We have been unable to locate any classified records related to your topic. The classified records in the Presidential collection are maintained and processed by the staff of the National Declassification Center (NDC) at the National Archives in College Park, MD. Using the information you provided, NDC staff conducted a thorough search of all our file lists, databases, and other finding aids. However, we did not locate the particular record(s) you described.

To be considered timely, your appeal must be postmarked or electronically submitted to the Deputy Archivist within 90 calendar days from the date of this letter.
