RE: Freedom of Information Act Request NGC26-203

Dear Ms. Mayanja:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests to the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA), dated January 15, 2026, which we received in our office on the same date, via the foia@nara.gov inbox. We assigned your requests the above internal tracking number. In your request, you stated:

> All email communications (including emails, email attachments, complete email chains, calendar invitations, and calendar invitation attachments) sent by Acting Archivist Marco Rubio and containing both a key term from Column A and a key term from Column B. Key Terms:
> Column A a. PRA b. "Presidential Records" c. FOIA d. "Freedom of Information"
> Column B a. Trump b. DJT c. "first term" d. "1st term" e. "first presidency" f. "1st presidency" g. "first presidential" h. "1st presidential" i. 1.0 j. "executive privilege" k. 45
> To clarify, an email sent by Acting Archivist Marco Rubio that included both "PRA" and "Trump" would be responsive. An email sent by Mr. Rubio that included "PRA" but did not include any of the terms listed in Column B would not be responsive… Please provide all responsive records from November 1, 2025, through the date the search is conducted.

We conducted a search of NARA's email preservation system for all communications with the listed email domain, specified keywords, and over the requested time frame and have found no records responsive to your request.

This completes the processing of your FOIA request to us.

If you are not satisfied with our action on this request, you have the right to file an administrative appeal within ninety (90) calendar days from the date of this letter via regular U.S. mail or email. By filing an appeal, you preserve your rights under FOIA and give the agency a chance to review and reconsider your request and the agency's decision. If you submit your appeal in writing, please address it to the Deputy Archivist of the United States (ND), National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road, College Park, Maryland 20740. Both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal." If you submit your appeal by email please send it to FOIA@nara.gov, also addressed to the Deputy Archivist of the United
