office receives to determine if there are any deficiencies. County board staff shall, to the extent possible, regularly review these absentee ballot materials on each business day, to ensure that voters have every opportunity to timely correct deficiencies.[7] Review for deficiencies occurs after intake. The initial review is conducted by staff to expedite processing of the envelopes in advance of a county board absentee meeting.[8]

[5] Session Law 2023-140 § 48 provides for a signature verification pilot program to be conducted during the 2024 primary election. As stated in Section 48.(c), however, "[i]n implementing the pilot program established in this section, no executed mail-in absentee ballot shall be rejected by the county board of elections for failing any signature verification. All executed mail-in absentee ballots that are otherwise eligible to be counted in accordance with Chapter 163 of the General Statutes shall be counted."

[6] See In re: Request for Declaratory Ruling on Signature Matching for Absentee Ballot Requests and Ballot Envelopes, N.C. State Bd. of Elections (July 22, 2022). See also Numbered Memo 2020-15, which explains that signature comparison is not permissible for absentee request forms.

[7] Specifically for ballot application deficiencies and photo ID documentation deficiencies, discussed below, G.S. § 163-230.1(e) requires that the county board "promptly notify the voter of the deficiency and the manner in which the voter may cure the deficiency."

[8] See Numbered Memo 2020-25 regarding preparatory steps for absentee meetings.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

There are three categories of deficiencies: 1) return deficiencies, 2) ballot application deficiencies, and 3) photo ID documentation deficiencies.

1. Return Deficiencies

Previously, a voter transmitted their absentee-by-mail ballot to the county board in a single ballot container-return envelope. However, with the implementation of photo ID requirements starting with the 2023 municipal elections, the ballot envelope is now transmitted to the county board in an outer return envelope to ensure the privacy of the accompanying photo ID documentation. As a result, there may be certain instances where the return of the absentee ballot requires the ballot to be spoiled and the absentee package reissued to the voter.

Deficiencies that Require the Ballot to Be Spoiled (Civilian)

- Ballot is inside the ballot envelope, which is not sealed or which appears to have been opened and re-sealed, and the ballot envelope is received in a return envelope which is not sealed or which appears to have been opened and re-sealed.[9]
- Ballot is inside the executed ballot envelope, which is not sealed, and someone other than the voter hand delivers the ballot envelope to an early voting site or the county board office, and the return envelope is also unsealed or there is no return envelope. Even if the person is authorized to return this ballot, they cannot seal the ballot without the voter being present. The voter must direct that the ballot be sealed "in the voter's presence."[10]
- The return or ballot envelope indicates the voter is requesting a replacement ballot.

If a county board identifies one of these deficiencies, county board staff shall spoil the returned ballot and reissue a ballot, as long as the new ballot is issued before Election Day, along with a notice explaining the county board office's action, in accordance with this numbered memo.

Anomalies that Are Not Deficiencies (Civilian)[11]

- Ballot is inside the executed ballot envelope, which is not sealed or which appears to have been opened and re-sealed, but the ballot envelope is received in a sealed return

[9] Ballots must be "sealed in the container-return envelope." G.S. § 163-230.1(d); see also G.S. § 163-231(a)(3).

[10] G.S. § 163-231(a)(3).

[11] With all ballot mistakes or anomalies, elections officials must be guided by the clear instruction in the federal Civil Rights Act of 1964 to not allow an error on ballot materials to lead to a ballot's rejection when that error is immaterial to determining a voter's eligibility to cast the ballot: "No person acting under color of law shall . . . deny the right of any individual to vote in any election because of an error or omission on any record or paper relating to any application, registration, or other act requisite to voting, if envelope. Immediately upon opening the return envelope and noticing this situation, staff should re-seal the return envelope with a notation of "sealed in return envelope." The county board should open the return envelope and address that ballot at its next absentee meeting.[12]

- Ballot is not inside the ballot envelope or has been placed inside the clear sleeve on the ballot envelope used for including the photo ID documentation, but the return envelope is sealed. Immediately upon opening the return envelope and noticing this situation, staff should re-seal the return envelope with a notation of "sealed in return envelope." The county board should open the return envelope and address that ballot at its next absentee meeting.[13]
- Ballot is received in a return envelope that is not sealed or appears to have been opened and re-sealed, but the ballot is inside the executed ballot envelope that is sealed. This situation does not require any special action to document the anomaly before presenting the ballot envelope to the county board.
- Ballot is inside the executed ballot envelope, which is not sealed, and the voter hand delivers the ballot envelope to an early voting site or the county board office. Before taking receipt of the envelope, staff should request that the voter first seal the ballot envelope.

In all of the above situations, the ballot was received in a sealed envelope and is therefore not deficient.[14]

A person hand-delivering the absentee ballot, whether it is the voter or someone authorized to return the voter's ballot, is not required to deliver the ballot envelope inside the return envelope for the absentee application to be approved. The return envelope is designed to protect the voter's confidential identifying information during mail transit. If the person hand-delivers only the sealed ballot envelope, staff should follow their usual storage practices and keep the ballot such error or omission is not material in determining whether such individual is qualified under State law to vote in such election." 52 U.S.C. § 10101(a)(2)(B).

[12] In this situation, for the purposes of staff's initial review of photo ID documentation pursuant to 08 NCAC 17 .0109(b), the ballot application is not "received" until the return envelope is opened at the absentee meeting.

envelope in a secure location, which may include placing the ballot envelope in a new return envelope for storage purposes.

2. Ballot Application Deficiencies

The ballot application is the form on the ballot envelope that is completed by the voter, their witnesses or notary, and assistant (if applicable).[15] Ballot application deficiencies fall into two main categories: those that can be cured with a cure certification (i.e., an attestation) by the voter, and those that cannot be cured. If a deficiency cannot be cured, the ballot must be spoiled and a new ballot must be issued, as long as the new ballot is issued before Election Day. See the Voter Notification Section below.

Deficiencies Curable with Cure Certification (Civilian and UOCAVA)

The following deficiencies can be cured by sending the voter a cure certification:

- Voter did not sign the Voter Certification.[16]
- Voter signed in the wrong place.[17]

The cure certification process applies to civilian and UOCAVA voters.

Deficiencies that Require the Ballot to Be Spoiled (Civilian)

The following deficiencies cannot be cured by certification, because the missing information comes from someone other than the voter:

- The name of the witness or assistant is not printed,[18] unless the witness's or assistant's signature is legible such that the name can be determined, in which case the ballot envelope is not deficient and the ballot shall not be spoiled for this reason.[19]
- A witness or assistant did not print their address.[20]

[15] G.S. § 163-229(b).

[16] G.S. § 163-230.1(e)(1).

[17] G.S. § 163-230.1(e)(2).

[18] G.S. § 163-230.1(e) provides that "The identification of the two persons witnessing the casting of the absentee ballot in accordance with G.S. 163-231(a) is not a curable deficiency." However, if the printed name is readable and on the correct line, even if it is written in cursive script, for example, it does not invalidate the ballot envelope.

[19] G.S. § 163-231(a)(5) ("Failure to include a printed witness name does not invalidate the application and certificate if the identity of an individual can solely be ascertained by the witness's signature.").

[20] Failure to list a witness's ZIP code does not invalidate the ballot envelope. G.S. § 163-231(a)(5). A witness's or assistant's address does not have to be a residential address; it may be a post office box or

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

- A witness or assistant did not sign.
- A witness or assistant signed on the wrong line. Where the witness or assistant signed in place of the voter's signature, that deficiency cannot be cured and requires the ballot to be spoiled. However, if all required information from the witness or assistant is present but not on the designated line for each (for example, the witness or assistant printed their name on the address line, printed their address on the name line, and signed), the ballot envelope is not deficient and the ballot shall not be spoiled for this reason.

Additionally, when a voter's witness is a notary, two errors in the notarial certificate will result in the ballot being spoiled: 1) the notary's signature is missing, or 2) the notarial seal is missing altogether or contains missing information. As discussed in Numbered Memo 2021-07, other technical errors with the notarial certificate will not affect the sufficiency, validity, or enforceability of the notarial certificate itself or the underlying document and are not considered deficiencies.

3. Photo ID Documentation Deficiencies

When a voter includes photo ID documentation with their absentee ballot envelope, there may be deficiencies in that documentation that require a cure notice to be sent to the voter. All deficiencies with a voter's photo ID documentation are curable, because the cure documentation comes from the voter. [21]

Photocopy of Photo ID Deficiencies

Deficiencies in a photocopy of a voter's photo ID include:

- The ID is not a type of ID that is acceptable for voting purposes under 08 NCAC 17 .0101(a)(1).
- The ID does not meet expiration requirements, if applicable.

other mailing address. Additionally, if the address is missing a city or state, but the county board of elections can determine the correct address, the failure to list that information does not invalidate the ballot envelope. For example, if a witness lists "Raleigh 27603," you can determine the state is NC, or if a witness lists "333 North Main Street, 27701," you can determine that the city/state is Durham, NC. If both the city and ZIP code are missing, staff will need to determine whether the correct address can be identified. If the correct address cannot be identified, the envelope shall be considered deficient and the ballot spoiled and a new ballot reissued. See Numbered Memo 2020-29 for additional information regarding address issues.

[21] G.S. § 163-230.1(e) ("Curable deficiencies are deficiencies that can be cured with supplemental documentation or attestation provided by the voter[.]").

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

- The photocopy is not readable, which means that the name on the ID cannot be read, the photograph on the ID does not depict a person (e.g., it only depicts a shadow or outline of a person), or both.
- The name on the ID is not the same as or substantially equivalent to the voter's name in their voter record.

Any difference between the voter's address on their ID and the address in their registration record is not a deficiency.

Deficiencies in a Photo ID Exception Form include:

- The voter did not print their name on the Form, unless the voter's signature on the Form appears to be made by the voter, meaning the signature on the Form appears to be the name of the voter and not some other person. The county board shall presume that the voter's signature is that of the voter, even if the signature is illegible, unless there is clear evidence to rebut this presumption.
- The voter did not check a box for at least one claimed exception from the photo ID requirements, or if the exception is a reasonable impediment, the voter failed to identify their specific reasonable impediment (including by writing their reason if they chose "Other"[22]).
- If the reasonable impediment chosen is that the voter is unable to make a photocopy of their ID to include with their ballot, the voter did not include their North Carolina driver's license number, DMV ID number, or last 4 digits of their social security number.[23] However, if the voter has additionally checked a box indicating another reasonable impediment that prevents them from including a copy of a photo ID, the Form cannot be found deficient for the missing identification number alone.

[22] If the voter writes a reason for "Other" but does not check the "Other" box, the Form is not deficient for that reason alone. Similarly, if the voter writes their North Carolina driver's license number, DMV ID number, or last 4 digits of their social security number but does not check the "I am unable to include a photocopy of my photo ID with this absentee ballot envelope" box, the Form is not deficient for that reason alone provided that the voter did check the first box indicating that they suffer from a reasonable impediment that prevents them from including a copy of photo ID.

[23] G.S. § 163-230.1(g)(2).

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

- The voter did not sign the Form.[24]

Additionally, a voter's failure to include any photo ID documentation—either a photocopy of their ID or an Exception Form—is a deficiency that may be cured.[25]

A voter may respond to a notification that their ballot is missing photo ID documentation by stating that it is in the ballot envelope. If this occurs, and staff have not otherwise identified any return or ballot application deficiencies that would require the ballot to be spoiled and reissued, staff must defer the review of the photo ID documentation to the next absentee board meeting, when the county board can review the application and, if approved, open the ballot envelope and confirm photo ID compliance.[26] If the board identifies a photo ID deficiency at that point, staff should be instructed to notify the voter of the opportunity to cure as explained further in this memo.

County Board Review of Photo ID Exception Forms for Falsity

Although a county board's finding that a Photo ID Exception Form is false will result in the absentee ballot being rejected, this is not a "deficiency" in the same sense as the ones listed above—where staff will take action to notify the voter to address a deficiency. Staff deficiency review of Photo ID Exception Forms is for completeness—not falsity.[27] A board's finding of falsity can only come after the board gives the voter notice and an opportunity to be heard on the matter. See Numbered Memo 2020-25, p 8 ("Review of Photo ID Exception Forms"). County boards shall follow the applicable administrative code provisions[28] and Numbered Memo 2023-03, pp. 11–13, when considering whether a Photo ID Exception Form is false.

[24] If a voter is unable to sign the Photo ID Exception Form due to a disability, the person of the voter's choice who is assisting them can sign the Form on the voter's behalf and must complete the assistant certification on the envelope. See Numbered Memo 2022-11, p. 3 (Court Order Regarding Assistance for Absentee Voters with Disabilities).

[25] G.S. § 163-230.1(e)(3).

[26] This does not prevent the voter from also choosing to send photo ID cure documentation to the county board while its review of the application is pending, and staff may encourage the voter to do so when time is of the essence.

[27] Of course, staff may flag an Exception Form for the board's review at a meeting if staff has specific information suggesting the form is false.

[28] See 08 NCAC 17 .0109(c).

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

4. Deficiencies that are first discovered at a board meeting

Some deficiencies will not be apparent until a board meeting and, when discovered, will require board action at that time. These deficiencies can include the following:

- There is no ballot in the ballot envelope. In this situation, although there is no ballot to spoil, the entire absentee package must be reissued to the voter so that the statutory requirements for voting and transmitting an absentee ballot can be met.
- There is more than one ballot in the ballot envelope. In this situation, both ballots will need to be spoiled and new absentee ballot packages issued to both voters, because it will not be possible to determine which of the two ballots were voted by the voter who completed the application.
- Two voters' ballots and ballot envelopes were switched, based on the county board's review of the CIV numbers (ballot identifying numbers). In this situation, the county board will need to consider the circumstances of the ballots and ballot envelopes together to decide whether to approve the ballots. If the two voters had their absentee ballots sent to the same address and there are no issues with the applications, then the county board should not spoil the ballots, because under those circumstances, each voter has properly attested to voting the ballot enclosed with their application. The ballot identifying numbers associated with the enclosed ballots are used for official tracking purposes, and voters in the same household should not have their ballots rejected for failing to ensure these numbers match between their ballots and applications, which is neither a requirement for approval of the ballot under state law nor material to determining a voter's eligibility to cast the ballot under federal law.[29] The board staff should make a note of the ballot number that now corresponds with the voter in the SEIMS record.

If the county board disapproves a ballot envelope by majority vote in a board meeting, it shall proceed according to the notification process in G.S. § 163-230.1(e) and as outlined below. If the county board disapproves a ballot for a reason based on the voter's photo ID documentation, it shall proceed according to the notification process in 08 NCAC 17 .0109 and as outlined below.

Voter Notification

Sending an Absentee Ballot Deficiency Notification or New Ballot

If there are any return deficiencies or ballot application deficiencies, the county board of elections shall mail a notice to the voter within one business day of identifying the deficiency to inform the voter there is an issue with their absentee ballot, enclosing an absentee ballot

[29] See 52 U.S.C. § 10101(a)(2)(B).

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

deficiency notification, which contains the cure certification, or a new ballot.[30] The written notice shall also include information on how to vote in-person during the early voting period and on Election Day. When the voter is issued a new ballot, they must include new photo ID documentation with their ballot when transmitting it back to the county board, because each absentee ballot envelope "returned to the county board . . . shall be accompanied by" a photocopy of the voter's photo ID or Photo ID Exception Form.[31]

The written notice shall be sent to the address to which the voter requested their ballot be sent. The outside of the envelope containing the new ballot or absentee ballot deficiency notification should be in an official envelope so that it indicates that it contains official election mail, unless it is not possible due to the use of a specialized USPS or commercial carrier service envelope.

If the deficiency can be cured and the voter provided their phone number or email address on the absentee ballot request form, then the county board shall additionally notify the voter of the curable deficiency by phone or email.[32] Like with the mail notice, this shall be done within one business day of identifying the deficiency, and the same information shall be provided as in the mail notice. If a voter did not provide their phone number or email address on the absentee ballot request form, then staff shall additionally notify the voter by phone or email if the voter has a phone number or email address contained in the voter's registration record. If both phone and email are available, notify the voter by email. If notifying the voter by email, the county board shall include the absentee ballot deficiency notification document that is also mailed to the voter. If the county board sends the notification by email and by mail, the county board should encourage the voter to only return one of the notifications with the certification.

If the deficiency cannot be cured, and the voter has an email address on file, the county board shall notify the voter by email that a new ballot has been issued by mail to the voter. If the voter did not provide an email address but did provide a phone number, the county board shall contact the voter by phone to inform the voter that the county board has issued a new ballot by mail.

A county board shall not reissue a ballot on or after Election Day. If there is a curable deficiency, the county board shall contact voters up until the day before county canvass.

[30] When there is a curable deficiency, G.S. § 163-230.1(e) specifically provides that the county board must "promptly notify the voter of the deficiency and the manner in which the voter may cure the deficiency." If a ballot must be spoiled and reissued, the same need to act promptly exists.

[31] G.S. § 163-230.1(f1).

[32] G.S. § 163-230.1(e).

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

If there is a photo ID documentation deficiency, the county board must mail notice to the voter within one business day of identifying the deficiency to inform the voter there is an issue with their absentee ballot, enclosing an absentee ballot deficiency notification that identifies the specific deficiencies with the photo ID documentation.[33] The notification must also inform the voter that the voter, the voter's verifiable legal guardian or near relative, or a person of the voter's choice if the voter needs assistance due to the voter's disability, may provide the photo ID cure documentation to the county board.[34] If the voter provided their phone number or email address on the absentee ballot request form, then the county board shall additionally notify the voter of the photo ID documentation deficiency by phone or email using the phone number or email address listed on the request form.[35] Like with the mail notice, this shall be done within one business day of identifying the deficiency, and the same information shall be provided as in the mail notice. If a voter did not provide their phone number or email address on the absentee ballot request form, then staff shall additionally notify the voter by phone or email, using any phone number or email address contained in the voter's registration record.[36] If both phone and email are available, notify the voter by email. If notifying the voter by email, the county board shall include the absentee ballot deficiency notification document that is also mailed to the voter.

The photo ID cure documentation can be either a new photocopy of the voter's photo ID or a new Absentee Photo ID Exception Form. A voter who submitted a deficient photocopy of their photo ID may also submit a Photo ID Exception Form for the first time. A voter may choose to do so, for example, because in this instance they may no longer be able to make a photocopy of their ID to include with their ballot. Likewise, a voter who submitted a deficient Photo ID Exception Form may also submit a photocopy of a photo ID for the first time. A voter may choose to do so, for example, because they may have obtained a photo ID, or the means to make a photocopy, since the time at which they transmitted their absentee ballot to the county board. Accordingly, when sending an absentee ballot deficiency notification for a photo ID documentation deficiency, the county board must include a blank Absentee Photo ID Exception Form.

[33] As explained above, all photo ID documentation deficiencies are curable, and when there is a curable deficiency, G.S. § 163-230.1(e) specifically provides that the county board must "promptly notify the voter of the deficiency and the manner in which the voter may cure the deficiency." ## Receipt of a Cure Certification or Photo ID Cure Documentation

The cure certification or photo ID cure documentation must be received by the county board of elections by 5 p.m. the day before county canvass.[37]

The cure documents may only be returned by the voter, the voter's near relative or legal guardian, a multipartisan assistance team (MAT), or a person of the voter's choice if the voter needs assistance due to the voter's disability.[38] A cure document returned by any other person is invalid.

The cure documents may be submitted to the county board office by email, by mail or commercial carrier, in person, or by fax.[39] When submitting cure documents by email, the voter may attach an image of their cure documentation (e.g., emailing a photo of their photo ID or executed Exception Form).The documents must be received by the deadline (not postmarked by the deadline).

If a voter appears in person at the county board office to cure their ballot, they may also be given, and can complete, a cure certification. Similarly, a voter may appear in person and [37] G.S. § 163-230.1(e) ("Any container-return envelope with a curable deficiency that is transmitted to the county board shall be considered timely if cure documentation is received no later than the end of business on the business day before the canvass conducted by the county board of elections held pursuant to G.S. 163-182.5.").

[38] Voters who require assistance in returning their ballot due to the voter's disability, can direct the person of their choice to return the ballot according to the voter's instruction (i.e., by mail or in person to the county board). See Numbered Memo 2022-11.

[39] Although G.S. 163-230.1(e) now provides that photo ID cure documentation "may be transmitted via e-mail to the county board of elections," this does not preclude the use of email to transmit a cure certification for ballot application deficiencies, because the statute is otherwise silent on the manner of transmittal and form of receipt of cure documentation for those deficiencies, and the statute's instruction to notify a voter of a curable deficiency by email indicates transmission of cure documentation by email is permissible.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

complete a Photo ID Exception Form to accompany the ballot envelope,[40] or request that staff make a photocopy of the voter's photo ID to accompany the ballot envelope.[41]

It is not permissible for a cure certification to be submitted through a portal or form created or maintained by a third party. A cure certification may not be submitted simultaneously with the ballot.

Any person who is permitted to assist a voter with their ballot may assist a voter in filling out the cure certification, making a photocopy of the voter's photo ID, or filling out the Photo ID Exception Form, but the certification and Photo ID Exception Form must be signed by the voter.[42] A wet ink signature is not required for cure documents, but the signature used must be unique to the individual. A typed signature is not acceptable, even if it is cursive or italics such as is commonly seen with an electronic signature program, such as DocuSign.

County Board Review of Cure Documentation

At each absentee board meeting, the county board of elections may consider deficient ballot return envelopes for which cure documentation has been returned, whether a cure certification or photo ID documentation. The county board shall consider together the executed absentee ballot envelope and the cure documentation. If the cure documentation was timely received, includes the required documentation or attestations, and was returned by an authorized person, the county board of elections shall approve the absentee ballot. See Numbered Memo 2020-25.

Data Entry in SEIMS

County board staff shall follow the instructions provided by the State Board in the most recent guide for the proper entry of data in SEIMS when processing absentee ballots and addressing deficiencies. Data shall be promptly entered as ballots are processed. This will ensure that the data maintained by the county boards and State Board follows uniform conventions and is up to date. This will help ensure the processing of absentee ballots is transparent to the public.

[40] The option to complete a Photo ID Exception Form in the county board office is only available for voters who are voting absentee-by-mail. Voters who vote in person at an early voting site or on Election Day must complete the Photo ID Exception Form at the voting site. See Numbered Memo 2023-03.

[41] See Numbered Memo 2020-23 regarding staff making photocopies of photo IDs for inclusion with an absentee ballot envelope.

[42] If a voter is physically unable to sign or make their mark on the Photo ID Exception Form due to disability, any person of that voter's choice can write in the signature line, "Disabled - cannot sign." See Numbered Memo 2022-11.

Process to recommend termination of County Board of Elections Director

(This is not a published process, it is an interpretation based on research)

Prepare reasons to justify recommendation of termination

For cause documents

- Detail exactly what the Director was told to do and didn't do
- Note any push back on directions
- Document violations in law, NM non compliance and Rules not followed
- Only list Facts

Contact the County Attorney, ask advise on how to proceed

(probably will be to have a closed session with attorney and all CBE Members)
If County Attorney suggest to go through the county process for termination, remind them this is under Chapter 163

Contact CBE members individually to set a date for a closed session to discuss a personnel matter

Notify the CBE Director that you need to set up a closed session to discuss a personnel matter

Give notice of a Board Meeting (the same method you would for a regular Board Mtg)

Agenda will be for a Closed Session 143-318.11(6)

At Closed Session meeting:

- Ensure someone is taking minutes
- The Director does not have to be in the closed session (only CBE Board needs to be in the meeting, but it is highly recommended that the County Attorney be there)
- Take lead from the County Attorney
- County Attorney may not offer any guidance, but best practice is for them to be there
- Document feedback from other CBE members to add to justification if needed
- It may be suggested to offer the Director a corrective action plan…you do not have to do that
- At this meeting you can take a vote to recommend termination
  {mixed opinions on whether the vote should be in closed session and/or open session
- If the Majority of the CBE Board votes to recommend termination, then proceed with a petition for recommendation to terminate the County Elections Director
- Return to Open Session and adjourn
  (differing opinions as to the need to announce closed session action in the open meeting)

After the petition is complete, have the CBE Board Members sign it, then email or mail the petition to the NC State Board of Elections Executive Director

The process once the SBOE Exec Director receives the petition are outlined in 163-35.1

Brian,

Please see attached. I pulled this from the Wayback Machine, and this is the Early Voting site list as it existed on our website as of October 1, 2024, which was just after the hurricane but before any hurricane-related changes would have been made to early voting plans.

I will caveat that we often make minor updates to these lists when we notice an error/emission/etc., but I am fairly confident that this should be the final list before hurricane changes were made.

Let me know if you have questions.

Thanks,

Pat

We are in agreement on this. My announcement will say exactly such and this is a good opportunity to tell board members that I am providing leadership guidance and simply opportunities to make people feel more comfortable in their roles. Technical guidance and legal interpretation should only come from the staff at the NCBOE, and their executive director.

All technical and legal advice will be delivered and received as they always should. So you and Gerry will offer some opening thoughts from your experiences and mostly just do Q and A. Other than a quick intro I will have little to say.

This is also a great model for the future.

So I will draft an announcement with links to the two sessions. This Sunday Oct 5th at 7 PM and Wednesday Oct 15 th at 5 PM.

Thanks for your assistance

Dallas,

This zoom could cover the actual Absentee Ballot meeting, which the BOE Chairs lead, experienced BOE members could share best tips for efficiently reviewing the absentee ballots.

In looking back at the topics suggested for the NC BOE Chair Workshops, they are organizational and process oriented. I believe we need to be mindful of not training or advising any county on the application of the law or NM as that is the NCSBE responsibility. If this Zoom is to focus on the State Guidance concerning which AB's should be accepted or denied, need a cure etc, this training or message should come from the NCSBE.

I am happy to be a participant in the BOE Chair sessions. I am not in a position to develop a training series or extensive content, I just do not have the time it would take to prepare properly. The Wake County Municipal elections are upon us and I have meetings and obligations as the Chair that take priority. Everyday I take calls from BOE Members across the state and I am happy to answer procedural questions or direct them to where the State guidance is or to where they can located the GS that governs their topic.

Wake County is the Gold Standard of election in NC, and I absolutely love it.

Each Workshop could focus on a couple of main topics that are coming up. If the Workshop is in December, next up will be, Early Voting Site Selection for the March 2026 Primary (some counties may have already done this) and Budget. If the below is too long for a 2-2.5 hours session, budget could be discussed briefly and not have detail.

Because of county size and resources counties do not conduct their business the same way, but all counties follow the same laws and should end up in the same place at the end of an election. The BOE Chair Workshops should be a place to share best practices and get the Chairs thinking about what will work for their county.

Do you have a list of requirements for an EV site?
Room size?
Electrical?
Parking?
Min number of curbside spots?
Traffic Flow?
Does you BOE have any maps?
If not, the director or staff should contact the County to see if they have any population maps
Identify voter density population
You will need to consider demographics
Do you offer Weekend voting in addition to the Statutory required last Saturday 8:00 - 3:00

Budget

Obtain a copy of the 2025 and 2026 BOE budget
Meet with BOE Director to get an understanding of your counties Budget process

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

(In some counties the Chairs speak with the commissioners in others the Director is the contact with the commissioners)

Director will draft a budget and present it to the Board

Board will discuss Budget to ensure there are sufficient funds to cover the needs for Fiscal Year 2027

(Possible areas to mention.. not in detail, but things for the Chairs to think about)

How many EV sites do you need for 2027 ?

The Director should be able to tell you how much an EV site cost

Do you need temp staff to help with the election (not Poll Officials)

Help prepare Absentee Ballots?

Help with L & A?

Assist at AB meetings?

Help with the Hand Eye ?

Are you all set with equipment, computers, printers?

Dear Mr. Lohrer,

Thank you for your time on the phone just now.

Quick recap: there is an understanding amongst our Board of Election members in Duplin county that it only takes one BOE member to say they want to accept a provisional ballot and it will be counted. I hope this is a misunderstanding that can be easily straightened out as we have a precinct that typically has a FLOOD of provisional ballots, including from out of county. One Democrat Board Member has apparently already declared she will reject no provisional ballot (meaning each and every provisional ballot submitted will be counted whether it is legit or not).

My humble suggestion: It seems reasonable to clearly give guidance that it would take a majority vote to ACCEPT a provisional, not a unanimous vote to reject a provisional ballot.

Also, the guidance to give provisional ballots imho is overbroad.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

This is pertinent and fails to clarify if it's a majority vote or unanimous to accept or reject:

Dear Mr. Woodhouse,

I am happy to hear that you are the new liaison. I previously served as New Hanover County BOE Secretary from 2015-2019 and was appointed Chair in July.

During the 6 years that I was off the board, a lot changed in New Hanover County. We have some issues, and I would like your guidance. Please let me know in the next few weeks when you are available for a phone call or Zoom.

Thanks,

Hi Dallas,

Thank you again for your willingness to travel to Wilmington on Wednesday. Please let me know what time you will arrive at my office in Leland. My understanding is the NCSBE is aware of the problems in New Hanover County that began 5 years ago. I feel it is important to the alarm that we are almost at a major crisis. We desperately need help in creating a solution to restore our reputation as a model county for the state. New Hanover County is so important to North Carolina for elections, and we have to fix it now. All of that is to say that this problem is a lot bigger than just 2 Republican board members who disagree.

I have emails to show you on Wednesday, and I will give you more context at our meeting. I think it would be more productive if I have the chance to talk to you first before you talk to Beverly. If you think the three of us should meet after I have the chance to talk to you, I am certainly willing to do what you think is best. If there is anything else I can do in preparation for Wednesday, please let me know. I very much appreciate your time.

RE: Termination of County Director of Elections Pursuant to N.C.G.S. 163-35.1

Director Hayes and Chief LiVecchi,

I write to inform you, pursuant to North Carolina General Statute 163-35.1, the Your County County Board of Elections, by and through the majority of the Board, recommends to the State Board of Elections, the termination of the employment of the Your County County Director of Elections-Directors Name.

JUSTIFICATION FOR TERMINATION

The majority of the Your County County Board of Elections herewith provides this recommendation for the following reasons:

LIST REASONS. BE PRECISE. EXTREMELY FACTUAL. DO NOT ADD OPINION, ONLY LIST WHAT YOU CAN PROVE. Examples of grounds might include:

- Failure to properly administer and oversee elections:

including operational errors or irregularities (e.g., violation of chain of custody protocol, serious procedural breakdowns).

- Demonstrated incompetence or negligence:
  in fulfilling statutory responsibilities (e.g., improperly trained staff, repeated errors in voter registration processing).

- Misconduct in office or violation of state or federal election laws:

- Any other valid grounds directly impacting the director's ability to perform required duties.

You can structure each reason in a numbered list or separate paragraph, supported by specific incidents or documentation where available and list the Statute, NM or Rule that was violated

Here's what's changed in New Hanover elections after the 2024 ballot counting confusion

Daniel Sheehan
Wilmington StarNews

Oct. 2, 2025, 5:01 a.m. ET

Key Points AI-assisted summary

- The New Hanover County Board of Elections' 2024 practices were found to conflict with state law.
- The board's director expressed a lack of confidence in conducting future elections after some funding requests were denied.
- The county approved funding for a new communications coordinator but denied requests for other software and staffing enhancements.

The New Hanover County Board of Elections could still face challenges during the 2025 municipal election after it was determined that the board's 2024 practices conflicted with state law.

Earlier this year, the Board of Elections hired a full-time staff member after concerns arose about the board's communication procedures during the 2024 election. Still, unfulfilled enhancement requests could impede the board's ability to operate at full capacity.

After the county's budget was passed in June, Director Rae Hunter Havens said she was not confident in the board's ability to accurately and securely conduct upcoming elections in compliance with deadlines and legal requirements, according to meeting minutes from June 18. Representatives from the board did not respond to questions about procedure changes since the 2024 election.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

The board requested funding for a variety of enhancements from the county during budget discussions over the summer, but not all were funded. The Board of Commissioners ultimately passed a budget that included $96,103 in funding for an Elections Education and Communications Coordinator. The position acts as a public relations liaison for the board and is responsible for developing marketing materials, managing digital communications, coordinating community outreach programs and conducting educational presentations about election services.

County staff initially recommended a budget that included $150,000 in additional staffing flexibility and $19,844 for election official management software. Commissioners for further cuts beyond the recommended budget to reach a property tax rate of 30.6 cents per $100 valuation. Commissioner Stephanie Walker was among the minority who supported supplying additional funding following the 2024 election.

“They clearly needed help in some way, shape or form,” Walker said at a meeting in March. “If this is what’s needed, let’s keep the faith in our voting systems.”

The Board of Elections will receive $2,122,990 million in funding for the 2025-2026 fiscal year, a 19.3% increase from the budget of the previous year.

What happened in 2024?

New Hanover County hired law firm Parker Poe to conduct a third-party review of the Board of Elections, which operates independently from the county. The review found that the board violated N.C. General Statute 163-234, which states that “absentee ballots received prior to Election Day shall be counted on Election Day." The board implemented an administrative cutoff on Oct. 31, leaving 1,950 absentee ballots uncounted on election night.

The deviation from the law did not affect election outcomes and there were not any legal penalties stemming from the deviation. The affected ballots were ultimately included in the official election results during the county canvass on Nov. 15, 2024.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

Parker Poe recommended several changes to elections procedures, communication and resource allocation. The firm recommended structured, real-time communication between the board and the county administration, the implementation of post-election audits, additional training and improved management software.

Despite spending $30,000 on the review, commissioners passed a budget that did not include the requested enhancements for software and additional staffing flexibility. During budget discussions, New Hanover County Board of Commissioners Chair Bill Rivenbark said that the 2025 municipal election would not require nearly as many resources as the November 2024 election.

The Board of Elections declined to participate in the review process. The review did not find anything that indicated earlier deadlines were established due to staffing issues, but Parker Poe was unable to determine the reason for establishing the deadline without the input of the board.
